[R. L. s. 5080] (10360)

622.04 GIVING CHECK WITHOUT FUNDS. Any person who, with intent to defraud, shall make or draw or utter or deliver any check, draft, or order for the payment of money upon any bank or other depository, knowing at the time of such making, drawing, uttering, or delivery that the maker or drawer has not sufficient funds in or credit with such bank or other depository for the payment of such check, draft, or order in full upon its presentation, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor; and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year or both.

The making, drawing, uttering, or delivering of such check, draft, or order shall be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud and as against the maker or drawer of knowledge of insufficient funds in or credit with such bank or other depository; where such check, draft, or order has been protested for insufficient funds or no account, the notice of a protest thereof shall be admissible as proof against the maker or drawer of such presentation, non-payment, and protest, and shall be prima facie evidence that there was a lack of funds in or credit with such bank or other depository.

622.09 APPLICATION TO UNISSUED INSTRUMENTS AND FIXTURES. Every provision of this chapter in reference to larceny shall apply to cases where the property taken is an instrument for the payment of money, an evidence of debt, a public security, a passage ticket completed and ready to be issued or delivered, although never in fact issued or delivered by the maker to a purchaser or owner; and to cases where the thing taken is a fixture, or part of the realty, or any growing tree, plant, or produce, and is severed at the time of taking, in the same manner as if the thing had been severed by another person at a previous time.

622.10 DOGS PERSONAL PROPERTY, WHEN. Dogs are hereby declared to be personal property within the meaning of Minnesota Statutes 1941, Part V.

[R. L. s. 5085] (10366)

622.11 LOST PROPERTY. Every person who shall find lost property under circumstances which give him knowledge or means of inquiry as to the true owner, who shall appropriate such property to his own use, or to the use of another person not entitled thereto, without having first made reasonable effort to find the owner and restore the property to him, shall be guilty of larceny.

[R. L. s. 5086] (10367)

622.12 BRINGING STOLEN GOODS INTO STATE OR ANOTHER COUNTY. Every person who, at any place out of the state, shall have stolen the property of another, or received such property knowing it to have been stolen, and shall bring the same into the state, may be tried and punished in the same manner as if such larceny or receiving had been committed within the state, and the offense may be charged to have been committed, and indictment found, and tried, in any county into or through which the stolen property shall have been brought; and every person who, at any place in the state, shall have taken the property of another, or received such property knowing it to have been stolen, and brought the same into any other county, shall be guilty of the larceny of the same in any county into or through which such stolen property shall have been brought, and may be indicted and tried in any such county.

[R. L. s. 5087] (10368)

622.13 CONVERSION BY TRUSTEE. Every person acting as executor, administrator, committee, guardian, receiver, collector, or trustee of any description, appointed by a deed, will, or other instrument, or by an order or judgment of a court or officer, who shall secrete, withhold, or otherwise appropriate to his own use, or that of any person other than the true owner or person entitled thereto, any money, goods, thing in action, security, evidence of debt or of property, or other valuable thing, or any proceeds thereof, in his possession or custody by virtue of his office, employment or appointment, shall be guilty of grand or petit larceny in such degree as in this chapter prescribed with reference to the value of such property.

[R. L. s. 5089] (10370)

622.15 VALUE OF EVIDENCE OF DEBT, HOW ASCERTAINED. When the thing stolen is a written instrument, being an evidence of debt, other than a public or corporate certificate, scrip, bond, or security having a market value, or being the transfer of or evidence of title to any property, or of the creating, releasing, or discharging of any demand, right, or obligation, the amount of money due thereupon or secured to be paid thereby and remaining unsatisfied, or which in any contingency might be collected thereon or thereby, or the value of the property transferred or affected, or the title to which is shown thereby or the sum which might be recovered for the want thereof, as the case may be, shall be deemed the value of the thing stolen. If the thing stolen be a ticket, paper, or other writing entitling or purporting to entitle the holder or proprietor thereof to a passage upon a railway car, vessel, or other public conveyance, the price at which a ticket entitling a person to a like passage is usually sold shall be deemed its value. In every case not otherwise regulated by statute, the market value of the thing stolen shall be deemed its value.

[R. L. s. 5090] (10371)

622.16 CLAIM OF TITLE, WHEN GROUND OF DEFENSE. Upon an indictment for larceny it shall be a sufficient defense that the property was appropriated openly and avowedly, under a claim of title preferred in good faith, even though the claim be untenable. This shall not excuse the retention of the property of another to offset or pay demands held against him.

[R. L. s. 5091] (10372)

622.17 INTENT TO RESTORE PROPERTY. The fact that the defendant intended to restore the property stolen shall be no ground of defense, nor shall it be received in mitigation of punishment unless the property shall have been restored before complaint charging the commission of the crime has been made to a magistrate.

[R. L. s. 5092] (10373)

622.18 RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY; AVERMENT AND PROOF. Every person who shall buy or receive any stolen property, or any property which has been wrongfully appropriated in such manner as to constitute larceny under this chapter, knowing the same to have been stolen or so dealt with, or who corruptly, for any money, property, reward, promise, or agreement for the same, shall conceal, withhold, or aid in concealing or withholding, any property, knowing the same to have been stolen or appropriated wrongfully in such manner as to constitute larceny under the provisions of this chapter, if such misappropriation has been committed within the state, whether such property was so stolen or misappropriated within or without the state, shall be guilty of criminally receiving such property, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years or in a county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than $250 or by both. In an indictment under this section it shall not be necessary to aver or prove upon trial that the principal who stole the property has been convicted or is amenable to justice.

622.19 LARCENY AT FIRES, HOW PUNISHED. Every person who shall commit larceny in a building that is on fire, or steal any property removed in consequence of an alarm caused by a fire, shall be punished, when the value of the property is more than $100, by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years or by a fine of not more than $500; when the value of the property is $100 or less, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than two years or by fine of not more than $200.

[R. L. s. 5094] (10375)

622.20 RESTORATION OF STOLEN PROPERTY; DUTY OF OFFICERS. The officer arresting any person charged as principal or accessory in any robbery or larceny shall use reasonable diligence to secure the property alleged to have been stolen, and after seizure shall be answerable therefor while it remains in his hands, and shall annex a schedule thereof to his return of the warrant. When the county attorney shall require such property for use as evidence upon the examination or trial, such officer, upon his demand, shall deliver it to him and take his receipt therefor, after which such county attorney shall be responsible for the same. Upon conviction of the offender, whoever shall hold such property shall turn it over to the owner.

622.21 STEALING FROM CARS. Every person other than the owner or his agent, or one having charge of a railroad car for the purpose of loading the same, who takes from such car, while in transit, in the yards, or on any siding or track of any railroad in this state any grain or flax seed, or sweeps any such car, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. On the trial it shall not be necessary to show that the defendant is not in the employ of the railroad company or acting under its authority while doing the act complained of, but the fact of the sweeping shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this section.

[R. L. s. 5191] (10529)

622.22 STEALING OR PRINTING TRANSPORTATION TICKET, COUPON, OR PASS. If any person in the employ of a railroad or steamboat company shall fraudulently neglect to cancel, or to return to the proper officer or agent of such company, any ticket, coupon, or pass, with the intent to permit the same to be used in fraud of any railroad or steamboat company, or if any person shall steal or fraudulently stamp, print, sign, sell, or put in circulation any such ticket, coupon, or pass, he shall be guilty of a felony, and punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years.

[R. L. s. 5186] (10524)
