

5505.0500 NOTICE OF HEARING AND INVESTIGATION.

Upon receipt of a request in proper form, the commissioner shall investigate the controversy by any suitable means. The commissioner may investigate such controversy personally or through an agent appointed by the commissioner. The commissioner may provide for an appropriate hearing before the commissioner or agent. Notice of such investigation or hearing shall be given to all parties directly involved in or directly affected by the controversy, so far as named in the request or known to the commissioner. All such parties shall be deemed parties to the proceedings. The notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the place of employment of the employees therein referred to at least two days prior to the scheduled date of investigation or hearing. A copy of the request filed by the petitioner shall be given to each party, excepting individual employees, with the first notice, and shall be posted in a like manner. If a hearing is ordered, the commissioner shall cause a stenographic report of the hearing to be kept.
