NOTICE

How to Follow State Agency Rulemaking Action in the State Register

State agencies must publish notice of their rulemaking action in the State Register. If an agency seeks outside opinion before promulgating new rules or rule amendments, it must publish a NOTICE OF INTENT TO SOLICIT OUTSIDE OPINION also.

The PROPOSED RULES section contains:

- Calendar of public hearings on proposed rules.
- Proposed new rules (including notice of hearing and/or notice of intent to adopt rules without a hearing).
- Proposed amendments to rules already in existence in the Minnesota Rules.
- Proposed emergency rules.
- Withdrawal of proposed rules (option; not required).

The ADOPTED RULES section contains:

- Notice of adoption of new rules and rule amendments adopted without change from the previously published proposed rules. (Unchanged adopted rules are not republished in full in the State Register unless an agency requests this.)
- Adopted amendments to new rules or rule amendments (adopted changes from the previously published proposed rules).
- Notice of adoption of emergency rules.
- Adopted amendments to emergency rules (changes made since the proposed version was published).
- Extensions of emergency rules beyond their original effective date.

The OFFICIAL NOTICES section includes (but is not limited to):

- Notice of intent to solicit outside opinion before promulgating rules.
- Additional hearings on proposed rules not listed in original proposed rules calendar.

ALL ADOPTED RULES and ADOPTED AMENDMENTS TO EXISTING RULES published in the State Register and filed with the Secretary of State before July 31, 1983 are published in the Minnesota Rules 1983. ADOPTED RULES and ADOPTED AMENDMENTS TO EXISTING RULES filed after July 31, 1983 will be included in a supplement scheduled for publication in mid-1984. Proposed and adopted EMERGENCY (formerly called TEMPORARY) RULES appear in the State Register but are generally not published in the Minnesota Rules 1983 due to the short-term nature of their legal effectiveness. Those that are long-term may be published.

The State Register publishes partial and cumulative listings of rule in the MINNESOTA RULES AMENDMENTS AND ADDITIONS list on the following schedule:

Issues 1-13, inclusive

Issue 39, cumulative for 1-39

Issues 14-25, inclusive

Issues 40-51, inclusive

Issue 26, cumulative for 1-26

Issue 52, cumulative for 1-52

Issues 27-38, inclusive

The listings are arranged in the same order as the table of contents of the Minnesota Rules 1983.

PROPOSED RULES

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. of 1982, §§ 14.22, an agency may propose to adopt, amend, suspend or repeal rules without first holding a public hearing, as long as the agency determines that the rules will be noncontroversial in nature. The agency must first publish a notice of intent to adopt rules without a public hearing, together with the proposed rules, in the State Register. The notice must advise the public:

1. that they have 30 days in which to submit comment on the proposed rules;
2. that no public hearing will be held unless 25 or more persons make a written request for a hearing within the 30-day comment period;
3. of the manner in which persons shall request a hearing on the proposed rules; and
4. that the rule may be modified if the modifications are supported by the data and views submitted.

If, during the 30-day comment period, 25 or more persons submit to the agency a written request for a hearing of the proposed rules, the agency must proceed under the provisions of §§ 14.14-14.20, which state that if an agency decides to hold a public hearing, it must publish a notice of intent in the State Register.

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. §§ 14.29 and 14.30, agencies may propose emergency rules under certain circumstances. Proposed emergency rules are published in the State Register and, for at least 25 days thereafter, interested persons may submit data and views in writing to the proposing agency.

Department of Labor and Industry

Proposed Rules Relating to Volunteer Apprentice Program Administration

Notice of Intent to Adopt Amendments without a Public Hearing

Notice is hereby given that the Department of Labor and Industry, Voluntary Apprenticeship Division, proposes to adopt the above-captioned amendments to Minn. Rules, Parts 5200.0290-5200.0420, without a public hearing. The Department has determined that the proposed adoption of these amendments will be noncontroversial in nature and has elected to follow the procedures set forth in Minn. Stat. §§ 14.21-14.28 (1982) (as amended by Minn. Laws 1984, ch. 640, §§ 12-15).

Persons or groups interested in these amendments shall have 30 days to submit comments on the proposed amendments. Comments in support of or in opposition to the proposed amendments are encouraged. Each comment should identify the portion of the proposed amendments addressed, the reason for the comment, and any change proposed. The proposed amendments may be modified if the modifications are supported by the data and views submitted to the Department and do not result in a substantial change in the proposed language.

A public hearing will be held if 25 or more persons submit written requests for a public hearing on the proposed amendments within the 30-day comment period. If a public hearing is required, the Department will proceed according to the provisions of Minn. Stat. §§ 14.131-14.20 (1982) (as amended by Minn. Laws 1984, ch. 640, §§ 7-11). Any person requesting a public hearing should state his or her name and address, and is encouraged to identify the portion of the proposed amendments addressed, the reason for the request, and any change proposed.

Comments or written requests for a public hearing should be submitted to:

Robert Wickland
Director of Voluntary Apprenticeship Division
Department of Labor and Industry
4th Floor, Space Center Bldg.
444 Lafayette Road
St. Paul, Minnesota 55101
(612) 296-2371

Authority for the adoption of these amendments is contained in Minn. Stat. § 178.041 (1982). A Statement of Need and Reasonableness that describes the need for and reasonableness of each provision of the proposed amendments, identifies the data and information relied upon to support the proposed amendments and assesses the impact of the proposed amendments on small business and on local public bodies has been prepared and is available from the Commissioner upon request at the above address. Since participation in voluntary apprenticeship programs is not mandatory, there will only be impact if a small business or public body chooses to participate in an approved apprenticeship program. Should an entity choose to participate, record-keeping requirements are imposed on the entity. However, the proposed amendments do not substantially change the record-keeping requirements imposed by the rules currently in effect. The quantitative and qualitative impact of the proposed amendments is thus minimal.

Upon adoption of the final amendments without a public hearing, all jurisdictional documents, the Statement of Need and Reasonableness, all written comments and requests for hearing received, and the final amendments as adopted, will be delivered to the Attorney General. The amendments will then be reviewed by the Attorney General as to legality and form as it relates to legality, including the issues of substantial change, the agency's authority to adopt the amendments and the existence of a rational basis for the need for and reasonableness of the proposed amendments. Persons who wish to be notified of the submission of this material to the Attorney General, including modifications to the amendments as originally proposed, or who wish to receive a free copy of the final amendments as adopted, should submit a written request to the Commissioner at the above address.

The text of the proposed amendments follows this notice in the State Register. The amendments make the rule conform to current procedures used in approving and administering voluntary apprenticeship programs. The amendments are also intended to cover reciprocity agreements between states, and safety and training requirements, and to provide for compliance with federal equal employment opportunity legislation.

One free copy of the proposed amendments may be obtained by contacting Robert Wickland at the above address or by calling (612) 296-2371.

Commissioner, Department of Labor and Industry

Request for Proposals for Systems Specifications for Automated Accounts Receivable System

It has been determined that the Minnesota Department of Transportation (Mn/DOT) requires the development of an automated accounts receivable system to replace an existing inadequate system. Proposals are solicited from qualified firms for the preparation of systems specifications and other necessary documentation relating to the development of such a system. This request for proposals does not obligate the state to complete the project, and the state reserves the right to cancel the solicitation if it is considered to be in its best interest.

A. SCOPE OF PROJECT

Successful completion of the project will require the development and documentation of specifications for an automated accounts receivable system tailored to fit Mn/DOT's needs. The project must also provide Mn/DOT with criteria which may be used to evaluate and select the most appropriate combination of computer hardware and software for this application from among those which may be proposed in response to a future solicitation for development proposals.

B. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

The specifications developed and documented through this project will be used for the purpose of soliciting proposals from qualified firms for the development and implementation of a Mn/DOT accounts receivable system.

SUPREME COURT

Decisions of the Supreme Court Filed Friday, November 9, 1984

Compiled by Wayne O. Tschimperle, Clerk

C7-83-1483 State of Minnesota v. Carl R. McGee, Appellant, Hennepin County.

Evidence was sufficient to sustain defendant's conviction of criminal negligence resulting in death.

Affirmed. Amdahl, C.J.

C4-84-1323 J.B. (Bill) Clifford, Petitioner, v. Vernon T. Hoppe, Auditor-Director of Property Taxation of Hennepin County; Richard J. Stolz, Auditor of Carver County; Thomas L. Hennen, Auditor of Scott County; Carl D. Onischuk, Auditor of Dakota County; Bill Miller, Auditor of Goodhue County; Joan Anderson Growe, Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota; Shelvie J. Rettmann. Supreme Court.

Certification of a candidate's name in any form contrary to Minnesota election laws constitutes an error correctable under Minn. Stat. § 204B.44 (1982).

Because certification of the name "Shelvie Prolife Rettmann" is not authorized by Minnesota statutes, nor is the name a nickname by which the candidate is generally and commonly known, printing the candidate's name in that form violates Minn. Stat. § 204B.35, subd. 2 (1982), and the candidate's name must be recertified as "Shelvie J. Rettmann."

Order to show cause made absolute. Peterson, J.

C5-83-1000 State of Minnesota v. Sterling G. Mattson, Appellant. St. Louis County.

Trial court properly admitted confession, and defendant was properly found guilty of criminal sexual conduct in the first degree.

Affirmed. Yetlka, J.

Decisions of the tax court are printed in the State Register, except in the case of appeals dealing with property valuation, assessment, or taxation for property tax purposes.

Regarding Minnesota Income Tax

Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order for Judgment Dated November 6, 1984

The Appellants, during the years at issue herein, were all passive investing partners in S & W Company, a Minnesota partnership, organized to engage in the breeding of purebred Black Angus cattle. These appeals have been consolidated for decision.

The above-entitled matter was submitted to the Honorable Earl B. Gustafson, Judge of the Tax Court, for decision upon a written Stipulation of Facts and briefs by counsel.

Howard J. Kauffman of Lindquist & Vennum appeared for appellants.

Thomas K. Overton, Special Assistant Attorney General, appeared for appellee.

The Court, upon all of the files and records herein, and being fully advised, now makes the following:

Findings of Fact

1. The appellants in these consolidated appeals were, during the years at issue herein, all partners and passive investors in S & W Company ("S & W"), which was organized as of October 1, 1968, as a Minnesota partnership to engage in the breeding of purebred Black Angus cattle. The Partnership Agreement provided that S & W would be a limited partnership and contained liability provisions to that effect. However, no Certificate of Limited Partnership was ever filed.

2. S & W was designed to provide a tax sheltered investment for its partners. Its cattle breeding business presented a significant tax deferral opportunity because, among other things, federal tax law permitted the accelerated depreciation of the price paid for the breeding herd over a five-year useful life and also permitted full current yearly deductions for all feed and care, interest and other business expenses, while income was not reportable until the animals were actually sold.

3. By the end of the first partnership year, S & W's losses had accumulated to the point where the cost basis of the partnership interests of certain of the limited partners had been virtually extinguished due to such losses. Accordingly, the S & W Partnership Agreement was amended to reflect various minor changes, to bring in additional limited partners and capital, and to allow some of the limited partners to become general partners, thus enabling them to take loss deductions in excess of their original capital contributions. In subsequent years, as losses continued to accumulate, additional amendments were proposed to allow other S & W limited partners to become general partners.

4. In 1974, S & W sold its entire then existing herd. This was done chiefly by and through the organizer and general partner of S & W: Sheldon Wert. In 1974, Wert had started a new cattle breeding partnership entitled Brownlee Cattle Company ("Brownlee") to engage in the business of breeding purebred Simmental cattle through a "breed-up" program by purchasing the then existing S & W herd as its beginning herd and using the semen from a Simmental bull which Wert owned. Brownlee made installment sales of limited partnership interests to certain investors and used the initial proceeds to purchase the remaining S & W herd. The sale of S & W's entire herd to Brownlee occurred on about August 1, 1974, but the Agreement of Sale was not incorporated in writing until March 7, 1975. This writing was subsequently amended by an agreement in May, 1976. Under this sale to Brownlee:

(a) Brownlee agreed to pay a total purchase price of $2,322,500.00;

(b) $765,150.00 of the purchase price was paid in cash, $720,000.00 by a note from Brownlee to S & W bearing interest at 7½ percent per annum payable in one installment of $500,000.00 plus interest on December 1, 1975, and one installment of $220,000.00 plus interest on December 1, 1976;

(c) The balance of the purchase price, $837,350.00, was paid by Brownlee assuming S & W's preexisting indebtedness to Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis; and

(d) Brownlee's liability on the Note to S & W and the bank debt was limited to the business assets of Brownlee and no partner of Brownlee assumed any liability on the note or bank debt.

With this sale Sheldon Wert resigned as managing general partner.

5. It was anticipated that S & W's wind-up would be brief and orderly and would be limited essentially to the collection of its assets, principally the Brownlee note above referenced, the related payment (by Brownlee) of the bank loan above referenced, and a final distribution to partners. S & W's wind-up activities indeed were limited to the collection of its receivables, which were its only assets, to the payment of its liabilities and to the litigation described below.

6. In 1975, Brownlee instituted legal proceedings against certain of its limited partners to recover the balance of subscriptions for the purchase of limited partnership interests in Brownlee.

7. At about the same time, the defendants in the Brownlee litigation instituted a separate securities fraud action against Brownlee, S & W and certain individuals.

8. In December, 1978, a jury answered special interrogatories in the second lawsuit; found that S & W was a "controlling person" of Brownlee and made certain related findings as a result of which S & W and its general partners became exposed to liabilities in excess of $500,000.00. The jury verdict was immediately made the subject of motions and counter motions for findings of fact or for a new trial and preparations for an appeal to the Minnesota Supreme Court were initiated.

9. At this time Brownlee was in disarray. Its herd had declined in value to an amount less than that due the bank; the herd was being slowly liquidated to defray the costs of litigation and it appeared doubtful that Brownlee could continue in business.

10. S & W was similarly in disarray since a reversal of the verdict would leave it with a loss limited to the partial uncollectibility of its note receivable from Brownlee. Sustaining of the verdict exposed it to the total worthlessness of that note, a large unpaid liability to Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis, large attorney's fees, a heavy damage liability and an immediate need to fund a large supersedeas bond in order to enable it to perfect an appeal to the Minnesota Supreme Court.

11. At this time S & W was without organization, offices, management or governance. As a first step in organizing to meet the emergency precipitated by the jury verdict, proceedings were started in Hennepin County District Court and Howard Kahn was appointed wind-up partner.

12. In order to acquire the funds to meet its new needs, in September, 1979, Howard Kahn, as wind-up partner of S & W, commenced an action against all other S & W partners to require them to return to S & W all of the distributions, plus interest, which S & W had made both out of the proceeds of a 1973 cattle dispersion sale and its 1974 sale to Brownlee. At the same time, Brownlee sold its remaining cattle herd and the proceeds of such sale were applied toward S & W's debt to Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis which had a continuing security interest in the cattle herd.

13. Thereafter, extensive post-trial settlement negotiations occurred resulting in the vacation of the jury verdict and of all findings of fact, conclusions of law and judgment based thereon and in the dismissal of that litigation and of the related appeal, with prejudice, pursuant to the provisions of a Settlement Agreement.

14. S & W and its codefendants in the litigation entered into a "Supplement to Agreement" on June 5, 1980, which established the manner in which each of the defendants would participate in the settlement and pay the amounts required to effect the settlement. Under the terms of this agreement, S & W was required to:

1. Pay the sum of $250,000.00 to the Plaintiffs;

2. Relieve Brownlee from responsibility for the discharge of the note to Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis;

and

3. Discharge Brownlee from all liability to S & W with respect to the contractual agreement of March 7, 1975, for the sale of S & W's cattle herd to Brownlee.

15. Following settlement of the litigation, a District Court Order and Decree was issued dated December 13, 1982, discharging and terminating the wind-up procedures of S & W.

16. On its 1978 income tax return, S & W deducted as a business bad debt the $720,000.00 note owed to it by Brownlee from the 1975 cattle sale. As a result of its income and deductions, S & W reported a loss of $729,680 on its 1978 partnership income tax return. The appellants deducted their pro-rata portions of S & W's 1978 loss on either their 1978 Minnesota income tax return or on amended returns for the same year.

17. On its 1979 amended income tax return, S & W deducted professional fees of $98,855.00 incurred as a result of the litigation, a management fee of $11,687.00 paid to Howard Kahn as manager of S & W during 1979, and a business bad debt of $370,524.00, consisting of $33,972.00 of miscellaneous accounts receivable and $336,552.00 which S & W paid to satisfy the remaining obligation on its cattle to Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis. As a result of its income and deductions, S & W reported a loss of $435,873 on its 1979 partnership income tax return. The appellants deducted their pro-rata portions of S & W's 1979 losses and expenses on their 1979 Minnesota income tax returns.

18. On its 1980 income tax return, S & W deducted professional fees of $67,722.00 incurred as a result of its litigation, management fees of $9,701.00 paid to Howard Kahn as manager of S & W during 1980, bond insurance of $2,293.00, and $289,210.00 paid to certain limited partners of Brownlee (the Plaintiffs in the litigation) in settlement of S & W's obligations arising out of the litigation. As a result of its income and deductions S & W reported a loss of $359,471 on its 1980 partnership income tax return. The appellants deducted their pro-rata portions of S & W's 1980 loss on their 1980 Minnesota income tax returns.

19. Pursuant to an audit conducted by the Minnesota Department of Revenue, the Commissioner disallowed or limited the deduction by appellants of all of S & W's losses for the 1978, 1979 and 1980 tax years. The Commissioner's Orders for the appellants herein stated that the losses deducted by appellants on their 1978, 1979 and 1980 income tax returns were subject to the limitation provided in Minn. Stat. § 290.09, subd. 29; the Farm Loss Modification Statute. This litigation has arisen due to appellants' contention that Minn. Stat. § 290.09, subd. 29, is not applicable.

20. During all relevant years herein, Minn. Stat. § 290.09, subd. 29, limited the allowable deductions for individuals for expenses and losses arising from a farm to the sum total of farm income plus $15,000.00 of non-farm income.

21. S & W's only business from its organization in 1969 until its termination in 1982 was raising breeding cattle.

22. All of the cases set forth in the caption hereto have been consolidated inasmuch as all of the appellants are partners in S & W and the findings of the Court with respect to the issues herein will be equally binding upon all of the appellants.

Conclusions of Law

1. S & W was engaged in farming for purposes of Minn. Stat. § 290.09, subd. 29.

2. The losses incurred by S & W and deducted by appellants during 1978, 1979 and 1980 were incurred in connection with "raising . . . livestock . . . and all operations incident thereto" and therefore were losses "arising from a farm" within the meaning of Minn. Stat. § 290.09, subd. 29.

3. The Orders of the Commissioner of Revenue are affirmed.

LET JUDGMENT BE ENTERED ACCORDINGLY. A STAY OF 15 DAYS IS HEREBY ORDERED.
