

4410.9200 MODIFYING PLANS AND REGULATIONS.

Subpart 1. Plans not initially included. When the board returns plans and regulations for modification, it shall request that any proposed or adopted development plans or land use plans of local units of government, regional development commissions, or state agencies that may exist for the critical area and that have not been included in the initial preparation, be considered in the modification of the plans and regulations.

Subp. 2. Revision and deadline. The plans and regulations that are returned to the local unit of government or the regional development commission for modification shall be revised consistent with the direction of the board and shall be resubmitted to the board within 60 days of their return.

Subp. 3. Formal meeting with board. Prior to the final revision, the local unit of government or regional development commission may request a formal meeting with the board to consider the plans and regulations. Within 15 days of the request, the board shall send a 30-day written notice of the meeting to the appropriate local units of government, regional development commission, and interested parties. The meeting shall be held at a location convenient to the area affected by the designated critical area.
