

3517.0085 REQUIRED SIGNATURES.

Subpart 1. When signature is not needed. Except where otherwise stated in subpart 2 and in this chapter, an entrance licensure application accompanied by all required credentials need not be signed by an authorized local vocational administrator to be processed.

Subp. 2. When signature is required. Applications for the following licenses must be signed by the authorized local vocational administrator:

- A. renewal of a regular entrance license;
- B. renewal of a license issued under the vocational teacher education sequence in parts 3517.3000 to 3517.3500;
- C. initial or renewed limited license; and
- D. initial or renewed substitute or part-time resource specialist license.

A person who applies for renewal of an entrance license or a license issued under the vocational teacher education sequence, and who has not been employed in a Minnesota vocational program during the licensure period, shall contact an approved Minnesota teacher educator in the licensure field or an authorized local vocational administrator for consultation and for signature of the renewal recommendation.
