2. in writing, including but not limited to via mail, email, or an online message through the club's website directed to customer or account service members;
3. through a termination election as described in section 325G.60; or
4. in any other manner or medium by which the member initially accepted membership to the club and that is no more burdensome to the member than was the initial acceptance.

(b) The process to cancel must be stated clearly and be easily accessible and completed with ease.

Subd. 4. No waiver. A right of cancellation or right of termination under this section may not be waived or otherwise surrendered.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 325G.25, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Form and content. A copy of every contract shall be delivered to the member at the time the contract is signed. Every contract must be in writing, must be signed by the member, must designate the date on which the member signed the contract and must state, clearly and conspicuously in boldface type of a minimum size of 14 points, the following:
"MEMBERS’ RIGHT TO CANCEL"
If you wish to cancel this contract, you may cancel in-person, over the phone, by delivering or mailing a written notice to the club, via email or an online message through the club's website, through the "termination election" provided on the club's website (if applicable) and as described in Minnesota Statutes, section 325G.60, or in any other manner or medium by which you initially accepted membership to the club. The notice must say that you do not wish to be bound by the contract and must be delivered or mailed to the club before midnight of the third business day after you sign this contract. The notice must be provided to the club before midnight of the third business day after you sign this contract. If you cancel, the club will return, within ten days of the date on which you give notice of cancellation, any payments you have made.

"MEMBERS’ RIGHT TO UNILATERAL TERMINATION"
You may unilaterally terminate this contract in your exclusive discretion at any time. If you terminate, your membership will terminate at the end of the membership term in which you provided the club with notice of termination. If you wish to terminate this contract, you may terminate in-person, over the phone, by delivering or mailing a written notice to the club, via email or an online message through the club's website, through the "termination election" provided on the club's website (if applicable) and as described in Minnesota Statutes, section 325G.60, or in any other manner or medium by which you initially accepted membership to the club. The club may not impose a termination fee or any other liability on you for termination.

"NOTICE INFORMATION"
If you wish to provide notice of cancellation or notice of termination to the club:
In-person or by mail, the applicable address is: [Insert name and mailing address of club];
Over the phone, the applicable phone number is: [Insert phone number of club];
Via email, the applicable email address is: [Insert email address of club];
On the club’s website, the applicable website address is: [Insert address, if applicable].

Sec. 41. [325G.38] HANDHELD ELECTRONIC DEVICES; DISCLOSURES.
If a retail establishment offers consumers the use of handheld electronic devices that require payment for games or other entertainment, the handheld electronic device must display a disclosure. The disclosure must be provided to the consumer before a game or entertainment is purchased and must:
require the user to affirm that the user is 18 years of age or older; and
(2) include, in at least ten-point font and larger than all other type viewable on the screen at that time, the payment amount required.

Section 42. [325G.56] DEFINITIONS.

Subdivision 1. Scope. For purposes of sections 325G.56 to 325G.62, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. Automatic renewal. "Automatic renewal" means a plan or arrangement in which a subscription or purchasing agreement is automatically renewed at the end of a definite term for a subsequent term.

Subd. 3. Clear and conspicuous. "Clear and conspicuous" means in larger type than the surrounding text, or in contrasting type, font, or color to the surrounding text of the same size, or set off from the surrounding text of the same size by symbols or other marks, in a manner that calls attention to the language. In the case of an audio disclosure, "clear and conspicuous" means in a volume and cadence sufficient to be readily audible and understandable.

Subd. 4. Consumer. "Consumer" means any individual who seeks or acquires, by purchase or lease, any goods, services, money, or credit for personal, family, or household purposes. Consumer includes but is not limited to a member as defined in section 325G.23, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

Subd. 5. Continuous service. "Continuous service" means a plan or arrangement in which a subscription or purchasing agreement continues until the consumer terminates the agreement.

Subd. 6. Indefinite subscription agreement. "Indefinite subscription agreement" means a subscription or purchasing agreement:
(1) between a seller and a consumer in Minnesota; and
(2) subject to automatic renewal or continuous service.

Indefinite subscription agreements include but are not limited to contracts, as defined in section 325G.23, subject to automatic renewal or continuous service.

Subd. 7. Offer terms. "Offer terms" means the following disclosures:
(1) that the indefinite subscription agreement will continue until the consumer terminates the agreement;
(2) the description of the cancellation policy that applies to the indefinite subscription agreement;
(3) the recurring charges that will be charged to the consumer's credit or debit card or payment account with a third party as part of the plan or arrangement and that the amount of the charge may change; if that is the case, and the amount to which the charge will change, if known;
(d) the length of the automatic renewal term or that the service is continuous, unless the length of the term is definite and chosen by the consumer; and
(5) the minimum purchase obligation, if any.

Subd. 8. Seller. "Seller" means a seller, lessor, licensor, or professional who advertises, solicits, or engages in consumer transactions, or a manufacturer, distributor, or licensor who advertises and sells, leases, or licenses goods or services to be resold, leased, or sublicensed by other persons in consumer transactions. Seller includes but is not limited to a club as defined in section 325G.23, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

Sec. 43. [325G.57] REQUIREMENTS FOR AUTOMATIC RENEWAL OR CONTINUOUS SERVICE.
Subdivision 1. Notices upon offer. A seller making an offer for an indefinite subscription agreement must, before the consumer accepts the offer, present the offer terms in a clear and conspicuous manner to the consumer and in visual proximity, or in the case of an offer conveyed by voice, in temporal proximity, to the offer's proposal.

Subd. 2. Confirmation upon consumer consent. A seller making an offer for an indefinite subscription agreement must, in a timely manner after the consumer accepts the offer, provide the consumer with confirmation of the consumer's acceptance of the offer, in a manner that is capable of being retained by the consumer, that includes the following:
(1) the offer terms;
(2) if the offer includes a free trial, information on how to cancel the free trial before the consumer pays or becomes obligated to pay for any goods or services in connection with the free trial; and
(3) options for termination of the indefinite subscription agreement, which options must be easy to use, cost-effective, and timely for all consumers:
(i) if a seller makes offers for an indefinite subscription agreement through an online website, a termination election as set forth in section 325G.60; and (ii) if a consumer enters into the indefinite subscription agreement through any means other than a toll-free telephone number, an email address, or a postal address, then an option substantially similar to, as easy to use, and as accessible as the initial means of consumer acceptance of the agreement.
A communication of the required information through email is sufficient to meet the requirements of this subdivision.

Subd. 3. Material changes. Upon a material change in the terms of the indefinite subscription agreement, the seller must provide to the consumer in a timely manner, and in

REVISOR FULL-TEXT SIDE-BY-SIDE
any case prior to the implementation of the material change, a clear and conspicuous notice of the material change and provide information regarding how to terminate the agreement in a manner that is capable of being retained by the consumer. A material change in the terms of an indefinite subscription agreement in violation of this subdivision is void and unenforceable;

Subd. 4. Free trials. A seller making an offer for an indefinite subscription agreement that includes a free trial lasting more than 30 days must, no fewer than five days and no more than 30 days before the end of any such free trial, notify the consumer of the consumer's option to cancel the free trial before the end of the trial period to avoid an obligation to pay for the goods or services;

Subd. 5. Periodic notice of continuous service. (a) If an indefinite subscription agreement is subject to continuous service, the seller must give the consumer written notice of the continuous service at least once per calendar year via mail or email;

(b) The notice required under this subdivision must include the terms of the service and how to terminate or manage the service.

Sec. 44. [325G.58] PROHIBITED CONDUCT.

Subdivision 1. Definition; agreement. For purposes of this section, "agreement" means an indefinite subscription agreement, as defined in section 325G.56, and a contract, as defined in section 325G.23;

Subd. 2. Charges prior to effective date. A seller must not charge the consumer's credit or debit card or the consumer's account with a third party in connection with an agreement before the agreement has been duly authorized by the seller and consumer and made effective;

Subd. 3. Right of first refusal. An agreement must not require the consumer to permit the seller to match any offer the consumer has received. A provision in an agreement that violates this subdivision is void and unenforceable;

Subd. 4. No abusive tactics or offers upon notice. (a) A seller that has received a notice of cancellation or notice of termination of an agreement from a consumer cannot;

(1) make any misrepresentation or undertake any unfair or abusive tactic to delay; unreasonably delay, or avoid the cancellation or termination of the agreement; or

(2) make or provide additional benefits, contract modifications, gifts, or similar offers to the consumer until the seller has obtained permission from the consumer, granted by the consumer after notice of cancellation or termination was given to the seller, for the seller to engage in any such activity;

(b) A seller can only seek a consumer's permission under this paragraph once per cancellation or termination attempt. A consumer's grant of permission under this paragraph

REVISOR FULL-TEXT SIDE-BY-SIDE
is limited to the immediate cancellation or termination attempt and does not apply to subsequent attempts.

Subd. 5. Exceptions. This section does not prohibit a seller from:

(1) asking the consumer the reasons for cancellation or termination, provided that a consumer is not required to answer as a condition of cancellation or termination;

(2) informing the consumer that there may be consequences of cancelling or terminating the subscription; or

(3) verifying the identity of the consumer.

Sec. 45. [325G.59] CONSUMER’S RIGHT TO TERMINATE.

Subdivision 1. Termination of agreement subject to automatic renewal. A consumer may terminate an indefinite subscription agreement subject to automatic renewal at any time by following the procedure set forth in the confirmation described in section 325G.57, subdivision 2. A termination under this subdivision is effective at the end of the term in which notice of termination is provided by the consumer, unless the consumer specifies a termination date occurring at the end of a subsequent term, in which event the termination is effective as of the date specified by the consumer, if the option is available.

Subd. 2. Termination of agreement subject to continuous service. (a) A consumer may terminate an indefinite subscription agreement subject to continuous service at any time by following the procedure set forth in the confirmation described in section 325G.57, subdivision 2. A termination under this subdivision must take effect no later than 31 days from the date of a verified consumer's notice of termination unless the consumer specifies a future termination date, in which event the termination is effective as of such date.

(b) This subdivision does not require a seller to provide an option to set a future termination date.

Subd. 3. Termination in absence of confirmation or notice. If the seller fails to provide either the confirmation required under section 325G.57, subdivision 2, or a notice required by section 325G.57, subdivision 5, the consumer may terminate the indefinite subscription agreement by any reasonable means at any time, including but not limited to by mail, email, telephone, an online option, a termination election under section 325G.60, or the means by which the consumer entered into the agreement, at no cost to the consumer.

Sec. 46. [325G.60] TERMINATION ELECTION REQUIREMENT.

Subdivision 1. Definition; agreement. For purposes of this section, "agreement" means an indefinite subscription agreement, as defined in section 325G.56, and a contract, as defined in section 325G.23.

Subd. 2. Termination election required. (a) If a seller has a website with profile or subscription management capabilities, then such website must include a termination election on the website. The termination election must be clear and conspicuous on the website and must use plain language to convey that any consumer may use the termination election to terminate the agreement at any time. The termination election must only require a consumer to input information that is necessary to process the termination. The termination election must include a checkbox, submission button, or similarly common and simple mechanism for the member to indicate a desire to terminate the agreement.

(b) For purposes of this section, "termination election" means a simple and easily accessible means for a consumer to quickly provide notice of termination, and that does not include undue complexity, confusion, or misrepresentation by the seller.

Sec. 47. [325G.61] UNCONDITIONAL GIFTS.

Any good, including but not limited to any ware, merchandise, or product, is an unconditional gift to the consumer if a seller sends the good under an indefinite subscription agreement without first obtaining the consumer's affirmative consent to the agreement in accordance with section 325G.57. The consumer may use or dispose of the good in any manner without any obligation to the seller, including but not limited to any obligation relating to shipping of the good.

Sec. 48. [325G.62] EXEMPTION.

Sections 325G.56 to 325G.61 do not apply to:

(1) contracts governed by another state or federal statute or regulation specifically intended to regulate automatic renewal or continuous service;

(2) any licensee as defined in section 60A.985, subdivision 8, and any affiliate of such licensee as defined in section 60D.15, subdivision 2;

(3) an individual or business licensed by the Department of Labor and Industry as a technology system contractor or power limited technician as defined in section 326B.31;

(4) any service provided by a business or its affiliate where either the business or its affiliate is licensed or regulated by the Public Utilities Commission, the Federal Communications Commission, or the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission; or

(5) any person or entity registered or licensed with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or under the Minnesota Securities Act;

Sec. 22. [325O.01] CITATION.

This chapter may be cited as the "Prohibiting Social Media Manipulation Act."
Sec. 23. [3350.02] DEFINITIONS.

(a) For purposes of this chapter, the following terms have the meanings given:

(b) "Accessible user interface" means a way for a user to input data, make a choice, or take an action on a social media platform in two clicks or fewer.

(c) "Account holder" means a natural person or legal person who holds an account or profile with a social media platform.

(d) "Account interactions" means any action that an account holder can make within a social media platform that has an impact on another user. Account interactions include but are not limited to:

(1) sending messages or invitations to users;

(2) reporting users;

(3) commenting on, resharing, liking, voting, or otherwise reacting to users' user-generated content; and

(4) posting user-generated content or disseminating user-generated content to users.

(e) Actions that have no impact on other users, including viewing user-generated content or public content, are not account interactions.

(f) "Algorithmic ranking system" means a computational process, including one derived from algorithmic decision making, machine learning, statistical analysis, or other data processing or artificial intelligence techniques, used to determine the selection, order, relative prioritization, or relative prominence of content from a set of information that is provided to a user on a social media platform, including search results ranking, content recommendations, content display, or any other automated content selection method.

(g) "Click" means an act of selecting an option on an electronic interface by pressing a button, touching a screen, making a gesture, issuing a voice command, or other means.

(h) "Default" means a preselected option adopted by a social media platform for its service, product, or feature.

(i) "Device operating system provider" means a business that manages or develops operating system software for mobile or desktop devices, including but not limited to personal computers, smartphones, and tablets, which manage device resources and are loaded by a boot program. Device operating system provider does not include a business that manages... or develops operating system software for a video game console, as defined by section 325E.72.

(j) "Engage" or "engagement" means a user's utilization of the social media platform.

(k) "Existing extended network" means a user's existing network plus the set of account holders on a social media platform who are all directly connected to the account holders within that user's existing network.

(l) "Existing network" means the set of account holders on a social media platform with whom a user has consented to have a direct connection.

(m) "Expressed preferences" means a freely given, considered, specific, and unambiguous indication of a user's preferences regarding the user's engagement with a social media platform. Expressed preferences cannot be based on the user's time spent engaging with content on the social media platform, nor on the usage of features that do not indicate explicit preference, including comments made, posts reshared, or similar actions that may be taken on content the user perceives to be of low quality. Expressed preferences may not be obtained through a user interface designed or manipulated with the substantial effect of subverting or impairing a user's decision making.

(n) "Optimize" means promoted, prioritized, or maximized by a social media platform's algorithmic ranking system.

(o) "Social media platform" means an electronic medium, including a browser-based or application-based interactive computer service, Internet website, telephone network, or data network, that allows an account holder to create, share, and view user-generated content for the predominant purpose of social interaction, sharing content, or personal networking.
Social media platform does not include:

(1) an Internet search provider;

(2) an Internet service provider;

(3) an email or short message service;

(4) a streaming service, online video game, or other Internet website where the content is not user generated but where interactive functions enable chat, comments, reviews, or other interactive functionality that is incidental to, directly related to, or dependent upon provision of the content;

(5) a communication service, including text, audio, or video communication technology, provided by a business to the business's employees and clients for use in the course of business activities and not for public distribution, except that social media platform does include a communication service provided by a social media platform;

(6) an advertising network with the sole function of delivering commercial content;
(7) a telecommunications carrier, as defined in United States Code, title 47, section 153;

(8) a broadband service, as defined by section 116J.39, subdivision 1;

(9) single-purpose community groups for education;

(10) teleconferencing or video-conferencing services that allow reception and transmission of audio and video signals for real-time communication, except that social media platform does include teleconferencing or video-conferencing services provided by a social media platform;

(11) cloud computing services, which may include cloud storage and shared document collaboration; or

(12) providing or obtaining technical support for a platform, product, or service.

(p) "Time sensitive" means content that is welcomed under a user's expressed preferences and that would have significantly reduced value to the user with the passing of time.

(q) "User" means a natural person who is located in Minnesota and who holds an account or profile with a social media platform.

(r) "User-generated content" means any content created by an account holder that is uploaded, posted, shared, or disseminated on the social media platform.

(s) "Varied set of account holders" means a set of account holders who have different behaviors and histories.

Sec. 24. [325O.03] SCOPE; EXCLUSIONS.

(a) A social media platform is subject to this chapter if the social media platform:

(1) does business in Minnesota or provides products or services that are targeted to residents of Minnesota; and

(2) has more than 10,000 monthly active account holders located in Minnesota.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, a social media platform may determine whether an account holder is located in Minnesota based on:

(1) the account holder's own supplied address or location;

(2) global positioning system-level latitude, longitude, or altitude coordinates;

(3) cellular phone system coordinates;

(4) Internet protocol device address; or

(5) other mechanisms that can be used to identify an account holder's location.
(c) This chapter applies exclusively to social media platform operations that directly impact account holders reasonably presumed to be located within the state of Minnesota based on the factors in paragraph (b).

Sec. 25. [325O.04] REQUIREMENTS FOR SOCIAL MEDIA PLATFORMS.

Subdivision 1. Content optimization. (a) A social media platform must provide an accessible user interface that allows a user to clearly indicate whether a particular piece of content:

(1) is of high or low quality; and

(2) complies with the user's expressed preferences;

(b) A social media platform's algorithmic ranking system must optimize content for a user that:

(1) a varied set of account holders indicates is of high quality; and

(2) complies with a user's expressed preferences;

(c) A social media platform's algorithmic ranking system must not optimize content that is not related to a user's expressed preferences in order to maximize the user's engagement with the platform.

Subd. 2. Account interaction limits. (a) A social media platform must develop criteria to designate an account holder who has recently created an account with or joined the social platform as a new account holder. An account created within 30 days must be considered a new account holder. For a new account holder, a social media platform must set daily numerical limits on account interactions equivalent to the 50th percentile of all platform account holders.

(b) For all account holders, a social media platform must set daily numerical limits on account interactions equivalent to the two standard deviations above the median for all platform account holders. A limit required under this paragraph may allow an account holder to have account interactions in excess of the limit, but at a minimum must reduce the impact of the engagement on other users. A limit may be exceeded for account interactions with another user if the other user clearly initiates and welcomes the engagement.

Subd. 3. Default privacy settings. (a) A social media platform must provide default settings for a user that do not:

(1) allow the user's account or the user's user-generated content to be discovered by anyone outside the user's existing extended network;

(2) allow messaging, requests, reactions, comments, or other contact from an account holder that is not already within the user's existing extended network, unless the user initiates and welcomes the contact;
(3) reveal the user's location outside the user's existing network, unless the user specifically shares the user's location outside the user's existing network;

(4) disseminate any information about the user, including the user's profile and any of the user's user-generated content, to anyone outside of the user's existing network without a specific request from the user to disseminate the information; or

(5) allow or facilitate a user's user-generated content, or any user's facial or biometric data, to be incorporated into generative artificial intelligence models without the user's explicit consent.

(b) The default settings required in paragraph (a) may be changed only to comply with the user's expressed preferences. A social media platform must not utilize a system, user interface, or prompt that encourages a user to change the user's privacy settings toward allowing the user's information or user-generated content to be shared or disseminated more broadly.

Subd. 4. Option for heightened protection. (a) A social media platform must provide an accessible user interface to allow a user to opt in to any or all of the heightened protection requirements under paragraph (d). A social media platform may make the heightened protections the default settings for all users or all account holders.

(b) A device operating system provider must provide an option for a user to automatically opt in to any or all of the heightened protection requirements under paragraph (d) across all social media platforms managed by the operating system on the user's device. If a user selects the option under this paragraph, the device operating system provider must inform all social media platforms managed by the provider's operating system of the user's preference and a notified social media platform must adjust the user's account settings accordingly. A device operating system provider may provide a user the ability to opt out of any or all heightened protections.

(c) A device operating system provider must, by default, consider any device with parental controls enabled to have opted in to all the heightened protection requirements under paragraph (d).

(d) For a user receiving heightened protections, a social media platform must not:

(i) use platform features that increase, sustain, or extend a user's engagement with the platform beyond the user's expressed preferences regarding time or duration. Features subject to this clause include but are not limited to:

(ii) optimization for time spent or content consumed;

(ii) content feeds without finite endings;

(iii) autoplaying videos or other content; and Subd. 5. Transparency requirements.

(a) A social media platform must publicly post the following information on the social media platform's website:

(1) an explanation of how the social media platform designates new account holders and an explanation detailing the operation and effect of usage limits applicable to new account holders under subdivision 2, paragraph (a);

(2) an explanation detailing the operation and effect of the usage limits required under subdivision 2, paragraph (b);

(3) an explanation detailing how the platform:

(i) assesses users' perceptions of the quality of content;

(ii) assesses users' expressed preferences regarding content; and

(iii) utilizes the assessments under items (i) and (ii) in the social media platform's algorithmic ranking system, including how the assessments are weighted in relation to other signals in the algorithmic ranking system;

(4) statistics on the platform's use with respect to the tenth, 25th, 50th, 75th, 90th, 95th, 99th, and 99.9th percentile of all platform account holders for each distinct type of account interaction or engagement, including but not limited to:

(i) sending invitations or messages to other platform account holders;

(ii) commenting on, resharing, liking, voting for, or otherwise reacting to content;

(iii) posting new user-generated content;

(iv) disseminating user-generated content to other platform account holders; and

(v) time spent on the platform;

(5) an explanation of how the platform determines whether a notification is time sensitive;

(6) an explanation of how the platform determines what constitutes a "varied set of account holders," including what behaviors are used as signals and how any measurement of difference is created and used; and

(7) a description of all product experiments that have been conducted on 1,000 or more users, including the results of the product experiments on users' engagement with content that:

(i) users indicate to be high or low quality;
(ii) users indicate complies or does not comply with the users' expressed preferences; and
(iii) violates platform policies.

(b) Additional steps taken by a social media platform to prevent abusive use beyond what must be publicly disclosed under paragraph (a) are encouraged and may, but are not required to, be publicly disclosed.

(c) When automatically delivering, suggesting, or selecting content to a user, a social media platform must provide an accessible user interface to allow the user to access a basic, nontechnical explanation detailing why a particular piece of content was promoted by the platform's algorithmic ranking system.

Sec. 26. [325O.05] ENFORCEMENT.

The attorney general may bring a civil enforcement action and recover the relief provided in section 8.31 against a social media platform that violates this chapter. Nothing in this chapter establishes a private right of action, including under section 8.31, subdivision 3a, for a violation of this chapter or any other law.

Sec. 27. [325O.06] SEVERABILITY.

If any provision of this chapter or the chapter's application to any person or circumstance is held invalid for any reason in a court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of the chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Sec. 15. [332.3352] WAIVER OF LICENSING AND REGISTRATION.

The commissioner of commerce may, by order, waive the licensing and registration requirements of this chapter for a nonresident collection agency and its affiliated collectors if (1) a written reciprocal licensing agreement is in effect between the commissioner and the licensing officials of the collection agency's home state; and (2) the collection agency is licensed in good standing in that state.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 2023 Supplement, section 332.71, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Coerced debt. (a) "Coerced debt" means all or a portion of debt in a debtor's name that has been incurred as a result of:

(1) the use of the debtor's personal information without the debtor's knowledge, authorization, or consent;
(2) the use or threat of force, intimidation, undue influence, fraud, deception, coercion, or other similar means against the debtor; or
(3) economic abuse perpetrated against the debtor.

Subd. 2. Coerced debt. (a) "Coerced debt" means all or a portion of debt in a debtor's name that has been incurred as a result of:

(1) the use of the debtor's personal information without the debtor's knowledge, authorization, or consent;
(2) the use or threat of force, intimidation, undue influence, fraud, deception, coercion, or other similar means against the debtor; or
(3) economic abuse perpetrated against the debtor.
(b) Coerced debt does not include secured debt.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 2023 Supplement, section 332.71, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 2023 Supplement, section 332.71, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Documentation. "Documentation" means a writing that identifies a debt or a portion of a debt as coerced debt, describes the circumstances under which the coerced debt was incurred, and takes the form of:

(1) a police report;
(2) a Federal Trade Commission identity theft report;
(3) an order in a dissolution proceeding under chapter 518 that declares that one or more debts are coerced; or
(4) a sworn written certification.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 507.235, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. Requirements of vendor. (a) A vendor entering into a contract for deed involving residential real property must, contemporaneously with the execution of the contract for deed:

(2) within four months of executing the contract for deed, the vendor must:

(1) pay or reimburse the vendee for payment of any delinquent taxes necessary for recording of the contract for deed, unless the contract for deed provides for the vendee to pay the delinquent taxes; and

(2) record the contract for deed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles in the county in which the land is located.
(c) The following statement included in a contract for deed for other than residential real property constitutes prima facie evidence that this subdivision does not apply: "The property is not residential real property."

(d) If the contract for deed is not in recordable form, within four months of the execution of the contract for deed the vendor must make a good faith effort to correct the defects that rendered the contract unrecordable: A good faith effort includes but is not limited to determining the reason or reasons the contract was not in recordable form, and revising and, if necessary, having all parties reexecute the contract to render it in recordable form. The vendee must, in good faith, cooperate with the vendor to the extent that cooperation is necessary to correct the defects.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision:

(1) "contract for deed" means an executory contract for the conveyance of residential real property under which the seller provides financing for the purchase of the residential real property and under which the purchaser does or has a right to go into possession. (iv) a mortgage, as defined in section 287.01;

(2) "residential real property" means real property occupied, or intended to be occupied, by one to four families, if the purchaser intends to occupy the real property consisting of one to four family dwelling units, one of which is intended to be occupied as the principal place of residence by:

(i) the purchaser;
(ii) if the purchaser is an entity, the natural person who is the majority or controlling owner of the entity; or
(iii) if the purchaser is a trust, the settlor of the trust.

Residential real property does not include property subject to a family farm security loan as a transaction subject to sections 583.20 to 583.32.

(f) The performance of the obligations by the vendor required under this subdivision satisfies any of the obligations of the original vendee, as required under subdivision 1.

(g) The requirements of this subdivision may not be waived or altered by any provision in a contract for deed. A provision in a contract for deed to the contrary is void and unenforceable.
EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024, and applies to all contracts for deed executed by all parties on or after that date.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 507.235, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

The city or county may bring an action to compel the recording of a contract for deed or any assignments of a contract for deed, an action to impose the civil penalty, or an action to compel disclosure of information.

(b) Prior to bringing an action under this subdivision to compel recording or to impose the penalty, or an action under subdivision 4, the city or county must provide written notice to the person, subject to subdivision 1, of the person's duty to record the contract for deed or the assignment. If the person so notified fails to record the contract for deed or assignment documents within 14 days of receipt of the notice, an action may be brought.

(c) It is an affirmative defense in an enforcement action under this section that the contract for deed or assignment document is not recordable, or that section 272.121 prohibits the recording of the contract for deed or assignment; and that the defendant has provided to the city or county attorney true and correct copies of the documents within 14 days after receipt of the notice.

(d) In an action brought under this subdivision, the city or county attorney may recover costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorney fees.

108.15 serving upon the purchaser or the purchaser's personal representatives or assigns, within or 108.16 outside of the state, a notice specifying the conditions in which default has been made. The 108.17 notice must state that the contract will terminate 60 days, or a shorter period allowed 108.18 in subdivision 4, after the service of the notice, unless prior to the 108.19 termination date the purchaser:

108.21 (2) makes all payments due and owing to the seller under the contract through the date
108.22 that payment is made;
(3) pays the costs of service of the notice, including the reasonable costs of service by sheriff, public officer, or private process server; except payment of costs of service is not required unless the seller notifies the purchaser of the actual costs of service by certified mail to the purchaser's last known address at least ten days prior to the date of termination;

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 559.21, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Law prevails over contract; procedure; conditions. (a) The notice required by this section must be given notwithstanding any provisions in the contract to the contrary, except that (1) earnest money contracts, purchase agreements, and exercised options that are subject to this section may, unless by their terms they provide for a longer termination period, be terminated on 30 days' notice, or may be canceled under section 559.217 and (2) contracts for deed executed by an investor seller shall be terminated on 90 days' notice. The notice must be served within the state in the same manner as a summons in the district court, and outside of the state, in the same manner, and without securing any sheriff's return of service found, making any preliminary affidavit, mailing a copy of the notice or doing any other preliminary act or thing whatsoever. Service of the notice outside of the state may be proved by the affidavit of the person making the same, made before an authorized officer having a seal, and within the state by such an affidavit or by the return of the sheriff of any county therein.

(b) If a person to be served is a resident individual who has departed from the state, or cannot be found in the state; or is a nonresident individual or a foreign corporation, partnership, or association, service may be made by publication as provided in this paragraph. Three weeks' published notice has the same effect as personal service of the notice. The published notice must comply with subdivision 3 and state (1) that the person to be served is allowed 90 days after the first date of publication of the notice to comply with the conditions of the contract, and (2) that the contract will terminate 90 days after the first date of publication of the notice, unless before the termination date the purchaser complies with the notice. If the real estate described in the contract is actually occupied, then, in addition to publication, a person in possession must be personally served, in like manner as the service of a summons in a civil action in state district court, within 30 days after the first date of publication of the notice: If an address of a person to be served is known, then within 30 days after the first date of publication of the notice a copy of the notice must be mailed to the person's last known address by first class mail, postage prepaid.

(c) The contract is reinstated if, within the time mentioned, the person served:

(1) complies with the conditions in default;

(2) if subdivision 1d or 2a applies, makes all payments due and owing to the seller under the contract through the date that payment is made;

(3) pays the costs of service as provided in subdivision 1b, 1c, 1d, or 2a;

(4) if subdivision 2a applies, pays two percent of the amount in default, not including the final balloon payment, any taxes, assessments, mortgages, or prior contracts that are assumed by the purchaser; and

(5) pays attorneys' fees as provided in subdivision 1b, 1c, 1d, or 2a.

(d) The contract is terminated if the provisions of paragraph (c) are not met.

(e) In the event that the notice was not signed by an attorney for the seller and the seller is not present in the state, or cannot be found in the state, then compliance with the conditions specified in the notice may be made by paying to the court administrator of the district court in the county wherein the real estate or any part thereof is situated any money due and filing proof of compliance with other defaults specified; and the court administrator of the district court shall be deemed the agent of the seller for such purposes. A copy of the notice with proof of service thereof, and the affidavit of the seller, the seller's agent or attorney, showing that the purchaser has not complied with the terms of the notice, may be recorded with the county recorder or registrar of titles, and is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in it; but this section in no case applies to contracts for the sale or conveyance of lands situated in another state or in a foreign country. If the notice is served by publication, the affidavit must state that the affiant believes that the party to be served is not a resident of the state, or cannot be found in the state, and either that the affiant has mailed a copy of the notice by first class mail, postage prepaid, to the party's last known address, or that such address is not known to the affiant.

(f) No notice under this section may be given for a contract for deed executed by an investor seller unless, at least 30 days prior to the service of the notice, some part of the conditions of default has existed and the investor seller has notified the purchaser of the conditions of default by certified mail to the purchaser's last known address.
For purposes of this subdivision, “investor seller” has the meaning given in section 559A.01, subdivision 5.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024.

(a) Notwithstanding any provisions in a contract for deed to the contrary, the notice under this section may not be given and no other remedies may be exercised for any contract for deed based on any of the following transfers:

(1) a transfer on death deed conveying or assigning the deceased purchaser's interest in the property to a grantee beneficiary;

(2) a transfer by devise, descent, or operation of law on the death of a joint tenant occurs;

(3) a transfer by which the spouse or a child of the purchaser becomes an owner of the property;

(4) a transfer resulting from a decree of a dissolution of marriage, legal separation agreement, or from an incidental property settlement agreement, by which the spouse of the purchaser becomes an owner of the property; or

(5) a transfer into an inter vivos trust by which the purchaser is and remains a beneficiary and that does not relate to a transfer of rights of occupancy in the property.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, “contract for deed” has the meaning given in section 507.235, subdivision 1a, paragraph (e).

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024, and applies to all contracts for deed executed by all parties on or after that date.

(a) Notwithstanding subdivision 2a or any provision to the contrary in a contract for deed, a vendor may not terminate a contract for deed under this section if the contract has not been recorded as required under section 507.235, subdivision 1a, paragraph (b), and the vendor has failed to make a good faith effort to record the contract as provided under section 507.235, subdivision 1a, paragraph (d).

(b) Nothing contained in this subdivision prohibits judicial termination of a contract for deed.
(c) For the purposes of this subdivision, "contract for deed" has the meaning given in section 507.235, subdivision 1a, paragraph (e).

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 559.21, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. Affidavit of seller constituting prima facie evidence. In any instance where the copy of the notice of default, proof of service of the notice, and an affidavit showing that the purchaser has not complied with the terms of the notice have been or may be recorded, an affidavit of the seller, the seller's agent, or the attorney verified by a person having knowledge of the facts and attesting that the seller is not an investor seller or that the seller has complied with the requirements of subdivision 4, paragraph (f), may be recorded with the county recorder or registrar of titles and is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024, and applies to contracts for deed executed by all parties on or after that date.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 559.211, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Order; proceedings; security. (a) In an action arising under or in relation to a contract for the conveyance of real estate or any interest therein, the district court, notwithstanding the service or publication pursuant to the provisions of section 559.21 of a notice of termination of the contract, has the authority at any time prior to the effective date of termination of the contract and subject to the requirements of rule 65 of the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts to enter an order temporarily restraining or enjoining further proceedings to effectuate the termination of the contract, including recording of the notice of termination with proof of service, recording of an affidavit showing noncompliance with the terms of the notice, taking any action to recover possession of the real estate, or otherwise interfering with the purchaser's lawful use of the real estate. In the action, the purchaser may plead affirmatively any matter that would constitute a defense to an action to terminate the contract.

(b) Upon a motion for a temporary restraining order the court has the discretion, notwithstanding any rule of court to the contrary, to grant the order without requiring the giving of any security or undertaking; and in exercising that discretion, the court shall consider, as one factor, the moving party's ability to afford monetary security. Upon a motion for a temporary injunction, the court shall condition the granting of the order either upon the tender to the court or vendor of instalments as they become due under the contract or upon the giving of other security in a sum as the court deems proper. Upon written application, the court may disburse from payments tendered to the court an amount the court determines necessary to insure the timely payment of property taxes, property insurance, instalments of special assessments, mortgage instalments, prior contract for deed installments or other similar expenses directly affecting the real estate, or for any other purpose the court deems just.

(c) If a temporary restraining order or injunction is granted pursuant to this subdivision, the contract shall not terminate until the expiration of 15 days after the entry of the order or decision dissolving or modifying the temporary restraining order or injunction. If the vendor has made an appearance and the restraining order or injunction is granted, the court may award court filing fees, reasonable attorney fees, and costs of service to the purchaser.

(d) If the court subsequently grants permanent relief to the purchaser or determines by final order or judgment that the notice of termination was invalid or the purchaser asserted a valid defense, the purchaser is entitled to an order granting court filing fees, reasonable attorney fees, and costs of service.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 559.213, is amended to read:

Sec. 40. [559A.03] CONTRACTS FOR DEED INVOLVING INVESTOR SELLERS AND RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY: DISCLOSURES.

Subdivision 1. Disclosures required. (a) In addition to the disclosures required under sections 513.52 to 513.61, an investor seller must deliver to a prospective purchaser the disclosures specified under this section and instructions for cancellation as provided under section 559A.04, subdivision 2, paragraph (b).

(b) The disclosures must be affixed to the front of any purchase agreement executed between an investor seller and a prospective purchaser. The investor seller may not enter into a contract for deed with a prospective purchaser earlier than ten calendar days after the execution of the purchase agreement by all parties and provision by the investor seller of the disclosures required under this section and instructions for cancellation as required under section 559A.04, subdivision 2, paragraph (b).

(c) If there is no purchase agreement, an investor seller must provide the disclosures required under this section to the prospective purchaser no less than ten calendar days before the prospective purchaser executes the contract for deed. The disclosures must be provided in a document separate from the contract for deed. The investor seller may not enter into a contract for deed with a prospective purchaser earlier than ten calendar days after providing the disclosures to the prospective purchaser:

(d) The first page of the disclosures must contain the disclosures required in subdivisions
2, 3, and 4, in that order. The title must be centered, be in bold, capitalized, and underlined 20-point type, and read "IMPORTANT INFORMATION YOU NEED TO KNOW." The disclosures required under subdivisions 5 and 6 must follow in subsequent pages in that order:

(e) The investor seller must acknowledge delivery and the purchaser must acknowledge receipt of the disclosures by signing and dating the disclosures. The acknowledged disclosures constitute prima facie evidence that the disclosures have been provided as required by this section:

Subd. 2. Disclosure of balloon payment. (a) The investor seller must disclose the amount and due date of, if any, all balloon payments. For purposes of disclosure of a balloon payment, the investor seller may assume that all prior scheduled payments were timely made and no prepayments were made. If there is more than one balloon payment due, each balloon payment must be listed separately:

(b) The disclosure must be in the following form, with the title in 14-point type and the text in 12-point type:

"BALLOON PAYMENT

This contract contains a lump-sum balloon payment or several balloon payments. When the final balloon payment comes due, you may need to get a mortgage or other financing to pay it off, or you will have to sell the property. Even if you are able to sell the property, you may not get back all the money you paid for it.

If you cannot come up with this large amount — even if you have made all your monthly payments — the seller can cancel the contract:

Amount of Balloon Payment When Balloon Payment is Due

$ (amount) (month, year)"
Subd. 3. Disclosure of price paid by investor seller to acquire property. (a) The investor seller must disclose to the purchaser the purchase price and the date of earliest acquisition of the property by the investor seller, unless the acquisition occurs more than two years prior to the execution of the contract for deed.

(b) The disclosure must be in the following form, with the title in 14-point type and the text in 12-point type:

"INVESTOR SELLER'S PRICE TO BUY HOUSE BEING SOLD TO BUYER

Date Investor Seller Acquired Property: (date seller acquired ownership)

Price Paid by Investor Seller to Acquire the Property: $ (total purchase price paid by seller to acquire ownership)

Contract for Deed Purchase Price: $ (total sale price to the purchaser under the contract)"

(c) For the purposes of this subdivision, unless the acquisition occurred more than two years prior to the execution of the contract for deed, the person who first acquires the property is deemed to be the same person as the investor seller where the person who first acquires the property:

(1) is owned or controlled, in whole or in part, by the investor seller;

(2) owns or controls, in whole or in part, the investor seller;

(3) is under common ownership or control, in whole or in part, with the investor seller;

(4) is a spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, or cousin of the investor seller, or of the natural person who owns or controls, in whole or in part, the investor seller;

(5) is an entity owned or controlled, in whole or in part, by a person who is a spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, or cousin of the investor seller, or of the natural person who owns or controls, in whole or in part, the investor seller.

Subd. 4. Disclosure of other essential terms. (a) An investor seller must disclose to the prospective purchaser the purchase price, the annual interest rate, the amount of any down payment, and whether the purchaser is responsible for any or all of the following: paying property taxes, acquiring homeowner's insurance, making repairs, and maintaining the property.
The disclosure must be in the following form, with the title in 14-point type and the text in 12-point type:

"COSTS AND ESSENTIAL TERMS

1. Purchase Price: $ (price)
2. Annual Interest Rate: (interest rate) %
3. Down Payment: $ (down payment)
4. Monthly/Period Installments: $ (amount of installment payment)
5. Taxes, Homeowner's Insurance, Repairs and Maintenance:
   You (seller must circle one):

   (b) DO have to pay homeowner's insurance
   (c) ARE responsible for repairs and maintenance.

Subd. 5. General disclosure. (a) An investor seller must provide the prospective purchaser with a general disclosure about contracts for deeds as provided in this subdivision.
(b) The disclosure must be in the following form, with the title in 18-point type, the titles of the sections in 14-point type and underlined, and the text of each section in 12-point type, with a double space between each section:

"KNOW WHAT YOU ARE GETTING INTO BEFORE YOU SIGN

1. How Contracts for Deed Work
   A contract for deed is a complicated legal arrangement. Be sure you know exactly what you are getting into before you sign a contract for deed. A contract for deed is NOT a mortgage. Minnesota's foreclosure protections do NOT apply.
   You should get advice from a lawyer or the Minnesota Homeownership Center before you sign the contract. You can contact the Homeownership Center at 1-(866)-462-6466 or go to www.hocmn.org.

2. What If I Can't Make My Payments?"
If you do not make your monthly installment payment or the balloon payment, the seller can cancel the contract beginning only 120 days from the date you missed the payment. If the contract is canceled, you lose your home and all the money you have paid, including any down payment, all the monthly payments, and any improvements to the property you have made.

If the contract contains a final lump-sum balloon payment, you will need to get a mortgage or other financing to pay it off, or you will have to sell the property. If you can't come up with this large amount - even if you have made all your monthly payments - the seller can cancel the contract. Even if you are able to sell the property, you may not get back all the money you have paid for it.

3. BEFORE YOU SIGN, YOU SHOULD:
A. Get an Independent, Professional Appraisal of the property to learn what it is worth and make sure you are not overpaying for the house;
B. Get an Independent, Professional Inspection of the property because you will probably be responsible for maintaining and making repairs on the house;
C. Buy Title Insurance from a title insurance company or ask a lawyer for a "title opinion" to address or minimize potential title problems.

4. YOUR RIGHTS BEFORE YOU SIGN
A. Waiting Period After Getting Disclosures. There is a ten calendar day waiting period after you get these disclosures. The contract for deed cannot be signed by you or the seller during that ten calendar day period.
B. Canceling a Purchase Agreement. You have ten calendar days after you get these disclosures to cancel your purchase agreement and get back any money you paid. 6

Subd. 6. Amortization schedule. In a document separate from all other documents, an investor seller must provide to the prospective purchaser an amortization schedule consistent with the contract for deed, including the portion of each installment payment applied to interest and to principal and the amount and due date of any balloon payments.

Subd. 7. Disclosures in other languages. If the contract was advertised or primarily negotiated with the purchaser in a language other than English, the investor seller must provide the disclosures required in this section in the language in which the contract was advertised or primarily negotiated.

Subd. 8. No waiver. The provisions of this section may not be waived.

Subd. 9. Effects of violation. Except as provided in section 559A.05; subdivision 2, a violation of this section has no effect on the validity of the contract for deed.
EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024, and applies to contracts for deed executed by all parties on or after that date.

Sec. 41. [559A.04] CONTRACTS FOR DEED INVOLVING INVESTOR SELLERS AND RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY; RIGHTS AND REQUIREMENTS.

Subdivision 1. Requirement of investor seller if property subject to mortgage. An investor may not execute a contract for deed that is subject to a mortgage with a due-on-sale clause and not expressly assumed by the contract for deed purchaser unless the investor seller has:

1. procured a binding agreement with the mortgage holder whereby the holder either consents to the sale of the property to the purchaser by contract for deed or agrees to not exercise the holder's rights under a due-on-sale clause in the mortgage based on the contract for deed; and

2. in the contract:
   i. disclosed the existence of the investor seller's mortgage;
   ii. covenants that the investor seller will perform all obligations under the mortgage; and
   iii. expressly represents to the purchaser that the seller has procured the binding agreement required under clause (1).

Subd. 2. Right to cancel purchase agreement. (a) A prospective purchaser may cancel a purchase agreement prior to the execution by all parties of the contract for deed or within ten calendar days of receiving the disclosures required under section 559A.03, whichever is earlier. A purchaser's execution of the contract for deed earlier than ten calendar days of receiving the disclosures does not excuse, constitute a waiver of, or constitute a defense by an investor seller regarding the seller's violation of section 559A.03, subdivision 1, paragraph (b) or (c).

(b) In addition to the disclosures required under section 559A.03, an investor seller must provide the prospective purchaser with notice of the person to whom, and the mailing address to which, cancellation of the purchase agreement must be delivered or sent. Cancellation of the purchase agreement is effective upon personal delivery or upon mailing.

(c) In the event of cancellation or if no purchase agreement has been signed and the prospective purchaser elects not to execute the contract for deed, the investor seller may not impose a penalty or fee and must promptly refund all payments made by the prospective purchaser.

Subd. 3. Duty of investor seller to account. The investor seller must inform the purchaser in a separate writing of the right to request an annual accounting. Upon reasonable written request, the investor seller must provide an annual accounting of the seller's books and records. The investor seller shall reimburse the purchaser for the reasonable costs of requesting the accounting at the time of the request, but no later than thirty days after receipt of the request.

request by the purchaser and no more than once every calendar year, an investor seller must provide an accounting of:

(1) all payments made pursuant to the contract for deed during the prior calendar year with payments allocated between interest and principal;

(2) any delinquent payments;

(3) the total principal amount remaining to satisfy the contract for deed; and

(4) the anticipated amounts and due dates of all balloon payments.

Subd. 4. Churning prohibited. (a) An investor seller is prohibited from churning. There is a rebuttable presumption that the investor seller has violated this subdivision if, on or after August 1, 2024, the investor seller executes a contract for deed and, within the previous 48 months, the investor seller either:

(1) had completed two or more termination proceedings under section 559.21 on the same residential real property being sold by the contract for deed; or

(2) had completed four or more termination proceedings under section 559.21 on contracts for deed for any residential real property, where terminated contracts comprise 20 percent or more of all contracts executed by the investor seller during that period;

(b) Nothing contained in this subdivision or in section 559A.01, subdivision 3, shall invalidate, impair, affect, or give rise to any cause of action with respect to any contract for deed or termination proceeding under section 559.21 used as a predicate to establish the presumption under paragraph (a);

(c) For the purposes of this subdivision, a person who sold residential real property on a contract for deed is deemed to be the same person as the investor seller where the person who sold on a contract for deed:

(1) is owned or controlled, in whole or in part, by the investor seller;

(2) owns or controls, in whole or in part, the investor seller;

(3) is under common ownership or control, in whole or in part, with the investor seller;

(4) is a spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, or cousin of the investor seller, or of the natural person who owns or controls, in whole or in part, the investor seller;

(5) is an entity owned or controlled, in whole or in part, by a person who is a spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, or cousin of the investor seller, or of the natural person who owns or controls, in whole or in part, the investor seller.

Subd. 5. Duty of investor seller to refund down payments. (a) If an investor seller terminates under section 559.21 a contract for deed within 48 months of executing the contract, any portion of the down payment that exceeded ten percent of the purchase price shall be refunded to the purchaser within 180 days of the termination of the contract.

(b) Upon delivery to the purchaser by the investor seller of reasonable documentation that the following expenses were incurred or taxes and contract payments were unpaid, an investor seller may offset against the refund, if applicable, for:

(1) unpaid property taxes for the period prior to termination of the contract;

(2) unpaid insurance premiums for the period prior to termination of the contract incurred by the investor seller;

(3) the reasonable cost of necessary repairs for damage to the residential real property caused by the purchaser, beyond ordinary wear and tear, incurred by the investor seller;

(4) attorney fees, not to exceed $1,000, and costs of service incurred in connection with the termination of the contract;

(5) unpaid utility arrears for the period prior to termination of the contract incurred by the investor seller; and

(6) one-half of the unpaid monthly contract installment payments, excluding balloon payments, that accrued prior to termination of the contract.

c) If the purchaser disputes the amount that an investor seller claims as the refund or an offset, the purchaser may commence an action in district court or conciliation court to determine the amount of the refund or the offsets and recover any money owed by the investor seller to the purchaser. The purchaser is entitled to recover from the investor seller any portion of the down payment that the court finds is owed by the investor seller to the purchaser and not previously paid to the purchaser. An attorney expressly authorized by the investor seller to receive payments in the notice of termination is designated as the attorney who may receive service as agent for the investor seller in an action under this paragraph in the same manner as provided in section 559.21, subdivision 8.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024, and applies to contracts for deed executed by all parties on or after that date.

Sec. 42. [559A.05] CONTRACTS FOR DEED INVOLVING INVESTOR SELLERS AND RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY; REMEDIES FOR VIOLATION.

Subdivision 1. Definition. For the purposes of this section, “material violation of section 559A.03” means:

1) if applicable, failure to disclose any balloon payment as required under section 559A.03, subdivision 2;

2) failure to disclose the price paid by the investor seller under the contract for deed to acquire property as required under section 559A.03, subdivision 3;
(3) failure to disclose the other essential terms of the contract as required under section 559A.03, subdivision 4;

(4) failure to provide the general disclosure in substantially the form required under section 559A.03, subdivision 5;

(5) failure to disclose the amortization schedule as required under section 559A.03, subdivision 6;

(6) a violation of section 559A.03, subdivision 1; paragraph (b) or (c);

(7) a violation of section 559A.03, subdivision 7; or

(8) a material omission or misstatement of any of the information required to be disclosed under section 559A.03.

Subd. 2. Remedy for violation of disclosure requirements or churning. (a) Notwithstanding any provision in the purchase agreement or contract for deed to the contrary, a purchaser may, within two years of the execution of the contract for deed, bring an action for relief for a material violation of section 559A.03 or a violation of section 559A.04, subdivision 4. A prevailing purchaser may rescind a contract and, in conjunction with the rescission, may recover against the investor seller a sum equal to:

(1) all amounts paid by the purchaser under the contract for deed, including payments to third parties, less the fair rental value of the residential real property for the period of time the purchaser was in possession of the property;

(2) the reasonable value of any improvements to the residential real property made by the purchaser;

(3) actual, consequential, and incidental damages; and

(4) reasonable attorney fees and costs;

(b) A claim for rescission and a money judgment awarded under this subdivision does not affect any rights or responsibilities of a successor in interest to the investor seller prior to the filing of a lis pendens in the action in which relief is sought, unless it is established by clear and convincing evidence that the successor in interest had prior knowledge that the contract for deed was executed in violation of the requirements of section 559A.03 or 559A.04, subdivision 4.

(c) A purchaser barred under paragraph (b) from making a claim against a successor in interest to the investor seller may, within two years of the execution of the contract for deed, bring a claim for violation of the requirements of section 559A.03 or 559A.04, subdivision 4, against the original investor seller who entered into the contract for deed and may recover the greater of actual damages or statutory damages of $5,000, plus reasonable attorney fees.
and costs. The original investor seller has no claim for indemnification or contribution against the successor in interest.

Subd. 3. Remedy for failure of investor seller to procure agreement with mortgage holder. (a) If a mortgage holder commences foreclosure of the mortgage holder's mortgage based on the sale to a purchaser under the contract for deed and notwithstanding any provision in the purchase agreement or contract for deed to the contrary, a purchaser may bring an action for the failure of the investor seller to procure the agreement with the mortgage holder as required under section 559A.04, subdivision 2. A prevailing purchaser may rescind a contract and may recover against the investor seller a sum equal to:

(1) all amounts paid by the purchaser under the contract for deed, including payments to third parties, less the fair rental value of the residential real property for the period of time the purchaser was in possession of the property;

(2) the reasonable value of any improvements to the residential real property made by the purchaser;

(3) actual, consequential, and incidental damages; and

(4) reasonable attorney fees and costs.

(b) An action under this subdivision may be brought at any time and is not subject to the statute of limitations in subdivision 2, provided that at least 30 days prior to bringing the action, a purchaser must deliver a notice of violation to the investor seller under the contract for deed personally or by United States mail.

(c) An investor seller may cure the violation at any time prior to entry of a final judgment by delivering to the purchaser either evidence of the agreement with the mortgage holder as required under section 559A.04, subdivision 2, or evidence that the mortgage holder has abandoned foreclosure of the mortgage. If the violation is cured, the purchaser's action must be dismissed. An investor seller is liable to the purchaser for reasonable attorney fees and court costs if the seller delivers evidence of the mortgage holder's agreement or abandonment of the foreclosure after the purchaser has commenced the action.

(d) Nothing in this subdivision bars or limits any other claim by a purchaser arising from the investor seller's breach of a senior mortgage.

Subd. 4. Defense to termination. A purchaser's right to the remedy under subdivision 2 or 3 constitutes grounds for injunctive relief under section 559.211.

Subd. 5. Effect of action on title. An action under subdivision 2 or 3 is personal to the purchaser only, does not constitute an interest separate from the purchaser's interest in the contract for deed, and may not be assigned except to a successor in interest.

Subd. 6. Rights cumulative. The rights and remedies provided in this section are cumulative to, and not a limitation of, any other rights and remedies provided under law and at equity. Nothing in this chapter precludes a court from construing a contract for deed as an equitable mortgage.

Subd. 7. Public enforcement. The attorney general has authority under section 8.31 to investigate and prosecute violations of sections 559A.03 and 559A.04, subdivision 4.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2024, and applies to all contracts for deed executed by all parties on or after that date.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 563.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Court fee waiver; authorization of in forma pauperis. (a) Any court of the state of Minnesota or any political subdivision thereof may authorize the commencement or defense of any civil action, or appeal therein, without prepayment of fees, costs and security for costs by a natural person who makes affidavit stating (a) the nature of the action, defense or appeal; (b) a belief that affiant is entitled to redress; and (c) that affiant is financially unable to pay the fees, costs and security for costs.

(b) Upon a finding by the court that the action is not of a frivolous nature, the court shall allow the person to proceed in forma pauperis with a court fee waiver if the affidavit is substantially in the language required by this subdivision and is not found by the court to be untrue. Persons meeting the requirements of this subdivision include, but are not limited to, a person who is receiving public assistance described in section 550.37, subdivision 14, who is represented by an attorney on behalf of a civil legal services program or a volunteer attorney program based on indigency, or who has an annual income not greater than 125 percent of the poverty line established under United States Code, title 42, section 9902(2), except as otherwise provided by section 563.02.

(c) If, at commencement of the action, the court finds that a party does not meet the eligibility criteria under paragraph (b), but the court also finds that the party is not able to pay all of the fees, costs, and security for costs, the court may order payment of a fee of $75 or partial payment of the fees, costs, and security for costs, to be paid as directed by the court.

The court administrator shall transmit any fees or payments to the commissioner of management and budget for deposit in the state treasury and credit to the general fund.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 563.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Payment of expenses. Upon order of the court, the court administrator and the sheriff of any Minnesota county shall perform their duties without charge to the person proceeding in forma pauperis with a court fee waiver. The court shall direct payment of the reasonable expense of service of process pursuant to subdivision 2 if served by a private process server, if the sheriff is unavailable, or by publication.
Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 563.01; subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. Appellate briefs. In any case on appeal the appellate court shall, upon granting permission to proceed in forma pauperis with a court fee waiver following application in the manner provided in subdivision 3, direct payment of the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the record and reproducing the appellate briefs.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 563.01; subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. Rescinding in forma pauperis status court fee waiver. Upon motion, the court may rescind its permission to proceed in forma pauperis with a court fee waiver if the court finds the allegations of poverty contained in the affidavit are untrue, or if, following commencement of the action, the party becomes able to pay the fees, costs and security for the costs. In such cases, the court may direct the party to pay to the court administrator any costs allowing the action to proceed. The court administrator shall transmit the costs to the commissioner of management and budget for deposit in the state treasury and credit them to the general fund.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 563.01; subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. Judgment. Judgment may be rendered for costs at the conclusion of the action as in other cases. In the event any person recovers moneys by either settlement or judgment as a result of commencing or defending an action in forma pauperis with a court fee waiver, the costs deferred and the expenses directed by the court to be paid under this section shall be included in such moneys and shall be paid directly to the court administrator by the opposing party. The court administrator shall transmit the costs to the commissioner of management and budget for deposit in the state treasury and credit them to the general fund.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 563.02; subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Inmate request to proceed in forma pauperis waive court fees. (a) An inmate who wishes to commence a civil action by proceeding in forma pauperis with court fee waived must meet the following requirements, in addition to the requirements of section 563.01; subdivision 3:

(1) exhaust the inmate complaint procedure developed under the commissioner of corrections policy and procedure before commencing a civil action against the department; and in the application to proceed in forma pauperis waive court fees that the inmate has done so; and

(2) include the following information in an affidavit submitted under section 563.01:

(i) a statement that the inmate's claim is not substantially similar to a previous claim brought by the inmate against the same party, arising from the same operative facts, and in which there was an action that operated as an adjudication on the merits;
(ii) complete information on the inmate’s identity, the nature and amount of the inmate’s income, spouse’s income, if available to the inmate, real property owned by the inmate; and

(iii) the most recent monthly statement provided by the commissioner of corrections showing the balance in the inmate’s inmate account.

(b) The inmate shall also attach a written authorization for the court to obtain at any time during pendency of the present action, without further authorization from the inmate, a current statement of the inmate’s inmate account balance, if needed to determine eligibility to proceed with bringing a civil action in forma pauperis with court fees waived. An inmate who has no funds in an inmate account satisfies the requirement of section 563.01, subdivision 3, clause (c).

(c) An inmate who seeks to proceed as a plaintiff in forma pauperis with court fees waived must file with the court the complaint in the action and the affidavit under this section before serving the complaint on an opposing party.

(d) An inmate who has funds in an inmate account may only proceed as a plaintiff in a civil action by paying the lesser of:

(1) the applicable court filing fee; or

(2) 50 percent of the balance shown in the inmate’s account according to the statement filed with the court under this subdivision, consistent with the requirements of section 243.23, subdivision 3;

(e) If an inmate elects to proceed under paragraph (d), the court shall notify the commissioner of corrections to withdraw from the inmate’s account the amount required under this section and forward the amount to the court administrator in the county where the action was commenced. The court shall also notify the commissioner of corrections of the amount of the filing fee remaining unpaid. The commissioner shall continue making withdrawals from the inmate’s account and forwarding the amounts withdrawn to the court administrator, at intervals as the applicable funds in the inmate’s account equal at least $10, until the entire filing fee and any costs have been paid in full.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 571.72, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Bad faith claim. If, in a proceeding brought under subdivision 9, section 571.91, or a similar proceeding under this chapter to determine a claim of exemption, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the debtor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment shall be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to that party's attorney for fees; the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and if not paid an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 571.72, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

YOU WILL BE ABLE TO CLAIM THESE EXEMPTIONS WHEN YOU RECEIVE A NOTICE. You will get the notice at least ten days BEFORE a wage garnishment. BUT if the creditor garnishes your bank account, you will not get the notice until AFTER the account has been frozen. IF YOU BELIEVE THE MONEY IN YOUR BANK ACCOUNT OR YOUR WAGES ARE EXEMPT, YOU SHOULD IMMEDIATELY CONTACT THE PERSON BELOW. YOU SHOULD TELL THEM WHY YOU THINK YOUR ACCOUNT OR WAGES ARE EXEMPT TO SEE IF YOU CAN AVOID GARNISHMENT.

(a) Unless the judgment is for child support, the maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any pay period subjected to garnishment may not exceed the lesser of:

119.7 (2) 15 percent of the debtor's disposable earnings, if the debtor's weekly income exceeds 80 times, but is less than or equal to 120 times, the greater of the hourly wages described in section 571.922, paragraph (a), clause (4); or

119.8 (3) 5 percent of the debtor's disposable earnings, if the debtor's weekly income exceeds 40 times, but is less than or equal to 80 times, the greater of the hourly wages described in section 571.922, paragraph (a), clause (4).

- (i) 40 times the federal minimum hourly wages prescribed by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, United States Code, title 29, section 206(a)(1). The calculation of the amount that is subject to garnishment must be based on the hourly wage in effect at the time the earnings are payable, times the number of work weeks in the pay period. When a pay period consists of other than a whole number of work weeks, each day of that pay period in excess of the number of completed work weeks shall be counted as a fraction of a work week equal to the number of excess workdays divided by the number of days in the normal work week.

- (ii) 40 times the hourly wage described in section 177.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clause (1), item (iii); or

- (2) 55 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the garnishment summons is received);

- (3) 60 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child and the judgment is 12 weeks old or less (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received); or

- (4) 65 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the garnishment summons is received).
Wage garnishments on judgments for child support are effective until the judgments are satisfied if the judgment creditor is a county and the employer is notified by the county when the judgment is satisfied.

(4) No court may make, execute, or enforce an order or any process in violation of this section.
