PREFACE

The 1936 Supplement to Mason's Minnesota Statutes makes its appearance to simplify the work of the Minnesota lawyer in his use of the Minnesota Statutes. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927, in two volumes and this Supplement, constitute a complete presentation of the Minnesota law down to the close of the 1935-36 special session of the Legislature.

This Supplement obviates the use of the 1929, 1931, 1933, 1935 General Sessions and the 1933-34, 1935-36 Special Session Laws by combining, under one cover, six session laws, ten years of annotation pamphlets, the state and federal court rules, and a complete set of conveyancing forms.

The annotations cover the period which has elapsed since the publication of Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927, and are derived from the U. S. Supreme Court Reports, the Federal Reporter, the Minnesota Reports and the Opinions of the Attorney General.

The ninety-three standard conveyancing forms provided by Laws 1931, Chap. 272, have been incorporated in this Supplement as Appendix No. 1.

Laws of a temporary or local nature, as well as City Charters and Municipal Ordinances, which could not be properly included in a general statute but which are the subject of litigation, are annotated in Appendices Nos. 2 and 3.

The Rules of the Minnesota Supreme Court and District courts, and the United States District, Circuit and Supreme Courts are brought to date in Appendix No. 4.

Stalland's Minnesota Curative Acts is brought to date by Appendix No. 5.

The table of Statutes indicates the disposition of the various laws contained in this Supplement.

By means of this Supplement and the quarterly continuation service Dunnell's Digest is kept to date. This is accomplished by annotating each current decision to the digest. If you wish to run to date a particular section in Dunnell's Digest turn to the "Table of References to Dunnell's Digest" beginning on page 1125, and that table will direct you from the Dunnell section which you have in mind to the section of this Supplement where later cases are to be found.

The index is complete in its scope, not only directing you to the subject matter of the statutes contained herein, but also to the common law decisions which have been set forth at the end of appropriate chapters.

The statute of limitations is a defense, and must be asserted on the trial by the defendant in criminal cases in the courts of the state where the offense is alleged to have been committed. State v. Johnson, 184M309, 238 NW490. See Dun. Dig. 3713.

When the extradition papers are in proper form and properly authenticated, substantially charging the person demanded with a crime, the only question for consideration on habeas corpus hearing is whether or not the accused was within the demanding state when the crime is alleged to have been committed. State v. Johnson, 184M309, 238NW490. See Dun. Dig. 3713.

Law providing for sale of products of Minnesota state prison to residents of Minnesota at a lower price than to residents of another state does not contravene the privileges and immunities clause of the federal constitution. Op. Atty. Gen., Feb. 10, 1933.

Laws 1931, c. 212, amending Mason's Minn. Stat., 1927, §10305, by permitting members of village or city councils, town or school boards to designate banks in which they are interested as public depositaries, contravenes this section. Op. Atty. Gen., Mar. 23, 1933.

If a President shall not have been chosen before the time fixed for the beginning of his term, or if the President elect shall have failed to qualify, then the Vice President elect shall act as President until a President shall have qualified; and the Congress may by law provide for the case wherein neither a President elect nor a Vice President elect shall have qualified, declaring who shall then act as President, or the manner in which one who is to act shall be selected, and such person shall act accordingly until a President or Vice President shall have qualified.

Sec. 4. The Congress may by law provide for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the House of Representatives may choose a President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them, and for the case of the death of any of the persons from whom the Senate may choose a Vice President whenever the right of choice shall have devolved upon them.

Article 10.—CORPORATIONS HAVING NO BANKING PRIVILEGES.

3. Liability of stockholders.—The Legislature shall have power from time to time to provide for, limit and otherwise regulate the liability of stockholders or members of corporations and co-operative corporations or associations, however organized. Provided every stockholder in a banking or trust corporation or association shall be individually liable in an amount equal to the amount of stock owned by him for all debts of such corporation contracted prior to any transfer of such stock and such individual liability shall continue for one year after any transfer of such stock and the entry thereof on the books of the corporation or association.

Amendment proposed by Laws 1929, c. 429, adopted at election held Nov. 4, 1930. Promulgated Nov. 24, 1930.

Act prescribing liability of stockholders under this section: Laws 1931, c. 210 (§§7465-1, 7465-2). 32F(2d)665, 180M260, 230NW645(2).

Nature of corporate business is determined by articles of incorporation, and corporation organized for purpose of "canning of vegetables" is a manufacturing corporation under this section prior to its amendment. Henry v. M. (CCA8), 68F(2d)554. See Dun. Dig. 2080.

Omission to file affidavit of publication of amendment to articles of incorporation, held not to preclude the corporation from having a de facto existence, stockholders and creditors being estopped to deny that such articles were ineffective. Id.

Commissioner of banks was authorized to enforce the individual liability of stockholders, and to attach property held in trust for stockholders. 172M83, 214NW771.

Laws 1925, c. 333, authorizing corporations to issue non par stock, does not contravene Const., art. 10, §3. 172M303, 215NW185.

Where increase of stock was invalid, there was no double liability as to the increase. 172M334, 215NW428.

The test as to whether a Minnesota corporation is authorized to do an exclusively manufacturing business so that its stockholders are not subject to a double liability, is whether, under its articles of incorporation, the corporation can maintain the right to conduct other than a manufacturing business against the objection of the state or dissenting stockholders. 172M394, 215NW521.

Exploring for iron and other ores, and dealing in mineral lands as an incident, is not a "manufacturing business" nor so closely related to manufacturing as to be incidental thereto. The articles of incorporation in this case held to permit the defendant corporation to engage in other than a manufacturing business or a mechanical business incidental thereto, and its stockholders are subject to double liability. 173M1, 216NW325.

The superadded liability is contractual in its nature and is assumed by one becoming a stockholder. 173M603, 218NW121.

The provision for a superadded stockholder's liability creates a substantive right, enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction as an incident of a receivership. 173M603, 218NW121.

A federal court has jurisdiction to empower a receiver of a Minnesota corporation appointed by it to institute actions in state court to enforce constitutional liability, using the remedy provided by state statute. 173M603, 218NW121.

Stockholder cannot offset corporation's indebtedness to him. 174M387, 219NW452.

Provision in Mason's Stat., §7836, for forfeiting and retiring stock of offending stockholder does not free him from double liability. 174M427, 219NW466.

The creditors may waive right to resort to constitutional liability of stockholders and such defense is not determined by the order of assessment, but may be interposed when the receiver brings suit. 175M44, 219NW945.

A voluntary composition agreement between a corporation and its creditors, whereby the corporation transfers all of its property in consideration of being released from all liability on the amounts owing the creditors, waives and releases the constitutional liability of the stockholders. 175M382, 221NW426.

Stockholders were not liable where manufacturing corporation was converted into a mercantile corporation by amendment of the charter. 176M588, 224NW245.

A director, officer, or stockholder of a domestic mining corporation is not debarred from asserting a claim against it when insolvent and may resort to stockholders' double liability. 177M72, 224NW454.

Court acquired jurisdiction to assess stockholders of insolvent co-operative corporation, even though there was an obvious misprint of the year in the published notice of hearing and no proper proof of personal service of notice. 177M211, 225NW22(2).

Defense that judgment upon which sequestration proceeding was based, was obtained by fraud or collusion, cannot be set up in action to collect assessment. 177M 526, 225NW649.

One who was a director of a certain company, was estopped to claim that he was induced through deceit to accept stock in the company and believed that he was stockholder in another company with a similar name. 178M9, 225NW927.

No rights arose in receiver in sequestration proceedings from the fact that corporation issued stock to stockholders as security for a loan, there being no creditor whose claim did not come into existence until after the corporation gave its notes for and canceled the stock. 178M179, 226NW513.

A corporation may buy and sell its own shares provided it does so in good faith without intent to injure and without in fact injuring its creditors. 178M179, 226NW513.

Representation that corporate stock was not subject to assessment was one of law and there was no larceny. 178M446, 227NW495.

Where stockholder, prior to bankruptcy of corporation, offered to surrender his stock on ground of fraudulent representation, but took no steps to perfect rescission, he had no defense which he could urge against receiver suing to enforce assessment. 179M259, 228NW917.

One who subscribes to the stock of one corporation and receives that of another does not become a stockholder, and he is not estopped to deny that he is liable as such. 181M316, 232NW519. See Dun. Dig. 2080a.

Where a purchaser of stock from corporation which has not complied with the Blue Sky Law may recover the money paid, he cannot defend a suit brought by the receiver of the corporation to enforce the stockholders' liability, and it is immaterial that a certificate of stock has not been issued to him. 181M327, 232NW523. See Dun. Dig. 2061.

An active director of a corporation was estopped to deny that he was a stockholder, as respected double liability. Johnson v. B., 182M385, 234NW590. See Dun. Dig. 2080, 2080a.

Limitations was not tolled, as against liability of stockholder accruing at appointment of receiver, by reason of continuances and negotiations, on the theory of estoppel, or otherwise. Miller v. A., 183M12, 235NW622. See Dun. Dig. 2080.

If cause of action for double liability of stockholder accrued at time receiver was appointed, action was barred six years thereafter. Miller v. A., 183M12, 235NW622. See Dun. Dig. 2080.

Liability of stockholders in state banks. Bank of D. v. M., 183M127, 235NW914. See Dun. Dig. 796(84).

A bona fide transferor of stock is not liable for the debts of the bank incurred after the transfer. He is liable for those existing at the time of the transfer and not afterwards paid. Bank of D. v. M., 183M127, 235NW 914. See Dun. Dig. 803(13).

Whether a corporation was organized exclusively for doing a manufacturing business depends on its articles of incorporation and extrinsic evidence is not admissible to show the actual business in which it engaged, the burden of proof to show exemption of the corporation being on a stockholder against whom an assessment was made. Saetre v. Chandler, (CCA8), 57F(2d) 951.

The amendment of this section cannot be said to impair the obligation of contracts with respect to pre-existing liability, since it merely confers on the legislature the power to define the liability, and in such definition to preserve existing contract rights. Id.

Assessment of stockholders of a state bank, authorized by Mason's Stat., §7684 et seq., creates a fund which is an asset of the bank which cannot be applied to discharge double liability of stockholders. Minnesota State Bank of Amboy v. T., 184M179, 238NW53. See Dun. Dig. 2080.

Constitutional double liability of stockholders of bank is for benefit of creditors, and bank has no authority over the fund created by its enforcement. Minnesota State Bank of Amboy v. T., 184M179, 238NW53. See Dun. Dig. 2080(45).

Corporation quarrying stone and marketing rough products held not engaged in manufacturing or mechanical business. Veigel v. M., 186M182, 242NW621. See Dun. Dig. 2080.

The state securities commission of a sister state cannot take away the protection to creditors afforded by this section. Cox v. Updegraff, 14F(2d)(Ore)280. See Dun. Dig. 1698.

Complaint in action to enforce stockholders' liability was not demurrable because of absence of allegation that complaint in action resulting in sequestration alleged that debt accrued prior to repeal. Miller v. R., 188M35, 246NW465. See Dun. Dig. 2142, 2161, 2170.

A corporation organized for purpose of "buying, selling, manufacturing and dealing in milk, cream, ice cream, cheese and butter, handling, managing, owning, operating, and controlling a creamery or creameries in usual course of such business, and to do and perform all acts and things usual, requisite and necessary on premises," is not an exclusively manufacturing corporation whose stockholders were exempt from liability. Olivia Creamery & Produce Ass'n., 188M52, 246NW480. See Dun. Dig. 2080(58).

The liability imposed by this section as it existed prior to the adoption of the Amendment of 1930 was a contractual one. Op. Atty. Gen., 1931.

The constitutional liability of stockholders who acquired their stock prior to the date the Amendment of 1930 became effective exists in favor of creditors who became such prior to that date. Op. Atty. Gen., 1931.

There is no liability of stockholders in corporations organized since the amendment of 1930 other than banks or trust companies, the old constitutional provision being impliedly repealed, and there will be no such liability until the legislature creates it. Op. Atty. Gen., 1931.

The amendment of this section in 1930 was in fact a substitute rather than an amendment for the existing constitutional provision. Op. Atty. Gen., 1931.

No constitutional liability attaches to purchasers of stock who became such subsequent to the date the Amendment of 1930 became effective, though the corporation had been doing business for several years and had existing liabilities on that date. Op. Atty. Gen., 1931.

Stockholders of elevator company are not subject to double liability of debts thereof, unless incurred prior to Nov. 4, 1930. Op. Atty. Gen., Feb. 18, 1933.

Laws 1933, c. 55, does not contemplate finding of insolvency by reason of declaration of emergency by directors of bank and contingent liability of stockholder does not become absolute. Op. Atty. Gen., Mar. 10, 1933.

Since the 1930 amendment preferred stock of state banks cannot be made non-assessable. Op. Atty. Gen., Mar. 31, 1933.

There can be no enforcement of stockholders' liability unless bank is, in fact, insolvent. Op. Atty. Gen., May 16, 1933.

Insurance company may issue preferred stock which shall not be subject to any double liability, but such stock may not be exempted from assessment to make up impairment of capital. Op. Atty. Gen., Sept. 26, 1933.

4. Lands taken for public way.

Lot owners have no constitutional right to damages for an obstruction of a street by a railroad embankment simply because the embankment is within the same plat as their lots. Locascio v. N., 185M281, 240NW661. See Dun. Dig. 3049(14).

ARTICLE 11.—COUNTIES AND TOWNSHIPS.

§3. Organization of townships.

Fact that township owned telephone system is also operated in part for governmental purposes, for protection from forest and prairie fires, promoting public welfare, public health, and public safety, and facilitating work of public improvements, does not exempt town from liability for negligence in operating a public utility. Storti v. T., 194M628, 261NW463. See Dun. Dig. 9658.

Where an organized township constructs and maintains a town telephone system, under §§5312 to 5316 and furnishes ordinary telephone service thereby to private residents of township, town is engaged in operating a public utility and is liable for negligence of its officers and agents in so doing. Id.

Article 13.—IMPEACHMENT AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE.

1. Impeachment of certain state officers.

House File No. 1122, providing that any officer having alcoholic beverages in his possession shall forfeit his office, would be unconstitutional if passed. Op. Atty. Gen., Mar. 30, 1931.

2. Removal.

Article 14.—AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

1. Submission to the people.

Under Mason's Minn. Stats. 1927, §347, supreme court is authorized to direct secretary of state to refrain from preparing, printing and distributing ballots containing a proposed amendment to constitution forbidden by last provision in this section. Winget v. H., 187M78, 244NW 331. See Dun. Dig. 1573.

Laws 1931, c. 420, proposing an amendment to constitution to extend scope of taxation, held not multifarious. Winget v. H., 187M78, 244NW331. See Dun. Dig. 1573.

Article 16.—TRUNK HIGHWAY SYSTEM.

1. Creation of system.

Reimbursement of counties for money expended by them through boroughs, villages or cities in improving trunk highways. See Laws 1929, c. 122; Laws 1931, cc. 67, 168.

Proposed amendment relating to Trunk Highway System to be voted on at the general election of 1934. Laws 1933, c. 439.

State v. Stanley, 188M390, 247NW509; note under §2554. Murphy v. G., 189M109, 248NW715. See Dun. Dig. 8120, 8121.

The amount of traffic on a highway is an element to be considered as bearing upon loss of time and inconvenience to one whose land is divided. 171M369, 214NW653.

When a permanent trunk highway is located by the highway commissioner the practicable road along the general location is not thereby vacated, but reverts to the control of the county or town board as the case may be. 171M369, 214NW653.

Jury properly permitted to determine acreage involved in determining damages, and verdict held not excessive. 171M369, 214NW653.

This amendment clearly provides that trunk highways shall not extend within the limits of cities of the first class. 175M103, 220NW408.

Subdivisions 3 and 4 of §13, c. 323, Laws 1921, are entirely consistent with the provisions of the Constitution, art. 16. 175M103, 220NW408.

The title of c. 530, Laws 1919, submitting this amendment is general and in no way intimates that trunk highways should or should not enter cities. 175M103, 220NW408.

The Railroad and Warehouse Commission may require the construction of an overhead or underground crossing and divide the cost between the railroad company and the highway department. Where a highway is carried over railroad tracks by a bridge, the railroad company may be required to construct the bridge and approaches, but not a part of the highway outside both bridge and approaches. 176M501, 223NW915.

A village approving plans of construction by state highway commissioner of a trunk highway upon a village street and authorizing a change of grade according to such plan, makes itself liable for the damage caused abutting property by such change, in the absence of assumption of such liability by the state. 178M144, 226NW398. Followed in 178M430, 227NW357(2).

An enlargement by the court against objection, of condemnation proceedings to include easements over lands or lots not sought in the state's petition, is an unwarranted interference with properly delegated legislative functions. State v. Erickson, 185M60, 239NW908. See Dun. Dig. 4188(71).

The highway commissioner's order designating the permanent re-routing of a trunk highway does not in itself constitute a taking of the property within the designated routed. It is the exercise of a legislative function constitutionally delegated to the commissioner by the legislature and is conclusive on the courts as to the necessity of the taking. State v. Erickson, 185M60, 239NW908. See Dun. Dig. 4158(71).

Sections 1 and 2 permit state to reimburse counties out of trunk highway fund only for "permanently improving" roads. State v. Babcock, 186M132, 242NW474. See Dun. Dig. 8452.

Purchasing or acquiring of right of way for new road is not "improving" or improvement of road. State v. Babcock, 186M132, 242NW474.

It is duty of railroad to construct and maintain roadbeds and approaches where track crosses trunk highway on grade. Engstrom v. D., 190M208, 251NW134.

Purpose of amendment proposed by Laws 1933, c. 439, is to confirm establishment of all new routes added to trunk highway system by 1933 legislature and to give legislature unrestricted authority to add new routes after 75% of total mileage has been constructed and permanently improved. Op. Atty. Gen. (86a-34), May 1, 1934.

3. Taxation of motor vehicles.—The legislature is hereby authorized to provide, by law, for the taxation of motor vehicles, using the public streets and highways of this state, on a more onerous basis than other personal property; provided, however, that any such tax on motor vehicles shall be in lieu of all other taxes thereon, except wheelage taxes, so-called, which may be imposed by any borough, city or village, and except that the legislature may impose such tax upon motor vehicles of companies paying taxes under gross earnings system of taxation and upon the right to use such vehicles upon the public highways notwithstanding the fact that earnings from such vehicles may be included in the earnings of such companies upon which such gross earnings taxes are computed. Any such law may, in the discretion of the legislature, provide for the exemption from taxation of any motor vehicle owned by a nonresident of the state, and transiently or temporarily using the streets and highways of the state. The proceeds of such tax shall be paid in to said trunk highway sinking fund. Adopted Nov. 2, 1920. Amended, Election Nov. 8, 1932. Proclaimed Nov. 28, 1932.
