

7501.0700 DURATION OF APPROVAL.

Approval of a screening device issued pursuant to part 7501.0600 remains effective until revoked. Approval may be revoked by the commissioner when:

A. The manufacturer changes the design or components of a screening device already approved. The manufacturer shall inform the commissioner of any changes in the components or design. The manufacturer shall supply supportive documentation that the changes will not affect the ability of the device to comply with part 7501.0300.

B. It appears to the commissioner that the screening device does not currently meet the minimum standards and specifications required by part 7501.0300.
