9916. Conviction of lesser crime, when.

Where entire course of trial not only indicates but compels conclusion that the only offense charged and involved at trial was that of sodomy, court did not err in refusing to submit to jury lesser offenses of indecent assault and assault in third degree. *State v. The procedure prescribed in this section and in §§9931-1 to 9931-4 does not place the defendant twice in jeopardy. 175M508, 221NW900.

Laws 1927, c. 236 (§§9931 to 9931-4), is constitutional. 175M508, 221NW900.

Identity of names is sufficient prima facie evidence of identities. 175M516, 221NW903.

This section as it stood prior to 1927 amendment does not prevent fixing of maximum term of imprisonment under §10765. 179M532, 229NW787.

The prior convictions in order to be available for increased punishment must precede the commission of the offense for which sentence is being imposed. State v. McKenzie, 182M513, 235NW274. See Dun. Dig. 2503c.

9931-2. Punishment not dependent upon indictment and conviction as previous offender.

Prosecution may be initiated by information though it may result in a sentence of imprisonment for more than ten years. 175M508, 221NW900.

9931-3. Same—Information, etc.

Section 10666 has no application to the procedure under this section and is not repealed by the act of which this section is a part. 175M508, 221NW900.

Court did not err in charging the jury "As you all know the defendant at this term of court was convicted of burglary in the third degree." 175M516, 221NW903.

9932. Imprisonment on two or more convictions.

Where execution of sentence was stayed and relator was placed on probation and was later sentenced and committed for a subsequent crime at which time stay of first sentence was revoked, the first sentence did not start to run until the expiration of the second sentence. 177M338, 225NW154.

Where defendant is brought before court having been convicted of two or more crimes and not having been sentenced on any of them, statute applies and sentences must be served consecutively. Op. Atty. Gen., Aug. 16, 1933.

Where defendant is convicted of one offense and is sentenced thereon and is convicted of second offense, second sentence can be served concurrently with first one. Id.

Where prisoner is under sentence for felony and commits another felony, statute applies and commission of second felony cannot be served concurrently with first sentence. Id.

9934. Sentences of convicts.—Whenever a convict is sentenced to the state prison for more than one year, unless the exact period be fixed by law, the court shall so limit the term that it will expire between the months of March and November. Whenever a sentence may be imprisonment in a county jail, the offender may be sentenced to and imprisoned in a workhouse, if there be one in the county where he is tried or where the offense was committed—and if there be no workhouse in the county where the offender is tried or where the offense was committed, then the offender may be sentenced to and imprisoned in a workhouse in any county in this state; provided that the county board of the county where the offender is tried shall have some agreement for the receipt, maintenance and confinement of the prisoners with the latter county. The place of imprisonment shall be specified in the sentence. But convicts may be removed from one place of confinement to another when so provided by statute. (R. L. '05, §4775; G. S. '13, §8494; Apr. 20, 1933, c. 329.)

Contempt is not a "crime" within §9934, and, in view of §9802, punishment can only be by imprisonment in county jail and not in a workhouse. 175M57, 220NW414.

This section, as amended by Laws 1933, c. 329, does not prevent release of prisoner at any time during year when sentence expires by reason of good conduct. Op. Atty. Gen., Aug. 25, 1933.

9936. Suspension of sentence.—That the several courts of record of this state having jurisdiction to try criminal causes shall have power, upon the imposition of sentence by said court against any person who has been convicted of the violation of a municipal ordinance or by-law, or of any crime for which the maximum penalty provided by law does not exceed imprisonment in the state prison for ten years, to stay the execution of such sentence which said court has imposed whenever the court shall be of the opinion that by reason of the character of such person, or the facts and circumstances of his case, the welfare of society does not require that he shall suffer the penalty imposed by law for such offense so long as he shall thereafter be of good behavior, and at any time after the imposition of sentence in all cases where the sentence imposed is to a county jail, work farm or work house, any such court of this state shall have like power upon application of a prisoner and after notice to the county attorney. Before suspending sentence in any such case the court may require an investigation and a written report concerning the previous history and conduct of the offender by the county probation officer where such officer is provided by law, and, in those counties or districts having no county probation officer, but in which the services of state probation agents are available, by such state officer. For the information of the court the chairman of the State Board of Parole shall advise the clerk of court in each county in the district to which a parole or probation agent has been assigned, of such appointment and that the services of such state agent are available to the court. ('09, c. 391, §1; G. S. '13, §8496; '21, c. 298, §1; Apr. 1, 1933, c. 133; Apr. 29, 1935, c. 324.)

A justice of the peace has no authority to permit a defendant to defer payment of any part of the fine, but he has authority to receive the fine at any time. Op. Atty. Gen., Sept. 5, 1931.

A municipal court organized under the 1895 law is a court of record, and judge thereof has power to suspend jail sentences after the prisoner has commenced serving the same upon notice to the county attorney. Op. Atty. Gen., Sept. 22, 1931.

Since the maximum penalty upon conviction of forgery in the second degree with a prior conviction is twenty years, court is without authority to stay execution of sentence, even though judge imposes a maximum sentence of less than ten years. Op. Atty. Gen., Nov. 19, 1931.

Any court having criminal jurisdiction, even though not court of record, may now suspend sentences. Op. Atty. Gen., Nov. 24, 1933.

Municipal courts may suspend payment of fine, and are not responsible for fines not collected. Op. Atty. Gen. (306b-6), June 1, 1937.

9937. Suspension of sentences and probation.—

Such stay shall be for the full period of sentence; and during such time the person so sentenced may be placed on probation under the supervision of a probation officer in counties where such officer is provided by law, and in other counties under the supervision of the state board of parole or of some discreet person who will accept such supervision and serve without pay, making report to the court as required. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent juvenile courts, in appropriate cases, from placing persons on probation to the state board of parole for supervision. The court shall in each case set forth the reason for the order of probation and may make such terms and conditions of probation as are deemed suitable, and may require a recognizance or other surety, conditioned upon the performance of such terms and conditions and may enforce the same. Prior to the expiration of the sentence, but not until after one year from the time the person has been placed on probation, the court, or the board of parole where the case has been referred to such board, shall have the power, when in its judgment the facts in the case and the behavior of the probationer so warrants, to indefinitely suspend such sentence, provided, however, the period of suspension of sentence shall not exceed the maximum sentence imposed except where such maximum penalty is less than one year, when such stay may be for a period not exceeding one year, unless otherwise provided by law. The court may in its discretion suspend sentence indefinitely. The court may make such order in or out of term, and at any place within the judicial district in which the case was tried. When a person is placed on probation under the supervision of the state board of parole, the clerk of the district court shall immediately upon the entry of the order of probation, certify a copy of the record of the case upon the blanks supplied by the state board of parole, set forth the reasons, terms and conditions of probation, and deliver the same to the state board of parole, whereupon, the custody of the person so placed on probation shall vest in the said board with the same power as is exercised over persons on parole from the state prison or state reformatory. The chairman of the board of parole shall act as director of probation and parole, and, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, the state board of parole is authorized and empowered to provide such probation agents, not exceeding five, to fix their compensation and to prescribe their duties. ('09, c. 391, §2; G. S. '13, §8497; Mar. 31, 1933, c. 135; Apr. 13, 1935, c. 167.)

Order of suspension of sentence in original instance should be for a definite period of time, and court cannot grant an indefinite suspension until expiration of that time. Op. Atty. Gen. (341k-9), May 16, 1935.

9938. Revocation.

Vacating a stay of execution of sentence under which accused had been on probation, is matter of discretion of trial judge. State v. Wall, 189M265, 249NW37.

Stating reasons for revocation of orders suspending sentence is not jurisdictional. State v. Municipal Court, 197M141, 266NW433. See Dun. Dig. 2487.

Suspension of sentence is a matter of grace, and court may revoke such suspension at any time during stay, without notice to defendant. Id.

After sentence has been indefinitely suspended court cannot revoke such suspension. Op. Atty. Gen. (341k-9), May 16, 1935.

9940. Restoration to civil rights.

Governor may not restore a person convicted of a felony in federal court, who can only be restored to his civil rights in the state by a presidential pardon. Op. Atty. Gen. (68h), Feb. 1, 1937.

9942. Certificate by governor.

Conviction of crime vacates office of notary public and restoration of civil rights does not reinstate officer and he cannot take acknowledgment without issue of a new commission. Op. Atty. Gen. (320j), Dec. 13, 1934.

9944. Restoration to civil rights, etc.

Person convicted under §9983 in 1925 and incarcerated in the state penitentiary is not entitled to restoration of civil rights under §9944. Op. Atty. Gen. (184i), Mar. 29, 1935.

9946. Incriminating testimony not to be used.

Introduction in evidence of defendant's petition to suppress evidence as having been obtained by an illegal search and seizure, held not violative of this section. Kaiser v. U. S., (CCA8), 60F(2d)410. Cert. den., 287US 654, 53SCR118. See Dun. Dig. 10337.

The various members of the bureau shall have and may exercise throughout the state the same powers of arrest possessed by a sheriff, but they shall not be employed to render police service in connection with strikes and other industrial disputes. ('27, c. 224, §2; Apr. 17, 1935, c. 197, §1.)

The division shall have the power to inspect and prescribe the form and substance of the records kept by those officials from which the information is so furnished.
