Such bond or bonds shall be approved by the governor and the state auditor, who may require additional bonds when they deem it necessary. All such bonds shall be filed with the secretary of state.

His cashbook shall be balanced at the close of each business day, including therein all the transactions of such day. No money shall be paid out of the treasury except upon the warrant of the state auditor; but money lawfully deposited in banks shall not be considered as paid out.

7.04 RECEIPTS; WARRANTS. For all moneys paid into the treasury by any county the state treasurer shall give duplicate receipts, one of which shall be sent to the treasurer and one to the auditor of the county. He shall receive in payment of public dues warrants lawfully issued by the auditor; and on so receiving or otherwise redeeming any warrant he shall cause the same to be indorsed by the person presenting it, mark the same "Redeemed," and enter in a proper book, in separate columns, its number, date, amount, and when and to whom paid or credited.

7.05 STATEMENTS. At the close of each business day the state treasurer shall deliver to the state auditor a statement of all his receipts and disbursements during the day, accompanied by all warrants redeemed and duplicates of all receipts given. Such statement shall show the amounts credited and charged to the several funds. He shall report to the legislature on or before the third day of each regular session, and to the governor whenever the governor shall require it, the condition of the treasury and of the several public funds, the amounts received and disbursed by him and the items thereof, and the balances on hand and where deposited.

[R. L. s. 46] (86)

7.07 INTEREST ON WARRANTS. When it shall become necessary, in order to meet current demands upon the revenue fund for moneys appropriated therefrom, the governor, auditor, and treasurer may contract in the name of the state with banking or other corporations, or with natural persons, who will take up warrants drawn upon such fund at their face value, to pay interest thereon at the rate of not to exceed five per cent per annum until the treasurer can redeem the same; but no more than $250,000 in face value thereof shall draw interest at any one time. $6,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay this interest, is appropriated therefor annually out of the revenue fund.

[1907 c. 170 s. 3] (91)

7.12 EXPENDITURES OF FUNDS FROM GIFTS. In the event such gift, bequest, devise, or endowment is made or designated by the donor for a certain institution, department, or agency, the state treasurer shall, from time to time, pay out in the usual manner, upon the order of the board, commission, or other body charged with the direct and immediate supervision, control, or management of the designated institution, department, or agency, all money which may become available for such purpose under the terms of such will, deed of gift, or other instrument; and the same shall be expended and applied by this board, commission, or other body as nearly as may be in accordance with the terms and conditions of such gift, bequest, devise, or endowment.
