Temporary Rule as Proposed

12 MCAR § 2.014 Grants for community support services for chronically mentally ill persons.

A. Statutory citation. The authority for this rule is Chapter 324, § 12, Laws of Minnesota, 1979, codified as Minn. Stat. § 256E.12.

B. Purpose. The purposes of this temporary rule are to govern grant applications, approval of applications, allocation of grants, and maintenance of financial statements by grant recipients. In order to carry out these purposes, this rule will set minimum standards for the contents of grant applications, allocation and award of grants, and maintenance of financial statements to carry out the intent of the authorizing legislation.

C. Introduction.

1. The provisions of this rule shall be severable. If any clause, sentence, or provision is declared illegal or of no effect, the validity of the remainder of this rule and its applicability shall not be affected.

2. This rule shall not be construed as requiring expenditures of monies not available.

3. Any provision of this rule inconsistent with any state or federal law is superseded by that law.

D. Applicability.

1. This rule applies to those county boards of commissioners which apply, either individually or jointly with neighboring counties, to the Commissioner of Public Welfare for grants to carry out the purposes of this rule.

2. The county board of commissioners may request funds under this rule for programs and services for chronically mentally ill people to be carried out by the county or by any public or nonprofit organization, or by any combination of these organizations with which the county contracts.

E. Definitions.

1. Administrative overhead: Those costs which cannot be directly charged to the project funded under this rule, or which are shared with activities other than the funded project.

2. Case management: A direct service provided by qualified mental health workers to chronically mentally ill people. Essential components of case management are 1) monitoring and supervising individual clients, 2) assuring coordination and availability of treatment/rehabilitation/

PROPOSED RULES

7. Crisis management: Short-term services provided, to the extent possible, in the client's usual surroundings including the client's own home or substitute home, aimed at the reduction of acute emotional disabilities and their physical and social manifestations and the restoration of emotional equilibrium. Such services must be available twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

8. Day treatment program: A program of administratively organized and programmatically structured services operating less than 24 hours a day for chronically mentally ill people which devotes a significant share of the scheduled program day to the teaching of independent living skills, psychosocial rehabilitation, psychotherapy, and development of socialization skills so that the participants may function more independently and more effectively in their own communities.

F. Allocation.

1. Priority of allocation.

a. Funds will be awarded for new or expanded services providing additional direct services to chronically mentally ill people and which emphasize crisis management, independent living skill training and case management components in their services. Day treatment, crisis homes, and drop-in centers may be funded under this rule.

b. Programs and services provided at the site of a long-term residential facility may be funded but will be given a lower priority than those provided away from the residential facility, unless the applicant county documents that the residents of the facility are unable to leave the facility to make use of the services.

c. Applications proposing services not mentioned in this section will be considered if there is a documented local need for them.

KEY: RULES SECTION — Underlining indicates additions to proposed rule language. ~~Strike outs~~ indicate deletions from proposed rule language. PROPOSED RULES SECTION — Underlining indicates additions to existing rule language. ~~Strike outs~~ indicate deletions from existing rule language. If a proposed rule is totally new, it is designated "all new material."

PROPOSED RULES

2. Regional priorities. To the extent that the applications submitted are equally meritorious, the Department will allocate funds in such a way that amounts are awarded, pro rata, according to population size, approximately one-half to applying counties from Region XI and approximately one-half to applying counties from the balance of the state. If there are not sufficient acceptable applications from one group of counties as defined above, the remaining funds will be awarded to qualifying applications from the other group of counties.

G. Content of applications.

1. Applications must contain at least the following information, following the Problem, Objectives, Method, Evaluation (POME) format:

a. Problem: a description of the problem to be addressed by the proposed service; the population at risk; and the evidence of the need for this service.

b. Objectives: a statement of the measurable time-limited outcomes of the proposed service;

c. Methods: the modalities of treatment and rehabilitation to be used; a description of how individualized program plans will be used in carrying out the service; a description of how case management will be used in carrying out the service; a description of how the proposed service will fit into the local continuum of care and service; and a description of the proposed site(s) and providers to be used. If the providers and sites have not been finally determined at the time of application, the Department will consider the application if it contains indications of potential providers and sites.

d. Evaluation: a description of how the county board of commissioners will evaluate projects funded under this rule.

2. A budget shall be included with the application, completed on the designated budget forms. Dollar amounts for the various items included in the budget document shall reflect and be based upon the prevailing cost of like components in the local community. It shall indicate the total cost of the project, showing the respective state and local shares. The specification of the local share shall indicate the amount of actual local funds committed to the project source.

3. A resolution of support signed by the applicant county board(s) shall be attached to the application indicating the amount of county funds committed to the proposed project as the required local match. If the service is proposed by and for more than one county, the chairman of participating county boards of commissioners shall sign the application.

4. Five complete copies of the application and budget shall be submitted to the Department.

H. Use of project funds.

1. The purpose of this experimental, time-limited appropriation is to provide new or expanded programs and services to chronically mentally ill adults in such a way as to maximize the use of the funds in a relatively short period of time to test their effectiveness. The use of the funds available under this appropriation for capital expenditures or non-service related costs would not serve this purpose.

2. Allowable expenses, which shall be budgeted in the form specified in G.5. of this rule, include:

a. salaries and related expenses of personnel providing services directly to clients in the project;

b. local travel costs of personnel working in the project;

c. consummable supplies used by the project;

d. administrative overhead, as defined and limited by this rule.

3. If an applicant can show that an expenditure other than for a direct service is 1) relatively minor, 2) essential for the project to operate, and 3) cannot be paid for from local funds, such an expenditure may be paid for from funds available under this rule, with the approval of the Commissioner. The Commissioner shall use the above enumerated criteria in approving such expenditures.

4. State funds available under this rule shall not be used to pay room and board costs, except for such costs in Crisis Homes, and then only if it can be demonstrated not to be cost-effective to charge the individual or third parties for these costs.

5. Funds available under this rule shall not be used to replace existing fiscal support of programs and services. In the event that existing fiscal support of a mental illness program or service is eliminated or reduced by circumstances beyond the control of the county board of commissioners, application may be made for funds available under this rule to replace the existing funds which have been eliminated or reduced, provided that specific documentation of the elimination or reduction in fiscal support accompanies the application.

6. State funds available under this rule shall not be used for construction or renovation or rent of buildings, nor shall they be used for the purchase or lease of equipment or vehicles. Local matching funds, once identified and committed, may be used for these purposes and will be counted as administrative overhead.

7. State funds available under this rule shall not be used to pay for subscriptions, membership dues, or for out-of-state conferences or out-of-state travel.

8. Legal and accounting fees and planning activities shall not be funded under this rule, although individual program-planning costs are allowed.

I. Administrative overhead.

1. Up to a maximum of ten percent of the total project budget may be used for administrative overhead in a currently operating organization. In situations where previously non-existent programs and services are being developed, the maximum allowed for administrative overhead shall be twenty-five percent of the total project budget for the duration of the first project grant.

SUPREME COURT

Decisions Filed Friday, November
9, 1979

Compiled by John McCarthy, Clerk

49181, Floodwood-Fine Lakes Citizens Group, et al, vs.
49203, Minnesota Environmental Quality Council, Appel-
49224/12 lant (49181), and Great Lakes Gas Transmission
Company, Society Concerned About a Ravaged Environment, Inc., (SCARE, Inc.) Appellant (49203),
Minnesota Power & Light Company, Appellant
(49224). St. Louis County.

The preparation of an inventory of potential large electric power generating plant sites by the Environmental Quality Council (now Environmental Quality Board) pursuant to Minn. Stat. 116C.55 (1976), was not a jurisdictional prerequisite to the selection of such a site by EQC at Floodwood/Fine Lakes for use by Minnesota Power & Light Company.

The Environmental Quality Council was not limited to considering only power plant sites selected by applicants for certification of site compatibility but may consider feasible and prudent alternative sites under Minn. Stat. 116C.57 (1976).

There was substantial compliance with the notice requirements of Minn. Stat. 116C.59 (1978) by EQC in conducting public hearings which were attended by parties interested in the selection of a power plant site sought by MP&L.

On remand the function of the trial court in reviewing the power plant site selection by EQC, here for consideration is limited to determining whether the agency decision is supported by substantial evidence or is arbitrary or capricious.

Reversed and remanded. Otis, J.

49396/315 Harold H. Dvorak, Appellant, vs. Blayne E. Maring, et al. Olmsted County.

The requirements of Minn. Stat. § 507.02 (1978) prohibiting alienation of the homestead without the signatures of both spouses can only be satisfied if both partners sign a contract for sale or join in a deed conveying the homestead property. A spouse's endorsement of an earnest money check does not constitute a signature within the contemplation of § 507.02.

The trial court correctly found that the undisputed evidence supports neither the plaintiff's claim of estoppel nor his claim for damages due to breach of contract and negligent and intentional misrepresentation.

Affirmed. Rogosheske, J. Took no part, Otis, J.

48728/327 State of Minnesota vs. Jesse James Crisler, Appellant. Ramsey County.

Under the facts of this case, where defendant has been given Miranda warnings, all express and implied commitments embodied in those warnings must be honored. Thus, where defendant in custody asserts his right to counsel, any further interrogation must cease in obedience to the clearly implied commitment that the accused will not be asked to answer further questions until he has consulted with his attorney or his attorney is present.

An officer's testimony concerning evidence obtained in violation of a defendant's constitutional rights should not be admitted into evidence.

If there is a reasonable possibility that erroneously admitted evidence might have contributed to a defendant's conviction, the error is prejudicial and the defendant is entitled to a new trial.

Reversed and remanded for a new trial. Rogosheske, J.

49271, Steven C. Larson, a minor, by Percy Larson, his 49854/273 father and natural guardian, Percy Larson, individually, and Phyllis Larson, vs. Independent School District No. 314, Braham, Minnesota, and James Lamont, Lyle Lundquist, Appellant (49854), and Jack Peterson, Appellant (49271). Isanti County.

The jury's finding that the injury of a student in a physical education class was due in part to the negligence of the principal of the school was not manifestly and palpably contrary to the evidence as a whole where the record indicated that the principal failed to exercise reasonable care in supervising the development, planning, and administration of the school's physical education curriculum and in supervising the inexperienced physical education instructor.

The trial court's directed verdict in favor of the superintendent of the school system was proper because he was not sufficiently involved in the actions or inactions upon which plaintiffs based their claims of negligence.

The judgment utilized by a physical education instructor in determining how to spot and teach an advanced gymnastic exercise was not decisionmaking entitled to protection under the doctrine of discretionary immunity; therefore, the instructor was liable for his negligent spotting and teaching of the exercise.

A principal who in effect abdicated his responsibility for developing and administering the teaching of the physical education curriculum was not engaging in decisionmaking at the planning level; therefore, his liability for the negligent discharge of that responsibility was not precluded by the doctrine of discretionary immunity.

The amount of the principal's liability as determined by the trial court was correct, because the principal was not entitled to indemnity from the school district and his liability was not limited to the amount of insurance coverage the school district was required to carry under Minn. Stat. 1971, § 466.04.

Affirmed. Peterson, J. Dissenting, Otis, J. Dissenting in part, concurring in part, Wahl, J. Took no part, Todd, J.

47876/318 Irene Perkins, as Trustee for Surviving Spouse and (1978) Next of Kin of Patrick J. Perkins, Deceased, Appellant, vs. National Railroad Passenger Corporation, d.b.a. AMTRAK, et al., Public Service Commission, Department of Public Service, State of Minnesota.
Ramsey County.

In future cases involving railroad crossing accidents, terms such as "extrahazardous" are not to be used in instructing the jury. The jury is to focus on whether, under the particular circumstances, the railroad fulfilled its duty of due care.

Statutory requirement that the Public Service Commission hold hearings on all petitions within six months of filing is directory only and failure to hold a hearing does not constitute actionable negligence.

Reversed and remanded for a new trial. Yetka, J.

49293/332 Imogene Walton, Trustee of the next of kin of James Walton, Appellant, vs. Richard H. Jones. Hennepin County.

SUPREME COURT

The exclusion of expert witness testimony lies within the sound discretion of the trial court, and said exclusionary ruling will not be disturbed on appeal absent a showing of abuse of that discretion.

The trial court's decision not to allow the plaintiff to reopen her case, after resting, to recall the defendant, where probably no new ground would be covered, was not an abuse of the trial court's discretion.

To establish a prima facie case of medical malpractice, a plaintiff must introduce expert testimony on the standard of care required and that the departure therefrom was the direct cause of the decedent's death. Here the record does not contain this required evidence.

Affirmed. Scott, J. Took no part, Otis, J.

49434/345 Arthur C. Melamed, petitioner, vs. Helen R. Melamed, Appellant. Hennepin County.

The trial court's discretionary rulings concerning alimony, attorney fees and property division, as respects both parties, are reasonable and will not be disturbed on appeal.

Although the trial court erred in ordering the homestead sold prior to the entry of final judgment, appellant has not shown such prejudice resulting from this error as to entitle her to the requested relief.

Since a trial court does not have the authority in a divorce proceeding to award the couple's children a property interest, the district court's granting of a remainder interest to the children in a piece of marital property is hereby declared null and void.

Affirmed in part; modified in part; and remanded for the entry of judgment in accordance with the decision reached herein. Scott, J. Took no part, Todd, J.

49232/108 David O'Connor, Petitioner, vs. The Honorable Robert T. Johnson, Judge of County Court, County of Ramsey. Ramsey County.

A warrant authorizing the search of an attorney's office is unreasonable and, therefore, invalid when the attorney is not suspected of criminal wrongdoing and there is no threat that the documents sought will be destroyed.

Writ of Prohibition granted. Wahl, J.

49105/207 Faribault Woolen Mill Co., Appellant, vs. Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company, et al. Rice County.

By introducing clean bills of lading and inspection reports, completed by defendant rail carriers' employees, representing that plaintiff's cargo container was "in apparent good order (contents and condition of contents of packages unknown)" when received by the defendants at origin, and that defendants' employees' inspections revealed no defects to the container's exterior surface, plaintiff established, as an essential element of the prima facie case for liability under the Carmack Amendment, 40 U.S.C.A. § 20 (1), that the cargo container was not damaged when delivered to the defendants at origin.

Defendant rail carriers' evidence failed to rebut plaintiff's prima facie case of liability under 40 U.S.C.A. § 20 (1) (1978).
