A bill for an act
relating to education; identifying a process for negotiating teacher employment contracts; amending Minnesota Statutes 2010, sections 179A.16, subdivision 1; 179A.18, subdivisions 1, 3; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 179A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 2010, sections 123B.05; 179A.18, subdivision 2.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 179A.16, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Nonessential employees. An exclusive representative or an employer of a unit of employees other than essential employees or teachers may request interest arbitration by providing written notice of the request to the other party and the commissioner. The written request for arbitration must specify the items to be submitted to arbitration and whether conventional, final-offer total-package, or final-offer item-by-item arbitration is contemplated by the request.

The items to be submitted to arbitration and the form of arbitration to be used are subject to mutual agreement. If an agreement to arbitrate is reached, it must be reduced to writing and a copy of the agreement filed with the commissioner. A failure to respond, or to reach agreement on the items or form of arbitration, within 15 days of receipt of the request to arbitrate constitutes a rejection of the request.

Sec. 2. [179A.175] TEACHER CONTRACTS.

Notwithstanding section 179A.16 and other law to the contrary, a school board and the exclusive representative of the teachers must meet and negotiate and enter into an employment contract only during the three-month period preceding September 1 when

2.2	certified written agreement by September 1 in the odd-numbered year, the negotiations
2.3	must be suspended until the next even-numbered calendar year and resume during the
2.4	three-month period preceding September 1 when school is again not in session. During
2.5	the time the negotiations are suspended, employee compensation must be according to
2.6	the terms of the collective bargaining agreement in effect in the preceding collective

2.8	even-numbered year, the school board must submit the matter to an arbitrator selected
2.9	by the Bureau of Mediation Services who must determine the matter based on a final
2.10	offer total package from each party.

- Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 179A.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read: 2.11
 - Subdivision 1. When authorized. Essential employees and teachers may not strike. Except as otherwise provided by subdivision 2 and section 179A.17, subdivision 2, other public employees may strike only under the following circumstances:
 - (1)(i) the collective bargaining agreement between their exclusive representative and their employer has expired or, if there is no agreement, impasse under section 179A.17, subdivision 2, has occurred; and
 - (ii) the exclusive representative and the employer have participated in mediation over a period of at least 45 days, provided that the mediation period established by section 179A.17, subdivision 2, governs negotiations under that section, and provided that for the purposes of this subclause the mediation period commences on the day following receipt by the commissioner of a request for mediation; or
 - (2) the employer violates section 179A.13, subdivision 2, clause (9); or
 - (3) in the case of state employees, (i) the Legislative Coordinating Commission has rejected a negotiated agreement or arbitration decision during a legislative interim; or (ii) the entire legislature rejects or fails to ratify a negotiated agreement or arbitration decision, which has been approved during a legislative interim by the Legislative Coordinating Commission, at a special legislative session called to consider it, or at its next regular legislative session, whichever occurs first.
 - Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 179A.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:
 - Subd. 3. Notice. In addition to the other requirements of this section, no employee may strike unless written notification of intent to strike is served on the employer and the commissioner by the exclusive representative at least ten days prior to the commencement of the strike. For all employees other than teachers, if more than 30 days have expired after service of a notification of intent to strike, no strike may commence until ten days after service of a new written notification. For teachers, no strike may commence more than 25 days after service of notification of intent to strike unless, before the end of the 25-day period, the exclusive representative and the employer agree that the period during which a strike may commence shall be extended for an additional period not to exceed five days. Teachers are limited to one notice of intent to strike for each contract negotiation period, provided, however, that a strike notice may be renewed for an additional ten days, the first five of which shall be a notice period during which no strike may occur, if the following conditions have been satisfied:

- (1) an original notice was provided pursuant to this section; and
- (2) a tentative agreement to resolve the dispute was reached during the original strike notice period; and
- (3) such tentative agreement was rejected by either party during or after the original strike notice period.

The first day of the renewed strike notice period shall commence on the day following the expiration of the previous strike notice period or the day following the rejection of the tentative agreement, whichever is later. Notification of intent to strike under subdivisions 1, clause (1); and 2, clause (1), may not be served until the collective bargaining agreement has expired, or if there is no agreement, on or after the date impasse under section 179A.17 has occurred.
