

7409.4300 REINSTATEMENT AFTER CANCELLATION.

The commissioner shall reinstate the driver's license of a person whose license is canceled when the conditions specified in this part are met:

- A. no withdrawal of the person's license is outstanding;
- B. the conditions with respect to the cancellation have been met; and
- C. the person is otherwise eligible for a driver's license under Minnesota Statutes.

The notice of reinstatement must be issued by the commissioner before reinstatement of the subject's driver's license occurs.
