CHAPTER 11

Taxes

GENERAL PROVISIONS

1974. Property subject to taxation.

1. General rules.

Exercise by the United States of sovereignty over lands within the Dominion of Canada furnished no valid basis for taxation by state of Minnesota. Pettibone v. C., (DC-Minn.), 31FSupp881.

Land taxed is sole source to which state and its subdivisions may look for revenue, and there is no personal obligation on part of owner. State v. Washington County, 207M530, 292NW204. See Dun. Dig. 9281(29, 30).

Real estate taxes operate exclusively in rem and the statutes impose no personal obligation upon anyone to pay them. Spaeth v. Hallam, 211M156, 300NW600. See Dun. Dig. 9114a.

Taxation is primarily a legislative function, and steps taken under authority of legislature are administrative in character, in which judicial assistance may be invoked as a matter of convenience, but legislature may authorize such proceedings to be conducted from beginning to end before or by administrative officers or bodies, and their functions are not "judicial" in the strict sense. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d)231.

A tax, absent clear expression to the contrary should be construed as prospective in operation, but this does not mean that a tax upon an occupation or the receipts from a business may not be computed after the taxing period according to the statutory rate in effect while taxpayer was engaged in the occupation or in earning the receipts. State v. Casualty Mut. Ins. Co., 213M220, 6NW(2d)800. See Dun. Dig. 9173.

Cases pertaining to possessory and improvement liens which attach to property irrespective of ownership of the property are not applicable or comparable to lien imposed to insure collection of excise taxes, which owe their existence and effect entirely to the statute creating them. State v. Heskin, 213M368, 7NW(2d)1. See Dun. Dig. 9160.

A tax is not a lien upon property except as made so by statute. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9160.

Tax liens owe their duration, force, and effect entirely to the statutes creating them. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9160, 9161, 9162.

Statutes impose a tax upon all personal property of a resident, whether within or without the state. State v. Northwest Airlines, 213M395, 7NW(2d)691. See Dun. Dig. 9128.

Possibility of taxation of same property by more than one state is no longer a constitutional objection. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9146.

Cases characterizing a tax as a "contribution" by the citizen in return for the protection afforded him by the state, set forth an erroneous theory, since the power to tax is not a statutory right, but an incident of sovereignty. S.R.A., Inc., 213M487, 7NW(2d)484. See Dun. Dig. 9114.

Taxes are pecuniary charges imposed by legislative power to raise money for public purposes, a burden imposed to supply the very lifeblood of the state. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9114.

Vendee under contract of sale of land entitled to possession and who takes possession may not use his vendor's immunity to taxation as a shield to avoid meeting his tax obligations as an owner, since it is his land that is being taxed, not that of his vendor. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9126.

Where a corporation, organized under the laws of one state, transacts no business there and establishes its principal office in another, where it manages and directs its business, it acquires a commercial domicile there, in virtue of which it is subject to taxation there upon its intangibles, even though its business may extend into other states. Cargill v. Spaeth, 215M540, 10NW(2d)728. See Dun. Dig. 9155.

A state may tax interest received by a domiciliary thereof from a source without the state. Id.

Multi-state taxation of tangible personal property. 27 MinnLawRev 320.

6. Federal property and agencies.

Under section 10 of the Hayden-Cartwright Act of June 16, 1936, 49 Stat. 1521 as amended by the Buck Act of Oct. 9, 1940, 54 Stat. 1060 (4 Mason's U. S. Code Ann. §12), providing that all taxes levied by the state upon sales of gasoline and other motor vehicle fuels may be levied upon such fuel sold by or through post exchanges located in United States Military Reservations when such fuels are not for the exclusive use of the United States, state of Minnesota was entitled to payment of taxes collected on sales of gasoline at the Fort Snelling Post Exchange, as against contention that the Minnesota gasoline tax was not a sales tax but a use or property tax. State v. Keeley, (C.C.A.8), 126 F. (2d) 863, rev'g State v. Ristine, (DC-Minn) 36 F. Supp. 3. See Dun. Dig. 9576e.

A bank stock corporation holding stock of a chain of banks both state and national is an entity distinct from that of the bank which it controls and manages, and is a complete "non-conductor" of qualified immunity from state taxation enjoyed by national banks, and dividends received by resident stockholders of the holding corporation are subject to state income tax. Irvine v. Spaeth, 210M489, 299NW204. Cert. den. 62SCR117. See Dun. Dig. 9120.

National banks, as federal instrumentalities, are subject to no inherent power in states to tax them, and banks, their property, and shares of their capital stock are subject to state taxation only as Congress permits, and a tax beyond that permission is void. Id.

State has power to tax interests and rights acquired under a contract of sale of land from the United States, which agrees to execute and deliver a deed at a certain specified future date if vendee has paid the total purchase price. S.R.A., Inc., 213M487, 7NW(2d)484. See Dun. Dig. 9120.

An elevator owned by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is exempt from state taxation, if personal property. Op. Atty. Gen., (421a-11), June 4, 1940.

Real property owned by the Disaster Loan Corporation, which is an arm or branch of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, is subject to state tax. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-2), Apr. 16, 1941.

Effect and results of federal court judgment invalidating taxes on and forfeiture of Indian land in Mahanoh County determined. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), Apr. 16, 1941.

As a general rule federal land grants to railroads are exempt from general taxation until conveyed or sold on contract by railroad, and railroad pays in lieu thereof a gross earnings tax. Op. Atty. Gen. (414d-13), Apr. 29, 1941.

State cannot collect a tax on 3.2 beer sold by Post Exchange at Fort Snelling, but can collect a tax on beer sold by private individuals, concessions or in any other manner than through an authorized governmental instrumentality to authorized purchasers, in view of Buck Resolution, act of congress Oct. 9, 1940, c. 787. Op. Atty. Gen. (217J), May 20, 1941.

Farmers who have obtained loans on their wheat which is sealed by government on their farms are subject to personal property tax. Op. Atty. Gen. (215c-10), June 21, 1941.

Postal savings certificates and accounts are subject to money and credits tax. Op. Atty. Gen. (614G), Aug. 26, 1941.

7. Interstate commerce.

Oklahoma use tax on materials and equipment brought into state and used in repair of interstate pipe lines held not invalid as exacting money without due process of law. Oklahoma Tax Com'n v. S. (CCA10), 113F(2d)853, rev'g (DC-Okla), 30FSupp131. Cert. den., 61SCR75.

Interstate character of a sale, made on a contract for purchase of goods which are to be shipped from another state, is not affected by fact that goods are consigned to shipper or his agent to whom order is given and are to be delivered by such agent, nor by employment of another agent or agency for delivery of goods purchased or by fact that goods ordered by several purchasers are shipped in bulk to agent and are delivered by agent to respective purchasers after breaking bulk. City of Waseca v. B., 206M154, 288NW229. See Dun. Dig. 4894.

Negotiation of sales of goods which are in another state, for purpose of introducing them into state in which negotiation is made, is interstate commerce. Id.

City ordinance requiring hawkers and peddlers taking orders for future delivery to have a license and pay a tax imposed an unlawful burden upon interstate commerce, as applied to local agent with local business receiving goods from employer in another state. Id.

State may not tax interstate commerce either by laying tax upon business which constitutes such commerce, or privilege of engaging in it, or upon receipts, as such, deprived from it. Id. See Dun. Dig. 4895.

Property engaged in transportation of interstate commerce may be subjected to the usual nondiscriminatory property taxes of the state if jurisdiction to tax otherwise is present. State v. Northwest Airlines, 213M395, 7NW(2d)691. See Dun. Dig. 9121.

Validity of a property tax on airplanes is governed by same principles as those relating to personal property generally. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9121.

- (8) Personal property of every household of the value of $100. The county auditor shall deduct such exemption from the total valuation of such property as equalized by the tax commission assessed to such household, and extend his levy of taxes upon the remainder only. The term "household" as used in this section shall be defined as a domestic establishment maintained either (1) by two or more persons living together within the same house or place of abode, subsisting in common and constituting a domestic or family relationship, or (2) by one person.

In case there is an assessment against more than one member of a household the $100 exemption shall be divided among the members assessed in the proportion that the assessed value of the personal property of each bears to the total assessed value of the personal property of all the members assessed. The personal property of each household claimed to be exempt shall be limited to property in one taxing district, except in those cases where a single domestic establishment is maintained in two or more adjoining districts. (As amended Act Feb. 18, 1943, c. 41, §1.)

Exemption of property of United States, see 5, 6-3, 6-9 to 6-15.

½. In general.

Exemption of property from taxation does not comprehend exemption from the payment of excise and impost taxes by the owner of the exempted property, especially those which are not imposed in lieu of property taxes. Christgau v. W., 208M263, 293NW619. See Dun. Dig. 9149.

Constitutional exemption of public hospitals from taxation applies to moneys and credits. Op. Atty. Gen. (614G), Nov. 28, 1940.

1983. Powers of tax commission.—The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this charter. He shall hear and determine all matters of grievance relating to taxation. He shall have power to grant such reduction or abatement of assessed valuations or taxes and of any costs, penalties or interest thereon as he may deem just and equitable, and to order the refundment in whole or in part of any taxes, costs, penalties or interest thereon which have been erroneously or unjustly paid. Application therefor shall be submitted with a statement of facts in the case and the favorable recommendation of the county board or of the board of abatement of any city where any such board exists, and the county auditor of the county wherein such tax was levied or paid. In the case of gross earnings taxes the application may be made directly to the Commissioner without the favorable action of the county board and county auditor, and the Commissioner shall direct that any gross earnings taxes which may have been erroneously or unjustly paid shall be applied against unpaid taxes due from the applicant for said refundment. But no reduction, abatement or refundment of any special assessments made or levied by any municipality for local improvements shall be made unless it is also approved by the board of review or similar taxing authority of such municipality. The Commissioner may refer any question that may arise in reference to the true construction of this chapter to the attorney general, and his decision thereon shall be in force and effect until annulled by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The Commissioner shall forward to the county auditor a copy of the order by him made in all cases in which the approval of the county board is required. The Commissioner may by written order abate, reduce or refund any penalty imposed by any law relating to taxation, if, in his opinion, the enforcement of such a penalty would be unjust and inequitable. Such order shall, in the case of real and personal property taxes, be made only on application and approval as provided in this section; in the case of all other taxes, such order shall be made on application of the taxpayer to the Commissioner and shall be valid only if approved in writing by the attorney general. (As amended Act Apr. 25, 1941, c. 454, §1.)

Though the United States was prevented from completely discharging its trust owing to Indian to turn over land on expiration of trust period free of charge or encumbrance because of wrongful assessment of taxes against the land, county was not liable in suit by the United States for taxes voluntarily paid by the Indian in settlement of assessment against such land. Where tax-forfeited lands were sold on May 17, and county auditor after sale spread taxes against property for that year, attempt of auditor to impose the taxes was ineffective and entry on tax list for that year should be removed by proper marginal note, and if taxes were paid they should be returned by county board upon proper claim without necessity of any proceedings before State Department of Taxation. Where a personal property tax judgment has been taken and later an abatement is allowed by commission, county auditor should transmit to clerk of district court a certified copy of order of commission, and clerk of district court should make appropriate record upon his judgment's docket, and if clerk is entitled to any fee for entry of such reduction, it should be added to amount of judgment and paid by judgment debtor when judgment is satisfied. Op. Atty. Gen. (421a-8), July 16, 1941.

Where taxes on real estate are being paid under ten year plan, and land goes delinquent again after only one payment has been made, and later owner obtained abatement, clerk of court on a fee basis is not entitled to any fees for discharging remaining ninth payment, because confession of judgment is no longer operative and there can be no satisfaction. LISTING AND ASSESSMENT

1984. Time.

Op. Atty. Gen. (59a-1), Sept. 27, 1939; note under §1990. It is improper for city assessor to make a general revaluation of real property in a year other than the regular year for assessing property, but city may employ an appraiser to prepare a plot of the city, establish comparable land values, and make records of improvement and establish comparable values on improvement, and fix salary of such appraiser at any reasonable figure, which data may be used in proper year by assessor in arriving at his own independent judgment in making assessment. Assessor should list and assess in odd numbered years all real property platted since last real estate assessment, but only as to plats which were both accepted by village council and recorded on or before May 1. Op. Atty. Gen. (474j-2), July 30, 1941.

1985. Omitted property. Subdivision 1.—If any real or personal property be omitted in the assessment of any year or years, and the property thereby escape taxation, or if any real property be undervalued by reason of failure to take into consideration the existence of buildings or improvements thereon, or be erroneously classified as a homestead, when such omission, undervaluation or erroneous classification is discovered the county auditor shall in the case of omitted property enter such property on the assessment and tax books for the year or years omitted, and in the case of property undervalued by reason of failure to take into consideration the existence of buildings or improvements thereon, or property erroneously classified as a homestead, shall correct the valuation or classification thereof on the assessment and tax books; and he shall assess the property, and extend against the same on the tax list for the current year all arrearage of taxes properly accruing against it, including therein, in the case of personal property taxes, interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent. per annum from the time such taxes would have become delinquent, when the omission was caused by the failure of the owner to list the same. If any tax on any property liable to taxation is prevented from being collected for any year or years by reason of any erroneous proceedings, undervaluation by reason of failure to take into consideration the existence of buildings or improvements, erroneous classification as a homestead, or other cause, the amount of such tax which such property should have paid shall be added to the tax on such property for the current year.

Subdivision 2. Nothing in this act shall authorize the county auditor to enter omitted property on the assessment and tax books more than six years after May first of the year in which the property was originally assessed or should have been assessed and nothing in this act shall authorize the county auditor to correct the valuation or classification of real property as herein provided more than one year after May first of the year in which the property was assessed or should have been assessed.

Subdivision 3. Nothing in this act shall affect any rights in undervalued or erroneously classified property, acquired for value in good faith prior to the correction of the assessed value thereof by the county auditor as provided in this section. Any person whose rights are adversely affected by any action of the county auditor as provided in this subdivision may apply for a reduction of the assessed valuation under the provisions of Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 1983, as amended by Laws 1941, Chapter 454, Section 1. relating to the powers of the Commissioner of Taxation. Where county auditor spread assessment against lands benefited by drainage system, but it was found that extra funds were necessary and amount of extra costs were determined at time of construction and records made thereof, but county auditor failed to spread assessment for extra cost against benefited lands, and an overdraft exists in ditch system accounts, county auditor may now cause such assessments to be spread as liens against benefited property under this section, though more than 20 years have elapsed. Op. Atty. Gen. (901b), June 27, 1941.

Indian land in White Earth Indian Reservation which became taxable at expiration of trust patent, but escaped taxation due to confusion, should be entered as omitted property on assessment books for past years, subject to the time limitation of six years, and it is immaterial that such lands have been transferred and are in the hands of innocent third party. Op. Atty. Gen. (21d), Oct. 11, 1943.

13. Void forfeiture.

Where forfeiture is void for insufficiency in description of property in delinquent list and judgment and certificate of forfeiture is cancelled, property may then be assessed and taxes levied for proper years as in case of omitted taxes. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-13), May 10, 1941.

1. Assessments, when and how made.

Where lands were annexed to city of Austin by resolution adopted by city council on July 21, and filed for records with register of deeds and county auditor on Sept. 9, county auditor should tax annexed lands in the township and not the city, except that special assessments should be listed in political subdivision of which land was a part at time of levy, notwithstanding that levy of taxes in the city is made during month of October. Op. Atty. Gen. (59a-1), Sept. 27, 1939.

Where taxpayer owns a contiguous tract of land less than one-third of an acre in extent on part of which she maintains her home, and the remainder of land has been leased for 10 years to a tenant who has erected buildings thereon subject to removal upon termination of lease, tenant's buildings should be assessed with the land. Op. Atty. Gen. (232d), Sept. 9, 1940.

1990-1. City council to fix salary of city assessor in certain cases.

Provision in South St. Paul City Charter ch. 6, §1 fixing salary of an assessor was superseded by Laws 1933, ch. 234, and council may increase or diminish salary of elected assessor during his term. Op. Atty. Gen. (12a-1), Dec. 8, 1942.

1992. Valuation of property.

In hearing on objections to valuation of land and department store for tax purposes, wherein leases to the proprietor of the store were admitted in evidence, though contention that value of these leases as evidence was affected by the critical financial situation of the department store and that evidence of its condition and that it was contemplating proceedings in bankruptcy should have been admitted, had some apparent merit as impeaching the probative force of the leases, such evidence has been considered inadmissible, and unless there was some evidence tending to prove that the property was not leaseable at a figure which would return a fair income on the valuation fixed upon the land, the exclusion of the evidence was not prejudicial. Kalscheuer v. State, 214 M441, 8NW(2d)624. See Dun. Dig. 9214.

Contention that building was oversized for housing of a department store commensurate with demands of the market was not supported by proof that would bring it within the rule laid down in the case of State v. McNiven, 183M539, 237NW410. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9210, (49b).

While trial court would not have been justified in basing its valuation solely upon leases executed many years before, it was entirely justified in receiving them as an element to be considered. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9214.

Many considerations may give rise to tax delinquency, and if such delinquencies exist uniformly in a district of which the property under consideration is a part, it might be error to exclude from evidence a list of tax delinquent property, but court was justified in rejecting such evidence where the lands listed therein were rather remote, in hearing on objections to valuation of land for tax purposes. 2074-1. Emergency declared to exist.—In the emergency now threatening the peace and security of this nation the entry of many citizens of this state into the military service of the United States, with consequent temporary decrease of personal income and inability to attend to private affairs, has created a condition likely to result in widespread and uneconomic forfeiture to the state of privately owned real estate under existing laws. The legislature of the state of Minnesota recognizes such a result would be detrimental to the state and in order to avoid such a result the above described emergency is hereby declared to exist; the condition stated is declared to require preventive legislative action; and provision is hereby made for suspension during said emergency and a necessary time thereafter of enforcement of taxes on real estate owned by people in the military service of the United States and their dependents. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 641, §1.)

The affidavit described in this section may be made and filed with like effect by another for the person in military service or his dependent, but in such case the affidavit shall state why it is not made by the person for whom it is filed and the basis of the affiant's knowledge of the facts therein set forth. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 641, §3.)

[401.04]

2074-5. Enforcement of payment of delinquent taxes stayed.—When an affidavit substantially in the form provided by Sec. 3 hereof is filed with the proper county auditor showing that real estate therein described comes within the purview of this act, all proceedings for the enforcement of delinquent taxes on such real estate shall be stayed and no interest or penalty for failure to pay any such tax on such real estate when due shall be charged or shall accrue except as hereinafter provided. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 641, §5.)

[401.05]

2074-6. No interest or penalty to accrue during stay.—Under the circumstances set out in Sec. 5 proceedings for the enforcement of delinquent taxes shall be stayed for the period of military service and during that period no interest or penalty for failure to pay taxes on said real estate when due shall be charged or shall accrue. And such real estate shall not be included in any list of lands upon which taxes are delinquent or in any proceedings with respect thereto during such period of military service, but the county auditor shall keep a separate list of the lands and owners thereof which are within the provisions of this act and upon which taxes are not paid showing the years for which taxes are not paid. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 641, §6.)

[401.06]

2074-7. To notify county auditor in writing of termination of service.—It shall be the duty of any person to notify the proper county auditor in writing of the termination of the period of military service during which he is entitled to claim benefits under this act within six months of such termination.

Failure to so notify shall prevent any further benefits under this act, all unpaid taxes on real estate owned by that person shall become immediately due and payable, interest and penalties shall accrue and be charged from the date of termination of the period of military service, and, unless unpaid taxes with accrued interest and penalties are sooner paid, such land shall be included in the next proceeding for the enforcement of payment of delinquent taxes with other land in the county. If it shall appear after the provisions of this act are evoked as to any real estate that such real estate does not come within the terms of this act or that a person claiming the benefits of this act is not entitled thereto, it shall have the same effect as failure to notify of the termination of the period of military service. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 641, §7.)

[401.07]

2074-8. Five years to pay.—Any person in military service or his dependent shall have five years in which to pay the taxes accrued on his real estate in the period of military service during which he is entitled to the benefits of this act if he pays not less than one fifth thereof in each of the five calendar years following the end of such period of military service, but any payment thereof must be made at the same time as he pays a part of the taxes then current and payable on the real estate upon which taxes have accrued. Failure to pay at least one-fifth of such accrued taxes in any such calendar year shall cause all of the unpaid accrued taxes to become immediately delinquent, payment of which shall be enforced like any other delinquent real estate tax with interest and penalties from the date the same became delinquent. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 641, §8.)

[401.08]

2074-9. Time to answer increased.—The time in which a defense or objection to any tax, assessment, or levy affected by this act may be made under Laws 1935, Chapter 300, and acts amendatory thereof, is extended to the first day of June which is more than six months following termination of the period of military service, and as to any tax affected by this act, payment of the part of the tax required by Laws 1935, Chapter 300, Section 3, as amended, shall not be required. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 641, §9.)

[401.09]

2074-10. Effective until May 15th, 1945.—This act shall remain in force until May 15, 1945; provided, that should the United States be then engaged in a war, this act shall remain in force until such war is terminated by a treaty of peace proclaimed by the President of the United States, and for six months thereafter. (Act Apr. 24, 1940, c. 641, §10.)

[401.10]

2075. Treasurer to be collector.

County treasurer and county auditor must pay over to township tax money collected for it, and cannot refuse on ground that town must stand its proportionate share of former loss of tax money through bank insolvency. State v. County of Pennington, 211M569, 2NW(2d)41. See Dun. Dig. 2313, 2323, 9260, 9260a, 9261.

In North Dakota, as in Minnesota, county is agency through which the state collects its real estate taxes. S.R.A., Inc., 213M487, 7NW(2d)484. See Dun. Dig. 9124.

2080. Undivided interest—Payment and receipt.

Where persons owning undivided interest paid proportionate share of taxes covering year 1931 but failed to pay any taxes for 1932 and subsequent years, and other undivided interests were subject to forfeiture by the state, persons owning undivided interest upon which they paid taxes for 1931 could redeem their respective interests by paying their proportionate shares of 1932 and subsequent taxes with interest and penalties, and might also redeem the other interest, but not in their own name. Op. Atty. Gen. (423h), May 10, 1940.

One owning the surface and one-third of the mineral may redeem the surface and his undivided one-third of minerals, and this would not affect proceedings to enforce collection of tax against remaining two-thirds interest in the minerals and a new judgment is not necessary. Op. Atty. Gen. (407i), July 15, 1941.

2081. Orders received for taxes.

Commissioner of banks liquidating a bank can compel village to pay warrants held by bank notwithstanding that there are delinquent taxes on buildings owned by the bank far in excess of the amount of the warrants. Op. Atty. Gen. (476c-6), Oct. 30, 1939.

ACCOUNTING AND DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS2082. Settlement between auditor and treasurer.

State v. County of Pennington, 211M569, 2NW(2d)41; note under §2083.

2083. Apportionment and distribution of funds.

County treasurer and county auditor must pay over to township tax money collected for it, and cannot refuse on ground that town must stand its proportionate share of former loss of tax money through bank insolvency. State v. County of Pennington, 211M569, 2NW(2d)41. See Dun. Dig. 2313, 2323, 9260, 9260a, 9261.

2084. When treasurer shall pay funds.

County treasurer and county auditor must pay over to township tax money collected for it, and cannot refuse on ground that town must stand its proportionate share of former loss of tax money through bank insolvency. State v. County of Pennington, 211M569, 2NW(2d)41. See Dun. Dig. 2313, 2323, 9260, 9260a, 9261.

2085. Auditor to keep accounts.

Where on death of city treasurer city council could not agree on appointment of any person as city treasurer, but under its charter appointed a person as assistant city treasurer with all powers of a city treasurer, city clerk could file a certificate to the effect that the assistant city treasurer was duly authorized to receive all money payable to the city treasurer, and that assistant treasurer had given bond according to law. Op. Atty. Gen. (63a-1), Jan. 19, 1940.

2087-1. Additional appropriations by state; etc.

Laws 1943, c. 22, amends this section as it appears in Mason's 1927, Minnesota Statutes, by substituting the word "thirteen" instead of the word "twelve", as the thirtieth word of the text. This section, as amended, now reads: "Whenever the value of the property in and within two miles of the corporate limits of any city or village in the State of Minnesota, containing not more than thirteen thousand inhabitants, * * * otherwise the statute is the same as appears in Mason's 1927 Minnesota Statutes, §2087-1.

Laws 1943, c. 559. Towns within county containing 1,000,000 acres and 60 to 75 townships and population of 30,000 to 50,000.

Valuation of property and computation of allowance is to be made as of May 1 in taxable year, and population change according to 1940 federal census did not become effective for purposes of state laws until May 12, 1941, when governor filed with secretary of state a certified copy of official 1940 census tables containing a report of population of Brainerd showing that its population had become more than 12,000, and that city is entitled to an allowance in 1942 for 1941 taxes. Op. Atty. Gen. (454E), Oct. 21, 1941.

2087-5. Certain towns to receive special relief.—

Whenever the value of the property within the boundaries of the corporate limits of any town in the state, which is exempt from local taxation because taxes thereon are paid into the state treasury under the provisions of the gross earnings tax law, exceeds $2,000,000 and is equal to or greater than the taxable value of all real and personal property, exclusive of money and credits within any such town, then such town shall be entitled to receive from the state treasury, in addition to all other taxes received thereby, such an amount as would be produced by computing a tax of one-third of the current tax rate for town purposes upon such property so exempt from local taxation, provided, that the amount which any such town shall receive shall not exceed $1,500 in any year. Railroad valuations shall cover all railroad property located in any town except rolling stock, main tracks and fills or bridges supporting the same. (As amended Act Apr. 20, 1943, c. 506, §1.)

2087-6. Same—Shall make applications to state auditor.

Relief to certain towns. Amended. Laws 1943, c. 559.

DELINQUENT PERSONAL PROPERTY TAXES2089. Treasurer to file delinquent list in court—Answer—Trial.*1. Proceedings in personam.

Unlike real estate taxes, personal property taxes are enforced in personam, although assessed and imposed because of property ownership. S.R.A., Inc., 213M487, 7NW(2d)484. See Dun. Dig. 9281.

2091. Payment under protest.

Mere fact that taxes were illegal does not make the payment thereof involuntary. Pettibone v. C., (DC-Minn), 31FSupp381.

Fact that drainage assessment was paid under protest was immaterial, unless payment was made under duress or coercion, and then only as evidence to show that alleged payment was a result of duress, as affecting waiver of notice of hearing on assessment of annual taxes in drainage proceedings to keep ditches in proper repair and free from obstruction. Petition of Slaughter, 213M70, 5 NW(2d)64. See Dun. Dig. 9517.

2092. Sheriff to file list of uncollected taxes.

Personal property tax judgment may be cancelled only as provided by this section or evaded only as provided by §1983. Op. Atty. Gen. (4077), Mar. 17, 1941.

2093. Citation to delinquents—default judgment.

Amount of expense incurred by county, including fees to sheriff and mileage paid, should be included in judgment entered. Op. Atty. Gen. (390c-13), Oct. 21, 1942.

2097. Clerk's fee—Execution.

A personal tax judgment is not a lien against the homestead, but no personal property, including household goods, is exempt from execution. Op. Atty. Gen. (421a-16), Sept. 25, 1939.

If clerk receives a definite salary in lieu of all fees collected by him, he is not entitled to fees provided for herein, but if he receives fee in lieu of a definite salary, he is entitled to these fees. Op. Atty. Gen. (144B-21), Sept. 30, 1939.

Fee of $1.50 is not earned by clerk apparently unless judgment is perfected, and for issuing a citation in any case where judgment is not perfected, whether defendant is served or not, clerk should receive a fee of 25 cents. Op. Atty. Gen. (144p-21), Sept. 4, 1942.

2098. Sheriff's fees.

Where a default personal property tax judgment is entered and sheriff returns execution unsatisfied, he is entitled to usual fee, including mileage and percentage, in case taxpayer thereafter voluntarily pays amount of tax judgment to county treasurer. Op. Atty. Gen. (390c-13), Nov. 28, 1939.

If collection of personal property tax citation is made by the sheriff without distress and sale, the compensation is such as is fixed by the county board, but if collection is after distress and sale, fees are 5% on the amount collected. Op. Atty. Gen. (390c-13), Oct. 11, 1943.

2101. Docketing judgment.

Where a personal property tax judgment has been taken and later an abatement is allowed by commission, county auditor should transmit to clerk of district court a certified copy of order of commission, and clerk of district court should make appropriate record upon his judgment's docket, and if clerk is entitled to any fee for entry of such reduction, it should be added to amount of judgment and paid by judgment debtor when judgment is satisfied. Op. Atty. Gen. (421a-8), July 16, 1941.

There is no procedure provided by statute for any official to execute and deliver an instrument releasing homestead from lien of judgment without payment of taxes. Op. Atty. Gen. (421a-8), Apr. 10, 1942.

2102. Interest.

Personal property tax reduced to judgment bears interest at 6%. Op. Atty. Gen. (520i), Dec. 8, 1939.

Personal property and money and credits taxes, upon which penalties have already been imposed, do not bear interest prior to judgment. Op. Atty. Gen., (421-2-8), Jan. 16, 1941.

2103. Satisfaction of judgment.

Manner of extinguishing liens of judgment in favor of state following tax forfeiture and sale. Op. Atty. Gen. (425d), Jan. 9, 1943.

DELINQUENT REAL ESTATE TAXES2104. Penalty and interest on real estate taxes.

If an owner pays no part of his land taxes before June 1st, he may pay one-half thereof at any time before November 1st together with penalties accrued on that one-half, and remaining one-half may be paid without penalty at any time prior to November 1st. Op. Atty. Gen. (474h), Oct. 6, 1939.

Where 1932 tax was delinquent in 1934 and in 1935 the 1933 tax became delinquent, 1933 tax should bear interest from March 1, 1935. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-9), May 28, 1941.

2105. Duties of county auditor and treasurer.—

On the first Monday in January, of each year, the county treasurer shall return the tax lists in his hands to the county auditor, who shall compare the same with the statements received for by the treasurer on file in the auditor's office and each tract or lot of real property against which the taxes, or any part thereof, remain unpaid, shall be deemed delinquent, and thereupon an additional penalty of two per cent on the amount of the original tax remaining unpaid shall immediately accrue and thereafter be charged upon all such delinquent taxes; and any auditor who shall make out and deliver any statement of delinquent taxes without including therein the penalties imposed by law, and any treasurer who shall receive payment of such taxes without including in such payment all items as shown on the auditor's statement, shall be liable to the county for the amounts of any items omitted. (As amended Apr. 2, 1943, c. 281, §1.)

PROCEEDINGS FOR COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT REAL ESTATE TAXES

7. A proceeding in rem—Constructive seizure sufficient. Real estate taxes, which are assessed and enforced against the land itself, are not charges against the person owning the property or his estate, and proceedings to enforce them are strictly in rem, not in personam. S.R.A., Inc., 213M487, 7NW(2d)484. See Dun. Dig. 9281.

2105-1. Interest on delinquent real estate taxes.—The rate of interest on delinquent real estate taxes levied in the year 1930 and 1931 is hereby fixed at ten per cent per annum, and the rate of interest on delinquent real estate taxes levied in the year 1932 and subsequent years is hereby fixed at eight per cent per annum. The rate of interest on delinquent taxes levied in the year 1942 and subsequent years is hereby fixed at six per cent per annum. All provisions of law providing for the calculation of interest at any different rate on delinquent taxes in any notice or proceeding in connection with the payment, collection, sale, or assignment of delinquent taxes, or redemption from such sale or assignment are hereby amended to correspond herewith. In calculating such interest for any fractional part of a year on taxes levied in 1930 and 1931 it shall be calculated on the basis of five-sixths of one per cent for any month or major fraction thereof; and in calculating such interest for any fractional part of a year on taxes levied in 1932 and subsequent years, it shall be calculated on the basis of two-thirds of one per cent for any month or major fraction thereof. In calculating such interest for any fractional part of a year on taxes levied in 1942 and subsequent years, it shall be calculated on the basis of one-half of one per cent for any month or major fraction thereof.

Such interest shall be calculated from the second Monday of May following the year in which the taxes became due, on the full amount of the taxes, penalties and costs accrued. (As amended Apr. 2, 1943, c. 281, §2.)

Laws 1943, c. 281, amending this section and fixing second Monday in May for interest computation, applies only to taxes for 1942 and subsequent years. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-9), May 18, 1943.

2105-1a. Application.—The provisions of section 2 of this act shall not apply to any taxes which have heretofore been bid in by an actual purchaser at a May tax sale or which have heretofore been assigned. (Act Apr. 2, 1943, c. 281, §3.)

2105-3. Delinquent real estate taxes—Payment.—In any case where taxes for two or more years are delinquent against a parcel of land, such taxes for one or more entire years, if held by the state, may be paid in the inverse order to that in which the taxes were levied, with accrued penalties, interest, and costs upon the taxes so paid, without payment of the taxes for the first of such years; provided, that such payment shall not affect the lien of any unpaid taxes or tax judgment. (Act Mar. 28, 1941, c. 97, §1.) [280.39]

2105-4. Same—Credits—Interest.—Whenever the sheriff shall pay into the county treasury rents collected as provided in Mason's Supplement 1940. Section 2150, and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, the same shall be applied in the inverse order to that in which such taxes were levied, crediting the same as follows: (1) against penalties, interest, and costs upon the last delinquent taxes, (2) against such taxes as levied; and the same procedure shall be followed for each year's delinquent taxes until such payments have been exhausted. Whenever, under Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 2150, a year's taxes are partially paid, interest shall be charged thereafter only upon the unpaid balance; provided, that in case of part payment of the taxes for any year, the land affected shall remain, as to the unpaid balance, subject to sale, redemption, forfeiture, and all other proceedings, respecting delinquent taxes in like manner as for a full year's taxes. (Act Mar. 28, 1941, c. 97, §2.) [280.40]

2106. Delinquent list—Filing—Effect.

THE DELINQUENT LIST GENERALLY

1. Auditor prepares list.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act has no effect upon confession of judgment, and reinstatement of all penalties and interest, but lands should not be listed as delinquent or be sold. Op. Atty. Gen. (310), Nov. 2, 1942.

2. What taxes included.

Taxes for two or more years may be included in the list but should be stated separately. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-13), Oct. 4, 1943.

Where tax judgment was a nullity, the taxes for the year for which the judgment was taken, and all subsequent unpaid taxes, remained delinquent the same as if no proceeding for obtaining judgment had been attempted, and delinquent taxes for all such years should be included in the next delinquent tax list. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), Dec. 2, 1943.

3. Lands bid in for state not included.

There was no statutory authority for taking of a new judgment for 1933 taxes when there was already a judgment for 1932 taxes which had not been assigned. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), May 10, 1941.

4. Statement of amount due.

Where judgment had been entered for 1932 delinquent real estate taxes, delinquent taxes for subsequent years were properly attached to tax judgment and omitted from subsequent tax lists. Singer v. Village of Goodridge, 210M324, 298NW35. See Dun. Dig. 9293.

5. Mistake in name of owner.

County auditor is not concerned in controversy between private claimants to title of land. Op. Atty. Gen. (425i), Aug. 6, 1943.

DESCRIPTION OF THE REAL ESTATE

20. Descriptions held insufficient.

Description of property as Pt. NW¼ of SE¼, 2 acres Sec. 36, T. 162, R. 35, and naming the owner was insufficient. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-13) May 10, 1941.

Descriptions such as "one acre in NW¼ of NW¼" is too indefinite and judgment thereon is void. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), Dec. 2, 1943.

FILING THE LIST

22. Jurisdictional.

Where notice required to be published and attached to list of delinquent real estate taxes for 1932 included the paragraph provided by L. 1927, c. 119, §3, to effect that five years after sale of land for taxes real estate would become absolute property of purchaser without any further right of redemption and without any notice of expiration of time to redeem, such notice did not vitiate district court's jurisdiction to enter judgment even though L. 1933, c. 366, §1, required notice of expiration of time to redeem because it merely related to redemption and not to court's acquisition of jurisdiction. Singer v. Village of Goodridge, 210M324, 298NW35. See Dun. Dig. 9290, 9322.

2107. Copy of list and notice.

Where notice required to be published and attached to list of delinquent real estate taxes for 1932 included the paragraph provided by L. 1927, c. 119, §3, to effect that five years after sale of land for taxes real estate would become absolute property of purchaser without any further right of redemption and without any notice of expiration of time to redeem, such notice did not vitiate district court's jurisdiction to enter judgment, even though L. 1933, c. 366, §1, required notice of expiration of time to redeem, because it merely related to redemption and not to court's acquisition of jurisdiction. Singer v. Village of Goodridge, 210M324, 298NW35. See Dun. Dig. 9290, 9322.

2108. Bids for publication.

Op. Atty. Gen. (412A-13), Jan. 2, 1942; note under §2109.

2109. Designation of newspaper.—At their annual meeting in January, and prior to the designation, the county board shall open, examine and consider all offers for publication filed or presented as provided in Section 2096, and shall thereupon award the publication of the notice and list to the publisher or proprietor of the newspaper whose offer is found to be the lowest, and does not exceed forty-five cents for each description. The board may reject any offer, if, in its judgment the public interest so require, and may thereupon designate a paper without regard to any rejected offer. In counties now or hereafter having a population of 75,000 or more, the board shall designate a daily paper of general circulation throughout such county; provided that if no such daily paper submits a bid at the rate herein provided, the board may designate a weekly paper of general circulation throughout said county. In any county in which there is no legal newspaper the board shall designate any such newspaper printed in the judicial district in which the county is situated, and circulating in the county. Every such designation shall be by resolution, which shall be substantially in the following form:

Resolved, that (here state the name of the newspaper) be, and the same is hereby, designated by the county board of the county of as the newspaper in which the notice and list of the real estate remaining delinquent on the first Monday of January, 19. . . , shall be published.

A copy of the resolution certified by the auditor, shall be filed with the clerk of the district court. If, for any reason, the board fail to designate a newspaper, or the proprietor of the newspaper fail to give the required bond, the auditor shall thereupon designate the same in writing, and immediately file such writing in his office, and a certified copy thereof with such clerk. (As amended Act Apr. 24, 1941, c. 400, §1.)

It is the offer and the acceptance of the offer of the printer that makes the contract, and we must look to the offer to determine the amount. Op. Atty. Gen. (412A-13), Jan. 2, 1942.

2110. Publication of notice and list.

2. Period of publication.

Whether publication of notice and list of delinquent real property two weeks apart prevented court from acquiring jurisdiction was considered but not determined. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-13), Apr. 15, 1941.

Publication for two weeks with one week intervening between two publications is invalid. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-13), Oct. 4, 1943.

2115. What defects jurisdictional.

CONCLUSIVENESS OF THE JUDGMENT

5. Collateral attack—General statement.

Whether publication of notice and list of delinquent real property two weeks apart prevented court from acquiring jurisdiction was considered but not determined. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-13), Apr. 15, 1941.

6. Collateral attack—List of grounds for.

Description of property as Pt. NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of SE $\frac{1}{4}$, 2 acres Sec. 36, T. 162, R. 35, and naming the owner was insufficient. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-13), May 10, 1941.

2116. Who may answer—Form.

$\frac{1}{2}$. In general.

A new procedure for questioning correctness of an assessment of land for tax purposes was prescribed by Laws 1935, ch. 300, §1 (Mason St. §§2126-1 to 2126-14). Delinquent Real Estate Taxes, 212M562, 4NW(2d)783. See Dun. Dig. 9328.

Question whether this section was superseded by Laws 1935, chapter 300, was mentioned but not determined. Petition of Slaughter, 213M70, 5NW(2d)64. See Dun. Dig. 9228-9330.

The same defense may now be asserted by petition as were asserted formerly by answer under this section. Saxhaug v. County of Jackson, 215M490, 10NW(2d)722. See Dun. Dig. 9334.

Procedure provided by §2126-1 to §2126-14 is exclusive method by which there may be raised a claim that property has been partially, unfairly or illegally assessed, or has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that tax levied against it is illegal in whole or in part, and as to these defenses such sections supersede remedy provided in §2116, though defense that a tax has been paid or that property is exempt from tax so levied may be raised under either procedure, but if it is raised under procedure provided in §2126-1, et seq., judgment is conclusive and question may not again be raised by answer in delinquent tax proceedings. Op. Atty. Gen., (412a), April 25, 1940.

12. List of admissible defenses.

Order of county board purporting to levy an assessment for ditch repairs "at a rate not exceeding 30 mills" was void for failure to fix a definite rate, and spreading of an assessment by county auditor based upon such order was illegal, and could be attacked by answer or petition. Saxhaug v. County of Jackson, 215M490, 10NW(2d)722. See Dun. Dig. 2840, 9338, (63).

2117. Judgment when no answer—Form—Entry.

1. Statutory form must be followed.

Proposed changes in real estate tax judgment book should not be made until validity is upheld by supreme court or law amended to permit them. Op. Atty. Gen., (21f), Jan. 17, 1941.

9. Premature entry.

Entry of tax judgment six days before time of answering expired, is an irregularity not fatal in a collateral attack on the judgment. Miner v. B., 206M341, 288NW 582. See Dun. Dig. 9348.

2119. Judgment.

On appeal to the district court, landowner challenging amount of tax has burden of proving that property was overvalued. Kalscheuer v. State, 214M441, 8NW(2d)624. See Dun. Dig. 9332.

2122. Appeal to supreme court.

If findings of district court as to value of land in tax proceedings are reasonably supported by evidence, they must be sustained on appeal. Delinquent Real Estate Taxes, 212M562, 4NW(2d)783. See Dun. Dig. 9336.

Unless trial court's finding of value of land on appeal in tax proceeding is manifestly against the weight of the evidence, supreme court must affirm. Kalscheuer v. State, 214M441, 8NW(2d)624. See Dun. Dig. 9355.

2126. Payment before judgment.

Even though statutes provide for issuance of a certificate to purchaser who pays subsequent taxes at annual May sale following the date they become delinquent, this does not change character of payment as affecting amounts necessary to redeem. Op. Atty. Gen. (423k), June 29, 1942.

DEFENSES OR OBJECTIONS TO TAXES ON REAL ESTATE

2126-1. Defense or objection to tax on land—Service and filing.

Supreme court did not decide whether it was necessary to follow new procedure for questioning correctness of an assessment of land for tax purposes where question was not raised. Delinquent Real Estate Taxes, 212M562, 4NW(2d)783. See Dun. Dig. 9328.

It is a material condition of the act that petition for cancellation of ditch assessments be served upon county auditor, treasurer, and attorney on or before first day of June of year in which tax becomes payable. Petition of Slaughter, 5NW(2d)64. See Dun. Dig. 9328-9330.

Question whether this act superseded old law was mentioned but not determined. Id.

On appeal from an order denying a blended motion for amended findings or new trial, only that part of order denying a new trial will be reviewed. S.R.A., Inc., 213M487, 7NW(2d)484. See Dun. Dig. 300, 301.

A finding not sustained by the record and which is in substance a mere conclusion of law may be stricken as irrelevant to the issues. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9535.

Payment by a taxpayer of a portion of a tax or assessment "under protest", but not as a result of duress or coercion, constitutes a waiver by taxpayer of any objections he might have to the assessment proceedings on jurisdictional grounds. Rosso v. Village of Brooklyn Center, 214M364, 8NW(2d)219. See Dun. Dig. 9219b.

Section applies to special assessments as well as general taxes. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9219b.

Where statute affords a taxpayer an adequate remedy at law to contest assessment proceedings or the collection of an assessment, taxpayer is not entitled to maintain a suit in equity to enjoin collection of the assessment. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9537.

Where landowner's right to object to an assessment has not been foreclosed by the prior proceedings, the statute permitting him to contest the validity of taxes by petition should be liberally construed to afford him relief not otherwise open to him. Saxhaug v. County of Jackson, 215M490, 10NW(2d)722.

The same defenses may be asserted by petition under this section as were asserted formerly by answer. Id.

Order of county board purporting to levy an assessment for ditch repairs "at a rate not exceeding 30 mills" was void for failure to fix a definite rate, and spreading of an assessment by county auditor based upon such order was illegal, and could be attacked by answer or petition. Id. See Dun. Dig. 2840, 9338(63).

Procedure provided by §2126-1 to §2126-14 is exclusive method by which there may be raised a claim that property has been partially, unfairly or illegally assessed, or has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that tax levied against it is illegal in whole or in part, and as to these defenses such sections supersede remedy provided in §2116, though defense that a tax has been paid or that property is exempt from tax so levied may be raised under either procedure, but if it is raised under procedure provided in §2126-1, et seq., judgment is conclusive and question may not again be raised by answer in delinquent tax proceedings. Op. Atty. Gen., (412a), April 25, 1940.

2126-3. Payment of portion of tax.

Persons in military service. Laws 1943, c. 641.

2126-4. Treasurer must stamp tax lists.

Where judgment is entered before time for filing of delinquent list it is not necessary to add premises upon which judgment has already been taken to delinquent list for purpose of taking a new judgment. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), March 11, 1940.

2126-5. Trial of issues.

There was no intention on part of legislature in enacting Laws 1939, c. 431, Art. 6, §18, to deprive municipality of a right of review when it contends that determination of commissioner is inadequate. Village of Aurora, MBTA(No. 55), May 20, 1941.

2126-7. Judgment—Amount—Costs.

Where petitioner is awarded judgment that a purported tax against his property is illegal, he is entitled to his costs and disbursements. Saxhaug v. County of Jackson, 215M490, 10NW(2d)722.

2126-8. Penalties and interest.

Where a petition for review has been filed and judgment is entered prior to first of November, one-half or one-quarter of tax remaining unpaid after tax has been sustained in whole or in part sections 2126-8 and 2126-10 require auditor to add to judgment an 8% penalty for failure to pay taxes for November 1st. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), March 11, 1940.

2126-10. To be entered in judgment book.

Where judgment has been entered prior to publication of notice of regular annual sale, land shall be sold at such sale, but if judgment is entered subsequent to publication of notice for regular annual sale, then a special sale upon judgment shall be immediately advertised and land sold. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), March 11, 1940.

2126-15. Acquisition of tax delinquent land before forfeiture.—Whenever any lands have been bid in for the state for delinquent taxes at any tax judgment sale and have not been sold or assigned, the county board of the county in which such lands are situated may, in its discretion, with the consent first obtained of the governing body of the city, village, or town in which such lands are situated, accept a conveyance from the owner thereof to the state; provided that the county attorney finds that such owner has good title to such lands and that they are free and clear of all encumbrances except taxes. (Act Apr. 6, 1943, c. 327, §1.)
[280.385]

2126-16. To have same status as tax forfeited lands.—Upon conveyance of title to the state, such lands shall have the status of lands absolutely forfeited to the state for taxes, and shall be subject to all applicable provisions of law as if they had become so forfeited at the date of acceptance of the conveyance by the county board. (Act Apr. 6, 1943, c. 327, §2.)
[280.385]

2126-17. Procedure if title fails.—If the title of the state under such conveyance should for any reason be finally adjudged void or subject to any encumbrance, the county auditor, upon the filing in his office of a certified copy of such judgment, shall reinstate all taxes, penalties, and interest which were a lien upon said lands at the time such conveyance was made, and shall assess as omitted the taxes for the years subsequent thereto. Such lands shall thereupon be subject to forfeiture or other proceedings upon such taxes as provided by law as if no conveyance to the state had been made. (Act Apr. 6, 1943, c. 327, §3.)

TAX SALES

2127. Mode of sale.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act has no effect upon confession of judgment, and reinstatement of all penalties and interest, but lands should not be listed as delinquent or be sold. Op. Atty. Gen. (310), Nov. 2, 1942.

2. Contents.

Notice following repealed law by specifying that at expiration of 5 years, each parcel of land sold at sale, and not redeemed, will become and be absolute property of the purchaser or of the state, was not sufficient to invalidate notice. Op. Atty. Gen., (419), Mar. 14, 1941.

2128. Public vendue.

1. Conduct of generally.

Where tax records did not note easements of railroad paying gross earnings tax, judgment and sale to the state was not void but was ineffective as far as railroad easements was concerned, and notice of expiration of period of redemption or certificate after expiration of time for redemption should include words "subject to railroad easement". Op. Atty. Gen. (216i), June 16, 1942.

4. Bidding in for state.

Where a village acquires deed to land which has been sold to the state for delinquent taxes, village need not pay the delinquent taxes and state cannot proceed to forfeiture and deed to the village should be recorded without payment of taxes. Op. Atty. Gen., (414a-11), May 7, 1940.

CERTIFICATE OF SALE

2. Contents.

4. Upon sale to the state.

Where property was sold to state for taxes, state became absolute owner subject only to a trust in favor of respective taxing subdivisions interested in the property. Fortman v. City of Minneapolis, 212M340, 4NW(2d) 349. See Dun. Dig. 9373, 9419b.

RIGHTS OF CERTIFICATE HOLDER

8%. In general.

Validity of a tax certificate and rights of holder thereunder are to be determined by law in force at time certificate issues. Absetz v. M., 290NW298. See Dun. Dig. 9406.

10. After expiration of redemption period.

One who enters into a collusive agreement with a life tenant for purpose of defeating interests of remaindermen cannot enforce a lien on property for amount paid to acquire title thereto at a tax sale. Turner v. E., 207 M455, 292NW257. See Dun. Dig. 3167.

As between life tenant and remaindermen, it is duty of former to pay taxes, and acquisition of a tax title by a life tenant is treated as a payment or a redemption thereof for benefit of both life tenant and remaindermen. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3170.

Grantee of a mortgagor stands in no better position than mortgagor insofar as his ability to acquire a tax title valid as against mortgagee is concerned. Pulsifer v. Paxton, 212M68, 2NW(2d)427. See Dun. Dig. 6267, 9374.

Prior to foreclosure, a mortgagor may not acquire a valid tax title as against mortgagee by failing to pay taxes in violation of a covenant or condition of his mortgage. Id.

Where land standing in name of married woman was sold for taxes to her daughter who paid subsequent taxes, and old age assistance was thereafter furnished surviving husband of owner and lien filed, on expiration of period of redemption taxpayer acquires title free from any claim on part of state, and further old age recipient has only a life estate which will terminate upon his death and render lien of state unenforceable. Op. Atty. Gen., (521p-4), May 10, 1940.

An ordinance attempting to make a payment of delinquent water bill incurred by former owner of tax-forfeited premises a condition precedent to supplying of water to purchaser from the state would be invalid. Op. Atty. Gen. (624d-5), July 8, 1942. See Dun. Dig. 1668, 1674, 9396.

2134. Record of assignment.

Repurchases of tax forfeited land under Laws 1933, c. 407, Laws 1937, Ex. Sess., c. 88, Laws 1939, c. 283, and Laws 1941, c. 43, are not purchases upon sale of land for general taxes or for special assessments for local improvements, and this section has no application. Op. Atty. Gen. (409B-3), Oct. 24, 1941.

Section has no application to sales under Laws 1935, c. 210, Laws 1935, c. 386, as amended by Laws 1939, c. 328, or Laws 1941, c. 511. Id.

County auditor should continue to accept for record assignment after time for redemption expires unless it appears that certificate or deed involved is void for failure to comply with §2170. Id.

Term "certificate or deed" means certificate issued pursuant to a sale held on second Monday in May in each year, and reason for requiring recording is just as compelling after expiration of time for redemption as it is before. Id.

A state assignment certificate may be recorded where no notice has ever been given. Op. Atty. Gen. (409b-5), Sept. 14, 1943.

2136. Payment of subsequent taxes.

Even though Mason's St. Supp. 1940, §2136, provides for issuance of a certificate to purchaser who pays subsequent taxes at the annual May sale following the date they become delinquent, this does not change character of payments within meaning of Mason's St. §2152(2). Op. Atty. Gen. (423k), Apr. 15, 1942.

Even though statutes provide for issuance of a certificate to purchaser who pays subsequent taxes at annual May sale following the date they become delinquent, this does not change character of payment as affecting amounts necessary to redeem. Op. Atty. Gen. (423k), June 29, 1942.

2137. Lands bid in for state.

CERTIFICATE OF ASSIGNMENT

3. Who may take.

City of Moorhead has power to buy interest of state in land bid in for state at delinquent tax judgment sale, and county auditor was authorized to issue certificate assigning state's interest to buyer, and this right was not impliedly or otherwise affected by confession of judgment statutes, words "not assigned by it" referring to time owner offered to confess judgment, and not to moment law was approved. Adams v. Atkinson, 212M 131, 2NW(2d)818. See Dun. Dig. 9390, 9405a.

4. Purchaser must pay subsequent delinquent taxes.

Where judgment was secured upon 1932 taxes and separate assignment for 1933 taxes was given to same person who took assignment of 1932 taxes, notice of expiration of time of redemption must be served upon 1932 taxes, since separate assignment made of 1933 taxes was of no force. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-23), June 24, 1941.

5. Authority of auditor limited by statute.

Owner of land sold for taxes desiring to confess judgment and redeem cannot take any advantage of irregularities of city council in procuring from county auditor certificate assigning state's interest to it. Adams v. Atkinson, 212M131, 2NW(2d)818. See Dun. Dig. 9390, 9405a.

9. Time of assignment.

Where lands were sold for delinquent taxes for year 1931 in May, 1935, whereas 1932 tax on same property was bid in for state in May, 1934, and all tax judgments for years 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936 and 1937 were added to judgment obtained in May, 1934, under 1932 tax sale, it was too late in April, 1940, to obtain an assignment of the 1932 tax judgment, but one could obtain assignments of 1931 tax judgments and pay tax judgments for 1932 taxes, and later years, and serve notice of expiration of redemption and acquire title, without entering into competitive bidding. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), April 18, 1940.

11. Effect of abatement of taxes.

Commissioner of taxation does not have power to abate taxes which have been assigned. Op. Atty. Gen. (407i), July 15, 1941.

Certificates of sale issued in 1927 became void after October 25, 1941, if not already void, and notice of expiration of redemption cannot now be issued. Op. Atty. Gen. (409c-2), Nov. 24, 1941.

2139. Same—Conduct of sale.

City ordinances attempting to recoup losses of city on special improvements (sewer and water mains) assessed against a parcel of land forfeited to state for nonpayment of taxes by imposing upon purchaser from state a connection fee equal to the unrealized portion of the assessment as condition of using water and sewer facilities violated state law and city charter. Fortman v. City of Minneapolis, 212M340, 4NW(2d)349. See Dun. Dig. 9373.

It is not the policy of the state, nor should it be, to deprive owners of real estate of their interest therein on account of tax delinquency, and if any reasonable means can be devised whereby ownerships may be protected against tax forfeitures, without injury to others, clearly it should be the purpose of the state to lend a helping hand. State v. Flach, 213M353, 6NW(2d)805. See Dun. Dig. 9180.

Effect on purchaser from the state of defect in notice of expiration of period of redemption. McHardy v. State, 215M132, 9NW(2d)427; McHardy v. State, 215M141, 9NW(2d)432; McHardy v. State, 215M146, 9NW(2d)435; note under §2164-12, 281.23.

Failure of posted notice of expiration of redemption to designate name of assessed owner as carried on official assessment books rendered tax forfeiture proceedings fatally defective. McHardy v. State, 215M141, 9NW(2d)432; McHardy v. State, 215M146, 9NW(2d)435. See Dun. Dig. 9440.

2139-1/2. Unredeemed lands.

City ordinances attempting to recoup losses of city on special improvements (sewer and water mains) assessed against a parcel of land forfeited to state for nonpayment of taxes by imposing upon purchaser from state a connection fee equal to the unrealized portion of the assessment as condition of using water and sewer facilities violated state law and city charter. Fortman v. City of Minneapolis, 212M340, 4NW(2d)349. See Dun. Dig. 9373.

2139-1. Same—Delinquent taxes for 1926.

Rights of purchaser at a delinquent tax sale under Laws 1927, c. 119, were not extinguished by failure to record his certificate of tax sale within statutory limit of time fixed and provided by §§2169 and 2170. Absetz v. M., 207M202, 290NW298. See Dun. Dig. 9386.

2139-2. Same—Attacking validity of sales. [Repealed.]

Repealed. Act Apr. 24, 1941, c. 428. Pending actions not affected by such repeal.

Where notice required to be published and attached to list of delinquent real estate taxes for 1932 included the paragraph provided by Laws 1927, c. 119, §3, to effect that five years after sale of land for taxes real estate would become absolute property of purchaser without any further right of redemption and without any notice of expiration of time to redeem, such notice did not vitiate district court's jurisdiction to enter judgment, even though Laws 1933, c. 366, §1, required notice of expiration of time to redeem, because it merely related to redemption and not to court's acquisition of jurisdiction. Singer v. Village of Goodridge, 210M324, 298NW35. See Dun. Dig. 9290, 9322.

Where judgment had been entered for 1932 delinquent real estate taxes, delinquent taxes for subsequent years were properly attached to tax judgment and omitted from subsequent tax lists. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9293.

2139-8. Penalties and interest.

Regular rate of interest on delinquent taxes for 1931 where no answer was interposed is 10%, both under Laws 1931, c. 315, and Laws 1933, c. 337. Op. Atty. Gen. (423a), May 23, 1941.

2139-15. Classification as conservation or non-conservation—Matters and data considered—Reclassification—Sale to municipalities of tax-forfeited lands.—

(a) All parcels of land becoming the property of the state in trust under the provisions of any law now existing or hereafter enacted declaring the forfeiture of lands to the state for taxes, shall be classified by the county board of the county wherein such parcels lie as conservation or non-conservation. Such classification shall be made with consideration, among other things, to the present use of adjacent lands, the productivity of the soil, the character of forest or other growth, accessibility of lands to establish roads, schools, and other public services, and their peculiar suitability or desirability for particular uses. Such classification; furthermore, shall aid: to encourage and foster a mode of land utilization that will facilitate the economical and adequate provision of transportation, roads, water supply, drainage, sanitation, education, and recreation; to facilitate reduction of governmental expenditures; to conserve and develop the natural resources; and to foster and develop agriculture and other industries in the districts and places best suited thereto. In making such classification the county board may make use of such data and information as may be made available by any office or department of the federal, state, or local governments, or by any other person or agency possessing information pertinent thereto at the time such classification is made. Such lands may be reclassified from time to time as the county board may deem necessary or desirable, except as to conservation lands held by the state free from any trust in favor of any taxing district. Provided (1) that if any such lands are located within the boundaries of any organized town, or incorporated municipality, the classification or reclassification and sale shall first be approved by the town board of such town or the governing body of such municipality in so far as the lands located therein are concerned. Any tax-forfeited lands may be sold by the county board to any organized or incorporated governmental subdivision of the state for any public purpose for which such subdivision is authorized to acquire property or may be released from the trust in favor of the taxing districts upon application of any state agency for any authorized use at not less than their value as determined by the county board. The commissioner of taxation shall have power to convey by deed in the name of the state any tract of tax-forfeited land held in trust in favor of the taxing districts, to any governmental subdivision for any authorized public use, provided that an application therefor shall be submitted to the commissioner with a statement of facts as to the use to be made of such tract and the need therefor and the recommendation of the county board. The deed of conveyance shall be upon a form approved by the attorney general and shall be conditioned upon continued use for the purpose stated in the application.

Whenever any governmental subdivision to which any tax-forfeited land has been conveyed for a specified public use as provided in this section shall fail to put such land to such use or shall abandon such use, the governing body of the subdivision shall authorize the proper officers to convey the same to the State of Minnesota, and such officers shall execute a deed of such conveyance forthwith, in form approved by the attorney general. No vote of the people shall be required for such conveyance. In case any such land shall not be so conveyed to the state, the commissioner of taxation shall by written instrument, in form approved by the attorney general, declare the same to have reverted to the state, and shall serve a notice thereof, with a copy of the declaration, by registered mail upon the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision concerned, provided, that no declaration of reversion shall be made earlier than five years from the date of conveyance for failure to put such land to such use or from the date of abandonment of such use if such lands have been put to such use. The commissioner shall file the original declaration in his office, with verified proof of service as herein required. The governmental subdivision may appeal to the district court of the county in which the land lies by filing with the clerk of court a notice of appeal, specifying the grounds of appeal and the description of the land involved, mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to the commissioner of taxation, and filing a copy thereof for record with the register of deeds or registrar of titles, all within 30 days after the mailing of the notice of reversion. The appeal shall be tried by the court in like manner as a civil action. If no appeal is taken as herein provided, the declaration of reversion shall be final. The commissioner of taxation shall file for record with the register of deeds or registrar of titles, of the county within which the land lies, a certified copy of the declaration of reversion and proof of service. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 511; Mar. 27, 1943, c. 204, §1.)

(b) Lands classified as conservation lands, unless reclassified as non-conservation lands, sold to a governmental subdivision of the state, or released from the trust in favor of the taxing districts as herein provided, will be held under the supervision of the county board of the county with which such parcels lie.

The said county board may by resolution duly adopted resolve that certain lands classified as conservation lands shall be devoted to conservation uses and may submit such resolution to the commissioner of conservation. If upon investigation the commissioner of conservation determines that the lands covered by such resolution or any part thereof can be managed and developed for conservation purposes, he shall make a certificate describing the lands and reciting the acceptance thereof on behalf of the state for such purposes. The commissioner shall transmit the certificate to the county auditor, who shall note the same upon his records and record the same with the register of deeds. The title to all lands so accepted shall be held by the state free from any trust in favor of any and all taxing districts and such lands shall be devoted thereafter to the purposes of forestry, water conservation, flood control, parks, game refuges, controlled game management areas, public shooting grounds, or other public recreational or conservation uses, and shall be managed, controlled, and regulated for such purposes under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of conservation and the divisions of his department. In case the commissioner of conservation shall determine that any tract of land so held by the state and situated within or adjacent to the boundaries of any governmental subdivision of the state is suitable for use by such subdivision for any authorized public purpose, he may convey such tract by deed in the name of the state to such subdivision upon the filing with him of a resolution adopted by a majority vote of all the members of the governing body thereof, stating the purpose for which the land is desired. The deed of conveyance shall be upon a form approved by the attorney general and shall be conditioned upon continued use for the purpose stated in the resolution. All proceeds derived from the sale of timber, lease of hay stumpage, or other revenue from such lands under the jurisdiction of the conservation commissioner shall be paid into the general revenue fund of the state. The county auditor, with the approval of the county board, may lease conservation lands, remaining under the jurisdiction of the county board and may sell timber and hay stumpage thereon in the manner hereinafter provided, and all proceeds derived therefrom shall be distributed in the same manner as provided in Section 2139-18.

(c) All such parcels of land classified as non-conservation, except those which may be reserved, as hereinafter provided, shall be sold at public or private sale, as hereinafter provided, if it shall be determined, by the county board of the county wherein such parcels lie, that it is advisable to do so, having in mind their accessibility, their proximity to existing public improvements, and the effect of their sale and occupancy on the public burdens. Any parcels of land proposed to be sold shall be first appraised by the county board of the county wherein such parcels lie, and such parcels may be reappraised whenever the county board deems it necessary to carry out the intent of this act; provided that in such appraisal the value of the land and any standing timber thereon shall be separately determined, and, provided further, that before any parcel of land is sold the appraised value of the timber thereon shall first have been approved by the commissioner of conservation. If any public improvement is made by a municipality after any parcel of land has been forfeited to the state for the non-payment of taxes and such improvement is assessed in whole or in part against the property benefited thereby, the clerk of such municipality shall certify to the county auditor immediately upon the determination of the assessments for such improvement the total amount that would have been assessed against such parcel of land if it had been subject to assessment. The county board shall determine the amount, if any, by which the value of such parcel was enhanced by such improvement and shall include such amount as a separate item in fixing the appraised value for the purposes of sale. In classifying, appraising and selling such lands, the county board may designate the tracts as assessed and acquired, or may by resolution provide for the subdivision of such tracts into smaller units or for the grouping of several of such tracts into one tract when such subdivision or grouping is deemed advantageous for the purpose of sale, but each such smaller tract or larger tract must be classified and appraised as such before being offered for sale. (As amended Act Apr. 23, 1941, c. 394, §1.)

(d) Such sale shall be conducted by the county auditor in the county seat of the county in which such parcels lie, and such parcels shall be sold for cash only and at not less than the appraised value, unless the county board of said county shall have adopted a resolution providing for their sale on terms, in which event such resolution shall control with respect thereto. Provided, however, that when the sale is made on terms other than for cash only a payment of at least ten per cent of the purchase price of land and improvements must be made at the time of purchase, thereupon the balance shall be paid in equal yearly or monthly installments over a period of not to exceed ten years, and providing further that in addition thereto the sale price of all such timber or timber products as may have been standing on such lands at the time of purchase shall be paid by the purchaser at the time of sale. When sales are made on such terms the interest rate on the unpaid portion shall be four per cent per annum, and the county board may where parcels have insurable buildings thereon compel the purchaser to carry fire and windstorm insurance on said building or buildings in such an amount as to insure the balance of the purchase price with a rider attached in favor of the State of Minnesota as its interest may appear. Failure to pay premiums on said insurance when due shall be considered cause for cancellation of the certificate as set forth in subdivision (e). The purchaser at such sale shall be entitled to immediate possession, subject to the provisions of any existing valid lease or easement made in behalf of the state.

(e) When sales hereafter are made on terms the purchaser shall receive a certificate from the county auditor in such form, consistent with the provision of this act and setting forth the terms of sale, as may be prescribed by the attorney general. Failure of the purchaser or any person claiming under him, to pay any of the deferred installments with interest, or the current taxes, or to comply with any conditions that may have been stipulated in the notice of sale or in the auditor's certificate herein provided for, shall constitute default; and the state may, by order of the county board, during the continuance of such default, without notice, declare such certificate cancelled and take possession of such lands and may thereafter resell or lease the same in the same manner and under the same rules as other lands forfeited to the state for taxes are sold or leased. When the county board shall have adopted a resolution ordering the cancellation of such certificate or certificates the cancellation shall be deemed complete and a reentry shall be deemed to have been made on the part of the state without any other act or deed whatsoever, and without any right of redemption by the purchaser or any one claiming under him; and the original purchaser in default or any person claiming under him, who shall remain in possession or enter thereon shall be deemed a willful trespasser and shall be punished as such. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 511, §1; Mar. 27, 1943, c. 204, §2; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 627, §§1-3.)

(f) When any sale has been made by the county auditor under this act, he shall immediately certify to the Minnesota tax commission such information relating to such sale, on such forms as the commission may prescribe as will enable said commission to prepare an appropriate deed if the sale is for cash, or keep its necessary records if the sale is on terms; and not later than October 31st of each year the county auditor shall submit to the tax commission a statement of all instances wherein any payment of principal, interest or current taxes on lands held under certificate, due or to be paid during the preceding calendar years, are still outstanding at the time such certificate is made. When such statement shows that a purchaser or his assignee is in default, the tax commission may instruct the county board of the county in which the land is located to cancel said certificate of sale in the manner provided by subdivision (e) of this section, provided that upon recommendation of the county board, and where the circumstances are such that the tax commission after investigation is satisfied that the purchaser has made every effort reasonable to make payment of both the annual installment and said taxes, and that there has been no willful neglect on the part of the purchaser in meeting these obligations, then the said tax commission may extend the time for said payment for such period as it may deem warranted, not to exceed one year. On payment in full of the purchase price, appropriate conveyance in fee, in such form as may be prescribed by the attorney general, shall be issued by the Minnesota tax commission, which conveyance shall have the force and effect of a patent from the state. (As

(g) The sale herein provided for shall commence at such time as the county board of the county wherein such parcels lie, shall direct. The county auditor shall offer the parcels of land in order in which they appear in the notice of sale, and shall sell them to the highest bidder, but not for a less sum than the appraised value, until all of the parcels of land shall have been offered, and thereafter he shall sell any remaining parcels to anyone offering to pay the appraised value thereof. Said sale shall continue until all such parcels are sold or until the county board shall order a reappraisal or shall withdraw any or all such parcels from sale. Such list of lands may be added to and the added lands may be sold at any time by publishing the descriptions and appraised values of such parcels of land as shall have become forfeited and classified as non-conservation since the commencement of any prior sale or such parcels as shall have been reappraised, or such parcels as shall have been reclassified as non-conservation or such other parcels as are subject to sale but were omitted from the existing list for any reason in the same manner as hereinafter provided for the publication of the original list, provided that any parcels added to such list shall first be offered for sale to the highest bidder before they are sold at appraised value. All parcels of land not offered for immediate sale, as well as parcels of such lands as are offered and not immediately sold shall continue to be held in trust by the state for the taxing districts interested in each of said parcels, under the supervision of the county board, and such parcels may be used for public purposes until sold, as the county board may direct. (As amended Apr. 23, 1941, c. 391, §1; Apr. 28, 1941, c. 511, §1; Feb. 15, 1943, c. 37, §1; Mar. 27, 1943, c. 204, §2; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 627, §§1-3.)

In view of laws 1939, c. 328, wherein method of classification was changed to "conservation or non-conservation", county officials instead of making a complete new classification, may simply adopt a resolution reclassifying as non-conservation lands, lands previously classified as agricultural and vice versa, provided such reclassification was warranted by actual condition of lands, and such reclassification should be done without delay, and if any lands have been sold since April 20, 1939, without reclassification as non-conservation, resolution should recite that they shall be deemed to have been so classified prior to sale thereof, and that sale is ratified and confirmed. Op. Atty. Gen. (525), Oct. 10, 1939.

As to land already offered for sale, county board may do one of three things: Continue to offer such land for sale at not less than their appraised value; order a reappraisal of any or all parcels of land remaining unsold; withdraw any or all parcels of land from sale; and if reappraisal is ordered, such parcel or parcels may again be offered for sale, but only by proceeding in same manner as provided for publication of notice and sale of such lands in the first instance, irrespective of whether or not there are new lands subsequently forfeited to the state. 2139-18. County auditor may sell hay stumpage and lease lands—Sale of leased lands—Repairs or improvements—Demolition of buildings—Partition of undivided interest.—(a) The county auditor may sell dead, down and mature timber upon any tract that may be approved by the conservation commissioner. Such sale of timber products shall be made for cash at not less than the appraised value determined by the county board to the highest bidder after not less than one week's published notice in an official paper within the county. Provided that any timber offered at such public sale and not sold may thereafter be sold at private sale by the county auditor at not less than the appraised value thereof, until such time as the county board may withdraw such timber from sale. Provided, however, that the appraised value of the timber and the forestry practices to be followed in the cutting of said timber shall be approved by the commissioner of conservation. Payment of the full sale price of all timber sold on tax-forfeited lands shall be made in cash at the time of the timber sale. The county board may, however, require final settlement on the basis of a scale of cut products. Any parcels of land from which timber is to be sold by scale of cut products shall be so designated in the published notice of sale above mentioned, in which case the notice shall contain a description of such parcels, a statement of the estimated quantity of each specie of timber thereon and the appraised price of each specie of timber per 1000 feet, per cord or per piece, as the case may be. In such cases any bids offered over and above the appraised prices shall be by percentage, the per cent bid to be added to the appraised price of each of the different species of timber advertised on the land. The purchaser of timber from such parcels shall pay in cash at the time of sale at the rate bid for all of the timber shown in the notice of sale as estimated to be standing on the land, and in addition shall pay at the same rate for any additional amounts which the final scale shows to have been cut or was available for cutting on the land at the time of sale under the terms of such sale. Provided, however, where the final scale of cut products shows that less timber was cut or was available for cutting under terms of such sale than was originally paid for, the excess payment shall be refunded from the forfeited tax sale fund upon the claim of the purchaser, to be audited and allowed by the county board as in case of other claims against the county. No timber may be removed from such parcels of land until scaled by a person or persons designated by the county board and approved by the commissioner of conservation. No timber shall be removed until fully paid for in cash. Small amounts of green standing, dead, down, dying, insect infected or diseased timber not exceeding $250.00 in appraised valuation may be sold for not less than the full appraised value at private sale to individual persons without first publishing notice of sale or calling for bids, provided that in case of such sale involving a total appraised value of more than $50.00 the sale shall be made subject to final settlement on the basis of a scale of cut products in the manner above provided and not more than one such sale, directly or indirectly to any individual shall be in effect at one time. As directed by the county board, the county auditor may lease tax-forfeited lands to individuals, corporations or organized subdivisions of the state at public or private vendue with or without provision for annual renewal, and at such prices and under such terms as the county board may prescribe, for use as cottage and camp sites and for agricultural purposes and for the purpose of taking and removing of hay stumps, sand, gravel, clay, rock, marl, peat and black dirt therefrom, for storing thereon ore, waste materials from mines, or rock and tailings from ore milling plants and for garden sites and other temporary uses provided that no leases shall be for a period to exceed one year. Under like conditions the county auditor may grant easements or permits over and across any unsold tax forfeited lands for the purpose of permitting the passage over and across such lands of telephone, telegraph, electric power and light, sewer and water lines, highways, and railroads; provided that all lands subject to such agreements, lease and easements shall be subject to sale at any time and to leasing of such lands for mineral or other legal purposes and shall contain a provision for cancellation by order of the county board at any time upon three months written notice for any cause specified in the agreement; provided further that any leases involving a consideration of more than $10.00 per year shall first be offered at public sale in the same manner provided herein for sale of timber. Upon the sale of any such leased land, it shall remain subject to the lease for not to exceed one year from the beginning of the term of the lease. Any rent paid by the lessee for the portion of the term cut off by such cancellation shall be refunded from the forfeited tax sale fund upon the claim of the lessee, to be audited and allowed by the county board as in case of other claims against the county.

(b) Until after the sale of a parcel of forfeited land the county auditor may, with the approval of the county board of commissioners, provide for the repair and improvement of any building or structure located upon such parcel, if it is determined by the county board that such repairs or improvements are necessary for the operation, use, preservation and safety thereof. Such county auditor may, with the approval of the county board, provide for the demolition of any building or structure, and for the sale of salvaged material therefrom.

The net proceeds from any sale of timber or other products or leases made under this law shall be deposited in the forfeited tax sale fund and shall be distributed in the same manner as if the parcel had been sold.

(c) Where an undivided portion of any parcel of land is forfeited to the state for taxes, the owner or owners of the portions of said parcel not forfeited, or the State of Minnesota, may in the manner provided by Sections 9524 to 9555, inclusive, Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, maintain an action for the partition of said parcel making the state or other owners as their interests may appear a defendant in said action. If the state is made a defendant in said action, the summons shall be served upon the county auditor of the county in which the land is located, and the county attorney shall appear for the state. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-26), Dec. 2, 1939.

Special assessments for paving levied prior to forfeiture to state should be cancelled, and assessments made while title was in the state, are void. Op. Atty. Gen. (403c), Dec. 21, 1939.

On forfeiture of land to state for nonpayment of taxes all special assessments should be cancelled, and all special assessments made while state owned lands are void, and under no circumstances may county board pay for a special assessment for improvements made to property owned by state, though an obligation to pay a special assessment upon property owned by a school district or a county is created by statute independent of a lien. Op. Atty. Gen. (408c), Dec. 26, 1939.

On forfeiture of land to the state all existing special assessments are cancelled, including those payable after purchase from the state, and any assessments levied while title was in the state are void. Op. Atty. Gen. (408c), Jan. 23, 1940.

Where assessment is made for extension of sanitary sewers and water mains and land is forfeited to state and assessments are cancelled by county auditor and property is then repurchased, city council cannot impose "tapping fee" as condition precedent to water main and sewer connections to compel owner to make good cancelled assessment. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-26), March 11, 1940.

In arriving at amount to be assessed per front foot for an improvement frontage of tax forfeited lands is to be included, though not subject to assessment. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-26), March 12, 1940.

Where ditch liens against agricultural lands were cancelled on forfeiture of land to state for nonpayment of taxes, and while property was owned by state repairs were made to ditches and assessments were not spread against lands, no assessment could later be spread against lands after sale of lands by state to private party. Op. Atty. Gen., (425c-3), May 27, 1940.

Where tax-forfeited lands were sold on May 17, and county auditor after sale spread taxes against property for that year, attempt of auditor to impose the taxes was ineffective and entry on tax list for that year should be removed by proper marginal note, and if taxes were paid they should be returned by county board upon proper claim without necessity of any proceedings before State Department of Taxation. Op. Atty. Gen. (424a-9), Sept. 21, 1940.

Where school lands which have been sold and on which a portion of the purchase price remains due are forfeited to the state for delinquent taxes, the land in question again becomes unsold trust fund land and it cannot be sold to a third party as tax forfeited land. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-1), July 11, 1941.

Old Age Assistance lien is revived by repurchase of tax forfeited land by owner, but effect of repurchase by mortgagee would depend on relative priority of respective liens. Op. Atty. Gen. (425C-13), Oct. 9, 1941.

Where trust fund land was sold under contract and was tax forfeited and classified as state forest land and buildings erected by purchaser were declared fire hazards and sold and removed, money received should be credited to the permanent school fund. Op. Atty. Gen. (454e), Dec. 2, 1941.

Property purchased from the state on which a ditch lien has been cancelled is subject to assessment for repairs on ditch made after property was sold by state. Op. Atty. Gen., Dec. 26, 1941.

Forfeiture of land to state wiped out all liability for any repairs or maintenance of ditches performed before lands were forfeited whether spread upon books of county auditor or not. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-3), May 26, 1942.

When interest of certificate holder of trust fund land reverts to the state by virtue of Laws 1935, c. 386, prior existing ditch liens are extinguished and should be expunged from the record. Op. Atty. Gen. (700d), May 27, 1943.

Ditch lien of county is protected by distribution of proceeds of sale of land. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-3), Sept. 9, 1943.

2139-22. Apportionment of receipts.—The net proceeds from the sale or rental of any parcel of forfeited land, or from the sale of any products therefrom, shall be apportioned by the county auditor, to the taxing districts interested therein, as follows:

(a) Such portion as may be required to pay any amounts included in the appraised value under Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 2139-15(c), as representing increased value due to any public improvement made after forfeiture of such parcel to the state, but not exceeding the amount certified by the clerk of the municipality, shall be apportioned to the municipal subdivision entitled thereto.

(b) Such portion of the remainder as may be required to discharge any special assessment chargeable against such parcel for drainage or other purpose, whether due or deferred at the time of forfeiture, shall be apportioned to the municipal subdivision entitled thereto.

(c) Such portion of the remainder as may have been theretofore levied on said parcel of land for any bond issue of the school district, township, city, village or county, wherein said parcel of land is situated shall be apportioned to said municipal subdivisions in the proportions of their respective interest.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be apportioned as follows: State ten per cent, county 30 per cent, township, village or city 20 per cent and school district 40 per cent. (As amended Act Apr. 23, 1941, c. 394, §2.)

Where property was sold to state for taxes, state became absolute owner subject only to a trust in favor of respective taxing subdivisions interested in the property. Fortman v. City of Minneapolis, 212M340, 4NW(2d) 349. See Dun. Dig. 9373, 9419b.

No provision is made for preferential reimbursement to municipality for special improvements made after forfeiture of land, though an indirect benefit may be acquired by having county board increase appraisalment. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-26), Feb. 15, 1940.

Land forfeited to state for nonpayment of taxes is not subject to assessment for local improvements, but must be included in determining rate of assessment of other property, and one purchasing from the state is not liable for assessment made while land was owned by state. Id.

Forfeiture of land to state wiped out all liability for any repairs or maintenance of ditches performed before lands were forfeited whether spread upon books of county auditor or not. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-3), May 26, 1942.

Where lands were forfeited to state for non-payment of taxes, including special assessments for water mains which were not constructed, and lots were sold, village council could not pass a resolution reciting that there was no present intention of constructing the water mains in front of certain lots and directing payment of a certain sum of money to the purchaser of the lot. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-15), June 1, 1942.

Money must be used to pay indebtedness and cannot be used for any other purpose as long as such outstanding indebtedness exists, and "indebtedness" refers to general obligations of municipality, including indebtedness payable primarily out of a special fund if, after the special fund is exhausted, the same would have to be met out of the general fund of the municipality, but it is discretionary with municipality whether it is used to retire floating or bonded indebtedness, subject to any priority as between debts. Op. Atty. Gen., Sept. 2, 1942.

If municipality has only bonded indebtedness and bonds are not due, money may be placed in sinking fund, if it would have or might have a tendency to reduce amount of taxes which would otherwise have to be levied to liquidate the outstanding bonds. Op. Atty. Gen., Sept. 2, 1942.

Where tax-forfeited lands were appraised and offered for sale prior to time special assessments were certified to county auditor, county board was not required to re-appraise and re-advertise upon receiving delayed certification unless value of land was enhanced by such improvement, and need not withdraw land from sale. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-15), Jan. 8, 1943.

(b). Word "due" means all installments of a special assessment for local improvement which are unpaid and which are included in the taxes for which the nonpayment of which the real property in question has been forfeited to the state, while the word "deferred" means all remaining installments of the special assessment for a local improvement which are unpaid and which have not been included in the taxes for the nonpayment of which the land has been forfeited to the state, but it is duty of county board in appraising tax forfeited land before offering it for sale to appraise such land at its full market value, and this amount has no relation to either the total amount of taxes for which the land was forfeited to the state or the amount of unpaid assessments not included within such taxes. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-15), July 26, 1943.

2139-23. Forfeited tax sale fund—Cutting weeds.

—The county auditor and county treasurer shall place all moneys received through the operation of this act in a fund to be known as the "Forfeited Tax Sale Fund" and all disbursements and costs shall be charged against said fund, when allowed by the county board, including compensation of the members of the county board at not to exceed $3.00 per day and mileage as now fixed by law and such compensation as the county board shall allow the county auditor in an amount not to exceed five per cent of his annual salary and for other necessary clerical help. Compensation allowed to members of county boards hereunder shall be in addition to other compensation allowed by law, provided that the amount received hereunder shall not increase the total compensation received by any such member to more than $1200 for any one year; provided that when disbursements are made from the fund for repairs, refundments, expenses of actions to quiet title, or any other purpose, which particularly affects specific parcels of forfeited lands, the amount of such disbursements shall be charged to the account of the taxing districts interested in such parcels. The county auditor shall make an annual settlement of the net proceeds received from sales and rentals by the operation of this act, at the regular March settlement, for the preceding calendar year. In all counties within whose territorial boundaries there is situated a city of the first class, from said "Forfeited Tax Sale Fund," the authorities duly charged with the execution of the duties imposed by this act, at their discretion, may expend moneys for the cutting down of weeds on all tax-forfeited lands, provided, however, that in any year, the moneys to be expended therefor shall not exceed in amount more than 5% of the net proceeds of said "Forfeited Tax Sale Fund" during the preceding calendar year, or $5,000.00, whichever is the lesser sum. (As amended Apr. 16, 1943, c. 472, §1.)

Where in proceedings to register title to tax forfeited lands county did not collect in advance enough money to cover expenses of proceedings, and in other cases through inadvertence or otherwise failed to have interested purchaser advance any amount, expenses of action to quiet title or register title should be paid from "forfeited tax sale fund." Op. Atty. Gen. (3741), Apr. 27, 1942.

Members of county board already receiving $1800 a year as salary cannot receive additional compensation. Op. Atty. Gen. (124), Jan. 8, 1943.

Op. Atty. Gen. (23d), Feb. 25, 1943.

Expenses incurred before land actually becomes forfeited should be paid out of the revenue fund, and all expenses incurred after the land actually becomes tax forfeited land should be charged to and paid out of the tax forfeited land fund. Op. Atty. Gen. (107b-19), Mar. 30, 1943.

2139-24. All minerals reserved.

State retains no mineral reservation in tax forfeited lands repurchased by owner. Op. Atty. Gen. (425C-13), Jan. 13, 1942.

If reservation of minerals applies to gravel, it affects only sale of land to a third party, and does not prevent use of gravel by the state itself after release from the trust pursuant to Laws 1941, c. 511, and state highway department may use gravel and maintain a gravel pit. Such appointment shall be for such time as the county board may determine. The compensation of said land commissioner and assistants shall be fixed by the county board and their salaries and expenses shall be paid from the Forfeited Tax Sale Fund. Any funds required by the tax commission for the purpose of cancellation of contracts, as provided in Section 1 of Chapter 386, Laws of 1935 shall be paid by the county auditor upon the written order of the Commissioner of Taxation from monies then available in said fund. A conveyance of land by state auditor with an acknowledgment omitting customary statement of venue preceding acknowledgment should be recorded when presented to a register of deeds, but in order to avoid any question as to validity of conveyances an appropriate curative act is suggested. Op. Atty. Gen. (24D), (320F), Jan. 24, 1942.

2139-27kk. Conveyances by state auditor validated.

—All conveyances heretofore executed by the state auditor pursuant to Mason's Supplement 1940, Sections 2139-27b to 2139-27k, regular and proper in all respects save that a caption containing the venue of the acknowledgment thereof by him, as certified by a notary public or other person authorized to take and certify the same, was omitted, are together with the records thereof, if the same shall have been recorded, hereby declared to be valid and effectual for all purposes notwithstanding such omission, and no action or proceeding to assert a right based on such omission shall be maintained unless commenced within three months after the approval of this act; provided, however, that this act shall not apply so as to prejudice or impair any right or interest involved in any action or proceeding now pending in any court of this state. (Act Apr. 7, 1943, c. 332, §1.)

Op. Atty. Gen. (3741), Apr. 27, 1942.

2140. Purchaser to receive deed.

State may execute conveyances to two persons as joint tenants. Op. Atty. Gen. (410-B), July 19, 1940.

Where an erroneous tax deed has been issued but not recorded, the error being based on error in the name or description in the auditor's certificate, the commissioner of taxation may issue a corrected deed upon receipt of a corrected certificate from the auditor. Op. Atty. Gen. (410b), July 11, 1941.

If an erroneous tax deed has been recorded, the commissioner of taxation has no power to correct the error, the only remedy being through court proceedings or a curative act of the legislature. Id.

Upon proper affidavit from the grantee that a tax deed has been lost, the commissioner of taxation may issue a certified copy of the deed originally issued, but should not issue a new deed. Id.

2150. Lands bid in for the State—Attachment of rents, crops, etc.

REDEMPTION FROM TAX SALES2151. By whom—When.*1. Statutory.

Right to redeem from a tax sale is a statutory right. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d)231. See Dun. Dig. 9405.

5. Who may redeem.

Redemption statutes, because of their remedial nature, are to be construed liberally and beneficially for the owner. State v. Erickson, 212M218; 3NW(2d)231. See Dun. Dig. 9409.

Right of bankrupt to redeem from tax sale passes to trustee in bankruptcy, but right to purchase land from the state after title has passed does not pass to trustee. Cobleigh v. State Land Office Board, 305Mich434, 9NW(2d)665. See Dun. Dig. 9410.

2151-1. Service of notice of expiration of time of redemption on lands in which persons in military service are interested.—Whenever the sheriff of any county serves notice of expiration of the time for redemption of any parcel of real property from delinquent taxes thereon upon any occupant of any such real property, he shall inquire of such occupant and otherwise as he may deem proper whether such real property was owned and occupied for dwelling, professional, business or agricultural purposes by a person in the military service of the United States as defined in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, or his dependents at the commencement of his period of military service and is still occupied for such purposes by his dependents or employees. If the sheriff finds that such real property is so owned and occupied, he shall make a certificate thereof to the county auditor, setting forth the description of the property, the name of the owner, the particulars of his military service so far as ascertained or claimed, the name of the present occupant and his relationship to the owner, and the names and addresses of the persons of whom the sheriff made inquiry. Such certificate shall be filed with the county auditor and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. If the real property described in any such certificate becomes forfeited to the state, it shall be withheld from sale or conveyance as tax-forfeited property in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, but no longer than is required by said act or acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. If upon further investigation the sheriff finds at any time that any such certificate is erroneous in any particular, he shall file a supplemental certificate referring to the matter in error and stating the facts as found by him. Such supplemental certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and shall supersede any prior certificate so far as in conflict therewith. If it appears from such supplemental certificate that the owner of the real property affected is not entitled to have the same withheld from sale under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, the property shall not be withheld further hereunder. (Act Apr. 22, 1943, c. 565, §1.) [281.273]

2151-2. Same. Subdivision 1. May be withheld from sale—Payments.—The owner of any real property withheld from sale pursuant to Section 1 hereof, or his agent or representative, may at any time while he is entitled to have the same withheld from sale under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, pay the aggregate amount of all delinquent taxes and assessments as provided in Subdivision 2 hereof in one payment without penalties, interest or costs or in ten installments as provided in Subdivision 3 hereof. Upon full payment of such aggregate amount of all delinquent taxes and assessments, the forfeiture shall be cancelled and of no effect, and the county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of taxation the following facts: The description of the real property, the name of the owner thereof, the particulars of his military service for the United States, so far as known, the payment in full of the aggregate amount of such taxes and assessments, and the date thereof. Upon receipt of such certificate from the county auditor, such owner shall receive a quitclaim deed to such property from the state executed by the commissioner of taxation.

Subd. 2. The aggregate amount to be paid as provided in Subdivision 1 hereof shall mean the sum of the taxes and assessments without penalties, interest or costs accrued against such real property and unpaid, including taxes and assessments levied and assessed as omitted taxes as hereinafter provided. When an application is made to pay taxes and assessments as provided in Subdivision 1 hereof, the auditor shall levy and assess against such real property as omitted taxes, upon the basis of the assessed valuation in effect in the last year in which taxes included in such notice of expiration of the time for redemption were levied and assessed, all taxes which would have been assessed in each year after the last year so included in such notice and all assessments which would have been levied and assessed against such real property after the last year included in such notice.

Subd. 3. When any person accorded the right in Subdivision 2 hereof to pay taxes makes application to the county auditor to pay the aggregate amount of such taxes and assessments in installments, he shall pay one-tenth of the aggregate amount of such taxes and assessments at the time of his application and the balance thereof in nine equal annual installments, with the privilege of paying the unpaid balance in full at any time, with interest at the rate of 4% on the balance remaining unpaid each year, the first installment of principal and interest to become due and payable on October 31 of the year following the year in which the application was made, the remaining installments to become due and payable on October 31 of each year thereafter until fully paid. Failure to make any payment herein required within sixty days from the date on which payment was due shall constitute default and upon such default the right, title, and interest of such person in the military service or his heirs, representatives or assigns in such real property shall terminate without the doing by the state of any act or thing whatsoever. (Act Apr. 22, 1943, c. 565, §2.)

[281.274]

2151-3. Same—County Board may petition District Court.—If at any time the county board is of the opinion that the ability of the person in the military service to pay the taxes or assessments upon such real property is not materially affected by reason of such service, it may petition the district court of the county wherein such real property is situated for an order authorizing the property to be sold or otherwise disposed of under the laws relating to tax-forfeited property in conformity with the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, Section 500 (2). Upon the filing of such petition the court shall fix a time and place for hearing thereon, and notice of the time and place of such hearing and the relief requested thereat shall be served upon the owner of such real property in like manner as a summons is served in a civil action. If there be no appearance by such person who is in the military service of the United States, the court shall proceed in the manner prescribed by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, Section 200 to Section 205, inclusive. (Act Apr. 22, 1943, c. 565, §3.)
[281.275]

2151-4. Same—Return of sheriff must show military service.—Unless a sheriff's certificate showing military service is filed as required by Section 1 hereof, it shall be presumed that the owner of the property described in the notice of expiration of the time for redemption from delinquent taxes is not in such service. The filing of the sheriff's certificate provided for in Section 1 hereof shall not affect the forfeiture of the real property described in such notice of the expiration of the time for redemption from delinquent taxes or their proceedings relating thereto except as expressly herein provided. (Act Apr. 22, 1943, c. 565, §4.)
[281.276]

2151-5. Same—Not to affect rights secured by other acts.—Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prejudice or preclude any right secured to any person under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended. (Act Apr. 22, 1943, c. 565, §5.)
[281.277(1)]

2151-6. Same—Duration of act.—This act shall remain in force as long as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, shall remain in force. (Act Apr. 22, 1943, c. 565, §6.)
[281.277(2)]

2152. Amount payable.

1/2. In general.
Application of money paid under a confession of judgment which thereafter became in default. Op. Atty. Gen. (412A-10), Oct. 13, 1941.

2. When land bid in for state and subsequently assigned.
Even though Mason's St. Supp. 1940, §2136, provides for issuance of a certificate to purchaser who pays subsequent taxes at the annual May sale following the date they become delinquent, this does not change character of payments within meaning of Mason's St., §2152(2). Op. Atty. Gen. (423k), Apr. 15, 1942.

Even though statutes provide for issuance of a certificate to purchaser who pays subsequent taxes at annual May sale following the date they become delinquent, this does not change character of payment as affecting amounts necessary to redeem. Op. Atty. Gen. (423k) June 29, 1942.

3. What are delinquent taxes.
Delinquent taxes in April, 1942, include 1940 taxes which are delinquent and unpaid, though they cannot be paid by holder of assigned certificate until next month. Op. Atty. Gen. (423k), Apr. 15, 1942.

2154. Redemption by minors.

Section contemplates a suit after minor becomes of age to enforce redemption, but this relief may be obtained by answer in a suit by tax purchaser to determine adverse claim. Miner v. B., 288NW582. See Dun. Dig. 9411.

2156. Undivided part.

Mason's St., §§2156, 2157, 2158, 2159, all relate to partial redemption and must be read together when construction of any one of them is challenged. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d)231. See Dun. Dig. 9412.

Where persons owning undivided interest paid proportionate share of taxes covering year 1931 but failed to pay any taxes for 1932 and subsequent years, and other undivided interests were subject to forfeiture by the state, persons owning undivided interest upon which they paid taxes for 1931 could redeem their respective interests by paying their proportionate shares of 1932 and subsequent taxes with interest and penalties, and might also redeem their interest, but not in their own name. Op. Atty. Gen., (423h), May 10, 1940.

Where record title to minerals is in one set of persons and record title of surface in another and they are so listed and assessed, owner of minerals has right to redeem irrespective of any action taken by owner of surface, and if there are several owners of minerals, any owner may redeem his interest separately. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-23), Nov. 1, 1940.

One owning the surface and one-third of the mineral may redeem the surface and his undivided one-third of minerals, and this would not affect proceedings to enforce collection of tax against remaining two-thirds interest in the minerals and a new judgment is not necessary. Op. Atty. Gen. (407i), July 15, 1941.

County auditor must accept fractional part of taxes and penalties tendered by owner of undivided part of land though tax judgment was taken against whole tract of real estate. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), June 13, 1942.

2157. Undivided share.

Mason's St., §§2156, 2157, 2158, 2159, all relate to partial redemption and must be read together when construction of any one of them is challenged. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d)231. See Dun. Dig. 9412.

2158. Specific part.

In mandamus by owner of a specific part of land sold for taxes as one parcel to compel county auditor to apportion tax judgment so that plaintiff could redeem part of parcel, opinion evidence as to whether value of a specific part as compared to value of whole parcel could be determined and as to how a division of taxes would affect value of remaining portion of parcel was irrelevant, immaterial and incompetent. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d)231. See Dun. Dig. 9412.

Owner of a portion of a parcel of land sold as a whole for taxes, his portion having a definite geographical boundary, is entitled to redeem his property by paying his proportionate part of tax judgment, notwithstanding that whole parcel is occupied by a single structure and aggregate value of segregated parts is less than that of whole parcel taken as a single tract. Id.

There was no merit in contention that owner of specific part of property sold in one parcel had an adequate remedy at law by redemption under Mason's St., §2162. Id. "Specific part" is the antithesis of "undivided part" and must refer to any portion of parcel sold having a definite geographical boundary. Id.

Mason's St., §§2156, 2157, 2158, 2159, all relate to partial redemption and must be read together when construction of any one of them is challenged. Id.

Mason's St., §2160, requiring county auditor to apportion a tax judgment so that an owner of a specific part of a parcel taxed as a whole can redeem pursuant to §2158, does not impose judicial functions upon an administrative officer in violation of Const. Art. 3, §1. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9413.

Where delinquent taxes covered three 40-acre tracts in one assessment and all included in judgment, owner who thereafter defaulted in payments due under confessed judgment was not entitled to pay up taxes on one of 40-acre tracts. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), May 8, 1941.

2159. Specific part of undivided part.

A minor, owner of an undivided one-half of a mortgage on the premises involved in tax judgment and sale, is entitled to redeem therefrom though owners right of redemption has been terminated by notice. Miner v. B., 206M341, 288NW582. See Dun. Dig. 9412.

Mason's St., §§2156, 2157, 2158, 2159, all relate to partial redemption and must be read together when construction of any one of them is challenged. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d)231. See Dun. Dig. 9412.

2160. Auditor to determine proposition.

Mason's St., §2160, requiring county auditor to apportion a tax judgment so that an owner of a specific part of a parcel taxed as a whole can redeem pursuant to §2158, does not impose judicial functions upon an administrative officer in violation of Const. Art. 3, §1. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d)231. See Dun. Dig. 9413.

Where record title to minerals is in one set of persons and record title of surface in another and they are so listed and assessed, owner of minerals has right to redeem irrespective of any action taken by owner of surface, and if there are several owners of minerals, any owner may redeem his interest separately. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-23), Nov. 1, 1940.

2161. Taxpayer may pay taxes on part.

Where part of land upon which judgment was confessed was subject to a mortgage which was foreclosed, there can be no partial relief from confession of the judgment on application of the confessor, but mortgagee may, if individual lots have been separately assessed, pay full amount due for taxes, penalties, interest, and costs, without regard to the confession of judgment, upon each parcel so assessed which is subject to his mortgage, or to which he may have acquired title through foreclosure, and if individual lots have not been separately assessed, mortgagee may apply to county auditor for determination of proportionate amount due upon property which is subject to his mortgage or to which he may have acquired title through foreclosure, and after these payments confession of judgment for proportionate amount appertaining to remainder of property remained standing subject to all original conditions. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), Dec. 12, 1940.

Where delinquent taxes covered three 40-acre tracts in one assessment and all included in judgment, owner who thereafter defaulted in payments due under confessed judgment was not entitled to pay up taxes on one of 40-acre tracts. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), May 8, 1941.

2162. Land held jointly.

This section did not provide an adequate and speedy remedy at law for owner of a specific part of land sold as a single parcel, seeking to redeem his part under Mason's St., §2158. State v. Erickson, 212M218, 3NW(2d) 231. See Dun. Dig. 9412.

2163. Notice of expiration of redemption—To whom given—Form of notice

Persons in armed services. Laws 1943, c. 565. See §§2151-1 to 2151-6, herein.

2. What law governs.

Rights of purchaser at a delinquent tax sale under Laws 1927, c. 119, were not extinguished by failure to record his certificate of tax sale within statutory limit of time fixed and provided by §§2169 and 2170. Absetz v. M., 207M202, 290NW298. See Dun. Dig. 9386.

In cases of defaulted confession of judgment settlements, notice of expiration of redemption should be given under Laws 1935, ch. 278, except in those instances where taxes of 1931 and 1932 are involved, and notice should be based upon original real estate tax judgment and not judgment confessed and should not make any reference to confession of judgment settlements, and taxes collected upon confessed judgment should be credited on that judgment in inverse order, chronologically speaking. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), July 5, 1940.

Certificates of sale issued in 1927 became void after October 25, 1941, if not already void, and notice of expiration of redemption cannot now be issued. Op. Atty. Gen. (409c-2), Nov. 24, 1941.

5. Statute mandatory—Must be followed strictly.

In tax title proceedings to divest owner of his title to real estate there must be strict compliance with statutory requirements. Absetz v. M., 290NW298. See Dun. Dig. 9409.

6½. Payment of subsequent taxes.

Where judgment was secured upon 1932 taxes and separate assignment for 1933 taxes was given to same person who took assignment of 1932 taxes notice of expiration of time of redemption must be served upon 1932 taxes, since separate assignment made of 1933 taxes was of no force. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-23), June 24, 1941.

8. Sufficiency of generally.

Two or more descriptions may not be combined in one notice. Op. Atty. Gen. (423c), Oct. 6, 1939.

Form of notice of expiration of redemption for taxes of 1931 to be used in those instances where an answer was interposed questioning 1931 taxes, so that postponement by Laws 1933, c. 337, did not apply, and sale was held before passage of Laws 1935, c. 278. Op. Atty. Gen. (419f), Nov. 27, 1939.

Notice of expiration of time for redemption may be by printed form or an actual clipping from newspaper of publication. Op. Atty. Gen., (419f-3), May 4, 1940.

Form of notice for land sold for 1934 taxes. Op. Atty. Gen. (423a), May 23, 1941.

9. Statement of amount required to redeem.

Where lands were sold for delinquent taxes for year 1931 in May, 1935, whereas 1932 tax on same property was bid in for state in May, 1934, and all tax judgments for years 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936 and 1937 were added to judgment obtained in May, 1934, under 1932 tax sale, it was too late in April, 1940, to obtain an assignment of the 1932 tax judgment, but one could obtain assignments of 1931 tax judgments and pay tax judgments for 1932 taxes, and later years, and serve notice of expiration of redemption and acquire title, without entering into competitive bidding. Op. Atty. Gen., (412a-10), April 18, 1940.

In cases of defaulted confession of judgment settlements, notice of expiration of redemption should be given under Laws 1935, ch. 278, except in those instances where taxes of 1931 and 1932 are involved, and notice should be based upon original real estate tax judgment and not judgment confessed and should not make any reference to confession of judgment settlements, and taxes collected upon confessed judgment should be credited on that judgment in inverse order, chronologically speaking. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), July 5, 1940.

Application of money paid under a confession of judgment which thereafter became in default. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), Oct. 13, 1941.

10. Statement of time to redeem—Notices held sufficient. Time to be allowed in notice of expiration of time for redemption of 1931 taxes is 60 days. Op. Atty. Gen. (423c), March 6, 1940.

In case of delinquent real estate tax for year 1931 for which tax judgment sale was postponed and taxes were sold in 1935, the stated period of redemption expired in May, 1940, and the taxes having been subsequently sold to the state, if a state assignment certificate is issued to an individual or actual purchaser covering such taxes, time allowed in notice of expiration should be 60 days. Op. Atty. Gen. (423a), May 23, 1941.

12. To whom directed, upon whom served, and return of service.

Where four tenants were in possession of involved real property, one occupying a store building or shop, and other three occupying a dwelling house, and only occupant of shop was duly served with notice of expiration of redemption, failure to make service upon occupants of dwelling house vitiated service of notice of redemption. Absetz v. M., 207M202, 290NW298. See Dun. Dig. 9435.

In action to quiet title evidence held to sustain finding that defendants were personally served with notice of expiration of time of redemption on lands sold for taxes. Holmes v. Conter, 212M394, 4NW(2d)106. See Dun. Dig. 9435.

Return of deputy sheriff upon notice of expiration of time of redemption on lands sold for taxes is not conclusive, but may be overcome only by clear and satisfactory evidence. Id. See Dun. Dig. 7818, 9436.

Where land is purchased by the state for taxes, and state has lien on land for old age assistance, notice of expiration of redemption should be served upon the state through the attorney general. Op. Atty. Gen., (419f), May 4, 1940.

Notice of expiration of redemption should be filed with clerk of federal district court where owner is a bankrupt. Op. Atty. Gen. (520B), July 11, 1940.

2164-1. Redemption from tax sales.

Laws 1933, chapter 366 (§§2164-1 and 2164-2) was passed for obvious purpose of giving landowner more time in which to save his property, and notice of expiration was deemed to be of aid to him, not only to afford him additional time but also that he would be reminded of what was impending. Absetz v. M., 207M 202, 290NW298. See Dun. Dig. 9433.

Where notice required to be published and attached to list of delinquent real estate taxes for 1932 included the paragraph provided by L. 1927, c. 119, §3, to effect that five years after sale of land for taxes real estate would become absolute property of purchaser without any further right of redemption and without any notice of expiration of time to redeem, such notice did not vitiate district court's jurisdiction to enter judgment, even though L. 1933, c. 366, §1 required notice of expiration of time to redeem, because it merely related to redemption and not to court's acquisition of jurisdiction. Singer v. Village of Goodridge, 210M324, 298NW35. See Dun. Dig. 9290, 9322.

In case of delinquent real estate tax for year 1931 for which tax judgment sale was postponed and taxes were sold in 1935, the stated period of redemption expired in May, 1940, and the taxes having been subsequently sold to the state, if a state assignment certificate is issued to an individual or actual purchaser covering such taxes, time allowed in notice of expiration should be 60 days. Op. Atty. Gen. (423a), May 23, 1941.

2164-4c. Delinquent taxes—Entry of judgment in certain cases.—Where lands bid in for the state for delinquent taxes between the passage of Chapter 366, Laws of 1933, and the passage of Chapter 278, Laws of 1935, have not been assigned to actual purchasers, the county board of the county in which such lands are located may, at any time prior to February 1, 1945, adopt a resolution instructing the county auditor to list such lands as delinquent for taxes for 1942 and to file and docket such list with the clerk of the district court as though said taxes for 1942 were the first delinquent taxes against said lands and judgment shall be entered and proceedings taken with reference to such lands as though the delinquent taxes for the year 1942 constituted the first instance of real estate tax delinquency with respect thereto; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall impair the right of the state to enforce any lien in its favor which has accrued by reason of the delinquency or non-payment of taxes for any year prior to the year 1942. (As amended Apr. 1, 1943, c. 240, §1.)

Laws 1943, c. 467, §1, provides that: In all cases where any county has taken new judgments for the 1938 taxes, on lands delinquent for the first time in 1932, as authorized by Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 2164-4c, and where such judgments have been taken in conformity with all of the provisions of said section, except that said judgments were taken in 1941 instead of in 1940, the same are hereby legalized and made valid, to the extent that they would have been valid if taken in the year 1940.

There was no statutory authority for taking of a new judgment for 1933 taxes when there was already a judgment for 1932 taxes which had not been assigned. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), May 10, 1941.

Lists of lands mentioned cannot be added to delinquent list for any other year than 1938, but this does not mean that auditor cannot place upon delinquent list in any year lands which were by oversight, mistake or otherwise omitted from delinquent list of a previous year. Op. Atty. Gen. (412A-13), Jan. 13, 1942.

A new judgment for the 1942 taxes may be taken on lands on which judgment already has been taken for 1932 taxes, and may be sold or assigned to an actual purchaser, and purchaser need not pay up the prior taxes; county auditor gives him a state assignment certificate on such prior taxes, except where the stated period of redemption has run, in which case issuance of an assignment certificate is unauthorized, and tax judgment for 1932 taxes is in this category, if taken up to and including May, 1938. Purchaser may serve a notice of expiration of time of redemption on the 1942 judgment and thereby acquire tax title, in the absence of a redemption therefrom, and subject to the lien of delinquent taxes for any prior year. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), Aug. 5, 1943.

2164-5. Stated period of redemption.

Time within which state assignment certificates may be issued is limited by the statutes, and any issues after that date are invalid, and there is no statute providing a remedy for a purchaser of such an invalid certificate. Op. Atty. Gen. (409c-2), Apr. 7, 1943.

State assignment certificate may not issue after expiration of stated period of redemption. Op. Atty. Gen. (409b-5), Oct. 5, 1943.

2164-6. Period of redemption extended to July 1, 1936.

This section applies to notice of expiration and time for redemption to a parcel of land bid in by state on May 11, 1936 for taxes delinquent in year 1934, and wherein assignment was made to an actual purchaser on December 20, 1939. Op. Atty. Gen. (423a), May 23, 1941.

Stated period of redemption on 1940 tax sale terminates five years thereafter, and notice of expiration is to issue not earlier than sixty days prior to running of such period. Op. Atty. Gen. (409c-2), June 22, 1943.

Notice of expiration of period of redemption under tax sale certificate for years 1938, 1939, 1940, may be served not earlier than 60 days before expiration of stated period of redemption, which is five years from date of the tax judgment sale. Op. Atty. Gen. (419F-1), Oct. 5, 1943.

(b).

Time within which state assignment certificates may be issued is limited by the statutes, and any issues after that date are invalid, and there is no statute providing a remedy for a purchaser of such an invalid certificate. Op. Atty. Gen. (409c-2), Apr. 7, 1943.

(c).

Exact time of expiration of "stated period of redemption" for a particular parcel of land sold for taxes for either 1931 or 1932, is end of last day of a five year period which commences to run on date following day on which land was sold for taxes and bid in for state. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-23), Aug. 12, 1940.

2164-9. To what sales applicable.

In case of a certificate of tax judgment sale, based on 1935 taxes, and purchased at May sale in 1937, time for redemption expires 60 days after notice of expiration has been served, whether notice is given by county auditor on behalf of state or on behalf of individual who has succeeded to rights of state either by virtue of an assignment or purchase at tax sale. Op. Atty. Gen. (423C), Jan. 29, 1942.

2164-10. Notice of expiration of redemption.

"Sale" of tax-forfeited land within meaning of repurchase act. State v. Flach, 213M353, 6NW(2d)805. See Dun. Dig. 9405a.

In case of delinquent real estate tax for year 1931 for which tax judgment sale was postponed and taxes were sold in 1935, the stated period of redemption expired in May, 1940, and the taxes having been subsequently sold to the state, if a state assignment certificate is issued to an individual or actual purchaser covering such taxes, time allowed in notice of expiration should be 60 days. Op. Atty. Gen. (423a), May 23, 1941.

This section applies to notice of expiration and time for redemption to a parcel of land bid in by state on May 11, 1936 for taxes delinquent in year 1934, and wherein assignment was made to an actual purchaser on December 20, 1939. Id.

Regular rate of interest on delinquent taxes for 1931 where no answer was interposed is 10%, both under Laws 1931, c. 315, and Laws 1933, c. 337. Id.

In case of a certificate of tax judgment sale, based on 1935 taxes, and purchased at May sale in 1937, time for redemption expires 60 days after notice of expiration has been served, whether notice is given by county auditor on behalf of state or on behalf of individual who has succeeded to rights of state either by virtue of an assignment or purchase at tax sale. Op. Atty. Gen. (423C), Jan. 29, 1942.

Stated period of redemption on 1940 tax sale terminates five years thereafter, and notice of expiration is to issue not earlier than sixty days prior to running of such period. Op. Atty. Gen. (409c-2), June 22, 1943.

Notice of expiration of period of redemption under tax sale certificate for years 1938, 1939, 1940, may be served not earlier than 60 days before expiration of stated period of redemption, which is five years from date of the tax judgment sale. Op. Atty. Gen. (419F-1), Oct. 5, 1943.

2164-11. County auditor to give notice.

Statutory requirements with reference to the service of the notice of expiration of redemption are of great importance and strict compliance therewith is vital. McHardy v. State, 215M132, 9NW(2d)427. See Dun. Dig. 9424.

Lien for taxes existing prior to acquisition by state or subdivision thereof may remain on auditor's books, but any proceeding to forfeit for delinquent taxes is void. Op. Atty. Gen. (414c-3), Sept. 29, 1939.

In cases of defaulted confession of judgment settlements, notice of expiration of redemption should be given under Laws 1935, ch. 278, except in those instances where taxes of 1931 and 1932 are involved, and notice should be based upon original real estate tax judgment and not judgment confessed and should not make any reference to confession of judgment settlements, and taxes collected upon confessed judgment should be credited on that judgment in inverse order, chronologically speaking. Op. Atty. Gen. (412a-10), July 5, 1940.

Where lands were sold for delinquent taxes for year 1931 in May, 1935, whereas 1932 tax on same property was bid in for state in May, 1934, and all tax judgments for years 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936 and 1937 were added to judgment obtained in May, 1934, under 1932 tax sale, it was too late in April, 1940, to obtain an assignment of the 1932 tax judgment, but one could obtain assignments of 1931 tax judgments and pay tax judgments for 1932 taxes, and later years, and serve notice of expiration of redemption and acquire title, without entering into competitive bidding. Op. Atty. Gen., (412a-10), April 18, 1940.

2164-12. Form of notice.

Statutes relative to tax title proceedings which result in the owner's forfeiture of his property should require a stricter construction than those relating to mortgage foreclosure proceedings, which involve merely a creditor's proceeding to recover a debt due him. McHardy v. State, 215M132, 9NW(2d)427. See Dun. Dig. 9424.

Failure of posted notice of expiration of redemption to designate name of assessed owner as carried on official assessment books rendered tax forfeiture proceedings fatally defective. McHardy v. State, 215M141, 9NW(2d)432; McHardy v. State, 215M146, 9NW(2d)435. See Dun. Dig. 9428.

It is vital that all persons in possession be served with proper notice, but this does not mean necessarily that all who chance to live on the premises are to be regarded as persons in possession and as such possession must be substantial and suited to the appropriate use of the property and independent and of equal dignity with others in possession and not of a trivial nature. McHardy v. State, 215M132, 9NW(2d)427. See Dun. Dig. 9435.

Question as to the fact of occupancy and whether the nature and character thereof are of such substance and dignity as to require service of notice are to be determined by the triers of fact on the evidence there presented. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9435.

2164-12a. Cancellation of certificates of forfeiture where lands were exempt.—Where a certificate of forfeiture required by Laws of 1935, Chapter 278, Section 8, Subdivision (f), describing lands which were exempt from taxation under the Laws of the United States in the year upon which the supposed forfeiture is based, or which describes lands that were owned by the State of Minnesota or some department or subdivision thereof at the time the supposed forfeiture took place or lands which, because of defective service of the notice of forfeiture or other reason, the title thereto did not in fact forfeit to the State, has been erroneously recorded or filed, such forfeiture may be set aside and such certificate may be cancelled in the manner herein provided. Op. Atty. Gen. (407), Oct. 10, 1941.

Neither county board nor commissioner of taxation could make a determination of title in a village by adverse possession, court action being necessary. Id.

2164-12b. Same—Applications by owner.—The owner at the time of forfeiture or someone authorized to act in his or its behalf shall file an application for cancellation with the county auditor submitting therewith a statement of the facts of the case and satisfactory proof that the supposed forfeiture was erroneous upon one or more of the grounds hereinbefore stated. Such application may be made by the county auditor when he has knowledge of the facts. Such application shall be considered by the county board and the county auditor as in the case of application under Section 1983 of Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, and shall thereafter be submitted to the commissioner of taxation with the recommendation of the county board and the county auditor. The commissioner of taxation shall consider said application and if he determines that the supposed forfeiture was erroneous upon such grounds he shall order the county auditor to record and file in the manner in which the original certificate of forfeiture was recorded and filed, a certificate of cancellation which shall refer to said original certificate, the provisions of this act, and the proceedings taken pursuant hereto, and state that the original certificate is void upon the grounds so determined. Upon compliance with such order by the county auditor, the supposed forfeiture and original certificate thereof shall be void. Unless exempt the lands affected by such cancellation shall be deemed to have been subject to taxation as if the supposed forfeiture had not occurred, and all taxes and assessments which have been cancelled or omitted be reinstated or levied and assessed as in the case of omitted taxes, as the case may require. 2178. In case of exemption.

Where tax-forfeited lands were sold on May 17, and county auditor after sale spread taxes against property for that year, attempt of auditor to impose the taxes was ineffective and entry on tax list for that year should be removed by proper marginal note, and if taxes were paid they should be returned by county board upon proper claim without necessity of any proceedings before State Department of Taxation. Op. Atty. Gen. (424a-9), Sept. 21, 1940.

2180. Limitation on right.

2184-4. Resale of state land previously sold, for delinquent taxes—Refundments.—

Subdivision 1. Refundment may be made as provided in this subdivision in any case where state school land or other trust fund land previously sold by the state upon a certificate of sale providing for deferred payments has again been sold for delinquent taxes to an actual purchaser under the following conditions:

(a) That at the time of the tax sale there was an unpaid amount owing under the prior trust fund land certificate less than the purchase price paid at the tax sale;

(b) That the rights of the purchaser under the trust fund land certificate were not finally terminated by reason of default therein, but passed to the purchaser at the tax sale, subject to payment of the amount owing under the prior certificate;

(c) That the purchaser at the tax sale acted in good faith and without actual knowledge of the fact that the land was state trust fund land or that it was subject to payment of the amount owing under the trust fund land certificate;

(d) That the purchase price at the tax sale was based upon an appraisal or valuation of the land, but that no allowance for the amount owing under the trust fund land certificate was made in determining such price.

Upon application of the purchaser at the tax sale or his successor in interest and upon satisfactory proof of the existence of the specified conditions, the county board of the county in which the land is situated shall ascertain the amount owing under the certificate of trust fund land sale at the time of the tax sale, including principal and interest then accrued, but without further interest, and shall order such amount refunded to the applicant, to be paid as provided in Subdivision 5. Such refundment shall not affect the validity of the tax deed or certificate of sale, which shall remain in effect as if the purchase price thereunder had been reduced by the amount of the refundment.

Subdivision 2. Refundment may be made in like manner as provided in Subdivision 1, subject to the further provisions hereof, in any case where land has been sold for delinquent taxes under the same conditions as specified in Subdivision 1 except that the total amount owing under the trust fund land certificate at the time of the tax sale equaled or exceeded the amount of the purchase price paid at such sale. In such case any subsequent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs paid by the purchaser or his successors in interest shall also be refunded, but the total amount refunded shall not exceed the total amount actually paid by the purchaser or his successors. As a condition of refundment under this subdivision, the tax deed or certificate of sale shall be surrendered and cancelled and the tax obligations against the land shall be reinstated as provided in Subdivision 4.

Subdivision 3. Refundment may be made in like manner as provided in Subdivision 1, subject to the further provisions hereof, in any case where state school land or other trust fund land previously sold by the state upon a certificate of sale providing for deferred payments has again been sold or assigned for delinquent taxes to an actual purchaser or assignee under the following conditions:

(a) That at the time of the tax sale or assignment there was an unpaid amount owing under the prior trust fund land certificate, it being immaterial whether such amount was greater or less than the purchase price paid at the tax sale or assignment;

(b) That the state had either cancelled the trust fund land certificate for non-payment of the amount due thereon and had reoffered the land for sale, or that the land still remained subject thereto;

(c) That the purchaser or assignee at the tax sale or assignment acted in good faith and without knowledge of the fact that the land was state trust fund land or that it was subject to the aforesaid conditions attaching thereto;

(d) That the purchase price paid at the tax sale or assignment was fixed by law and was not subject to appraisal or adjustment according to the value of the land.

In such case any subsequent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs paid by the purchaser or assignee or his successors in interest shall also be refunded, but the total amount refunded shall not exceed the total amount actually paid by the purchaser or assignee or his successors. As a condition of refundment under this subdivision, the tax deed or certificate of sale or assignment shall be surrendered and cancelled and the tax obligations against the land shall be reinstated as provided in Subdivision 4.

Subdivision 4. In any case where refundment is allowed under Subdivision 2 or Subdivision 3, the applicant shall, as a condition of the refundment, surrender the tax deed or certificate of sale or assignment for cancellation, and shall deliver to the county auditor an instrument in such form as may be prescribed by the attorney general, executed by the applicant and by any other necessary parties in interest, witnessed and acknowledged as a conveyance, releasing and conveying to the state all right, title, and interest in the land acquired by virtue of the tax deed or certificate of sale or assignment or by virtue of any subsequent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs paid by the purchaser or assignee or his successors in interest and included in the refundment, and consenting to the cancellation of the tax deed or certificate of sale or assignment and of such subsequent payments. The execution and sufficiency of the instrument shall be approved by the county attorney. Thereupon the county auditor shall cancel upon his records the tax sale or assignment and any such subsequent payments, reinstating against the land all tax judgments, taxes, assessments, penalties, interest and costs covered thereby in like manner as if the sale or assignment or subsequent payments had not been made. If the land was sold directly to an actual purchaser at tax judgment sale and the certificate of such sale is cancelled hereunder, the land shall be deemed to have been bid in for the state at such sale as provided by law. If the tax deed or certificate of sale or assignment or any other instrument pertaining to the proceedings has been recorded with the register of deeds, the auditor shall execute a certificate of such cancellation, in such form as the attorney general may prescribe, and shall record the same, together with the instrument obtained from the applicant, with the register of deeds.

Subdivision 5. Every refundment authorized under this section shall be paid by warrant of the county auditor upon the county treasurer and shall be charged against the funds which benefited by the proceeds of the tax sale or assignment in proportion to the benefit, so far as practicable, or, if no special fund be available or properly chargeable therewith, against the general revenue fund of the county, as the county board may determine. (Act Apr. 16, 1941, c. 273, §1.)

Subd. 3.

"Costs" refers only to costs attaching up to and including tax judgment sale, and does not include payments to purchaser of any amounts which he may have expended in forfeiture proceedings, such as sheriff's fees and mileage and publication of notice of expiration of time of redemption. Op. Atty. Gen. (424A-16), Sept. 9, 1941.

As affecting purchase by school district of tax title lands, a tax title is not a good marketable title until title has been quieted by action, since a tax title is subject to many errors and mistakes, which might be raised at any time within 15 years by original owner. Op. Atty. Gen. (425c-12), Sept. 12, 1940.

2190-1. Action to try title; etc.

2190-4. Same—Claimant to deposit taxes in court; etc.

Provisions are mandatory and must be complied with by a party claiming adversely to the state in an action respecting lands claimed to have been forfeited to the state for taxes, and this is true in an action or proceeding to register title to land. 2191. Lien of real estate taxes.

Op. Atty. Gen. (59a-1), Sept. 27, 1939; note under §1990.

2. When attaches.

Where land is purchased in September, 1936, and taxes for 1936 are paid during 1937, payment is deductible in computation of income tax for 1937, since it cannot be considered a capital expenditure. Spaeth v. Hallam, 211 M156, 300NW600. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

Op. Atty. Gen. (216i-3), Aug. 6, 1942.

2247. "Gross earnings" defined.

(1) The proceeds of all such policies hereafter issued payable to named beneficiaries.

(2) The proceeds of all such policies now in force payable to named beneficiaries in which the insured has the right to change the beneficiary or under which he has cash surrender right.

(b) Such proceeds in excess of $32,500 shall be deemed a transfer within the meaning of that term as used in this act and a part of decedent's estate, and shall be taxable to the person or persons entitled thereto. In the computation of the tax, the proceeds upon which no tax is imposed shall be credited as follows:

(1) To the surviving spouse, the amount of such proceeds received by such spouse, not in excess, however, of $32,500.

(2) To each minor child of the decedent the amount of such proceeds received by such child, not in excess, however, of $32,500, less the amount, if any, allowable to the surviving spouse.

(3) To each adult child of the decedent the amount of such proceeds received by such child, not in excess, however, of $32,500, less the amounts, if any, allowable to the surviving spouse and minor child or children of the decedent.

(4) To any person, the amount of such proceeds received by such person, not in excess, however, of $32,500, less the amount, if any, allowable to the surviving spouse and children of the decedent.

(c) If the amount otherwise allowable to any class of persons as aforesaid, together with the amounts allowable to prior classes, shall aggregate more than $32,500, the difference between the aggregate of the amounts allowable to prior class or classes and $32,500 shall be prorated among the members of such class in proportion to the amount of such proceeds received by each.

(d) Every corporation, partnership, association, individual, order or society authorized to transact life, accident, fraternal, mutual benefit or death benefit insurance business which shall pay to any person, association, or corporation any insurance or death benefit or shall transfer any unpaid balance of, or any interest in, any annuity contract or deposit, upon the death of a resident of this state, shall give notice of such payment or transfer to the commissioner of taxation within ten days from the date thereof. Such notice shall be given on the forms prescribed by the commissioner of taxation, and such notice shall set forth such information as the commissioner of taxation shall prescribe.

(e) The receipt of any such proceeds upon which no tax is imposed shall not affect the right to any exemption otherwise provided in this act.

(f) The commissioner of taxation shall determine the tax, if any, under subdivision 5. (As amended Apr. 26, 1941, c. 470, §1; Apr. 20, 1943, c. 504, §§1, 2.)

2203. Rate of tax.—Subdivision 1. The tax so imposed shall be computed upon the true and full value in money of such property at the rates hereinafter prescribed and only upon the excess of the exemptions hereinafter granted.

Subdivision 2. Primary rates.—When the property or any beneficial interest therein passes by any such transfer where the amount of the property shall exceed in value the exemption hereinafter specified and shall not exceed in value $15,000 the tax hereby imposed shall be:

(1) Where the person entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the wife, or lineal issue, or any child adopted as such in conformity with the laws of this state, or any lineal issue of such adopted child at the rate of one per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(2) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the husband, lineal ancestor of the decedent or any child to whom such decedent for not less than ten years prior to such transfer stood in the mutually acknowledged relation of a parent; provided, however, such relationship began at or before the child's 15th birthday, and was continuous for said ten years thereafter, or any lineal issue of such mutually acknowledged child, at the rate of one and one-half per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(3) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister or a descendant of a brother or sister of the decedent, a wife or widow of a son, or the husband of a daughter of the decedent, at the rate of three per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(4) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister of the father or mother or a descendant of a brother or sister of the father or mother of the decedent, at the rate of four per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property.

(5) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be in any other degree of collateral consanguinity than is hereinbefore stated, or shall be a stranger in blood to the decedent, or shall be a body politic or corporate, except as hereinafter provided, at the rate of five per cent of the clear value of such interest in such property.

Subdivision 3. Primary rates.—The foregoing rates in subdivision 2 are for convenience termed the primary rates.

When the amount of the clear value of such property or interest exceeds $15,000, the rates of tax upon such excess shall be as follows:

(1) Upon all in excess of $15,000 and up to $30,000, two times the primary rates.

(2) Upon all in excess of $30,000 and up to $50,000, three times the primary rates.

(3) Upon all in excess of $50,000 and up to $100,000, three and one-half times the primary rates.

(4) Upon all in excess of $100,000 and up to $200,000, four times the primary rates.

(5) Upon all in excess of $200,000 and up to $300,000, five times the primary rates.

(6) Upon all in excess of $300,000 and up to $400,000, six times the primary rates.

(7) Upon all in excess of $400,000 and up to $500,000, seven times the primary rates.

(8) Upon all in excess of $500,000 and up to $600,000, eight times the primary rates.

(9) Upon all in excess of $600,000 and up to $700,000, nine times the primary rates.

(10) Upon all in excess of $700,000 and up to $900,000, ten times the primary rates.

(11) Upon all in excess of $900,000 and up to $1,100,000, eleven times the primary rates.

(12) Upon all in excess of $1,100,000, twelve times the primary rates.

Provided the tax imposed hereby shall in no case exceed 35 per cent of the true and full value of the property transferred in excess of the applicable specific exemptions.

Subdivision 4. Exemptions.—The following exemptions from the tax are hereby allowed:

(1) any devise, bequest, gift, or transfer to or for the use of the United States of America or any state or any political subdivision thereof for public purposes exclusively, and any devise, bequest, gift or transfer to or for the use of any corporation, fund, foundation, trust, or association operated within this state for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, education, or public cemetery purposes exclusively, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of which devise, bequest, gift or transfer inures to the profit of any private stockholder or individual, and any bequest or transfer to a trustee or trustees exclusively for such purposes, shall be exempt. Any devise, bequest, gift, or transfer to or for the use of any corporation, fund, foundation, trust or association operated for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, education, or public cemetery purposes exclusively, including the encouragement of art, and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of which devise, bequest, gift, or transfer inures to the profit of any private stockholder or any individual, and any bequest or transfer to a trustee or trustees exclusively for such purposes, shall be exempt, if, at the date of the decedent's death, the laws of the state under the laws of which the transferee was organized or existing, either (1) did not impose a death tax of any character, in respect of property transferred to a similar corporation, fund, foundation, trust, or association, organized or existing under the laws of this state, or (2) contained a reciprocal provision under which transfers to a similar corporation, fund, foundation, trust, or association, organized or existing under the laws of another state were exempted from death taxes of every character if such other state allowed a similar exemption to a similar corporation, fund, foundation, trust, or association, organized under the laws of such state.

The homestead of a decedent, and the proceeds thereof if sold during administration, transferred to the spouse or issue of a decedent, shall be exempt to the extent of $30,000 of the appraised value thereof.

(2) Property of the clear value of $10,000 transferred to the widow and to each child of the decedent or any legally adopted child who is a minor or dependent at the death of the decedent, shall be exempt.

Property of the clear value of $5,000 transferred to husband of the decedent, an adult child or other lineal descendant of the decedent, any adult adopted child, or any child to whom the decedent for not less than ten years prior to his death, stood in the mutually acknowledged relation of a parent; provided, however, such relationship began at or before the child's 15th birthday, and was continuous for ten years thereafter, or any lineal issue of such adopted or mutually acknowledged child, shall be exempt.

(3) Property of the clear value of $3,000 transferred to each of the lineal ancestors of the decedent shall be exempt.

(4) Property of the clear value of $1,000 transferred to each of the persons described in the third subdivision of subdivision 2 shall be exempt.

(5) Property of the clear value of $250.00 transferred to each of the persons described in the fourth subdivision of subdivision 2 shall be exempt.

(6) Property of the clear value of $100.00 transferred to each of the persons and corporations described in the fifth subdivision of subdivision 2 shall be exempt.

Subdivision 5. Limited exemption where decedent acquired property within five years of his death.—

Where property is transferred to any person described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision 2 which can be identified as having been transferred to the decedent from a person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, and such transfer to the decedent was within the class of transfer described in said paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision 2 such property shall be exempt to the extent of the value thereof at the date of death of the prior decedent but not to exceed the value at the date of death of the second decedent. Provided, however: (1) no such exemption shall be allowed unless an inheritance tax was determined and paid to this state on the transfer thereof from the said prior decedent; (2) the exemption shall be limited to the value of property which is in excess of the amount of the exemption provided in subdivision 4 allowed on the transfer to the decedent; (3) unless such previously transferred property is specifically devised or bequeathed, the exempt property for purposes of taxation shall be considered as belonging to the residue of the estate; (4) property exempt under this subdivision shall not be included in computing the rate applicable to other transfers to the beneficiary receiving such exempt property.

Subdivision 6. Expenses of administration.—Reasonable expenses of administration, funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness, claims against the decedent duly allowed as such, family maintenance to the extent provided by Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 2293-1, and allowances to the surviving spouse, Federal estate taxes and taxes which have accrued or are a lien on property in the estate at the date of death, shall be allowed as deductions, in the amount allowed by the probate court having jurisdiction, before computing the tax.

Subdivision 7. Apportionment of expense.—Where any tax is due on the transfer of any property or interest therein owned by a nonresident, the exemptions provided in subdivision [4] shall be allowed as in the case of residents. No deductions except those actually incurred within this state shall be allowed.

Subdivision 8. Determination of tax.—Except as otherwise herein provided the tax upon any transfers by a nonresident of real property within this state or personal property having a situs within this state shall be determined by the probate court in all cases where the estate is probated in this state. In all cases where the tax is not determined by the probate court it shall be determined by the commissioner of taxation. (As amended Act Apr. 20, 1943, c. 504, §3.)

Expenditures by executors in locating assets of large estates held deductible as administration expenses, and disallowance of deductions on ground that such expenses were incurred in prolonging administration to provide funds for testamentary trusts and in carrying on a business by the executors for profit was improper, nor was such disallowance justified on ground that the deductions claimed were also claimed in connection with income taxes of the estate. Adams, (CCA8), 110F(2d)578, rev'g 39BTA1239.

Burden of proof as to amount executors were entitled to deduct for expenses of administration and as to allowable character of deductions claimed in determining federal estate tax was upon them, and hence upon reversal of determination of Board of Appeals disallowing claimed deduction, case would be remanded to afford opportunity to prove that the administration expenses claimed as deductions were allowable as such. Id.

2294. To take effect on death—When payable.—

(1) All taxes imposed by this act shall take effect at and upon the death of the person from whom the transfer is made and shall be due and payable at the expiration of 15 months from such death, except as otherwise provided in this act. (As amended Act Apr. 20, 1943, c. 504, §4.)

(2) The value of every future or limited estate, income, interest or annuity dependent upon any life or lives in being, shall be determined by the rule, method and standard of mortality and value employed by the commissioner of insurance in ascertaining the value of policies of life insurance and annuities for the determination of liabilities of life insurance companies, except: (a) for every future or limited estate, income, interest or annuity, the value of which is not based upon an assumed or fixed rate of interest, the rate of interest and the discount rate, for making such computation, shall be four per cent per annum; (b) the value of an annuity contract issued by a company regularly engaged in the sale of contracts of that character shall be determined by the amount at which comparable contracts were sold by that company at the date of the decedent's death. (As amended Act Apr. 20, 1943, c. 504, §5.)

2295. Subdivision 1. Collection of tax by administrator—Executor—Trustees.—Any administrator, executor or trustee having in charge or in trust any property for distribution embraced in or belonging to any inheritance, devise, bequest, legacy or gift, subject to the tax thereon as imposed by this act, shall deduct the tax therefrom, before paying or distributing the same. If such property be not in money, he shall collect the tax on such inheritance, devise, bequest, legacy, or gift upon the appraised value thereof, from the person entitled thereto. He shall not deliver, or be compelled to deliver, any property embraced in any inheritance, devise, bequest, legacy or gift, subject to tax under this act, to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon. All taxes so collected, together with interest thereon, if any, shall be paid to the county treasurer as herein provided, and no administrator, executor or trustee shall be entitled to a discharge of his duties and liabilities until such tax is paid.

Subdivision 2. Every representative shall, at the time of filing the inventory as required by law, or, if no inventory is filed, the petitioner shall at the time of filing the petition for decree of descent, petition for summary distribution, or other document initiating the proceedings, file with the Probate Court a return under oath, in such form as may be prescribed by the commissioner of taxation, of all property within his knowledge and the value thereof at the date of the decedent's death, (a) which the decedent has at any time transferred and which is or may be subject to an inheritance tax, (b) which the decedent held in joint tenancy, (c) which was subject to the exercise of a power of appointment by the decedent. The return shall also contain a list of all policies of insurance on the life of the decedent payable to named beneficiaries, and the amounts thereof, if the total amount thereof exceeds $32,500.

Subdivision 3. In all cases where a federal estate tax return is filed, a true copy thereof shall be filed with the commissioner of taxation at the time of filing the original. (As amended Act Apr. 20, 1943, c. 504, §6.)

2296. Taxes to be paid to county or state treasurer.

—Subdivision 1. The tax imposed by this act upon inheritance, devises, bequests, legacies, gifts and other transfers shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in which the probate court having jurisdiction is located or, where there are no probate proceedings in this state to the commissioner of taxation.

Subdivision 2. If the tax is paid to the county treasurer he shall give the executor, administrator, trustee or person paying such tax, duplicate receipts therefor, one of which shall be immediately transmitted to the commissioner of taxation, whose duty it shall be to verify the correctness of the amount so paid and thereupon to countersign the same and return it to the executor, administrator or trustee, or other person paying such tax, whereupon it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts. The county treasurer upon receiving written notice from the commissioner of taxation that the receipt has been countersigned and delivered, shall transmit the amount so paid to the commissioner of taxation.

Subdivision 3. If the tax is paid directly to the commissioner of taxation he shall, after verifying the correctness of the amount so paid, issue his receipt to the executor, administrator or trustee, or other person paying such tax, and it shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts.

Subdivision 4. No executor, administrator or trustee shall be entitled to a final accounting of an estate, in the settlement of which a tax may become due under the provisions of this act, until he shall produce a receipt, countersigned or issued by the commissioner of taxation, or a certified copy of the same.

Subdivision 5. All taxes paid under the provisions of this act shall be deposited by the commissioner of taxation in the state treasury, and shall belong to and be a part of the revenue fund of the state. (As amended Apr. 23, 1943, c. 593, §1.)

2298. Interest.—If such tax is not paid within 15 months from the accruing thereof, interest shall be charged and collected thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from the time the tax is due. All payments shall be applied first on interest and then upon principal. (As amended Act Apr. 20, 1943, c. 504, §7.)

2301. Tax erroneously paid—Refundment.—When any tax imposed by this act shall have been erroneously paid, wholly or in part, the person paying the same shall be entitled to a refundment of the amount so erroneously paid in the manner provided by Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2315, as amended, provided, however, that all applications for such refunding of erroneous taxes shall be made within three years from the payment thereof. (As amended Apr. 23, 1943, c. 593, §2.)

2302. Transfer by foreign executors—Personal property of non-resident decedent.—Subdivision 1. If a foreign executor, administrator or trustee shall assign or transfer any stock or obligation in this state, standing in the name of a decedent or in trust for a decedent, liable to any such tax, the tax shall be paid to the commissioner of taxation on the transfer thereof, and no such assignment or transfer shall be valid until such tax is paid.

Subdivision 2. If any nonresident of this state dies owning personal property in this state, such property may be transferred or assigned by the personal representative of, or trustee for the decedent, only after such representative or trustee shall have procured a certificate from the commissioner of taxation consenting to the transfer of such property. Such consent shall be issued by the commissioner of taxation only in case there is no tax due hereunder; or in case there is a tax, when the same shall have been paid.

Subdivision 3. Any personal representative, trustee, heir or legatee of a nonresident decedent desiring to transfer property having its situs in this state may make application to the commissioner of taxation for the determination of whether there is any tax due to the state on account of the transfer of the decedent's property and such applicant shall furnish to the commissioner of taxation therewith an affidavit setting forth a description of all property owned by the decedent at the time of his death and having its situs in the state of Minnesota, the value of such property at the time of said decedent's death; also when required by the commissioner of taxation, a description of and statements of the true value of all the property owned by the decedent at the time of his death and having its situs outside the state of Minnesota, and also a schedule or statement of the valid claims against the estate of the decedent, including the expenses of his last sickness and funeral and the expenses of administering his estate, to the extent that such claims were incurred within this state. Such person shall also, on request of the commissioner of taxation, furnish to the latter a certified copy of the last will of the decedent in case he died testate; or an affidavit setting forth the names, ages and residences of the heirs at law of the decedent in case he died intestate and the proportion of the entire estate of such decedent inherited by each of said persons, and the relation, if any, with each legatee, devisee, heir, or transferee sustained to the decedent or person from whom the transfer was made. Such affidavits shall be subscribed and sworn to by the personal representative of the decedent or some other person having knowledge of the facts therein set forth.

Subdivision 4. The statements in any such affidavits as to value or otherwise shall not be binding on the commissioner of taxation in case he believes the same to be untrue. From the information so furnished to him and such other information as he may have with reference thereto, the commissioner of taxation shall, with reasonable expedition, determine the amount of tax, if any, due the state under the provisions of this act and notify the person making the application of the amount thereof claimed to be due. On payment of the tax so determined to be due or in case there is no tax due to the state, the commissioner of taxation shall issue a consent to the transfer of the property so owned by the decedent.

Subdivision 5. Any person aggrieved by the determination of the commissioner of taxation in any matter hereinbefore provided for, may within twenty days thereafter appeal to the district court of Hennepin county, or Ramsey county, Minnesota, by filing with the commissioner of taxation a notice in writing setting forth his objections to such determination and that he appeals therefrom and thereupon within ten days thereafter the commissioner of taxation shall transmit the original papers and records which have been filed with him in relation to such application for consent, to the clerk of the district court to which the appeal shall have been taken, and thereupon said court shall acquire jurisdiction of such application and proceeding. Upon eight days' notice given to the commissioner of taxation by the appellant, the matter may be brought on for hearing and determination by such court either in term time or vacation, at a general or special term of said court, or at chambers as may be directed by order of the court. The said court may determine any and all questions of law and fact necessary to the enforcement of the provisions of this act according to its intent and purpose, and may by order direct the correction, amendment or modification of any determination made by the commissioner of taxation.

Subdivision 6. On such hearing either party may introduce the testimony of witnesses and other evidence in the same manner and subject to the same rules which govern in civil actions. When necessary, the court may adjourn or continue its hearings from time to time, to enable the parties to secure the attendance of witnesses or the taking of depositions. Depositions may be taken and used in such proceedings in the same manner as is now provided by law for the taking of depositions in civil actions.

Subdivision 7. The commissioner of taxation and any person aggrieved by the order of the district court may appeal to the supreme court from any such order by said courts, within the time and in the manner now provided by law for the taking of appeals from orders in civil actions. (As amended Apr. 23, 1943, c. 593, §3.)

It is still proper to require "consent to transfer" in case of assignments of mortgages or other liens made by foreign representatives or by decrees of foreign courts, even in absence of a tax. Op. Atty. Gen. (242a-18), Dec. 13, 1941.

"Consent to transfer" should be obtained in event of a change of ownership in a joint tenancy mortgage by reason of death of one of joint owners. Id.

2303. Subdivision 1. Safety deposit companies not to transfer funds.—No person holding securities of assets belonging at the time of death of a decedent to him or to him and another or others as joint tenants, or having on deposit funds in excess of $1,000 to the credit of a decedent and another or others as joint tenants, or to the credit of the decedent as trustee for another or others, or renting a safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping to a decedent, individually or as joint tenant or tenant in common, shall deliver or transfer the same to any person, or permit any person to have access thereto, unless notice of the time and place of such intended transfer or access be served upon the county treasurer, personally or by representative, in which event the county treasurer, personally or by representative, may examine said securities, assets, funds or contents of such safe deposit box, at the time of such delivery, transfer or access. If, upon such examination the county treasurer or his representative shall for any cause deem it advisable that such securities, assets or funds should not be immediately delivered or transferred, or access to said safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping should not immediately be granted, he may forthwith notify in writing such person to defer delivery or transfer or access, as the case may be, for a period not to exceed ten days from the date of such notice, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the person notified to defer such delivery, transfer or access until the time stated in such notice or until prior revocation thereof. Failure to serve the notice first above mentioned, or to allow such examination, or to defer delivery or transfer of such securities, assets, or funds, or to refuse access to such safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping for the time stated in the second of such notices, shall render such person liable to the payment of the tax due, not exceeding $1000, upon the transfer of said securities, assets, or funds, or upon securities, assets, or moneys in such safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping, pursuant to the provision of this act; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall subject such person to liability for the payment of any such tax unless such person had knowledge of the death of the decedent prior to such delivery or transfer of such securities, assets, or funds, or entry to said safe deposit box or other place of safekeeping. Nothing herein contained shall apply with respect to negotiable instruments on which such person is obligated, nor to the delivery or transfer of securities or assets standing in the name of decedent alone, except contents of safe deposit boxes, to his duly qualified executor, administrator or personal representative. The word "person" as used herein shall include individual persons, safe deposit companies, banks, trust companies, savings and loan associations, partnerships and all other organizations.

Any person seeking access to any safe deposit box upon the death of any person who at the time of his death was a tenant thereof either individually or as joint tenant or tenant in common, or seeking to withdraw securities, assets or funds belonging to the decedent or which decedent had the right to withdraw, shall notify the person renting such safe deposit box or holding such securities, assets or funds of the decedent's death. Any person who wilfully fails to give the notice of the death of the decedent required by this paragraph with intent to evade taxes due hereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. It shall be a complete defense to any prosecution under the provisions of this subdivision that no inheritance tax was due from the decedent's estate.

Subdivision 2. The county treasurer shall within ten days deliver a written report of the property examined by him to the probate court and the commissioner of taxation.

Subdivision 3. No corporation organized under the laws of this state shall transfer on its books or on its records kept as transfer agent for any corporation any shares of stock standing in the name of a decedent who is known to have been a resident of this state or of a foreign country at the time of his death without the written consent of the commissioner of taxation. Any corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to the state for the amount of any tax due on the transfer of such shares of stock. (As amended Act Apr. 20, 1943, c. 504, §8.)

2304. Commissioner of taxation to receive list of property.—Subdivision 1. The county treasurers of the several counties, and the commissioner of taxation, shall have the same rights to apply for letters of administration as are conferred upon creditors by law.

Subdivision 2. In all estates where it appears from the inventory, appraisal and return that an inheritance tax may be imposed, the representative shall, upon the filing thereof, under direction of the court, deliver a copy of each, and of the petition, and will, if any, to the commissioner of taxation, and upon filing the final account shall deliver a copy thereof to the commissioner of taxation.

Subdivision 3. The values shown by such inventory, appraisal and return shall be deemed conclusive and final in the computation of inheritance taxes unless within ninety days after the filing of copies thereof with the commissioner of taxation as required by subdivision 2 of this section, the representative of the estate, or the commissioner of taxation, or any party in interest, shall file objections thereto with the probate court and, if he is not the party objecting, with the commissioner of taxation, as to any specific item or items therein. If such objections are filed the probate court shall fix a time and place for the determination of the tax and shall give thirty days' written notice thereof to the commissioner of taxation and to the representative of the estate and to any party who has filed objections, and upon such hearing shall determine the values of the items objected to and determine the tax. Orders—Decisions—Report.—(a) All orders and decisions of the commissioner of taxation or any of his subordinates respecting any tax, assessment, or other obligation shall be in writing, filed in the offices of the department. No order or decision increasing or decreasing any tax, assessment, or other obligation by a sum exceeding $100 on real or personal property, or the assessed valuation thereof, or other obligation relating thereto, the result of which is to increase or decrease the total amount payable including penalties and interest, by a sum exceeding $300.00, and no order or decision increasing or decreasing any other tax by a sum exceeding $100.00 exclusive of penalties and interest, shall be made without the written approval of the commissioner or his deputy in each case. Written notice of every order granting a reduction, abatement, or refundment exceeding $100 of any tax on real or personal property or the assessed valuation thereof, or other obligation relating thereto, the result of which is to decrease the total amount payable including penalties and interest by a sum exceeding $300, and of every order reducing, abating or refunding any other tax by a sum exceeding $100 exclusive of penalties and interest, shall be given within five days to the attorney general. The attorney general shall forthwith examine such order, and if he deems the same proper and legal he shall approve the same in writing, and may waive the right of appeal therefrom in behalf of the state; otherwise he shall take an appeal from the order in behalf of the state as herein provided. Provided however, that written approval of the commissioner or his deputy and written notice to the attorney general, shall not be required with respect to the following orders: (1) orders reducing assessed valuation of property by reason of its classification as a homestead; (2) orders involving property of the Department of Rural Credits; (3) orders not involving refunds which have the effect only of correcting income and franchise tax assessments to conform to the amounts shown on final returns filed as provided by Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 2394-39(e); (4) original orders for the refundment of gasoline taxes. (As amended Mar. 25, 1943, c. 174, §1; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 652, §1.)

Provided, however, that all reductions of assessed valuation of more than $50,000.00 and all reductions, refundments, or abatements of real estate tax of more than $1,000.00 shall be separately shown in such statement. Such statement shall show the names of all taxpayers or other persons concerned, the original amount of each assessment, tax, or other obligation, the amount of abatement, reduction, or refundment allowed in each case, and the totals of the respective items, notwithstanding any provisions of law requiring secrecy to the contrary. The commissioner shall also include in such statement the amount of all increases of taxes or assessments made by the department, classified in such manner as he may deem proper, but not showing the names of taxpayers or other persons concerned or the amounts in individual cases. (As amended Mar. 25, 1943, c. 174, §§ 1, 2; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 652, § 1.)

Upon appeal by a municipality from order of tax commissioner determining valuation of unmined iron ore there must be a hearing and a determination de novo upon the issues raised in the notice and in the return, and in order to determine the ultimate issue of whether there was an undervaluation, board must of necessity determine, from all the evidence presented, the true and actual value of the property as of May 1. Every petitioner except the attorney general, the commissioner of taxation, the state and its political subdivisions, shall also pay to the clerk a fee of $15 and file a bond or make a deposit in like manner and amount as in case of an appeal from the district court. Rule 16. Reservation.

The Board reserves the right to amend, relax and dispense with these rules and regulations from time to time as circumstances may require, or render necessary or expedient.

2364. Powers and duties of commissioner.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner and he shall have power and authority:

(1) To have and exercise general supervision over the administration of the assessment and taxation laws of the state, over assessors, town, county, and city boards of review and equalization and all other assessing officers in the performance of their duties to the end that all assessments of property be made relatively just and equal in compliance with the laws of the state.

To require county attorneys to assist in the commencement of prosecutions in actions or proceedings for removal, forfeiture, and punishment for violation of the laws of the state in respect to the assessment and taxation of property in their respective districts or counties.

(4) To require town, city, village, county, and other public officers to report information as to the assessment of property, collection of taxes received from licenses and other sources, and such other information as may be needful in the work of the commissioner, in such form and upon such blanks as he may prescribe.

2373-2. Low grade ore.—(a) For the purpose of increasing employment and the utilization of low-grade, underground, and high labor cost ores, any taxpayer on whom a tax is imposed by reason of the provisions of Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 2373, as amended, shall be allowed a credit against the occupation tax as computed in said section because of the mining or production of ore from any mine in an amount equal to 10 per cent of that part of the cost of labor, excepting administrative labor, employed at said mine or in the beneficiation of such ore at or near said mine, in any calendar year, in excess of 20 cents and not in excess of 30 cents per ton of the ore produced during that year, and an amount equal to 15 per cent of that part of the cost of such labor in excess of 30 cents and not in excess of 45 cents per

(b) In lieu of the credit above provided, at the election of the taxpayer, there may be allowed a credit against the occupation tax assessed against any mine of two-thirds of one per cent of the amount of such tax for each one per cent of the total production of iron ore from said mine which is converted into pig iron, sponge iron, or powdered iron, within the limits of the State of Minnesota. The taxpayer shall make such election at the time of filing the occupation tax return for said mine.

The office of Commissioner of Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation is hereby created. The Commissioner shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of two years, the first term to begin July 1, 1941. The salary of the Commissioner shall be $5,000 per annum which shall be paid from the amounts appropriated by this section, provided, however, that such salary shall be reduced by such amount as he may receive from other funds, and the said Commissioner may hold such other positions or appointments as are not incompatible with his duties as Commissioner of Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation. All expenses of the Commissioner, including the payment of such assistance as may be necessary, shall be paid out of the amounts appropriated by this section.

When the Commissioner above named shall determine that distress and unemployment exists or may exist in the future in any county by reason of the removal of natural resources or a possibly limited use thereof in the future and the decrease in employment resulting therefrom, now or hereafter, he may use such amounts of the appropriation made to him in this section as he may determine to be necessary and proper in the development of the remaining resources of said county and in the vocational training and rehabilitation of its residents.

There is hereby created the Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation Commission, consisting of seven members, three of whom shall be state senators appointed by the Committee on Committees of the Senate, and three of whom shall be representatives, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, their terms of office to commence on May 1, 1943, and continue until January 3rd, 1945, or until their successors are appointed and qualified. Their successors shall be appointed each two years in the same manner as the original members were appointed, in January of every second year, commencing in January, 1945: The seventh member of said commission shall be the Commissioner of Conservation of the State of Minnesota. Vacancies on said Commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original members were chosen. All expenditures and projects made by the Commissioner of Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation shall first be submitted to said Iron Range Resources and Rehabilitation Commission which shall recommend approval or disapproval or modification of expenditures and projects for rehabilitation purposes as provided by this act, and the method, manner and time of payment of all said funds proposed to be disbursed shall be first approved or disapproved by said commission. The commission shall biennially make its report to the Governor of the State of Minnesota and the State Legislature prior to the convening of each regular session. The expenses of said commission shall be paid by the State of Minnesota from the funds raised pursuant to this act.

2383. Notices—Hearings—Determination of amount of tax is final—Certiorari.—Subdivision 1. On or before May 1 in each year, the commissioner of taxation shall send to each person subject to an occupation tax under the provisions of Laws of 1921, chapter 223 as amended a notice of the amount of the tax so determined to be due from him. Said notice shall be sent by registered mail and directed to him at the address given in the report filed by him, and, if no report has been filed or no address given, then at such address as the commissioner of taxation may be able to ascertain; but the validity of the tax shall not be affected by the failure of the commissioner of taxation to mail such notice or the failure of the person subject to the tax to receive it.

Subdivision 2. On the first secular day following the fourteenth day of May, the commissioner of taxation shall hold a hearing at his office in St. Paul which may be adjourned from day to day. Every person subject to such tax may at such hearing present evidence and argument on any matter bearing upon the validity or correctness of the tax determined to be due from him, and the commissioner of taxation shall review his determination of such tax.

Subdivision 3. After such hearing the commissioner of taxation shall make his order either affirming his determination of the tax due from the person so appearing or modifying such determination as he shall deem just and equitable, and upon the making and filing of such order said determination shall, except as hereinafter provided, become final and conclusive. The determination of the amount of tax due from any person not appearing at such hearing shall, except as hereinafter provided, become final and conclusive on the second secular day following the fourteenth day of May without further order. The determination by the commissioner of taxation of the amount of any tax due hereunder shall, except as hereinafter provided, be subject to review only on a writ of certiorari issued out of the supreme court on petition therefor presented to said court by the person subject to the tax on or before July first next following the determination of the tax.

Subdivision 4. If the amount of tax determined by the commissioner is subsequently found to be erroneous, the commissioner may, at any time within three years from the date the tax is certified as provided in Sec. 2384, redetermine the amount thereof. No such redetermination shall be made increasing the tax unless the person from whom the additional amount is due is given ten days written notice thereof and an opportunity to be heard thereon. If an order is made increasing the tax, the same proceedings shall be had as provided for occupation taxes originally determined and certified. Any person who has paid an occupation tax may apply to the commissioner within the time herein limited for a redetermination of the tax, and if the commissioner determines that the tax has been overpaid, he shall make and file an order determining the amount of such overpayment, and credit it against occupation taxes otherwise payable by the person who has overpaid the amount as so determined. If the tax is increased, interest at 6 per cent per annum from the date payment should have been made shall be determined and paid; if the tax is reduced, interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum from the date of overpayment shall be allowed. (As amended Apr. 24, 1943, c. 657, §1.)

2392. Taxes to go to revenue fund if act is declared invalid.

Tax on severance of ore from land—Royalties—Rate.—There shall be levied and collected upon all royalty received during the year ending December 31, 1923, and upon all royalty received during each calendar year thereafter, for permission to explore, mine, take out and remove ore from land in this state, a tax of 10½ per cent for the years 1943 and 1944, and nine per cent each year thereafter. (As amended Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 545, §1; Apr. 23, 1943, c. 589, §1).

2392-1a. Applicable from December 31, 1942.—The increased rates provided hereby shall be applicable to all royalties received subsequent to December 31, 1942. (As amended Apr. 23, 1941, c. 545, §2; Apr. 23, 1943, c. 589, §2.)

2392-8. Lien of tax.

State v. Commissioner of Taxation, 209M150, 295NW 652; note under §2374(4).

Section 80-2, Mason's Stat., is in conflict with §2392-8, and latter must control procedure with respect to royalty taxes. Op. Atty. Gen. (454e), Dec. 10, 1941.

2392-14. "Taconite," definition.—For the purpose of this law, "taconite" is defined as ferruginous chert or ferruginous slate in the form of compact, siliceous rock, in which the iron oxide is so finely disseminated that substantially all of the iron-bearing particles of merchantable grade are smaller than 20 mesh. Taconite may be further defined as ore-bearing rock which is not merchantable as iron ore in its natural state, and which cannot be made merchantable by simple methods of beneficiation involving only crushing, screening, washing, jigging, drying or any combination thereof. (Act Apr. 22, 1941, c. 375, §1.)

[298.23]

2392-15. Tax upon taconite and iron ore concentrate.—There is hereby imposed upon taconite, and upon the mining and quarrying thereof, and upon the production of iron ore concentrate therefrom, and upon the concentrate so produced, a tax of five cents per ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate as shipped therefrom, plus one-tenth of one cent per ton for each one per cent that the iron content of such shipping product exceeds 55 per cent, when dried at 212 degrees Fahrenheit. (Act Apr. 22, 1941, c. 375, § 2.) [298.24]

2392-16. Exclusive tax on property—Exceptions.—Such tax shall be in addition to the occupation tax imposed upon the business of mining and producing iron ore and in addition to the royalty tax imposed upon royalties received for permission to mine and produce iron ore. Except as herein otherwise provided, it shall be in lieu of all other taxes upon such taconite, or the lands in which it is contained, or upon the mining or quarrying thereof, or the production of concentrate therefrom, or upon the concentrate produced, or upon the machinery, equipment, tools, supplies and buildings used in such mining, quarrying or production. Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the assessment and taxation of the surface of such lands at their value thereof without regard to the taconite therein, nor the assessment and taxation of merchantable iron ore or other minerals, or iron-bearing materials other than taconite in such lands in the manner provided by law. (Act Apr. 22, 1941, c. 375, § 3.) [298.25]

2392-17. Assessment under certain conditions.—In any year in which at least 1,000 tons of iron ore concentrate is not produced from any 40 acre tract or governmental lot containing taconite, a tax may be assessed upon the taconite therein at the mill rate prevailing in the taxing district and spread against the assessed value of the taconite, such assessed value to be determined in accordance with existing laws. Provided the amount of the tax spread under authority of this section by reason of the taconite in any tract of land shall not exceed $1.00 per acre. (Act Apr. 22, 1941, c. 375, § 4.) [298.26]

2392-18. Method of collection and payment.—The tax provided by Section 2 hereof shall be collected and paid in the same manner and at the same time as provided by law for the payment of the occupation tax. Reports shall be made and hearings held upon the determination of the tax at the same times and in the same manner as provided by law for the occupation tax. The commissioner of taxation shall have authority to make reasonable regulations as to the form and manner of filing reports necessary for the determination of the tax hereunder, and by such regulations may require the production of such information as may be reasonably necessary or convenient for the determination of the tax. All the provisions of the occupation tax law with reference to the assessment, determination and collection of the occupation tax, including all provisions for penalties and for appeals from or review of the orders of the commissioner of taxation relative thereto, are hereby made applicable to the tax imposed by Section 2 hereof, except insofar as inconsistent herewith. (Act Apr. 22, 1941, c. 375, § 5.) [298.27]

2392-19. Distribution of proceeds.—The proceeds of the tax collected under Section 2 hereof shall be distributed by the state treasurer, upon certificate of the commissioner of taxation, to the general fund of the state and to the various taxing districts in which the lands from which the taconite was mined or quarried were located in the following proportions: one-fourth thereof to the city, village or town; one-fourth thereof to the school district; one-fourth thereof to the county; one-fourth thereof to the state. The amount so distributed shall be divided among the various funds of the state, or of the taxing districts in the same proportion as the general ad valorem tax thereof. Provided if in any year the state shall not spread any general ad valorem tax levy against real property, the state's proportion of the tax shall be paid into the general revenue fund. A corporation and sole owner of its stock will be treated as separate and distinct for income tax purposes, except in some exceptional cases, such as where the corporation is a mere sham and is used for tax avoidance. Cargill v. Spaeth, 215M540, 16NW(2d)728. See Dun. Dig. 9570dd.

ARTICLE II.—IMPOSITION OF TAXES

2394-2. Imposition on corporations; etc.

Income from enameling parts of stoves and refrigerators for out-of-state customers held income derived from services and not from sales, and taxable under state income tax law, though contracts for such services were made outside of state, services being performed within state. Department of Treasury v. Ingram-Richardson Mfg. Co., 313US252, 61SCR866, 85LED1313, rev'g (CCA7), 114F(2d) 889. Reh. den. 313US600, 61SCR1107, 85LED1552. See Dun. Dig. 9570e.

Tax imposed upon corporations by Laws 1933, c. 405, § 2, (§ 2394-2), is a property tax upon right or franchise of corporations to exist and to transact business in this state, measured by corporations' net taxable income as defined in that chapter, and in so far as c. 405 assumes to impose a franchise tax, measured by income, upon a railroad based upon its ownership or operation for railroad purposes provisions of c. 405 are contrary to Const. Art. 4, § 32a, and invalid since c. 405 has never been approved by a vote of people as required by that section. State v. Duluth, M. & N. Ry. Co., 207M618, 292NW 401. See Dun. Dig. 9570d. See also 207M637, 292NW411. Cert. den. 61SCR439.

So-called "recapture funds" taken from earnings of railroads under Transportation Act of 1920, 41 Stat. 456, 489, 49 Mason's U. S. C. A., § 15a(6), and returned to the railroads under the provisions of the emergency Railroad Transportation Act of 1933, 48 Stat. 211, 220, 49 Mason's U. S. C. A., § 15b, and upon which a gross earnings tax was paid to the state, are not nonrailroad income nor subject to the tax imposed by Mason's Minn. St., §2394-2. Id.

Income received from federal securities may not be used in computing net income of a corporation as a measure of franchise tax. Id.

Attempt of tax commission to increase rate of interest on demand deposits made by defendants with parent corporation from 2½% to 5% was unreasonable and arbitrary and properly set aside by trial court. Id.

Rent paid to a lessor railroad by its operating lessee may not properly be considered fruits of a nonrailroad exercise of lessor's franchise. Id.

That part of its corporate franchise which a railroad corporation exercises outside scope of railroad ownership or operations becomes subject to tax imposed by this section measured by net taxable income from such non-operating activity as defined by this act. Id.

Accretions and interest on funds recaptured by railroads from payments made under federal transportation act arise from exercise of corporate franchise within scope of railroad ownership or operation and are therefore not subject to taxation under Mason's Minn. St. §2394-2. State v. Duluth, M. & N. Ry. Co., 207M637, 292 NW411. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

Interest on deposits with United States Steel Corporation and on bank balances was railroad income and had not become characterized as an investment. Id.

Houses rented and sold to employees appear to be such as would not otherwise have been available and were built in order to provide habitations for employees at a place convenient to work. The rent and interest on purchase price, therefore, were funds arising out of exercise of franchise for railroad purposes. Id.

Strictly, a corporation can be domiciled only in state of its incorporation, but "domiciled" in this act includes any corporation qualified to do business in state. Canisteo Corp. v. Spaeth, 211M185, 300NW596. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

Tax on a foreign corporation is an income tax only in sense that it is measured by income, being essentially an excise tax on privilege of being here for transaction of business. Id.

Delaware corporation was transacting business in Minnesota in 1934 and 1935, though it was in securities business and placed its property in hands of a custodian in New York. The Canisteo Corp., MBTA(17), Mar. 7, 1941.

Income from intangibles in New York could not be assigned to Minnesota. Id.

(a) A state does not transcend the limits of its jurisdiction as fixed by the due process and equal protection clauses of the federal constitution by constituting a corporation of another state doing business and licensed in the state, a resident of the state for income tax purposes. Chestnut Securities Co. v. Oklahoma Tax Comm., (CCA10), 125F(2d)571. Cert. den. 62SCR1035. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

(a) Domestic and foreign corporations not taxable under Section 2 who own property within this state or whose business within this state during the taxable year consists exclusively of foreign commerce, interstate commerce, or both.

(b) Resident and nonresident individuals, except that no nonresident individual shall be taxed on the income from compensation for labor or personal services within this state during any taxable year unless he shall have been engaged in work within this state for more than 150 working days during such taxable year.

(c) Estates of decedents, dying domiciled within or without this state and,

2394-5. Exemptions from act.—The following corporations, individuals, estates, trusts and organizations shall be exempted from taxation under this act, provided that every such person or corporation claiming exemption under this act, in whole or in part, must file with the commissioner upon request such financial statements as are necessary to enable him to determine the taxable status of any income or activity:

(a) National and state banks, except as such banks are subject to the excise tax imposed by Sections 32-4 and 32-5.

(b) Corporations, individuals, estates and trusts engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore; but if any such corporation, individual, estate or trust engages in any other business or activity or has income from any property not used in such business it shall be subject to this tax computed on the net income from such property or such other business or activity. Royalty (as defined in Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2392-2) shall not be considered as income from the business of mining or producing iron ore within the meaning of this section.

(c) Farmers' mutual insurance companies organized and existing under the laws of the state and credit unions organized under Chapter 206, Laws of 1925.

(d) Fraternal beneficiary associations wherever organized, and public department relief associations of public employees of this state or of any of its political subdivisions.

(As amended Apr. 1, 1941, c. 109, §1; Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §2; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 643, §1.)

(g) Farmers', fruit growers', or like associations organized and operated on a co-operative basis (a) for the purpose of processing or marketing the products of members or other producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary expenses, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the products furnished by them, or (b) for the purpose of purchasing supplies and equipment for the use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses. Exemption shall not be denied any such association because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is fixed at not to exceed the legal rate of interest in the state of incorporation or 8 per centum per annum, whichever is greater, on the value of the consideration for which the stock was issued, and if substantially all such stock (other than non-voting preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or permitted to participate, directly or indirectly, in the profits of the association, upon dissolution or otherwise, beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by producers who process or market their products or purchase their supplies and equipment through the association; nor shall exemption be denied any such association because there is accumulated and maintained by it a reserve required by state law or a reasonable reserve for any necessary purpose. Such an association may market the products of non-members in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the products marketed for members, and may purchase supplies and equipment for non-members in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the supplies and equipment purchased for members, provided the value of the purchases made for persons who are neither members nor producers does not exceed 15 per centum of the value of all its purchases. Business done for the United States or any of its agencies shall be disregarded in determining the right to exemption under this paragraph.

(h) Corporations operating or conducting public burying grounds, public school houses, public hospitals, academies, colleges, universities, seminaries of learning, churches, houses of worship, and institutions of purely public charity, no part of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private member, stockholder or individual.

(n) Corporations organized by an association exempt under the provisions of paragraph (g), or members thereof, for the purpose of financing the ordinary crop operations of such members or other producers, and operated in conjunction with such association. Exemption shall not be denied any such corporation because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is fixed at not to exceed the legal rate of interest in the state of incorporation or 8 per centum per annum, whichever is greater, on the value of the consideration for which the stock was issued, and if substantially all such stock (other than non-voting preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or permitted to participate, directly or indirectly, in the profits of the corporation, upon dissolution or otherwise, beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by such association, or members thereof; nor shall exemption be denied any such corporation because there is accumulated and maintained by it a reserve required by state law or a reasonable reserve for any necessary purpose.

2394-6. Rates of tax—Credits—Apportionment.

(a) * * * * *

(b) * * * * *

(c) The taxes due under the foregoing computation shall be credited with the following amounts:

1. In the case of an unmarried individual, and except as provided in paragraph 6, in the case of the estate of a decedent, $10.00, and in the case of a trust, $5.00.

2. In the case of a married individual, living with husband or wife, and in the case of a head of a household, $30.00. If such husband and wife make separate returns the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

3. In the case of an individual, $10.00 for each person (other than husband or wife) dependent upon and receiving his chief support from the taxpayer. One taxpayer only shall be allowed this credit with respect to any given dependent. A payment to a divorced or separated wife which is includible under this act in the gross income of such wife, shall not be considered a payment by the husband for the support of any dependents. A husband who makes periodic payments to a divorced, separated or remarried wife, who is not a resident of this state shall be entitled to the same personal credit as provided in the preceding paragraph 2.

4. In the case of a corporation, an amount computed by applying to the tax a fraction equal to one-tenth of the average of the following ratios:

(a) The ratio of the fair value of tangible property, real, personal and mixed, owned or used by the taxpayer in this state in connection with his trade or business during the taxable year to the total fair value of such property of the taxpayer owned or used by him in connection with the trade or business everywhere. Cash on hand or in bank, shares of stocks, notes, bonds, accounts receivable or other evidence of indebtedness, special privileges, franchises, good will or property the income of which is not taxable or is separately allocable, shall not be considered tangible property nor included in the apportionment.

(b) The ratio of the total wages and salaries paid or incurred during the taxable year in this state to the total wages and salaries paid or incurred during the taxable year everywhere.

5. In the case of an insurance company, it shall receive a credit on the tax computed as above equal in amount to any taxes based on premiums paid by it during the period for which the tax under this act is imposed by virtue of any law of this state, other than the surcharge on premiums imposed by Extra Session Laws of 1933, Chapter 53, as amended.

6. If the status of a taxpayer, insofar as it affects the credits allowed under paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this subsection (c) shall change during the taxable year, or if the taxpayer shall either become or cease to be a resident of the state during such taxable year, such credit shall be apportioned, in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment, a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless more than one-half of a month, in which case it shall be considered as a month. In case of death during a taxable year a credit shall be allowed to the decedent, in proportion to the number of months before his death, and to his estate, in proportion to the number of months after his death, and in any event a minimum credit of $5.00 shall be allowed to the decedent and his estate, respectively.

7. In the case of a nonresident individual, credits under paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this subsection (c) shall be apportioned in the proportion of the gross income from sources in Minnesota to the gross income from all sources, and in any event a minimum credit of $5.00 shall be allowed. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §3; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §2.)

Laws 1942, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942.

A group of 50 individuals who executed a "power of attorney" and "agreement between individual subscribers" and created a plan of insurance known as Lloyds, and transacted insurance pursuant to laws of Minnesota, constituted an association and within meaning of term "corporation", and credit for gross premium taxes was properly allowable to the association and not to individual members thereof. Hauschild, MBTA (No. 49), May 13, 1941.

2394-6a. Certain income from United States bonds may be treated as income.—Subdivision 1. In the case of obligations of the United States issued at a discount and redeemable for fixed amounts increasing at stated intervals, a corporate taxpayer may at its election treat such increases as income for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1940, notwithstanding the fact that such taxpayer files its returns on the cash basis.

Subdivision 2. If at least 80 per cent of the total compensation for personal services covering a period of 36 months or more is received or accrued in one taxable year by an individual or a partnership, the tax attributable to any part thereof which is included in the gross income of any individual shall not be greater than the aggregate of the taxes attributable to such part had it been included in the gross income of such individual ratably over that part of the period preceding the date of receipt or accrual. This provision shall be applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940.

Subdivision 3. Income attributable to the recovery during the year of a bad debt, on account of which a deduction or credit was allowed for a prior taxable year, shall be included in gross income only to the extent that the deduction or credit resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act for such prior year. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §3.) [290.071]

Laws 1942, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942.

2394-6b. Certain alimony payments to be reported for taxation.—Subdivision 1. Periodic payments to a wife who is divorced or separated from her husband by decree of divorce or separate maintenance, received subsequent to such decree in discharge of, or attributable to property transferred in trust or otherwise in discharge of, a legal obligation imposed on the husband by such decree or by written instrument incident to such divorce or separation, shall be included in the gross income of the wife if she is a resident of the State of Minnesota.

Subdivision 2. Amounts received by the wife who is a resident of the State of Minnesota from property transferred under the conditions set forth in subdivision 1 shall not be included in gross income of the husband, and amounts included in gross income of such wife shall be deductible from gross income of the husband except to the extent they are excluded from his gross income as provided in this subdivision.

Subdivision 3. This section shall not apply to that part of any periodic payment which is fixed by the decree or written instrument as payable for the support of minor children of the husband. To the extent of the amount so fixed, the entire amount of such payment, if less than the total amount payable, shall be considered as payable for the support of minor children.

Subdivision 4. Installment payments of lump sum obligations fixed in the decree or written instrument shall not be considered periodic payments under this section, unless the total amount is to be paid within a period ending more than 10 years from the date of the decree or instrument, and then only to the extent that installment payments received during the taxable year do not exceed 10 per cent of the total amount so fixed.

Subdivision 5. For purposes of this section the terms "wife" and "husband" shall include "former wife" and "former husband", respectively. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §4.) [290.072]

A return shall be filed, and the income and franchise tax computed, on the basis of the Minnesota taxable net income without giving effect to any renegotiations occurring after the close of the taxable year. If after the close of the taxable year there is a final determination under renegotiation, and if the net income of the taxpayer for the year in which the determination is made, computed without regard to said renegotiation, is less than the difference between (1) the amount determined by the renegotiation to be (a) excess profits, (b) excess fees under a fixed fee contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, or (c) the amount of any item for which the taxpayer has been reimbursed but which is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to a fixed fee contract, and (2) the amount of federal income and excess profits taxes applicable thereto, then the taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund of the state income tax which it has paid on the excess of said difference over the amount of its net income for the year in which the determination under renegotiation is made. This section shall apply to all taxable years ending after December 31, 1941, notwithstanding the expiration of the period of limitation provided by law, provided, however, that no refund shall be allowed unless a claim therefor is filed as provided by law within six months after the final determination in proceedings for renegotiation. The certificate of the agency or instrumentality of the United States conducting such renegotiation proceedings shall be evidence of the amount of the renegotiated profit and of the date thereof. In no event shall a refund under the provisions of this section exceed ten per cent of the state income and franchise tax paid on the taxable net income computed without giving effect to the renegotiation, as provided by this section. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §26.) [290.075]

2394-12b. Definitions.—Subdivision 1. The term "withholding agent" means any individual, fiduciary, corporation, association, or partnership, in whatever capacity acting, including all officers and employees of the state, or any political subdivision of the state, who is obligated to pay or has control of paying to any nonresident any salary, wages, bonuses, fees, commissions, or other compensation for personal services performed in this state.

taxation a report, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, accompanied by a remittance of all amounts withheld during the three month period ending on the last day of the month preceding the due date of the report, which amounts shall be deposited in a special fund described as "Nonresident Income Tax Fund".

Subdivision 4. Upon the filing of an income tax return, as provided by law, by any nonresident from whose compensation an amount has been withheld as provided by this act, the commissioner shall determine the income tax due, and the penalty and interest if any, for the period covered by the return, and shall cause to be refunded from the Nonresident Income Tax Fund any amount withheld during said period in excess of the amount of the tax, penalty and interest. Interest upon such refund shall be computed from 90 days after the date the return is filed. The provisions of Mason's Supplement 1940, Sections 2394-43 and 2394-47, as amended by Laws 1941, Chapter 550, Sections 18 and 22, relating to the refundment of income taxes, shall be applicable unless otherwise specifically provided by this act. If no return is filed within one year after due date, no refund shall be made of any part of the amount withheld during the period for which the return should have been made.

Subdivision 5. If the commissioner determines that no income tax will be due on account of any compensation for services performed by a nonresident, he may authorize in writing the withholding agent to pay the full amount of such compensation without withholding any amount therefrom, or may cause to be refunded the amount withheld, either before or after it has been deposited in the Nonresident Income Tax Fund, without requiring an income tax return from such nonresident.

Subdivision 6. The commissioner of taxation shall cause to be transferred to the Income Tax School Fund, at least once in each year, from the Nonresident Income Tax Fund, (1) the amount of income taxes determined to be due from those nonresidents who have filed returns, to the extent of the amount withheld from their compensation and deposited in said Nonresident Income Tax Fund; (2) all amounts withheld from the compensation of nonresidents who have failed to file a return within one year after the due date thereof.

Subdivision 7. Every withholding agent who knowingly and wilfully fails to comply with the provisions of this act shall be liable for the amount of the tax due from any nonresident, to the extent of the amount the said agent has failed to withhold and remit as required by this act. Such liability shall be assessed and collected in the same manner and subject to the same limitations, as provided for income taxes.

Subdivision 8. This section shall take effect July 1, 1943. (Act Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §20.) [290.411]

Laws 1943, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942.

2394-13. Deductions from gross income.—The following deductions from gross income shall be allowed in computing net income:

(a) Ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred in conducting the activity or in carrying on the trade, profession, gainful occupation or business from which the gross income is derived, including a reasonable allowance for salaries and voluntary or compulsory contributions made by employers to maintain a voluntary or compulsory system of unemployment insurance or a system of old age pensions for their employees, and any welfare work for the benefit of such employees.

(b) The interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the income from which is excludible from gross income under Section 12, or on indebtedness incurred or continued in connection with the purchasing or carrying of an annuity.

(c) Deductions from gross income.—Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year, except (a) income or franchise taxes imposed by this Act; and (b) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind deemed in law to increase the value of the property assessed; and (c) inheritance, gift and estate taxes. Income taxes permitted to be deducted hereunder shall, regardless of the methods of accounting employed, be deductible only in the taxable year in which paid. Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §7; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §6.)

(d) Losses sustained during the taxable year not compensated for by insurance or otherwise if incurred in connection with a business or transaction the gains from which, if any, would be includible in gross income; or if arising from fires not attributable to arson by the taxpayer or some one acting for him, or from storms, wrecks, other casualty, or theft. Losses from wagering transactions shall be allowed only to the extent of the gain from such transactions. No deductions shall be allowed under this subdivision for any loss sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or other securities if within 30 days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition the taxpayer has acquired (other than by bequest or inheritance) or entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or disposition; but if such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of such loss shall be disallowed. A loss deductible under this subdivision shall be treated as sustained in the taxable year during which the property in respect of which it has occurred is disposed of by some method of disposition other than gift, devise, bequest or inheritance, but if it shall clearly appear that it is unlikely that such property can ever be disposed of, then it shall be deemed sustained during the taxable year when it first became reasonably clear that it had become worthless, provided that deductible losses arising from fires, storms, wrecks, or other casualty shall be treated as sustained in the taxable year during which the property was injured or destroyed, and deductible losses rising from theft shall be treated as sustained in the taxable year in which the taxpayer discovers the theft. The amount of the deductible loss shall be computed on the same basis as is provided by Section 16 for determining the gain or loss on the sale or other disposition of property.

(e) Deductions from gross income.—Debts which become worthless during the taxable year, provided, that the taxpayer may in the alternative deduct a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts; provided further, that the commissioner may allow a bad debt to be deducted or charged off in part. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §7; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §7.)

(f) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property the periodical income from which is includible in gross income, and of property used in an occupation or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(g) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion. In the case of leases the deduction shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and lessee in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner. In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiaries and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each.

(h) The amount of the deduction under subdivision (f) and (g) shall be computed on the basis specified in Section 20.

(i) The deductions provided for herein shall be taken for the taxable year in which paid or accrued, dependent upon the method of accounting employed in computing net income, unless in order to clearly reflect income they should be taken as of a different year.

(j) No deductions shall be allowed unless the taxpayer, when thereunto requested by the Commissioner furnishes it with information sufficient to enable it to determine the validity and correctness thereof.

(k) Deductions from gross income.—Payments for expenses for hospital, nursing, medical, surgical, dental and other healing services and for drugs and medical supplies incurred by the taxpayer on account of sickness or personal injury to himself or his dependents. Hotel and traveling expenses shall not be deductible under the provisions of this subdivision. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §7; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §8.)

(l) An allowance for amortization of war facilities to the extent that such deduction is finally allowed under Section 124 of the internal revenue code provided no deduction has been claimed with respect thereto under subsection 13 (f) or any other section or subsection of this act. (As amended Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §7.)

(m) Income from discharge of indebtedness.—In the case of a corporation, the amount of any income of the taxpayer attributable to the discharge, within the taxable year, of any indebtedness of the taxpayer, or for which the taxpayer is liable evidenced by a security (as hereinafter in this paragraph defined) if the taxpayer makes and files at the time of filing the return, in such manner as the Commissioner by regulations prescribes, its consent to the regulations prescribed under section (16) (c) then in effect. In such cases the amount of any income of the taxpayer attributable to any unamortized premium (computed as of the first day of the taxable year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be included in gross income and amount of the deduction attributable to any unamortized discount (computed as of the first day of the taxable year in which such discharge occurred) with respect to such indebtedness shall not be allowed as a deduction. As used in this paragraph the term "security" means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any corporation. (As added Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §24.)

(n) Deductions from gross income.—An allowance for all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942, for amortization of bond premiums in accordance with the provisions of section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code adapted to the provisions of this Act under regulations issued by the Commissioner, but only to the extent that such deduction has not been allowed under any other section of this Act. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §7; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §§6, 7, 8, 24.)

Where taxpayer owned stock of a corporation which began liquidating in 1932 and last liquidating dividend was paid in 1935, and there was pending in 1935 a lawsuit in behalf of corporation which was lost by corporation in lower court decision in 1936, and appeal was taken and lower court decision affirmed in 1937, stock did not become worthless until year 1937, and was deductible as a loss in that year and not in year 1935 or 1936. Green, MBTA (26, 40), Nov. 28, 1940.

Loss on corporate stock becoming worthless is deductible only in year in which "sustained," and not year in which taxpayer ascertains that it is worthless, and burden of proof is upon taxpayer to show when loss was "sustained." Schultz, M.B.T.A. (No. 61), May 28, 1942.

Where building was destroyed by fire on December 16, 1936, loss was sustained during that year and not in 1937 when adjustments were made with insurance company and amount of net loss was determined, and no deduction could be allowed from income for year 1937. *Valentine, M.B.T.A. (4) an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by his family; and (5) the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestor, and lineal descendants, but such losses shall be allowed as deductions if the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the commission that the sale or exchange was bona fide and for a fair and adequate consideration.

(g) In computing net income, no deduction shall be allowed under Section 13(a), relating to expenses incurred or under Section 13(b), relating to interest accrued; and

(1) If such expenses or interest not paid within the taxable year or within two and one-half months after the close thereof; and 2394-17. Transactions in which gain or loss is not recognized.

(a)(3). A corporation's receiver, reporting to court sale of assets of corporation, of which he was a stockholder and officer, without disclosing his previous arrangement with purchaser to continue as stockholder and officer of new corporation to be formed by them, may not be heard to say that there was a "reorganization" or "plan of reorganization" and thus avoid taxation of gain on his subsequent sale of stock in new corporation. There was no reorganization as to a stockholder who invested money in corporation which went into receivership and whose assets were sold to one not a stockholder, though, due to his knowledge of the business, he obtained an equivalent interest in a new corporation, whose stock he later sold, and investment in former corporations could not be considered in determining cost of stock in new corporation. (l) Basis for determining gain or loss.—Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of a lessor of such property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of such property and excludible from gross income under Section 2394-12(m). If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of such property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of such property shall be properly adjusted for the amount so included in gross income. 2394-19. Basis for determining gain or loss from disposition of property acquired before January 1, 1933.—The basis for determining the gain from the sale or other disposition of property acquired before January 1, 1933, shall be the fair market value thereof on said date except that, if its cost to the taxpayer, adjusted as provided in Section 16 (b) for the period prior to January 1, 1933, (or, in the case of inventory property, its last inventory value) exceeds such value, the basis shall be such adjusted cost (or last inventory value). The basis for determining loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired before January 1, 1933, shall be the cost to the taxpayer adjusted as provided in Section 16 (b) for the period prior to January 1, 1933. The basis prescribed by Section 18 for determining gain or loss with respect to property acquired by gift through an inter vivos transfer in trust, by devise, bequest, or inheritance, or by the estate of a decedent from such decedent, shall be deemed the cost of such property to the taxpayer for the purpose of this section. (As amended Apr. 28, 1943, c. 550, §9; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §9.)

Basis for determining gain or loss from a sale or disposition occurring prior to amendment by Laws 1937, Ex. Sess., c. 49, §14, of property acquired by a taxpayer by devise, bequest, or inheritance before January 1, 1933, was the fair market value on that date. Id.

Burden of proving fair market value of January 1, 1933, is upon taxpayer on appeal to the board from adverse determination of commissioner. Id.
 "Cost" in 1933 act was construed to mean adjusted cost. Id.

2394-20. Deductions.—(a) * * *

(b) Deductions.—Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent of $2,000 plus the gains from such sales or exchanges. For this purpose the term "capital assets" shall mean property held by the taxpayer (whether or not connected with his trade or business), but does not include stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or property, used in the trade or business, of a character which is subject to the allowance for depreciation provided in Section 13 (f) or amortization allowance provided in Section 13 (1), or real property used in the trade or business of the taxpayer. 2394-21. Definitions.—(a) The term "dividends" shall mean any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or in other property, out of its accumulated earnings or profits or out of the earnings or profits of the taxable year (computed as of the close of the taxable year without diminution by reason of any distributions made during the taxable year), without regard to the amount of the earnings and profits at the time the distribution was made. Dividends paid in property other than cash shall be included in the recipient's income at the fair market value of such property on the date the action ordering their distribution was taken, or if no such action was taken, on the date of the actual payment or credit thereof to the shareholder.

(b) For the purposes of this section every distribution is made out of earnings or profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings or profits. If a distribution (other than a distribution in liquidation) is made by a corporation that is not out of such earnings or profits, the distributee may receive the same free from tax until the amount thereof equals the loss or gain basis applicable to the stock in respect of which it is received, but amounts received in excess thereof shall be treated as income for the taxable year when received by him; amounts received tax-free hereunder shall be applied to reduce the loss or gain basis applicable to the stock in respect of which received whenever such stock is sold or otherwise disposed of. (As amended Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §11.)

(c) * * * * *

(d) Amounts distributed in liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as payment in exchange for the stock, and the gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under Section 16 but shall be recognized only to the extent provided in Section 17. Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be taken into account in computing net income only to the extent provided by subsection (B) of Section 20 and for that purpose "complete liquidation" shall include any one of a series of distributions made by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of all of its stock in accordance with a bona fide plan of liquidation and under which the transfer of property under the liquidation is to be complete within the time specified in the plan, not exceeding two years from the close of the taxable year during which is made the first of the series of distributions under the plan. No amounts received in liquidation shall be taxed as a gain until the distributee shall have received in liquidation an amount in excess of the applicable loss or gain basis of the stock in respect of which the distribution is received, and any such excess shall be taxed as gain in the year in which received. No amount received in liquidation shall be treated as the distribution of an ordinary dividend. (As amended Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §11; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §11.)

2394-25. Net income to be allocated.—(A) The taxable net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state shall be computed by deducting from the gross income of such business, wherever derived, deduction of the kind permitted by Section 13 so far as connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of such income. The remaining net income shall be apportioned to Minnesota as follows:

(1) If the business consists of the manufacture in Minnesota or within and without Minnesota of personal property and the sale of said property within and without the state, said remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(a) The percentage which the sales made within this state and through, from or by offices, agencies, branches or stores within this state is of the total sales wherever made;

(b) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or used by the taxpayer in this state in connection with said trade or business is of the total tangible property real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned, or used by the taxpayer in connection with said trade or business; and,

(c) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with said trade or business if of the taxpayers total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with said entire trade or business;

(d) Provided, however, that the percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 per cent of the percentage determined under subdivision (A) (1) (a) above, 15 per cent of the percentage determined under subdivision (A) (1) (b) above, and 15 per cent of the percentage determined under subdivision (A) (1) (c) above.

(2)(a) In all other cases the proportion of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall be that which the sales, gross earnings or receipts from business operations in whole or in part within this state to the total sales, gross earnings or receipts from business operations wherever conducted.

(b) If the methods prescribed under subsection (2)(a) will not properly reflect taxable net income assignable to this state, there shall be used if practicable and if such use will properly and fairly reflect such income (1) the arithmetical average of the three percentages set forth in subdivisions (a)(b)(c) of subsection (1) of this section, or (2) the separate or segregated accounting method.

(3) The sales payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those for the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. The property referred to in this section shall be the average of the property owned or used by the taxpayer during the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed.

If the commissioner finds that the taxpayer maintains an office, warehouse or other places of business outside the state for the purpose of reducing its tax under this section it shall in determining the amount of taxable net income include therein the proceeds of sales attributed by the taxpayer to the business conducted at such place outside the state.

(B) The methods prescribed by subsection (A) shall apply wherever and insofar as, the business carried on within this state is an integral part of a business carried on both within and without this state.

(C) Nothing in this section shall prevent the application of Section 23 and 24 to that portion of a taxpayer's income which is not from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state. (As amended, Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §20.)

As used in this sub-section "income which is to be distributed currently" includes income of the estate or trust which, within the taxable year, becomes payable to the beneficiary. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under sub-section (c) of this section in the same or any succeeding taxable year. (As amended Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §13.)

(c) In the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year, which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary, to the extent that such amount is properly includible in computing the taxable net income of such legatee, heir or beneficiary under the provisions of this act. (b) Transferees and fiduciaries.—The period of limitation for assessment and collection of any such liability of the transferee or fiduciary shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of the liability of an initial transferee of the property of the taxpayer, the tax may be assessed within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the taxpayer, and may be collected by action brought within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for the commencement of an action against the taxpayer.

(2) In the case of the liability of the transferee of a transferee of the property of the taxpayer, the tax may be assessed within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the preceding transferee, but only if within three and one-half years after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the taxpayers and may be collected by action brought within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for the commencement of an action against the preceding transferee, but only if within four years after the expiration of the period of limitation for bringing an action against the taxpayer; except that if before the expiration of the period of limitation for the assessment of the liability of the transferee, a court proceeding for the collection of the tax or liability in respect thereof has been begun against the taxpayer or last preceding transferee, respectively, then the period of limitation for assessment of the liability of the transferee shall expire one year after the return of execution in the court proceeding, and the period of limitation for collection by action shall expire one year after the said liability is assessed.

(3) In the case of the liability of a fiduciary, the tax may be assessed not later than one year after the liability arises or not later than the expiration of the period for collection of the tax in respect of which such liability arises, whichever is the later, and may be collected by action brought within one year after assessment. 2394-30. Partnerships not to be taxed.

(a) Each member of a partnership is a "taxpayer" for purpose of deducting $2,000 for capital losses of the firm. Atwood, M.B.T.A. (No. 104), Oct. 16, 1942.

(d) Where partnership used fiscal year accounting period ending June 30, 1937, partner making individual 1937 return on calendar year basis was properly taxed for entire partnership income at rates in effect under 1937 act, though there was a monthly distribution of profits from July 1, 1936 to June 30, 1937. Byard, MBTA (3) Feb. 20, 1940. Aff'd 209M215, 296NW10.

2394-32. Special taxes for corporations.—(a) If a corporation is formed or availed of for the purpose of splitting up the income of its stockholders, or of the holders of a majority of its shares, with an aim to reducing the total amount of their taxes under this act, there shall be imposed upon it a special tax, in addition to those otherwise imposed by this act, of ten per cent of its taxable net income assignable to this state less credits against net income under Section 27.

(b) When any corporation liable to taxation under this act conducts its business in such a manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit its members or stockholders or any person or corporation interested in such business or to reduce the income attributable to this state by selling the commodity or services in which it deals at less than the fair price which might be obtained therefor, or buying such commodities or services at more than the fair price for which they might have been obtained, or when any corporation, a substantial portion of whose shares is owned, directly or indirectly, by another corporation, deals in the commodities or services of the latter corporation in such a manner as to create a loss of improper net income or to reduce the taxable net income attributable to this state, the commission may determine the amount of its income so as to reflect what would have been its reasonable taxable net income but for the arrangements causing the understatement of its taxable net income or the overstatement of its losses, having regard to the fair profits which, but for any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, might have been or could have been obtained from such business."

(c) Whenever a corporation which is required to file an income tax return is affiliated with or related to any other corporation through stock ownership by the same interests or as parent or subsidiary corporation, or has its income regulated through contract or other arrangement, the commissioner of taxation may permit or require such consolidated statement as in his opinion are necessary in order to determine the taxable net income received by any one of the affiliated or related corporations. (As amended Act Apr. 26, 1941, c. 458, §1.)

Subdivision (A) of Mason's 1940, Supp. was repealed by Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §13. Such subdivision (a) was amended to read as above by Act Apr. 26, 1941, c. 458, §1.)

(a). Repealed.

Subdivision (a) of this section as set forth in Mason's 1940 Supp. was repealed. Laws 1941, c. 550.

Nonrailroad income is subject to this section, and should be included in the combined taxable net income of the affiliated corporations, and we refrain from determining whether certain items are railroad income since their aggregate amount is less than net deficit in income shown by combined return of affiliated corporations. State v. Duluth, M. & N. Ry. Co., 207M618, 292NW401. See Dun. Dig. 9570d. See also 207M637, 292NW411. Cert. den. 61SCR439, 440.

Section requires imposition of tax on combined net taxable income of affiliated or related corporations where 90% or more of their voting stock is owned or controlled by same interests, and word "may" as it appears in last sentence of subsection is mandatory and tax commission has no discretion. State v. Oliver Iron Min. Co., 207M630, 292NW407. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

It does not offend our tax law that affiliated or related corporations which have no tax status in this state are not joined in consolidated return. If all affiliated corporations which are taxable in this state are joined in consolidated return it is a sufficient compliance with our law, although there may be other affiliated corporations having no tax status here. Id.

2394-32a. Taxable year extending into calendar years affected by different laws.

Where partnership used fiscal year accounting period ending June 30, 1937, partner making individual 1937 return on calendar year basis was properly taxed for entire partnership income at rates in effect under 1937 act, though there was a monthly distribution of profits from July 1, 1936 to June 30, 1937. Byard, MBTA (3) Feb. 20, 1940. Aff'd 209M215, 296NW10.

2394-32b. Insurance companies; report of net income; etc.

Minnesota insurance corporation doing business in Canada was not entitled to a credit against its federal income tax on account of a tax paid in Canada on premiums received, according to Canadian law. St. Paul Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Reynolds, (DC-Minn) 44 F. Supp. 863. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

2394-32d. National and state banks—computation of net income—Rate of tax—payment and distribution.—(a). An excise tax measured by net income is hereby imposed on national and state banks by this act and shall be governed by the provisions of section 2 and the term "corporation" as used in this act, shall include a banking corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of this state, and the taxable net income shall be computed in the manner provided by this act except that in the case of national and state banks the rate shall be eight per cent instead of six per cent and the basic date for the purpose of computing gain or loss and depreciation shall be January 1, 1940 instead of January 1, 1933.

(b) The state is hereby adopting the method numbered (4) authorized by the act of March 25, 1926; amending section 5219 of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

(c) The revenues derived from the excise tax on banks shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to a special fund, from which shall be paid all refunds of taxes erroneously collected from banks as certified by the commissioner. The balance of said fund shall be transmitted, on the last day of May and

November of each year, to the respective counties in which are located the banks paying the tax. The county auditor shall apportion and distribute the respective amounts paid by each bank in his county, less refunds paid to that bank, in the same manner and on the same basis as he distributes taxes on personal property in the taxing district in which such bank is located.

(d) The tax hereby imposed upon national and state banks shall be in lieu of all taxes upon the capital, surplus, property, assets and shares of such banks, except taxes imposed upon real property. (Apr. 21, 1933, c. 405, §§32-4, added Feb. 21, 1941, c. 18, §1.) [290.361]

Editor's Note: A tax on banks according to or measured by net income is imposed by Alabama, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Idaho, Massachusetts, New York, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah and Wisconsin.

A bank stock corporation holding stock of a chain of banks both state and national is an entity distinct from that of the bank which it controls and manages, and is a complete "non-conductor" of qualified immunity from state taxation enjoyed by national banks, and dividends received by resident stockholders of the holding corporation are subject to state income tax. Irvine v. Spaeth, 210M489, 299NW204. Cert. den. 62SCR117. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

(e) Refundments after period in which tax has been distributed. Op. Atty. Gen. 29A-(29), Dec. 20, 1943.

2394-32e. Same—Gross income—Inclusion of dividends from banks.—By reason of the adoption of method numbered (4), authorized by the Act of March 25, 1926, amending Section 5219 of Revised Statutes of the United States whereby a state may impose an excise tax upon national banks, and the state having elected in Section 32-4 of this act to impose such tax, every taxpayer taxable under this act must include in gross income dividends received from national banks (to the extent permitted by said section 5219) and dividends from state banks in the same manner and to the same extent as other dividend income is includable in gross income for the purpose of computing his taxable net income. (Apr. 21, 1933, c. 405, §32-5, added Feb. 21, 1941, c. 18, §2.) [290.362]

2394-32f. Effective date of act—Time of filing returns—Suspension of other taxes.—This act shall take effect as of January 1, 1940. The first return hereunder shall be for the calendar year 1940 and shall be filed on March 15, 1941, or within 30 days after the enactment hereof, whichever is later. The collection and enforcement of all taxes assessed or levied upon the shares of national and state banks for the year 1940 is hereby suspended during the period that this act shall be in force and if any tax so levied shall have been paid it shall be refunded. (Act Feb. 21, 1941, c. 18, §3.) [290.363]

2394-32g. Affiliated groups of corporations.—An affiliated group of corporations, all the members of which are required to file income tax returns under the provisions of this act, shall have the privilege of filing a consolidated return in lieu of separate returns, if the entire income of each of the members of the affiliated group including the common parent, if any, is assignable to this state under the provisions of this act. In the case of a corporation which is a member of the affiliated group for a fractional part of the taxable year, the consolidated return shall include the income of such corporation for such part of the year as it is a member of the affiliated group. Only one credit provided by Section 27(a) of this act shall be allowed in computing the tax on such consolidated return. The consolidated net income of the affiliated group shall be determined in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe. As used in this subdivision an "affiliated group" means one or more chains of corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation if (1) at least 90 per cent of the stock of each of the corporations (except the common parent corporation) is owned directly by one or more of the other corporations; and (2) the common parent corporation owns directly 90 per cent of the stock of at least one of the other corporations; and (3) each of the corporations is either (a) a corporation whose principal business is that of a common carrier by railroad or (b) a corporation, the assets of which consist principally of stock in such corporation, and which does not itself operate a business other than that of a common carrier by railroad. For the purpose of determining whether the principal business of a corporation is that of a common carrier by railroad, if a common carrier by railroad has leased its railroad properties and such properties are operated as such by another common carrier by railroad, the business of receiving rents for such railroad properties shall be considered as the business of a common carrier by railroad. As used in this subdivision, the term "railroad" includes a street, suburban, or interurban electric railway, or a street or suburban trackless trolley system of transportation, or a street or suburban bus system of transportation operated as part of a street or suburban electric railway or trackless trolley system. As used in this section, the term "stock" does not include non-voting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends. (Added Act Apr. 26, 1941, c. 458, §2.) [290.34(3)]

2394-32h. Application of act.—This act [2394-32, 2394-32g] shall apply to the determination and assessment of taxes for all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940. (Added Act Apr. 26, 1941, c. 458, §3.) [290.34(4)]

ARTICLE V.—RETURNS

2394-33. Who shall make returns.—Subdivision 1. (b) The executor or administrator of the estate of a decedent with respect to the taxable net income of such estate if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credit allowed, or if such estate's gross income exceeds $1000.

(c) The trustee or other fiduciary of property held in trust with respect to the taxable net income of such trust if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credit allowed, or if the gross income of such trust exceeds $1000, if, in either case such trust belongs to the class of taxable persons.

(d) The guardian of an infant or other incompetent person with respect to such infant's or other person's taxable net income if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credit allowed, or if their gross income exceeds $1000.

(e) Every corporation with respect to its taxable net income if in excess of $1000, or if its gross income exceeds $5000. The return in this case shall be sworn to by the president, vice-president or other principal officer, and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer.

(b) Every person or corporation making payments during the taxable year to any person or corporation in excess of $500.00 on account of rents, or in excess of $100.00 on account of interest or dividends, or in excess of $1,000 on account of either wages, salaries or commissions, shall make a return in respect to such payments in excess of the amounts specified, giving the names and addresses of the persons to whom such payments were made, the amounts paid to each. The state treasurer and the treasurer, or other corresponding officer by whatever name known, of every political subdivision of the state, or every city, village or borough and of every school district, shall, on or before the 1st day of March of each year, beginning with March, 1938, make and file with the commissioner a report giving the name of each employee or official to whom the state or such political subdivision, city, village, borough or school district, during the preceding calendar year, paid any salary or wages in excess of $1,000 together with the last known address of such employee or official.

The commissioner may also require brokers to furnish it with the names of the customers for whom they have transacted business, and with such details as to transactions of any customer as will enable it to determine whether all income due on profits or gains or such customers has been paid.

The commissioner may require any person acting as agent for another to make a return giving such information as may be reasonably necessary to properly assess and collect the tax imposed by this act upon the person for whom he acts. (As amended Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §14.)

ARTICLE VI.—COLLECTION OF TAX

2394-42. Tax to be paid when return is filed—Installments—Extension of time.—(a) All taxes imposed by this act shall be paid at the time fixed for filing the return on which the tax is based, except that they may, at the election of the taxpayer, be paid in two equal installments, the first of which shall be paid at the time above specified, and the second on or before six months thereafter. Provided, however, that with respect to all such taxes payable after January 1, 1942, when the amount due from any taxpayer is $30.00 or more, any such taxpayer may elect to pay the tax in four equal installments in which case the first installment shall be paid on the date prescribed for the payment of the tax by the taxpayer, the second installment shall be paid on the 15th day of the third month, the third installment on the 15th day of the sixth month, and the fourth installment on the 15th day of the ninth month, after such date. If any installment is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall become due and payable. They shall be paid to the commissioner or to the local officers designated by the commissioner with whom the return is filed as hereinbefore provided.

(b) At the request of the taxpayer, and for good cause shown the commissioner may extend the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, or any amount determined as a deficiency, for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension. (As amended Act Apr. 21, 1941, c. 335, §1; Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §15.)

Penalty is imposed upon failure to pay tax within 30 days after demand regardless of pending appeal for board of tax appeals. Op. Atty. Gen. (531), June 26, 1940.

(a) State v. Minnesota Tax Commission, 208M195, 293NW 243; note under §2394-47.

(b) Commissioner is required to give same kind of notice under §2394-43 and §2394-44, which is merely a notice containing a computation of the tax, and notice need not provide for an opportunity for a hearing before the commissioner to submit evidence as to correctness of return which it had made. Commander Larabee Corp. MBTA (9) February 24, 1940.

2394-44. Failure to make return or pay tax.—If any person or corporation required by this act to file any return shall fail to do so within the time prescribed by this act or by regulations under the authority thereof, or shall make, wilfully or otherwise, an incorrect, false or fraudulent return, he shall on the written demand of the commissioner file such return, or corrected return, within 30 days after the mailing of such written demand and at the same time pay the whole tax, or additional tax, due on the basis thereof. If such taxpayer shall fail within said time to file such return, or corrected return, the commissioner shall make for him a return, or corrected return, from its own knowledge and from such information as it can obtain through testimony or otherwise, and assess a tax on the basis thereof, which tax, (less any payments theretofore made on account of the tax for the taxable year covered by such return) shall be paid within 10 days after the commissioner has mailed to such taxpayer a written notice of the amount thereof and demand for its payment. Any such return or assessment made by the commissioner on account of the failure of the taxpayer to make a return, or a corrected return, shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the taxpayer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto. (As amended Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §16.)

Commissioner is required to give same kind of notice under §2394-43 and §2394-44, which is merely a notice containing a computation of the tax, and notice need not provide for an opportunity for a hearing before the commissioner to submit evidence as to correctness of return which it had made. Commander Larabee Corp. MBTA (9) February 24, 1940.

2394-45. Actions for collection of tax.

(a) Before state may challenge correctness of taxpayer's return by action, it must make its own computation after examination and investigation and serve notice upon the taxpayer thereof, and this applies to combined return required of affiliated corporations. State v. Duluth, M. & N. Ry. Co., 207M637, 292NW411. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

State's offers of proof of corrections in tax returns of affiliate corporations, even if received and accepted as proved, were insufficient in amount to change result. Id.

2394-46. Assessment of tax.—(a) The amount of taxes assessable with respect to all taxable years ending after January 1, 1937, shall be assessed within three and one-half years after the return is filed.

Such taxes shall be deemed to have been assessed within the meaning of this section whenever the commissioner shall have determined the taxable net income of the taxpayer and computed and recorded the amount of tax with respect thereto, and if the amount is found to be in excess of that originally declared on the return, whenever the commissioner shall have prepared a notice of tax assessment and mailed the same to the taxpayer. The notice of tax assessment shall be sent by registered mail to the post office address given in the return, and the record of such mailing shall be presumptive evidence of the giving of such notice, and such records shall be preserved by the commissioner.

(b) In the case of income received during the lifetime of a decedent, or by his estate during the period of administration, or by a corporation, the tax shall be assessed within 18 months, and any proceeding in court for the collection of such tax shall be begun within two years after written request for such assessment (filed after the return is made) by the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary representing the estate of such decedent, or by the corporation, but no assessment shall be made after the expiration of three and one-half years after the return was filed, and no action shall be brought after the expiration of four years after the return was filed. This subsection (b) shall not apply in the case of a corporation unless

(1) Such written request notifies the commissioner that the corporation contemplates dissolution at or before the expiration of such 18 months' period; and

(2) The dissolution is in good faith begun before the expiration of such 18 months' period; and

(3) The dissolution is completed.

(c) If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 25 per centum of the amount of gross income stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun at any time within five years after the return was filed.

(d) If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includible therein under Section 21 (d) as an amount distributed in liquidation of a corporation, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun at any time within 4 years after the return was filed.

(e) For the purposes of this section and of Mason's Supplement 1940, Section 2394-47, as amended, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing thereof shall be considered as filed on such last day.

(f) In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun at any time.

(g) Where the assessment of any tax is hereafter made within the period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by a proceeding in court, but only if begun

(1) within four years after the return was filed, or

(2) within six months after the expiration of the period agreed upon by the commissioner and the taxpayer, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (h) hereof, or

(3) within two months after final disposition of any appeal from the order of assessment.

(h) In the case of a corporation, if before the expiration of the time prescribed by subsection (a) hereof for the assessment of the tax, and if the commissioner has effected an examination of the taxpayer's return and supporting books and records, and has prepared a proposed redetermination of the tax liability and mailed a copy of its proposed redetermination to the taxpayer and has afforded the taxpayer an opportunity to appear before him and duly protest such redetermination, and if the commissioner and the taxpayer are unable to agree upon the correct tax liability because of a disagreement as to a material fact or point of law, then before the expiration of the time prescribed by subsection (a) hereof for the assessment of the tax, the commissioner and the taxpayer may consent in writing to the assessment of the tax, and the tax not exceeding the amount of the proposed redetermination herein provided for, may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the time agreed upon. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §17; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §15.)

Laws 1943, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby shall apply to all existing liabilities. Commander Larabee Corp. MBTA (9) Feb. 24, 1940; note under §2394-44.

(a). Where additional assessment was made by commissioner on disallowing a loss of corporate stock for year 1937, holding that it should have been deducted in 1936, after time during which taxpayer could have filed a claim for refund on his 1936 tax, board held that taxpayer did not show unconstitutionality of provisions permitting additional assessments to be made within three and one-half years and permitting taxpayer only two years in which to apply for a refund. Schultz, M.B.T.A. (No. 61), May 28, 1942.

Where property was destroyed by fire December 16, 1936, and actual amount of loss sustained was not determined until 1937 and taxpayer deducted amount of loss in 1937 income tax return and did not ask for refund on 1936 tax pay, taxpayer was not entitled to offset the 1936 overpayment against an additional assessment for 1937 and Commissioner was not authorized to make such an adjustment. Valentine, M.B.T.A. (No. 94), Aug. 21, 1942. See Dun. Dig. 9570eee.

Return of attorney on cash basis was fraudulent and limitations did not run where fee was received for services covering seventeen years and was not reported, and penalty and interest were properly added. Williams, M. B. T. A. (No. 118), Apr. 21, 1943.

2394-47. Refundment of overpayment.—(a) A taxpayer who has paid, voluntarily or otherwise, or from whom there has been collected (other than by the methods provided for in subdivisions (a) and (e) of Section 45) an amount of tax for any year in excess of the amount legally due for that year, may file with the commissioner a claim for a refund of such excess. No such claim shall be entertained unless filed within two years after such tax was paid or collected, or within three and one-half years from the filing of the return, whichever period is the longer; except that if the claim relates to an overpayment on account of failure to deduct a loss due to a bad debt or to a security becoming worthless, the period shall be seven years from the date the return was filed, and in such case the refund shall be limited to the amount of such overpayment; but no claim for any year ending prior to January 1, 1939, shall be allowed, unless (1) the deduction was claimed by the taxpayer with respect to a subsequent year, and disallowed by the commissioner of taxation prior to January 1, 1943, and (2) the claim is filed before December 1, 1943. If the claim is not filed within 3½ years after the return is filed, or, to the extent that it refers to bad debt or worthless stock losses, within 7 years after the return is filed, the refund shall not exceed the amount paid within two years prior to the filing of the claim. Upon the filing of a claim the commissioner shall examine the same and shall make and file written findings thereon denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part and shall mail a notice thereof by registered mail to the taxpayer at the address stated upon the return. If such claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall issue his certificate for the refundment of the excess paid by the taxpayer, with interest at the rate of three per cent per annum computed from the date of the payment or collection of the tax until the date the refund is paid to the taxpayer, and the state auditor shall cause such refund to be paid out of the proceeds of the taxes imposed by this act, as other state moneys are expended. So much of the proceeds of such taxes as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for that purpose.

(b) If the claim is denied in whole or in part, the taxpayer may commence an action against the commissioner to recover any overpayments of taxes claimed to be refundable but for which the commissioner has issued no certificate of refundment. Such action may be brought in the district court of the district in which lies the county of his residence or principal place of business or if an estate or trust, of the principal place of its administration, or in the district court for Ramsey County. Such action may be commenced after the expiration of six months after the claim is filed if the commissioner has not then taken final action thereon, and shall be commenced within 18 months after the notice of the order denying the claim. If the commissioner has not acted within two years after the claim is filed it shall be considered denied.

(c) Either party to said action may appeal to the supreme court as in other cases. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §18, 22; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §16.)

Laws 1943, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby shall apply, except as expressly provided therein, to claims filed after the passage of this act.

In action for recovery of income tax deficiency paid under protest it was not error for trial court to submit for jury's determination the question whether or not plaintiff had "established by a fair preponderance of evidence that the fair market value of the stock involved on March 1, 1913, was an amount in excess of the value determined by the commissioner" preliminary to the question "what was the March 1913 market value". *Concord Co. v. Where claim was filed within two years after tax was paid, and more than two years after claim was filed commission found that taxpayer had overpaid, it then became duty of commission to issue its certificate for refundment, and this could be enforced by mandamus. State v. Minnesota Tax Commission, 208M195, 293NW243. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

Taxpayer required by federal authority to change from a full charge-off of machines to a capitalized and depreciation method of accounting was not entitled to amend a state return for a prior year unless acting in the matter within two years. Stansfield, M.B.T.A. (No. 85), May 22, 1942.

Where property was destroyed by fire December 16, 1936, and actual amount of loss sustained was not determined until 1937 and taxpayer deducted amount of loss in 1937 income tax return and did not ask for refund on 1936 tax pay, taxpayer was not entitled to offset the 1936 overpayment against an additional assessment for 1937 and Commissioner was not authorized to make such an adjustment. Valentine, M.B.T.A. (No. 94), Aug. 21, 1942. See Dun. Dig. 9570eee.

(b). Where more than two years after tax was paid and claim for refundment filed, commission determined that there was an overpayment of tax, but rejected claim on ground of limitations, taxpayer was not an "aggrieved party," and could proceed by mandamus to compel issuance of certificate for refundment. State v. Minnesota Tax Commission, 208M195, 293NW243. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

(c). This subsection does not deprive taxpayer of right to refundment, and where commission proceeds to determine merits of claim, it has no application whatsoever. State v. Minnesota Tax Commission, 208M195, 293NW243. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

ARTICLE VII.—INTEREST AND PENALTIES

2394-49. Penalties.—(a) If any tax imposed by this act, or any portion thereof, is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the Board of Tax Appeals relating thereto, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to five per centum of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. Interest accruing upon the tax due as disclosed by the return or upon the amount determined as a deficiency from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payments of the first installment) shall be added to the tax and be collected as a part thereof. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under Section 42(b) interest shall be paid at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this section shall apply.

(b) If any person, with intent to evade the tax imposed by this act, shall fail to file any return required by this act, or shall with such intent file a false or fraudulent return, there shall also be imposed on him as a penalty an amount equal to fifty per centum of any tax (less any amounts paid by him on the basis of such false or fraudulent return) found due from him for the period to which such return related. The penalty imposed by this subdivision shall be collected as part of the tax, and shall be in addition to any other penalties, civil and criminal, provided by this section.

(c) In addition to the penalties hereinbefore prescribed, any person who wilfully fails to make a return or wilfully makes a false return, with an intent to evade the tax, or a part thereof, imposed by this act, shall be guilty of a felony. The term "person" as used in this subsection includes any officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership who as such officer, member or employee is under a duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs.

(d) All payments received shall be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

(e) The commissioner shall have power to abate penalties when in his opinion their enforcement would be unjust and inequitable. The exercise of this power shall be subject to the approval of the attorney general. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §19; Apr. 28, 1943, c. 656, §17.)

Laws 1943, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby shall apply to all assessments thereafter made.

Penalty is imposed upon failure to pay tax within 30 days after demand regardless of pending appeal for board of tax appeals. Op. Atty. Gen. (531), June 26, 1940.

(e). Return of attorney on cash basis was fraudulent and limitations did not run where fee was received for services covering seventeen years and was not reported, and penalty and interest were properly added. Williams, M. B. T. A. (No. 118), Apr. 21, 1943.

(e). That former tax commission allowed similar deductions is not controlling, but taxpayer's reliance thereon in taking deduction entitles his estate to abatement of penalties. Abbott's Estate, 213M289, 6NW(2d)466. See Dun. Dig. 9570eee.

(f). Return of attorney on cash basis was fraudulent and limitations did not run where fee was received for services covering seventeen years and was not reported, and penalty and interest were properly added. Williams, M. B. T. A. (No. 118), Apr. 21, 1943.

2394-49a. Application of the law.—(a) This law shall take effect from and after its passage, but shall apply in computing taxes as follows:

(1) To the taxable year 1941 and all subsequent years of taxpayers reporting on a calendar year basis.

(2) To the taxable year ending during the calendar year 1941 of taxpayers reporting on a fiscal year basis, in which case the tax shall be computed as provided in Section 2394-32 (a) of Mason's Supplement 1940 and to all subsequent taxable years of such taxpayers.

(3) To every taxable year commencing on or after January 1, 1941 of every other taxpayer.

(b) All provisions of Laws 1933, Chapter 405, and Extra Session Laws of 1935, Chapter 87, and Extra Session Laws of 1937, Chapter 49 and Laws of 1939, Chapter 446 as they existed prior to the passage of this act, shall remain in full force and effect so far as necessary to preserve any liability for taxes, interest, and penalties incurred prior to the passage of this act. (Act Apr. 28, 1941, c. 550, §24.) [290.55]

ARTICLE VIII.—ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

2394-50. Administration and enforcement.—The commissioner shall administer and enforce the assessment and collection of the taxes imposed by this act. He may, from time to time, make and publish such rules and regulations, in enforcing its provisions. He shall cause to be prepared blank forms for the returns required by this act, which shall include a simplified form for individual taxpayers having a gross income less than $5,000, or a gross income in excess of $5,000 if it is derived solely from wages, salaries, dividends and interest, which statement may be verified by written declaration that it is made under the penalties of criminal liability for wilfully making a false return and which shall list gross income, deductions, net income, gross tax, personal credits and tax payable, provided, however, that detailed returns may subsequently be required of said persons by the commissioner. The commissioner shall distribute the same throughout this state and furnish them on application, but failure to receive or secure them shall not relieve any person or corporation from the obligation of making any return required of him or it under this act. The commissioner may prescribe rules and regulations governing the recognition of agents, attorneys, or other persons representing claimants before the commissioner, and may require of such persons, agents, and attorneys, before being recognized as representatives of claimants, that they shall show that they are of good character and in good repute, possessed of the necessary qualifications to enable them to render such claimants valuable services, and otherwise competent to advise and assist such claimants in the presentation of their case. And such commissioner may, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, suspend and disbar from further practice before him, any such person, agent, or attorney, shown to be incompetent, disreputable, or who refuses to comply with the said rules and regulations, or who shall with intent to defraud, in any manner wilfully and knowingly deceive, mislead, or threaten any claimant or prospective claimant, by words, circular, letter, or by advertisement. This shall in no way curtail the rights of individuals to appear in their own behalf or partners or corporations' officers to appear in behalf of their respective partnerships or corporations. (As amended Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §18.)

Laws 1943, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby, shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942.

Regulations adopted by the commissioner have the force of law. State v. Stickney, 213M89, 5NW(2d)351. See Dun. Dig. 9570d.

2394-50a. May make agreements.

Where property was destroyed by fire December 16, 1936, and actual amount of loss sustained was not determined until 1937 and taxpayer deducted amount of loss in 1937 income tax return and did not ask for refund on 1936 tax pay, taxpayer was not entitled to offset the 1936 overpayment against an additional assessment for 1937 and Commissioner was not authorized to make such an adjustment. Valentine, M.B.T.A. (No. 94), Aug. 21, 1942. See Dun. Dig. 9570eee.

2394-55. Payment of expenses.—All the expenses of the administration of this Act shall be paid out of the receipts therefrom as other moneys of the state are expended by the departments incurring the same, and there is hereby appropriated out of such receipts so much thereof as may be necessary therefor. Expenses of the administration of this Act as provided for herein shall include fees and expenses incurred by the Attorney General in litigation for the collection of the taxes provided for in this Act. Provided that none of said departments may expend any money for any of the purposes of this Act after February 15, 1935, unless the same shall be appropriated by the Legislature. (As amended Mar. 10, 1943, c. 115, §1.)

2394-56. Publicity of returns.

(a) It shall be unlawful for the Commission or any other public official or employee to divulge or otherwise make known in any manner any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return required by this act, or any information concerning, the taxpayer's affairs acquired from his or its records, officers or employees while examining or auditing any taxpayer's liability for taxes imposed hereunder, except in connection with a proceeding involving taxes due under this act from the taxpayer making such return, and except as provided in Section 32-4 [2394-32d]. The Commission may furnish a copy of any taxpayer's return to any official of the United States or of any state having duties to perform in respect to the assessment or collection of any tax imposed upon or measured by income, if such taxpayer is required by the laws of the United States or of such state to make a return therein and if the laws of the United States or of such state provide substantially for the same secrecy in respect to the information revealed thereby as is provided by our laws. The Commission and all other public officials and employees shall keep and maintain the same secrecy in respect to any information furnished by any department, commission or official of the United States or of any other state in respect to the income of any person as is required by this section in respect to information concerning the affairs of taxpayers under this act. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed to prohibit the Commission from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular returns or reports and the items thereof. (As amended Feb. 21, 1941, c. 18, §5.)

ARTICLE IX.—DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS OF TAXES

2394-57. Distribution—Refunds.—The revenues derived from the taxes, interest and penalties under Mason's Supplement 1940, Sections 2394-1 to 2394-61, inclusive, shall be paid into the state treasury; and be credited to a special fund to be known as "Income Tax School Fund," and be distributed as follows:

(a) There shall be paid from said Income Tax School Fund all refunds of taxes erroneously collected from taxpayers under Mason's Supplement 1940, Sections 2394-1 to 2394-61, inclusive, as provided herein.

(b) There shall be transferred each year from said fund to the General Revenue Fund the amount expended from the latter fund for expenses of administering Mason's Supplement 1940, Sections 2394-1 to 2394-61, inclusive.

(c) Out of the balance in said income Tax School Fund after meeting the requirements of subsections (a) and (b), there shall be distributed to each school district of the state, including municipalities operating their own school, an amount equal to $10.00 per child between the ages of six years and sixteen years, both years inclusive, residing in such district, provided that a child in his sixteenth year shall be included only if in actual attendance in school. Providing also that if a child attends another district to obtain a high school education, the $10 per child shall be paid to the district maintaining such public high school where the child attends, but this shall not apply to any county where the high school district may require the payment of tuition in addition to the state non-resident high school tuition as provided by the terms of Chapter 328, Laws of 1941. The school census taken during the fiscal year shall be used as the basis for computing the amount due each school district. Except as otherwise provided by any law heretofore or hereafter passed with respect to particular school districts, the money so distributed shall be used for the following purposes only:

(1) Payment or providing for the payment of any bonded or other indebtedness of such district outstanding January 1, 1933.

(2) Providing for the payment of any bonded or other indebtedness thereafter incurred until such debts are fully paid or payment thereof provided for.

(3) Any such revenue not required to pay or provide for the payment of any such indebtedness shall be used to pay current operating expenses and to reduce and replace levies on real and personal property.

(4) Where the county auditor is required by any law to levy a tax to pay any interest or principal of any bonded indebtedness of a school district, such district may on or before October 1 of any year pay any of such money available therefor to the county treasurer to pay any interest or principal maturing or becoming due during the next ensuing year, in which case the auditor shall reduce the amount of the levy so required to be made by him by the amount so paid to the treasurer.

(d) If any money remains in said Income Tax School Fund after making the distribution specified in subsections (a), (b) and (c), such balance, not in excess, however, of the amount appropriated for such purpose, shall be used to pay special school aid provided by law, and the amount so used shall be deducted from the appropriation therefor.

(e) The money available for distribution under subsections (c) and (d), shall be distributed by the state board of education semi-annually, in the same manner, as nearly as practicable, as now provided by law governing the distribution of state funds by said board, except that each school district shall be entitled to receive the money distributable under subsection (c) without being subject to any conditions.

(f) All money collected up to and including December 31, 1937, irrespective of the year for which taxes were assessed and from which have been deducted the sums required for the payment of all costs of administration incurred and paid prior to said December 31, 1937, and for the payment of all refunds granted prior to said December 31, 1937, and not heretofore distributed, shall be distributed on the basis of school population within such district of compulsory school age and shall be based on the 1936 school census; this distribution shall be additional to the amounts provided in subsection (c) hereof and used only for the purposes therein stated.

(g) All money collected on and after Jan. 1, 1938, irrespective of the year for which such taxes were assessed shall be distributed as provided in subsection (c) hereof; provided, that in common school districts which have no debt and where no school is conducted but where educational facilities are provided by contract with another public school, the income tax accruing to said common school district may, by a majority vote of the governing board of such common school district, be assigned to the public school providing the educational facilities for the pupils of such common school district, for the purpose of aiding in the liquidation of bonded indebtedness incurred in construction of school buildings in the district affording such educational facilities under contract with such common school district. The assignment of such income tax shall not be construed as compensation for providing educational facilities for the students of such common school district but in addition thereto, and only for the purpose herein designated. (As amended Apr. 24, 1943, c. 630, §1.)

(h) Distribution to school districts.—Out of the balance in said income tax school fund, after distributing the amounts hereinbefore provided, there shall be distributed to each school district in the state an amount equal to the tax on the money and credits in said school district for the year 1942, which was apportioned to and received by it in 1943, as provided by Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 2349. Such distribution shall be semi-annually during the calendar years 1944 and 1945, and thereafter this sub-section shall have no force and effect. (As amended Apr. 28, 1941, c. 445, §1; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 630, §1; Apr. 24, 1943, c. 656, §29.)

Laws 1943, c. 656, §31, provides that this section as amended thereby shall apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1942.

Laws 1943, c. 665, §7, provides that: There is hereby transferred from the income tax school fund to the current school fund the sum of $1,000,000, for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1944 and 1945, respectively and the state auditor and the state treasurer are hereby authorized and directed to make the appropriate entries in the accounts of the respective funds.

Subsec. (c)(5) appearing in Laws 1937, c. 397, which amended this section, was omitted by subsequent amendments through oversight, and is still in effect. Op. Atty. Gen. (531i), Oct. 15, 1940; Oct. 22, 1940.

Subsec. (c)(5) referred to by the attorney general read as follows: "Any income tax payable to an unorganized territory having children living within the boundaries of any disorganized school district which has been consolidated with the unorganized territory, may be used by the County Board of Education, upon an unanimous vote of its members, to pay any bonded or floating indebtedness existing at the time of consolidation with the unorganized territory. The county auditor, upon request of the County Board of Education, shall apply such income tax to such indebtedness of the dissolved district each and every year thereafter, according to the number of pupils reported by the County Superintendent of Schools until such debts have been fully paid. Floating indebtedness shall be paid by the County Board of Education as the situation may seem warranted and when funds are available.

For the purpose of this section the bonded or other indebtedness to the payment of, or provision for, which the sums distributed must or may be applied shall, in the case of municipalities operating their own school system, be limited to such indebtedness incurred for school purposes."

Section prohibits directly or indirectly paying any current operating expenses out of income tax money until all other bonded or other indebtedness has been fully paid or payments provided for, and if bonds issued after Jan. 1, 1933, were refunding bonds, they would represent same indebtedness that was outstanding on Jan. 1, 1933. Op. Atty. Gen. (531i), Feb. 19, 1941.
