A. Minnesota Statutes, section 609.21, subdivision 1, clause (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6), or subdivision 3, clause (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6), for a period of ten years.

The length of the revocation period depends on the number of previous convictions for violations of current or former Minnesota Statutes, section 169.129 or 171.24, or a statute of another state in conformity with either of them, on the person's driving record during the three-year period preceding the date of the latest conviction. A. for a personal injury, the additional period of revocation must be 180 days;

B. for a fatality, the additional period of revocation must be one year.

Subp. 4. Notice served by commissioner. Notice of license revocation must be served by the commissioner when a person is subject to revocation under Minnesota Statutes, section 169A.52, and valid notice is not served by a peace officer; when a person is convicted of violating current or former Minnesota Statutes, section 169.121 or 169A.20, and notice is not served by a court; when an additional revocation period is imposed under current or former Minnesota Statutes, section 169.121, subdivision 4, or 169A.54, in the case of a personal injury or fatality; or when requirements imposed from a previous revocation have not been satisfied.

(8) if the person is subject to revocation under Minnesota Statutes, section 169A.52, information explaining:

(a) that an administrative review of the revocation order issued under Minnesota Statutes, section 169A.52, may be obtained by submitting a written request for an administrative review in accordance with part 7409.4600, subparts 1 to 4, and Minnesota Statutes, section 169A.53, subdivision 1; and

(b) that judicial review may be obtained by petitioning for judicial review within 30 days after receiving notice of revocation and otherwise in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 169A.53;

(9) if the person is subject to revocation under Minnesota Statutes, section 169A.52, a statement informing the person that failing to petition for a judicial review in compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 169A.53, subdivision 2, forfeits the person's right to a judicial review of a revocation order under that section.

A. Variances must be requested by the person to whom the treatment applies and be approved on an individual basis.

B. If the subject obtains an assessment from a chemical dependency treatment program that treatment is not needed and the subject has abstained for one year past the minimum abstinence time required in subpart 5, then the treatment required in subpart 2, item A, subitems (3) and (4), may be waived.

(1) The assessment must contain the date of the assessment.

(2) The assessment must have occurred since the date of the last use of a controlled substance or alcohol.

(3) The assessment must specify the date of the last use of a controlled substance or alcohol.

(4) The assessment must demonstrate consideration of all controlled substance or alcohol-related violations on the subject's driving record.

(5) The assessment must specify that treatment will not be beneficial to continued abstinence.

C. No variance to the requirement for treatment will be granted if the commissioner has sufficient cause to believe that the subject has ever provided false documentation or information to the commissioner relative to rehabilitation.

- A. the last reported date of use of alcohol or a controlled substance;
- B. the starting and ending dates of primary treatment or relapse treatment;
- C. the number of program hours for primary treatment or relapse treatment;
- D. verification of successful completion of all treatment, including primary treatment or relapse treatment and aftercare if required by the treatment program; and

If the prognosis is not favorable or if the person fails to complete an aftercare program recommended by the treating program, the commissioner shall reinstate the person's driver's license and driving privilege only following completion of an abstinence period of one year in addition to the abstinence periods prescribed in subpart 5.

Subp. 4. Abstinence documentation. Every person applying for reinstatement after rehabilitation must sign a statement acknowledging the person's awareness that abstinence from the use of alcohol and controlled substances is a condition of licensure.

A. The commissioner shall provide the format for the statement to the person applying for license reinstatement.

B. The statement must contain an acknowledgment as well as an advisory that the commissioner shall cancel and deny the driver's license and driving privilege of the person if the commissioner has sufficient cause to believe that the person has consumed alcohol or a controlled substance, whether or not the circumstances involve the operation of a motor vehicle.

C. The restriction to abstain from the consumption of alcohol and abuse of controlled substances must be placed on the person's driver's license and driving record.

D. To substantiate abstinence, the person must sign a statement, on a format provided by the commissioner, attesting to the date on which the person applying for license reinstatement last consumed alcohol or a controlled substance. This statement must be notarized or completed in the presence of an authorized representative of the commissioner.

E. The person applying for license reinstatement also must furnish to the commissioner at least five supporting statements, signed and dated within 30 days of submission, from persons:

Subp. 4a. [Repealed, 27 SR 707]

Subp. 5. Abstinence periods. Evidence of abstinence furnished by the person must substantiate a period of abstinence as provided in this chapter. Rehabilitation is not complete if the commissioner has sufficient cause to believe that the person has not abstained from the use of alcohol or a controlled substance for the period claimed.

The required period of documented abstinence is:

- A. for a person who has not previously undergone rehabilitation, one year;
- B. for a person who has once completed rehabilitation, three years; or
- C. for a person who has completed rehabilitation two or more times, six years.

If the person is incarcerated or lives in a controlled environment, such as a halfway house, the length of time the person is under these conditions counts as half-time towards completion of the abstinence periods required in items A to C. A minimum of six months must be spent in an uncontrolled environment immediately before submitting evidence to the commissioner showing compliance with all rehabilitation requirements.

Subp. 6. Failure to abstain following rehabilitation. The commissioner shall cancel and deny the driver's license and driving privilege of a person on sufficient cause to believe that the person has consumed alcohol or a controlled substance after the documented date of abstinence. The commissioner shall not reinstate the driver's license or driving privilege of a person until the rehabilitation requirements of this chapter have been completed. This subpart does not apply to the consumption of a controlled substance in accordance with a medical prescription.

Subp. 7. Rehabilitation interview. A person seeking reinstatement following rehabilitation shall appear in person for an interview at one of the department's driver evaluation offices to discuss the effectiveness of rehabilitation on the person's driving ability and problem of chemical abuse. The person shall schedule the interview in advance and must provide the commissioner with the written material required for rehabilitation under this chapter before the date on which the interview is scheduled.

Subp. 8. Fraudulent documentation. If a person submits fraudulent documentation of rehabilitation, the commissioner shall reinstate the person's driver's license and driving privilege only following completion of all rehabilitation requirements and a cancellation period of one year in addition to the abstinence periods prescribed in subpart 5. Fraudulent documentation of rehabilitation is the deliberate submission of information that is false or misleading and includes falsified attendance or treatment records, falsified records showing incorrect abstinence periods, or other altered and incorrect records or documents.

Subp. 9. Additional offense. If a person required to complete rehabilitation under subpart 1 has any additional alcohol or controlled-substance incidents before beginning or completing rehabilitation, the commissioner shall reinstate the person's driver's license and
