4651. Proceedings on appeal—Orders not appealed from—The person serving such notice of appeal shall, within five days after the service thereof, file the same with proof of service, with the clerk of the court to which such appeal is taken; and thereupon said district court shall have jurisdiction over said appeal, and the same shall be entered upon the records of said district court and shall be tried therein according to the rules relating to the trial of civil actions, so far as the same are applicable. supersede the order appealed from unless the court, upon an examination of said order, and the return made on said appeal, and after giving the respondent notice and opportunity to be heard, shall so direct. If such appeal is not taken, such order shall become final, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the carriers affected to adopt and publish the rates or classifications therein prescribed. And all orders heretofore made, from which no appeal was taken, as provided by law, shall be deemed to have been in full effect for all purposes from the time when the right to appeal from such order expired. When no appeal is taken from an order, as herein provided, the parties affected by such order shall be deemed to have waived the right to have the merits of such controversy reviewed by a court, and there shall be no trial of the merits of re-examination of the facts of any controversy in which such order was made, by any district court to which application may be made for a writ to enforce the same. 4652. Order on dismissal in certain cases—Procedure—Whenever in any proceeding pending before it relating to or involving the reasonableness of rates, fares, charges or classifications, the commission shall decide that it has not jurisdiction for the reason that the traffic covered by such rates, fares, charges and classifications is interstate commerce, it shall make an order dismissing the proceeding, stating therein the ground of such dismissal, which order may be appealed from in like manner as other appealable orders of said commission. And if in any such proceeding one of the commissioners shall dissent from the order of dismissal, the question of its jurisdiction shall be certified to the district court of a county to which an appeal might be taken, and thereupon the commission shall notify all parties to the proceeding of such certification, stating the county and date thereof. (1973) [4193]

4653. Filing papers—Effect—When in any such case an appeal is taken or such question certified the commission shall forthwith file with the clerk of the proper district court all papers, pleadings, evidence, and orders in the proceeding, and thereupon such court shall have full jurisdiction to hear and determine the question of the jurisdiction of said commission in reference to the matter appealed from or certified. Such proceeding may be brought on for hearing by either party on ten days' notice, either at a term or in vacation, and shall be heard upon the evidence taken before the commission and such further evidence as may be offered by either party. If the order of the commission is reversed, upon filing a copy of the order of reversal with the commission it shall forthwith proceed to determine the reasonableness of such rates, fares, charges and classification on the merits. (1974) [4194]

4654. Failure to obey order or law—Whenever any such carrier or warehouseman shall fail to obey any law of the state or any order of the commission, the commission or any party interested may, upon verified petition alleging such failure, apply to the district court of the county in which such carrier or warehouseman has a principal office, or into which a line of railroad of such carrier extends, for the enforcement of such law or order or other appropriate relief. The court, upon such notice as it may direct, shall hear such matter as in case of an appeal from an order. On such hearing the findings of fact upon which such order is based shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated, and the court may grant any provisional or other relief, ordinary or extraordinary, legal or equitable, which the nature of the case may require, and may impose a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each day's failure to obey any writ, process, or order of the court, in addition to all other penalties or forfeitures provided by law. A temporary mandatory or restraining order may be made in such proceeding, notwithstanding any undetermined issue of fact, upon such terms as to security as the court may direct. (1975) [4195]

66-271, 68+1085; 76-469, 475, 79+510.

4655. Trial—The district courts shall be deemed always open for all civil proceedings under this chapter, and any such proceeding may be brought to trial in any county in the judicial district, and shall take precedence of all other matters except criminal cases. Except when there is a constitutional right to a trial by jury, not expressly waived, all such proceedings shall be tried summarily by the court. (1976) [4196]

4656. Incriminating questions—In any proceeding under this chapter, or under any law relating to common carriers or public warehousemen, the court in its discretion may require a witness to answer any question, although his answer may tend to convict him of a crime, but no person so compelled to answer shall thereafter be liable to any prosecution for such crime. (1977) [4197]

4657. Costs and attorney's fees—In any proceeding in district or supreme court under the provisions of this chapter, or under any law relating to common carriers or public warehousemen, whether by appeal or otherwise, the court may order the payment of such counsel fees and disbursements as it deems just and reasonable. (1978) [4198]

4659. Appeals to supreme court—Any party to an appeal or other proceeding in district court under the provisions of this chapter may appeal from the final judgment, or from any final order therein, in the same cases and manner as in civil actions. No bond shall be required from the commission, and no such appeal shall stay the operation of such order or judgment unless the district or supreme court shall so direct, and unless the carrier appealing from a judgment or order fixing rates for transportation of persons or property shall give bond in a sum and with sureties approved by a judge of the court ordering the stay, conditioned that the appellant will refund to the person entitled thereto any amount received for such transportation above the amount finally fixed by the court. Any person paying such excessive charges shall have a claim for the excess, whether paid under protest or not, and, unless refunded within thirty days after written demand made after final judgment, may recover the same by action against such carrier, or such carrier and the sureties on such bond. The appeal may be filed in the supreme court before or during any term thereof, and shall be immediately entered on the calendar and heard upon such notice as the court may prescribe. (1980) [4200]

This section shall not apply to interurban railways operated by electricity, except as to freight or cars transported over two or more such interurban railways having similar equipment so as to make it physically practicable to comply with the provisions of this section. Commission without authority to fix a joint rate (133-413, 158+627; 139-56, 165+870).

4700. Powers and duties of commission—Notice and hearing—Schedule of rates—Revising rates—The board of railroad and warehouse commission shall, within ten days after this act takes effect, notify in writing every railway company owning or operating a railway within this state that it will, upon a day named in such notice, which day shall not be more than thirty days after giving said notice, take up for investigation the subject of establishing joint through rates, as herein provided, between the railway lines in this state. It shall also give a similar notice, directed "To whom it may concern," and so publish the same, that it will have general circulation throughout the state. All corporations, partnerships and persons interested in the subject may present themselves at the hearing and be heard, under such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe. At the end of the investigation, which shall be carried on with all due diligence, the said board of railroad and warehouse commission shall make and publish a schedule of joint through railway rates for such traffic and on such routes as in its judgment the fair and reasonable conduct of business requires shall be done by carriage over two or more lines of railway, and will promote the interests of the people of this state. In the making thereof, and in changing, revising or adding to the same, the board shall be governed as nearly as may be by the preceding sections of this chapter, and shall take into consideration, among other things, the rates established for shipments within this state for like distances over single lines, the rates charged by the railway companies operating such connecting lines for joint inter-state shipments, and the increased cost, if any, of a joint through shipment as compared with a shipment over a single line for like distances. In establishing such rates for shipments in less than carload lots, in cases where at the connecting point or points in the line of shipments the connecting railways have not and are not required to have a common station or stopping place for loading or unloading freight, the board shall make such lawful regulations as in its judgment will be fair and just respecting the transportation of such freight from the usual unloading place of one railway to the usual loading place of the other. The joint through rates thus established shall be promulgated by mailing a printed copy thereof to each railway company affected thereby and shall go into effect within ten days after they are so promulgated; and from and after that time an official printed schedule thereof shall be prima facie evidence, in all courts of this state, that the rates therein fixed are just and reasonable for the joint transportation of such freight between the points and over the lines described therein. The said board shall deliver a printed copy of said schedule to any person making application therefor. The share of any railway company of any joint through rate shall not be construed to fix the charge that it may make for transportation for a similar distance over any part of its line for any single rate shipment or the share of any other joint rate. The board, upon such reasonable notice as it may prescribe, may, upon its own motion or upon the application of any person, firm or corporation interested therein, revise, change or add to any joint through rates fixed or promulgated hereunder; and any such revised, changed or added joint rates shall have the same force and effect as the rate or rates originally established. The said board is empowered to authorize upon proper hearing, any railway company whose line connects the point of shipment with the point of destination but requires a longer haul than the joint haul over which a joint rate has been established, to charge the joint rate without affecting the charge upon any other part of its line, except that the charge for a like kind of property must not be greater for a shorter than for a longer distance over its railroad, all of the shorter haul being included within the longer. This section shall apply to interurban railways and their connection with ordinary steam railways. ('13 c. 344 § 2) [4230]

4701. Railroad and Warehouse Commission to investigate rates of railroads—Whenever in its judgment the public interest requires it, the Railroad and Warehouse Commission is hereby authorized, either upon its own motion or upon written complaint, to institute an investigation for the purpose of determining whether the maximum rates, prescribed by any law of the state of Minnesota, to be charged by any railroad company owning, operating or using a line of railroad wholly or partly within the state of Minnesota, for the intrastate transportation of passengers and their ordinary baggage, are under the then existing conditions reasonable. All railroad companies whose rates are involved in such investigation shall have such notice thereof as the commission shall deem reasonable and shall have an opportunity to be heard therein. For the purposes of such investigation the commission may require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records, papers, and documents. If upon such investigation the commission shall find that such maximum rates, so prescribed, are so low as to be unreasonable, they shall make an order prescribing a schedule of reasonable maximum rates and shall fix the date when the same shall become effective. The rates so prescribed by the commission shall on said date supersede the rates prescribed by such law and shall thereafter be the lawful maximum rates for such services, unless and until changed by the further order of the commission. The rates so prescribed shall be in force during the pendency of any appeal or other proceeding to review the action of the commission. ('21 c. 408 § 1)

4702. Any such carrier failing to comply with the provisions of this section, or with any order of the commission made thereunder shall forfeit, for each day's default, one hundred dollars, to be recovered in a civil action in the name of the state. 4743-5. Same—Stop signs—At each grade crossing where, because of the dangers attendant upon its use, the reasonable protection of life and property makes it necessary for all persons approaching the same to stop before crossing the railroad tracks thereat, such stop signs shall be installed. The commission is hereby authorized to designate any such crossing requiring such additional protection as a stop crossing, and shall notify the railway company operating the railroad thereat of such designation. Within 30 days after such notification it shall be the duty of such railway company to erect such uniform stop crossing signs in conspicuous places on each side of said crossing. ('25, c. 336, § 5)

4743-6. Same—Vehicles required to come to full stop—Whenever any vehicle carrying school children, explosives or inflammable liquids, or passengers for hire, or any trucks or any vehicle having in tow any other vehicle or equipment, or any vehicle of the tractor or caterpillar type, approaches any grade crossing it shall be the duty of the driver thereof to bring the same to a complete stop before reaching the railroad track and before crossing said track to ascertain when such crossing can be made in safety. ('25, c. 336, § 6)

4743-7. Same—Drivers of vehicles to stop and watch for trains—Before proceeding across railroad track at any crossing marked with such stop sign, it shall be the duty of all persons controlling the movement of

4743-8. Same—Drivers of vehicles required to reduce speed—It shall be the duty of any person controlling the movement of any other vehicle than those mentioned in Section 6 hereof, upon approaching any grade crossing to reduce the speed of such vehicle to such a rate that it can be brought to a full stop in case of necessity before reaching the nearest rail of the railroad track and to cautiously proceed over said crossing at a speed not to exceed ten miles per hour. ('25, c. 336, § 8)

Explanatory note—For section 6, see § 4743-6, herein.

It shall thereupon be the duty of such railway company to provide such watchman or watchmen during such time. Such watchman shall have full control over the traffic at said crossing. ('25, c. 336, § 9)

4743-10. Same—Additional safeguards—Whenever, in any investigation instituted upon its own motion or upon complaint and after notice and hearing, the commission finds that conditions exist at any grade crossing which in its opinion require any additional safeguards for the protection of life and property, such as crossing gates or other suitable devices, the commission is authorized to specify the nature of the devices required and to order the railway company operating the railroad at such crossing to install the same. ('25, c. 336, § 10)

4743-11. Same—Crossing gates—Whenever, in any investigation instituted upon its own motion or upon complaint and after notice and hearing, the commission finds that the protection of life and property requires the constant operation of crossing gates, where the same are now or may be hereafter installed, the commission is authorized to order any railway company operating the railroad at such crossing to provide men to operate such crossing gates for the full 24 hours of each day. ('25, c. 336, § 11)

4743-12. Uniformity of devices for protection at grade crossings—It shall be the duty of the commission, so far as practicable, to secure uniformity in the devices used to protect grade crossings. No such devices shall be hereafter installed until the same have been approved by the commission. All such devices which are now in use or which may be hereafter installed, which, in the opinion of the commissioners, conflict with the devices approved by the commission, either in their design or method of operation, so as to create a hazardous condition to the travel at such crossing, shall be immediately modified by the railway company controlling the same so as to conform to those approved by the commission. ('25, c. 336, § 12)

4743-13. Same—Hearings by Commission—Whenever it is desired, either by the public officials having the necessary authority or by the railway company operating the railroad, to vacate or relocate any crossing of a public highway and a railroad, and an agreement cannot be reached between such public officials and the railway company, either as to the necessity for such vacation or relocation, or as to the place, manner of construction, or a reasonable division of expense in the case of a re-location, either party may file a petition with the commission, setting forth the facts and submitting the matter to it for determination; whereupon the commission, after such notice as it shall deem reasonable, shall conduct a hearing and issue its order determining the matters so submitted. ('25, c. 336, § 13)

4743-14. Same—Overhead or underground crossings—Separate grades—The commission may require any railroad company to construct overhead and maintain underground crossings and separate grades when, in its opinion, the interests and safety of the public require, and no overhead or underground crossing, nor separation of grade, shall be made except upon the petition therefor to the commission, and with the approval of the commission. ('25, c. 336, § 14)

4743-16. Same—Injuring, destroying, etc., of signs—It shall be unlawful for any person to maliciously injure, remove, displace, deface or destroy any of the signs or signals provided for in this act. ('25, c. 336, § 16)

4743-17. Same—Penalties—Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25, nor more than $100, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months. 4744. Fences and cattle guards—Every such company shall build and maintain on each side of all lines of road owned and operated by it, good and substantial fences, and shall build and maintain good and sufficient cattle guards at all road and street crossings and other openings, except at station and depot grounds, and other places which the necessary business of the road or public convenience requires to be open. Whenever the land of any person lying along the right of way of any railroad is enclosed on three sides by a woven wire fence, such railroad company shall erect and maintain a woven wire fence of like character and quality along the said right of way enclosing the remaining side of said land. Provided, that in the building and maintenance of said fences and cattle guards, every such company shall be held to the exercise of ordinary diligence and care and shall be held to such ordinary diligence and care in keeping such cattle guards free from ice and snow. (R. L. § 1997, amended '07 c. 333; '11 c. 309 § 1) [4263]

1. In general—A constitutional exercise of police power (11-615, 392; 35-503, 29+202; 149 U. S. 364, 13 Sup. Ct. 870, 37 L. Ed. 769). A police regulation; not a regulation of partition fences (26-268, 3+353; 37-103, 33+316; 68-216, 71+20). Object of statute (68-216, 71+20; 95-398, 104+228). No such duty at common law (15-350, 283; 25-328; 95-398, 104+228). Enforced strictly (95-386, 104+234).

Applicable to all railroads (26-268, 3+353; 46-250, 48+915). Statutory wire fence sufficient (32-88, 19+392; 96-116, 104+827). Duty to maintain and repair (30-18, 13+921; 30-489, 16+271; 34-281, 26+595; 47-429, 50+474; 101-12, 111+661). Unnecessary under present law for county board to act (25-328). Fencing necessary though cattle guards impracticable (52-276, 53+1129). Meaning of "on each side" (63-37, 65+125). Duty of parallel railroads (84-397, 87+1117). Duty absolute and imperative (80-568, 83+454; 84-397, 87+1117). Duty to keep gates closed (93-428, 101+795. See § 4268).

Action for injuries to a child under four years of age, who went upon defendant's tracks at a place where they were not fenced. The burden was on defendant to prove facts bringing this place within the exception to the statute requiring fences. 156-218, 194+620.

2. Within municipal limits—Prior to the revision there was no exception as to municipal limits (33-136, 22+179; 44-275, 46+363; 72-47, 74+898, 80+628; 80-508, 83+454).

3. Implied exceptions—Streets—Depot grounds—There is no duty where there is no right—where a fence would obstruct public streets, highways or grounds (33-136, 22+179; 42-34, 43+652; 84-397, 87+1117). Exception as to station and depot grounds (33-136, 22+179; 36-518, 32+783; 37-52, 33+314; 37-103, 33+316; 39-485, 40+613; 41-101, 42+924; 42-480, 44+530). Exception does not necessarily extend to full length of "yards" (80-508, 83+454). Repair shops and yards held within statute (95-386, 104+234; 100-34, 110+98). Possibly switching yards are excepted (80-508, 83+454; 84-397, 87+1117). Public necessity or convenience the limit of the exception (33-136, 22+179; 36-518, 32+783; 39-485, 40+613; 84-397, 87+1117). Burden on railroad to prove facts giving rise to exception (41-101, 42+924; 72-47, 74+898, 80+628; 80-508, 83+454; 84-397, 87+1117). Mere inconvenience to the company does not create an exception (33-136, 22+179). Fences must be built to prevent passing through depot grounds to track beyond (36-518, 32+783).

4. Cattle guards—Where necessary (40-91, 41+458). When impracticable duty to fence unaffected (52-276, 53+1129). Unnecessary to keep free from snow and ice (34-57, 24+558; 42-158, 43+905). Whether necessary to keep free from snow and ice depends on circumstances (115-496, 132+994). Duty to keep in repair (36-296, 30+892).

Obligation to provide and maintain gate in good state of repair at farm crossing (154-363, 191+825). Failure to maintain flagman, gates and signal device at crossing (189+580, 190+68; 194+639). Fence defined sufficient within the law (194+620).

4745. Liability for failure to fence, etc.—Any such company failing to comply with the requirements of § 4744 shall be liable for all damages resulting therefrom, and for all domestic animals killed or injured by its negligence; and, if it shall fail to pay the actual damages occasioned by such killing or injury within thirty days after such damage occurs, then, in case of recovery therefor by action brought after such thirty days, if in district court, the plaintiff shall recover double costs, and if in justice court, ten dollars costs. Such company, before the commencement of action, may make tender for such injury, and if the amount recovered, exclusive of interest, shall not exceed the tender, the plaintiff shall recover no costs nor disbursements. (1998) [4264]

1. General liability—The general liability is distinct from the special liability for loss or injury of domestic animals (95-398, 104+228; 141 Fed. 25, 72 C. C. A. 513). Liable to abutting landowner for depreciation of property or rental value from failure to fence (35-503, 29+202; 38-215, 36+340; 41-131, 42+788; 46-250, 48+915; 149 U. S. 364, 13 Sup. Ct. 870, 37 L. Ed. 769). Liable for death or injury of child straying on unfenced road (68-216, 71+20; 80-508, 83+454; 84-397, 87+1117. See 96-176, 104+827; 100-34, 110+98). Whether a child would have been turned by a legal fence is a question of fact. Failure to fence prima facie, but not conclusive, evidence of negligence (96-176, 104+827; 139+713).

2. Liability for animals killed or injured—Liable only where injury is the natural and proximate consequence of the neglect to fence (30-74, 14+360; 95-398, 104+228. See 32-88, 19+392; 60-134, 61+1130). Liability extends only to animals killed on right of way. Object of statute. G. S. 1894 § 2695 not applicable (95-398, 104+228). Not liable for injuries by animals passing over unfenced tracks and trespassing on adjoining lands (25-328).

Contributory negligence a defence (24-394; 27-111, 6+448; 29-425, 13+673). Liability extends to all domestic animals including estrays. Merely permitting animals to run at large unlawfully does not in itself constitute contributory negligence (26-268, 3+353; 29-425, 13+673; 31-91, 16+537; 55-192, 56+752; 57-26, 58+822. See 42-480, 44+530).

No defence that animals were trespassing on land from which they passed to tracks (26-268, 3+353). Acts constituting contributory negligence (29-425, 13+673).

Contributory negligence held a question for the jury (27-360, 7+366; 53-122, 54+1061; 55-192, 56+752; 57-26, 58+822; 99-332, 109+600). Animals accidentally escaping from owner (52-276, 53+1129; 53-122, 54+1061). Duty in operating trains where land is not fenced (27-360, 7+366; 96-176, 104+827). Injury resulting from failure to repair (30-18, 13+921; 30-489, 16+271; 34-281, 25+595). Liability extends to all animals that would be turned by a legal fence. Whether sheep and hogs would be turned depends on their size—ordinarily a question for the jury (32-88, 19+392; 34-216, 25+347). Burden of proving plaintiff's contributory negligence on railroad (24-394; 41-101, 42+924). Condition of road where animals enter controls; not condition where they are killed or injured (41-101, 42+924). Whether company negligent in failing to maintain fence in repair for jury (102-295, 112+886).

3. Double costs—Constitutional (29-425, 13+673; 34-216, 25+347). Allowable on appeal from justice court (34-216, 25+347). Not allowable when action begins within thirty days (37-52, 33+314). Not applicable to supreme court (72-47, 74+898, 80+628). Cited (27-111, 6+448; 31-91, 16+537; 95-398, 104+228).

4746. Fences—Crossings—Cattle guards—Any such company operating a line of railroad in this state, which has failed or neglected to fence said road and to erect crossings and cattle guards, shall be liable for all damages sustained by any person in consequence of such failure or neglect: Provided, that the measure of damages for failure to construct or maintain such fence shall be as follows: The owner of any land abutting on the line of railway of such company may serve notice on any of its station agents between April 1 and October 1 of any year, requiring the construction of a fence on the line between his land and its right of way. If such company shall not construct the same within forty days after service of such notice, the landowner may recover of the company an amount not exceeding twice the cost of such construction, with costs and reasonable attorney's fee, to be allowed by the court, or he may construct such fence after the expiration of such time, and receive from the company double the cost of construction, with like costs and attorney's fee. Such fence shall be kept in repair by such company in like manner and under like penalties as if built by such company. But failure to serve such notice shall not relieve such company from liability for damages for injuries to persons or domestic animals or other property, resulting from failure to fence its road. (1999) [4265]

80-508, 83+454; 95-398, 104+228; 141 Fed. 25, 72 C. C. A. 513.

4747. Fences between railroad and public road—If any such company shall fail to fence its line where the same adjoins a public road or street, or lies so near thereto as to render travel thereon dangerous, the governing body of the town or municipality having charge of such road or street, by notice as in case of abutting landowner, may require such fence to be built; and, in case of failure to build such fence for the time provided in § 4746, such town or municipality shall have the rights and remedies given by said section to such abutting owner. (2000) [4266]

4748. Farm crossings and drains—Persons owning lands abutting upon a railroad may construct, at their own expense, crossings under, over or across such railroad, and drains under and across the same, at such places and in such manner as not to obstruct or impair the use of such railroad, which crossings and drains shall be maintained and kept in repair by the company. Before constructing the same, the owner of the land shall serve on the nearest station agent of the company a notice, stating in detail the work which he desires to perform, and the company may construct such work; but the same shall not be opened for the use of the landowner until he pays the reasonable cost of construction. (2001) [4267]

38-491, 38+487; 108-494, 122+452.

4749. Gates at farm crossings—Any such company which shall erect at a farm crossing a gate for the exclusive use of the owner and occupants of such farm, provide a lock for the same, and deliver the key thereof to such owner or occupant, shall not be liable to such owner or occupant for any animal killed or injured by reason of such gate being left open without fault of such company, unless such killing or injury results from the wanton or malicious act of such company or its employes. 4750. Ditches and culverts—It shall be the duty of every railroad company or receiver or lessee thereof, operating a line of railroad in the state of Minnesota, to keep clean at all times between the first day of April and the first day of November of each year, all ditches and culverts constructed by them for the drainage of their roadbed or right of way. Provided, that this act shall not apply to ditches and culverts not located upon the right of way of any railroad. ('09 c. 377 § 1) [4269]

4751. Failure to comply—Penalty—Any such railroad receiver or lessee thereof, failing or neglecting to comply with the provisions of the foregoing section shall forfeit and pay to the State of Minnesota the sum of two hundred dollars for every mile of such ditch which it fails to keep clean during any season. Said amount shall be collected in a civil action brought by the attorney general of the State of Minnesota, or by the county attorney of any county through or into which said railroad extends. ('09 c. 377 § 2) [4270]

4752. Duty of commission—It shall be the duty of the Railroad and Warehouse Commission to have this law enforced. ('09 c. 377 § 3) [4271]

Statute designed to protect against injuries to agricultural lands incidental to closing of ditch (132-271, 156+121).

4753. Clearance between structures and cars, etc.—To what railroads applicable—That the provisions of this act shall apply to any corporation or receiver thereof, or to any person or persons while engaged as common carriers in the transportation by railroad of passengers or property within this state to which the regulative powers of this state extend, except railways operated by the electric trolley system. ('13 c. 307 § 1) [4272]

4754. Unlawful structures—That on and after the passage of this act, it shall be unlawful for any common carrier, or any other person, to erect or reconstruct and thereafter maintain on any standard gauge road on its line or on any standard gauge sidetrack used in connection therewith, for use in any traffic mentioned in section one of this act, any warehouse, coal chute, stock pen, pole, mail crane, standpipe, hog drencher, or any permanent or fixed structure or obstruction, or in excavating allow any embankment of earth or natural rock to remain upon its line of railroad, or on any sidetrack used in connection therewith at a distance less than eight feet measured from the center line of the track, which said structure or obstruction adjoins on standard gauge roads; nor shall any overhead wires, bridges, viaduct or other obstruction passing over or above its tracks as aforesaid be erected or reconstructed at a less height than twenty-one (21) feet, measured from the top of the track rail.

Provided, however, that this act shall not be construed to apply to yards and terminals of depot companies or railway companies used only for passenger service. But, nevertheless, in the event of personal injury sustained by any employe of any such company in this proviso mentioned, by reason of non-compliance with the provisions of this act, such employe, or in case of his death, his personal representative, shall have all the rights, privileges and immunities enumerated in section 9 hereof. ('13 c. 307 § 2, amended '15 c. 171 § 1) [4273]

Refers to the maintenance of such structure or erections as were made after the passage of the act. 162-271, 202+726.

The evidence shows no negligence, the statute aside, in the maintenance of a semaphore in the defendant's yards at a less distance from the center of the track than that prescribed by the statute. 162-271, 202+726.

The semaphore carried the usual colored lights for signaling. The evidence does not show negligence in failing to have other lights thereon to light the yards for men working in switching operations. 162-271, 202+726.

4755. Exceptions—That the Railroad and Warehouse Commission may upon application made, after a thorough investigation in any particular case or class of cases, permit any common carrier to which this act applies to erect any overhead or side obstruction at a less distance from the track than herein provided for, when in the judgment of said commission a compliance with the clearance prescribed herein would be unreasonable or unnecessary. ('13 c. 307 § 3, amended '15 c. 171 § 2) [4274]

4756. Distance between tracks—That on and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any such common carrier to construct any track used for the purpose of moving any cars engaged in the movement of traffic within the regulative power of this state, where the center line of such track is at a distance of less than fourteen feet from the center line of any other parallel track which it adjoins. ('13 c. 307 § 4) [4275]

Relates solely to after constructed tracks. 159-70, 198+300.

4757. Tracks for switching or storing—Section four of this act shall not be construed as applying to tracks to be used wholly for the purpose of switching or storing cars, but the tracks which are to be used for such purpose shall not be constructed in closer proximity to each other than thirteen (13) feet measured from the center line of any such track to the center line of any parallel track which it adjoins; provided, that the distance between said tracks specified in sections four and five [4756, 4757] of this act may be diminished or closed up a necessary distance for track intersections, turn-outs and switch points. ('13 c. 307 § 5) [4276]

159-70, 198+300, note under § 4756.

4758. Obstructing space between tracks, etc.—Exceptions—That on and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any such common carrier to permit the space between such of its tracks as are ordinarily used by yardmen and other employes in the discharge of their duties, to become or remain obstructed by any foreign obstacle that will interfere with the work of said employes or subject said employes to unnecessary hazard. Such space between or beside said tracks as aforesaid, and between the rails of said tracks must be kept in such condition as to permit said employes to pass over or between said tracks or to use the same by day or night and under all weather conditions without unnecessary hazard; provided, however, that wherever any railroad company has already begun work on depressing a portion of its tracks, within the corporate limits of any municipality, whether under contract with such municipality or otherwise, this act shall not apply to any depression of the tracks of such company lying wholly within the corporate limits of such municipality. Provided further, that none of the provisions of this act shall apply to any part of any work or enterprise heretofore begun or under construction, whether under contract between any railroad company and any municipality or otherwise. ('13 c. 307 § 6, amended '13 c. 448 § 1) [4277]

Switch stands and other instrumentalities needed in railroading are not within the design of the statute (152-182, 188+279).

4759. Penalties for violation—Duties of attorney general and commission—That any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act violating any of the provisions thereof, shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each and any such violation; and each day that any structure or obstruction is maintained in violation of this act, shall constitute a separate offense, such penalty to be recovered in a suit or suits to be brought in the name of the State of Minnesota by the attorney general or under his direction in any court having jurisdiction thereof in the locality where such a violation shall have been committed, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general under the direction of the State Railroad and Warehouse Commission to bring such suits upon duly verified information being lodged with him by any person of such violation being committed, and it shall also be the duty of said State Railroad and Warehouse Commission to lodge with the attorney general information of any such violation as may come to its knowledge. ('13 c. 307 § 7) [4278]

4760. Duty of inspectors of bureau of labor, etc.—It shall be the duty of the railroad inspectors of the bureau of labor, industries and commerce to report to the Railroad and Warehouse Commission and to the attorney general any violation of the provisions of this act of which they may obtain knowledge. ('13 c. 307 § 8) [4279]

4761. No such claim shall be filed until after the arrival of a shipment, or of some part thereof at the point of destination, or until after the lapse of a reasonable time for the arrival thereof. For the purpose of this act, a claim, when filed shall consist of (a) original bill of lading or shipping receipt, (b) paid freight bill, (c) bill of claimant, and (d) original invoice or certified copy when necessary. True copies of any of said documents may be used, and in case of absence, an explanation must be attached. The carrier shall acknowledge the filing of a claim, or any letter, papers or documents purporting to be such, within ten days after receipt, and if the claim so filed does not comply with the above requirements, the carrier shall so inform the claimant and advise him of what may be required to complete the claim. or proceeding brought to collect such claim or overcharge, in any court in the state. Unless such claimant recovers in such action the full amount claimed by him, no penalty shall be recovered, but only the actual amount of the loss, injury or damage to property or amount of the overcharge, with interest. And if, in such action, a special issue of fraud is raised and such claim is found to be fraudulent, the claimant shall pay to the carrier the penalty of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, to be recovered along with the costs. In an action brought under the provisions of this law, if the carrier can show that it made a tender of the amount claimed, with interest, and a penalty of five ($5.00) dollars, within five days after a demand that is made at any time after the expiration of the time specified in sections 1 and 2, then it shall only be subject to the penalty of five ($5.00) dollars, to be recovered along with the costs. Such notification must be issued by the adjutant general, and may be by telegraph or by filing a copy of the order issued by the adjutant general for such transportation with the station or ticket agent or conductor. This rate shall apply to officers or men traveling under orders, either single or in companies, so that whenever one or more members of the guard shall present an order for transportation issued by the adjutant general, it shall be honored by the ticket agent or by the conductor and received in lieu of fare, and when presented by the railroad companies to the adjutant general, shall be audited to be paid at once at the fixed rate. 4817. Franchises to be "indeterminate permits"—Terms not affected except as provided—Every grant that has been heretofore, or that shall be hereafter, made to a street railway by the state or any city shall become and it shall thereafter be, an indeterminate permit, upon such street railway executing and filing with the clerk of the city in which said street railway is located, a written declaration that it desires that such grant shall become an indeterminate permit and consent that the terms of this Act shall apply to and govern the ownership, control, management, maintenance and operation of the street railway property of said street railway. Upon such street railway filing such declaration and consent, the city clerk shall issue to such street railway a certificate that such declaration and consent has been filed in his office. When such certificate shall be filed with the Secretary of State such grant subject to the provisions of this Act shall become an indeterminate permit to own, operate, manage and control any street railway property, or any part thereof, within such city under the terms and conditions of the grant that shall have been theretofore made by the state or any such city and be then in force; but all of the terms, conditions and obligations of such existing grant, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, shall continue in force so long as such indeterminate permit shall continue. Such indeterminate permit shall continue in full force unless and until the city shall acquire the street railway property of such street railway within the limits of such city, or unless terminated or modified by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota as hereinafter provided. ('21 c. 278 § 2)

4818. Cities may acquire street railways—Procedure—Any city shall have the power and authority to acquire the street railway property of any street railway within such city as in this section provided and not otherwise; (a) by eminent domain according to the procedure provided by Chapter 41, General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, and amendments thereto; or (b) by purchase by agreement between the city and the street railway at a value fixed by such agreement; or (c) by purchase at the fair value of such street railway property as determined and fixed by the Commission upon hearing upon petition by the city and subject to appeal to the district court, all as herein provided; and every street railway within the State is hereby required to sell its street railway property to any such city in which the same is located, at such fair value when and as so fixed by the Commission or by the Court upon appeal.

No value shall be allowed in any case for any franchise and no allowance shall be made for damages because of the severance of the properties from connecting properties, but the same shall be valued as an operating system.

Any city which may acquire street railway property may own, operate, lease or resell or otherwise dispose of such property. In no case, however, shall any acquirement of street railway property by purchase or by eminent domain or otherwise, or any agreement or action or proceeding therefor have any force or effect or be binding in any way upon any such city unless and until such acquirement shall, after the fair value of such street railway property has been fixed as provided by this Act, be ratified and approved by a majority of the votes of the electors of such city, cast upon the question at a general or regular city election, or a special election for that purpose, at which such question shall have been submitted as herein provided. As soon as may be after the fair value of such street railway property within any city has been finally determined and fixed by any proceeding or by agreement as provided by this act, the Council of such City shall by resolution submit the question of such acquirement by purchase or by eminent domain, as the case may be, to the electors of such city, fixing the time of such election which shall be not less than three months nor more than six months after the passage of such resolution, and providing for due notice thereof, stating the question to be voted upon and providing for the holding of such election. Provided that no special election shall be ordered to occur or be held for such purpose within any three months' period immediately preceding or immediately succeeding any general or regular city election. ('21 c. 278 § 3)

Explanatory note—For G. S. 1913, c. 41, referred to, see §§ 6537 to 6578, herein.

4819. City councils to have power to grant franchises—The exclusive right and authority is vested in the council of any city, in this state to grant a license, permit or franchise for the construction, maintenance and operation of street railway property within the limits of such city and on such terms and conditions as it may impose. Such council shall have the exclusive right and authority to designate the street or streets upon which any street railway property or part thereof may be hereafter constructed and no street railway property shall be hereafter constructed upon any street in any city without express authority from the council of such city. Such council shall have authority by ordinance or resolution to require the construction of any new line or lines and the extension or change or removal of any existing line or lines. The council shall have authority to prescribe reasonable requirements, standards and conditions of service and operation of any street railway property by any street railway within such city, and shall have the right at all times and in all respects to exercise reasonable control over such service and operation and all things pertaining thereto, including type of cars, the right to fix and amend service schedules, to control stops, routes, headway, speed and number of cars, and to make regulations governing their lighting, heating and their sanitary condition, and such street railway shall furnish the council such information relating to such matters as it may from time to time require and shall operate at all times at least a sufficient number of cars to and shall fully comply with all schedules and routes required by the council, and adequately accommodate the traveling public, and in these and all other respects furnish reasonable and adequate service and facilities for the accommodation of the traveling public. All cars used shall be of modern design and equipped and furnished with such improvements and appliances as to assure the health, safety, comfort and convenience of the passengers, the public and the company's employes. They shall at least equal in quality, style and design cars now operated in such city. The company's road bed and tracks shall be maintained at all times in first class operating condition so as to afford convenient and comfortable travel thereon. The location of shops, car barns, waiting rooms and terminals and all other matters hereinbefore in this section specified shall be subject to the approval of the Council. The action of the Council of any city under this section shall be final and not subject to appeal by the street railway, except as specifically otherwise provided by this section.

Any order, resolution, rule or regulation or requirement of any kind made or imposed upon the street railway by the Council as provided by this Act may be enforced by mandamus, injunction or other appropriate proceeding. (21 c. 278 § 4)

Railway is authorized to charge rates authorized by prior franchise until changed by commission, and was not divested of right under former franchise (152-213. 1884287).

4821. Rates must be fair—Transfers—Rates of fare and charges within any city shall be just, fair and reasonable and shall be sufficient to yield only a reasonable return on a fair value of the street railway property of the street railway within such city. The same fare shall be charged each passenger for transportation over all street railway lines in any city from any one point to any other point therein and transfers and retransfers shall be given to each passenger free of charge, good for use for his continuous trip on all other lines in the city under such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe. In all cases where cities are contiguous, continuous inter-city passenger service shall be provided without change of cars by a street railway operating in both cities. If a different street railway is operating in one such city from the street railway that is operating in the other city, the inter-city transportation as above provided shall be furnished nevertheless by both street railways and mutual adjustment of fares and expenses shall be made by such railways, subject to control and regulation thereof by the Commission, authority for which is hereby granted to the Commission. The fare charged for transportation within either city on the portion of such interurban line located within that city shall not exceed the fare on other lines within such city with like transfers and retransfers as hereinbefore provided. The costs and expenses incurred and paid by the street railway in performing its obligations shall be reasonable. (21 c. 278 § 6)

167-311, 209+10; 4 F. (2d) 543, note under 4829.

4822. Companies may issue bonds, stocks, etc., on permit from commission—Any street railway authorized to do business under the laws of this state may issue stocks, bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness payable at periods of more than twelve months after the dates thereof, whenever necessary for the acquisition of property, the construction, extension or improving of facilities or for the discharge or lawful refunding of obligations; provided, however, that except as herein otherwise provided before the street railway shall issue any such stocks, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness as aforesaid, it shall secure from the Commission after a full hearing and investigation before and by such commission an order authorizing such issue and fixing the amount thereof. The city shall be a necessary party to such hearing. Such order shall only be issued when the Commission shall be satisfied that the funds derived from such issue are essential for carrying out such purposes, and that it is proper and reasonable under all the circumstances to make such issue; provided that it shall be the duty of the Commission to authorize an issuance of such bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness as may be required for the construction of any new line or lines, or the extension or change of any existing line or lines, or any construction or improvement in facilities, any of which shall have been ordered, required or approved by the council as provided by this act, subject, however, to the right of appeal to the district court of the county wherein such city is located from any such order or requirement upon the same terms and conditions as provided by this act in case of other appeals. Any order of the Commission made hereunder, shall contain a finding by the Commission that the use of the capital or property to be secured by issue of such stocks, bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness is reasonably required for the purposes of such street railway and that such issue is reasonable and proper under all the circumstances. Provided, further, however, that any street railway may issue notes for lawful purposes payable at periods of not more than twelve months without authority from said Commission, and no such notes or any part thereof shall be refunded by any issue of stocks, or bonds or any evidences of indebtedness running for more than twelve months without the consent of the Commission. The Commission shall not permit the issue of and the street railway shall not issue, any notes, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness when the aggregate par value thereof, together with all other like evidences of indebtedness that shall then be outstanding, shall exceed 85% of the fair reasonable value of the property of the street railway. (21 c. 278 § 7)

4823. Street railways to make application to fix rates—Any street railway or city may apply to the commission at any time to fix and establish hereunder rates of fare to be charged by such street railway for the carrying of passengers within such city and it shall be the duty of the Commission upon application being made by petition as provided by this act to proceed with due diligence to examine and appraise the street railway property and to hear evidence submitted on behalf of the street railway or the city, and to fix and determine the fair value of such street railway property within such city and to fix and establish rates of fare to be charged by such street railway for carrying passengers within such city under and in accordance with the terms and requirements of this act, which rates established shall yield to the street railway a reasonable return on the fair value of its street railway property within such city as an operating system. In establishing any rate of fare the Commission or the court upon appeal shall consider the fair value of the street railway property of the street railway within such city as an operating system, but no additional value shall be allowed for any franchise of the street railway. The rates which the street railway is authorized to charge and collect under existing franchises shall be and remain the authorized and lawful charge until a rate is fixed by the Commission under the provisions of this Act; provided, however, that the Commission may on application of either any city or street railway establish after notice and hearing, an emergency or temporary rate pending a valuation of property and the establishment of a rate based thereon; provided that no such rate shall continue in force or effect for a longer period than is reasonably necessary to make a valuation of the property and establish a rate based thereon. The Commission may at any time after notice and hearing change or cancel any such emergency rate. Thereafter the Commission may on its own initiative and shall upon the application of the city or the street railway from time to time make such investigation as to any change in property value or cost of service as may be reasonably necessary and after a full hearing as herein provided make such order confirming existing rates or changing rates as may be just, to properly regulate rates of fare hereunder. The Commission or council shall have the right at all times to inspect by itself or by its representatives all the books, records and accounts and street railway property of any street railway in any city. ('21 c. 278 § 8)

167-311, 209+10.

Books and papers only in so far as containing information relevant and material to an inquiry pending before the commission are open to inspection (154-401, 191+1004).

4824. Proceedings commenced by filing petition—Hearing—All proceedings before the Commission shall be commenced by filing with the Commission a petition in writing in such form as the Commission may prescribe briefly setting forth in addition to such other matters as the Commission may by rule or order provide, the matter or matters upon which hearing is desired and requesting a hearing thereon. Any city or street railway affected by any such proceeding shall be a necessary party thereto. Upon the filing of any such petition as aforesaid, the Commission shall fix a place and time for such hearing not less than thirty days after the filing of such petition and shall forthwith give notice of the time and place of such hearing to all interested parties and serve or cause to be served upon each such party a copy of such petition, provided that continuances from time to time shall be granted to either party as the necessities of the case may require; and the city shall have reasonably ample time before the conclusion of any such hearing to make all necessary valuations and adequately prepare its case, as herein provided.

At the time and place so set for said hearing unless continued for cause the Commission shall proceed to hear and determine the matter or matters set forth in such petition. If the petition be to fix the value of street railway property for purchase by the city as provided by this act, the Commission shall after such hearing determine and fix the fair value of the street railway property of any such street railway within the city. If the petition be to fix a rate of fare, the Commission shall after hearing as herein provided fix a rate of fare to be charged by the street railway which will yield only a reasonable return on the fair value of the street railway property of such street railway within the city, as provided by this act.

Whenever any proceeding is instituted before the Commission or Court on appeal, either for rate-making purposes or purchase of the street railway property and before the same is heard, the Council shall examine and appraise, or cause to be examined and appraised, the street railway property of the street railway involved and shall employ and procure the services of a person or persons of known and recognized experience and qualifications in street railway appraisals and rate-making, to appraise such street railway property, investigate the books, accounts and records of such street railway and inform himself as to its operating conditions and expenses, and otherwise fully prepare himself and the city to present to the Commission or the Court all the facts material to the issue before the Commission or Court; and the Council shall employ such other qualified accountants, engineers and others to assist in the preparation of the city's case before the Commission or the court on appeal, as the Council deems advisable.

All the expenses and disbursements of the city in any such proceeding, either before the Commission or court on appeal shall be borne by the street railway company as an operating expense, and shall be paid by the street railway to the city upon presentation to the street railway of vouchers showing the same has been paid or incurred by the city; provided the amount of expenses and disbursements to be so paid shall not exceed in any one year an amount equal to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars per 1000 of population of any such city and the necessary expense incurred by the Commission in such proceedings shall also be paid by the street railway company and treated as an operating expense. ('21 c. 278 § 9)

163-274, 203+972, note under § 4825; 167-311, 209+10.

The right of the city to inspection is limited by the terms of section 9, to the ascertainment of facts material to the issues. 154+401, 191+1004.

Action of commission in fixing rates cannot be assailed unless confiscatory. 4 F. (2d) 543.

4825. Appeals—Any city or street railway may appeal from any order, ruling or decision of the Commission duly made after hearing to the District Court of the county in which the city affected by any such order, ruling or decision is located, and said appeal shall be taken and all proceedings thereunder had as provided for by Sections 4191 to 4199, both inclusive, General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, so far as the same may be applicable. Upon such appeal the matters involved therein shall be tried and determined by the court without a jury, in the same manner as though originally commenced therein, provided that the findings and order of the Commission shall be received in evidence upon such trial but the Court shall in no event be bound thereby. In case of an appeal involving the value of the property for the purpose of purchase by the city, such appeal shall be heard by three (3) judges, and if there are less than three judges in such district, then the Governor shall designate one or more district judges to sit upon any such case so that the same may be determined by such judges as aforesaid. Upon any appeal the District Court shall have jurisdiction of and shall try the whole matter in controversy including matters of fact as well as law, and make findings upon all material facts, and in any case involving rates or the value of street railway property shall find and determine the fair value of such property and also what is a reasonable rate of return thereon, and shall affirm, modify or reverse any order or finding of such commission as may be required by law. The judgment or any order of such court shall be certified to said commission and the commission shall thereupon modify, reverse or put into effect its order or findings so as to conform to the judgment, order and findings of such court. Any party to an appeal or other proceeding in the District Court under this act may appeal from the final judgment or from any final order therein in the same cases and manner as in civil actions. The appeal may be filed in the Supreme Court during any term thereof and shall be immediately entered upon the calendar and heard upon such notice as the court may prescribe, as provided for by Section 4200, General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, as far as the same may be applicable. ('21 c. 278 § 10)

Explanatory note.—For G. S. 1913, § 4200, see § 4659, herein

Street railway could sue in Federal court without awaiting appeal to state District court. 47 Sup. Ct. 489.

Hearing before district court on appeal is judicial and not a continuation of the legislative rate making process. 4 F. (2d) 543.

This section is constitutional. 167-311, 209+10.

In a proceeding before it under Laws 1921, c. 278, the Railroad and Warehouse Commission is charged with the duty of fixing reasonable street railway rates. One factor is the fair value of the street railway property. An order made in the course of the proceeding finding the value is not appealable to the district court. An order fixing the rate is appealable, and on such appeal the question of value is before the district court. An appeal from the finding of value does not confer jurisdiction; and upon such appeal the court is without authority to direct the Commission to make a return of the proceedings had before it. 163-274, 203+972.

On appeal from an order of the Railroad and Warehouse Commission, the court may not fix the rate of fare; it only hears and determines upon its own judgment and upon original evidence controversies as to existing facts which bear upon the final question of whether the future rate fixed by the commission is confiscatory or fair. 167-311, 209+10.

4826. Reservations by city.—The city hereby reserves the right to authorize any existing or future suburban railway company to jointly use tracks, poles, wires, appliances, power and electric current of said street railway, as now existing or hereafter constructed. Such use shall be subject to such rules and regulations, routing and schedules as may be fixed by mutual agreement between said street railway and such suburban railway company, subject to the approval of the Council. If the parties cannot agree as to said rules of operation, routing and schedules, the same shall be determined by the Council.

The compensation to be paid the street railway by such suburban companies for said joint use shall, if possible, be fixed by mutual agreement between the street railway and the suburban company, subject to the approval of the Council. If they are unable to agree upon such compensation the same shall be fixed and determined in the first instance by the Council subject to appeal to the District Court of the county in which such city is located as in case of other appeals provided for in this Act.

Such compensation shall in all cases be just, fair and reasonable compensation for the facilities furnished, representing a sum not less than the reasonable value of the power furnished by the company and a fair share of the cost of maintenance of the tracks and equipment, taking into account the advantages and disadvantages of the entry of said line into the city.

The city expressly reserves the right by ordinance at all times to regulate and control the carrying of freight and express and the operation of freight and express cars by suburban lines over the tracks of the company. ('21 c. 278 § 11)

4827. Franchise not to be issued without certificate from commission.—No license, permit or franchise to operate a street railway in any city where a street railway is then operating shall be granted by the Council of any such city unless a certificate of convenience and necessity is first obtained from the Commission after a hearing held thereon. ('21 c. 278 § 12)

4828. Commission to investigate, prescribe system of accounting, etc.—The Commission shall have authority, upon its own motion, to make investigation, prescribe uniform systems of accounting, and prescribe depreciation, written notice of which shall forthwith be given the city with the right in such city to appeal to the District Court as provided by this Act in other cases of appeal, and shall have authority to control the disposition and use of any moneys in the depreciation fund, and to do or perform any act which may in its opinion be necessary or expedient to carry out the provisions of this Act. The street railway shall furnish and file with such Commission annually, accurate and full reports and information of its income and expenditures (in such form as the Commission shall require) and the Commission may require the street railway to make and file with it, any and all other reports, financial or otherwise, that it may deem necessary. ('21 c. 278 § 13)

4829. Rights reserved.—Permit may be granted to Minnesota corporations only.—The state reserves the right at any future time to modify, amend or repeal this Act or any part thereof, or to cancel or modify any indeterminate permit arising or existing under this Act, or any grant, permit or franchise heretofore or hereafter granted by the State or any city, or otherwise, and nothing in this Act contained shall limit the police power of the State. The street railway shall be subject to all the duties, restrictions or liabilities now or hereafter contained in the General Laws of the state. Notwithstanding anything in this Act to the contrary, an indeterminate permit shall be granted only to a Minnesota corporation, and any assignment, or transfer thereof, shall be to a Minnesota corporation. No such street railway shall be entitled to any damages or compensation in the event of any modification, amendment or repeal of this Act or the cancellation or modification, of any permit, grant or franchise above referred to. ('21 c. 278 § 14)

4830. Conflicting acts repealed.—All Acts or parts of Acts conflicting with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed insofar as they are inconsistent therewith. ('21 c. 278 § 15)

4831. Pooling forbidden.—No such carrier shall enter into any agreement or combination with any other carrier for the division or pooling of the business of different and competing carriers, or to divide the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such carriers, or any part thereof, and any such agreement or combination shall be deemed a separate offence for each day of its continuance. (2011) [4341]

121-498, 142+7.

4832. Public schedule of rates.—Every such company shall keep at every station or depot of its road, convenient for and open to public inspection, schedules printed in large type, showing all classifications, rates, fares and charges for transportation of freight and passengers in force at the time upon its road. Such schedule shall plainly state the places between which persons and property will be carried, shall show the classification of freight, a distance tariff, a table of distances between stations, and shall state, separately, the terminal charges, and any rules or regulations in any way affecting the aggregate of such rates, fares and charges. And every such company shall keep posted in a conspicuous place, at every such station, accessible to shippers, notice that such schedules are so kept thereat. (R. L. § 2012, amended '07 c. 377 § 1) [4342]

4833. Change in schedule—No change in the classification shall be made, and no change shall be made in the rates, fares and charges, which have been established and published as aforesaid, by any common carrier, in compliance with § 4834, except after ten days' public notice, which shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedules then in force, and the time when the changed schedules will go into effect; and the proposed changes shall be shown by printing new schedules, or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept for public inspection. And no change shall be made in any schedule of rates or schedule of joint rates which has been in effect for sixty days, so as to raise the rates for transportation of grain, lumber, coal or live stock, either by change of rates or of classification, except upon the written order of the commission allowing such change, made upon hearing and such notice to shippers as the commission shall direct. Any company violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the state one hundred dollars for each day such violation shall continue. (2013) [4343]

143-166, 173+419.

4834. Schedules to be filed—Every railroad company shall file with the commission copies of such schedules, and shall promptly notify the commission of all proposed changes therein. Every such company shall also file with the commission copies of all its traffic agreements or arrangements with other carriers. Copies of all joint schedules of rates, fares or classifications shall also be filed with the commission and be made public in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the publication of tariffs. (2014) [4344]

136-420, 162+519; 143-93, 173+179; 143-166, 173+419.

4835. Unlawful charges—No such carrier shall charge, demand, collect or receive for any service a greater or less sum than that fixed in its published schedules. (2015) [4345]

121-498, 142+7.

4836. Switching charges—There shall be but one terminal charge for switching or transferring any car within any one municipality. If it is necessary that any car in such transfer pass over the tracks of more than one railroad within such limits, the company first so transferring such car shall receive the entire charge therefor, and shall be liable to each company doing subsequent switching thereof for its just share of such charge, subject to the rules adopted by the commission. Any disagreement as to such division shall be finally determined by the commission. (2016) [4346]

Commission, within its province, in order abolishing switching charge, and same was not unlawful or unreasonable (137-10, 162+689; 143-166, 173+419)

4837. Long and short haul—No carrier shall charge or receive any greater compensation for the transportation of passengers, or of like kind or class and quantity of property, for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line, the shorter being included within the longer distance; but this shall not be so construed as to authorize any carrier to charge or receive as great compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance; but upon application to the commission such carrier, in special cases, after investigation by the commission may be authorized to charge less for longer than for shorter distances, for the transportation of passengers or property; and the commission may from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated carriers may be relieved from the operation of this section. No carrier shall charge or receive any greater compensation per ton per mile for the contemporaneous transportation of the same class of freight for a longer than for a shorter distance over the same line in the same general direction, or from the same original point of departure, or to the same point of arrival; but this shall not be construed so as to authorize any carrier to charge as high a rate per ton per mile for a longer as for a shorter distance. (2017) [4347]

128-29, 150+174. Excess freight charges paid, barred by statute of limitations, are not recoverable under Federal Transportation Act (194+9).

The enactment by Congress of section 206 (f) of the Federal Transportation Act of Feb. 28, 1920, [Mason's Code Title 49], did not have the effect of reviving causes of action which had theretofore become barred by the statute of limitations of this state. 156-20, 194+9.

Suit not maintainable for removal of discrimination resulting from disparity between rates established by federal and state authority. 210+399.

4838. Railroad commission authorized given authority to adjust railroad rates to protect Minnesota industries—If any railway corporation shall charge, collect or receive for the transportation of freight of any description upon its railroad for any distance within this state, a greater amount of freight, toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected or received for the transportation of like quantity of freight of the same class over a greater distance of the same railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive at any point upon its road a higher rate of freight, toll or compensation for receiving, handling or delivering freight of the same class and quantity than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive at any other point upon the same line of railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive for transportation of any freight of any description over its railway a greater amount as freight, toll or compensation than shall at the same time be charged, collected or received by it for the transportation of a like quantity of freight of the same class being transported over any portion of the same railway of equal distance; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person a higher or greater amount of freight, toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive from any other person for receiving, handling or delivering freight, of the same class and like quantity at the same point upon its railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person for the transportation of any freight upon its railway a higher or greater rate of freight, toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive from any other person or persons for the transportation of the like quantity of freight of the same class being transported from the same point over equal distance of the same railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railroad for any distance, a greater amount of freight, toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected or received from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car of the same class or number, for a like purpose, being transported over a greater distance of the same railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railway, a higher or greater compensation in the aggregate than it shall, at the same time, charge, collect or receive from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars of the same class for a like purpose, being transported from the same original point, over an equal distance of the same railway, such railway corporation shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful, and all such are hereby declared to be discriminating, unjust and unreasonable rates, charges, collections and receipts, and all such discriminating rates, charges, collections or receipts, whether made directly or by means of any rebate, drawback or other shift or evasion, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the violation of the provisions of this act, and it shall not be sufficient excuse of justification thereof on the part of said railway corporation that the station or point at which it shall charge, collect or receive less compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of such freight or for the use and transportation of such railway car the greater distance than for the shorter distance, is a station or point at which there exists competition with another railway or other transportation lines; provided, however, where two or more railroads run into a city or village, one having a shorter mileage than the other from a given point the Railroad and Warehouse Commission may permit the railroad or railroads having the longer mileage to meet the rate made by the shortest line at such city or village; and provided further, where an industry now is, or may hereafter be, located within the State of Minnesota, and within a radius of five miles from a similar industry without the State of Minnesota, the Railroad and Warehouse Commission may permit the railroad serving the industry within the State of Minnesota to meet the rate established and charged by the railroad serving the industry located as aforesaid without the State of Minnesota. 4839. Other evidence not excluded—Application to all railways—The provisions of this act shall not be construed so as to exclude other evidence than as herein provided, tending to show any unjust discrimination in freight rates and the provisions thereof shall apply to any railway, the branches thereof, and any road or roads which any railway corporation has a right, license or permission to use, operate or control within this state. ('13 c. 90 § 2) [4349]

collect, demand or receive more for transporting a ton of freight than it charges, collects, demands or receives per ton for several tons of freight under a carload of a like class over the same railway for the same distance; nor charge, collect, demand or receive more for transporting a hundred pounds of freight than it charges, collects, demands or receives per hundred for several hundred pounds of freight, under a ton, of a like class, over the same railway, for the same distance; and all such discriminating rates, charges, collections or receipts, whether made directly or by means of any rebate, drawback or other shift or evasion, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the violation of the provisions of this act. ('13 c. 90 § 3) [4350]

4841. Application of act—Terms defined—The provisions of this act shall apply to the transportation of property wholly within this state and shall apply to all railroad corporations and common carriers engaged in this state in the transportation of property by railroad therein and to the shipment of property made from any point within the state to any other point within the state over or upon any railroad therein. The term railroad and railway, as used in this chapter, shall include all bridges and ferries used or operated in connection with any railroad, and also all the roads in use by any corporation, receiver, trustee or other person operating a railroad whether owned or operated under contract, agreement, lease or otherwise; and the term transportation shall include all instrumentalities of shipment or carriages, and the term railway corporation shall mean all corporations, companies or individuals owning or operating any railroad in whole or in part in this state; and the provisions of this chapter shall apply to all persons, firms and companies and to all associations of persons, whether incorporated or otherwise, that shall do business as common carriers upon any line of railway in this state, street railways excepted, the same as to railroad corporations herein mentioned. Provided, that nothing in this act shall apply to the carriage, storage or handling of property free or at reduced rates for the United States, for this state, for municipal governments therein, or for charitable purposes or to and from fairs and expositions held under the authority of county or state or municipality therein for exhibition thereat. ('13 c. 90 § 4) [4351]

4842. Powers of commission not abridged, etc.—Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as limiting or abridging the powers now vested by law in the board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners of the State of Minnesota, except that the said board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners shall not have power to promulgate any rule or establish any rate or rates in conflict with or in violation of the provisions of this act, and nothing in this act shall in any way abridge or alter the remedies now existing at common law or by statute, but the provisions thereof are in addition to such remedies. 4843. Railroad commission to fix rates for switching, drayage and feeding of stock—The Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commission of this state is hereby empowered and directed to make for each of the railroad corporations doing business in this state, as soon as practicable, a schedule of reasonable maximum rates of charges for the transportation of freight and cars on each of said railroads and said power to make schedule shall include the classification of such rates, and it shall be the duty of said commission to make such classification, and said schedules so made by said commission shall, in all suits brought against any such railroad corporation wherein is in any way involved the charges of any such railroad corporation for the transportation of any freight or cars or unjust discrimination in relation thereto be deemed and taken in all the courts of this state as prima facie evidence that the rates therein fixed are reasonable and just maximum rates of charges. The commission may fix different schedules of class or commodity rates for railroads of the same class. The maximum rates shall not apply to switching or drayage rates. The commission may define switching and drayage service to apply to the movement of traffic within and between points, and fix reasonable maximum rates for the same, which shall be independent of any rates that may be made for line haul transportation, and in the making of said rates the commission shall not be governed entirely by the distance principle established by this act. The commission may fix rates for feeding cattle which shall apply to out movement from terminal markets. The commission may unite two or more stations or commercial centers into a common rate point, and may designate the classes of freight which shall take common rates, and fix the mileage that shall govern between the common rate point and any or all other points in the state. The distances so fixed shall not apply as a measure of the rate for the movement of the same class of freight for similar distances between other points. ('13 c. 90 § 6, amended '15 c. 367 § 1) [4353]

Duluth and Fond du Lac constituting a single industrial center, and the railroad and the public acquiescing in a switching charge, the distance tariff act does not apply (133-449, 165+270; 130-272, 153+610).

'15 c. 367 is not an attempt to delegate legislative power; an order of commission establishing common point is valid (134-222, 153+984; 139-55, 165+869).

4844. Classification of railroads as to gross earnings—The Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commission shall have and are hereby given and vested with power and it shall be their duty to classify all railroads in this state according to the gross amount of their several annual earnings, within this state, per mile for the preceding year as follows:

"Class B shall include those whose gross annual earnings per mile shall be three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), or any sum in excess thereof less than four thousand dollars ($4,000.00)."

"Class C shall include those whose gross annual earnings per mile shall be less than three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), and shall have power to and may fix a higher maximum charge by the railroad corporations included in class C than those included in class B and a higher maximum charge by the railroad corporations included in class B than those included in class A." ('13 c. 90 § 7) [4354]

4845. Shipment over two or more lines—Reasonable rates—When shipments of freight to be transported between different points within the state are required by two or more railway companies operating connecting lines, such railway company shall transport the same at reasonable through rates not greater than the maximum rates allowed by law, and shall at all times give the same facilities and accommodations to local or state traffic as they give to interstate traffic over their lines of road. ('13 c. 90 § 8) [4355]

4846. Penalty for violation—Any person or corporation guilty of violating any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a

No such company shall be required to send its cars over the line of another company when its own lines or connections reach the point to be reached on such other road, but the charge for transportation between any two points shall not exceed the established through joint rate between such points. (2018) [4358]

4849. Transfer facilities—When required by the Railroad and Warehouse Commission, after notice and where it is reasonably practicable, all such railroad companies at all points of intersection and crossing of different railroads, and at any place where two railroads are not more than one-half mile apart, and at all terminals, shall provide ample and equal facilities by track connection, use of each other's tracks, passenger and freight platforms and depots, warehouses, docks over which general merchandise is handled and forwarded, and other necessary appliances and conveniences for the transfer, forwarding and handling of general merchandise and parcel freight between such railroads and between such railroads and such docks, warehouses and vessels at such docks. They shall not discriminate in their charges, rates or service between such connecting lines or on freight or passengers coming over or transferred from them. No carrier shall be required to furnish to another carrier its tracks, warehouses, depots, equipment or terminal facilities without reasonable compensation. Carriers shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for service performed over transfer tracks, and this act shall apply where actions and proceedings are now pending. (R. 4850. Adjustment of costs of transfer—Each such company shall pay its proportionate share for the building and maintenance of tracks and switches necessary for such transfer facilities. If such companies cannot agree upon such proportion, either company may apply to the commission to determine the same. (2020) [4360]

4853. Railroads and street railways in connection—Any railroad or railway corporation in this state may make such contracts for the carriage of passengers, express and freight, with any street railway company operating local street railways within this state as will enable and permit the operation of railroads and street railways in connection with each other, or in such manner as shall be deemed most beneficial to their and public interests. Provided, that before any railroad or railway shall operate upon any street railway in any city, and before any street railway in any city shall haul or transport over its lines in such city any car, equipment or motive power of any railroad or railway the contract shall be approved by a vote of not less than three-fourths of all the members of the common council or other legislative body of such city and a copy thereof filed with the clerk or recorder of such city, and that the cars, equipment and motive power used by the said railroad shall be substantially similar to the cars, equipment and motive power used by the street railways contracted with, and such railroad shall, while operating upon street railway tracks, comply with the ordinances and laws applicable to such street railways. Any such railroad companies may grant by lease or contract to street railways the right to use railroad tracks for the operation of street railway cars thereon. ('09 c. 482 § 1) [4363]

Section 2 repeals inconsistent acts, etc.

4854. Division of cars among applicants—Whenever any railroad company shall be unable to furnish enough cars at any station or sidetrack to supply all persons demanding them for shipment of freight, such cars as the company can furnish each day shall be divided among the applicants equally until each shipper has received at least one car, after which the balance shall be divided ratably in proportion to the amount of such freight which each shipper shall have ready for and awaiting shipment as compared with the total amount of such freight which is ready for and awaiting shipment at such station or sidetrack. During the continuance of such car shortage the supply to which each shipper is entitled during any day shall be based on his affidavit filed with the local agent of such railroad company on any day stating the total amount of freight which such shipper has ready for and awaiting shipment on such railroad. In the event of any conflict arising between the provisions of this section and rules or regulations established pursuant to an act of Congress, the Railroad and Warehouse Commission is authorized to prescribe such reasonable modifications of the rules provided herein as may be necessary to remove such conflict, which shall become effective notwithstanding the provisions of this section. (R. L. '05 § 2023; G. S. '13 § 4364, amended '23 c. 198 § 1)

4855. Railroad and Warehouse Commission to regulate distribution of cars—The Railroad and Warehouse Commission of the State of Minnesota is hereby given full power and authority, and it is hereby made its duty, after having given reasonable notice and upon hearing being had, to make, publish and enforce from time to time such reasonable and just rules and regulations for the distribution of cars at stations for the transportation of livestock, grain and other farm products, among the shippers, whether located upon a certain railroad line or lines, or customarily dependent upon such railroad line for their car supply. ('21 c. 307 § 1)

4856. Carriers to apportion cars—During any period when the supply of cars available for such service does not meet the requirements of the shippers, it shall be the duty of the carrier to maintain and apply just and reasonable ratings of such shippers to the extent that cars are available, and to count each and every car furnished to or used by such shippers against such shippers. ('21 c. 307 § 2)

4857. Violations and penalties—Failure or refusal to do so shall be unlawful, and in respect to each car not so counted shall be deemed a separate offense, and the carrier, receiver or operating trustee so failing or refusing, upon conviction, shall be fined $100.00 for each offense; provided, however, that when necessity is found to exist of which the commission is advised, either by its own investigation, which it may make at any time, or by hearing on complaint of any shipper or railroad company, the commission may, by special order, require the railroad company on whose railroad such necessity is found to exist, to depart to the extent provided in such order, from the application of this act or any rule or rules formulated and established under the same. ('21 c. 307 § 3)

4858. Duty to furnish cars—Application—Reasonable time—Penalty—It shall be the duty of any railroad company to furnish suitable car or cars to every and all persons, without discrimination, who may apply therefor in good faith for the transportation of any and all kinds of freight and to receive and transport such freight with all reasonable dispatch, and to provide and keep suitable facilities for the receiving and handling of same at any station or public switch on the line of its road, and also to receive and transport in like manner the empty or loaded cars furnished by any connecting road, to be delivered at any station or stations on the line of its road, to be loaded or discharged, or reloaded and returned to the road so connected; and for compensation it shall not demand or receive any greater sum than is accepted by it from any other connecting railroad for a like service. When the owner, manager or shipper of any freight of any kind shall make application in writing to any superintendent, agent or other person in charge of transportation of any railroad company, at any point that cars are desired in or upon which to ship any freight, it shall be the duty of such railroad company to supply the number of cars so required at the point indicated in the application within a reasonable time thereafter, not to exceed forty-eight hours at terminal points and seventy-two hours at intermediate points, from the receipt of such application, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, and shall supply such cars to the person or persons so applying therefor in the order in which such applications are made, without giving preference to any person; provided, that if the application be for more than three cars, the railroad company may have one additional day in which to supply each additional car so ordered. Said application for cars shall be in writing, stating the number of cars wanted; the time and place desired, and said application shall state the character of freight and its final destination. To facilitate the making of the application in writing, every railroad company doing business in this state shall provide suitable blanks for that purpose to be kept at all freight offices; and it shall be the duty of every such railroad company, upon the request of the applicant, to furnish him a duplicate of such application. When cars are applied for under the provisions of this chapter, if they are not furnished within the time herein stated, the railroad company so failing to furnish them shall forfeit to the party or parties so applying for them the sum of one dollar per day for each car failed to be furnished, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, together with all damages such applicant may have sustained. ('07 c. 23 § 1)

Congress has so taken possession of the subject of delivery of railroad cars for interstate commerce under Act June 29, 1906, as to invalidate, when applied to cars demanded for interstate commerce, provisions of 1907 c. 23 requiring railroad companies to furnish freight cars on demand under penalty (226 U. S. 426, 33 Sup. Ct. 174, 57 L. Ed.—, reversing 110-25, 124+819).

Voluntary contract between carrier and shipper as to furnishing cars need not be in writing (112-112, 127+436. See, also, 114-531, 131+1135).

The act does not diminish common-law rights, but gives additional rights to shippers (117-495, 136+295).

Loaded cars, when removed—Penalty—Any railroad company mentioned in section 1 of this act, upon receipt of notice from a shipper that one or more cars have been loaded by such shipper and are ready for delivery to such company at the place of loading thereof, to be carried on the road of such company towards the destination thereof, shall remove such car or cars from such loading point and forward the same towards destination within twenty-four hours after receiving such notice, Sunday and legal holidays excepted; and for every delay of twenty-four hours, or fraction thereof, after the expiration of the period therein allowed for the removal thereof, such railroad company shall forfeit to such shipper the sum of one dollar for each and every car, not so removed within the period herein provided, together with all damages he may have sustained by failure so to remove. ('07 c. 23 § 4) [4368]

4862. Delivery to consignee—Penalty—It shall be the duty of every railroad company mentioned in section 1 of this act to deliver at the usual place of unloading by the consignee all cars of freight hauled by it for delivery to said consignee within forty-eight hours, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, after the same shall have reached its point of destination; and for each and every delay of twenty-four hours, or fraction thereof, in not so delivering the same after the expiration of the time herein prescribed, said railroad company shall forfeit the sum of one dollar for each and every car not so delivered within the time herein allowed. ('07 c. 23 § 5) [4369]

Section 1 is § 4858, herein.

4863. Time for loading—Penalty—It shall be the duty of any shipper in compliance with whose request any railroad company mentioned in section 1 of this act, has placed one or more cars at the usual loading point of said shipper, to fully complete the loading thereof, ready for re-delivery to said railroad company within forty-eight hours after the same shall have been placed at such loading point, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, which full period for loading is allowed the shipper free from demurrage charges; and for every twenty-four hours, or fraction thereof, of delay beyond said period in so loading said car or cars, such shipper shall become indebted, and on demand shall pay, to said railroad company the sum of one dollar for each and every car so placed and not loaded and ready for re-delivery within the time allowed herein. ('07 c. 23 § 6) [4370]

one dollar for each and every car not so unloaded within the time herein prescribed. ('07 c. 23 § 7) [4371]

Section 1 is § 4858, herein.

4865. Bill of lading—Evidence—Penalty—For all shipments of freight in carload lots on the railroads mentioned in section 1 of this act, proper bills of lading showing the date of delivery to such railroad company, the weights and the marks and numbers of each car so shipped, shall be issued by the railroad company and delivered to the shipper at the time of receiving such car or cars; which bill of lading when offered by any party in any cause pending in any court in this state, shall be received and admitted in evidence by such court as prima facie evidence of the time when delivery of such car or cars was made by the consignor to such railroad company and of the weights and the contents thereof when so delivered to such company, and such railroad company shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for its neglect or refusal to furnish such shippers such bill of lading for each car so received by it. In an action to recover the value of wheat alleged to have been lost in transit, plaintiff made a prima facie case by introducing in evidence the bill of lading, the weighmaster's certificate, and proof of the market price of the wheat. 163-371, 204+47.

Is merely declaratory of the general rule that a bill of lading is prima facie evidence of the receipt by the carrier of the goods described therein, and in this respect the statute is applicable to interstate as well as intrastate shipments. 163-371, 204+47.

Bill of lading and proof of delivery of a less amount, being in evidence, carrier has burden of proof to combat presumption of negligence (137-217, 163+164).

4866. Notice of arrival—Railroad companies shall, within twenty-four hours after arrival of any car or cars, give notice to the consignee of the arrival of such car or cars, together with the amount of freight charges due thereon. The notice as referred to in this act may be either actual or constructive. When the consignee or agent is personally served with notice of arrival of car or cars at or before 6 p. m. of any day, free time shall begin at 7 a. m. of the day after such notice shall have been given. Constructive notice consists of posting notice by mail to consignee. When this method of notice is adopted there shall be 24 hours additional free time. ('07 c. 23 § 9) [4373]

4867. Damages not offset by demurrage—Live stock—The payment by said railroad company of demurrage provided in this act shall in no way invalidate or offset any claim any shipper or consignee may have or make for damages occasioned by delay on the part of such railroad company, or other cause, but shall be a further remedy and in addition to any already existing. Nor shall anything herein contained be held to lessen the duties of any common carrier in the shipment of live stock or other perishable property. ('07 c. 23 § 10) [4374]

(117-495, 136+295).

4868. Strikes, accidents, etc.—The period during which the movement of freight or furnishing cars is suspended on account of strikes, public calamities, accident, or any cause not within the power of the railroad company to prevent, or during which the loading or unloading of freight by shipper or consignee is delayed by reason of inclement weather which would make loading or unloading impracticable, or any cause not in the power of said shipper or consignee to pre-

Grab irons—That on and after the first day of July nineteen hundred and eight it shall be unlawful for any railway company or common carrier in moving freight between points in the state to use any car that is not provided with secure grab irons or hand holds in the ends and sides of each car for the greater security to men in coupling and uncoupling cars. ('07 c. 202, amended '09 c. 488 § 2) [4412]

The evidence sustains a finding of the jury that a handhold, which it was the absolute duty of the defendant to furnish secure under the Safety Appliance Act (Mason's Code, 45:1) on a freight car on which the plaintiff, a brakeman, was working in interstate commerce, loosened and caused his fall. 159-492, 199+891.

4916. Train brake system—That it shall be unlawful for any railroad doing business in the state of Minnesota to use on this line any locomotive in the moving of its trains not equipped with power, driving wheel, brakes and appliances of operating the train brake system or to run any train over its road that has not 75% of the cars in such train equipped with power or train brakes and having the brakes used and operated by the engineer of the locomotive drawing such train, and all power brake cars in such train shall be associated together and have their brakes used and operated. Provided, that this section shall not apply to the handling of trains or cars in yard service, or to a local train while engaged in performing switching service. ('07 c. 202, amended '09 c. 488 § 3) [4413]

Where a brakeman on his way to release a defective brake stepped off a ladder at the side of the car in the nighttime without lowering his lantern to see what was beneath him, and fell through a bridge, the accident is not proximately attributable to the defect in the brake, within the meaning of the federal Safety Appliance Act (Mason's Code, 45:1, et seq.) 161-74, 200+804.

A railroad company owes the duty of due care to the servants of a shipper who will be exposed to danger arising from defects in a car turned over to the shipper for loading. 164-6, 204+524.

4917. Draw bars—That it shall be unlawful for any railroad doing business in the state of Minnesota to use any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle used in the movement of state traffic, that is not provided with draw bars of standard height, to-wit, standard gauge cars 34½ in., narrow gauge cars 26 in. measured perpendicularly from the level of the tops of the rails to the center of the draw bars; the maximum variation from such standard heights between draw bars of empty and loaded cars shall be 3 inches. The drawbeams of a freight car, to which the drawbar is attached, are an integral part of the "automatic couplings" apparatus required by the federal Safety Appliance Act (Mason's Code, 45:1, et seq.). 159-388, 199+178.

4918. Passenger traffic—That the provisions of sections 1, 3, and 4 of this act shall also apply to locomotives, cars and trains used in passenger traffic in the state of Minnesota, in so far as the same are applicable to the vehicles used in passenger train traffic. ('07 c. 202, amended '09 c. 488 § 5) [4415]

Sections 1, 3, 4 are §§ 4914, 4916, 4917, herein.

4919. Cars from connecting lines—That any such common carrier may refuse to receive from connecting lines or from any shipper any car not equipped in accordance with the foregoing sections of this act. ('07 c. 202, amended '09 c. 488 § 6) [4416]

4920. Assumption of risk—Contributory negligence—That any employe of any such common carrier who may be killed or injured by any locomotive, tender, car, similar vehicle, or train, in use contrary to the provisions of this act, shall not be deemed thereby to have assumed the risk thereby occasioned, although continuing in the employment of such carrier after the unlawful use of such locomotive, tender, car, similar vehicle, or train has been brought to his knowledge, nor shall such employe be held to have contributed to his injury in any case where the carrier shall have violated any provision of this act, when such violation contributed to the death or injury of such employe. ('07 c. 202, amended '09 c. 488 § 7) [4417]

4922. Penalty for violation—That every railroad or the receiver thereof, using or permitting to be used on its line or to be hauled on its line, any locomotive, tender, car or similar vehicle or train in violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of one hundred dollars for each offense and such penalties shall be recovered in a suit brought in the name of the state of Minnesota, in any court having jurisdiction thereof, in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the attorney general of the state or under his direction, or by the county attorney in any county in or through which such line of railroad may be operated. All fines and penalties recovered by this state under this act shall be paid into the treasury of the state of Minnesota. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall apply to locomotives, tenders, cars or similar vehicles or trains when the height of the draw bars on such locomotives, tenders, cars, similar vehicles or trains does not exceed twenty-five inches in height or any of which are in actual use in interstate commerce. ('07 c. 202, amended '09 c. 488 § 9) [4419]

4923. Duty of commission—It shall be the duty of the railroad and warehouse commission to have this law enforced. ('07 c. 202, amended '09 c. 488 § 10) [4420]

4924. Railroad companies to equip engines with classification lamps—Every person, company, corporation or receiver thereof, operating any railroad in the state of Minnesota, is hereby required to equip, maintain and use upon every locomotive operated in road service in this state, an electric or other headlight of at least fifteen hundred (1,500) candle power, measured without the aid of a reflector; provided, however, that this candle power shall not apply to locomotive engines regularly used on branch lines less than twenty-five miles long and logging roads not over sixty miles long in switching cars or trains, and provided further that every person, company, corporation or receiver thereof, subject to the provisions of this act, is hereby required to equip, maintain and use upon every locomotive engine regularly used in switching cars and trains, a headlight of at least fifty (50) candlepower measured without the aid of a reflector, [and to place a similar light on the tender of all locomotives regularly used in the transportation of freight and passengers in such a position that the same shall reflect to the rear of such locomotive; and be it further provided; that all locomotive engines used in other than switching service shall be equipped with electric classification signal lights]; and provided further, that this act shall not apply to locomotive engines used exclusively between sun up and sun down, nor when being taken to or returned from repair shops when ordered in for repairs. ('13 c. 93 § 1, amended '23 c. 392 § 1) [4421]

The amended portion included in brackets does not become effective until January 1, 1925. See 133-258, 158+233; 151-528, 188+552.

4925. Penalty for violation—Fines—Any person, company, corporation or receiver thereof operating any railroad in the state of Minnesota violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable for a penalty of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense, and the use of any one locomotive engine prohibited in section 1 of this act shall constitute a separate offense for every day or part of a day so used, and such penalty shall be recovered in a suit brought in the name of the state of Minnesota in any court having jurisdiction thereof, in any county in or through which such line of railroad may run, by the attorney general of the state or under his direction, or by the county attorney in any county in or through which such line of railroad may be operated.

All fines and penalties recovered by the state under this act shall be paid into the treasury of the state of Minnesota. ('13 c. 93 § 2) [4422]

4926. Abandonment of road—No company operating any line of railroad in the state of Minnesota shall abandon the same or any portion thereof, nor shall it abandon any siding, sidetrack, spur or other railway track of any kind which has once been opened and used for business, nor shall it close for traffic thereon except as provided in section 4930 as the same is hereinafter amended. Any company violating any provision of this section shall forfeit to the state not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each day such violation continues. (R. L. § 2038, amended '07 c. 261 § 1) [4423]

Constitutional right to abandon, unless under contract to operate, if to continue is only at a loss (150-31, 184+186).

4927. Fine to go to municipalities—Whenever a railroad or other common carrier is fined on account of an abandonment or tearing up of its tracks, or any part thereof, such fine shall go to such municipalities as have been injured by such action through disturbance of their manufacturing or business interests or otherwise. ('15 c. 317 § 1)

4928. Disposition to be made by district court—The disposition of such fine shall be determined by the district court of the district in which the prosecution was conducted and shall be heard as are ordinary civil actions upon petition of such municipalities setting forth the facts, but no such petition shall be filed later than six months after the payment of such fine. Such fines shall not be turned into the state treasury until such petitions, if any, have been disposed of and shall be distributed in accordance with the judgment of the court. ('15 c. 317 § 2)

4929. To apply to fines paid since Jan. 1, 1915—This act shall apply to any fines paid since January 1, 1915, irrespective of when prosecution was instituted, provided that petition be filed within six months after this act goes into effect, and to provide for such cases the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000) is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and upon presentation of a certified copy of the judgment of any district court showing any municipality to be entitled to any such fine, or part thereof, the state auditor shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer in favor of such municipality for the amount named in said judgment. ('15 c. 317 § 3)

4930. Procedure for abandonment—Any such company desiring to abandon or close for traffic any portion of its line, siding, sidetrack, spur or other railway track, shall first make application to the commission in writing. Before passing upon such application the commission shall fix a time and place for hearing and require such notice thereof to be given as it deems reasonable. Upon the hearing, the commission shall ascertain the facts and make findings thereon, and if such facts satisfy the commission that the proposed abandonment or closing for traffic will not result in substantial injury to the public, they may allow the same, otherwise, it shall be denied, or, if the facts warrant it, the application may be granted in a modified form. Commission under express limitation imposed by legislature, is sans power to order road abandoned (150-31, 184+186).

4931. Action against company—Whenever any such railway company has abandoned, taken up, or ceased to operate, or has closed for traffic any portion of its line for thirty days without having complied with the requirements of § 4932, any town, municipality, corporation or individual which has issued bonds or given promissory notes or other thing of value to such railway company as an inducement or aid to or in the construction of the line ceased to be operated or closed for traffic as aforesaid, may recover the same, or the value thereof, in an action against said company in the district court of any county wherein such road or any portion thereof has been abandoned or closed for traffic, or the operation of which has ceased as aforesaid. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to logging or ore roads constructed and used exclusively for logging or mining purposes, nor shall it apply to any railroad which is not a common carrier. (R. 4932. Fire caused by engine—Insurable interest—Each railroad corporation owning or operating a railroad in this state shall be responsible in damages to every person and corporation whose property may be injured or destroyed by fire communicated directly or indirectly by the locomotive engines in use upon the railroad owned or operated by such railroad corporation, and each such railroad corporation shall have an insurable interest in the property upon the route of the railroad owned or operated by it and may procure insurance thereon in its own behalf for its protection against such damages. (R. L. § 2041, amended '09 c. 378 § 1) [4426]

1909 c. 378 § 2 repeals inconsistent acts, etc.

The statute merely makes the fact of the fire being scattered or thrown from railroad cars and engines prima facie evidence of negligence. The existence of such negligence is still the issue to be presented by the complaint and tried by the jury. The statute simply relieves plaintiff of the initiative in proof of negligence. It does not relieve him of any proof save that of negligence. The presumption of negligence does not arise and defendant need not introduce evidence to rebut it until plaintiff has made out a case for the jury on the issue of the cause of the fire (29-12, 11+122; 32-526, 21+732; 35-361, 29+6; 63-66, 65+93; 65-112, 67+794; 117-434, 136+275; [C. C.] 22 Fed. 811). Plaintiff's case must rest upon something more than mere speculation or conjecture (83-370, 86+461; cf. 117-434, 136+275). Evidence to rebut presumption must be as broad as the presumption and must satisfactorily rebut every negligent act or omission which might, under the circumstances of the case, reasonably or naturally have caused the fire (29-12, 11+122; 35-170, 28+215; 43-334, 45+608; 45-481, 48+22. See also, 97-467, 107+548). Presumption is overcome by satisfactory proof that the engine was properly constructed and managed and in suitable repair (43-319, 45+611; 145 Fed. 577, 75 C. C. A. 591. See 40-60, 41+301; 63-233, 65+443). Whether presumption is overcome is ordinarily a question for the jury (29-12, 11+122; 32-526, 21+732; 35-170, 28+215; 97-467, 107+548). Presumption held not overcome (29-12, 11+122; 29-58, 11+146; 31-57, 16+488; 32-526, 21+732; 33-359, 23+536; 35-170, 28+215; 36-452, 32+176; 39-413, 40+270, 12 Am. 4933. Liability of corporations for injury or death to employees—That every company, person or corporation, owning or operating, as a common carrier or otherwise, a steam railroad or railway in the State of Minnesota, shall be liable in damages to any employee suffering injury while engaged in such employment; or, in case of death of such employee, to his or her personal representative for the benefit of the surviving widow or husband and children of such employee; and if none, then to such employee's parents; and if none, then the next of kin dependent upon such employee, for such injury or death resulting in whole or in part from the negligence of any of the officers, agents, or employees of such employer, or by reason of any defect or insufficiency due to the employer's negligence. The damages recoverable in case of death to be distributed to the parties in interest in the same proportion as personal property of persons dying intestate. ('15 c. 187 § 1, amended '23 c. 333 § 1)

In General.

Where crew engaged in removing station platform and "gang boss" in manipulating revolver found there caused same to inflict injury. "Gang boss" not deemed engaged in scope of his employment (142-367, 172+763). Clerk in office of railroad company injured getting into elevator through negligence of elevator boy, her fellow servant, comes within this statute (142-379, 172+767). Private steam railroads not common carriers (145-183, 176+750; 145-228, 176+754). Section hand injured by foreman in starting gasoline car (145-243, 179+370). Railway company's gravel pit employee using its track to and from work within this statute (151-182, 186+238; 191+608, 154-18, 194+10).

Duty of railway company to have instrumentalities reasonably safe for the performance of the functions for which they are designed. 157-354, 196+257.

An injury arising out of the improper use of instrumentalities does not justify the inference of negligence. 157-354, 196+257.

Injuries from burning gasoline. 159-370, 199+108.

Constitutionality.

Act is constitutional. 160-1, 199+887.

Interstate Commerce.

The evidence sustains a finding of the jury that the plaintiff was employed in interstate commerce at the time of his injury. 163-457, 204+557.

Deceased was a switchman in the employ of an interstate railroad. His crew had just picked up and put onto the main line 20 cars of interstate freight which they were moving to a ward farther on. Leaving these cars in charge of a flagman, they went a few miles distant to pick up 5 cars of intrastate freight which they intended to join and move on with the 20 interstate cars. Held, that he was engaged in interstate transportation. 164-353, 205+260.

Employee.

The cook, hired and paid by a bridge crew in the employ of a railway company, is not an employee of the latter; the railway company having no right of selection and discharge nor any supervision and control of the cook. The mere fact that the company furnished a kitchen car, fuel and oil for the bridge crew, and assisted in the collection of board bills, does not affect the situation. 158-25, 196+807.

Simple Tools.

Since the shovel was a simple tool the employee had equal knowledge thereof with the employer. Actionable negligence did not exist. 162-90, 202+49.

Plaintiff may have been prevented by the circumstances from making even a casual inspection of the tool before proceeding to use it. In such a situation, the rule of the simple instrumentality cases does not apply. 164-494, 205+439.

Proof that the jaws of a claw bar were flattened from use, and had acquired a quarter of an inch too much spread, held sufficient to show a defect resulting in injury to plaintiff while using the tool. 164-494, 205+439.

A spout hook, six or seven feet long, furnished by a railroad and placed on the tender of an engine before it started on its trip, intended for the use of the fireman in pulling the spout from the standpipe in filling the tank with water, is not within the simple tool or appliance rule, 165-58, 205+689.

Negligence.

Care required of engineer with respect to section hand. 160-83, 195+517.

A tool slipped off a moving section car and derailed it, resulting in the death of a member of the crew. A little attention on the part of a fellow servant of deceased would have kept the tool in place and prevented the accident. These facts sustain the jury's conclusion of negligence. 161-195, 201+321.

Whether the engineer's act in running the train while the fireman was replacing a light bulb in the locomotive headlight was negligence, in view of the position to be occupied in doing the work, was for the jury. 162-419, 203+57.

The jury could find that the fireman undertook the work at the engineer's request, and that he did not go outside the scope of his duties. 162-419, 203+57.

Action for Death.

Action for death. 166-1, 206+945.

Section 8175, G. S. 1913, limiting the amount recoverable in actions for injuries causing death, does not apply to actions under the state Railway Employers' Liability Act. 160-1, 199+887.

Release of Damages.

A release of damages for injuries sustained in an accident may be set aside on the ground of mutual mistake where it clearly appears that a substantial injury, not discovered until after the settlement, had in fact been sustained in the accident and existed at the time of settlement. 157-474, 196+643.

Such a release cannot be set aside on the ground that known injuries resulted in consequences not known and not expected when it was made. The parties are presumed to have intended to settle all claims growing out of the injuries, whether the after effects proved to be more or less serious than anticipated. 157-474, 196+643.

Evidence.

The evidence would warrant an inference by the jury that plaintiff was on the scaffold when he fell, and that its unsafe condition was a proximate cause of his injury. Plaintiff had the burden of establishing causal connection between the negligence alleged and the injury suffered, but was not required to establish it by direct evidence. 157-171, 195+893.

The evidence warranted the jury in finding that a scaffold provided by defendant for the use of its employees while remodeling a car in its shops was not safe. 157-171, 195+893.

Record considered, and it is held, that the verdict is justified by the evidence; that it is not excessive and does not appear to have been rendered under the influence of passion and prejudice. 157-184, 195+892.

The evidence sustains the finding that the plaintiff's interstate was in the line of his employment when killed. 157-412, 196+657.

The evidence sustains a verdict for the plaintiff for damages for the death of her intestate, a car inspector and repairer in the defendant railroad company's yards, upon the theory that a switching crew, disregarding a blue flag, the customary warning, which he had placed on the track on which he was working, pushed a car over him. 158-171, 197+275.

The evidence does not sustain a verdict for the plaintiff upon the theory that it was the duty of the switching crew to watch for men about the cars on the team track in the yards, when making switching movements, and that it negligently failed to do so. 158-171, 197+275.

An examination of the record discloses no negligence on the part of the defendant contributing to plaintiff's injury. The rule of res ipsa loquitur does not apply. 158-199, 197+215.

No actionable negligence was proven against appellant on account of the location of its own tracks, or the clearance between its lead and the tracks of the other defendant, or in any other respect. 159-70, 198+300.

The evidence sustains a finding of the jury that the death of the plaintiff's intestate was caused by a bent air line negligently permitted by the defendant along a track in its yards. 160-411, 200+477.

Instructions.

The court correctly charged that the plaintiff's intestate, a night watchman about the defendant's yards, was employed in "interstate commerce" at the time of his death. The charge is supported upon the ground that the train which he was endeavoring to board was an interstate train, as well as upon the ground that his duties in protecting freight, nearly all of which was interstate, though not confined to interstate traffic, were inseparably connected with it. 157-412, 196+657.

Under the evidence defendant was entitled to have the jury instructed that, if plaintiff's intestate went between the cars to lift the pin in a defective coupler, contrary to the express command of the foreman, his willful disobedience would be the sole proximate cause of his death. 158-378, 197+744.

Questions for Jury.

Whether the defendant was negligent in banking snow along one of its tracks and allowing it to remain there, without a sufficient clearance for an employe on the side of the train, or attempting to board it, was for the jury. 157-412, 196+657.

It was error to direct a verdict for defendant, for the deposition of one of defendant's employes, introduced by plaintiff, made it a jury question whether plaintiff's decedent at the time he met death was engaged in interstate commerce. 212+944.

Federal Safety Appliance Act.

The federal Safety Appliance Act (Mason's Code, 45:1, et. seq.) applies to sill steps on cars, but it does not apply to an ordinary platform step on a passenger car. 160-484, 200+485.

Whether an appliance, within the act, complies with the act is a question for the jury; but the question of whether the appliance is within the purview of the act is purely judicial. 160-484, 200+485.

4934. Liability of common carriers—That every company, person or corporation, owning or operating as a common carrier or otherwise, a steam railroad or railway in the State of Minnesota, shall be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while he is engaged in the line of his employment, or in case of the death of such employee, to his or her personal representative for the benefit of the surviving widow or husband and children of such employee; and, if none, then of such employee's parents; and if none, then of the next of kin dependent upon such employee, for such injury or death resulting in whole or in part from the negligence of any of the officers, agents or employees of such employer, or by reason of any defect or insufficiency in such employer's appliances, machinery or apparatus furnished. ('15 c. 187 § 2, amended '23 c. 333 § 2)

Constitutionality.

Act is constitutional. 160-1, 199+887.

Interstate Commerce.

A head brakeman on a freight train hauling interstate commerce, whose run was from Oshkosh to Milwaukee and return, having a number of hours off duty at the latter place, and using the caboose on his train as an abode during that time, was injured while so occupying the caboose, by a sudden jolt caused in coupling on the first two cars by the switching crew while making up the train more than an hour before time for its departure for Oshkosh. Held not employed in interstate commerce at the time of his alleged injury. 157-60, 195+534.

Evidence.

The doctrine of res ipsa loquitur applies in a proper case to the master and servant relation and to such relation under the state Railway Liability Act. 210+32.

There was no claim in the pleadings nor at the trial that the plaintiff was engaged in interstate commerce. In developing the case there was evidence tending to show that the plaintiff was so engaged. The court gave a charge embodying the res ipsa rule, to which there was no exception below nor assignment of errors here. It is held that there was no error in the charge or the submission of the case. 210+32.

Damages.

The damages awarded were not excessive. 210+32.

Federal Employers' Liability Act.

4935. Contributory negligence not to bar a recovery

—That in all actions hereafter brought against any such employer under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this act, to recover damages for personal injury to the employee, or where such injuries have resulted in his death, the fact that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee; provided, that no such employee who may be injured or killed shall be held to have been guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violation by such employer of any statute enacted for the safety of employees contributed to the injury or death of such employee. ('15 c. 187 § 3)

145-228, 176+754; 151-142, 186+238; 191+608.

For cases under Federal Employers' Liability Act, See Mason's Code, Title 45.

Negligence of section hand. 160-83, 199+517.

Liability under federal act. 159-166, 198+450; 210+62.

4936. Employee not to be held to have assumed risk of employment—That in any action brought against any employer under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this act to recover for injuries to or the death of any of its employees, such employee shall not be held to have assumed the risk of his employment in any case where the violation by the employer of any statute enacted for the safety of employees contributed to the injury or death of such employee. ('15 c. 187 § 4)

For case under Federal Employers' Liability Act, see Mason's Code, Title 45.

Constitutionality.

Contributory Negligence and Assumption of Risk Distinguished.

"Contributory negligence" and "assumption of risk" distinguished and defined. 157-325, 196+272.

Risks assumed.

The risk which caused decedent's death was fully known and appreciated by him, and hence was assumed. 159-70, 198+300.

Risks Not Assumed.

Injuries from burning gasoline. 159-370, 199+108.

Failure to keep lookout to protect section hand. 160-33, 199+517.

The evidence did not require a finding that the plaintiff assumed the risk in using the hook which was placed on the tank for his use, though he knew of a defect in it. 165-58, 205+689.

Questions for Jury.

Whether plaintiff assumed the risk incident to the use of the scaffold was a question for the determination of the jury. He had the right to act on the assumption that defendant would see that the scaffold was kept safe for use to the extent of discovering and remedying an unsafe condition, if it arose after the scaffold was constructed, and would not be obvious to those who used it. 157-171, 195+893.

The plaintiff's intestate did not as a matter of law assume the risk resulting from the presence of the snow-bank, nor was he as a matter of law contributorily negligent. 157-412, 196+657.

The decedent did not as a matter of law assume the risks. 160-411, 200+477.

The defense of assumption of risk was a jury question. 162-419, 203+57.

4937. Contrary contracts declared void—That any contract, rule, regulation or device whatsoever the purpose or intent of which shall be to enable any employer to exempt such employer from any liability created by this act, shall to that extent be void; provided, that in any action brought against any such employer under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this act, such employer may set off therein any sum he has contributed or paid to any insurance, relief, benefit or indemnity that may have been paid to the injured employee, or the persons entitled thereto on account of the injury or death for which said action was brought. ('15 c. 187 § 5)

Act is constitutional. 160-1, 199+887.

4938. Definition of term "employer"—That the term employer as used in this act shall include the receiver or receivers or other persons or corporations charged with the duty of management and operation of any business employing labor. ('15 c. 187 § 6)

Act is constitutional. 160-1, 199+887.

4939. Right of action given to surviving widow, children, next of kin and personal representative—That any right of action given by this act to a person suffering injury shall survive to his or her personal representative for the benefit of the surviving widow or husband and children of any such employee; and if none, then of such employee's parents; and if none, then of the next of kin dependent upon such employee, but in such cases there shall be only one recovery for the same injury. ('15 c. 187 § 7, amended '23 c. 333 § 3)

162-271, 202+726.

Act is constitutional. 160-1, 199+887.

The jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of a cause of action arising under the federal Employers' Liability Act (Mason's Code, 49:51, et. seq.) is concurrent. Removability of a case when commenced is determined by the allegations of the complaint. 159-388, 199+178.

The federal Employers' Liability Act of April 22, 1908 creates in the personal representative of an employee killed by the negligence of a railroad company while employed in interstate commerce a right of action "for the benefit of the surviving widow or husband and children of such employee; and, if none, then of such employee's parents; and, if none, then of the next of kin dependent upon such employee." Held, that the personal representative may recover where the deceased employee leaves no wife nor child, but leaves a parent, who dies after his death, and before action brought, and a dependent sister who is his next of kin, the recovery in such case being for the benefit of such dependent sister. 159-417, 199+101.

The objection that a widow brings action for the death of her husband in her representative capacity is waived, when not raised by demurrer or answer, nor at the trial. 160-49, 199+859.

The objection that the administratrix was not the proper party to bring the action was waived by failing to demur. 160-49, 199+889.

Dependency is to be determined from the facts and circumstances of each particular case. It may exist although there was no actual necessitous want on the part of the alleged dependent, if he or she received support from one who furnished it voluntarily, and who might reasonably be expected to continue to do so. 166-79, 207+186.

4940. Action to be commenced within two years—That no action shall be maintained under this act unless commenced within two years from the day the cause of action accrues. ('15 c. 187 § 8)

191+607 is upheld in 191+596 as being decisive that the two-year limitation is a bar.

Gen. Laws 1887 c. 13, R. L. '05 § 2042; G. S. '13 § 4427, relating to negligence of fellow servants, was held in 154-184, 191+607 to have been superseded by '15 c. 187; the decisions under the former law, however, should be of value and appear below. "Rule of haste" is hazard element of railroading, statute applying (121-476, 141+844). Contributory negligence.—Custom and practice, and physical conditions, prevailing in moving trains, question of contributory negligence is one of fact (123-110, 143+121).

Employee coupling cars on spur track injured through running cars against same from lead track is not subject to custom or usage justifying negligent act (127-381, 149+660). Section hand injured in having thrown against him a trespassing horse struck by a locomotive failing in giving proper warning (128-505, 151+177). Duty of engineer in switch yard to keep constant look-out; failure is negligence (130-222, 153+529; 140-118, 167+347). Character of employment test of liability (142-379, 172+766). "Rule of haste" as to over exertion handling mail bags not applicable (151-424, 186+815).

Amendment stating new cause of action. 166-1, 206+945.

3. Proviso as to new roads—42-68, 43+783; 48-46, 50+930; 93-63, 100+681; 199 U. S. 593, 26 S. Ct. 159, 50 L. Ed. 322.

4. Contributory negligence—Statute does not change rule that burden of proving contributory negligence is on defendant (48-391, 51+125).

5. Constitutionality—The equal protection of the laws is not denied by construing the exception as only exempting incomplete railroads, and therefore as not excepting an accident on a narrow-gauge track on which dump cars were run by a mining company for the purpose of stripping its mine (199 U. S. 593, 26 Sup. Ct. 159, 50 L. Ed. 322).

Act is constitutional. 160-1, 199+837.

4941. License for ticket agents—Every corporation, common carrier, firm, or person, operating any line of railroad, steamboat line, or steamboat, shall furnish to each of its authorized ticket agents a certificate of agency duly signed by or on behalf of such carrier, and, in case of a corporation, attested by its corporate seal. Upon presentation of such certificate and payment of a license fee of three dollars, the secretary of state shall issue to such agent a license to sell transportation tickets for such carrier. Such certificate and license shall be kept conspicuously posted in the office of such agent, and no person not so licensed shall sell any ticket or other evidence of right to passenger transportation. It is hereby made the duty of every corporation, common carrier, firm, or person operating any line of railroad, steamboat line or steamboat, on or before the first day of January, July of each year, to file with the secretary of state, a duly authenticated list of its ticket agents in this state. Any person not so licensed who shall sell, barter, or otherwise transfer any such ticket or other evidence of right to passenger transportation or any part thereof, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to persons, firms or corporations operating street railways, electric railroads or power boats in connection therewith. (R. Any such carrier violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the state not to exceed five hundred dollars. (2044) [4429]

1893 c. 66 did not violate state or federal constitution (97-173, 106+907).

4943. Mileage books—All passenger mileage tickets or books hereafter issued by railroad companies operating lines in this state, except interchangeable mileage now in use, shall be good until used, and shall be transferable by delivery and good for travel in the hands of the holder thereof between stations in Minnesota. Such mileage books shall entitle the holder thereof to the same rights and privileges in respect to the transportation of person and property to which the highest class ticket issued by such corporation would entitle him. Such mileage books shall be good until all coupons attached thereto have been used. Any railroad corporation which shall refuse to accept any such mileage book for transportation as provided by this section, or in violation hereof, shall forfeit fifty dollars ($50.00), to be recovered by the party to whom such refusal is made; but no action can be maintained therefor unless commenced within one year after the cause of action has accrued. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing the provisions of chapter 221, General Laws of 1905. ('13 c. 151 § 1) [4432]

4946. Railroad companies directed to keep on sale mileage books—Every railroad company owning, operating or using a steam railroad in this state for the intrastate transportation of passengers, shall from and after the effective date of the order provided for in sections 3 and 5 of this act keep on sale at all its ticket offices in this state mileage books for passenger transportation containing coupon tickets representing two thousand miles, good for intrastate transportation between stations on said railroad in this state, when presented for transportation by the original purchaser thereof. Such mileage books shall be sold at a price not to exceed the maximum rate per mile authorized by law to be charged by the railroad company issuing the same for the intrastate transportation of passengers between stations in this state, and the tickets contained therein shall show on their face the rate per mile paid therefor. Such mileage books shall be valid for one year from the date of purchase and if not wholly used within the year, the company issuing the same shall redeem the unused coupons therein, if presented by the purchaser for redemption within thirty days after the expiration of the year, at the rate per mile paid therefor. ('17 c. 118 § 1)

4947. If rates are increased coupons are good for pro rata increase—If any such railroad company after issuing a mileage book or books hereunder and before such mileage book or books shall be used up by the purchaser thereof, shall lawfully issue mileage books hereunder at an increased rate, the unused coupons in all unexpired mileage books theretofore issued shall thereafter be good on such railroad only for the proportionate mileage which the rate paid therefor would have purchased at such increased rate. ('17 c. 118 § 2)

4948. Proceedings for enforcement of above sections—The railroad and warehouse commission of this state within ten days after this act takes effect, shall notify every railroad company owning, operating or using a steam railroad in this state, that it will upon a day named in such notice, which day shall not be earlier than thirty days after the giving of such notice, take up for investigation the subject of requiring all railroad companies owning, operating or using steam railroads in this state to accept for the intrastate transportation of passengers between stations on their said

railroads in this state, mileage tickets issued by other railroad companies pursuant to the provisions of this act. All corporations, partnerships and persons interested in the subject may present themselves at the hearing and be heard under such reasonable rules and regulations as the said commission may prescribe. In such investigation, which shall be conducted with all due diligence, the said commission shall take into consideration the financial responsibility of the various railroad companies owning, operating or using steam railroads in this state, and the rates authorized by law to be charged by such railroad companies for the intrastate transportation of passengers between stations on their said railroads in this state, and any other pertinent matters; and after considering the same shall make findings of fact relative to the matters considered by it and an order based thereon wherein it shall establish just and reasonable rules and regulations, pursuant to which such railroad companies shall be required to accept for the intrastate transportation of passengers between stations on their said railroads in this state, mileage tickets issued by other railroad companies pursuant to this act. ('17 c. 118 § 3)

4949. Certain railroad companies may be excluded from provisions of this act—If on such investigation the commission shall find that any such railroad company is financially irresponsible or that for any other just and reasonable cause other railroad companies ought not to be required to accept for transportation mileage tickets issued by such company, the said commission shall in its rules and regulations exclude from the operation of section 6 of this act, mileage tickets issued by any such company. ('17 c. 118 § 4)

4950. Order to be issued when provisions become effective—The order shall fix the date when such rules and regulation shall become effective, which shall be not less than thirty days from the making and filing of such order, and shall be served upon the railroad companies affected thereby as provided in section 1967, Revised Laws of 1905, the same being section 4183, General Statutes of 1913. Every such railroad company shall publish and adopt such rules and regulations and shall comply therewith as soon as the same shall become effective. ('17 c. 118 § 5)

Explanatory note—For R. L. '05, § 1967 and G. S. 1913, § 4183, see § 4642, herein.

4951. Mileage book issued by one company to be good on all lines coming under above provisions—Subject to the provisions of such rules and regulations every such railroad company shall accept for the intrastate transportation of passengers between stations in this state over all steam railroads owned, operated or used by it, mileage tickets issued by other railroad companies pursuant to the provisions of this act. ('17 c. 118 § 6)

4952. Commission may revise rules and regulations—The railroad and warehouse commission upon such reasonable notice as it may prescribe may from time to time upon its own motion, or upon the application of any corporation, partnership or person interested therein, revise, change or add to any rule or regulation fixed hereunder and any such revised, changed or added rules and regulations shall be served in the same manner and have the same force and effect as the rules and regulations originally established. ('17 c. 118 § 7)

rights and privileges in respect to the transportation of both person and property, to which the highest class ticket issued by the railroad company to which it is presented would entitle him. ('17 c. 118 § 8)

4954. State employes may use mileage books—Whenever a department of the state government in the proper conduct of the business of such department, finds it necessary, and is authorized by law to pay railroad fares of its officers or employees, said department through its official or board authorized by law to present or approve claims against the state arising out of the operation of said department, may present to the state auditor a verified abstract in form and manner as provided for the approval of claims against the state approving an expenditure of state funds of said department for the purchase of script or mileage books for transportation upon the railroads of the country, and the state auditor shall issue his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount shown by such abstract, and the state treasurer shall issue check accordingly. ('21 c. 515 § 1)

4955. Department to keep record and report use of books—The department of the state obtaining such script or mileage book or books shall keep a record of the date of purchase of each of said books, the official or employee to whom said books are delivered, and shall require a report from the said official or employee at regular intervals showing the stations between which said official or employee travels, the mileage covered and the nature of the work performed. Whenever the script or mileage book is exhausted the department causing the purchase of said book shall deliver a copy of its record as herein required to be kept, to the state auditor to be attached to the original abstract filed in the first instance. ('21 c. 515 § 2)

4956. Inconsistent acts repealed—All acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. ('21 c. 515 § 3)

4957. Application of preceding provisions—All the provisions of this chapter regarding the construction, maintenance, and operation of railroads, and the duties and liabilities of railroad companies, shall apply to any firm or person operating a railroad, whether as owner, lessee, trustee, receiver, or otherwise, and the term "company," wherever used in this chapter, shall be construed to include any such firm or person when such construction is not inconsistent with the context. (2045) [4433]

4958. Collection of forfeitures—All forfeitures provided by this chapter shall be collected by civil action in the name of the state, and the attorney general and the county attorney of any county in which the cause of action arises shall prosecute such action. (2046) [4434]

BILLS OF LADING

- (c) The place where the goods have been received,
- (d) The place to which the goods are to be transported,

(e) A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to a specified person, or to the order of a specified person,

(f) A description of the goods or of the packages containing them which may, however, be in such general terms as are referred to in Section 23, and,

(g) The signature of the carrier.

A negotiable bill shall have the words "order of" printed thereon immediately before the name of the person upon whose order the goods received are deliverable.

A carrier shall be liable to any person injured thereby for the damage caused by the omission from a negotiable bill of any of the provisions required in this section. ('17 c. 399 § 2)

4960. Form of bills—What terms may be inserted—A carrier may insert in a bill, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not:

(a) Be contrary to law or public policy, or,

(b) In anywise impair his obligation to exercise at least that degree of care in the transportation and safekeeping of the goods entrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own. ('17 c. 399 § 3)

4961. Definition of non-negotiable or straight bill—A bill in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to a specified person, is a non-negotiable or straight bill. ('17 c. 399 § 4)

4962. Definition of negotiable or order bill—A bill in which it is stated that goods are consigned or destined to the order of any person named in such bill, is a negotiable or order bill.

4963. Negotiable bills must not be issued in sets—Negotiable bills issued in this state for the transportation of goods shall not be issued in parts or sets.

If so issued, the carrier issuing them shall be liable for failure to deliver the goods described therein to anyone who purchases a part for value in good faith, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the carrier to a holder of one of the other parts. ('17 c. 399 § 6)

4964. Duplicate negotiable bills must be so marked—When more than one negotiable bill is issued in this state for the same goods to be transported, the word "duplicate," or some other word or words indicating that the document is not an original bill, shall be placed plainly upon the face of every such bill, except the one first issued. A carrier shall be liable for the damage caused by his failure so to do to anyone who has purchased the bill for value in good faith as an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the carrier to the holder of the original bill. ('17 c. 399 § 7)

4965. Non-negotiable bills shall be so marked—A non-negotiable bill shall have placed plainly upon its face by the carrier issuing it "non-negotiable," or "not negotiable." This section shall not apply, however, to memoranda or acknowledgments of an informal character. ('17 c. 399 § 8)

4966. Insertion of name of person to be notified—The insertion in a negotiable bill of the name of a person to be notified of the arrival of the goods shall not limit the negotiability of the bill, or constitute notice to a purchaser thereof of any rights or equities of such person in the goods. ('17 c. 399 § 9)

4967. Acceptance of bill is prima facie evidence of assent to its terms—Except as otherwise provided in this act, where a consignor receives a bill and makes no objection to its terms or conditions at the time he receives it, this shall be prima facie evidence that he assents to its terms in so far as they are in accordance with law and public policy. ('17 c. 399 § 10)

OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS OF CARRIERS UPON THEIR BILLS OF LADING.

4968. Obligations of carrier to deliver—A carrier, in the absence of some lawful excuse, is bound to deliver goods upon a demand made either by the consignee named in the bill for the goods, or if the bill is negotiable, by the holder thereof, if such demand is accompanied by:

(a) An offer in good faith to satisfy the carrier's lawful lien upon the goods,

(b) Possession of the bill of lading and an offer in good faith to surrender, properly indorsed, the bill which was issued for the goods, if the bill is negotiable, and,

(c) A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is requested by the carrier.

In case the carrier refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the consignee or holder so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the carrier to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal or failure. ('17 c. 399 § 11)

4969. Justification of carrier in delivering—A carrier is justified, subject to the provisions of the three following sections, in delivering goods to one who is:

(a) A person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or,

(b) The consignee named in a non-negotiable bill for the goods, or,

(c) A person in possession of a negotiable bill for the goods by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to his order, or which has been indorsed to him or in blank by the consignee or by the mediate or immediate indorsee of the consignee. ('17 c. 399 § 12)

4970. Carrier's liability for misdelivery—Where a carrier delivers goods to one who is not lawfully entitled to the possession of them the carrier shall be liable to anyone having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by subdivisions (b) and (c) of the preceding section; and, though he delivered the goods as authorized by either of said subdivisions, he shall be so liable if prior to such a delivery he:

(a) Had been requested by or on behalf of a person having a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery, or,

(b) Had information at the time of the delivery that it was to a person not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods.

Such request or information to be effective within the meaning of this section must be given to an officer or agent of the carrier, the actual or apparent scope of whose duties includes action upon such a request or information, and must be given in time to enable the officer or agent to whom it is given, acting with reasonable diligence, to stop delivery of the goods. ('17 c. 399 § 13)

4971. Negotiable bills must be cancelled when goods delivered—Except as provided in section 27, and except when compelled by legal process, if a carrier delivers goods for which a negotiable bill had been issued, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the bill, such carrier shall be liable for failure to deliver the goods to anyone who for value and in good faith purchases such bill, whether such purchaser acquired title to the bill before or after delivery of the goods by the carrier, and notwithstanding delivery was made to the person entitled thereto. ('17 c. 399 § 14)

4972. Negotiable bills must be cancelled or marked when parts of goods delivered—Except as provided in section 27, and except when compelled by legal process, if a carrier delivers part of the goods for which a negotiable bill had been issued and fails either:

(a) To take up and cancel the bill, or,

(b) To place plainly upon it a statement that a portion of the goods has been delivered, with a description, which may be in general terms, either of the goods or packages that have been so delivered or of the goods or packages which still remain in the carrier's possession,

He shall be liable for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the bill, to anyone who for value and in good faith purchases it, whether such purchaser acquired title to it before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the carrier, and notwithstanding such delivery was made to the person entitled thereto. ('17 c. 399 § 15)

4973. Altered bills—Any alteration, addition or erasure in a bill after its issue without authority from the carrier issuing the same either in writing or noted on the bill shall be void, whatever be the nature and purpose of the change, and the bill shall be enforceable according to its original tenor. ('17 c. 399 § 16)

4974. Lost or destroyed bills—Where a negotiable bill has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss, theft or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient surety to be approved by the court to protect the carrier or any person injured by such delivery from any liability or loss, incurred by reason of the original bill remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the carrier's reasonable costs and counsel fees: Provided, a voluntary indemnifying bond without order of court shall be binding on the parties thereto.

The delivery of the goods under an order of the court, as provided in this section, shall not relieve the carrier from liability to a person to whom the negotiable bill has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods. ('17 c. 399 § 17)

4975. Effect of duplicate bills—A bill upon the face of which the word "duplicate," or some other word or words indicating that the document is not an original bill, is placed plainly shall impose upon the carrier issuing the same the liability of one who represents and warrants that such bill is an accurate copy of an original bill properly issued, but no other liability. ('17 c. 399 § 18)

4976. Carrier cannot set up title in himself—No title to goods or right to their possession asserted by a carrier for his own benefit, shall excuse him from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of a bill issued for them, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the consignor or consignee after the shipment, or from the carrier's lien. ('17 c. 399 § 19)

4977. Interpleader of adverse claimants—If more than one person claims the title or possession of goods, the carrier may require all known claimants to interplead, either as a defense to an action brought against him for non-delivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate. ('17 c. 399 § 20)

4978. Carrier has reasonable time to determine validity of claims—If some one other than the consignee or person in possession of the bill has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the carrier has information of such claim, the carrier shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods either to the consignee or person in possession of the bill, or to the adverse claimant, until the carrier has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead. ('17 c. 399 § 21)

4980. Liability for non-receipt or misdescription of goods—If a bill of lading has been issued by a carrier or on his behalf by an agent or employe, the scope of whose actual or apparent authority includes the issuing of bills of lading, the carrier shall be liable to:

(a) The owner of goods covered by a non-negotiable bill subject to existing right of stoppage in transitu, or,

(b) The holder of a negotiable bill,

Who has given value in good faith relying upon the description therein of the goods, for damages caused by the non-receipt by the carrier of all or part of the goods or their failure to correspond with the description thereof in the bill at the time of its issue.

When package freight or bulk freight is loaded by a shipper and the goods are described in a bill merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind or quantity, or in a certain condition, or it is stated in the bill that packages are said to contain goods of a certain kind or quantity or in a certain condition, or that the contents or condition of the contents of packages are unknown, or words of like purport are contained in the bill, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the carrier issuing the bill, although the goods are not of the kind or quantity or in the condition which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind or quantity or in the condition they were said to be by the consignor. The carrier may, also, by inserting in the bill the words, "shipper's weight, load and count," or other words of like purport indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper and the description of them made by him; and if such statement be true, the carrier shall not be liable for damages caused by the improper loading or by the non-receipt or by the misdescription of the goods described in the bill: Provided, however, where the shipper of bulk freight installs and maintains adequate facilities for weighing such freight, and the same are available to the carrier, then the carrier, upon written request of such shipper and when given a reasonable opportunity so to do, shall ascertain the kind and quantity of bulk freight within a reasonable time after such written request, and the carriers shall not in such cases insert in the bill of lading the words, "shipper's weight," or other words of like purport, and if so inserted contrary to the provisions of this section, said words shall be treated as null and void and as if not inserted therein. ('17 c. 399 § 23)

4981. Certain duties of carrier when goods are loaded by him—When goods are loaded by a carrier such carrier shall count the packages of goods, if package freight, and ascertain the kind and quantity if bulk freight, and such carrier shall not, in such cases, insert in the bill of lading or in any notice, receipt, contract, rule, regulation or tariff, "shipper's weight, load and count," or other words of like purport, indicating that the goods were loaded by the shipper and the description of them made by him or in case of bulk freight and freight not concealed by packages the description made by him. If so inserted, contrary to the provisions of this section, said words shall be treated as null and void and as if not inserted therein. ('17 c. 399 § 23a)

4982. Attachment or levy upon goods for which a negotiable bill has been issued—If goods are delivered to a carrier by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser for value in good faith would bind the owner and a negotiable bill is issued for them, they cannot thereafter, while in the possession of the carrier, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an execution, unless the bill be first surrendered to the carrier or its negotiation enjoined. The carrier shall in no such case be compelled to deliver the actual possession of the goods until the bill is surrendered to him or impounded by the court. ('17 c. 399 § 24)

4983. Creditor's remedies to reach negotiable bills—A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable bill shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction by injunction and otherwise in attaching such bill, or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which cannot readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process. ('17 c. 399 § 25)

4984. Negotiable bill must state charges for which lien is claimed—If a negotiable bill is issued the carrier shall have no lien on the goods therein mentioned, except for charges on those goods for freight, storage, demurrage and terminal charges, and expenses necessary for the preservation of the goods or incident to their transportation subsequent to the date of the bill, unless the bill expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall also be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are allowed by law and the contract between the consignor and the carrier. ('17 c. 399 § 26)

4985. Effect of sale—After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a carrier's lien, or because they have not been claimed, or because they are perishable or hazardous, the carrier shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods themselves to the consignee or owner of the goods, or to a holder of the bill given for the goods when they were shipped, even if such bill be negotiable. ('17 c. 399 § 27)

NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER OF BILLS

4986. Negotiation of negotiable bills by delivery—A negotiable bill may be negotiated by delivery where, by the terms of the bill, the carrier undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the bill has indorsed it in blank. ('17 c. 399 § 28)

4987. Negotiation of negotiable bills by indorsement—A negotiable bill may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are deliverable by the tenor of the bill. Such indorsement may be in blank or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be negotiated again by the indorsement of such person in blank or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner. ('17 c. 399 § 29)

4988. Transfer of bills—A bill may be transferred by the holder by delivery, accompanied with an agreement, express or implied, to transfer the title to the bill or to the goods represented thereby.

A non-negotiable bill cannot be negotiated free from existing equities and the indorsement of such a bill gives the transferee no additional right. ('17 c. 399 § 30)

4989. Who may negotiate a bill—A negotiable bill may be negotiated by any person in possession of the same, however such possession may have been acquired if, by the terms of the bill, the carrier undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of such person, or if at the time of negotiation the bill is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery. ('17 c. 399 § 31)

4990. Rights of person to whom a bill has been negotiated—A person to whom a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

(a) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the bill to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the consignee and consignor had or had power to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and,

(b) The direct obligation of the carrier to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the bill as fully as if the carrier had contracted directly with him. ('17 c. 399 § 32)

4991. Rights of person to whom a bill has been transferred—A person to whom a bill has been transferred but not negotiated acquires thereby as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor. If the bill is non-negotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the carrier of the transfer to him of such bill, and thereby to become the direct obligee of whatever obligations the carrier owed to the transferor of the bill immediately before the notification.

Prior to the notification of the carrier by the transferor or transferee of a non-negotiable bill, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the carrier may be defeated by garnishment or by attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the carrier by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

A carrier has not received notification within the meaning of this section unless an officer or agent of the carrier, the actual or apparent scope of whose duties includes action upon such a notification, has been notified; and no notification shall be effective until the officer or agent to whom it is given has had time with the exercise of reasonable diligence to communicate with the agent or agents having actual possession or control of the goods. ('17 c. 399 § 33)

4992. Transfer of negotiable bill without indorsement—Where a negotiable bill is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the bill, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made. This obligation may be specifically enforced. ('17 c. 399 § 34)

4993. Warranties on sale of bill—A person who negotiates or transfers for value a bill by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a bill, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

- (a) That the bill is genuine,
- (b) That he has a legal right to transfer it,
- (c) That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the bill, and,
- (d) That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods, and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a bill the goods represented thereby.

In case of an assignment of a claim secured by a bill, the liability of the assignor shall not exceed the amount of the claim. ('17 c. 399 § 35)

4994. Indorser not a guarantor—The indorsement of a bill shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the carrier or previous indorsers of the bill to fulfill their respective obligations. ('17 c. 399 § 36)

4995. No warranty implied from accepting payment of a debt—A mortgagee or pledgee, or other holder of a bill for security who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such bill is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not be deemed by so doing to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such bill or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described. ('17 c. 399 § 37)

4996. When negotiation not impaired by fraud, accident, mistake, duress or conversion—The validity of the negotiation of a bill is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the bill was deprived of the possession of the same by fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft or conversion, if the person to whom the bill was negotiated, or a person to whom the bill was subsequently negotiated, gave value therefor in good faith, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft or conversion. ('17 c. 399 § 38)

4997. Subsequent negotiation—Where a person having sold, mortgaged or pledged goods which are in a carrier's possession and for which a negotiable bill has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged or pledged the negotiable bill representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable bill, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, pledge or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or bill had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation. ('17 c. 399 § 39)

4998. Form of the bill as indicating rights of buyer and seller—Where goods are shipped by the consignor in accordance with a contract or order for their purchase, the form in which the bill is taken by the consignor shall indicate the transfer or retention of the property or right to the possession of the goods as follows:

- (a) Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the buyer or to his agent, or to the order of the buyer or of his agent, the consignor thereby transfers the property in the goods to the buyer.
- (b) Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the seller or to his agent, or to the order of the seller or of his agent, the seller thereby reserves the property in the goods. But if, except for the form of the bill, the property would have passed to the buyer on shipment of the goods, the seller's property in the goods shall be deemed to be only for the purpose of securing performance by the buyer of his obligations under the contract.

(c) Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the order of the buyer or of his agent, but possession of the bill is retained by the seller or his agent, the seller thereby reserves a right to the possession of the goods, as against the buyer.

(d) Where the seller draws on the buyer for the price and transmits the draft and bill together to the buyer to secure acceptance or payment of the draft, the buyer is bound to return the bill if he does not honor the draft, and if he wrongfully retains the bill he acquires no added right thereby. If, however, the bill provides that the goods are deliverable to the buyer or to the order of the buyer, or is indorsed in blank or to the buyer by the consignee named therein, one who purchases in good faith for value, the bill or goods from the buyer, shall obtain the title to the goods, although the draft has not been honored, if such purchaser has received delivery of the bill endorsed by the consignee named therein, or of the goods, without notice of the facts making the transfer wrongful. ('17 c. 399 § 40)

4999. Demand, presentation or sight draft must be paid, but draft on more than three days' time merely accepted before buyer is entitled to the accompanying bill—Where the seller of goods draws on the buyer for the price of the goods and transmits the draft and a bill of lading for the goods either directly to the buyer or through a bank or other agency unless a different intention on the part of the seller appears, the buyer and all other parties interested shall be justified in assuming:

(a) If the draft is by its terms or legal effect payable on demand or presentation or at sight, or not more than three days thereafter (whether such three days be termed days of grace or not), that the seller intended to require payment of the draft before the buyer should be entitled to receive or retain the bill.

(b) If the draft is by its terms payable on time extending beyond three days after demand, presentation or sight (whether such three days be termed days of grace or not), that the seller intended to require acceptance, but not payment of the draft before the buyer should be entitled to receive or retain the bill.

The provisions of this section are applicable whether by the terms of the bill the goods are consigned to the seller, or to his order, or to the buyer, or to his order, or to a third person, or to his order. ('17 c. 399 § 41)

5000. Negotiation defeats vendor's lien—Where a negotiable bill has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such bill has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the carrier who issued such bill of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the carrier be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller unless such bill is first surrendered for cancellation. ('17 c. 399 § 42)

5001. When rights and remedies under mortgages and liens are not limited—Except as provided in Section 42, nothing in this act shall limit the rights and remedies of a mortgagee or lienholder whose mortgage or lien on goods would be valid, apart from this act, as against one who for value and in good faith purchased from the owner, immediately prior to the time of their delivery to the carrier, the goods which are subject to the mortgage or lien and obtained possession of them. ('17 c. 399 § 43)

CRIMINAL OFFENSES

('17 c. 399 § 46)

5005. prisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. ('17 c. 399 § 49)

5008. Issue of non-negotiable bill not so marked—Any person who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a non-negotiable bill without the words, "not negotiable," placed plainly upon the face thereof, shall be guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. ('17 c. 399 § 50)

Upon the sale or lease of a public local grain warehouse, a transfer of the license for such warehouse shall be necessary and such transfer of license may be had free of charge by applying to the railroad and warehouse commission for the same, provided, however, that the party or parties selling or leasing shall first file with the railroad and warehouse commission a report of the business done from the preceding first day of July up to the time of such sale or lease, and shall satisfy the commission that proper provision has been made for the purchase, redelivery, or continuation of storage of such grain as may be outstanding on storage receipts. ('23 c. 114 § 4)

5063. Grain to be received for storage—Receipts for—Penalties—(a) Every public local grain warehouseman licensed to store grain shall receive for storage, so far as the capacity of his warehouse will permit, all grain tendered him, without discrimination of any kind; provided such grain is sound and in a warehouseable condition and of proper grade for delivery on terminal market contracts. Upon delivery of grain for shortage a legal warehouse storage receipt shall be issued to the owner or his agent, which shall state the place and date when the grain was received, the name of the owner of the grain, the kind and grade of the grain, according to the official terms established by the state board of grain appeals, or by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, the gross weight, dockage and net weight of the grain as per Minnesota standard weight and in addition thereto such receipt shall contain either on its face or reverse side the following specific warehouse and storage contract:

(b) This grain is received, insured and stored to July 31st, following, unless it is shelled corn, when the date shall be March 31st following delivery, and terms expressed in the body of this receipt shall constitute due notice to the holder thereof of the expiration of the storage period. The charges for receiving, insuring, handling and storing for the first fifteen days or part thereof shall be free. Storage after the first fifteen days shall be charged and hereby is fixed in the sum of one-thirtieth of a cent per bushel per day for the balance of the storage period, which shall be collected by the warehouseman upon presentation of the storage receipt for the sale or delivery of the grain represented by such receipt, or the termination of the storage period. It shall be and hereby is made unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to charge or collect a greater or lesser amount than the one herein fixed. If grain is cleaned at owner's request, the charge shall be two cents per bushel. This grain has been received and stored with grain of the same lawful grade. Upon the return of this receipt and payment or tender of a delivery charge per bushel of four cents for flax, three cents for wheat and rye and two cents for all other grains, and all other stated lawful charges accrued up to the time of said return of this receipt, the above amount, kind and grade of grain will be delivered within the time prescribed by law to the person above named or his order, either from this warehouse, or if the owner so desires, in quantities not less than a carload in a public bonded warehouse at any terminal point upon the same line of railway within this state where state or federal inspection and weighing is in force, the grade and weight thereof to be determined by state or federal inspection and weighing as provided by law, and such grain to be subject to the usual freight, inspection, weighing and switching charges.

(c) Attached to the receipt shall be a stub record stating number and date of receipt and the gross weight, dockage and net weight; such stub record to remain in the possession of the warehouseman for inspection by the commission or interested parties. The receipts shall be consecutively numbered and delivered to the owner or his agent. All storage receipts shall state the date of delivery, except where the delivery of a certain lot for storage is not completed, when such receipt shall be dated not later than Saturday of the week of delivery. All special bin receipts and stub records thereof shall have plainly marked thereon the words "Special Bin." Public local grain warehousemen may insert on said receipt the following clause: "If any of the grain embraced in this receipt shall prove to be covered by any chattel mortgage or other lien, or the partial or absolute title prove to be in another than the party to whom this receipt was issued, the same shall, if discovered before the delivery of the grain, be a sufficient reason for a refusal to deliver to the holder of the receipt, or, if discovered after the delivery of the grain, such delivery shall be deemed an overdelivery, for which said holder of this receipt to whom such delivery is made, shall be accountable."

(d) Any provision or agreement in such receipt not contained in the aforesaid specific warehouse and storage contract shall be void. The failure to issue such receipt as directed, or the issuance of slips, memoranda or any other form of receipt embracing a different warehouse or storage contract shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and no such slip, memoranda, or other form of receipt shall be admissible in evidence in any civil action; provided, nothing in this act contained shall be construed to require or compel any party or parties operating a flour, cereal or feed mill or malt-house, doing a manufacturing business only, to receive, store or purchase at said mill any kind of grain.

(e) Public local grain warehousemen shall be held liable to the owner for the delivery of the kind, grade and net quantity of grain called for by said storage receipts. The term "grain" is held to signify and include the following products: Wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, flaxseed and speltz.

(f) All public local grain warehousemen shall purchase grain in conformity with the official grades of grain established from time to time by the state board of grain appeals or by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, except as otherwise provided in rules and regulations applicable thereto adopted by state or federal officials pursuant to law. They shall post in a conspicuous place in their warehouse the official grades so established and also any change that may be made from time to time.

(g) No public local grain warehouseman shall issue a receipt for grain not actually received into his warehouse.

(h) Any person, firm, association or corporation, or any officer or agent of any person, firm, association or corporation, who shall violate the provisions of Section 5 of this act as herein amended shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than three months. The Railroad and Warehouse Commission of this state shall have the power and it shall be their duty whenever they find, after a hearing, that the provisions of this act have been violated by any person holding a license to conduct a public local grain warehouse in this state, to revoke and annul such license, and in such case no new license shall be granted to the person whose license is so revoked, nor to anyone either directly or indirectly engaged with him in said business for the period of one year. ('23, c. 114, § 5; amended '27, c. 200, § 1, effective August 1, 1927)

Action for conversion. 161-380, 201+615.

Only those storage tickets containing a contract differing from the prescribed contract are declared by statute to be inadmissible in evidence. 212+198.

The surety, having made itself responsible for the performance by the warehouseman of all duties imposed upon him by statute, cannot avoid liability on the ground that he failed to issue the prescribed storage ticket. 212+198.

5064. Form of storage receipt—There may be printed on such storage receipt a receipt to be executed by the owner in case the grain represented thereby is purchased by such warehouseman. The warehouseman shall record such purchase as to the total amount paid and the amount paid per bushel on the stub record of his storage receipt book. Such receipt shall be in substantially the following language and form:

Received from.....
.....Dollars net in full payment for the grain represented by this storage receipt. Gross price per bushel....., storage per bushel....., net price per bushel..... All blank spaces in this receipt were filled in before the same was signed by me, and I hereby certify that I am the owner of the grain for which this receipt was issued and that there are no liens, chattel mortgages or other claims against the grain represented by this receipt.
Signed.....
Owner

Dated.....19...

Provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to affect in any manner the conditions of the storage contract specified in section 5 of this act. ('23 c. 114 § 6)

5065. Grain delivered on surrender of receipt—On the return and surrender of any receipts and payment of all lawful charges, the grain represented therein shall be immediately deliverable to the owner, or his order, and shall not be subject to any further charge for storage after demand for delivery shall have been made and proper facilities for receiving or shipping the same have been provided.

If not delivered within twenty-four hours after such demand and proper facilities have been provided, the warehouseman shall be liable to the owner in damages not exceeding one cent a bushel for each day's delay, unless he shall deliver to different owners in the order demand as rapidly as it can be done by ordinary diligence. The owner of the receipt shall order the car or cars in which the grain covered by his receipt is to be transported, and the grain shall be delivered immediately when the car so ordered is in proper condition for loading and placed at the warehouse.

If any dispute or disagreement arises between the party receiving and the party delivering the grain at any public local grain warehouse in this state as to the proper grade or dockage, or both, of any grain, an average sample of at least three quarts of said grain in dispute may be taken by either or both of the parties interested. Said sample or samples shall be certified to by both the owner and warehouseman as being true samples of the grain in dispute on the day upon which the grain is delivered. Such samples shall be forwarded in a suitable sack by parcel post or express, prepaid, with the name and address of both parties, to the chief inspector of grain at St. Paul or Minneapolis, who will, upon request examine said grain, and adjudge what grade or dockage or both said samples of grain are entitled to under the inspection rules, in his judgment and opinion. If the grain in question is damp, or otherwise out of condition, a pint of such samples placed in an airtight container shall be forwarded with such sample or samples. ('23 c. 114 § 7)

Action for conversion. 161-380, 201+615.

5066. Warehouseman shall keep record—Every public local grain warehouseman shall keep in proper books a record of all grain received, stored or shipped, stating the weight, grade, dockage for dirt or other cause, and the name of the owner. ('23 c. 114 § 8)

('23 c. 114 § 9)

5068. Pooling to be prohibited—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation engaged in the buying, selling or handling of grain in any public local grain warehouse in this state, or for the local agent in charge of such warehouse, or any other agent of the person, firm or corporation, operating the same, to enter into any contract, agreement, combination or understanding, with any other person, firm or corporation, owning or operating any other public local grain warehouse at any railway station, their agent or agents, whereby the amount of grain to be received or handled by said warehouses, at such station, shall be equalized or pooled between said warehouses, or whereby the profits or earnings derived from said warehouses shall be divided or pooled, or apportioned in any manner, or whereby the price to be paid for any kind of grain at such station shall be fixed or in any manner affected, and each day of the continuance of any such agreement, contract or understanding shall constitute a separate offense. ('23 c. 114 § 10)

5069. Penalties for violations—Any person, firm or corporation, or any officer or agent of any person, firm or corporation, who shall violate the provisions of section 10 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than one hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days, or more than three months. The railroad and warehouse commission of this state shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, whenever they find, after a hearing, that the provisions of this act have been violated by any person holding a license to conduct a public local grain warehouse in this state, to revoke and annul such license, and in such case no new license shall be granted to the person whose license is so revoked nor to any one either directly or indirectly engaged with him in said business, for the period of one year. ('23 c. 114 § 11)

5070. Reports to be filed—Every such warehouseman shall on or before the first day of August of each year render such commission on blanks or forms prepared by it an itemized and verified report of all business transacted by him as a public local grain warehouseman during the year beginning July 1st of the preceding year and ending June thirtieth of the current year.

Such report shall state the gross bushels of all grain of various kinds in his warehouse at the beginning of the year, the net bushels and dockage of all grain received, the net bushels and dockage of all grain shipped or delivered from such warehouse and the gross bushels of all grain remaining in the warehouse at the end of the year, and such report shall particularly specify and account for any overage or shortage in any kind of grain accruing during the year; provided, that flour, cereal and feed mills and malshouses, doing a manufacturing business only, shall be only required to render a report showing gross bushels of all grain on hand at beginning of the year, net bushels and dockage of grain received, and gross bushels milled, as well as gross bushels on hand at the end of the year.

All public local grain warehousemen engaged in the handling or sale of any other commodity than grain shall keep an entirely separate account of their grain business and under no circumstances shall their grain account and other accounts be mixed.

The commission may also require special reports from such warehouseman at such times as the commission may deem expedient.

No license shall be reissued to any public local grain warehouseman who fails to make the annual report as required herein.

The commission may cause every such warehouse and the business thereof and the mode of conducting the same to be inspected by one or more of its members or by its authorized agent whenever deemed proper, and the property, books, records, accounts, papers, and proceedings of every such warehouseman shall at all times during business hours be subject to such inspection. The expense incurred by the commission in carrying out the provisions of this section shall be paid out of the state grain inspection fund. ('23 c. 114 § 12)

5071. Warehouseman to be licensed—All public local grain warehousemen, before receiving any grain for storage in any public local warehouse, shall first apply to and secure from the railroad and warehouse commission a grain storage license for such warehouse. All such licenses shall expire on the thirty-first day of August following their issuance. Before any such license is issued to any warehouseman such warehouseman shall file with the commission a bond in such sum as the commission may prescribe, which sum shall not be less than one thousand dollars. Such bonds shall be filed annually and cover the period of the license. Such bonds shall run to the State of Minnesota and be for the benefit of all persons storing grain in such warehouse. They shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the public local grain warehouseman of all of the provisions of law relating to the storage of grain by such warehouseman and the rules and regulations of the said commission relative thereto. The commission is authorized to require such increases in the amount of such bonds from time to time as it may deem necessary for the protection of the storage receipt holders. The surety on such bonds must be a surety company holding a certificate of the insurance commissioner authorizing it to execute the same; provided, that the commission may accept a bond executed by personal sureties, in lieu of a surety company, whenever such bond has attached to it the justification provided for in section 8232, General Statutes of 1913, and an affidavit of the president of a bank in the county in which such local warehouse is situated, who is not interested in such warehouse, stating that such justification is true and correct.

Only one bond need be given for any line of elevators, mills or warehouses owned, controlled or operated by one individual, firm or corporation.

Any warehouseman who shall violate the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the state for each violation the sum of fifty dollars and such violation shall be cause for revocation of license. ('23 c. 114 § 13)

Termination of licenses—All storage contracts on grain in store at public local grain warehouses shall terminate on July 31st of each year, except storage contracts on shelled corn, which shall terminate on March 31st of each year. Storage on any or all such grain may be terminated by the owner at any time before the date mentioned herein by the payment or tender of all legal charges and the surrender of the storage receipt together with a demand for delivery of such grain, or notice to warehouseman to sell the same. In the absence of a demand for delivery, order to sell, or mutual agreement for the renewal of the storage contract entered into prior to the expiration of the storage contract, as prescribed in this act, the warehouseman shall, upon the expiration of the storage contract, sell such stored grain at the local market price on the close of business on that day, deduct from the proceeds thereof all legal accrued charges, and pay the balance of such proceeds to the owner upon surrender of the storage receipt. ('23 c. 114 § 14)

5073. Storage receipt may be renewed—Upon the payment of all legal accrued charges and the return of the storage receipt, the public local grain warehouseman and the storage receipt holder may by mutual consent enter into an agreement for the renewal of such storage. When such renewal is mutually agreed to, the warehouseman shall issue a new storage receipt to the owner and cancel the former receipt by endorsing thereon the words "Cancelled by the issu-

Discrimination prohibited—No public local grain warehouseman, licensed by the commission to store grain, shall discriminate in the charges made or the services rendered to the owners of stored grain, nor shall he discriminate in the receiving of grain offered for storage. ('23 c. 114 § 16)

5075. Must arrange for storage—All grain delivered to public local grain warehousemen shall be considered sold at the time of delivery, unless arrangements shall have been made with such warehousemen prior to or at the time of delivery to apply the same on contract, for shipment or consignment, or for storage. ('23 c. 114 § 17)

5076. Must issue scale tickets—Every public local grain warehouseman, upon receiving grain into his warehouse, shall issue for each load of grain so received, a uniform scale ticket. Such tickets shall be bound in books of convenient size, shall be consecutively numbered and provisions made in said books for at least one carbon copy of each ticket. One carbon copy of each ticket shall not be detached from said book and shall remain in the possession of the warehouseman as a permanent record. The original ticket shall be delivered to the person from whom grain is received upon receipt of each load of such grain. Such tickets shall have printed across the face "This is a memorandum, non-negotiable, possession of which does not signify that settlement has or has not been consummated." Such tickets shall state specifically whether such grain is received on contract, for storage, or for shipment on consignment, or sold. If such grain is received on contract or sold the price shall be indicated on such ticket. All such tickets shall be signed by the warehouseman, or his agent or manager. ('23 c. 114 § 18)

A railway company, being under no legal obligations to grant privilege of building elevator upon right of way, may grant privilege by contract on conditions (98-22, 107+742). Right of way may be used for public elevator (140-442, 168+181).

5100. Acceptance or rejection of offer—Within ten days after the receipt of such application, the operator of such railroad shall notify the applicant in writing of his acceptance or rejection of the compensation offered. ment or tender of the compensation, the applicant shall thereupon be entitled to the site described. (2108) [4508]

5101. Proceedings on rejection—If the offer be rejected, and the parties fail to agree on compensation, the applicant may present to and file in the district court of the county a verified petition, setting forth the making of the application, with a copy thereof, the compensation offered, its rejection, and the failure of the parties to agree. The court shall thereupon by order fix a time and place for hearing such petition, not more than thirty days from its presentation. Such order shall be served as a summons in said court is served, at least twenty days before the time set for such hearing, which service shall give the court jurisdiction of both person and property. (2109) [4509] 65-515, 68+208.

5103. Appeal—Either party may appeal as from a judgment in a civil action within thirty days from the entry of judgment; but such appeal shall not stay the right of the petitioner to use the site designated, if the petitioner shall give bond with sureties approved by the court, in double the gross sum or annual rental fixed by the judgment, conditioned to pay such sum or rental, and abide and satisfy any judgment the supreme court may render in the premises. (2111) [4511]

5104. Costs—If the amount fixed by the final judgment be more than that offered in the application, the respondent shall recover costs and disbursements as in a civil action; otherwise, the petitioner. (2112) [4512]

5105. Abandonment—If the compensation, as finally fixed or agreed upon, be not paid within thirty days after the amount is finally settled, or if the applicant shall not begin the erection of such warehouse within two months, and complete the same and open it for business as a public warehouse within five months, after designation of the site, the application shall be deemed abandoned. (2113) [4513]

5106. Railroad rights of way usable for warehouses, etc.—Any person, firm or corporation shall have the right to use as a site for a public elevator, warehouse, coal shed, ice house, buying station, selling station, or weighing scales or other instrumentalities for weighing live stock, or use ground space, for receiving, storing or distributing any article of commerce, transported or to be transported, a proper portion of the right of way of any railroad within the outside switches at any station or siding upon the payment of reasonable compensation therefor. ('21, c. 140, § 1; amended '25, c. 177, § 1)

5107. Same—Procedure upon disagreement with railroad—Any such person, firm or corporation desiring to construct, operate or use a public elevator, warehouse, coal shed, ice house, buying station, selling station, or weighing scales or other instrumentalities for weighing live stock, or use ground space for receiving, storing or distributing any article of commerce transported or to be transported, or to continue the use and operation of any such buildings, structures, instrumentalities or ground space where the same are already constructed or used, upon such right of way of any railroad, if unable to agree with the person, firm or corporation operating such railroad upon the site for such buildings, structures, instrumentalities and ground space, or the compensation to be paid therefore, may file a verified complaint with the Railroad and Warehouse Commission setting forth the facts and requesting the commission to establish the location of the site for such buildings, structure, instrumentalities and ground space or the compensation to be paid therefor, or both, as the case may be. Such complaint shall be served upon such railroad company and twenty days, exclusive of the day of such service, shall be allowed for answer. After the time for answering has expired the Commission shall fix the time and place for hearing and give at least ten days' notice thereof to both parties. ('21, c. 140, § 2; amended '25, c. 177, § 2)

5108. Hearing—Order—That the hearing shall be held pursuant to such notice and thereafter the Commission, if it finds that the complainant is entitled thereto, may make an order establishing the location of the site for such buildings, structures, instrumentalities and ground space, at a suitable place within the outside switches at any station or siding, and fixing the reasonable annual compensation to be paid therefor. Where such buildings, structures, instrumentalities and ground space are already established or used upon such right of way and the compensation therefor is not fixed by order of the Commission or by contract, the Commission may fix the reasonable compensation to be paid for the occupation thereof. ('21 c. 140 § 3)

5109. Chap. 490, G. L. 1919 repealed—That Chapter 490 of the General Laws 1919, be, and the same is hereby repealed. ('21 c. 140 § 4) 147-313, 180+114.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS.

PART I. THE ISSUE OF WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS

5110. Persons who may issue receipts—Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman. ('13 c. 161 § 1) [4514]

5111. Form of receipts—Essential terms—Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms:

- (a) The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored,
- (b) The date of issue of the receipt,
- (c) The consecutive number of the receipt.
- (d) A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order.
- (e) The rate of storage charges,
- (f) A description of the goods or of the packages containing them,
- (g) The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent,
- (h) If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and
- (i) In the case of a negotiable receipt, a statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien.

If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damages caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the terms herein required. ('13 c. 161 § 2) [4515]

150-470, 185+511.

5112. Form of receipts—What terms may be inserted—A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not:

(a) Be contrary to the provisions of this act.

(b) In any wise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safe-keeping of the goods entrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own. ('13 c. 161 § 3) [4516]

5113. Definition of non-negotiable receipt—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a non-negotiable receipt. ('13 c. 161 § 4) [4517]

5114. Definition of negotiable receipt—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such receipt is a negotiable receipt.

No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that it is non-negotiable. Such provision, if inserted, shall be void. ('13 c. 161 § 5) [4518]

5115. Duplicate receipts must be so marked—When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damage caused by his failure so to do to any one who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt. ('13 c. 161 § 6) [4519]

5116. Failure to mark "not negotiable"—A non-negotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it "non-negotiable," or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable.

This section shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda, or written acknowledgments of an informal character. ('13 c. 161 § 7) [4520]

PART II. OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS OF WAREHOUSEMEN UPON THEIR RECEIPTS.

5117. Obligation of warehouseman to deliver—A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by this act, is bound to deliver the goods upon a written demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with:

(a) An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien,

(b) An offer to surrender the receipt if negotiable, with such indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt, and

(c) A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is requested by the warehouseman.

In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a written demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal. ('13 c. 161 § 8) [4521]

5118. Justification of warehouseman in delivering—A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods, subject to the provisions of the three following sections, to one who is:

(a) The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or his agent,

(b) A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the terms of a non-negotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has written authority from the person so entitled either indorsed upon the receipt or written upon another paper, or

(c) A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to him or order or to bearer, or which has been endorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his immediate or immediate indorsee. ('13 c. 161 § 9) [4522]

5119. Warehouseman's liability for misdelivery—Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by subdivisions (b) and (c) of the preceding section and though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subdivisions he shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either

(a) Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled to a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery, or

(b) Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods. ('13 c. 161 § 10) [4523]

5120. Negotiable receipts must be cancelled when goods delivered—Except as provided in section 36 [5145], where a warehouseman delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver the goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman. ('13 c. 161 § 11) [4524]

5121. Negotiable receipts must be canceled or marked when part of goods delivered—Except as provided in section 36 [5145], where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon it a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered he shall be liable, to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman. ('13 c. 161 § 12) [4525]

5122. Altered receipts—The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was

- (a) Immaterial,
- (b) Authorized, or
- (c) Made without fraudulent intent.

If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration.

Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase. ('13 c. 161 § 13) [4526]

5123. Lost or destroyed receipts—Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person injured by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section, shall not relieve the warehouseman from liability to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods. ('13 c. 161 § 14) [4527]

5124. Effect of duplicate receipts—A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability. ('13 c. 161 § 15) [4528]

5125. Warehouseman cannot set up title in himself—No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt. ('13 c. 161 § 16) [4529]

5126. Interpleader of adverse claimants—If more than one person claims the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for non-delivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead. ('13 c. 161 § 17) [4530]

5127. Warehouseman has reasonable time to determine validity of claims—If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to the adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead. ('13 c. 161 § 18) [4531]

5128. Adverse title is no defense except as above provided—Except as provided in the two preceding sections and in sections 9 and 36 [5118, 5145], no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt. ('13 c. 161 § 19) [4532]

5129. Liability for non-existence or misdescription of goods—A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt for damages caused by the non-existence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that the packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor. ('13 c. 161 § 20) [4533]

5130. Liability for care of goods—A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful owner of similar goods would exercise, but he shall not be liable, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, for any loss or injury to the goods which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care. ('13 c. 161 § 21) [4534]
122-453, 142+727.

5131. Goods must be kept separate—Except as provided in the following section, a warehouseman shall keep the goods so far separate from goods of other depositors, and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and re-delivery of the goods deposited. ('13 c. 161 § 22) [4535]

5132. Fungible goods may be commingled, if warehouseman authorized—If authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible goods with other goods of the same kind and grade. In such case the various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common and each depositor shall be entitled to such portion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole. ('13 c. 161 § 23) [4536]

5133. Liability of warehouseman to depositors of commingled goods—The warehouseman shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and re-delivery of his share of such mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate. ('13 c. 161 § 24) [4537]

5134. Attachment or levy upon goods for which a negotiable receipt has been issued—If goods are delivered to a warehouseman by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they cannot thereafter, while in the possession of the warehouseman, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouseman, or its negotiation enjoined. The warehouseman shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to him or impounded by the court. ('13 c. 161 § 25) [4538]

5135. Creditors' remedies to reach negotiable receipts—A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable receipt shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction and otherwise, in attaching such receipt or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity, in regard to property which cannot readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process. ('13 c. 161 § 26) [4539]

5136. What claims are included in the warehouseman's lien—Subject to the provisions of section 30 [5139], a warehouseman shall have a lien on goods deposited or on the proceeds thereof in his hands, for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods; also for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, coopering and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; also for all reasonable charges and expenses for notice, and advertisements of sale, and for sale of the goods where default has been made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien. ('13 c. 161 § 27) [4540]

5137. Against what property the lien may be enforced—Subject to the provisions of section 30 [5139], a warehouseman's lien may be enforced:

(a) Against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted, and

(b) Against all goods belonging to others which have been deposited at any time by the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted if such person had been so entrusted with the possession of the goods that a pledge of the same by him at the time of the deposit to one who took the goods in good faith for value would have been valid. ('13 c. 161 § 28) [4541]

5138. How the lien may be lost—A warehouseman loses his lien upon goods:

(a) By surrendering possession thereof, or

(b) By refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this act. ('13 c. 161 § 29) [4542]

5139. Negotiable receipt must state charges for which lien is claimed—If a negotiable receipt is issued for goods, the warehouseman shall have no lien thereon, except for charges for storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of section 27 [5136], although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt. ('13 c. 161 § 30) [4543]

5140. Warehouseman need not deliver until lien is satisfied—A warehouseman having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied. ('13 c. 161 § 31) [4544]

5141. Warehouseman's lien does not preclude other remedies—Whether a warehouseman has or has not a lien upon the goods, he is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouseman to pay. ('13 c. 161 § 32) [4545]

5142. Satisfaction of lien by sale—A warehouse-man's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows:

The warehouseman shall give a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods. Such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known place of business or abode of the person to be notified. The notice shall contain:

(a) An itemized statement of the warehouseman's claim, showing the sum due at the time of the notice and the date or dates when it became due,

(b) A brief description of the goods against which the lien exists,

(c) A demand that the amount of the claim as stated in the notice, and of such further claim as shall accrue, shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than ten days from the delivery of the notice if it is personally delivered, or from the time when the notice should reach its destination, according to the due course of post, if the notice is sent by mail, and

(d) A statement that unless the claim is paid within the time specified the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

In accordance with the terms of a notice so given, a sale of the goods by auction may be had to satisfy any valid claim of the warehouseman for which he has a lien on the goods. The sale shall be had in the place where the lien was acquired, or, if such place is manifestly unsuitable for the purpose, at the nearest suitable place. After the time for the payment of the claim specified in the notice to the depositor has elapsed, an advertisement of the sale, describing the goods to be sold, and stating the name of the owner or person on whose account the goods are held, and the time and place of the sale, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the place where such sale is to be held. The sale shall not be held less than fifteen days from the time of the first publication. If there is no newspaper published in such place, the advertisement shall be posted at least ten days before such sale in not less than six conspicuous places therein.

From the proceeds of such sale the warehouseman shall satisfy his lien, including the reasonable charges of notice, advertisement and sale. The balance, if any, of such proceeds shall be held by the warehouseman, and delivered on demand to the person to whom he would have been bound to deliver or justified in delivering the goods.

At any time before the goods are so sold any person claiming a right of property or possession therein may pay the warehouseman the amount necessary to satisfy his lien and to pay the reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred in serving notices and advertising and preparing for the sale up to the time of such payment. The warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person making such payment if he is a person entitled, under the provisions of this act, to the possession of the goods on payment of charges thereon. Otherwise the warehouseman shall retain possession of the goods according to the terms of the original contract of deposit.

(e) The warehouseman, his representatives or assigns, may fairly and in good faith purchase any property sold under the provisions of this act, provided that the sale is conducted by the sheriff or his deputy, or by any constable of the county where such sale is made. ('13 c. 161 § 33) [4546]

5143. Perishable and hazardous goods—If goods are of a perishable nature, or by keeping will deteriorate greatly in value, or by their odor, leakage, inflammability, or explosive nature, will be liable to injure other property, the warehouseman may give such notice to the owner, or to the person in whose name the goods are stored, as is reasonable and possible under the circumstances, to satisfy the lien upon such goods, and to remove them from the warehouse, and in the event of the failure of such person to satisfy the lien and to remove the goods within the time so specified, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertising. If the warehouseman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell such goods, he may dispose of them in any lawful manner, and shall incur no liability by reason thereof.

The proceeds of any sale made under the terms of this section shall be disposed of in the same way as the proceeds of sales made under the terms of the preceding section. ('13 c. 161 § 34) [4547]

5144. Other methods of enforcing liens—The remedy for enforcing a lien herein provided does not preclude any other remedies allowed by law for the enforcement of a lien against personal property nor bar the right to recover so much of the warehouseman's claim as shall not be paid by the proceeds of the sale of the property. ('13 c. 161 § 35) [4548]

5145. Effect of sale—After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien, or have been lawfully sold or disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature, the warehouseman shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the depositor, or owner of the goods, or to a holder of the receipt given for the goods when they were deposited, even if such receipt be negotiable. ('13 c. 161 § 36) [4549]

PART III. NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER OF RECEIPTS

5146. Negotiation of negotiable receipts by delivery—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by delivery:

(a) Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer, or

(b) Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the receipt has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

Where, by the terms of a negotiable receipt, the goods are deliverable to bearer, or where a negotiable receipt has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the receipt shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee. ('13 c. 161 § 37) [4550]

5147. Negotiation of negotiable receipts by indorsement—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are, by the terms of the receipt, deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner. ('13 c. 161 § 38) [4551]

5148. Transfer of receipts—A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee.

A non-negotiable receipt cannot be negotiated, and the indorsement of such receipt gives the transferee no additional right. ('13 c. 161 § 39) [4552]

5149. Who may negotiate a receipt—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated:

(a) By the owner thereof; or

(b) By any person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been entrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been entrusted, or if at the time of such entrusting the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery. ('13 c. 161 § 40) [4553]

5150. Rights of person to whom a receipt has been negotiated—A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

(a) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and

(b) The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him. ('13 c. 161 § 41) [4554]

If the receipt is non-negotiable such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt.

Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferor or transferee of a non-negotiable receipt, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor. ('13 c. 161 § 42) [4555]

5152. Transfer of negotiable receipt without indorsement—Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the receipt, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made. ('13 c. 161 § 43) [4556]

5153. Warranties on sale of receipt—A person who for value negotiates or transfers a receipt by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a receipt, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

(a) That the receipt is genuine,

(b) That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it,

(c) That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt, and

(d) That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a receipt the goods represented thereby. ('13 c. 161 § 44) [4557]

146-109, 177+1021.

5154. Indorser not a guarantor—The indorsement of a receipt shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the warehouseman or previous indorsers of the receipt to fulfil their respective obligations. ('13 c. 161 § 45) [4558]

5155. No warranty implied from accepting payment of a debt—A mortgagee, pledgee or holder for security of a receipt who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not by so doing be deemed to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such receipt or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described. ('13 c. 161 § 46) [4559]

5156. When negotiation not impaired by fraud, mistake or duress—The validity of the negotiation of a receipt is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the receipt was induced by fraud, mistake or duress to entrust the possession or custody of the receipt to such person, if the person to whom the receipt was negotiated, or a person to whom the receipt was subsequently negotiated, paid value therefor, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake or duress. ('13 c. 161 § 47) [4560]

5157. Subsequent negotiation—Where a person having sold, mortgaged or pledged goods which are in a warehouse and for which a negotiable receipt has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged or pledged the negotiable receipt representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable receipt, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, mortgage or pledge, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or receipt had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation. ('13 c. 161 § 48) [4561]

5158. Negotiation defeats vendor's lien—Where a negotiable receipt has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such receipt has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the warehouseman who issued such receipt of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the warehouseman be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller unless the receipt is first surrendered for cancellation. ('13 c. 161 § 49) [4562]

PART IV. CRIMINAL OFFENSES

5159. Issue of receipt for goods not received—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a receipt knowing that the goods for which such receipt is issued have not been actually received by such warehouseman, or are not under his actual control at the time of issuing such receipt, shall be guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. ('13 c. 161 § 50) [4563]

5161. Issue of duplicate receipts not so marked—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for goods knowing that a former negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, without plainly placing upon the face thereof the word "duplicate" except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt after proceedings as provided for in section 14 [5123], shall be guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. ('13 c. 161 § 52) [4565]

5162. Issue for warehouseman's goods of receipts which do not state that fact—Where there are deposited with or held by a warehouseman goods of which he is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, such warehouseman, or any of his officers, agents or servants who, knowing this ownership, issues or aids in issuing a negotiable receipt for such goods which does not state such ownership, shall be guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both. ('13 c. 161 § 53) [4566]

5163. Delivery of goods without obtaining negotiable receipt—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman who delivers goods out of the possession of such warehouseman, knowing that a negotiable receipt the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of such goods is outstanding and uncanceled, without obtaining the possession of such receipt at or before the time of such delivery, shall, except in the cases provided for in sections 14 and 36 [5123, 5145], be found guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both. ('13 c. 161 § 54) [4567]

5164. Negotiation of receipt for mortgaged goods—Any person who deposits goods to which he has not title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage, and who takes for such goods a negotiable receipt which he afterwards negotiates for value with intent to deceive and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of the lien or mortgage shall be guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both. ('13 c. 161 § 55) [4568]

5184. Filing schedule of rates—Every warehouseman shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open for public inspection a schedule of rates. The commission may determine and prescribe the form in which the schedules required by this act to be filed with the commission and to be kept open for public inspection, shall be prepared and arranged, and may change the form from time to time if it shall be found expedient; and no warehouseman shall undertake to perform any service, or store any goods, wares or merchandise, unless or until such schedule of rates has been filed and published in accordance with the provisions of this act; provided, that in case of emergency, a service or storage not specifically covered by the schedules filed, may be performed or furnished at a reasonable rate, which rate shall forthwith be filed and shall be subject to review in accordance with the provisions of this act. ('15 c. 210 § 13)

5185. Change of rates—Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change shall be made by any warehouseman, in any rate except after thirty days' notice to the commission and to the public as herein provided. Such notice shall be given by filing with the commission and keeping open for public inspection, new schedules or supplements stating plainly the change or changes to be made in the schedule or schedules then in force and the time when the change or changes will go into effect. The commission for good cause shown, may, after hearing, allow changes without requiring the thirty days' notice herein provided for by an order specifying the changes so to be made and the time when they shall take effect and the manner in which they shall be filed and published. ('15 c. 210 § 14)

5186. Charging more or less than the published rate—Except as specified in Sections 13 and 14, no warehouseman shall have, demand, collect or receive, a greater or less or different compensation for any service rendered or for storing any goods, or wares, or merchandise, than the rate or rates applicable to such service or storage, as specified in the schedules on file and in effect at the time.

Provided, nevertheless, that when a warehouseman shall have had goods in store for such a period that the storage charges thereon accumulated are more than such goods would bring at a forced sale, the commission, upon written application and proof thereof, may authorize such warehousemen to compromise such charges for a sum not less than the amount which such goods would bring at such forced sale. ('15 c. 210 § 15)

5187. Discrimination in rates, etc.—Except as herein otherwise specified, no warehouseman, or any officer, agent or employe thereof, shall directly or indirectly by remittance, rebate, or any device, inducement or other means whatsoever, suffer or permit any corporation or person to obtain any service, or the storage of any goods, wares or merchandise, at less than the rate or rates then established and in force as shown by the schedule filed and in effect at the time. No person or corporation shall directly or indirectly by any device, inducement or means whatsoever, either with or without the consent or connivance of a warehouseman or any of the officers, agents or employes thereof, obtain or seek to obtain, any service, or the storage of any goods, wares or merchandise, at less than the rate or rates then established and in force therefor. Any warehouseman or the officers, agents or employes thereof, or any person acting for or employed by it, or transacting business with it, or any other person who shall violate any provision of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be subject to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or to a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both. ('15 c. 210 § 16)

5188. Commission to fix rates and regulations—Whenever the commission, after a hearing upon its own motion, or upon complaint, shall find that the rate or rates demanded, observed, charged or collected by any warehouseman, for any service or storage of goods, wares, merchandise, or in connection with such service or storage, are unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory, preferential, or in anywise in violation of any provision of law, the commission shall determine the just and reasonable rate or rates to be thereafter effective and in force, in such warehouse, and shall fix the same by an order, which shall also determine when such rate or rates shall go into effect. Before making any order under the provisions of this section, the warehouseman shall have an opportunity to be heard upon reasonable notice to be determined by the commission. ('15 c. 210 § 17)

5189. Obligation to obtain license—Every warehouseman shall be licensed annually by and shall be under the supervision and subject to the inspection of the commission. Written application, under oath in such form as shall be prescribed by the commission, shall be made to the commission for license, specifying the city in which it is proposed to carry on the business of warehousing, the location, size, character and equipment of the building or buildings or premises to be used by the said warehouseman, the kind of goods, wares and merchandise intended to be stored therein, the name of the person or corporation operating the same, and of each member of the firm or officer of the corporation, and any other facts necessary to satisfy the commission that the property proposed to be used is suitable for warehouse purposes, and that the warehouseman making the application is qualified to carry on the business of warehousing. Should the commission decide that the building or other property proposed to be used as a warehouse is suitable for the proposed purpose, and that the applicant or applicants are entitled to a license, notice of such decision shall be given the interested parties, and upon the applicant or applicants filing with the commission the necessary bond, as provided for in this act, the commission shall issue the license provided for, upon payment of the license fee, as in this section provided. A warehouseman to whom a license is issued shall pay for such license a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). Such license may be renewed from year to year, but shall never be valid for a period of more than one year, and always upon payment of the full license fee, as provided for in this section for such renewal; provided, that no license shall be issued for any portion of a year for less than the full amount of the license fee, as provided for in this section. Each license obtained under this act shall be publicly displayed in the main office of the place of business of the warehouseman to whom it is issued. Such license shall authorize the warehouseman to carry on the business of warehousing only in the one city named in said application, and in the buildings therein described. But the commission, without requiring an additional bond and license, may issue permits from time to time to any warehouseman already duly licensed under the provisions of this act, to operate an additional warehouse or warehouses in the same city for which his original license was issued during the term thereof, upon his filing an application for such permit, and in such form as shall be prescribed by the commission.

Licenses and permits may be revoked by the commission for violation of law, or of any rule or regulation by it prescribed, upon notice and hearing. A license may be refused to any warehouseman whose license has been revoked during the preceding year. ('15 c. 210 § 18)

commission as provided for in this act, shall file with the commission, and acceptable to the commission, a surety bond to the State of Minnesota. Such bonds shall be in the amount of $50,000.00 for warehousemen operating in cities of the first class, and in an amount to be determined by the commission as reasonable for warehousemen in cities and villages subject to this act other than in cities of the first class, said bonds to be conditioned for the faithful discharge of all duties as a warehouseman operating under this Act, and full compliance with the laws of the state and rules, regulations and orders of the commission relative thereto. ('15, c. 210, § 19; amended '27, c. 360)

5191. Penalty for transacting business without a license—Any person or persons who shall transact the business of a warehouseman as defined in this act, except for the purpose of winding up the same under the supervision of the commission, without first procuring a license and giving a bond as provided for in this act, and any licensed warehouseman who shall operate any warehouse without obtaining the permit herein provided for, or who shall continue to transact such business after such license has expired, or such bond may have become void or found insufficient security for the penal sum in which it is executed, by the commission approving the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not less than $100 nor more than $500 for each and every day such business is carried on before said license or permit, as the case may be, is issued or after the expiration of such license or permit, or after receiving notice from the commission that such bond has become void or has been found insufficient security; and the operation of such warehouseman may be enjoined, upon complaint of the commission, before a court of competent jurisdiction. ('15 c. 210 § 20)

5192. Proceedings before the commission—How commenced—Proceedings before the commission against any warehouseman, shall be instituted by complaint, verified as pleadings in a civil action, stating in ordinary language the facts constituting the alleged omission or offenses. The parties to such proceedings shall be termed, respectively, "Complainant" and "Respondent." ('15 c. 210 § 21)

5193. Notice to respondent—Upon filing such complaint, if there appear reasonable grounds for investigating such matter, the commission shall issue an order, directed to such warehouseman, requiring him to grant the relief demanded, or show cause by answer within 20 days from the service of such notice, why such relief should not be granted. Such order, together with a copy of the complaint, shall forthwith be served upon the respondent. ('15 c. 210 § 22)

5194. Answer—The respondent may file and serve by mail, upon the complainant within 20 days after the service of the order, an answer alleging that it has already granted the relief demanded, or setting up any matter of defense. If the answer alleges the granting of the relief, the complainant shall within 20 days reply, admitting or denying such allegation. If he fails to reply, or admits the allegation, the proceeding shall be dismissed. ('15 c. 210 § 23)

5195. Hearing—If the matter be not adjusted to the satisfaction of the commission, it shall set a time and place of hearing, and give at least ten days' notice thereof to each party. The parties shall appear either in person or by attorney. The commission shall hear evidence and otherwise investigate the matter and shall make findings of fact upon all matters involved, and such order or recommendation in the premises as may be just. A copy of such findings and order or recommendation, shall forthwith be served upon each party. No proceeding shall be dismissed on account of want of pecuniary interest in the complainant. ('15 c. 210 § 24)

5196. Notice and orders—Service—All notices and orders in proceedings before the commission shall be signed by the secretary. Service may be made of all notices, orders or other papers provided for in this act, by mail, upon any person or firm, or upon the president, general manager or other proper executive officer of any corporation interested. If any party has appeared by attorney such service shall be made upon such attorney. ('15 c. 210 § 25)

5197. Witnesses—The commission in any hearing or investigation, may require the attendance of any witnesses and the production of any books, papers or records. Witnesses shall receive the same fees and mileage as in civil actions. The disobedience of any subpoena in such proceedings, or contumacy of any witness, may, upon application of the commission, be punished by any district court in the same manner as if the proceedings were pending in such court. ('15 c. 210 § 26)

5198. Complaint that rate is unreasonable—Duty of commission—Upon verified complaint of any person or of any corporation that any rates are unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory, preferential or in any way in violation of law, the commission shall proceed to investigate the matters alleged in such complaint, and for the purposes of such investigation they may require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents. If, upon the hearing, such rates are found to be unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory, preferential or in any way in violation of law, the commission shall make an order, stating wherein the same are so unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory, preferential or in any way in violation of law, and shall make a rate or rates which shall be substituted for that or those so complained of. Rates so made by the commission shall be deemed prima facie reasonable in all courts, and shall be in full force during the pendency of any appeal or other proceedings to review the action of the commission in establishing the same. ('15 c. 210 § 27)

5199. Investigation without complaint—Notice—The commission shall also, upon its own motion, investigate any matter relating to the management by any warehouseman of his business, or the reasonableness of all rates whenever in its judgment the public interest so requires. If any such rates are found unreasonable or discriminatory, the commission shall find what is reasonable under the circumstances, and may make new schedules of any or all rates under consideration in such investigation, and its own order shall fix the date when such rates shall go into effect. Before making any order under the provisions of this section, the warehouseman shall have an opportunity to be heard upon such notice as the commission shall deem reasonable. The rates established under the proceedings instituted under this section, shall be in force during the pendency of any appeal or other proceedings to review the action of the commission. ('15 c. 210 § 28)

5200. Appeals to the district court—Any party to a proceeding before the commission, or any party affected by any order thereof, may appeal therefrom to the district court of the county in which the principal place of business of the respondent is located, or in case the order is made in a proceeding commenced by the commission on its own motion without complaint, to the district court of any county in which the warehouseman has his principal place of business, at any time within thirty days after service of a copy of such order on the parties of record, as in this act provided, by service of a written notice of appeal, on said commission, or on its secretary. Upon service of said notice of appeal, said commission, by its secretary, shall forthwith file with the clerk of said district court, to which said appeal is taken, a certified copy of the order appealed from, together with the findings of fact on which the same is based. ('15 c. 210 § 29)

5201. Proceedings on appeal—Orders not appealed from—The appellant serving such notice of appeal shall, within five days after service thereof, file the same with proof of service, with a clerk of the court to which said appeal is taken, and thereupon said district court shall have jurisdiction over said appeal, and the same shall be tried therein, according to the rules relating to a trial of civil actions, so far as the same are applicable. The complainant before the commission, if there is one (otherwise the State of Minnesota), shall be designated as the complainant in the district court, and the warehouseman as the defendant. No further pleadings than those filed before the commission shall be necessary. Such findings of fact shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated, and the order shall be prima facie reasonable, and the burden of proof upon all issues raised by the appeal shall be on the appellant. If said court shall determine that the order appealed from is lawful and reasonable, it shall be affirmed, and the order enforced as provided by law. If it shall be determined that the order is unlawful or unreasonable, it shall be vacated and set aside. Such appeal shall not supersede the order appealed from, unless the court, upon an examination of said order and the return made on said appeal, and after giving the respondent notice and opportunity to be heard, shall so direct. If such appeal is not taken, such order shall be final, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the warehouseman affected, to adopt and publish the rates therein prescribed, and abide the order of the commission. When no appeal is taken from an order, as herein provided, the parties affected by such order shall be deemed to have waived the right to have the merits of such controversy reviewed by a court, and there shall be no trial of the merits or re-examination of the facts of any controversy in which said order was made, by any district court to which application may be made for the writ to enforce the same. ('15 c. 210 § 30)

5202. Failure to obey order or law—Whenever any warehouseman shall fail to obey any law of this state, or any order of the commission, the commission may, upon verified petition alleging such failure, apply to the district court of the county in which said warehouseman has his principal place of business, for the enforcement of such law, or order, or other appropriate relief. The court, upon such notice as it may direct, shall hear such matter as in case of an appeal from an order. On such hearing, the findings of fact upon which such order is based shall be prima facie evidence of the merits therein stated, and the court may grant any provisional or other relief, ordinary or extraordinary, legal and equitable, which the nature of the case may require, and may impose a fine of not more than $50 for each day's failure to obey any writ, process or order of the court, in addition to all other penalties or forfeitures provided by law. A temporary mandatory or restraining order may be made in such proceedings, notwithstanding any undetermined issue of fact, upon such terms as to security as the court may direct. ('15 c. 210 § 31)

5203. Trial—The district court shall be deemed always open for all civil proceedings under this act, and any such proceedings may be brought to trial in any county in the judicial district where the same are pending, and shall take precedence over all other matters except criminal cases. Except when there is a constitutional right to a trial by jury, not expressly waived, all such proceedings shall be tried summarily by the court. ('15 c. 210 § 32)

5204. Incriminating questions—In any proceedings under this act or any law relating to warehousemen, the court, at its discretion, may require a witness to answer any question, although his answer may tend to convict him of a crime, but no person so compelled to answer shall thereafter be liable to any prosecution for such crime.

In any proceedings in district court under the provisions of this act, or any law relating to warehousemen, either by appeal or otherwise, the court may order the payment by either party of such counsel fees and disbursements, as it deems just and reasonable. ('15 c. 210 § 33)

5205. Proceedings in the name of the state—All acts or proceedings instituted by the Railroad and Warehouse Commission under this act shall be brought in the name of the state, and shall be prosecuted by the attorney general.

Appeal to the supreme court—Any party to an appeal or other proceeding in district court, under the provisions of this act, may appeal from the final judgment or from any final order therein, in the same cases and manner as in civil actions. The appeal may be filed in the supreme court before or during any term thereof, and shall be immediately entered on the calendar and heard, upon such notice as the court may prescribe. ('15 c. 210 § 34)

5206. Action on bond in the name of the state—When any one licensed to do business as a public warehouseman fails to perform his duty, or violates any of the provisions of this act, any person, persons or corporations injured by such failure or violation may, with the consent of the commission, and the attorney general, bring an action in the name of the state, but to his or their own use, in any court of competent jurisdiction on the bond of such warehouseman. In such action the person, persons or corporation in whose behalf the action is brought shall file with the court a satisfactory bond for costs, and the state shall not be liable for any costs. ('15 c. 210 § 35)

5207. Persons violating act or order—Penalty—Any warehouseman and each person, who, either individually, or acting as an officer, agent or employe of a warehouseman, violates or fails to comply with any provisions of this act, or fails to observe, obey or comply with any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction or requirement, or any part or portion thereof of the commission, made or issued under authority of this act, or who procures, aids or abets any warehouseman in his violation of this act, or in his failure to observe, obey or comply with this act, or any such order, decision, rule, regulation, direction or requirement, or any part or portion thereof, in a case in which a penalty is not otherwise provided for in this act, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Each violation of the provisions of this act, or of any order, decision, rule, regulation, direction or requirement of the commission, or any part or portion thereof, by any warehouseman, is a separate and distinct offense.

In construing and enforcing the provisions of this act, relating to penalties, the act, omission or failure of any officer, agent or employe of any warehouseman, acting within the scope of his official duties or employment, shall in each case be and be deemed to be the act, omission or failure of such warehouseman. ('15 c. 210 § 36)

5208. Saving clauses—Constitutionality—If any section, subdivision, sentence or clause of this act is for any reason held invalid or to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this act. ('15 c. 210 § 37)

5209. Technical omissions not to invalidate acts of commission—A substantial compliance with the requirements of this act shall be sufficient to give effect to all the acts, orders, decisions, rules and regulations of the commission, and they shall not be declared inoperative, illegal or void, for any omission of a technical nature in respect thereto. ('15 c. 210 § 38)

All scales at such hay tracks shall be under the control of state weighmasters and subject to inspection by them, exempt from the jurisdiction of sealers of weights and measures. They shall be inspected at the request of any person interested in any hay or straw to be weighed thereon. If found incorrect the cost of inspection shall be paid by the owner thereof; otherwise by the person requesting inspection. No scales found incorrect shall be used until re-examined and found correct. ('05 c. 196 § 6) [4581]

5216. Rules and regulations—The commission shall adopt all necessary rules and regulations for the weighing and inspecting of hay and straw at such terminal points. ('05 c. 196 § 7) [4582]

The bonds given by such weighers and inspectors of hay and straw shall straw so weighed or inspected, and whenever such hay and straw is in transit the said charges shall be considered as advance charges, to be paid by the common carrier in whose possession the same is at the time of weighing or inspecting. All money so collected, and all fines and penalties for violation of any of the provisions of this act, shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the Grain Inspection Fund, and paid out on order of the Commission and Auditor's warrant. ('05 c. 196 § 15, amended '21 c. 11 § 1) [4590]

5225. Duty of inspectors—Certificate—Such inspectors shall inspect all hay and straw shipped to any such public hay tracks and give a certificate of the inspecting to the person entitled thereto. Their decisions shall be conclusive as to the grade of such hay or straw, and the certificate shall be evidence thereof, unless changed upon reinspecting or appeal, in which case the final certificate shall be conclusive. ('05 c. 196 § 16) [4591]

('05 c. 196 § 17) [4592]

5227. Duty of weighers—Record—All weighers of hay and straw provided for by this act shall be required to make true weights under the penalties hereinbefore provided, and in addition thereto shall keep a correct record of all weighing done by them at the hay tracks where they are stationed, in which record shall be entered an accurate account of all hay, straw or other property weighed, or the weighing of which was supervised by them or their assistants, giving the amount of each weight, the number of the car or cars weighed, if any, the initial letter of said car or cars weighed, where weighed, date of weighing and contents of car.
