610.01 CRIMES DEFINED AND CLASSIFIED. A crime is an act or omission forbidden by law, and punishable upon conviction by death, imprisonment, fine, or other penal discipline. Every crime which may be punished by death, or by imprisonment in the state prison or state reformatory, is a felony. Every crime punishable by fine not exceeding $100.00, or by imprisonment in a jail for not more than 90 days, is a misdemeanor. Every other crime is a gross misdemeanor.

610.02 MEANING OF WORDS AND TERMS. In the construction of Part V, save when otherwise plainly declared or clearly apparent from the context, the following rules shall be observed:

(1) Each of the words "neglect," "negligence," "negligent," and "negligently" shall import a want of such attention to the nature or probable consequences of the act or omission as an ordinarily prudent man usually exercises in his own business;

(2) Each of the words "corrupt" and "corruptly" shall import a wrongful desire to acquire or cause some pecuniary or other advantage to himself or another, by the person to whom applicable;

(3) "Malice" and "maliciously" shall import an evil intent, wish, or design to vex, annoy, or injure another person, or to maltreat or injure an animal;

(4) The word "knowingly" imports a knowledge that the facts exist which constitute the act or omission a crime, and does not require knowledge of its unlawfulness;

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CRIMES 610.07

(5) When an intent to defraud constitutes a part of a crime, it is not necessary to aver or prove an intent to defraud any particular person;

(6) The word "vessel" includes ships, steamers, and every boat or structure adapted to navigation, either upon lakes, rivers, or artificial waterways;

(7) The word "signature" includes any memorandum, mark, or sign written with intent to authenticate any instrument or writing, or the subscription of any person thereto;

(8) The word "writing" includes printing;

(9) The word "property" includes both real and personal property, things in action, money, bank bills, and every other thing of value;

(10) The word "oath" includes an affirmation; the word "bond," an undertaking; words in the present include the future tense; and in the masculine include the feminine and neuter genders; and in the singular include the plural; and in the plural, the singular;

(11) The word "person" includes a corporation or joint-stock association; when it is used to designate a party whose property may be the subject of any offense, it also includes the state, or any other state, government, or country which may lawfully own property within the state;

(12) The term "real property" includes every estate, interest, and right in lands, tenements, or hereditaments;

(13) The term "personal property" includes every description of money, goods, chattels, effects, evidences of rights in action, and all written instruments by which any pecuniary obligation, right, or title to property, real or personal, is created, acknowledged, transferred, increased, defeated, discharged, or diminished, and every right and interest therein.

[R. L. s. 4748] (9907)

610.03 RULES OF CONSTRUCTION. The rule that a penal statute is to be strictly construed shall not apply to any provision of Part V of the Minnesota Statutes, but every such provision shall be construed according to the fair import of its terms, to promote justice and effect the purpose of the law.

[R. L. s. 4749] (9908)

610.04 PERSONS PUNISHABLE. The following persons are liable to punishment:

(1) A person who commits in the state any crime, in whole or in part;

(2) A person who commits out of the state any offense which, if committed within it, would be larceny under the law, and is afterward found in the state with any of the stolen property;

(3) A person who, being out of the state, causes, procures, aids, or abets another to commit a crime in the state;

(4) A person who, being out of the state, abducts or kidnaps, by force or fraud, any person, contrary to the laws of the place where the act is committed, and brings, sends, or conveys such person into this state;

(5) A person who, being out of the state, and with intent to cause within it a result contrary to its laws, does an act which, in its natural and usual course, results in an act or effect contrary to such laws.

[R. L. s. 4750] (9909)

610.05 DEFENSE OF SELF OR ANOTHER, WHEN JUSTIFIABLE. An act otherwise criminal is justifiable when done to protect the doer, or another whom he is bound to protect, from imminent, personal injury, whenever such act appears to be only what is reasonably necessary to prevent the injury.

[R. L. s. 4751] (9910)

610.06 DEFENSE OF DURESS BY MARRIED WOMAN. It is no defense for a married woman charged with crime that the alleged act was committed by her in the presence of her husband.

[R. L. s. 4752] (9911)

610.07 DURESS; HOW CONSTITUTED. When any crime, except murder, is committed or participated in by two or more persons, any one of whom participates only under compulsion by another engaged therein, who by threats creates a reasonable apprehension in the mind of such participator that in case of refusal he is liable to instant death, such threats and apprehension constitute duress which will excuse such participator from criminal liability.

[R. L. s. 4753] (9912)

610.08 PRESUMPTION OF RESPONSIBILITY. Save as hereinafter specified, every person is presumed to be responsible for his acts, and the burden of rebutting such presumption is upon him. Children under the age of seven years, idiots, imbeciles, lunatics, or insane persons are incapable of committing crime. Children of seven, and under 12, years of age are presumed incapable of committing crime, but this presumption may be removed by proof that they have sufficient capacity to understand the act or neglect, and to know that it was wrong. When, in legal proceedings, it becomes necessary to determine the age of a child, he may be produced for inspection, to enable the court or jury to determine the age thereby; and the court may also direct his examination by one or more physicians, whose opinion shall be competent evidence upon the question of his age.

[R. L. s. 4754] (9913)

610.09 INTOXICATION OR CRIMINAL PROPENSITY NO DEFENSE. No act committed by a person while in a state of voluntary intoxication shall be deemed less criminal by reason of his condition, but when the actual existence of any particular purpose, motive, or intent is a necessary element to constitute a particular species or degree of crime, the fact of his intoxication may be taken into consideration in determining such purpose, motive, or intent. A morbid propensity to commit prohibited acts existing in the mind of a person who is not shown to have been incapable of knowing that such acts were wrong shall constitute no defense.

610.10 CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY OF INSANE PERSONS. No person shall be tried, sentenced, or punished for any crime while in a state of idiocy, imbecility, lunacy, or insanity, so as to be incapable of understanding the proceedings or making a defense; but he shall not be excused from criminal liability except upon proof that at the time of committing the alleged criminal act he was laboring under such a defect of reason, from one of these causes, as not to know the nature of his act, or that it was wrong.

[R. L. s. 4756] (9915)

610.11 CONVICTION OF LESSER CRIME, WHEN. Upon the trial of an indictment, the defendant may be convicted of the crime charged therein, or of a lesser degree of the same crime or of an attempt to commit the crime so charged, or of an attempt to commit a lesser degree of the same crime. In an indictment for an assault with intent to commit a felony, the jury, in case it does not find the intent charged, may convict of assault, and the court may sentence the defendant to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or to pay a fine not exceeding $500.00.

[R. L. s. 4757] (9916)

610.12 PRINCIPAL, DEFINED. Every person concerned in the commission of a crime, whether he directly commits the act constituting the offense, or aids and abets in its commission and whether present or absent, and every person who directly or indirectly counsels, encourages, hires, commands, induces, or otherwise procures another to commit a crime, is a principal, and shall be indicted and punished as such.

[R. L. s. 4758] (9917)

610.13 ACCESSORY, DEFINED. Every person not standing in the relation of husband or wife, parent or child, to the offender, who, after the commission of a felony, shall harbor, conceal, or aid such offender, with intent that he may avoid or escape from arrest, trial, conviction, or punishment, having knowledge or reasonable ground to believe that such offender has committed a felony or is liable to arrest, is an accessory to the felony.

[R. L. s. 4759] (9918)

610.14 TRIAL AND PUNISHMENT OF ACCESSORIES. Every accessory to a felony may be indicted, tried, and convicted, either in the county where he became an accessory, or where the principal felony was committed, and whether the principal offender has or has not been convicted or is or is not amenable to justice, or has been pardoned or otherwise discharged after conviction; and, except where a different punishment is specially prescribed by law, such accessory shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or county jail for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than $500.00, or by both.

[R. L. s. 4760] (9919)

610.15 CERTAIN DUTIES OF COURTS AND JURIES. When a crime is distinguished into different degrees, the jury, on conviction, shall find the degree of which the accused is guilty. When a crime is declared to be punishable in a specified way, the court shall pass sentence imposing the prescribed punishment; and, when the punishment is left undetermined between certain limits, the court shall determine the same within the prescribed limits.

610.16 PUNISHMENT OF FELONY WHEN NOT FIXED BY STATUTE. Whoever is convicted of a felony for which no punishment is specially prescribed by any statutory provision in force at the time of conviction and sentence shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or a county jail for not more than seven years, or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both.

[R. L. s. 4762] (9921)

610.17 MINIMUM TERM OF IMPRISONMENT FOR FELONY. The minimum penalty of imprisonment for any felony committed within this state shall be one year if the court, in its discretion, shall impose a state's prison or reformatory sentence therefor; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any offense where a greater minimum penalty of imprisonment is now or shall hereafter be prescribed by law for such offense.

[1927 c. 306] (9921-1)

610.18 FELONIES COMMITTED WHILE ARMED WITH FIREARMS; ADDITIONAL PUNISHMENT. If any person shall commit a felony, or attempt to commit a felony, while armed with a pistol, revolver, gun, or other firearm, with intent to use the same in the commission thereof, the penalty therefor, including any additional penalty which may be now or hereafter imposed by any law of this state for the commission of a crime of violence while armed with or having available any firearm, shall, in the discretion of the trial judge, be imprisonment for not less than five years; provided, that this section shall not apply to reduce either the minimum or the maximum sentence now or hereafter provided by law for any offense for which the person has been convicted.

[1927 c. 294] (9921-2)

610.19 PUNISHMENT OF MISDEMEANORS WHEN NOT FIXED BY STATUTE. Whoever is convicted of a misdemeanor for which no punishment is prescribed by any statute in force at the time of conviction and sentence shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or by a fine of not more than $100.00.

[R. L. s. 4763] (9922)

610.20 PUNISHMENT OF GROSS MISDEMEANOR WHEN NOT FIXED BY STATUTE. Whoever shall be convicted of a gross misdemeanor for which no punishment is prescribed by any statute in force at the time of conviction and sentence shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than $1,000.

[R. L. s. 4764] (9923)

610.21 CRIMES PUNISHABLE UNDER DIFFERENT PROVISIONS. Any act or omission declared criminal and punishable in different ways by different provisions of law shall be punished under only one of such provisions, and a conviction or acquittal under any one shall bar a prosecution for the same act or omission under any other provision.

610.22 ACTS PUNISHABLE UNDER FOREIGN LAW. An act or omission declared punishable by criminal law is not less so because it is also punishable under the laws of another state, government, or country, unless the contrary is expressly declared in such law.

[R. L. s. 4766] (9925)

610.23 FOREIGN CONVICTION OR ACQUITTAL. When, upon the trial of any person indicted for a crime, it appears that the offense was committed in another state or country, under such circumstances that the courts of this state had jurisdiction thereof, and that the defendant has already been acquitted or convicted on the merits, upon a criminal prosecution under the laws of such state or country, founded upon the act or omission in respect of which he is upon trial, such former acquittal or conviction is a sufficient defense.

[R. L. s. 4767] (9926)

610.24 PUNISHMENT FOR CONTEMPT. A criminal act which at the same time constitutes contempt of court, and has been punished as such, may also be punished as a crime, but in such case the punishment for contempt may be considered in mitigation.

MINNESOTA STATUTES 1941

610.25 GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CRIMES

3628

[R. L. s. 4768] (9927)

610.25 SENDING LETTER, WHEN COMPLETE. When the statute makes the sending of a letter criminal, the offense shall be deemed complete from the time it is deposited in any post-office or other place, or delivered to any person, with intent that it shall be forwarded; and the sender may be indicted and tried in the county wherein it was so deposited or delivered, or in which it was received by the person to whom it was addressed.

[R. L. s. 4769] (9928)

610.26 OMISSION; WHEN PUNISHABLE. No person shall be punished for omission to perform an act where it has been performed by another acting in his behalf, and competent by law to perform it.

[R. L. s. 4770] (9929)

610.27 ATTEMPTS; HOW PUNISHED. An act done with intent to commit a crime and tending, but failing, to accomplish it, is an attempt to commit that crime; and every person who attempts to commit a crime, unless otherwise prescribed by statute, shall be punished as follows:

(1) If the crime attempted is punishable by death or life imprisonment, the person convicted of the attempt shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten years;

(2) In every other case he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than half of the longest term, or by fine of not more than half the largest sum, prescribed upon conviction for the commission of the offense attempted, or by both such fine and imprisonment; but this shall not protect a person who, in an unsuccessful attempt to commit one crime, does commit another and different one, from the prescribed punishment for the crime actually committed.

610.28 SECOND OFFENSES; PUNISHMENT. Every person who, after having been convicted in this state of a felony or an attempt to commit a felony, or, under the laws of any other state or country, of a crime which, if committed in this state, would be a felony, commits any felony or attempts to commit any felony, in this state, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as follows:

(1) If the subsequent crime is such that the offender, upon a first conviction, might be punished by a definite sentence of imprisonment for life, he shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the state prison for life;

(2) If the subsequent crime is such that upon a first conviction the offender might be punished by an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment, then he shall be sentenced to imprisonment under an indeterminate sentence for not less than twice the shortest term, nor more than twice the longest term, prescribed upon a first conviction; provided, that nothing herein shall reduce any minimum sentence now or hereafter fixed by any other law of this state.

[R. L. s. 4772; 1927 c. 236 s. 1] (9931)

610.29 CONVICTION OF THREE OR MORE FELONIES; PUNISHMENT. A person who, after having been three times convicted in this state of felonies, or attempts to commit felonies, or, under the laws of any other state or country, of crimes which, if committed in this state, would be felonies, commits any felony or attempts to commit any felony in this state, upon conviction of such fourth or subsequent offense, shall be punished as follows:

(1) If the fourth or subsequent offense is such that the offender upon a first conviction might be punished by a definite sentence of imprisonment for life, he shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life;

(2) If the fourth or subsequent offense is such that the offender upon a first conviction might be punished by an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment, then he shall be sentenced to imprisonment under an indeterminate sentence of which the minimum shall be not less than twice the shortest term prescribed upon a first conviction, and the maximum shall be for life; provided, that nothing herein shall reduce any minimum sentence now or hereafter fixed by any other law of this state.

[1927 c. 236 s. 2] (9931-1)

610.30 PUNISHMENT NOT DEPENDENT UPON INDICTMENT AND CONVICTION AS PREVIOUS OFFENDER. A person to be punishable under sections

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CRIMES 610.35

610.28 and 610.29, or under any law of this state now or hereafter imposing any additional or other penalty need not have been indicted and convicted as a previous offender in order to receive the increased punishment therein provided, but may be proceeded against as provided in section 610.31.

[1927 c. 236 s. 3] (9931-2)

[1927 c. 236 s. 4] (9931-3)

[1927 c. 236 s. 5] (9931-4)

[R. L. s. 4773] (9932)

610.34 LIFE SENTENCE; EFFECT. When the statute declares a crime punishable by imprisonment for not less than a specified number of years, and fixes no maximum limit, the court may sentence the offender to imprisonment during his natural life, or for not less than the minimum number of years prescribed. A person sentenced to imprisonment for life is thereafter civilly dead.

[R. L. s. 4774] (9933)

610.35 SENTENCES OF CONVICTS. When a convict is sentenced to the state prison for more than one year, unless the exact period be fixed by law, the court shall so limit the term that it will expire between the months of March and November. When a sentence may be imprisonment in a county jail, the offender may be sentenced to and imprisoned in a workhouse, if there be one in the county where he is tried or where the offense was committed, and if there be no workhouse in the county where the offender is tried or where the offense was committed, then the offender may be sentenced to and imprisoned in a workhouse in any county in this state; provided, that the county board of the county where the offender is tried shall have some agreement for the receipt, maintenance, and confinement of the prisoners with the latter county. The place of imprisonment shall be specified in the sentence. Convicts may be removed from one place of confinement to another when so provided by statute.

[R. L. s. 4775; 1933 c. 329] (9934)

610.36 LIMIT OF FINE WHEN NOT SPECIFIED. When a statute makes a crime other than a misdemeanor punishable by fine, and does not specify its amount, a fine of not more than $500.00 may be imposed; and, where the defendant shall be sentenced to pay a fine, the court may, as part of the judgment, order the defendant to be committed to the county jail until such fine is paid, not exceeding a reasonable time, to be graduated according to the amount of the fine.

[R. L. s. 4776] (9935)

610.37 SUSPENSION OF SENTENCE. The several courts of record of this state having jurisdiction to try criminal causes shall have power, upon the imposition of sentence by such court against any person who has been convicted of the violation of a municipal ordinance or by-law, or of any crime for which the maximum penalty provided by law does not exceed imprisonment in the state prison for ten years, to stay the execution of such sentence which the court has imposed when the court shall be of the opinion that by reason of the character of the person, or the facts and circumstances of his case, the welfare of society does not require that he shall suffer the penalty imposed by law for such offense so long as he shall thereafter be of good behavior, and at any time after the imposition of sentence in all cases where the sentence imposed is to a county jail, work farm or workhouse, any such court of this state shall have like power upon application of a prisoner and after notice to the county attorney. Before suspending sentence in any such case the court may require an investigation and a written report concerning the previous history and conduct of the offender by the county probation officer where such officer is provided by law and, in those counties or districts having no county probation officer, but in which the services of state probation agents are available, by such state officer. For the information of the court the chairman of the state board of parole shall advise the clerk of court in each county in the district to which a parole or probation agent has been assigned, of such appointment and that the services of such state agent are available to the court.

[1909 c. 391 s. 1; 1921 c. 298 s. 1; 1933 c. 133; 1935 c. 324] (9936)

610.38 SUSPENSION OF SENTENCES AND PROBATION. Such stay shall be for the full period of sentence; and during such time the person so sentenced may be placed on probation under the supervision of a probation officer in counties where such officer is provided by law, and in other counties under the supervision of the state board of parole or of some discreet person who will accept such supervision and serve without pay, making report to the court as required. Nothing herein contained shall prevent juvenile courts, in appropriate cases, from placing persons on probation to the state board of parole for supervision. The court shall in each case set forth the reason for the order of probation and may make such terms and conditions of probation as are deemed suitable, and may require a recognizance or other surety, conditioned upon the performance of such terms and conditions and may enforce the same. Prior to the expiration of the sentence, but not until after one year from the time the person has been placed on probation, the court, or the board of parole where the case has been referred to such board, shall have the power, when in its judgment the facts in the case and the behavior of the probationer so warrants, to indefinitely suspend such sentence; provided, the period of suspension of sentence shall not exceed the maximum sentence imposed except where such maximum penalty is less than one year, when such stay may be for a period not exceeding one year, unless otherwise provided by law. The court may, in its discretion, suspend sentence indefinitely. The court may make such order in or out of term, and at any place within the judicial district in which the case was tried. When a person is placed on probation under the supervision of the state board of parole, the clerk of the district court shall, immediately upon the entry of the order of probation, certify a copy of the record of the case upon the blanks supplied by the state board of parole, set forth the reasons, terms, and conditions of probation, and deliver the same to the state board of parole; whereupon the custody of the person so placed on probation shall vest in that board with the same power as is exercised over persons on parole from the state prison or state reformatory. The chairman of the state board of parole shall act as director of probation and parole and, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of sections 610.37 to 610.39, the state board of parole is authorized and empowered to provide such probation agents, not exceeding five, to fix their compensation, and to prescribe their duties.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CRIMES 610.45

[1909 c. 391 s. 2; 1933 c. 135; 1935 c. 167] (9937)

610.39 REVOCATION. Before sentence has been indefinitely suspended the court shall have power, in the exercise of its discretion, to revoke the order staying sentence and releasing such person on probation, without notice and at any time or place mentioned in section 610.38, stating in such order of revocation the reasons therefor; in which case the sentence theretofore imposed shall be executed in all respects as though no proceedings under sections 610.37 to 610.39 had been taken.

[1909 c. 391 s. 3] (9938)

610.40 CONVICTS PROTECTED; CERTAIN FORFEITURES ABOLISHED.

Every convict sentenced to imprisonment shall be under the protection of the law, and any unauthorized injury to his person is punishable in the same manner as if he were not convicted or sentenced. A conviction for any crime does not work a forfeiture of any property, real or personal, or of any right or interest therein. All forfeitures in the nature of deodands, or in a case of suicide, or where a person flees from justice, are abolished.

[R. L. s. 4777] (9939)
