

8880.0500 LIMOUSINE SERVICE PERMIT.

Subpart 1. Issuance of permit. The commissioner must issue a permit to an applicant who meets the requirements in part 8880.0400, except the commissioner must not issue:

A. a permit to an applicant if the applicant or an applicant's corporate directors or officers, general partners, limited liability company board members, or owners of the applicant's business had a permit revoked during the preceding year; or

B. more than one permit to a limousine operator.

A permit must be numbered and bear an effective date.

Subp. 2. Location of permit. A permit must be kept at the limousine operator's principal place of business. A copy of the permit must be kept in each limousine used by the limousine operator to provide limousine service.

Subp. 3. Duration. A permit is valid for one year from the date of issuance, unless the permit is suspended, canceled, or revoked or the permit holder sells its limousine business. Permits must be renewed on an annual basis using forms provided by the commissioner. Annual renewals are not subject to the permit fee in part 8880.0400, subpart 5.

Subp. 4. Not transferable. A permit may not be assigned or transferred to another person.

Subp. 5. Records. The commissioner must keep a record of permits showing the date issued, suspended, or revoked.

Subp. 6. Permit holder to keep information current. A permit holder must:

A. notify the commissioner in writing within ten days of any change in the information provided in its permit application; and

B. update the information provided to the United States Department of Transportation, Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration within ten days of any change in the information provided to that agency when obtaining a federal identification number.

Subp. 7. Temporary limousine service permit. For special events, the commissioner must issue a temporary permit to an operator who does not possess an active limousine permit, meets the requirements under part 8880.0400, subparts 1 to 4, and obtains a temporary limousine identification decal under part 8880.0700, subpart 5a. The commissioner must not issue a temporary permit to an operator who has had a limousine permit revoked or suspended within the 12 months preceding the application for a temporary permit. An operator who possesses an active limousine permit may temporarily add a vehicle to its fleet by obtaining a temporary limousine identification decal for the vehicle under part 8880.0700, subpart 5a. The fee to obtain a temporary permit is $20. A temporary permit is valid for ten days and must not be transferred or renewed.
