

4670.4100 APPOINTMENT.

The entrance salary for any new employee, whether an original appointment, provisional appointment, or emergency appointment, shall be at the minimum salary for the class of positions to which the employee is appointed, except when appointments are made above the minimum.

An employee who is provisionally employed at a rate of pay higher than the minimum of the range prescribed for the class shall not be reduced in pay at the time of appointment from a register to the class.

Statutory Authority: MS s 144.071

History: 23 SR 82

Published Electronically: November 25, 2003