to writing, and shall cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant; and if it shall appear that any such offence has been committed, the court or justice shall issue a warrant reciting the substance of the accusation, and requiring the officer to whom it shall be directed, forthwith to take the person accused and bring him before the said court, or justice, or before some other court or magistrate of the county, to be dealt with according to law; and in the same warrant may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be therein named, to appear and give evidence on the examination.

Officer having process may apprehend defendant in any county. Sec. 3. If any person against whom a warrant may be issued for an alleged offence committed in any county, shall either before or after the issuing of such warrant, escape from, or be out of the county, the sheriff or other officer to whom 'such warrant may be directed may pursue and apprehend the party charged, in any county in this territory, and for that purpose may command aid and exercise the same authority as in his own county.

Defendant may enter recognizance without examination. Sec 4. In all cases where the offence charged in the warrant is not punishable by death or imprisonment in the territorial prison, if the person arrested request that he may be brought before a magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made, for the purpose of entering into a recognizance without a trial or examination, the officer making the arrest shall carry him before a magistrate of that county, who may take from the person arrested a recognizance, with sufficient sureties, for his appearance at the court having cognizance of the offence, and next holden in the county where it shall be alleged to have been committed; and the party arrested shall thereupon be liberated.

Duty of magistrate taking the recognizance.

Sec. 5. The magistrate who shall so let the person arrested to bail, shall certify that fact upon the warrant, and shall deliver the same with the recognizances by him taken, to the person who made the arrest, who shall cause the same to be delivered without unnecessary delay to the clerk of the court before which the accused was recognized to appear; and on application of the complainant, the magistrate who issued the warrant, or the district attorney shall cause such witnesses to be summoned to the same court as he shall think necessary.

Proceedings when magistrate refuses to take ball.

Sec. 6. If the magistrate in the county where the arrest was made shall refuse to bail the person so arrested and brought before him, or if no sufficient bail shall be offered, the person having him in charge shall take him before the magistrate who issued the warrant or in his absence before some other magistrate of the county in which the warrant was issued, to be proceeded with as hereinafter directed.

Proceedings in case of felonies.

Sec. 7. When the offence charged in any warrant is punishable with death, or by imprisonment in the territorial prison, the officer making the arrest in some other county shall convey the prisoner to the county where the warrant issued, and he shall be proceeded with in the manner directed in the following section.

Before whom prisoner to be brought on arrest.

Sec. 4. Every person arrested by warrant, for any offence where no other provision is made for his examination thereon, shall be brought before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or if he be absent or unable to attend, before some other magistrate of the same county, and the warrant with the proper return thereon, signed by the person who made the arrest, shall be delivered to the magistrate.

Justice may adjourn hearing for ton days. Sec. 9. Any magistrate may adjourn an examination or trial pending before himself from time to time as occasion shall require, not exceeding ten days at one time, without the consent of the defendant or person charged, and at the same or a different place in the county as he shall think proper, and in such case, if the party is charged with a capital offence, he shall be committed in the mean time; otherwise he may be recognized in a sum, and with sureties, to the satisfaction of the magistrates for his appearance for such further examination, and for want of such recognizance he shall be committed to prison.

SEC. 10. If the person so recognized shall not appear before the proceeding magistrate at the time appointed for such further examination, according to the condition of such recognizance, the magistrate shall record the default, and shall certify the recognizance, with the record of such default, to the district court, and like proceedings shall be had thereon as upon the breach of the condition of a recognizance for appearance before that court.

Proceeding when defendant does not appear on adjourn day.

Sec. 11. When such person shall fail to recognize, he shall be committed to prison by an order under the hand of the magistrate, stating concisely that he is committed for further examination on a future day, to be named in the order; and on the day appointed he may be brought before the magistrate by his verbal order to the same officer, by whom he was committed, or by an order in writing to a different person.

If person fail to recognize must be committed.

Sec. 12. The magistrate before whom any person is brought upon a charge of having committed an offence, shall as soon as may be, examine the complainant and the witnesses to support the prosecution, on oath, in the presence of the party charged, in relation to any matter connected with such charge, which may be deemed pertinent.

Examination how conducted.

Sec. 13. After the testimony to support the prosecution, the witnesses for the prisoner, if he have any, shall be sworn and examined, and he may be assisted by counsel in such examination, and also in the cross examination of the witnesses in support of the prosecution.

Examination how conducted.

Sec. 14. The magistrate while examining any witness may in his discretion exclude from the place of examination all the other witnesses, he may also, if requested, or if he see cause, direct the witnesses for or against the prisoner, to be kept separate so that they cannot converse with each other, until they shall have been examined.

Examination how conducted.

Sec. 15. The testimony of the witnesses examined, shall be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, when he shall think it necessary, and shall be signed by the witnesses, if required by the magistrate.

Testimony to be reduced to writing.

Sec. 16. If it shall appear to the magistrate upon the whole examation that no offence has been committed, or that there is not probable cause for charging the prisoner with the offence, he shall be discharged.

Defendant when to be discharged.

SEC. 17. Persons charged with an offence punishable with death shall not be admitted to bail, when the proof is evident or the presumption great, but for all other offences, bail may be taken in such sum as in the opinion of the magistrate will secure the appearance of the person charged with the offence, at the court where such person is to be tried.

When defendant may be bailed.

SEC. 18. If it shall appear that an offence has been committed, and that there is probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty, and if the offence be bailable by the magistrate, and the prisoner offer sufficient bail, or the amount of money in lieu thereof, it shall be taken and the prisoner discharged; but if no sufficient bail be offered, or the offence be not bailable by the magistrate, the prisoner shall be committed for trial.

When defendant to be discharged.

Sec. 19. When the prisoner is admitted to bail, or committed by the magistrate, he shall also bind by recognizance such witnesses against the prisoner as he shall deem material, to appear and testify at the next court having cognizance of the offence, and in which the prisoner shall be held to answer.

When witnesses may be held to bait.

SEC. 20. If the magistrate shall be satisfied that there is good cause to believe that any such witness will not perform the condition of his recognizance unless other security be given, such magistrate may order the witness to enter into a recognizance with such sureties as may be deemed necessary for his apperance at court.

When justice may require other security of witness.

EXAMINATION OF OFFENDERS, &c.

When married woman or minor is witness. Sec. 21. When any married woman or minor, is a material witness any other person may be allowed to recognize for the appearance of such witness, or the magistrate may in his discretion, take the recognizance of such married woman or minor in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, which shall be valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability of coverture or minority.

When witness may

SEC. 22. All witnesses required to recognize either with or without sureties, shall if they refuse, be committed to prison by the magistrate, there to remain until they comply with such order, or be otherwise, discharged according to law.

When prisoner may be released. Sec. 23. Any judge of a court of record on application of any prisoner committed for a bailable offence, may inquire into the case and admit such prisoner to bail; and any person committed for not finding sufficient sureties to recognize for him, may be admitted to bail by either of said judges.

Justice may associate with himself another justice. Sec. 24. Any magistrate to whom complaint is made, or before whom any prisoner is brought, may associate with himself one or more magistrates of the same county, and they may together execute the powers and duties before mentioned, but no fees shall be taxed for such associates.

Examination and recognizance how returned.

Sec. 25. All examinations and recognizances taken by any magistrate in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, shall be certified and returned by him to the district attorney or the clerk of the court before which the party charged is bound to appear, on or before the first day of the sitting thereof, and if such magistrate shall neglect or refuse to return the same, he may be compelled forthwith by rule of court, and in case of disobedience, may be proceeded against by attachment as for contempt.

Magistrate may discharge recognizance in certain cases. Sec. 26. When any person shall be committed to prison or shall be under recognizance to any charge of assault and battery or other misdemeanor, for which the party injured may have a remedy by civil action, except when the offence was committed by or upon any sheriff or other officer of justice, or riotously or with intent to commit a felony, if the party injured shall appear before the magistrate who made the commitment or took the recognizance, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the magistrate may in his discretion, on payment of all the costs which have accrued, discharge the recognizance or supercede the commitment by an order under his hand; and may also discharge all recognizances and supercede the commitment of all witnesses in the case.

Order discharging recognizance when filed.

SEC. 27. Every such order of the magistrate discharging the recognizance of the party or witnesses, shall be filed in the office of the clerk, before the sitting of the court before which they are bound to appear; and every order superceding the commitment of the party charged, or any witnesses, shall be delivered to the keeper of the jail in which he is confined, who shall forthwith discharge him; and every such order, if so filed and delivered, and not otherwise, shall forever bar all remedy by civil action for such injury.

Proceeding in case of forteiture of recognizance.

SEC. 28. When any person under recognizance in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer or to prosecute an appeal, or to testify in any court, shall fail to perform the condition of such recognizance, his default shall be recorded, and process shall be issued against the persons bound by the recognizance, or such of them as the prosecuting officer shall direct.

Security in recognizance may pay amount to county. Sec. 29. Any surety in such recognizance may by leave of the court, after default, and either before or after the process has been issued against him, pay to the county treasurer or to the clerk of the
