137.01 GIFTS, GRANTS, BEQUESTS, AND DEVICES. Subdivision 1. Power to accept. The University of Minnesota may accept, in trust or otherwise, any gift, grant, bequest, or devise for educational purposes and may hold, manage, invest, and dispose of the same and the proceeds and income thereof in accordance with the terms and conditions of the gift, grant, bequest, or devise and of the acceptance thereof; and any person contributing not less than $50,000 to the University may endow a professorship therein, the name and object of which shall be determined by the Board of Regents.

Subdivision 2. How used. If the purposes of the gift, grant, devise, or bequest are not otherwise limited by the donor, the University of Minnesota may use the same, or the proceeds thereof, for any of the purposes of the University and may, among other things, construct buildings and acquire lands. In case it is desired to use the same for the acquisition of land, the power of eminent domain may be exercised either in accordance with General Statutes 1894, Sections 4085 to 4091, or with Chapter 117.

Subdivision 3. Funds, where deposited. All such gifts, grants, bequests, and devises and the proceeds and income therefrom and securities pertaining thereto shall be deposited in the state treasury for the use of the University and subject to its order.

137.02 POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS. Subdivision 1. Transportation between university campus and farm. The Board of Regents is hereby authorized to provide adequate means for safe, convenient, and rapid transportation of persons, supplies, and materials between the University farm and the University campus and the transportation of persons from intermediate points to either the University campus or the University farm and from the University campus or University farm to intermediate points and for the transportation of supplies and materials to and from the University farm by means of a connection with the belt line railway operated by the Minnesota Transfer Railway Company; and to that end the Board of Regents is hereby authorized to acquire by gift, purchase, condemnation, or otherwise such rights of way as may be deemed necessary and to construct, maintain, and operate lines of railway thereon and to make such contracts with any railway company for trackage rights, track connections, and motive power or for the hiring of rolling stock or for the operation of the same as may be found necessary or expedient in carrying out the provisions of this subdivision. The Board of Regents shall prescribe the rate of fares which shall be charged for the transportation of persons, which fares when collected shall be kept in a separate fund and used to defray the expense of maintaining and operating such railway.

Subdivision 2. Employees may be bonded. The regents of the University shall have authority to indemnify the officers or the employees of the University against liability arising out of the operation of motor vehicles or other equipment by them while engaged in the performance of their duties as such public officials or employees and to pay out of the public funds the premiums on the indemnity insurance policies insuring such governmental agency against such liability. The regents may defend any such officer or employee, in the name and on behalf of the officer or employee, in any suit brought against him to enforce a claim, whether groundless or otherwise, arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle or other equipment by him in the performance of his official duties, and may compromise and settle such claim or suit and pay out of public funds the amount of such settlement or compromise, or the amount of any judgment against such officer or employee based on any such claim without first requiring such officer or employee to settle or pay any such claim. The regents may, in their discretion, pay the premiums of the indemnity insurance policies referred to in this subdivision, insuring such officers or employees against liability for or injury to persons or property, within the limits of this subdivision, and such payment of insurance premiums out of public funds shall in no way impose on the regents any liability.

Subdivision 3. Power of eminent domain granted. The Board of Regents may use any money not specifically appropriated for other purposes for acquiring land by purchase or condemnation. In case it is desired to use the fund for the acquisition of land, the power of eminent domain may be exercised either in accordance with General Statutes 1894, Sections 4085 to 4091, or Chapter 117.

137.03 INSTRUCTION IN LAW ENFORCEMENT. The University of Minnesota may establish and conduct a school for the instruction of persons in law enforcement; and the governing body of any political subdivision of the state may authorize the attendance upon such school of any law enforcement officer under its jurisdiction and may provide for the payment of the expenses of this person while in attendance at such school from the general funds of the political subdivision. To each person satisfactorily completing the prescribed course of instruction in the school so established shall be issued a certificate of graduation stating that the holder has been graduated therefrom.

[Ex. 1937 c. 81 s. 2] (3139-7)

137.04 UNIVERSITY LIBRARY TO GET COPIES OF STATE PUBLICATIONS.

The general library of the University of Minnesota is hereby made a depository of all books, pamphlets, maps, and other works published by, or under, the authority of the State of Minnesota. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state and of all other officials and boards having the custody or distribution of these publications to deliver to the library one copy of each so soon as ready for distribution; and thereafter, when different works are bound up together, one copy of each bound volume. The library shall be entitled to receive five copies of the legislative manual. These officers may, in their discretion, issue to the library additional copies as requested by the librarian.

[1905 c. 278 ss. 1, 2] (3137) (3138)

137.05 ASSISTANCE IN TREE PLANTING. The agricultural extension department of the University of Minnesota is authorized and directed to cooperate with the secretary of agriculture of the United States in providing assistance in tree planting to owners of land by the procurement of forest tree-planting stock, not including fruit or ornamental trees, shrubs, or plants and in the distribution to planters of such forest tree-planting stock at cost, plus transportation and administrative charges, to the end that the tree-planting stock so distributed shall be used for the purpose of establishing windbreaks, shelterbelts, and farm woodlots upon denuded or non-forested lands and for protecting farm buildings, crops, and fields from wind erosion and for furnishing forest cover beneficial to water conservation and bird life.

[1939 c. 385 s. 1] (4031-89)

137.06 FOREST PLANTING STOCK; NUMBER OF TREES. Not less than 1,000 trees shall be sold for an individual planting; no trees may be resold by the succeeding purchasers. The term "forest-planting stock" means one or two year old seedling stock of deciduous trees and 2-2 or 3-2 coniferous trees customarily used for the purposes mentioned above and such other specifications as may be necessary to ensure successful growth.

[1939 c. 385 s. 2] (4031-90)

137.07 HOME-GROWN TREES GIVEN PREFERENCE. In all purchases of forest-planting stock under the provisions of sections 137.06 to 137.08, preference shall be given to trees grown in the state by duly inspected Minnesota nurseries and these purchases shall be paid for out of the fund created by section 137.08 and accruals thereto from the sale of trees purchased. If suitable stock for this purpose cannot be obtained from Minnesota nurseries, it is permissible to secure such nursery stock from nurseries outside the state. All money received from the sale of trees shall be placed in the state tree fund, which is hereby created.

[1939 c. 385 s. 3] (4031-91)

137.08 FUNDS FROM THE UNITED STATES. Any funds received from the United States government for tree-planting aid, under the Clark-McNary act or other acts, shall be placed in the state tree fund and expended only as stated in sections 137.05 to 137.07 under the direction of the agricultural extension department of the University of Minnesota.

[1939 c. 385 s. 4] (4031-92)

137.09 BOARD OF REGENTS NOT TO EXCEED APPROPRIATIONS; PENALTY. It shall be unlawful for the Board of Regents to permit any expenditures for any purpose in excess of the amount appropriated or contemplated by law and any member or agent of the board violating this provision shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor; and, upon conviction, fined not less than $100.00, nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment.

[1905 c. 119 s. 6] (3145)

137.10 REFUNDMENT OF TUITION TO STUDENTS IN CERTAIN CASES. Any student who, being a citizen and resident of the state, has enrolled to pursue any course in the University of Minnesota or any state teachers college paid tuition therefor, and who, prior to the termination of the school year for which such tuition was paid, enlisted or has been inducted into the military services of the United States, either voluntarily or pursuant to the present selective service law, shall be entitled to the refundment of all tuition so paid for which credit can not properly be given.

It is hereby made the duty of the administrative officers of the University of Minnesota and of such colleges or institutions to refund to such students any tuition so paid. Any student making application for refundment of any tuition so paid shall furnish to the administrative officers of the University of Minnesota or of such colleges a certificate from the proper officers reciting the fact of the enlistment or the induction of such student into the military service of the United States.
