CHAPTER 79 (G. S. ch. 84).

FORCIBLE ENTRIES AND UNLAWFUL DETAINERS.

The object of this writ, and the various statutes in England on the same subject from which the writ was originally taken, is to prevent individuals "from doing themselves right by force" and to protect persons in peaceable occupation. Hawk. 274; 9 Wend. 50; 4 S. & R. 207. The remedy is to protect the actual possession, whether rightful or wrongful, against unlawful invasion, the entry of the owner being unlawful, if forcible, and that of any other person is unlawful whether forcible or not. Hence, the only question involved is the right to the possession, not the title. 2 Car. & Payne, 17; 3 Ad. & Ellis, 817; 3 C. L. R. 229; 11 Johns. 504; 4 Johns. 150; 11 Wend. 157.

JURISDICTION.

SEC. 5497. Forcible entry forbidden.—No person shall hereafter make an entry into lands or tenements, except in cases where an entry is given by law; and in such cases, not with strong hands, nor with a multitude of people, but only in a peaceable manner; if any person from henceforth does to the contrary, he shall be punished by fine.

G. S. ch. 84, § 1. 32 M. 291; 28 M. 272, 388; 26 M. 153; 37 M. 77; 40 N. W. 362. This is the common law. 4 Bl. Com. 148; 1 Russ. on Cr. 283; 1 Serg. & R. 124; 8 Cowen, 226. See §§ 5403, 5409, ante.

SEC. 5498. Jurisdiction of justice.—Any justice of the peace has authority to inquire, as hereinafter directed, as well against those who may make unlawful or forcible entry into lands or tenements, and detain the same, as against those who, having lawful or peaceful entry into lands or tenements, unlawfully and forcibly detain the same; and if it is found, upon such inquiry, that an unlawful or forcible entry has been made, and that said lands or tenements are unlawfully detained by force and strong hand, or that the same, after a lawful entry, are so held or detained unlawfully; such justice shall cause the party complaining to have restitution thereof.

G. S. ch. 84, § 2. 19 M. 134; 28 M. 461; 27 M. 238; 37 M. 77.

SEC. 5499. Same — Tenant holding over.—When any person holds over any lands or tenements, after a sale thereof on an execution, judgment, or on foreclosure of a mortgage by advertisement, and expiration of the time for redemption, or after the termination of the time for which they are demised or let to him, or to the person under whom he holds possession, or contrary to the conditions or covenants of the lease or agreement under which he holds, or after any rent becomes due, according to the terms of such lease or agreement, or when any tenant at will holds over after the determination of any such estate by notice to quit, in all such cases the party entitled to possession may make complaint thereof to any justice of the peace of the county, and the justice shall proceed to hear, try and determine the same, in the same manner as in other cases hereinbefore provided for; but he shall impose no fine upon such tenants, or persons holding over.

COMPLAINT AND SUMMONS.

SEC. 5500. Upon complaint summons issue.— When any complaint is made in writing, to any justice of the peace, of any such unlawful or forcible entry, or unlawful detainer, said justice shall issue a summons, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon the person against whom such complaint is made, to appear before the said justice, on a day in such summons named, which shall not be less than six nor more than ten days from the day of issuing such summons.

G. S. ch. 84, § 4. 1 M. 179.

SEC. 5502. ## TRIAL.

SEC. 5503. Upon return of summons.— After the return of said summons, and at the time and place appointed therein, the said justice shall proceed to hear and determine said complaint: provided, that if either party calls for a trial by jury, the said justice shall issue a venire, in the same manner, and upon the same terms, as in other cases in justices' courts; and such jury shall be sworn as in other cases.

SEC. 5504. Adjournment of trial.— The justice of the peace may at his discretion adjourn any trial under this chapter not exceeding six days; but in all cases mentioned in section eleven of this chapter, *except a case brought upon a written lease, signed and acknowledged by both parties thereto,* when the defendant, his agent or attorney, makes oath that he cannot safely proceed to trial, for the want of some material witness, naming him, that he has made due exertion to obtain said witness, and believes if such an adjournment is allowed he will be able to procure the attendance of said witness, or his deposition, in season to produce the same upon such trial; and if such person will give bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, conditioned to pay the said complainant for all rent which may accrue during the pendency of such ac-

RESTITUTION.

SEC. 5508. When to issue.— No restitution shall be made under the provisions of this chapter of any lands or tenements of which the party complained of or his ancestors, or those under whom he holds the premises, have been in the quiet possession for three years next before the entering of the complaint, *after the determination of the leasehold estate that he may have had therein,* nor shall a writ of restitution issue in any case for twenty-four hours after judgment, if the party against whom judgment is rendered, or his attorney, states to the justice that he intends to take an appeal. Provided, that if said action is brought upon a written lease, executed by both parties thereto, against a tenant holding over, after the expiration of said lease, restitution of said premises shall be made forthwith, and if the party against whom judgment is rendered, in such case, gives notice to the justice that he intends to take an appeal, the justice shall thereupon, as a condition to the issuance of the writ of restitution, require of the complainant a bond, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned that the complainant will pay all costs and damages, if on said appeal said judgment of restitution shall be reversed or a new trial ordered; and upon the filing of such bond the writ of restitution shall issue in the same manner as if no notice of appeal had been given.
