CHAPTER 19

INSURANCE

---

INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

3243. Use of contingent fund—The contingent fund appropriated for the use of the department of insurance may be expended by the commissioner of insurance as he may deem for the best interest of said department. ('11 c. 386 § 4, amended '15 c. 208 § 1)

3245. Same—Examination of companies—Powers of commissioner—At least once in every two years, the commissioner of insurance shall personally, or by his deputy, actuary, examiners or other salaried employé of his office, visit each domestic insurance company, other than township mutual fire insurance companies, and carefully examine its affairs for the purpose of ascertaining its financial condition and ability to fulfill its obligations, and if it be complying with all the provisions of law. He may also make such examination at any other time that he shall have reason to believe that such company is in an unsound condition, or that it is not conducting its business according to the provisions of law. He may also personally or by his deputy, actuary, examiners or other salaried employé of his office whenever he shall deem it necessary, make an appraisal of any or all of the company's assets. The commissioner, or person making the examination by his direction shall have free access to all books and papers of any company, and of the books and papers of any of its agents, that may relate to its business, and may summon and examine under oath of its directors, officers, agents, trustees, or other persons, in relation to its affairs and condition. The commissioner of insurance may in like manner, whenever he deems it necessary, make an examination of the affairs or an appraisal of any or all of the assets of any insurance company admitted, or applying for admission to do business under the laws of this state.
