Subp. 3. [Repealed, 46 SR 1387]

Subp. 4. Late notice; fine.

A. Upon request by a party adversely affected by another party's failure to provide timely notice according to Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), or by the commissioner's motion, the party failing to give timely notice is subject to a fine according to Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

B. A request or motion to assess a fine must be made in writing and served on the commissioner and the other party to the labor contract:

(1) within ten calendar days of the requesting party's first knowledge of the other party's desire to negotiate; or

(2) in the case of the commissioner's motion, within 15 calendar days of receiving a request for mediation assistance involving the parties and their contract.

C. A request from a party or motion by the commissioner must:

(1) specify the date of first knowledge of the desire to negotiate and the expiration date of the effective labor contract; and

(2) include a brief statement of the adverse results or impact of the late notice.

D. Upon receiving a written request or after the commissioner's motion to assess a fine for late notice, the commissioner must investigate the request or motion according to part 5510.1910. The commissioner may waive the fine according to Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

E. The fine must be credited to the state's general fund. The fine amount or its waiver is not subject to appeal.
