B. also describes an act or omission by a dealer, whether intentional or unintentional, when:

(1) the dealer uses a business practice that makes it likely that the act or omission will occur;

(2) the registrar has given written notice to the dealer within the past three years that the dealer license may be suspended or revoked if the business practice is not corrected;

(3) the dealer has failed to correct the business practice within a reasonable time after receiving the notice; and

(4) the dealer’s failure to correct the business practice is a significant factor in causing the act or omission.

Subp. 3. Suspension period and effect. A dealer license is not valid during a suspension. When a dealer license is suspended, the dealer shall immediately surrender the dealer license certificate, all dealer license plates, and all temporary vehicle permits. After a suspension period ends, the registrar shall return the dealer license certificate, dealer license plates, and temporary vehicle permits. The suspension period may be shortened if mitigating circumstances indicate that a shorter suspension period is appropriate. The suspension period must be at least three days.

B. The suspension period is 14 days, if there is one suspension under subpart 1 on the dealer’s record within the past five years. The suspension period may be shortened if mitigating circumstances indicate that a shorter suspension period is appropriate. The suspension period must be at least seven days.

The suspension period may be shortened if mitigating circumstances indicate that a shorter suspension period is appropriate. The suspension period must be at least 14 days.

D. When a suspension period is shortened based on mitigating circumstances, the registrar shall in writing identify the mitigating circumstances and give the reason for shortening the suspension period.

E. The suspension of a dealer license is on the record of the suspended dealer. The suspension of a dealer license is also on the record of another dealer if an owner, officer, or board member of the other dealer was an owner, officer, or board member of the suspended dealer at the time of the acts leading to the suspension.

F. When a suspension is imposed for a continuing violation, the suspension must last until the suspension period determined under items A to E expires or until the violation is corrected, whichever is later.

Completion of the title in the name of the seller is not required. The dealer shall complete the report and shall submit it to the registrar within 30 days of taking delivery of the vehicle. A dealer's obligation to report the vehicle is met if the title has previously been surrendered to an appropriate titling authority.

Subp. 2. Late model or high value vehicle. When a dealer buys a late model or high value vehicle to be dismantled or destroyed, the dealer shall report to the registrar and shall surrender the certificate of title to the registrar. A dealer's obligation to report the vehicle and surrender the title is met if the title has previously been surrendered to an appropriate titling authority.

A. This item applies to a dealer licensed as a used vehicle parts dealer or a scrap metal processor, but not licensed as any other type of dealer. Within ten days of taking delivery of the vehicle, the dealer shall either complete the report or have an authorization from the owner or insurer of the vehicle. The dealer shall submit the report and the title to the registrar within ten days of receiving the title.

B. This item applies to a dealer that is licensed as a new motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, vehicle salvage pool, motor vehicle lessor, motor vehicle wholesaler, or motor vehicle auctioneer. Within 48 hours of taking delivery of the vehicle, the dealer shall either complete the report as set out in subpart 3 or meet all the requirements of part 7400.5100 for holding a vehicle for resale.
