

7580.0800 WAIVERS FROM STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS.

Subpart 1. Request for waiver. A waiver from the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, sections 403.01 to 403.08 may be requested by a county, if federal or state financial assistance is not available to pay necessary costs as specified in part 7580.1100 and Minnesota Statutes, section 403.08.

Subp. 2. Form and contents of request. All requests for a waiver shall be submitted to the Department of Public Safety in written form and shall contain the following information:

A. a narrative explanation with cost figures of the reason the waiver is requested;
and

B. a resolution or copy of minutes of the county board which authorizes the application for waiver.

Subp. 3. Conditions. The waiver, if granted, shall be conditioned on the continued nonavailability of state and/or federal assistance. Once a waiver has been granted, the county shall file an annual statement with the Department of Public Safety certifying the continued nonavailability of federal and/or state assistance. When assistance becomes available, the waiver shall extinguish and the county shall submit, within six months, a new implementation schedule, and if necessary, a revised final plan, to the Department of Public Safety.
