Subject: Friendly Reminder of MARSS meeting tomorrow afternoon, 1/3/18

Greetings MARSS Working Group,

Just a friendly reminder that our next meeting is tomorrow, January 3rd at 2pm at the Minnesota Senate Building, room 1100. I realize my email to you all had the wrong date of the meeting (I got confused with another deadline I was listing out), although the outlook meeting notice you have had for several weeks is correct. I apologize for any confusion that caused.

Please come to the meeting with your edits to the draft I sent out before the holidays as we will be discussing any suggested edits (more generally, not line by line, but we will go thru each section) at the meeting. If you wish to then send me a digital version of your handwritten edits you can send them the next day but no later. If you think a section needs to be adjusted for tone or position or accuracy please bring me/send me your suggested language changes ideally prior to the meeting.

Our last meeting is January 16th where we will be approving the final version of the draft. The final draft will be given to the Revisor's Office no later than January 19th for their final formatting edit/review and submission to the Legislature.

See you all tomorrow afternoon.
