CHAPTER 71

DIVORCE

41-201, 42+935; 55-464, 57+205.

113-NW 1014

3570. What voidable—When either party to a marriage is incapable of assenting thereto for want of age or understanding, or when the consent of either has been obtained by force or fraud, and there is no subsequent voluntary cohabitation of the parties, the marriage may be annulled at the suit of the injured party, and shall be void from the time its nullity is adjudged. (4786)

44-124, 46+323; 78-166, 80+877.

3571. Action to annul—When the validity of a marriage is disputed for any of the causes mentioned in §§ 3569, 3570, either party may begin an action in the district court of the county where either resides, to annul the same. In such action the complaint shall be filed and proceedings had thereon as in actions for divorce, and, upon due proof of the nullity of the marriage, it shall be adjudged null and void. (4787)

41-201, 42+935; 104+300.

3572. When not annulled—No marriage shall be adjudged a nullity on the ground that one of the parties was under the age of legal consent if it appears that the parties had voluntarily cohabited together as husband and wife after having attained such age; nor shall the marriage of any insane person be adjudged void after his restoration to reason, if it appears that the parties freely cohabited together as husband and wife after such restoration. (4788)

44-124, 46+323; 78-166, 80+877.

3573. Not at suit of party capable—No marriage shall be adjudged a nullity at the suit of the party capable of contracting, on the ground that the other party was under the age of legal consent, or was idiotic or insane, if such idiocy or insanity was known to the party capable of contracting at the time of such marriage. (4789)

44-124, 46+323.

3574. Grounds for divorce—A divorce from the bonds of matrimony may be adjudged by the district court for any of the following causes:

1. Adultery.
2. Impotency.
3. Cruel and inhuman treatment.
4. Sentence to imprisonment in the state prison or state reformatory subsequent to the marriage; and in such case a pardon shall not restore the conjugal rights.
5. Wilful desertion for one year next preceding the filing of the complaint.
6. Habitual drunkenness for one year immediately preceding the filing of the complaint. (4790, 4791; '95 c. 40)

Adultery of plaintiff is not a bar to an action on any of the other grounds (23-563). A decree for limited divorce is not a bar to an action for absolute divorce (43-31, 44+524). Subd. 1 (27-299, 7+144). Subd. 2 (46-467, 49+230). Subd. 3 (36-239, 30+766; 39-258, 39+492; 56-264, 57+651; 62-212, 64+561; 81-242, 83+988; 85-383, 88+1103; 86-249, 90+390; 88-94, 92+1130; 93-284, 101+179; 92-278, 100+4, 1101; 46-461, 49+198; 91-165, 97+671). Subd. 4 (92-278, 100+4, 1101). Subd. 5 (80-373, 83+342; 76-292, 79+172, 668; 39-394, 40+360; 39-258, 39+492; 27-330, 7+267; 64-234, 66+983; 53-502, 55+630). Subd. 6 (44-132, 46+236; 43-31, 44+524; 85-383, 88+1103; 88-94, 92+1130).

3575. Residence of complainant—No divorce shall be granted unless the plaintiff has resided in this state one year immediately preceding the filing of the complaint, except for adultery committed while the plaintiff was a resident of this state. (4792)

73-474, 76+268; 75-433, 78+108; 81-287, 83+1088; 104+300.

3576. Denial, though adultery proved—In any action brought for a divorce on the ground of adultery, although the fact of adultery be established, the court may deny a divorce in the following cases:

1. When it appears that the offence was committed by the procurement or with the connivance of the plaintiff.
2. When there has been an express forgiveness of the adultery charged, or a voluntary cohabitation of the parties, with knowledge thereof.

09 - - 443
102-M - 405

3. When the action has not been brought within three years after the discovery of the offence charged.

4. When it is proved that the plaintiff has also been guilty of adultery under such circumstances as would have entitled the defendant, if innocent, to a divorce. (4793)

3577. Action, how and where brought—Venue—An action for divorce may be brought by a wife in her own name, and all actions for divorce shall be commenced by summons and complaint in the county where the plaintiff resides, as hereinafter provided, subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial by consent of parties, or when it shall appear that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the action is pending, or that the convenience of witnesses and ends of justice would be promoted by the change. (4794)

80-373, 83+342; 73-474, 76+268; 18-90, 72; 93-284, 101+179.

3578. Requisites of complaint—The complaint shall state the names and ages of the parties, the name of the court in which the action is brought, and the facts constituting the cause or grounds of action, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition. (4795)

Residence in state for statutory period must be alleged (75-433, 78+108; 81-287, 83+1088), but it is unnecessary to allege that plaintiff resides in the county where the action is brought (18-90, 72). Not necessary to anticipate defences of condonation, procurement or connivance (18-90, 72. See 46-461, 49+198). Mode of charging adultery (39-370, 40+167). Mode of charging cruelty (39-253, 39+492; 81-242, 83+988). Mode of charging desertion (76-292, 79+172, 668). Allegations of fitness for custody of children (32-499, 18+832, 21+736). Facts justifying a limited divorce may be joined in a complaint with those justifying an absolute divorce and relief may be sought in the alternative (36-239, 30+766; 53-181, 54+1059). Unnecessary to anticipate claim for alimony or make any allegations as to property of plaintiff (73-474, 76+268). Divorce held properly granted on supplemental answer without proof first being made of offence charged in original answer (104+976).

58-279, 287, 59+1017; 94-301, 102+861.

9-72, 61; 94-301, 102+861.

3581. Failure to answer—Reference—If the defendant does not appear after service duly made and proved, the court may hear and determine the action at a general or special term, or in vacation: Provided, that the court or judge, upon application, may refer said action to a referee to take and report the evidence therein. When issue is joined, like proceedings shall be had as in civil actions. (4798)

Reference (18-90, 72). Necessity of proof and findings (6-458, 315; 68-1, 70+776).

3582. Alimony pending suit—Costs—In every action brought either for a divorce or separation, the court, in its discretion, may require the husband to pay any sum necessary to enable the wife to carry on or defend the action, or for her support during its pendency; and it may adjudge costs against either party, and award execution therefor, or it may direct such costs to be paid out of any property sequestered or in the power of the court. (4799)

Allowance largely a matter of discretion. Allowable though plaintiff has some means of her own (69-461, 72+708). Not allowable after judgment for defendant (34-441, 26+450. See 91-165, 97+671). Held allowable though part of the attorney's fees were for a prior trial. Order allowing appealable (84-403, 87+1014). Effect of dismissal on commitment for contempt for not paying (40-4, 41+1076). Cited (73-474, 76+268).

3583. Protection of wife—When an action is commenced, or about to be commenced, to annul a marriage, or for a divorce or separation, the court may at any time, on the petition of the wife, prohibit the husband from imposing any restraint on her personal liberty during the pendency of the action. (4800)

3584. Custody of children, etc.—The court, on the application of either party, may make such order concerning the care and custody of the minor children of the parties, and their suitable maintenance, during the pendency of such action, and such temporary orders relative to the persons or property of the parties, as shall be deemed necessary and proper. (4801)

73-474, 479, 76+268; 85-401, 89+3.

3585. Same—On judgment—Upon adjudging the nullity of a marriage, or a divorce or separation, the court may make such further order as it deems just and proper concerning the care, custody, and maintenance of the minor children of the parties, and may determine with which of the parents they, or any of them, shall remain, having due regard to the age and sex of such children. (4802)

73-474, 479, 76+268; 85-401, 89+3.

3586. Order may be revised—The court may afterward, from time to time, on the petition of either parent, revise and alter such order concerning the care, custody, and maintenance of the children, or any of them, and make such new order concerning them, as the circumstances of the parents and the benefit of the children shall require. (4803)

73-474, 479, 76+268; 85-401, 89+3.

3587. Possession of wife's real estate—Whenever a divorce is granted from the bonds of matrimony for any cause except adultery committed by the wife, or from bed and board, or the husband is sentenced to imprisonment for life, or the marriage is adjudged null, the wife shall be entitled to the immediate possession of all her real estate. (4804)

3588. Order as to wife's property—Upon every such dissolution of marriage as is specified in § 3587, the court may make a further order for restoring to the wife the whole or such part as it deems just and reasonable of the personal estate that has come to the husband by reason of the marriage, or for awarding to her the value thereof, and also the value of any real estate of the wife disposed of by the husband and wife during the coverture, to be paid by her husband in money; and such court may require the husband to disclose on oath what personal estate has come to him by reason of the marriage, and how the same has been disposed of, and what portion thereof remains in his hands. (4805)

3589. Trustee of alimony—The court may appoint trustees, whenever it is deemed expedient, to receive any money ordered to be paid to the wife, upon trust to invest the same, and pay over the income for the support of the wife, or of the wife and minor children of the parties, or any of them, in such manner as the court shall direct, or to pay over to the wife the principal sum in such proportions and at such times as the court shall order, regard being had in all such cases to the situation and circumstances of such wife, and the children if there are any, provided for in the order; and such trustees shall give such bond, as the court shall require, for the faithful performance of their trust. (4806)

3590. Property of husband—Permanent alimony—Upon a divorce for any cause except that of adultery committed by the wife, if the estate and property restored or awarded to her is insufficient for the suitable support of herself and such children of the marriage as shall be committed to her care and custody, or if there is no such estate and property, the court may further order and decree to her such part of the personal and real estate of the husband, not exceeding in value one-third thereof, as it deems just and reasonable, having regard to the ability of the husband, the character and situation of the parties, and all other circumstances of the case. The court may also, in the cases provided for in this section, decree to the wife such alimony out of the estate, earnings, and income of the husband as it may deem just and reasonable, having regard to the ability of the husband, the character and situation of the parties, and other circumstances of the case, and may by its decree make the same a specific lien upon any specified parcels of his real estate, or authorize its enforcement by execution against his property, real and personal; but the aggregate award and allowance made to the wife from the estate of the husband under this section shall not in any case exceed in present value one-third of the personal estate, earnings, and income of the husband, and one-third in value of his real estate. (4807; '01 c. 144)

39-258, 39+492; 59-347, 61+334; 67-444, 70+154 (overruled in part by 1901 c. 144); 69-427, 72+451; 73-474, 76+268; 90-471, 97+122; 93-188, 101+70; 104+976.

3591. Wife's interest in certain cases—When a divorce is granted because of the husband's imprisonment or because of his adultery, the wife shall be entitled to the same interest in his lands as if he was dead, to be allowed in the same manner. (4808)

54-352, 56+46; 92-527, 100+366; 104+976.

3592. Order for alimony, etc., revised—After an order or decree for alimony, or other allowance for the wife and children, or either of them, or for the appointment of trustees to receive and hold any property for the use of the wife or children, the court, from time to time, on petition of either of the parties, may revise and alter such order or decree respecting the amount of such alimony or allowance, and the payment thereof, and also respecting the appropriation and payment of the principal and income of the property so held in trust, and may make any order respecting any of the said matters which it might have made in the original action. (4809)

23-214; 28-33, 8+900; 77-67, 79+648; 88-105, 92+522; 90-466, 97+147; 91-193, 97+669; McAllen v. McAllen, Filed Jan. 12, 1906.

3593. Security—Sequestration—Contempt—In all cases when alimony or other allowance is ordered or decreed to the wife or children, the court may require sufficient security to be given by the husband for the payment thereof, according to the terms of the order or decree; and upon his neglect or refusal to give such security, or upon his failure to pay such alimony or allowance, the court may sequester his personal estate, and the rents and profits of his real estate, and may appoint a receiver thereof, and cause such personal estate, and the rents and profits of such real estate to be applied according to the terms of such order or decree. If the husband has an income from any source sufficient to enable him to pay such alimony or other allowance, and fails and refuses to pay the same, the court may order him to pay such alimony or allowance for the use of the wife or the children, or both. And if any person or party shall disobey such order, he may be punished by the court as for contempt. (4810)

63-443, 65+728.

3594. Remarriage—Revocation—When a divorce has been granted, and the parties afterward intermarry, the court, upon their joint application, and upon satisfactory proof of such marriage, may revoke all decrees and orders of divorce, alimony, and subsistence which will not affect the rights of third persons. (4811)

3595. Cohabiting after divorce—Persons who shall cohabit together before intermarriage, after having been divorced from the bonds of matrimony, shall be liable to all the penalties provided by law against adultery. (4812)

3596. Effect of divorce—Name of wife—Whenever a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony is granted in this state, such decree shall completely dissolve the marriage contract as to both parties. And in all actions for a divorce brought by a woman, if a divorce is granted, the court may change the name of such woman, who shall thereafter be known by such name as the court designates in its decree. (4813)

LIMITED DIVORCES

3597. Separation—A separation from bed and board forever, or for a limited time, may be adjudged by the district court, on the complaint of a married woman, in the following cases:

1. Between any husband and wife, inhabitants of this state.
2. When the marriage shall have taken place within this state, and the wife shall be an actual resident at the time of filing her complaint.
3. When the marriage shall have taken place out of this state, and the parties have been inhabitants of this state at least one year, and the wife shall be an actual resident at the time of filing her complaint. (4814)

See generally as to limited divorces (43-31, 44+524; 36-239, 30+766; 53-181, 54+1059; 77-67, 79+648; 81-287, 83+1088; 87-136, 91+432; 91-165, 97+671).

3598. For what causes—Such separation may be adjudged for the following causes:

1. Cruel and inhuman treatment by the husband.
2. Such conduct on the part of the husband towards his wife as may render it unsafe and improper for her to cohabit with him.
3. The abandonment of the wife by the husband, and his refusal or neglect to provide for her. (4815)

53-181, 54+1059.

3599. Complaint—The complaint in every such case shall specify particularly the facts and circumstances on which the plaintiff relies, and shall set forth times and places with reasonable certainty. (4816)

3600. Defences—The defendant may prove in his justification the ill conduct of the plaintiff, and, on establishing such defence to the satisfaction of the court, the complaint shall be dismissed. (4817)

3601. Alimony, etc.—Such proceedings shall be commenced and conducted in the same manner as actions for a divorce from the bonds of matrimony; and the court, upon motion, may award such sum for counsel fees and temporary alimony during the pendency of the action as the circumstances and situation of the parties appear to warrant. (4818)

36-239, 30+766.

3602. As to alimony and wife's property—Upon adjudging a separation in any such suit, the court may make such order and decree for the suitable support of the wife and her children by the husband, or out of his property or earnings, as may appear just and proper, and by such decree may give the wife absolute control of her separate property, with power of alienation, and may make such further decree as the nature and circumstances of the case require. (4819)

3603. When separation not granted—Although a decree for separation from bed and board be not made, the court may make such decree for the support of the wife and her children, or any of them, by the husband, or out of his property or earnings, as the nature of the case renders suitable and proper. (4820)

28-33, 8+900.

3604. Revocation—Upon a joint application of the parties, and satisfactory proof of their reconciliation, the court granting any decree of separation may revoke the same, under such regulations and restrictions as it shall prescribe. (4821)
