

3525.0700 PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT.

Parents of pupils with disabilities have a right to be involved by the school district in the education decision-making process by participating or being afforded the opportunity to participate at each IEP meeting to develop, review, or revise the IEP. At the time of contact, the district shall inform the parents of their right to bring anyone of their choosing to accompany them to the meeting. The district shall inform the pupil's parents about the alternatives and methods of instruction as described in Minnesota Statutes, section 125A.05.
