

9800.1720 SUBMISSION WHEN MEMBER OF COURT IS NOT PRESENT.

Except in exigent circumstances, oral arguments shall be heard before the full panel to which the case has been assigned or before the entire court if the matter is of exceptional importance. When any member of the court is not present at oral argument, the case shall be deemed submitted to that member on the record and briefs. When there is a change of court personnel or a recusal, cases shall be deemed submitted to the new member, or to any other member of the court, as necessary to complete a panel, on the record and briefs.

Statutory Authority: MS s 175A.07

History: 13 SR 981; 19 SR 1131

Published Electronically: May 13, 1997