A. Securities held, to the knowledge of the insurer, subject to a voting trust, deposit agreement, or similar arrangement shall be included as held of record by the record holders of the voting trust certificates, certificates of deposit, receipts, or similar evidences of interest in such securities; provided, however, that the insurer may rely in good faith on such information as is received in response to its request from a nonaffiliated insurer of the certificates or evidences of interest.

B. If the insurer knows or has reason to know that the form of holding securities of record is used primarily to circumvent the provisions of the act, the beneficial owners of such securities shall be deemed to be the record owners thereof.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60A.22 subd 5

Subpart 1. Forms A and B. Initial statements of beneficial ownership of equity securities required by clause (1) of the act shall be filed on the form specified in form A, part 2715.6401. Subp. 3. Termination. Any person who has ceased to be a director or officer of an insurer that has equity securities with respect to which the act applies, or who is a director or officer of an insurer at the time it ceases to have any equity securities with respect to which the act applies, shall file a statement on form B with respect to any change in his beneficial ownership of equity securities of such insurer that shall occur on or after the date on which he ceased to be such director or officer or the date on which the insurer ceased to have any equity securities with respect to which the act applies, as the case may be, if such change shall occur within six months after any change in his beneficial ownership of such securities prior to such date. Subpart 1. Class of security. In determining, for the purpose of clause (1) of the act, whether a person is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than ten percent of any class of any equity security, such class shall be deemed to consist of the total amount of such class outstanding, exclusive of any securities of such class held by or for the account of the insurer or a subsidiary of the insurer; except that for the purpose of determining percentage ownership of voting trust certificates or certificates of deposit for equity securities, the class of voting trust certificates or certificates of deposit shall be deemed to consist of the amount of voting trust certificates or certificates of deposit issuable with respect to the total amount of outstanding equity securities of the class which may be deposited under the voting trust agreement or deposit agreement in question, whether or not all of such outstanding securities have been so deposited. For the purpose of this part a person acting in good faith may rely on the information contained in the latest convention form statement filed with the commissioner with respect to the amount of securities of a class outstanding or in the case of voting trust certificates or certificates of deposit the amount thereof issuable.

Subp. 2. Ownership. In determining for the purpose of clause (1) of the act whether a person is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than ten percent of any class of equity securities, such person shall be deemed to be the beneficial owner of securities of such class that such person has the right to acquire through the exercise of presently exercisable options, warrants, or rights, or through the conversion of presently convertible securities. The securities subject to such options, warrants, rights, or conversion privileges held by a person shall be deemed to be outstanding for the purpose of computing, in accordance with subpart 1, the percentage of outstanding securities of the class owned by such person but shall not be deemed outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage of the class owned by any other person. This subpart shall not be construed to relieve any person of any duty to comply with clause (1) of the act with respect to any equity securities consisting of options, warrants, rights, or convertible securities that are otherwise subject as a class to that clause of the act.

A. The granting, acquisition, or disposition of any presently exercisable put, call, option, or other right or obligation to buy securities from, or sell securities to, another person, or any expiration or cancellation thereof, shall be deemed to effect such a change in the beneficial ownership of the securities to which the right or obligation relates as to require the filing of a statement pursuant to clause (1) of the act reflecting such change in beneficial ownership.

B. If any such right or obligation is not initially exercisable, the granting and acquisition thereof shall be reported in a statement filed for the month in which it became exercisable, unless the filing of such statement is otherwise not required.

C. The right of a pledgee or borrower of securities to sell the pledged or borrowed securities is not an option or right to sell securities within the meaning of this subpart. However, the sale of the pledged or borrowed securities by the pledgee or borrower shall be reported by the pledgor or lender.

D. The right to acquire securities, or the obligation to dispose of securities, in connection with a merger or consolidation involving the insurer issuing the securities is not a right or obligation to buy or sell securities within the meaning of this subpart.

Subp. 2. Beneficial owners. For the purpose of clause (1) of the act, both the grantor and the holder of any presently exercisable put, call, option, or other right or obligation to buy or sell securities shall be deemed to be beneficial owners of the securities subject to such right or obligation until it is exercised or canceled or expires.

Subp. 3. Exclusions and exemptions. Notwithstanding, a statement need not be filed pursuant to clause (1) of the act by:

B. any insurer with respect to any put, call, option, or other right or obligation to buy or sell securities of which it is the issuer.

An option, otherwise nontransferable, is deemed to be nontransferable even though it may be disposed of by will or by descent and distribution upon the death of the holder.

Nothing in this part shall be deemed to exempt any person from the duty to file the statements required upon the exercise of any put, call, option, or other right or obligation to buy or sell securities.

C. the ownership of securities as a settlor of a trust in which the settlor has the power to revoke the trust without obtaining the consent of all the beneficiaries.

Subp. 2. Less than 20 percent. Except as provided in subpart 3, beneficial ownership of securities solely as a settlor or beneficiary of a trust shall be exempt from the provisions of clause (1) of the act where less than 20 percent in market value of the securities having a readily ascertainable market value held by such trust, determined as of the end of the preceding fiscal year of the trust, consists of equity securities with respect to which reports would otherwise be required. Exemption is likewise accorded from clause (1) of the act with respect to any obligation that would otherwise be imposed solely by reason of ownership as settlor or beneficiary of securities held in trust, where the ownership, acquisition, or disposition of such securities by the trust is made without prior approval by the settlor or beneficiary. No exemption pursuant to this subpart shall, however, be acquired or lost solely as a result of changes in the value of the trust assets during any fiscal year or during any time when there is no transaction by the trust in the securities otherwise subject to the reporting requirements of clause (1) of the act.

Subp. 3. Ten percent. In the event that ten percent of any class of any equity security (other than an exempted security) of an insurer subject to the act is held in a trust, that trust and the trustees thereof as such shall be deemed a person required to file the reports specified in clause (1) of the act.

Subp. 4. Reports. Not more than one report need be filed to report any holdings or with respect to any transactions in securities held by a trust, regardless of the number of officers, directors, or ten percent stockholders who are either trustees, settlors, or beneficiaries of a trust, provided that the report filed shall disclose the names of all trustees, settlors, and beneficiaries who are officers, directors, or ten percent stockholders. A person having an interest only as a beneficiary of a trust shall not be required to file any such report so long as he relies in good faith upon an understanding that the trustee of such trust will file whatever reports might otherwise be required of such beneficiary.

Subp. 5. Immediate family. As used in this rule, the "immediate family" of a trustee means:

A. a son or daughter of the trustee, or a descendant of either;

B. C. The commissioner also hereby exempts, as not comprehended within the purposes of clause (2) of the act, the disposition of a security, purchased in a transaction specified in item A, pursuant to a plan or agreement for merger or consolidation, or reclassification of the insurer's securities, or for the exchange of its securities for the securities of another person that has acquired its assets, or which is in control, as defined in section 368(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, of a person that has acquired its assets, where the terms of such plan or agreement are binding upon all stockholders of the insurer, except to the extent that dissenting stockholders may be entitled, under statutory provisions or provisions contained in the certificate of incorporation, to receive the appraised or fair value of their holdings.

2715.6200 CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS EFFECTED IN CONNECTION WITH A DISTRIBUTION.

Any security shall be exempt from the operation of clause (3) of the act to the extent necessary to render lawful under such clause any sale made by or on behalf of a dealer in connection with a distribution of a substantial block of securities, upon the following conditions:

A. the sale is represented by an over-allotment in which the dealer is participating as a member of an underwriting group, or the dealer or a person acting on his behalf intends in good faith to offset such sale with a security to be acquired by or on behalf of the dealer as a participant in an underwriting, selling, or soliciting-dealer group of which the dealer is a member at the time of the sale, whether or not the security to be so acquired is subject to a prior offering to existing security holders or some other class of persons; and

2715.6300 SALES OF SECURITIES TO BE ACQUIRED.

Whenever any person is entitled, as an incident to his ownership of an issued security and without the payment of consideration, to receive another security "when issued" or "when distributed," the security to be acquired shall be exempt from the operation of clause (3) of the act, provided that:

This part shall not be construed as exempting transactions involving both a sale of a security "when issued" or "when distributed" and a sale of the security by virtue of which the seller expects to receive the "when issued" or "when distributed" security, if the two transactions combined result in a sale of more units than the aggregate of those owned by the seller plus those to be received by him pursuant to his right of acquisition.

Subpart 1. Persons required to file statements. A statement on this form is required to be filed by every person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than ten percent of any class of any equity security of a Minnesota domestic stock insurance company, including a domestic stock and mutual insurance company as defined in Minnesota Statutes, sections 61A.33 to 61A.38 (but not including a company if any equity security thereof is registered, or required to be registered, pursuant to section 12 of the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or if the company does not have equity securities held of record by 100 or more persons on the last day of the year next preceding the year in which this statement would otherwise be required to be filed), or who is a director or an officer of such company. The term "officer" means a president, vice president, treasurer, actuary, secretary, controller, and any other person who performs for the insurer functions corresponding to those performed by the foregoing officers. A separate statement shall be filed with respect to the equity securities of each insurer.

Subp. 2. When statements to be filed. Persons who hold any of the relationships specified in subpart 1 are required to file a statement on this form within ten days after assuming such relationship.

Subp. 3. Where statements to be filed. One signed copy of each statement shall be filed with the Commissioner of Commerce, State of Minnesota, Metro Square Building, Saint Paul, Minnesota 55101.

Subp. 4. Relationship of reporting person to insurer. Indicate clearly the relationship of the reporting person to the insurer; for example, "director," "director and vice president," "beneficial owner of more than ten percent of the insurer's common stock."

Subp. 5. Title of security. Clearly identify the equity security, even though there is only one class; for example, "common stock," "class A common stock," "four percent convertible preferred stock." Persons required to file the statement with respect to any class of equity security of the insurer shall include information as to their beneficial ownership of all classes of equity securities of the insurer.

Subp. 6. Nature of ownership. Under "nature of ownership" state whether ownership of the equity securities is "direct" or "indirect." If the ownership is indirect, i.e., through a partnership, corporation, trust, or other entity, indicate in a footnote or other appropriate manner the name or identity of the medium through which the stock is indirectly owned. The fact that securities are held in the name of a broker or other nominee does not, of itself, constitute indirect ownership. Equity securities owned indirectly shall be reported on separate lines from those owned directly and also from those owned through a different type of indirect ownership.

Subp. 7. Amount beneficially owned. In the case of equity securities owned indirectly, the entire amount of equity securities owned by the partnership, corporation, trust, or other entity shall be stated. If desired, the person filing the statement may also indicate in a footnote or other appropriate manner the extent of his interest in the partnership corporation, trust, or other entity. If desired, the person filing the statement may declare that the filing of the statement shall not be construed as an admission that such person is, for the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 60A.22, the beneficial owner of any equity securities covered by the statement.

Subp. 8. Inclusion of additional information. A statement may include any additional information or explanation deemed relevant by the person filing the statement.

2715.6404 INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM B.

Subpart 1. Persons required to file statements. A statement on this form is required to be filed by every person who at any time during any calendar month was directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than ten percent of any class of any equity security of a Minnesota domestic stock insurance company, including a domestic stock and mutual insurance company as defined in Minnesota Statutes, sections 61A.33 to 61A.38 (but not including a company if any equity security thereof is registered, or required to be registered, pursuant to section 12 of the federal Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or if the company does not have equity securities held of record by 100 or more persons on the last day of the year next preceding the year in which this statement would otherwise be required to be filed), or who was a director or an officer of such company, and who during such month had any change in the nature or amount of his beneficial ownership of any class of equity securities of such company. The term "officer" means a president, vice president, treasurer, actuary, secretary, controller, and any other person who performs for the insurer functions corresponding to those performed by the foregoing officers. A separate statement shall be filed with respect to the equity securities of each insurer.

Subp. 2. When statements to be filed. Statements are required to be filed on or before the tenth day after the end of each calendar month in which any change in the nature or amount of beneficial ownership has occurred.

Subp. 3. Where statements to be filed. One signed copy of each statement shall be filed with the Commissioner of Commerce, Metro Square Building, Saint Paul, Minnesota 55101.

Subp. 4. Relationship of reporting person to insurer. Indicate clearly the relationship of the reporting person to the insurer; for example, "director," "director and vice president," "beneficial owner of more than ten percent of the insurer's common stock."

Subp. 5. Transactions and holdings to be reported. Every change in beneficial ownership shall be reported even though purchases and sales during the month are equal or the change involves only the nature of beneficial ownership (for example, from direct to indirect ownership or from one type of indirect ownership to another). Persons required to file the statement with respect to any class of equity security of the insurer shall include information as to changes in their beneficial ownership of all classes of equity securities of the insurer and shall show their beneficial ownership at the end of the month of all classes of equity securities of the insurer even though there has been no reportable change during the month in the ownership of equity securities of a particular class.

Subp. 6. Title of security. Clearly identify the equity security, even though there is only one class; for example, "common stock," "class A common stock," "four percent convertible preferred stock."

Subp. 7. Date of transaction. The exact date (month, date, and year) of each transaction shall be stated opposite the amount involved in the transaction.

Subp. 8. Amounts of equity securities. In the case of equity securities owned indirectly, the entire amount of equity securities owned by the partnership, corporation, trust, or other entity shall be stated. If desired, the person filing the statement may also indicate in a footnote or other appropriate manner the extent of his interest in the partnership, corporation, trust, or other entity. If desired, the person filing the statement may declare that the filing of the statement shall not be construed as an admission that such person is, for the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 60A.22, the beneficial owner of any equity securities covered by the statement.

Subp. 9. Nature of ownership. Under "nature of ownership" state whether ownership of the equity securities is "direct" or "indirect." If the ownership is indirect, i.e., through a partnership, corporation, trust, or other entity, indicate in a footnote or other appropriate manner the name or identity of the medium through which the stock is indirectly owned. The fact that securities are held in the name of a broker or other nominee does not, of itself, constitute indirect ownership. Equity securities owned indirect shall be reported on separate lines from those owned directly and also from those owned through a different type of indirect ownership.

Subp. 10. Character of transaction. If the transaction in equity securities was with the insurer or one of its subsidiaries, so state. If it involved the purchase of equity securities through the exercise of options, so state. If any other purchase or sale was effected otherwise than in the open market, that fact shall be indicated. If the transaction was not a purchase or sale, indicate its character; for example, gift or stock dividend, etc., as the case may be. The foregoing information may be appropriately set forth in the table or under remarks below the table.

Subp. 11. Inclusion of additional information. A statement may include any additional information or explanation deemed relevant by the person filing the statement.

Subp. 12. Signature. If the statement is filed for a corporation, partnership, trust, etc., the name of the organization shall appear over the signature of the officer or other person authorized to sign the statement. If the statement is filed for an individual, it shall be signed by him or specifically on his behalf by a person authorized to sign for him.

Subp. 2. Annual report. If the solicitation is made on behalf of the issuer and relates to an annual meeting of security holders at which directors are to be elected, each proxy statement furnished pursuant to subpart 1 shall be accompanied or preceded by an annual report to security holders. The report shall comply with the requirements of items A to G.

A. The report shall contain in comparative columnar form such financial statements for the last two fiscal years, prepared on a consistent basis, as will in the opinion of the management adequately reflect the financial position of the issuer at the end of each year and the results of its operations for each year. Consolidated financial statements of the issuer and its subsidiaries shall be included in the report if they are necessary to reflect the financial position and results of operations of the issuer and its subsidiaries, but in that case the individual statements of the issuer may be omitted. E. The report shall identify each of the issuer's directors and officers and shall indicate the principal occupation or employment of each of them and the name and principal business of any organization by which they are employed.

F. The report shall identify the principal market in which securities of any class entitled to vote at the meeting are traded, stating the range of bid and asked quotations for each quarterly period during the issuer's two most recent fiscal years, and shall set forth each dividend paid during the two-year period.

G. Subject to the requirements of items A to F, the report may be in any form deemed suitable by management and the information required by items C to F may be presented in an appendix or other separate section of the report if the attention of security holders is called to this presentation. The requirement of this subpart shall not apply to solicitations made on behalf of the management before the financial statements are available if solicitation is being made at the time in opposition to the management and if the management's proxy statement includes an undertaking in bold face type to furnish the annual report to all persons being solicited at least 20 days before the date of the meeting.

The issuer shall supply the record holder in a timely manner with additional copies in the quantities, assembled in the form and at the place, the record holder reasonably requests in order to address and send one copy of each to each beneficial owner of securities so held. The issuer shall pay, upon the request of the record holder, its reasonable expenses for mailing the material to security holders to whom the material is sent.

Subp. 2. Ballots. Means shall be provided in the proxy for the person solicited to specify by ballot a choice between approval or disapproval of, or abstention with respect to, each matter or group of related matters referred to in it, other than elections to office. A proxy may confer discretionary authority with respect to matters as to which a choice is not specified if the form of proxy states in boldface type how it is intended to vote the shares represented by the proxy in each case.

Subp. 3. Authority to vote in elections. A form of proxy which provides both for election of directors and for action on other specified matters shall be prepared so as clearly to provide, by a box or otherwise, means by which the security holder may withhold authority to vote for election as a director. Any form of proxy which is executed by the security holder in this manner so as not to withhold authority to vote for elections of all nominees shall be deemed to grant this authority for all nominees for which a vote is not withheld, if the form of proxy states this in boldface type.

Subp. 4. Discretionary authority conferred. A proxy may confer discretionary authority with respect to any of the following matters:

A. matters to be presented at the meeting but not known by the person making the solicitation within a reasonable time before the solicitation if a specific statement to that effect is made in the proxy statement or form of proxy;

B. approval of the minutes of the prior meeting if approval does not amount to ratification of the action taken at that meeting;

C. the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is named in the proxy statement and the nominee is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve;

D. any proposal omitted from the proxy statement and form of proxy pursuant to part 2715.7360, subpart 3, or 2715.7370; or

E. matters incident to the conduct of the meeting.

Subp. 5. Authority not conferred. No proxy shall confer authority to vote for the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is not named in the proxy statement, or to vote at any annual meeting, other than the next annual meeting or any adjournment thereof, to be held after the date on which the proxy statement and form of proxy are first sent or given to security holders. A person is not a bona fide nominee unless he has consented to being named in the proxy statement and to serve if elected.

Subp. 6. Voting. The proxy statement or form of proxy shall provide, subject to reasonable specified conditions, that the securities represented by the proxy will be voted and that where the person solicited specifies by means of ballot provided pursuant to subparts 2 and 3 a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the securities will be voted in accordance with the specifications.
