8920.2300 PETITION TO INTERVENE.

Subpart 1. Filed with board. This part applies only to an original proceeding before the board or a contested case proceeding before its assignment to the Office of Administrative Hearings. A person desiring to be made a party to a pending proceeding may petition for leave to intervene. The original petition, six copies, and the proof of service must be filed with the board before the case is assigned to the Office of Administrative Hearings. After assignment to the Office of Administrative Hearings, a petition to intervene should be filed pursuant to part 1400.6200. A petition to intervene may be filed after that time only for good cause shown.

The allegations must be reasonably pertinent to the issues involved in the principal pleadings, and must not unduly broaden the issues.

Subp. 3. Signature. A petition filed with the board must be signed and verified in the same way as a formal complaint.

Parties to a proceeding before the board may file answers to petitions to intervene with the board with proof of service on the petitioner in intervention before the hearing, or parties may answer on the record at the opening of the hearing if fewer than ten days have elapsed from the date of service on them of the petition to intervene. If ten days or more have elapsed, the board shall grant or deny the petition to intervene and state the reasons. If permission is granted, the petitioner to intervene becomes an intervenor and a party to the proceedings. Answers to petitions to intervene must admit or deny the interest of the petitioner in intervention. If the intervention is objected to by a party to the proceeding, the grounds for the objection must be stated in the answer. The answers must be verified. Failure to file an answer to a petition to intervene or to make oral objection to the petition is considered to be consent to the intervention. However, on considering the files and records of the proceeding, the board may grant or deny the petition to intervene regardless of whether answers to it have been filed or oral objections made.

If there are two or more intervenors with substantially like interests and positions, the board, to expedite the hearing, may set appropriate limits on the number of attorneys permitted to cross-examine and to make and argue motions and objections on behalf of the intervenors.

In proceedings before the board, amendments to petitions initiating a proceeding that do not enlarge the authority or relief sought or otherwise materially alter the petition, and amendments to notices of intent to protest and petitions to intervene, may be made without leave of the board before the day of the hearing. After the hearing begins, the petition, notices of intent to protest, or petitions to intervene may be amended only by order of the board for good cause shown upon motion.

8920.3100 HEARINGS.

Subpart 1. Referral to Office of Administrative Hearings. The board shall refer a proceeding to the Office of Administrative Hearings for contested case hearing under the procedures in parts 1400.5100 to 1400.8300:

A. when an issue of fact has been joined upon formal complaint by filing proof of service of answer or by failure of respondent to answer;

B. when a hearing is required by law; or

C. in every other case determined by the board to require a contested case hearing.

Subp. 2. Board determination. Unless a hearing is required by law, the board may determine a proceeding without a contested case hearing and without referring the proceeding to the Office of Administrative Hearings:

A. when the board determines that there are no material issues of fact to be determined and the pleadings raise only issues of law or policy that can be resolved through briefs;

B. when the parties, through their authorized representatives, waive any right to a contested case hearing;

C. when the parties stipulate, either in writing or oral entry in the record, to all material facts involved in the controversy; or

D. following an uncontested or unopposed proceeding.

Subp. 3. Waiver of right to testify. When competent motor carriers object to the grant of a petition but choose not to intervene as protestants within the established time frame, this choice operates to waive the right of these motor carriers to testify at a hearing before the board on the matter.

Subp. 4. Appearances of attorneys. Parties, except individuals appearing on their own behalf, must be represented by an attorney. Participants, as defined in part 8920.0100, subpart 6, need not be represented by an attorney. Persons holding specific authority to practice before the board in their areas of expertise since the effective date of part 7830.3000, subpart 1, may continue to do so within the express limits of that authority.

Subp. 6. Discretionary hearing on informal complaint. When it appears to the board, following any investigation that the board considers appropriate, that a person filing an informal complaint is entitled to relief, it may order a hearing upon the informal complaint. It may at any time order a hearing on any matter on the informal docket or on any other matter where a hearing is discretionary with the board.

Subp. 7. Hearing on formal complaint; other hearings. The board shall assign a time and place of hearing pursuant to part 8920.3500 (1) when issue has been joined upon formal complaint by service of answer or by failure of respondent to answer, and proof of the service or failure has been filed, (2) in every other contested case, and (3) in every case in which a hearing is required by law.

Subp. 8. Examination of witnesses, cross-examination, and rebuttal. Witnesses may be examined orally before the presiding officers or, when deemed appropriate, direct evidence may be taken by written statement prepared in advance of the hearing. In these cases, the author of the written statement will be made available for cross-examination. Every party to a contested case may cross-examine witnesses and submit rebuttal evidence.

Subp. 9. Exhibits. Unless the presiding officers direct otherwise, exhibits offered to the board at any hearing or conference in a contested case must be six in number with additional copies furnished to parties of record.

Subp. 10. Order of procedure. Unless otherwise directed, the following order of procedure applies to all hearings before the board:

A. At hearings on informal complaints, formal complaints, or petitions, the complainant or petitioner shall open the proof.

B. The presiding officers shall determine the subsequent order of procedure.

C. Intervening parties shall follow the party in whose behalf intervention is made; except that in all cases when the intervention is not in support of either original party, the presiding officers shall determine when the intervening party must be heard.

Subp. 11. Failure to appear. If a complainant or petitioner fails to appear at a hearing, the presiding officers, at their discretion, may:

A. dismiss the proceeding with or without prejudice;

B. continue the hearing; or

C. grant the relief requested on the basis of a verified complaint or petition and affidavits, if any, filed in the case, which must be considered as having been offered in evidence at the hearing by the complainant or petitioner who is absent. However, the presiding officers shall not grant the relief requested if any person appears at the hearing who qualifies as a party and objects to the relief being granted.

Subp. 12. Admission of evidence. In a contested case, the presiding officers may admit and give probative effect to evidence that possesses probative value commonly accepted by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their affairs. They shall give effect to rules of privilege recognized by law. They may exclude incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and repetitious evidence.

Subp. 13. Documentary evidence. In a contested case, documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts, or by incorporation by reference.

Subp. 14. Evidence must be offered. All evidence in a contested case, including records and documents in the possession of the board of which the presiding officers desire to avail themselves, must be offered and made a part of the record in the case. No other factual information or evidence may be considered in the determination of the case.

Subp. 15. Official notice. In a contested case, the presiding officers may take notice of judicially cognizable facts. They may take notice of general, technical, or scientific facts within their specialized knowledge. Parties must be notified in writing either before or during hearing, by reference in preliminary reports or otherwise, or by oral statement in the record, of the material so noticed. The parties must be afforded opportunity to contest the facts so noticed.

Subp. 16. Record of proceeding. A written transcript of testimony before the Office of Administrative Hearings may be required if:

A. exceptions to findings of fact in a recommended decision are taken under part 8920.3700; or

B. if a hearing is scheduled to last more than one day.

8920.3200 CONFERENCE RECOMMENDED BY PRESIDING OFFICER.

The presiding officers, with or without motion, may direct that a conference be held and direct the parties to the proceeding, their attorneys, and the staff of the Department of Transportation to appear to consider any or all of the matters enumerated in part 8920.3600, subpart 2. Due notice of the time and place of the conference will be given to all parties to the proceeding, their attorneys, and the staff of the Department of Transportation. All parties shall come to the conference fully prepared for a useful discussion of all problems involved in the proceeding, both procedural and substantive, and fully authorized to make commitments with respect to those problems. Preparation should include, among other things, advance study of all relevant material and advance informal communication between the parties, including requests for additional data and information, to the extent it appears feasible and desirable. Failure of a party to attend the conference, without prior notification to the presiding officer and for good cause, after being served with due notice of the time and place, constitutes a waiver of all objections to any order or ruling with respect thereto, but must not otherwise prejudice an absent party's position as to the issues in the proceeding. The presiding officers at the conference may dispose of by ruling, irrespective of the consent of the parties, any procedural matters which they are authorized to rule upon during the course of the proceeding. All rulings made at the prehearing conference are binding on all parties to the proceedings. These rulings may be subsequently modified for good cause shown.

Nothing contained in part 8920.3600 and this part may be construed as precluding any party to a proceeding from submitting at any time offers of settlement or proposals of adjustment to all parties and to the staff of the Department of Transportation, or from requesting conferences for that purpose. The presiding officers have the same powers at settlement conferences as those enumerated for prehearing conferences.

Witnesses who are subpoenaed are entitled to the same fees as are paid for like service in the district courts of Minnesota. These fees must be paid by the party at whose instance the testimony is taken.
