

9570.2500 DEVELOPMENTAL AND REHABILITATIVE SERVICES.

As determined by the resident's abilities and individual program needs, the residential program shall:

A. provide directly or otherwise formally arrange developmental and rehabilitative services in order to strengthen and sustain the resident's capacity to function independently;

B. ensure that developmental and rehabilitative services are sufficient in variety and scope to satisfy each resident's needs and are of a quality comparable to those services provided in the wider community; and

C. arrange for developmental and rehabilitative services, including a periodic review, on the basis of an individual service plan developed by facility staff and appropriate active community service representatives.

Statutory Authority: MS s 245A.09

History: 13 SR 1448

Published Electronically: October 11, 2007