The Minneapolis Public Library at 300 Nicollet Mall houses more than 900,000 books, as well as a planetarium and science museum. Designed by architects Lang & Raugland and McEnery & Krafft, the $4 million building opened in January 1961. The bronze scroll by Minneapolis sculptor John Rood was donated by Mrs. Dorothy Rood in dedication to former Minneapolis mayor William Henry Eustis. The 27-foot, 13-ton scroll had to be lowered into place at 5:30 on a Sunday Morning to avoid traffic. (Courtesy of Minneapolis Public Library)

MCAR AMENDMENTS AND ADDITIONS

The following is a listing of all proposed and adopted rules published in this issue of the State Register. The listing is arranged in the same order as the table of contents of the Minnesota Code of Agency Rules (MCAR). All adopted rules published in the State Register and listed below amend the rules contained in the MCAR set. Both proposed temporary and adopted temporary rules are listed here although they are not printed in the MCAR due to the short term nature of their legal effectiveness. During the term of their legal effectiveness, however, adopted temporary rules do amend the MCAR. A cumulative listing of all proposed and adopted rules in Volume 3 of the State Register will be published on a quarterly basis and at the end of the volume year.

The adoption of a rule becomes effective after the requirements of Minn. Stat. § 15.0412, subd. 4, have been met and five working days after the rule is published in the State Register, unless a later date is required by statutes or specified in the rule.

If an adopted rule is identical to its proposed form as previously published, a notice of adoption as proposed and a citation to its previous State Register publication will be printed.

If an adopted rule differs from its proposed form, language which has been deleted will be printed with strike outs and new language will be underlined, and the rule's previous State Register publication will be cited.

A temporary rule becomes effective upon the approval of the Attorney General as specified in Minn. Stat. § 15.0412, subd. 5. Notice of his decision will be published as soon as practicable, and the adopted temporary rule will be published in the manner provided for adopted rules under subd. 4.

Department of Labor and Industry Occupational Safety and Health Division Order Reaffirming Rules

Pursuant to the decision of the Minnesota Supreme Court in Minnesota Public Interest Research Group v. Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry, _____ Minn. _____, 249 N.W. 2d 437 (1976), E. I. Malone, Commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry, on June 19, 1978 (2 S.R. 2292) proposed to reaffirm the existing health standards regarding exposure of employees to carcinogens and vinyl chloride. No comments, objections, or requests for public hearing on the proposed rules were received. Therefore, these standards, published at 29 CFR §§ 1910.1003 through 1910.1017, are hereby affirmed.

RULES

State University Board Adopted Repeal of Rules

The proposal to repeal SCB Rules 101-1099 as published at State Register, Volume 2, Number 24, pp. 1201-1223, December 19, 1977 (2 S.R. 1201), has been amended and adopted as of August 22, 1978. Printed below are the amendments which indicate the portions of the rules which were not repealed.

Chapter One Definitions

SCB 101 Individual. The term "individual" refers to a student, of any of the Minnesota State Colleges; an employee in the Office of the Chancellor; or a member of the Minnesota State College Board.

SCB 102 The State College System. The terms "State College System" and "System" refer to all components of the System collectively. The components of the System are: The State College Board, the Chancellor and other employees in the Office of the Chancellor, and the State Colleges.

SCB 103 College and College Community. The terms "College" and "College Community" refer to all components of the College collectively. The components of a College are: the President, the students (SCB 801), and the professional support personnel. Any individual enrolled in a course for credit or audit in the College is a member of the student component.

Chapter Two The Basic Rights and Responsibilities of Individuals within the State College System

Part 1 Basic Rights

SCB 204 Fair evaluations. Students, shall be evaluated for such official purposes as the awarding of grades and diplomas, solely on the basis of their performance in meeting appropriate standards established and communicated to them in advance of the assignment of responsibilities for which they will be evaluated.

SCB 209 Fair procedures for the imposition of sanctions.

(b) Suspension. Pending action on charges of violating a System Rule or a College Constitution or Regulation a person is presumed innocent until proven guilty and shall continue to receive all benefits of his position except that his right to be present on the campus and attend to his classes or other official duties may be suspended for reasons relating to the safety of himself or others.

(e) Hearing procedures.

(1) Any individual accused of violating a System Rule or College Regulation which may lead to the imposition of any formal sanction has the right to a hearing at the earliest reasonable date.

(5) The burden of proof at a hearing shall rest with College or System officials. If an individual declines to admit the alleged violation, he shall have an opportunity to appear and explain, to present evidence and witnesses, and to hear and question adverse witnesses. The hearing agency shall not consider statements against the individual unless he is present when they are made or he is advised in writing of their content and the names of those who made them and unless he is given an opportunity to rebut unfavorable inferences which might otherwise be drawn.

(6) An individual may not be required to submit to procedures which may result in the imposition of College or System sanctions for a particular violation more than once.

(g) Types of formal sanctions. Formal sanctions imposed for violation of a System Rule or College Constitution or Regulation must bear a reasonable relationship to the violation. The formal sanctions which may be imposed are dismissal, expulsion, suspension, censure, disciplinary and academic probation, or some other privilege or reward.

SCB 210 Ex post facto actions prohibited. A formal sanction may be imposed only for violation of a System Rule or College Constitution or Regulation. Such Rule, Constitution, or Regulation must be established prior to the action for which the formal sanction would be imposed and published in a manner to make it generally available to those subject to it.

Chapter Eight College Students

SCB 801 Definition of students. A State College student is any individual enrolled for credit or audit in a State College. Each College Constitution shall set forth qualifications which a student must meet in order to participate in College governance. The Constitution may require that students meet different qualifications for different kinds of participation.

If a proposed rule is totally new, it is designated "all new material."

RULES

SCB 802 The principal agency for student participation in College governance. Each College Constitution shall provide a principal agency for student participation in College governance. The College Constitution and Regulations may also provide for additional, subordinate agencies. The College Constitution may provide procedures for students to hold referendum votes and shall determine the effect of such votes. Through agencies and procedures designated in the College Constitution or Regulations, students may make recommendations to the President on any matter affecting the College, including any action taken by any agency of the College or subdivision.

SCB 803 Major responsibilities of the students in College governance. Through agencies and procedures designated in the College Constitution or Regulations, students shall develop, in consultation with appropriate administrative officers, the budgets for programs supported by the student activity fee. (Minn. Stat. ch. 136.11 (1969)). Students shall have major responsibility [See SCB 503] for the development of College Regulations pertaining to student relations, the conduct of students, college centers or student unions, and student housing; and for such other College Regulations as are designated in the College Constitutions.

SCB 804 Participatory responsibilities of the students in College governance. Through agencies and procedures designated in the College Constitution or Regulations, students shall participate in the following:

- (a) Development of College Regulations relating to curriculum, the evaluation of instruction, admissions, academic standards, and graduation requirements.
- (b) Development of College Regulations pertaining to parking and traffic.
- (c) Selection of a new College President when a vacancy occurs and in the selection of such other personnel as the College Constitution designates for such participation.
- (d) Development of long-range plans and priorities for the College.
- (e) The establishment and modification of the College Regulations enumerated in SCB 505(c).
- (f) The preparation of College budgets and the allocation of College Resources.

SCB 805 Student rights. Special provisions specifically relating to student rights shall be provided for in an Internal Rule and the College Constitutions. Such provisions shall include procedures guaranteeing the confidentiality of student records and the appeal of academic and disciplinary decisions.

PROPOSED RULES

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 15.0412, subd. 4, agencies must hold public hearings on proposed new rules and/or proposed amendment of existing rules. Notice of intent to hold a hearing must be published in the State Register at least 30 days prior to the date set for the hearing, along with the full text of the proposed new or amended rule. The agency shall make at least one free copy of a proposed rule available to any person requesting it.

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 15.0412, subd. 5, when a statute, federal law or court order to adopt, suspend or repeal a rule does not allow time for the usual rulemaking process, temporary rules may be proposed. Proposed temporary rules are published in the State Register, and for at least 20 days thereafter, interested persons may submit data and views in writing to the proposing agency.

Correction to Request for Public Comment Concerning MOSHC 133

This notice hereby corrects an error in the Department of Labor and Industry, Occupational Safety and Health Division Request for Public Comment that was published at State Register, Monday, July 24, 1978 (3 S.R. 91).

The Minnesota Occupational Safety and Health Code, MOSHC 133, paragraph (f) was omitted. The entire MOSHC 133 should read as follows:

MOSHC 133 Lockout devices.

A. Any main electrical power disconnect means which controls a source of power or material flow shall be locked out with a lockout device whenever employees are maintaining, cleaning, adjusting or servicing machinery or equipment, if such work is not in clear sight of the employee. A "Do Not Start" tag as described in 29 CFR 1910.145(f)(3) shall be affixed to any and all operating controls.

B. All pneumatic, hydraulic, and other fluid lines shall be bled, drained, or purged to eliminate pressure, contents or both and the line valve holding back any substance in lines which are bled, drained, or purged shall also be locked out.

C. Mechanisms under spring tension or compression shall be blocked, clamped, secured in position, or the compression or tension totally relieved before being worked on by an employee.

D. Suspended mechanisms or parts that normally cycle through a lower position shall be lowered to the lowest position, blocked, or otherwise secured in position before being worked on by an employee.

E. Where more than one employee is engaged in working on machinery or equipment, each employee shall affix their individual lockout device or lock it to the disconnect switch or power supply.

F. Utility companies, when working on lines and equipment, will be exempt from this standard but must comply with the requirements of 29 CFR 1926.950(d).

Notice of Request for Proposals for Utility Conservation Programs

The Department of Public Service is soliciting proposals from qualified consultants for assistance in performing work on the second year of a five-year contract with the federal Department of Energy to implement utility conservation programs — specifically, implementation of cost-based rate designs for electricity and gas, implementation of load-management programs, and implementation of programs aimed at conservation in end-use activities.

In broad terms, these programs will encompass state-wide adoption of time-of-use electric rates where beneficial; state-wide elimination of declining-block electric rates; the elimination of master metering; state-wide adoption of volumetric gas rates; implementation of a utility-financed insulation program; and state-wide implementation of other conservation programs.

Copies of the Request for Proposal can be obtained by contacting Penny McCarran, Department of Public Service, 7th Floor, American Center Building, 160 East Kellogg Boulevard, St. Paul, Minnesota 55101, or by telephone at 296-0419. Proposals should be submitted to Mr. Lawrence Anderson, Director, Department of Public Service, by October 2, 1978.

OFFICIAL NOTICES

Pursuant to the provisions of Minn. Stat. § 15.0412, subd. 6, an agency, in preparing proposed rules, may seek information or opinion from sources outside the agency. Notices of intent to solicit outside opinion must be published in the State Register and all interested persons afforded the opportunity to submit data or views on the subject, either orally or in writing.

The State Register also publishes other official notices of state agencies, notices of meetings, and matters of public interest.

Disclosure Exemption Granted to Socialist Workers' Party Campaign Committees and Candidates

Order for Hearing and Notice Thereof

It is hereby ordered and notice is hereby given that a contested case hearing concerning the above-entitled matter will be held on September 22, 1978, at 9:00 a.m., William Mitchell College of Law, Legal Education Center, 40 North Milton, St. Paul, Minnesota 55105, Room 107.

The hearing will be held before Melvin B. Goldberg, 875 Summit Street, St. Paul, Minnesota 55105, 227-9171, a Hearing Examiner appointed by the Chief Hearing Examiner of the State of Minnesota. All parties have the right to be represented by legal counsel or any other representative of their choice throughout the contested case proceeding. The hearing will be conducted pursuant to the contested case procedures set out in Minn. Stat. § 15.0411 through Minn. Stat. § 15.052 and Minn. Rules, HE 201 through 222. Questions concerning the issues raised in this Order or concerning informal disposition or discovery may be directed to Special Assistant Attorney General Richard Lockridge, 296-2619.

On July 18, 1978, the Ethical Practices Board granted to the Socialist Workers' Party and Socialist Workers' Party candidates an exemption from disclosure for contributors and guarantors of loans. The exemption was granted in accordance with Minn. Stat. § 10A.20, subd. 10, based upon standards as set forth in Minn. Stat. § 10A.20, subd. 8. The Ethical Practices Board has received two written objections to this exemption. Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 10A.20, subd. 10, the Board is required to conduct a contested case hearing on the matter. The contested case hearing shall determine whether or not the Socialist Workers' Party Campaign Committee and campaign committees of Socialist Workers' Party candidates shall be exempted from the contribution and loan disclosure requirements of Minn. Stat. § 10A.20.

FAILURE TO APPEAR AT THE HEARING BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOCIALIST WORKERS' PARTY COULD RESULT IN THE LOSS OF THE EXEMPTION. FAILURE TO APPEAR AT THE HEARING BY PERSONS OPPOSING THE EXEMPTION COULD RESULT IN THE GRANTING OF THE EXEMPTION.

The above cited procedural rules are available at the Office of Hearing Examiners or may be purchased from the Documents Section of the Department of Administration, 140 Centennial Building, St. Paul, Minnesota 55155 (296-2874). They provide generally for the procedural rights of the parties including: rights to advance notice of witnesses and evidence, right to a prehearing conference, rights to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses, and right to purchase a record or transcript.

Persons attending the hearing should bring all evidence bearing on the case including any records or other documents.

OFFICIAL NOTICES

If persons have good reason for requesting a delay of the hearing, the request must be made in writing to the Hearing Examiner at least 5 days prior to the hearing. A copy of the request must be served on the agency and any other parties.

Gentlemen:

I would like to have a ruling regarding campaign expenditures. My question is, would monies spent after election for the following items be included as campaign expenditures:

1. Thank you notes mailed out to individuals who helped in the campaign.
2. Thank you ads put into the newspaper thanking people for their vote.
3. Thank you radio spots.
4. Questionnaires developed after the election, seeking the opinions of people, and the mailing of such.
5. Mailings to different groups to get their suggestions for the 1979 Legislative Session:

I would appreciate the Ethical Practices Board making a decision on these matters and relaying this to me as soon as possible.
