

5217.1000 DECISION AND ORDER AND APPEALS.

Every decision and order in a contested case shall be in writing, shall be by a majority of voting members present so long as there is a quorum, and shall contain a statement of findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order of the board or panel. Parties to the proceedings and Office of Administrative Hearings shall be served in person or by first class mail with a copy of the findings and order.

Final decisions of the board or panel in a contested case may be appealed to the Workers' Compensation Court of Appeals pursuant to the procedures in Minnesota Statutes, section 176.421, except that all appeals shall be filed through the executive secretary of the board or panel.
