55.14 NOTICE OF RENT DUE, WHEN SENT; BOXES, WHEN OPENED; CONTENTS SOLD. If the amount due for the use or rental of any safe deposit box of any licensed safe deposit company shall have remained unpaid for a period of six months, the safe deposit company may, at any time after the expiration of that period, cause to be sent by registered mail, addressed to the renter or lessee of the safe deposit box, directed to the address standing on its books, a written notice that, if the amount due for the use or rental of the safe deposit box is not paid within 60 days after the date of the mailing of the notice, it will cause the safe deposit box to be opened in the presence of its president or vice-president or secretary or treasurer or assistant secretary or assistant treasurer or superintendent, and of a notary public not in its employ, and the contents thereof, if any, to be placed in a sealed package by the notary public, upon which he shall mark the name of the renter or lessee as given upon its books and the estimated value thereof, and that the package so sealed and marked will be placed in one of the general safe deposit boxes of the safe deposit company. In case the lien of the licensed safe deposit company, for rental and expenses, shall not be paid and discharged within six months from the date of the opening of the safe deposit box and the removal of the contents therefrom, then the licensed safe deposit company may sell, or cause to be sold, at public auction, the contents of the safe deposit box, or so much thereof as is required to pay and discharge the lien and expenses of sale, having first caused to be sent by registered mail, addressed to the renter or lessee of the safe deposit box, directed to the address standing on its books, a written notice of the time and place of the sale, and also giving public notice of the time and place of the sale by advertisement in a legal newspaper published in the county in which the place of business of the licensed safe deposit company is located, at least once a week for two successive weeks, and from the proceeds of the sale it may retain for its own use the amount of its lien and the expenses of the sale; the balance of the proceeds of the sale and the contents remaining unsold, if any, being held to be paid over and delivered to those having ownership of the contents of the safe deposit box so sold, as aforesaid. Authority to place the contents of an opened safe deposit box in one of the general safe deposit boxes of the safe deposit company includes authority to place the contents of any number of opened boxes in one general box which is under the sole control of the safe deposit company. Any currency or other money found in any box opened under authority of this section may be applied by the safe deposit company toward the payment of rental and the costs and expenses referred to in this section.

55.15 APPLICATION. This chapter shall not be held or construed as limiting, restricting, or in any way affecting the operation or management of safe deposit boxes or vaults, or a safe deposit business, by any savings bank, bank, or trust company. If any bank, savings bank, or trust company elects to transact the business of a safe deposit company under the provisions of this chapter, it shall so notify the commissioner of banks and thereafter the provisions of sections 55.02 and 55.10 to 55.14 shall apply to such safe deposit business and said bank, savings bank, or trust company shall have the benefit thereof.
