

2940.2100 SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF RELEASE.

Special conditions of release mean any conditions on the release form other than the standard conditions, setting forth individual specified requirements to be followed by a releasee. These special conditions include:

A. special conditions which set forth limits regarding contact with specified persons, travel from or to specified locations or areas, or increased contact with the supervising agent beyond that which is considered standard;

B. participation conditions which require the releasee to be involved in nonresidential therapy or counseling programs; and

C. residential conditions which require the releasee to be involved in a residential program.

Statutory Authority: MS s 241.26; 243.05

History: 8 SR 2298

Published Electronically: November 9, 2004