On the question of the advisability of the incorporation of a municipality, the claim of municipal regulations of the mining industry cannot be given much weight in view of the state inspection provided by chapter 180. State ex rel. v City of Chisholm, 199 M 403, 415, 273 NW 235.

In the exercise of his powers and duties the inspector of mines apparently has occupied a very limited field. The expert in this case had no knowledge "with reference to dust," had no "expert knowledge of ventilation conditions," and made no inspection of hazards of inhaling dust.
