

2920.0800 CONDITIONS OF LICENSE.

Subpart 1. Nontransferable. A license is not transferable. It applies only to the organization, person, or persons to whom it is issued and to the building approved. The license expires automatically if there is a change in location, organization, procedure, or policies that affect either the terms of the license or the continuing eligibility for a license. In such cases, an application for a license must again be filed.

Subp. 2. Restriction on capacity. Every license shall be restricted to a specified maximum capacity.

Subp. 3. Licensing necessary before operation. An adult community-based residential correctional facility must be licensed by the commissioner in order to operate.

Subp. 4. No occupancy before licensing. No persons shall be placed in an adult community-based residential correctional facility prior to its being licensed.

Subp. 5. No fee for license. There is no fee for a state license.

Subp. 6. Issuance of license. A license must be issued when the applicant is in compliance with part 2920.0200, subpart 4.

Subp. 7. Variance; waivers. Variances and waivers must be listed on the license.
