

7810.0400 RETENTION OF RECORDS.

Each telephone utility shall maintain records of its operations in sufficient detail to permit review of its service performance, and such records shall be made available to the commission upon request. All records required by this chapter shall be preserved for the period of time specified in the current edition of the Federal Communications Commission's records retention schedule, unless otherwise specified by the commission.

Statutory Authority: MS s 237.10; 237.11

Published Electronically: August 29, 2008