Section 3 of this act, placed in ch. 69, provided that the production in evidence of the written instrument for the payment of money, executed by corporation, or copartners, or indorsers, shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of the corporation or copartnership. 28 M. 398.

MISTAKES AND AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 4800. Errors not affecting substantial rights.—The court shall, in every stage of an action, disregard any error or defect in the pleadings or proceedings which does not affect the substantial rights of the adverse party; and no judgment can be reversed or affected by reason of such error or defect.

G. S. ch. 66, § 107 (127). 10 M. 423; 12 M. 437, 522; 14 M. 464.

SEC. 4801. Amendments of course, and after demurrer.—Any pleading may be once amended by the party, of course, without costs, and without prejudice to the proceedings already had, at any time before the period for answering it expires; or, if it does not delay the trial, it may be so amended at any time within twenty days after service of the answer, demurrer or reply to such pleading; in such case the amended pleading shall be served on the adverse party, who shall have twenty days to answer the same. After the decision of the demurrer, the court may, in its discretion, if it appears that the demurrer was interposed in good faith, allow the party demurring to withdraw the same and plead over, or, if the demurrer is sustained, may allow the pleading demurred to to be amended, on such terms as may be just.

G. S. ch. 66, § 103 (123), as amended 1867, ch. 62, § 6. Amendment substituted twenty for thirty days, and struck out the provision of filing the pleading in clerk's office, and serving notice on adverse party. 18 M. 176; 41 N. W. 453.

SEC. 4802. Material variance.—No variance between the allegation in the pleading and the proof is material, unless it has actually misled the adverse party to his prejudice in maintaining his action or defence upon the merits. Whenever it is alleged that a party has been so misled, that fact shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court, and it shall be shown in what respect he has been misled; and thereupon the court may order the pleading to be amended upon such terms as may be just.

G. S. ch. 66, § 100 (120). 1 M. 175; 4 M. 119; 13 M. 442; 16 M. 33, 83; 18 M. 176; 21 M. 353; 22 M. 25, 81; 31 M. 397; 27 M. 433.

SEC. 4803. Immaterial variance.—When the variance is not material, as provided in the last section, the court may direct the fact to be found according to the evidence, or may order an immediate amendment, without costs.

G. S. ch. 66, § 101 (121).

SEC. 4804. Failure of proof.—When, however, the allegation of the cause of action or defence to which the proof is directed is unproved, not in some particulars only, but in its entire scope and meaning, it is not to be deemed a case of variance, within the last two sections, but a failure of proof.

G. S. ch. 66, § 102 (122). 10 M. 193; 22 M. 449.

SEC. 4805. Amendment by court.—The court may, before or after judgment, in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper, amend any pleading, process or proceeding, by adding or striking out the name of any party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, a mistake in any other respect, or by inserting other allegations material to the case, or, when the amendment does not change substantially the claim or defence, by conforming the pleading or proceeding to the fact proved.

G. S. ch. 66, § 104 (124). 8 M. 286; 13 M. 221; 13 M. 423; 14 M. 469; 20 M. 173; 23 M. 314; 28 M. 68; 29 M. 72; 32 M. 550; 35 M. 443; 36 M. 101.

SEC. 4806. Same — Extend time — Set aside judgments.—The court may likewise, in its discretion, allow an answer or reply to be made, or other act to be done, after the time limited by this chapter, or by an order enlarge such time.

Relief from judgments.—And may also, in its discretion, at any time within one year after notice thereof, relieve a party from a judgment, order, or other proceeding, taken against him through his mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect.

In vacation.—And the court may, as well in vacation and out of term as in term, and without regard to whether such judgment or order was made and entered, or proceedings had, in or out of term, upon good cause shown, set aside or modify its judgments, orders or proceedings, although the same were made or entered by the court, or under or by virtue of its authority, order or direction, and may supply any omission in any proceeding.

Conform to statute.—And whenever any proceeding taken by a party fails to conform to the statute, the court may permit an amendment to such proceeding, so as to make it conformable thereto; but this section does not apply to a final judgment in an action for divorce.

Relief not to affect title.—Provided, however, that no relief to be granted hereunder shall operate to affect any title to or estate in real estate affected by such judgment as against a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer in any case where such judgment or a certified copy thereof shall have been of record in the office of the register of deeds of the county wherein such real estate is situated for a period of not less than three years prior to the date of the application for such relief; but nothing herein contained shall operate to prevent the granting of such relief as may be just and equitable against a party to such action, his heirs or devisees.

G. S. ch. 66, § 105 (125), as amended 1876, ch. 49 (March 6); 1887, ch. 61. Approved March 2d. In force September 1, 1887. Acts 1876 inserted matter between * *. SEC. 4817. Regulated.— Motions must be made in the district in which the action is pending, or in an adjoining district: provided, that no motion shall be made in an adjoining district which shall require the hearing of such a motion at a greater distance from the county seat where the action is pending, in which such motion is made, than the residence of the judge of the district, wherein such action is pending, from such county seat; * unless the place where such motion is made, in such adjoining district, is nearer by direct railway communication to said county seat than said residence of the judge of the district is by such railway communication.*

SEC. 4819. Interpleader.— A defendant against whom an action is pending, upon contract, or for money, or specific real or personal property, may, at any time before answer, upon affidavit that a person, not a party to the action, and without collusion with him, makes a demand against him for the same money, debt, or property, upon due notice to such person and the adverse party, apply to the court for an order to substitute such person in his place, and discharge the defendant from liability to either party, on his depositing in court the amount of the debt or money, or delivering the property or its value to such person as the court may direct; and the court may thereupon make the order; and thereafter the action shall proceed between the plaintiff and person so substituted; and the court may compel them to interplead.

Intervention.— * Any person who has an interest in the matter in litigation, in the success of either of the parties to the action, or against either or both, may become a party to any action or proceeding between other persons, either by joining the plaintiff in claiming what is sought by the complaint, or by uniting with the defendant in resisting the claim of the plaintiff, or by demanding anything adversely to both the plaintiff and defendant, or either of them, either before or after issue has been joined in the cause, and before the trial commences. The court shall determine upon the issues made by the intervention at the same time that the issue in the main action is decided, and the intervenor has no right to delay; and if the claim of the intervenor is not sustained, he shall pay all the costs of the intervention. The intervention shall be by complaint, which must set forth the facts on which the intervention rests; and all the pleadings therein shall be governed by the same principles and rules as obtain in other pleadings. But if such complaint is filed during term, the court shall direct a time in which an answer shall be filed thereto.

The cause once placed upon the calendar of a term, if not tried at the term for which the notice was given, need not be noticed for a subsequent term, but shall remain upon the calendar from term to term, until finally disposed of * or stricken off by the court. The party upon whom notice of trial is served may also file the note of issue, and cause the action to be placed upon the calendar, without further notice on his part.

G. S. ch. 66, § 200 (218), as amended 1877, ch. 28. Approved February 26th. In force April 1, 1877. Amendment below *. 10 M. 316; 19 M. 539.

G. S. ch. 66, § 201 (219).

SEC. 4830. Continuance.—A motion to postpone a trial for the absence of evidence can only be made upon affidavit, stating the evidence expected to be obtained, and showing its materiality, and that due diligence has been used to procure it. * And if the adverse party thereupon admit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial must not be postponed.

G. S. ch. 66, § 204 (222), as amended 1868, ch. 78. Amendment below *, 12 M. 530; 22 M. 466.

If the amount of the defendant's costs and disbursements exceed the amount recovered by the plaintiff, and his costs and disbursements accrued and tendered, the court shall enter judgment against the plaintiff for such excess.

G. S. ch. 66, § 207 (225).

SEC. 4838. Challenge.— Either party may challenge the jurors; but when there are several parties on either side, they shall join in a challenge before it can be made. The challenges are to the panel and individual jurors as in criminal actions, and the causes for challenges shall be the same as in criminal actions: provided, however, that there can be but three peremptory challenges on each side.

G. S. ch. 66, § 208 (226), as amended 1869, ch. 69; 1878, ch. 21 (March 11). Amendment increased peremptory challenges from two to three. 6 M. 319; 20 M. 277, 313; 26 M. 502.

SEC. 4840. Order of the trial.— When the jury is completed and sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following order, unless the court, for special reasons, otherwise directs:

First. The plaintiff, after stating the issue, shall open the case, and produce the evidence on his part;

Second. The defendant may then open his defence, and offer his evidence in support thereof;

Third. The parties may then respectively offer rebutting evidence only, unless the court, for good reason, in furtherance of justice, permit them to offer evidence upon their original case;

Fourth. When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted to the jury on either side, or on both sides, without argument, the defendant shall commence, and the plaintiff conclude, the argument to the jury;

Fifth. If several defendants, having separate defences, appear by different counsel, the court shall determine their relative order in the evidence and argument;

Sixth. The court may then charge the jury.

SEC. 4841. Instructions for jury.— Upon the trial of any civil action before a jury in any district or municipal court of this state, any party thereto having an interest in the result of such trial may, before the commencement of the argument to the jury, tender to the court instructions in writing, properly numbered, to be given to the jury, and require the court to indicate before the argument such as will be given, by writing opposite each the words "given," "given as modified by the court" or "refused." And if the court desires, it may hear argument thereon by the respective counsel before acting on the instructions tendered. And thereupon, during the argument to the jury, any instructions so indicated to be given, may be read to the jury as the law of the case; and the court shall give the same to the jury as the law when such jury is instructed by the court. And the court may of its own motion and shall upon application of either party, also before the commencement of the argument, lay before the parties any instructions properly numbered which it will give to the jury; and thereupon the same may be read by any one as the law while making an argument to the jury; provided, however, the court may give to the jury such other instructions, with those already approved, at the close of the argument, as may be necessary to fully present the law to the jury and secure the ends of justice.

G. S. ch. 66, § 239 (257), as amended 1883, ch. 57 (March 3); 1889, ch. 77 (March 23). The original section only provided that the party may submit "the conclusions of fact which he claims to be established, or the conclusions of law which he desires to be adjudged, or both, written, or at option of court oral, and entered on minutes with any exception." Acts 1883, ch. 57, inserted requirement that court announce before argument what instructions will be given and what refused.

SEC. 4842. View of premises.— Whenever, in the opinion of the court, it is proper that the jury should have a view of real property which is the subject of the litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of proper officers, to the place, which will be shown to them by the judge, or by a person appointed by the court for that purpose; while the jury are thus absent, no person, other than the judge or person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

G. S. ch. 66, § 211 (229).

SEC. 4844. What papers jury may take.— Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with them all papers (except depositions) which have been received as evidence in the cause, or copies of such parts of public records or private documents, given in evidence, as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession; and they may also take with them notes of the testimony, or other proceedings on the trial, taken by themselves or any of them, but none taken by any other person.

G. S. ch. 66, § 213 (231).

If the verdict is informal or insufficient, it may be corrected by the jury under the advice of the court, or the jury may be again sent out.

A special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court; it shall present the conclusions of fact, as established by the evidence, and not the evidence to prove them; and those conclusions of fact shall be so presented as that nothing remains to the court, but to draw from them conclusions of law.

G. S. ch. 66, § 219 (237).

Verdict in action to recover specific personal property.— In an action for the recovery of specific personal property, if the property has not been delivered to the plaintiff, and the jury find that he is entitled to a recovery thereof, or if the property is not in the possession of the defendant, and by his answer he claims a return thereof, and the verdict is in his favor, the jury shall assess the value of the property, and the damages, if any are claimed in the complaint or answer, which the prevailing party has sustained by reason of the detention, or taking and withholding such property. Whenever the verdict is in favor of the party having possession of the property, the value thereof shall not be found.

Second. To ascertain and report any fact in such action or special proceeding, or to take and report the evidence therein;

Third. That whenever, in the opinion of the presiding judge of a district court in this state, a press of business makes the same advisable and necessary, such judge, counsel consenting thereto, may make an order referring any civil action or proceeding of a civil nature (except an action for divorce) to a referee for trial and judgment or for any one or more of the purposes named in this title, and the fees of such a referee, after being taxed by the judge making the order of reference, shall be paid on the order of said judge out of the state treasury as salaries of state officers are now paid. Said judge shall state as a part of said order of reference that in his opinion the press of business makes such reference advisable.

G. S. ch. 66, § 228 (246), as amended 1885, ch. 55. Approved March 7th. Amendment added third subdivision. 5 M. 78, 201.

SEC. 4864. Compulsory reference.—When the parties do not consent, the court may, upon the application of either, or of its own motion, direct a reference in the following cases:

First. When the trial of an issue of fact requires the examination of a long account on either side, in which case the referee may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or to report upon any specific question of fact involved therein;

Second. When the taking of an account is necessary for the information of the court, before judgment, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect;

Third. When a question of fact, other than upon the pleadings, arises, upon motion or otherwise, in any stage of the action; or,

Fourth. When it is necessary, for the information of the court in a special proceeding of a civil nature.

SEC. 4866. Powers — Proceedings — Report.— The trial by referees shall be conducted in the same manner, and on similar notice, as a trial by the court. They shall have the same power to grant adjournments, and to allow amendments to any pleadings, as the court upon such trial, upon the same terms and with like effect. They shall have the same power to administer oaths and enforce the attendance of witnesses as is possessed by the court. They shall state the facts found and the conclusions of law separately, and their decision shall be given, and may be excepted to and reviewed, in like manner, but not otherwise; and they may in like manner settle a case or exceptions. The report of referees upon the whole issue shall stand as the decision of the court, and judgment may be entered thereon in the same manner as if the action had been tried by the court. When the reference is to report the facts, the report shall have the effect of a special verdict: * provided, that whenever a finding has been made, or a decision or a judgment rendered upon the finding of the referee or referees, and the said finding or decision shall be set aside, or a new trial granted in the action, the cause referred shall be placed upon the calendar for trial by the court or a jury, as the case may be, the same as though no reference had ever been made, subject, nevertheless, to the same right of reference as in the first instance.

Second. Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;

Third. Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

Fourth. Excessive damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice;

Fifth. That the verdict, report or decision is not justified by the evidence, or is contrary to law;

Sixth. Newly-discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which he could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial;

Seventh. Error in law, occurring at the trial, and excepted to by the party making the application.

SEC. 4871. Motion for, how made.— When the application is made for a cause mentioned in the fourth, fifth and seventh subdivisions of the last section, it is made either upon a bill of exceptions or a statement of the case, prepared as prescribed in the next section; for any other cause, it is made upon affidavit.

Minutes.—* Provided, however, that the judge who tries the cause may, in his discretion, entertain a motion to be made on his minutes, or upon the minutes of the stenographic reporter where there is such a reporter, to set aside a verdict and grant a new trial, upon exceptions, or for insufficient evidence, or for excessive damages; but such motions, in actions hereafter tried, if heard upon the minutes, can only be heard at the same term or court at which the trial is heard. When such motion is heard and decided upon the minutes of the judge, and an appeal is taken from the decision, a case or exceptions must be settled in the usual form, upon which the argument of the appeal must be had.

Exceptions during trial.— And provided, if, during the trial, any exception is taken to the ruling of the court, such exception may be forthwith taken and reduced to writing, and allowed and signed by the judge, together with so much of the testimony or charge as to make the ruling and exception intelligible, which shall be made a part of the record, so as to obviate a case or other bill of exception; and on appeal the court shall not infer that any other evidence was introduced to obviate the exceptions.

SEC. 4872. Bill of exceptions or case, how prepared and settled.— The party preparing a bill of exceptions or case shall, within twenty days after the trial, serve it upon the adverse party, who may, within ten days after such service, propose amendments thereto; and within fifteen days after service of such amendments, the same, with the amendments proposed thereto, shall be presented to the judge or referee who tried the cause, for allowance or settlement and signature, upon a notice of five days; if not presented within the time aforesaid, or such further time as may be stipulated or granted, the same shall be deemed abandoned: * provided, that whenever the judge who tried the cause shall die, or become incapable from acting from sickness or other cause, before a bill of exceptions is allowed or case made, or shall depart from and remain without the state at the time limited for the same allowance or settlement, the said bill may be allowed, or case settled, by or before the judge of an adjoining judicial district in which the action is pending; or in case a referee shall so die, or become incapacitated, or remain absent, as herein set forth, such bill may be allowed, or case settled, by the judge of the district court in which such action is pending; and, in either case, such allowance or settlement shall be made upon the files in the cause; the minutes of the judge or referee, if attainable, and upon such proof of what transpired at the trial as may be presented by affidavit on behalf of the parties to the action, with like effect in all respects as if such bill was allowed, or case settled, by the judge or referee who tried the cause. The case or bill, being examined, and found or made conformable to the truth, shall be allowed and signed by the judge, referee, or other officer acting instead of such judge or referee, as provided herein.

TITLE 12.

JUDGMENTS.

JUDGMENT UPON FAILURE TO ANSWER.

SEC. 4873. Procedure.— Judgment may be had, if the defendant fails to answer the complaint, as follows:

In actions for money only.— First. When, in an action arising on contract for the payment of money only, the summons has been personally served, and the plaintiff shall file with the clerk, proof of the personal service of the summons, and that no answer has been received within the time allowed by law, the clerk shall thereupon enter judgment for the amount mentioned in the summons against the defendant, or against one or more of several defendants, in the cases provided for in this chapter. In other actions for the recovery of money only, on filing the like proof, the plaintiff may apply to the court for a reference, to have his damages assessed, or the amount he is entitled to recover ascertained in any other manner, and for judgment.

Counter-claim.— * When the defendant by his answer in such action shall not deny the plaintiff's claim, but shall set up a counter-claim amounting to less than the plaintiff's claim, judgment may be entered by the clerk of court in favor of plaintiff for the excess of his said claim over the said counter-claim, with costs and disbursements, upon the plaintiff's filing with said clerk a statement signed by plaintiff, his attorney or agent, admitting such counter-claim, together with an affidavit of his costs and disbursements; which statement and affidavit shall be annexed to and be made a part of the judgment roll: all of which may be done without notice to the defendant.*

In other actions.— Second. In other actions, the plaintiff may, upon like service and proof, apply to the court, after the expiration of the time for answering, for the relief demanded in the complaint. If the taking of an account or the proof of any fact is necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or to carry the judgment into effect, the court may take the account or hear the proof, or may, in its discretion, order a reference for that purpose.

When service by publication.—Third. When the service of the summons was by publication, or by leaving a copy thereof at the house of the usual abode of the defendant, in actions arising on contract for the payment of money only, the plaintiff, upon filing with the clerk proof of such service, and that no answer has been received within the time allowed by law, together with the security hereinafter mentioned, shall be entitled to judgment in the same manner as if the summons had been served upon the defendant personally; in other actions, upon filing the like proof, the plaintiff may apply for judgment, and the court shall thereupon require proof to be made of the demand set forth in the complaint, and may render judgment for the plaintiff for such amount, or such relief, as he is entitled to recover.

Security.—In all cases where the summons has not been served personally, the plaintiff, before judgment is entered, must file, or cause to be filed, satisfactory security to abide the order of the court touching the restitution of any money or property collected or received under or by virtue of the judgment, in case the defendant or his representatives shall thereafter apply and be admitted to defend the action, and shall succeed in the defence: provided, that when service of the summons is made by leaving a copy thereof at the house of the usual abode of the defendant, and the officer or person making such service shall return that he left such copy with some person of suitable age and discretion, then resident therein, it shall be deemed personal service; and in such cases judgment may be entered without filing the security herein provided for. Provided further, that in all actions involving the title to or brought to quiet the title to real estate, judgment may be entered without filing the security above provided.

G. S. ch. 66, § 192 (210), as amended 1868, ch. 84; 1881, ch. 13 (February 13); 1887, ch. 90 (February 21). Acts 1887 inserted between  in first subdivision. Acts 1881 added last proviso to third subdivision. Acts 1868 changed method of proof of service and default, and added first proviso in subdivision 3. 18 M. 90; 7 M. 506; 15 M. 102; 10 M. 178; 37 M. 183.

SEC. 4874. Not exceed relief demanded.—The relief granted to the plaintiff, if there is no answer, cannot exceed that which he has demanded in his complaint; but in any other case, the court may grant him any relief consistent with the case made by the complaint, and embraced within the issue.

G. S. ch. 66, § 246 (267). 9 M. 103; 32 M. 196.

JUDGMENT AGAINST MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

SEC. 4875. When no officers to levy tax to pay.—Whenever a judgment shall be entered in any action against a city or other municipal corporation in any court of record having jurisdiction of such action, and there shall be no officers in such city or municipal corporation authorized by law to levy taxes for the payment of such judgment, it shall be the duty of the governor to appoint suitable persons, residents of the state, who will accept the offices, officers of such city.

1885, ch. 154, § 1: "An act to provide for the collection of judgments against municipal corporations." Approved February 28, 1885.

SEC. 4876. Duty of appointed officers.—Such officers so appointed shall be known and designated by the same names respectively, and have the same powers, rights and privileges respectively, as officers duly elected, pursuant to the provisions of the charter of such city or municipal corporation, and it shall be the duty of such officers to assess, levy and collect such taxes as may be necessary to pay such judgment, and such counsel fees for the defense of the action in which judgment is rendered as may be allowed by the court in which said judgment is rendered.

JUDGMENT ON ISSUES OF LAW.

SEC. 4877. Proceedings.— On a judgment for the plaintiff, upon an issue of law, the plaintiff may proceed in the manner prescribed by the statute upon the failure of the defendant to answer where the summons was personally served. If judgment is for the defendant, upon an issue of law, and the taking of an account, or the proof of any fact, is necessary to enable the court to complete the judgment, a reference may be ordered as by statute provided.

G. S. ch. 66, § 225 (243). 10 M. 178.

JUDGMENT UPON DISMISSAL.

SEC. 4878. When.— The action may be dismissed, without a final determination of its merits, in the following cases:

First.— By the plaintiff, at any time before trial, if a provisional remedy has not been allowed, or counterclaim made, or affirmative relief demanded in the answer: provided, that an action on the same cause of action against any defendant shall not be dismissed more than once without the written consent of the defendant, or an order of the court on notice and cause shown.

Second.— By either party, with the written consent of the other; or by the court, upon the application of either party, after notice to the other, and sufficient cause shown, at any time before the trial;

Third.— By the court, where, upon the trial, and before the final submission of the case, the plaintiff abandons it, or fails to substantiate or establish his claim, or cause of action, or right to recover;

Fourth.— By the court, when the plaintiff fails to appear on the trial, and the defendant appears and asks for the dismissal;

Fifth.— By the court, on the application of some of the defendants, when there are others whom the plaintiff fails to prosecute with diligence.

SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENT.

SEC. 4898. How entered.—Satisfaction of a judgment shall be entered in the judgment-book, and noted upon the docket, upon an execution returned satisfied, or upon an acknowledgment of satisfaction filed with the clerk, made in the manner of an acknowledgment of a conveyance of real property, by the judgment creditor, or, within two years after the judgment, by the attorney, unless a revocation of his authority is previously entered upon the register. And whenever a judgment is satisfied in fact, as to any one of several defendants, an entry to that effect may be made in the judgment-book and docket. Whenever a judgment is satisfied in fact, otherwise than upon an execution, it is the duty of the party or attorney to give such acknowledgment, and upon motion the court may compel it, or may order the entry of satisfaction to be made without it. Whenever a judgment is satisfied, it is the duty of the clerk of the district court to give certified copies of instruments of satisfaction. Unless such revocation of authority has been so previously entered upon the register, the attorney of record may at any time within two (2) years after the judgment, satisfy and discharge the same and the lien thereof, by a brief entry to that effect made on the register, subscribed by such attorney, and witnessed and dated by the clerk of the court or his deputy. Any satisfaction made and acknowledged in the name of a partnership by a member of the partnership, shall be as valid and binding as if executed and acknowledged by each individual member of the partnership; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to apply to any case where such partnership has been dissolved prior to the making of such satisfaction.

Against property.—First. In such cases, the person so paying or contributing is entitled to the benefit of the judgment, to enforce contribution or repayment, if, within ten days after his payment, he files with the clerk of the court where the judgment was rendered, notice of his payment, and claim to contribution or repayment; upon filing such notice, the clerk shall make an entry thereof in the margin of the docket.

G. S. ch. 66, § 298 (330). 37 M. 110.

REDEMPTION.

SEC. 4941. Property subject to redemption.— Upon the sale of real property where the estate sold is less than a leasehold of two years unexpired term, the sale is absolute; in all other cases the property sold is subject to redemption as provided by law.

G. S. ch. 66, § 288 (320).

SEC. 4942. By whom.— Real estate sold upon execution, judgment or decree, may be redeemed —

First. By the judgment debtor, his heirs or assigns;

Second. By a creditor having a lien, legal or equitable, on the real estate or some part thereof, subsequent to that on which the same was sold. Creditors shall redeem in the order of their respective liens.

G. S. ch. 66, § 291 (323). 7 M. 432; 21 M. 132.

SEC. 4943. Order of.— The judgment debtor, his heirs and assigns, may redeem within one year after the day of sale, by paying to the purchaser the amount of his bid, with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, and if the purchaser is a creditor having a prior lien, the amount thereof with interest. If no such redemption is made, the senior creditor may redeem within five days after the expiration of said year, and each subsequent creditor within five days after the time allowed all prior lien-holders as aforesaid, by paying the amount aforesaid, and all liens prior to his own held by the party from whom such redemption is made: provided, that no creditor can redeem unless, within the year aforesaid, he files notice of his intention to redeem in the office of the clerk of the court where the judgment is entered.

G. S. ch. 66, § 292 (324). 29 M. 436.

SEC. 4944. How made.— The person desiring to redeem shall pay, to the person holding the right acquired under such sale, or for him to the sheriff or clerk of the district court of the county in which such real property is situated, the amount required by law for such redemption, and shall produce to such person or officer:

First. A certified copy of the docket of the judgment, or deed of conveyance or mortgage, or of the record or files evidencing any other lien, under which he claims the right to redeem, certified by the officer in whose custody such docket, record, file or files shall be;

Third. An affidavit of himself or his agent, showing the amount then actually due on his lien.

First. The name of the person redeeming, and the amount paid by him on such redemption;

Second. A description of the sale from which such redemption is made, and of the property redeemed;

Third. Stating upon what claim such redemption is made, and if upon a lien, the amount claimed to be due thereon at the date of redemption.

Such certificate shall be executed, and proved or acknowledged, and recorded, as provided by law for conveyance of real estate; and if not so recorded within ten days after such redemption, such redemption and certificate is void, as against any person in good faith making redemption from the same person or lien. If such redemption is made by the owner of the property sold, or his heirs or assigns, such redemption annuls such sale; if by a creditor holding a lien on the property, or some part thereof, said certificate, so executed, and proved or acknowledged, and recorded, operates as an assignment to him of the right acquired under such sale, subject to such right of any other person to redeem as is or may be provided by law.

G. S. ch. 66, § 294 (326).

SEC. 4946. Waste before redemption.— Until the expiration of the time allowed for redemption, the court may restrain the commission of waste on the property, by order granted with or without notice, on application of the purchaser or judgment creditor; but it is not waste for the person in possession of the property at the time of sale, or entitled to possession afterward, during the period allowed for redemption, to continue to use it in the same manner in which it was previously used, or to use it in the ordinary course of husbandry, or to make the necessary repairs of buildings thereon, or to use wood or timber on the property therefor, or for the repairs of fences or for fuel in his family, while he occupies the property.

G. S. ch. 66, § 184 (202).

SEC. 5040. After notice.— In cases where a sale of real estate upon execution or foreclosure by advertisement is sought to be enjoined, the application for an injunction shall be heard and determined upon notice to the adverse party, either by motion or order to show cause. The application shall be made immediately on receiving notice of the publication of the notice of sale; and no injunction in such cases shall be allowed ex parte, unless the rights of the applicant would otherwise be prejudiced, nor unless a satisfactory excuse is furnished, showing why the application was not made in time to allow the same to be heard and determined, upon notice, before the day of sale. In all other cases, if the court or judge deems it proper that the defendant, or any of several defendants, shall be heard before granting the injunction, an order may be made, requiring cause to be shown, at a specified time and place, why the injunction should not be granted.

G. S. ch. 66, § 186 (204). 9 M. 103.

SEC. 5041. Bond.— When no special provision is made by law as to security upon injunction, the court or judge allowing the writ shall require a bond on behalf of the party applying for such writ, in a sum not less than two hundred and fifty dollars, executed by him or some person for him, as principal, together with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by said court or judge, to the effect that the party applying for the writ will pay the party enjoined or detained such damages as he sustains by reason of the writ, if the court finally decide that the party was not entitled thereto. The damages may be ascertained by a reference or otherwise as the court shall direct.

G. S. ch. 66, § 185 (203). 32 M. 278; 34 M. 330.

MOTION TO VACATE OR MODIFY.

SEC. 5042. When and how.— If the injunction is granted without notice, the defendant, at any time before trial, may apply, upon notice, to the judge of the court in which the action is brought, to vacate or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint, and the affidavits on which the injunction was granted, or upon the answer, or affidavits on the part of the defendant, with or without the answer.

G. S. ch. 66, § 187 (205).

SEC. 5043. Affidavits.— If the application is made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence in addition to those on which the injunction was granted.

G. S. ch. 66, § 188 (206).

G. S. ch. 66, § 190 (208).
