

1515.3200 REPORTING.

It is the responsibility of the livestock owner to notify an investigator of a suspected loss within 48 hours of the discovery of a loss. A telephone call, electronic media, or personal contact by which the livestock owner makes arrangements for a claim investigation constitutes notification. The livestock owner shall provide all information required to investigate the loss to the investigator.

Statutory Authority: MS s 3.737

History: 29 SR 655; 36 SR 179

Published Electronically: September 6, 2011