

2150.0140 CANCELLATION OF LICENSE.

The board must cancel and must not renew, reissue, reinstate, or restore a license that was terminated for nonrenewal or voluntarily terminated and for which relicensure was not sought for more than two years from the date the license was terminated for nonrenewal or voluntarily terminated. A former licensee seeking relicensure after this two-year period must obtain a new license by applying to the board for licensure and fulfilling all requirements then in existence for an initial license to practice professional counseling in Minnesota.
