OAG Aug. 30, 1935 (341h).

Where an inmate of a penal institution becomes insane and is examined by a commission and found to be so mentally deranged that he should be confined in an insane hospital, it is not necessary prior to commitment to hospital to secure from the board of parole a medical parole, the order of judge of probate being sufficient. OAG Oct. 26, 1935 (341h).

The expense of the commitment of an insane person or feeble-minded person in institution should be paid by the county of legal settlement and not by the institution or out of state funds. OAG June 5, 1936 (679e).

Where one without settlement in state was convicted in St. Paul and sent to reformatory and later transferred to state prison and was still later committed by the probate court of Washington county to the hospital for the criminal insane, the cost of commitment must be paid by Ramsey county and not by the state or the state prison. OAG Jan. 21, 1937 (248b-3).

Where a person was adjudged insane and later paroled, a new proceeding under this section is not necessary to a transfer from reformatory following the vacation of a suspended sentence. OAG Feb. 2, 1939 (248a-2).
