

Peace Officer Standards and Training BoardProposed Permanent Rules Relating to Education and Licensing of Peace Officers*6700.0100 DEFINITIONS.

[For text of subparts 1 to 25, see Minnesota Rules]

Subp. 26. Discriminatory conduct. "Discriminatory conduct" means a pattern of conduct or a single egregious act that evidences knowing and intentional discrimination based on the perception of a person's race, color, creed, religion, national origin, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or public assistance or any other protected class as defined in Minnesota statutes or federal law; and would lead an objectively reasonable person to conclude that the individual may not perform the duties of a peace officer in a fair and impartial manner.

Subp. 27. Seasonal position. "Seasonal position" means a position which is necessary due to recurring seasonal fluctuations in staffing needs and does not exceed 16 weeks in duration.

Subp. 28. Temporary position. "Temporary position" means a short term of employment with a designated end date of six months or less that may not exceed 300 hours in a year.

6700.0601 EXAMINATION STANDARDS.

Subpart 1. Grounds for denial. Violations of the following standards shall be grounds to deny an applicant to take an examination or to deny or revoke eligibility for a license:

[For text of items A to F, see Minnesota Rules]

G. ~~having been convicted of any crime listed as a disqualification from appointment to the position of~~ failing to meet the minimum selection standards for licensure as a peace officer under part 6700.0700, subpart 1, item F.

Subp. 2. [See repealer.]

Subp. 3. [See repealer.]

6700.0670 BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION.

Subpart 1. Applicants.

A. Each applicant for employment as a peace officer must provide a personal history statement with the application. The statement must include:

- (1) background information on the topics addressed in subpart 2;
- (2) a list of current and former names or aliases used by the applicant;
- (3) a complete list of all law enforcement agencies the applicant has applied to in the previous six years;
- (4) a signed declaration attesting that all of the information the applicant has provided during the background investigation and in the personal history statement is true and correct to the best of the applicant's knowledge;
- (5) a signed release allowing background investigation information to be shared with the board and with other law enforcement agencies on request; and
- (6) any additional information the applicant wishes to include.

B. Each applicant must consent to, disclose, and facilitate a review of social media accounts, platforms, and groups in which the applicant has participated to the extent permitted by law. An applicant is not required to provide login information.

C. Each applicant who is currently or previously licensed as a peace officer must authorize the release to the employing agency and board of the officer's personnel files, including disciplinary, termination, civil or criminal investigation, and other records or information that are directly related to licensure.

D. Each applicant who is currently or previously licensed as a peace officer must disclose any conduct that resulted or may result in an impeachment disclosure or Brady-Giglio impairment.

Subp. 2. Requirements for background investigation.

A. Before employing an unlicensed or licensed applicant in a peace officer position, the law enforcement agency must complete a background investigation on the applicant, except as stated in item B. The background investigation must be completed no earlier than six months prior to the agency's offer of employment to an applicant. The background investigation may not be conducted by the chief law enforcement officer or by anyone involved in selection of applicants for peace officer positions and must comply with Minnesota Statutes, section 363A.08, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), clause (1). Nothing in this chapter precludes an agency from performing a more stringent background check. A background investigation must address the following elements:

(1) United States citizenship status or verification that the applicant is eligible to work in the United States under federal requirements;

(2) criminal history and arrests identified by means of electronic data transfer, criminal records, histories, and warrant information through current state and federal systems such as the Minnesota Crime Information System and the National Instant Criminal Background Check System;

(3) Minnesota Department of Public Safety, Division of Driver and Vehicle Services records and other states' driving records as applicable;

(4) drug and alcohol use;

(5) behavior indicative of discriminatory conduct as defined in part 6700.0100;

(6) education verification;

(7) employment history;

(8) military history verification;

(9) personal and professional references, such as friends, associates, family members, and neighbors;

(10) personal interview. Personal interviews may occur before, during, and after the investigation and may be used to discuss, among other topics, any arrest or conviction records and any discrepancies or concerns raised in the investigation;

(11) residential history;

(12) records checks, such as open sources or social media, and financial information, as permitted by law; and

(13) inquiry to the local prosecuting authority and law enforcement agency in any jurisdiction in which the applicant has served as a peace officer as to whether the applicant has any potential impeachment disclosure or Brady-Giglio impairment.

B. An agency may choose to limit the scope of the background investigation to a criminal history check and a driving records check when:

(1) the position being filled is for a seasonal or temporary position; and

(2) the applicant remains currently employed in Minnesota as a peace officer by a different agency as verified in writing by the current employing agency.

C. Results of the background investigation must be retained by the law enforcement agency for the duration of any resulting employment. If the applicant is not employed by the agency, the background investigation must be retained for six years or as required by the agency's retention schedule, whichever is longer.

Subp. 3. Chief law enforcement officer.

A. The chief law enforcement officer must notify the board as soon as possible but no later than ten days after the date that:

(1) a background investigation is initiated, giving the applicant's full name, date of birth, and peace officer license number, if applicable; and

(2) a background investigation identifies:

(a) a disqualifying offense under the minimum selection standards in part 6700.0700, giving the specific offense or offenses; or

(b) for a licensed peace officer, a violation of standards of conduct under this chapter.

B. When an applicant who is a currently licensed peace officer is identified through a background investigation as having a disqualifying offense, the board must notify the law enforcement agency employing that officer.

6700.0675 PSYCHOLOGICAL SCREENING.

A. A pre-employment psychological screening of an applicant for a peace officer position must be conducted after a conditional job offer by a law enforcement agency and must be conducted only by a psychologist licensed in Minnesota or the state in which the psychologist practices. The screening must include:

(1) a written psychological test battery relevant to the responsibilities of a peace officer and the pre-employment psychological screening criteria established by the law enforcement agency;

(2) an in-person or virtual interview conducted by the psychologist;

(3) to the extent possible as determined by the psychologist, an evaluation of a predisposition on the part of the applicant to engage in discriminatory conduct as defined in part 6700.0100; and

(4) a written report provided by the psychologist in the manner requested by the law enforcement agency that addresses the psychological demands of a peace officer's responsibilities and an evaluation of any emotional or mental condition that might adversely affect the performance of the duties as a peace officer.

B. The psychological screening must conform to the standards of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

C. Psychological screenings older than one year are no longer valid for the purpose of satisfying the pre-employment psychological screening requirement.

D. The psychologist's written report on the psychological screening must be retained by the agency for the duration of any resulting employment. If the applicant is not employed by the agency, the report must be retained for six years or as required by the agency's retention schedule, whichever is longer.

E. An agency may choose not to complete a psychological screening of the applicant when:

(1) the position being filled is for a seasonal or temporary position; and

(2) the applicant remains currently employed in Minnesota as a peace officer by a different agency as verified in writing by the current employing agency.
