

7400.0400 TEMPORARY DEALER LICENSE.

The registrar shall grant a temporary dealer license to the applicant unless the registrar determines there is a reason to deny the temporary license. The registrar shall deny the license if the registrar determines there is a reason to deny the license. The registrar shall make this determination based on the application and the items filed with the application. The period of the temporary dealer license is 90 days. The registrar may extend the temporary license 30 days.

Statutory Authority: MS s 299A.01

History: 19 SR 157

Published Electronically: November 8, 2006