When the employee reaches maximum medical improvement, the insurer must request an initial assessment of any permanent partial disability from the employee's physician.

- (1) make a lump sum payment or begin periodic payments to the employee; or
- (2) inform the employee in writing of the disability rating and the time when the permanent partial disability payment will be payable under the statute.

- (1) make a minimum lump sum payment or begin periodic payments based on the minimum undisputed permanent partial disability ascertainable; and
- (2) notify the employee in writing that an adverse medical examination has been scheduled and the date, time, and place of the examination. The disability rating must be determined and any remaining permanent partial disability payments made or periodic payment begun, within 120 days of the insurer's receipt of the initial medical report containing a permanency rating.

C. If permanent partial disability benefits are not currently payable under Minnesota Statutes, section 176.101, inform the employee in writing of the disability rating and the time when the permanent partial disability payment will be payable by statute.
