193.141' ARMORY CONSTRUCTION AUTHORIZED

The proprietors of the townsite of the town, (now city) of Litchfield, in 1869 dedicated block 17, 33 and 53 to public use. Such dedication prevents the city from conveying any part of the fee title to the state for armory purposes. The fact that block 53 was used as a park, does not prevent its use for other public purposes. OAG Jan. 23, 1948 (59-A-40).

A city may insure whatever interest it owns in an armory building but cannot insure the interest of the state. OAG April 5, 1948 (310-B-6).
