APPENDIX 3

MUNICIPAL COURTS

There are four classes of municipal courts in the State of Minnesota:

- (1) Courts organized under special laws;
- (2) Courts organized under L. 1895, c. 229;
- (3) Courts organized under Chapter 488 of the general laws;
- (4) Courts organized under or which have accepted the provisions of Chapter 488 but have taken advantage of the modifications permitted by L. 1909, c. 306, as amended, codified as Section 488.26.

Municipal courts organized under special laws, with two exceptions, have adopted district court practice. Courts organized under Chapter 488 are required to have district court practice. Courts organized under L. 1895, c. 229, and courts which have adopted the provisions of the 1909 amendment operate under justice court practice.

Village municipal courts must organize under the provisions of Chapter 488 or under a special law.

Rule 1. CLERK. (1) The clerk of this court shall reside and keep the office at the seat of the National Government, and he shall not practice as attorney or counselor in any court, while he continues in office.

(2) The clerk shall not permit any original record or paper to be taken from the office without an order from the court or one of the justices, except as provided by Rule 13, paragraph 4.

2. ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS. (1) It shall be requisite to the admission of attorneys or counselors to practice in this court, that they shall have been such for three years past in the highest court of a State, Territory, District, or Insular Possession, and that their private and professional characters shall appear to be good.

(2) Not less than two weeks in advance of application for admission, each applicant shall file with the clerk (1) a certificate from the presiding judge or clerk of the proper court showing that he possesses the foregoing qualifications, (2) his personal statement, on the form approved by the court and furnished by the clerk, and (3) two letters or signed statements of members of the bar of this court, not related to the applicant, who are resident practitioners within the State, Territory, District, or Insular Possession (to which the application refers as provided in paragraph 1 of this rule) stating that the applicant is personally known to them, that he possesses all the qualifications required for admission to the bar of this court, that they have examined his personal statement and that they affirm that his personal and professional character and standing are good.

(3) Admissions will be granted only upon oral motion by a member of the bar in open court, and upon his assurance that he has examined the credentials of the applicant filed in the office of the clerk in accordance with the foregoing requirement and that he is satisfied that the applicant possesses the necessary qualifications.

(4) Upon being admitted, each applicant shall take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation, viz.:

I,, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will demean myself, as an attorney and counselor of this court, uprightly, and according to law; and that I will support the Constitution of the United States.

(5) Where it is shown to the court that any member of its bar has been disbarred from practice in any State, Territory, District, or Insular Possession, or has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a member of the bar of this court, he will be forthwith suspended from practice before this court, and unless, upon notice mailed to him at the address shown in the clerk's records and to the clerk of the highest court of the State, Territory, District, or Insular Possession, to which he belongs, he shows good cause to the contrary within forty days he will be disbarred. (As amended June 5, 1944.)

(6) An attorney, barrister, or advocate who is qualified to practice in the highest court of any foreign state which extends a like privilege to members of the bar of this Court, may be specially admitted for purposes limited to a particular case. He shall not however, be authorized to act as attorney of record. In the case of such applicants, the oath shall not be required and there shall be no fee. Such admissions shall be only on motion of a member of the bar of this Court, notice of which signed by such member and reciting all relevant facts shall be filed with the Clerk at least three days prior to the motion. (As amended June 5, 1944; November 18, 1946.)

3. CLERKS TO JUSTICES NOT TO PRACTICE. No one serving as a law clerk or secretary to a member of this court shall practice as an attorney or counselor in any court while continuing in that position; nor shall he after separating from that position practice as an attorney or counselor in this court, or permit his name to appear on a brief filed in this court, until two years shall have elapsed after such separation.

4. LIBRARY. (1) The library for the bar shall be open to members of the bar of this court; to members of Congress and to law officers of the executive or other departments of the Government, but books may not be removed from the building.

(2) The library shall be open during such times as the reasonable needs of the bar require and be governed by such regulations as the librarian, with the approval of the court, may make effective.

5. ORIGINAL ACTIONS. Cases on the original docket shall be governed, as far as may be, by the rules applicable to cases on the appellate docket.

The initial pleading in any such action may be accompanied by a brief and shall be prefaced by a motion for leave to file, which motion will be presented to the court by the clerk on the first motion day following its lodgment in the clerk's office. If leave to file is granted the case will be placed on the original docket and the parties shall make such cash deposit with the clerk for the payment of his fees as he may require.

Additional pleadings shall be filed as the court directs.

6. PROCESS. (1) All process of this court shall be in the name of the President of the United States, and shall contain the given names, as well as the surnames, of the parties.

(2) When process at common law or in equity shall issue against a state, the same shall be served on the governor, or chief executive magistrate, and attorney general, of such state.

(3) Process of subpoena, issuing out of this court, in any suit in equity, shall be served on the defendant sixty days before the return day of such process; and if the defendant, on such service of the subpoena, shall not appear at the return day, the complainant shall be at liberty to proceed ex parte.

7. MOTIONS, INCLUDING THOSE TO DISMISS OR AFFIRM; SUMMARY DOCKET; MOTION DAY.

(1) Every motion to the court shall be printed, and shall state clearly its object and the facts on which it is based.

(2) Oral argument will not be heard on any motion unless the court specially assigns it therefor, when not exceeding one-half hour on each side will be allowed.

(3) No motion by respondent to dismiss a petition for writ of certiorari will be received. Objections to the jurisdiction of the court to grant writs of certiorari may be included in briefs in opposition to petitions therefor.

A motion by appellee to dismiss an appeal will be received in advance of the court's ruling upon the jurisdictional statements only when presented in the manner provided by Rule 12, paragraph 3. When such a motion is made, the appellant shall have 20 days after service upon him within which to file in this court forty printed copies of a brief opposing the motion, except that where his court resides in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, or an outlying possession, the time shall be twenty-five days.

A motion by respondent to dismiss a writ of certiorari or by appellee to dismiss an appeal, after the court has ruled upon the jurisdictional statements and accompanying motions, if any (Rule 12, paragraph 5), will be received if not based upon grounds already advanced in opposition to the granting of the writ of certiorari or to the noting of jurisdiction of the appeal. Such motions, together with motions to dismiss certificates in case of questions certified, must be printed and forty copies thereof must be filed with the clerk, accompanied by proof that a copy of the motion, and accompanying brief, if any, have been served upon counsel of record for the opposing party. The opposing party shall have twenty days from the date of such service within which to file a printed brief opposing the motion. When counsel for the opposing party resides in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, or an outlying possession, the time shall be twenty-five days. Upon the filing of the opposing brief, or the expiration of the time allowed therefor, or express waiver of the right to file, the motion and briefs thereon shall be distributed by the clerk to the court for its consideration.

The pendency of a motion to dismiss or affirm shall not preclude the placing of the cause upon the calendar of the court for oral argument or its being called for argument when reached.

(4) The court will receive a motion to affirm on the ground that it is manifest that the appeal was taken for delay only, or that the questions on which the decision of the cause depends are so unsubstantial as not to need further argument. The procedure provided in paragraph 3 of this rule for motions to dismiss shall apply to and control motions to affirm. A motion to affirm may be united in the alternative with a motion to dismiss.

(5) Although the court upon consideration of a motion to dismiss or a motion to affirm may refuse to grant the motion, it may, if it concludes that the case is of such a character as not to justify extended argument, order the cause transferred for hearing to the summary docket. The hearing of causes on such docket will be expedited from time to time as the regular order of business may permit. A cause may be transferred to the summary docket on application, or on the court's own motion.

(6) Monday of each week, when the court is in session, shall be motion day; and motions specially assigned for oral argument shall be entitled to preference over other cases. (As amended May 31, 1932.)

8. BILLS OF EXCEPTION; CHARGE TO JURY; OMISSION OF UNNECESSARY EVIDENCE. The judges of the district courts in allowing bills of exception shall give effect to the following rules:

(1) No bill of exceptions shall be allowed on a general exception to the charge of the court to the jury in trials at common law. The party excepting shall be required before the jury retires to state distinctly the several matters of law in such charge to which he excepts; and no other exceptions to the charge shall be allowed by the court or inserted in a bill of exceptions.

(2) Only so much of the evidence shall be embraced in a bill of exceptions as may be necessary to present clearly the questions of law involved in the rulings to which exceptions are reserved, and such evidence as is embraced therein may be set forth in full or in condensed and narrative form.

9. ASSIGNMENT OF ERRORS. Where an appeal is taken to this court from any court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the court below, with his petition for appeal, an assignment of errors, which shall set out separately and particularly each error asserted. No appeal shall be allowed unless such an assignment of errors shall accompany the petition.

10. APPEAL; CITATION; RECORD; DESIGNATION OF PARTS TO BE INCLUDED IN TRANSCRIPT. (1) When an appeal is allowed a citation to the appellee shall be signed by the judge or justice allowing the appeal and shall be made returnable not exceeding forty days from the day of signing the citation, whether the return day fall in vacation or in term time, except in appeals from California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Idaho, Utah, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana, when the time shall be sixty days. The citation must be served before the return day.

(2) The clerk of the court from which an appeal to this court may be allowed, shall make and transmit to this court under his hand and the seal of the court a true copy of the material parts of the record, always including the assignment of errors, and any opinions delivered in the case. The papers comprising the transcript shall be fastened together in one or more volumes of convenient size, paged consecutively and indexed.

To enable the clerk to perform such duty and for the purpose of reducing the size of transcripts and eliminating all papers not necessary to the consideration of the questions to be reviewed, it shall be the duty of the appellant, or his counsel, to file with the clerk of the lower court, promptly after an appeal is taken, together with proof or acknowledgment of service of a copy on the appellee, or his counsel, a praecipe indicating the portions of the record to be incorporated into the transcript. Within ten days thereafter (unless the time be enlarged by a judge of the lower court or a justice of this court), any other party to the appeal may serve and file a designation of additional portions of the record desired to be included. Sections (c), (e), and (h) of Rule 75 and Rule 76 of the Rules of Civil Procedure are incorporated herein by reference and are made applicable to an appeal to this court from a federal district court.

The clerk of the lower court shall transmit to this court as the transcript of the record only the portions of the record covered by such designations.

The parties or their counsel may by written stipulation filed with the clerk of the lower court indicate the portions of the record to be included in the transcript, and the clerk shall then transmit only the parts designated in such stipulation.

In all cases the clerk shall include in the transcript all papers filed under authority of Rule 12.

If this court shall find that any portion of the record unnecessary to a proper presentation of the case has been incorporated into the transcript at the instance of either party, the whole or any part of the cost of printing and the clerk's fee for supervising the printing may be ordered to be paid by the offending party.

(3) No case will be heard until a record, containing in itself, and not by reference, all the papers, exhibits, depositions, and other proceedings which are necessary to the hearing, shall be filed.

(4) Whenever it shall be necessary or proper, in the opinion of the presiding judge in the court from which the appeal is taken that original papers of any kind should be inspected in this court, such presiding judge may make such rule or order for the safekeeping, transporting, and return of such original papers as to him may seem proper, and this court will receive and consider such original papers along with the usual transcript.

(5) The record in cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, when under the requirements of law the facts have been found in the court below, and the power of review is limited to the determination of questions of law arising on the record, shall be confined to the pleadings, findings of fact and conclusions of law thereon, opinions of the court, final judgment or decree, and such interlocutory orders and decrees as may be necessary to a proper determination of such questions.

11. DOCKETING CASES. (1) It shall be the duty of the appellant to docket the case and file the record thereof with the clerk of this court by or before the return day, whether in vacation or in term time. But, for good cause shown, the justice or judge who signed the citation, or any justice of this court, may enlarge the time, before its expiration, the order of enlargement to be filed with the clerk of this court. If the appellant shall fail to comply with this rule, the appellee may have the cause docketed and the appeal dismissed upon producing a certificate, whether in term or vacation, from the clerk of the court wherein the judgment or decree was rendered, stating the case and certifying that such appeal has been duly allowed. And in no case shall the appellant be entitled to docket the cause and file the record after the appeal shall have been dismissed under this rule, unless by special leave of the court.

(2) But the appellee may, at his option, docket the case and file a copy of the record with the clerk of this court; and if the case is docketed and a copy of the record filed by the appellant within the period of time prescribed by this rule, or by the appellee within forty days thereafter, the case shall stand for argument.

(3) Upon the filing of the record brought up by appeal, the appearance of the counsel for the party docketing the case shall be entered.

12. JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENTS. (1) Upon the presentation of a petition for the allowance of an appeal to this court, from any court, to any judge or justice empowered by law to allow it, there shall be presented by the applicant a separate typewritten statement particularly disclosing the basis upon which it is contended that this court has jurisdiction upon appeal to review the judgment or decree in question. The statement shall refer distinctly (a) to the statutory provision believed to sustain the jurisdiction, (b) to the statute of the state, or statute or treaty of the United States, the validity of which is involved (giving the volume and page where the statute or treaty may be found in the official edition), setting it out verbatim or appropriately summarizing its pertinent provisions; and (c) to the date of judgment or decree sought to be reviewed and the date upon which the application for appeal is presented.

The statement shall show that the nature of the case and of the rulings of the court was such as to bring the case within the jurisdictional provisions relied on and shall cite the cases believed to sustain the jurisdiction. It shall also include a statement of the grounds upon which it is contended that the questions involved are substantial.

If the appeal is from a state court, the statements shall, in addition, specify the stage in the proceedings in the court of first instance and in the appellate court, at which, and the manner in which, the federal questions sought to be reviewed were raised; the method of raising them (e. g., by a pleading, by request to charge and exceptions, by assignment of error); and the way in which they were passed upon by the court; with such pertinent quotations of specific portions of the record, or summary thereof, with specific reference to the places in the record where the matter appears, (e. g., ruling on exception, portion of the court's charge and exception thereto, assignment of error) as will support the assertion that the rulings of the court were of a nature to bring the case within the statutory provision believed to confer jurisdiction on this court. The provisions of this paragraph, with appropriate record page references, must be complied with when review of a state court judgment is sought by petition for writ of certiorari.

The applicant shall append to the statement a copy of any opinions delivered upon the rendering of the judgment or decree sought to be reviewed, including earlier opinions in the same case, or opinions in companion cases, reference to which may be necessary to ascertain the grounds of the judgment or decree.

If the appeal is from an interlocutory decree of a specially constituted district court of the United States, the statement must also include a showing of the matters in which it is claimed that the court has abused its discretion in granting or denying the interlocutory injunction. (Alabama v. United States, 279 U. S. 229.) (As amended April 6, 1942.)

(2) If the appeal is allowed, the appellant shall serve upon the appellee within 5 days after such allowance (a) a copy of the petition for and order allowing the appeal, together with a copy of the assignments of error and of the statement required by paragraph 1 of this rule, and (b) a statement directing attention to the provisions of paragraph 3 of this rule. Proof of service of the papers required by this paragraph to be served shall be filed forthwith with the clerk of the court possessed of the record, and shall be incorporated by him in the transcript of record prepared for this court upon the appeal.

(3) Within 15 days after such service the appellee may file with the clerk of the court possessed of the record, and serve upon the appellant, a typewritten statement disclosing any matter or ground making against the jurisdiction of this court asserted by the appellant. There may be included in, or filed with, such opposing statement, a motion by appellee to dismiss or affirm. Where such a motion is made, it may be opposed as provided in Rule 7, paragraph 3.

(4) The clerk of the court possessed of the record shall include the statements and motions, required and permitted to be filed under the provisions of this rule, in the transcript of record prepared for the use of this court on the appeal, anything in the praecipes or stipulations of the parties (Rule 10, par. 2) to the contrary notwithstanding.

(5) After the case shall have been docketed in this court by the appellant, and the transcript of record filed (Rule 11, par. 1), the clerk of this court shall forthwith print the appellant's statement required by paragraph 1 of this rule and the opposing statement, and motions, if any, permitted by paragraph 3 of this rule, and the clerk shall thereupon distribute such printed papers to the court for its consideration.

At the time of docketing the case the appellant shall make such cash deposit with the clerk, in addition to such deposit as may be required under Rule 13, paragraph 1, as shall be necessary to defray the cost of printing 40 copies of his statement filed pursuant to paragraph 1 of this rule; and the appellee, upon demand, shall forthwith deposit with the clerk a sum sufficient to cover the cost of printing 40 copies of any statement or motions filed under paragraph 3 of this rule.

(6) If either appellant or appellee fails to comply with the provisions of this rule, the clerk of this court shall report such failure to the court immediately so that this court may take such action as it deems proper.

13. PRINTING RECORDS; DESIGNATION OF POINTS INTENDED TO BE RELIED UPON AND OF PARTS OF RECORD TO BE PRINTED. (1) In all cases the appellant, on docketing a case and filing the record, shall make such cash deposit with the clerk for the payment of his fees as he may require, or otherwise satisfy him in that behalf.

(2) Immediately after the designation of the parts of the record to be printed or the expiration of the time allotted therefor (see par. 9 of this rule), the clerk shall make an estimate of the cost of printing the record, his fee for preparing it for the printer and supervising the printing, and other probable fees, and shall furnish the same to the party docketing the case. If such estimated sum be not paid on or before a date designated by the clerk of this court in each case, it shall be the duty of the clerk to report that fact to the court, whereupon the cause will be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary is shown.

(3) Upon payment of the amount estimated by the clerk, thirty copies of the record shall be printed, under his supervision, for the use of the court and of counsel.

(4) In cases of appellate jurisdiction the original transcript on file shall be delivered by the clerk to the printer. But the clerk shall cause copies to be made for the printer of such original papers, sent up under Rule 10, paragraph 4, as are necessary to be printed; and of the whole record in cases of original jurisdiction.

(5) The clerk shall supervise the printing, and see that the printed copy is properly indexed. He shall distribute the printed copies to the justices and the reporter, from time to time, as required, and a copy to the counsel for the respective parties. He shall also deposit in the law library of Congress to be there carefully preserved, one copy of the printed record in every case submitted to the court for its consideration, and of all printed motions and briefs therein.

(6) If the actual cost of printing the record, together with the fees of the clerk, shall be less than the amount estimated and paid, the difference shall be refunded by the clerk to the party paying it. If the actual cost and clerk's fees shall exceed the estimate, the excess shall be paid to the clerk within forty days after notice thereof, and if it be not paid the matter shall be dealt with as if it were a default under paragraph 2 of this rule, as well as by rendering a judgment against the defaulting party for such excess.

(7) In case of reversal, affirmance, or dismissal, with costs, the cost of printing the record and the clerk's fees shall be taxed against the party against whom costs are given, and shall be inserted in the body of the mandate or other process.

(8) Upon the clerk's producing satisfactory evidence, by affidavit or the acknowledgment of a party or his surety, of having served on such party or surety a copy of the bill of fees due by him in this court, and showing that payment has not been made, an attachment shall issue against such party or surety to compel payment of such fees.

(9) When the record is filed, or within fifteen days thereafter, the appellant shall file with the clerk a definite statement of the points on which he intends to rely and a designation of the parts of the record which he thinks necessary for the consideration thereof or a designation of those parts considered unnecessary, whichever is more convenient, with proof of service of the same on the adverse party. The adverse party, within ten days after service of the statement and designation required to be filed by appellant may designate in writing, filed with the clerk, additional parts of the record which he thinks material; and, if he shall not do so, he shall be held to have consented to a hearing on the parts designated by the appellant. The parts of the record so designated by one or both of the parties, and only those parts, shall be printed by the clerk. The statement of points intended to be relied upon and the designations of the parts of the record to be printed shall be printed by the clerk with the record. He shall, however, omit all duplication, all repetition of titles and all other obviously unimportant matter, and make proper note thereof. The court will consider nothing but the points of law so stated. If at the hearing it shall appear that any material part of the record has not been printed, the appeal may be dismissed or such other order made as the circumstances may appear to the court to require. If either party shall have caused unnecessary parts of the record to be printed, such order as to costs may be made as the court shall think proper.

The fees of the clerk under Rule 32, paragraph 7, shall be computed on the folios in the record as printed, and shall be in full for the performance of his duties in that regard. (As amended April 24, 1950.)

14. TRANSLATIONS. Whenever any record transmitted to this court upon appeal shall contain any document, paper, testimony, or other proceedings in a foreign language, without a translation of such document, paper, testimony, or other proceedings, made under the authority of the lower court, or admitted to be correct, the case shall be reported by the clerk, to the end that this court may order that a translation be supplied and printed with the record.

15. FURTHER PROOF. (1) In all cases where further proof is ordered by this court, the depositions which may be taken shall be by a commission, to be issued from this court, or from any district court of the United States.

(2) In all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, where new evidence shall be admissible in this court, the evidence by testimony of witnesses shall be taken under a commission to be issued from this court, or from any district court of the United States, under the direction of any judge thereof; and no such commission shall issue but upon interrogatories, to be filed by the party applying for the commission, and notice to the opposite party or his agent or attorney, accompanied with a copy of the interrogatories so filed, requiring him to file cross-interrogatories within twenty days from the service of such notice.

16. OBJECTIONS TO EVIDENCE IN RECORD. In all cases of equity or admiralty jurisdiction, heard in this court, no objection to the admissibility of any deposition, deed, grant, or other exhibit found in the record as evidence shall be entertained, unless such objection was taken in the court below and entered of record. Where objection was not so taken the evidence shall be deemed to have been admitted by consent.

17. CERTIORARI TO CORRECT DIMINUTION OF RECORD. No certiorari to correct diminution of the record will be awarded in any case, unless a printed motion therefor shall be made, and the facts on which the same is founded shall be shown, if not admitted by the other party, by affidavit. All such motions must be made not later than the first motion day after the expiration of sixty days from the printing of the record, unless for special cause shown the court receives the motion at a later time.

18. MODELS, DIAGRAMS, AND EXHIBITS OF MATERIAL. (1) Models, diagrams, and exhibits of material forming part of the evidence taken in a case, and brought up to this court for its inspection, shall be placed in the custody of the marshal at least one week before the case is heard or submitted.

(2) All such models, diagrams, and exhibits of material, placed in the custody of the marshal must be taken away by the parties within forty days after the case is decided. When this is not done, it shall be the duty of the marshal to notify counsel to remove the articles forthwith; and if they are not removed within a reasonable time after such notice, the marshal shall destroy them, or make such other disposition of them as to him may seem best.

19. DEATH OF PARTY; REVIVOR; SUBSTITUTION. (1) Whenever, pending an appeal or writ of certiorari in this court, either party shall die, the proper representative in the personalty or realty of the deceased, according to the nature of the case, may voluntarily come in and be admitted as a party to the suit, and thereupon the case shall be heard and determined as in other cases; and if such representative shall not voluntarily become a party, the other party may suggest the death on the record, and on motion obtain an order that, unless such representative shall become a party within a designated time, the party moving for such order, if appellee or respondent, shall be entitled to have the appeal or writ of certiorari dismissed; and if the party so moving be appellant or petitioner he shall be entitled to open the record, and on hearing have the judgment or decree reversed, if it be erroneous: Provided, That a copy of every such order shall be printed in some newspaper of general circulation within the State, Territory, District or Insular Possession, in which the case originated, for three successive weeks, at least sixty days before the expiration of the time designated for the representative of the deceased party to appear.

(2) When the death of a party is suggested, and the representative of the deceased does not appear by the second day of the term next succeeding the suggestion, and no measures are taken by the opposite party within that time to compel their [his] appearance, the case shall abate.

(3) When either party to a suit in a court of the United States shall desire to prosecute an appeal or writ of certiorari to this court from any final judgment or decree, rendered in that court, and at the time of applying for such appeal or writ of certiorari the other party to the suit shall be dead and have no proper representative within the jurisdiction of that court, so that the suit can not be revived in that court, but shall have a proper representative in some State, Territory or District of the United States, the party desiring such appeal or writ of certiorari may procure the same, if otherwise entitled thereto, and may have proceedings on such judgment or decree superseded or stayed in the manner allowed by law and shall thereupon proceed with such appeal or writ of certiorari as in other cases. And within thirty days after the time when such appeal or writ of certiorari is returnable, or if the court be not then in session within ten days after it next convenes, the appellant or petitioner shall make a suggestion to the court, supported by affidavit, that such party was dead when the appeal or writ of certiorari was allowed, and had no proper representative within the jurisdiction of the court which rendered such judgment or decree, so that the suit could not be revived in that court, and that such deceased party had a proper representative in some State, Territory, or District of the United States—giving the name and character of such representative, and his place of residence; and, upon such suggestion and a motion therefor, an order may be obtained that, unless such representative shall make himself a party within a designated time the appellant or petitioner shall be entitled to open the record, and, on hearing have the judgment or decree reversed, if the same be erroneous: Provided, That a proper citation reciting the substance of such order shall be served upon such representative, either personally or by being left at his residence, at least sixty days before the expiration of the time designated: And provided, also, That in every such case if the representative of the deceased party does not appear by the second day of the term next succeeding said suggestion, and the measures above provided to compel his appearance have not been taken as above required, by the opposite party, the case shall abate: And provided, also, That the representative may at any time before or after the suggestion, but before such abatement, come in and be made a party and thereupon the case shall be heard and determined as in other cases.

(4) Where a public officer, by or against whom a suit is brought, dies or ceases to hold the office while a suit is pending in a federal court, either of first instance or appellate, the matter of abatement and substitution is covered by section 11 of the Act of February 13, 1925 [Title 28, s. 780]. Under that section a substitution of the successor in office may be effected only where a satisfactory showing is made within six months after the death or separation from office. (a) When the court is in vacation the motion papers may be filed with the clerk but must be presented to the court promptly after it reconvenes.

20. CALL AND ORDER OF THE DOCKET; MOTIONS TO ADVANCE. (1) Unless it otherwise orders, the court, on the second Monday of each term, will commence calling the cases for argument in the order in which they stand on the docket, and proceed from day to day during the term in the same order (except as hereinafter provided); and if the parties, or either of them, shall be ready when the case is called, the same will be heard; and if neither party shall be ready to proceed with the argument, the case shall be continued to the next term or otherwise dealt with as provided in these rules.

(2) Ten cases only shall be subject to call on each day during the term. But on the coming in of the court on each day the entire number of such ten cases will be called, with a view to the disposition of such of them as are not to be argued.

(3) All motions to advance cases must be printed, and must contain a brief statement of the matter involved, with the reasons supporting the motion.

(4) Criminal cases may be advanced by leave of the court on motion of either party.

(5) Cases once adjudicated by this court upon the merits, and again brought up, may be advanced by leave of the court.

(6) Revenue and other cases in which the United States is concerned, which also involve or affect some matter of general public interest, or which may be entitled to precedence under the provisions of any act of Congress, may be advanced by leave of the court on motion of the Attorney General.

(7) Other cases may be advanced for special cause shown. When a case is advanced, under this or any other paragraph, it will be subject to hearing with any other case subsequently advanced and involving a like question, as if they were one case.

(8) Two or more cases, involving the same question, may, by order of the court, be heard together, and argued as one case or on such terms as may be prescribed.

(9) If, after a case has been continued under paragraph 1 of this rule, both parties desire to have it heard at the term of the continuance, they may file with the clerk their joint request to that effect accompanied by their affidavits or those of their counsel giving the reasons why they failed to present their argument when the case was called and why it should be reinstated. Such a request will be granted only when it appears to the court that there was good reason for the previous failure to proceed and that the request can be granted without prejudice to parties in other cases coming on regularly for hearing.

(10) No stipulation to pass a case will be recognized as binding upon the court. A case can only be so passed upon application made and leave granted in open court.

(11) Cases on the summary docket will be heard specially as provided in paragraph 5 of Rule 7.

21. NO APPEARANCE OF APPELLANT OR PETITIONER. Where no counsel appears and no brief has been filed for the appellant or petitioner when the case is called for hearing, the adverse party may have the appellant or petitioner called and the appeal or writ of certiorari dismissed, or may open the record and pray for an affirmance.

22. NO APPEARANCE OF APPELLEE OR RESPONDENT. Where the appellee or respondent fails to appear when the case is called for hearing, the court may hear argument on behalf of the party appearing and give judgment according to the right of the case.

23. NO APPEARANCE OF EITHER PARTY. When a case is reached in the regular call, and there is no brief or appearance for either party, the case shall be dismissed at the cost of the appellant or petitioner.

24. NEITHER PARTY READY AT SECOND TERM. When a case is called for argument at two successive terms, and upon the call at the second term neither party is prepared to argue it, it shall be dismissed at the cost of the appellant or petitioner, unless strong cause is shown for further postponement.

25. SUBMISSION ON BRIEFS BY ONE OR BOTH PARTIES WITHOUT ORAL ARGUMENT.

(1) Any case may be submitted on printed briefs regardless of its place on the docket, if the counsel on both sides choose to submit the same in that manner, before the first Monday in May of any term. After that date cases may be submitted on briefs alone only as they are reached on the regular call.

(2) When a case is reached on the regular call, if a printed brief has been filed for only one of the parties and no counsel appears to present oral argument for either party, the case will be regarded as submitted on that brief.

(3) When a case is reached on the regular call and argued orally in behalf of only one of the parties, no brief for the opposite party will be received after the oral argument begins, except as provided in the next paragraph of this rule.

(4) No brief will be received through the clerk or otherwise after a case has been argued or submitted, except upon special leave granted in open court after notice to opposing counsel.

26. FORM OF PRINTED RECORDS, PETITIONS, BRIEFS, ETC. All records, petitions, motions and briefs, printed for the use of the court must be in such form and size that they can be conveniently bound together, so as to make an ordinary octavo volume, having pages 6½ by 9¼ inches and type matter 4¼ by 7¼ inches, except that records in patent cases may be printed in such size as is necessary to utilize copies of patent documents. They and all quotations contained therein, and the matter appearing on the covers, must be printed in clear type (never smaller than small pica or 11-point type) adequately leaded; and the paper must be opaque and unglazed. The clerk shall refuse to receive any petition, motion or brief which has been printed otherwise than in substantial conformity to this rule.

27. BRIEFS. (1) The counsel for appellant or petitioner shall file with the clerk, at least three weeks before the case is called for hearing, forty copies of a printed brief.

(2) This brief shall be printed as prescribed in Rule 26 and shall contain in the order here indicated—

(a) A subject index of the matter in the brief, with page references, and a table of the cases (alphabetically arranged), text books and statutes cited, with references to the pages where they are cited.

(b) A reference to the official report of the opinions delivered in the courts below, if there were such and they have been reported.

(c) A concise statement of the grounds on which the jurisdiction of this court is invoked.

(d) A concise statement of the case containing all that is material to the consideration of the questions presented, with appropriate page references to the printed record, e.g., (R. 12).

(e) A specification of such of the assigned errors as are intended to be urged. (See Rule 38, par. 2.)

(f) The argument (preferably preceded by a summary) exhibiting clearly the points of fact and of law being presented, citing the authorities and statutes relied upon, and quoting the relevant parts of such statutes, federal and state, as are deemed to have an important bearing. If the statutes are long they should be set out in an appendix.

(3) Whenever, in the brief of any party, a reference is made to the record, it must be accompanied by the record page number. When the reference is to a part of the evidence, the page citation must be specific and if the reference is to an exhibit both the page number at which the exhibit appears and at which it was offered in evidence must be indicated.

(4) The counsel for an appellee or respondent shall file with the clerk forty printed copies of his brief, at least one week before the case is called for hearing—such brief to be of like character with that required of the other party, except that no specification of errors need be given, and that no statement of the case need be made beyond what may be deemed necessary in correcting any inaccuracy or omission in the statement of the other side.

(5) Reply briefs will be received up to the time the case is called for hearing.

(6) When there is no assignment of errors, counsel will not be heard, except at the request of the court; and errors not specified according to this rule will be disregarded, save as the court, at its option, may notice a plain error not assigned or specified.

(7) When, under this rule, an appellant or petitioner is in default, the court may dismiss the cause; and when an appellee or respondent is in default, the court may decline to hear oral argument in his behalf.

(8) No brief, required by this rule, shall be filed by the clerk unless the same shall be accompanied by satisfactory proof of service upon counsel for the adverse party.

(9) (a) Brief of an amicus curiae in cases before the Court on the merits. A brief of an amicus curiae may be filed (only after order of the Court or) when accompanied by written consent of all parties to the case and presented promptly after announcement postponing or noting probable jurisdiction on appeal, granting certiorari, or pertinent action in a case upon the original docket.

(b) Brief of an amicus curiae prior to consideration of jurisdictional statement or a petition for writ of certiorari. A brief of an amicus curiae filed with consent of the parties, or motion, independent of the brief, for leave to file when consent is refused may be filed only if submitted a reasonable time prior to the consideration of a jurisdictional statement or a petition for writ of certiorari. Such motions are not favored. Distribution to the Court under the applicable rules of a jurisdictional statement or a petition for writ of certiorari and its consideration thereof will not be delayed pending the receipt of such brief or the filing of such motion.

(c) Motion for leave to file. When consent to the filing of a brief of an amicus curiae is refused by a party to the case, a motion, independent of the brief, for leave to file may timely be presented to the Court. It shall concisely state the nature of the applicant's interest, set forth facts or questions of law that have not been, or reasons for believing that they will not adequately be, presented by the parties, and their relevancy to the disposition of the case. A party served with such motion may seasonably file in this Court an objection concisely stating the reasons for withholding consent.

(d) Consent not required. Consent to the filing of a brief of an amicus curiae need not be had when the brief is presented for the United States sponsored by the Solicitor General; for any agency of the United States authorized by law to appear in its own behalf, sponsored by its appropriate legal representative; for a State sponsored by its Attorney General; or for a political subdivision of a State sponsored by the authorized law officer thereof.

(e) Signature of a member of the bar of this Court and proof of service required. All briefs and/or motions filed under this Rule shall bear the signature of a member of the Bar of this Court, and shall be accompanied by proof of service on all parties to the case. (As amended Nov. 14, 1949.)

28. ORAL ARGUMENT. (1) The appellant or petitioner shall be entitled to open and conclude the argument. But when there are cross-appeals or cross-writs of certiorari they shall be argued together as one case, and the plaintiff in the court below shall be entitled to open and conclude the argument.

(2) When no oral argument is made for one of the parties, only one counsel will be heard for the adverse party.

(3) Two counsel, and no more, will be heard for each party, save that in cases on the summary docket (see Rule 7, paragraph 5) only one counsel will be heard on the same side.

(4) In cases on the regular docket (except where questions have been certified) one hour on each side, and no more, will be allowed for the argument, unless more time be granted before the argument begins. The time allowed may be apportioned between counsel on the same side, at their discretion; but a fair opening of the case shall be made by the party having the opening and closing.

(5) In cases where questions have been certified to this court three-quarters of an hour shall be allowed to each side for oral argument.

(6) In cases on the summary docket one-half hour on each side, and no more, will be allowed for the argument.

29. OPINIONS OF THE COURT. (1) All opinions of the court shall be handed to the clerk immediately upon the delivery thereof. He shall cause the same to be printed and shall deliver a copy to the reporter.

(2) The original opinions shall be filed by the clerk for preservation.

(3) Opinions printed under the supervision of the justices delivering the same need not be copied by the clerk into a book of records; but at the end of each term he shall cause them to be bound in a substantial manner, and when so bound they shall be deemed to have been recorded.

30. INTEREST AND DAMAGES. (1) Where judgments for the payment of money are affirmed, and interest is properly allowable, it shall be calculated from the date of the judgment below until the same is paid, at the same rate that similar judgments bear interest in the courts of the state where such judgment was rendered.

(2) In all cases where an appeal delays proceedings on the judgment of the lower court, and appears to have been sued out merely for delay, damages at a rate not exceeding 10 per cent, in addition to interest, may be awarded upon the amount of the judgment.

(3) Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this rule shall be applicable to decrees for the payment of money in cases in equity, unless otherwise specially ordered by this court.

(4) In cases in admiralty, damages and interest may be allowed only if specially directed by the court.

31. PROCEDENDO TO ISSUE ON DISMISSAL. In all cases of the dismissal of any appeal or writ of certiorari in this court, the clerk shall issue a mandate, or other proper process, in the nature of a procedendo, to the court below, so that further proceedings may be had in such court as to law and justice may appertain.

32. COSTS. (1) In all cases where any appeal or writ of certiorari shall be dismissed in this court, costs shall be allowed to the appellee or respondent unless otherwise agreed by the parties, except where the dismissal shall be for want of jurisdiction, when only the costs incident to the motion to dismiss shall be allowed.

(2) In all cases of affirmance of any judgment or decree by this court, costs shall be allowed to the appellant or respondent unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(3) In cases of reversal of any judgment or decree by this court, costs shall be allowed to the appellant or petitioner, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The cost of the transcript of the record from the court below shall be a part of such costs, and be taxable in that court as costs in the case.

(4) In cases where questions have been certified costs shall be equally divided unless otherwise ordered by the court, but where the entire record has been sent up (Rule 37, par. 2), and a decision is rendered on the whole matter in controversy, costs shall be allowed as provided in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this rule.

(5) No costs shall be allowed in this court either for or against the United States or an officer or agency thereof, except where specially authorized by statute and directed by the court.

(6) When costs are allowed in this court, it shall be the duty of the clerk to insert the amount thereof in the body of the mandate, or other proper process, sent to the court below, and annex to the same the bill of items taxed in detail.

(7) In pursuance of Section 1911 of Title 28 of the United States Code, F. C. A. 28, Section 1911, the fees to be charged by the Clerk of this Court are fixed as follows:

(a) For docketing a case on appeal or petition for writ of certiorari or docketing any other proceeding, $100.00, to be increased to $150.00 in a case on appeal or writ of certiorari when oral argument is permitted.

(b) For preparing the record for the printer, indexing the same, supervising the printing and distributing the printed copies to the justices, the reporter, the library, and the parties or their counsel, 20 cents per folio of each 100 words; but where the necessary printed copies of the record as printed for the use of the court below are furnished, charges under this item will be limited to any additions printed here under the clerk's supervision, plus a handling charge of $25.00 in cases in which oral argument is permitted.

(c) For preparing, on filing, for the printer, petitions for writs of certiorari, briefs, jurisdictional statements, or motions when required by the Rules, or at the request of counsel, when, in the opinion of the clerk, circumstances require, indexing the same, changing record references to conform to the pagination of the printed record, and supervising the printing, 20 cents per folio of each 100 words. Neither the expense of printing nor the clerk's supervising fee shall be allowed as costs in the case.

(d) For making a copy (except a photographic reproduction) of any record or paper, and comparison thereof, 40 cents per page of 250 words or fraction thereof; for comparing for certification a copy (except a photographic reproduction) of any record or paper when such copy is furnished by the person requesting its certification, 10 cents for each page of 250 words or fraction thereof.

For comparing with the original thereof any photographic reproduction of any record or paper, when furnished by the person requesting its certification, 5 cents for each page.

(e) For a certificate and seal, $3.00.

(f) For an admission to the Bar and certificate under seal, $25.00.

(g) For a duplicate certificate of an admission to the Bar under seal, $10.00. (As amended April 24, 1950, eff. May 1, 1950.)

33. REHEARING. 1. Of judgments or decisions other than those denying or granting certiorari. A petition for rehearing may be filed with the clerk, in term time or in vacation, when accompanied by proof of service on the adverse party, within fifteen days after judgment or decision, unless the time is shortened or enlarged by the court, or a justice thereof. Such petition must be printed and forty copies thereof furnished. It must briefly and distinctly state its grounds, and be supported by a certificate of counsel to the effect that it is presented in good faith and not for delay. A petition for rehearing is not subject to oral argument, and will not be granted, unless a justice who concurred in the judgment or decision desires it, and a majority of the court so determines.

(a) A response, if printed and forty copies thereof furnished, accompanied by proof of service, may be filed with the clerk within ten days after service of petition, unless the time is shortened or enlarged by the court, or a justice thereof. Such response is not required, and the court will not delay its action upon a petition for rehearing to await a response thereto, unless a response is requested by the court.

2. Of orders on petitions for writs of certiorari. A petition for rehearing may be filed with the clerk in term time or in vacation, subject to the requirements respecting time, service, printing and number of copies furnished as provided in paragraph 1 of this rule. Any petition filed under this paragraph must briefly and distinctly state grounds which are confined to intervening circumstances of substantial or controlling effect or to other substantial grounds available to petitioner although not previously presented. Such petition is not subject to oral argument. A petition for rehearing filed under this paragraph must be supported by a certificate of counsel to the effect that it is presented in good faith and not for delay, and counsel must also certify that the petition is restricted to the grounds above specified.

(a) A response, if printed and forty copies thereof furnished, accompanied by proof of service, may be filed with the clerk within ten days after service of petition, unless the time is shortened or enlarged by the court, or a justice thereof. (As amended Oct. 13, 1947.)

34. MANDATES. Mandates shall issue as of course after the expiration of twenty-five days from the day the judgment is entered, irrespective of the filing of a petition for rehearing, unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order of the court, or of a justice thereof when the court is not in session. (See Rules 31 and 35.)

No mandate issues upon the denial of a petition for writ of certiorari. Whenever application for a writ of certiorari to review a decision of any court is denied, the clerk shall enter an order to that effect, and shall forthwith notify the court below and counsel of record.

35. DISMISSING CASES IN VACATION. Whenever the appellant and appellee in an appeal, or the petitioner and respondent in a petition for or writ of certiorari, shall in vacation, by their attorneys of record, file with the clerk an agreement in writing that such appeal, petition for or writ of certiorari shall be dismissed, specifying the terms as respects costs, and shall pay to the clerk any fees that may be due to him, it shall be the duty of the clerk to enter such dismissal and to give to either party requesting it a copy of the agreement filed; but no mandate or other process shall issue on such dismissal without an order of the court. (See Rules 31 and 34.)

36. APPEALS; BY WHOM ALLOWED; SUPERSEDEAS. 1. An appeal will be out of time unless, within the period fixed by statute, application for allowance is presented to the judge or justice who allows it. A prior timely application to another judge or justice does not extend the statutory period. In cases where an appeal may be had from a district court to this court the same may be allowed, in term time or in vacation, by any judge of the district court, including a circuit judge assigned thereto, or by a justice of this court. In cases where an appeal may be had from a circuit court of appeals to this court the same may be allowed, in term time or in vacation by any judge of the circuit court of appeals or by a justice of this court. In cases where an appeal may be had from a state court of last resort to this court the same may be allowed in term time or in vacation by the chief justice or presiding judge of the state court or by a justice of this court. The judge or justice allowing the appeal shall take the proper security for costs and sign the requisite citation and he may also, on taking the requisite security therefor, grant a supersedeas and stay of execution or of other proceedings under the judgment or decree, pending such appeal.

See Revised Statutes, Sections 1000 and 1007 [28:869, 874] paragraph 1 of Rule 10, paragraph 2 of Rule 46, and Rule 62 (c) of the Rules of Civil Procedure. For stay pending application for review on writ of certiorari see Rule 38, paragraph 6.

(2) Supersedeas bonds must be taken, with good and sufficient security, that the appellant shall prosecute his appeal to effect, and answer all damages and costs if he fail to make his plea good. Such indemnity, where the judgment or decree is for the recovery of money not otherwise secured, must be for the whole amount of the judgment or decree, including just damages for delay, and costs and interest on the appeal; but in all suits where the property in controversy necessarily follows the event of the suit, as in real actions, replevin, and suits on mortgages, or where the property is in the custody of the marshal under admiralty process, as in case of capture or seizure, or where the proceeds thereof, or a bond for the value thereof, is in the custody or control of the court, indemnity is only required in an amount sufficient to secure the sum recovered for the use and detention of the property, and the costs of the suit, and just damages for delay, and costs and interest on the appeal. (As amended Oct. 21, 1940; June 7, 1943.)

37. QUESTIONS CERTIFIED BY A CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS OR THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. (1) Where a circuit court of appeals or the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia shall certify to this court a question or proposition of law, concerning which it desires instruction for the proper decision of a cause, the certificate shall contain a statement of the nature of the cause and of the facts on which such question or proposition of law arises. Questions of fact cannot be so certified. Only questions or propositions of law may be certified, and they must be distinct and definite.

(2) If in such a cause it appears that there is special reason therefor, this court may on application, or on its own motion, require that the entire record be sent up so that it may consider and decide the whole matter in controversy as upon appeal.

(3) Where application is made for direction that the entire record be sent up, the application must be accompanied by a certified copy thereof. (As amended May 25, 1936.)

38. REVIEW ON WRIT OF CERTIORARI OF DECISIONS OF STATE COURTS AND COURTS OF APPEALS.

(1) A petition for review on writ of certiorari of a decision of a state court of last resort, a circuit court of appeals, or the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, shall be accompanied by a certified transcript of the record in the case, including the proceedings in the court to which the writ is asked to be directed. For printing record see paragraph 7 of this rule.

(2) The petition shall contain a summary and short statement of the matter involved; a statement particularly disclosing the basis upon which it is contended that this court has jurisdiction to review the judgment or decree in question (see Rule 12, par. 1); the questions presented; and the reasons relied on for the allowance of the writ. Only the questions specifically brought forward by the petition for writ of certiorari will be considered. A supporting brief may be annexed to the petition or presented separately, but it must be direct and concise. (See Rules 26 and 27.) A failure to comply with these requirements will be a sufficient reason for denying the petition. See United States v. Rimer, 220 U. S. 547; Furness, Withy & Co. v. Yang Tsze Insurance Assn., 242 U. S. 430; Houston Oil Co. v. Goodrich, 245 U. S. 440; Layne & Bowler Corporation v. Western Well Works, 261 U. S. 387, 392; Magnum Import Co. v. Coty, 262 U. S. 159, 163; Southern Power Co. v. North Carolina Public Service Co., 263 U. S. 508. Forty printed copies of the petition and supporting briefs shall be filed.

The petition will be deemed in time when it, the record, and the supporting brief, are filed with the clerk within the period prescribed by section 8 of the Act of February 13, 1925, except that in cases of petition to this court for writ of certiorari to review a judgment of a circuit court of appeals or of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia in criminal cases within the provisions of the Act of March 8, 1934, the petition shall be made within the period prescribed pursuant to said Act in Rule XI of the Rules of Practice and Procedure, promulgated May 7, 1934 (292 U. S. 661, 666).

(3) Notice of the filing of the petition, together with a copy of the petition, printed record, and supporting brief shall be served by the petitioner on counsel for the respondent within ten days after the filing (unless enlarged by the court or a justice thereof), and due proof of service shall be filed with the clerk. If the United States, or an officer or agency thereof, is respondent, the service of the petition, record, and brief shall be made on the Solicitor General at Washington, D. C. Counsel for the respondent shall have thirty days (unless enlarged by the court or a justice thereof), after notice, within which to file forty printed copies of an opposing brief, conforming to Rules 26 and 27. The brief must bear the name of a member of the bar of this court at the time of filing.

(4) Upon the expiration of the period for filing the respondent's brief, or upon an express waiver of the right to file or the actual filing of such brief in a shorter time, the petition, record and briefs shall be distributed by the clerk to the court for its consideration.

(a) Timely reply briefs will be considered but distribution under this rule shall not be delayed pending the filing of such briefs.

(5) A review on writ of certiorari is not a matter of right, but of sound judicial discretion, and will be granted only where there are special and important reasons therefor. The following, while neither controlling nor fully measuring the court's discretion, indicate the character of reasons which will be considered:

(a) Where a state court has decided a federal question of substance not theretofore determined by this court, or has decided it in a way probably not in accord with applicable decisions of this court.

(b) Where a circuit court of appeals has rendered a decision in conflict with the decision of another circuit court of appeals on the same matter; or has decided an important question of local law in a way probably in conflict with applicable local decisions; or has decided an important question of federal law which has not been, but should be, settled by this court; or has decided a federal question in a way probably in conflict with applicable decisions of this court; or has so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or so far sanctioned such a departure by a lower court, as to call for an exercise of this court's power of supervision. (As amended May 31, 1938.)

(c) Where the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia has decided a question of general importance or a question of substance relating to the construction or application of the Constitution, or a treaty or statute, of the United States, which has not been, but should be, settled by this court; or where that court has not given proper effect to an applicable decision of this court.

(6) Section 8 (d) of the Act of February 13, 1925, prescribes the mode of obtaining a stay of the execution and enforcement of a judgment or decree pending an application for review on writ of certiorari. The stay may be granted by a judge of the court rendering the judgment or decree, or by a justice of this court, and may be conditioned on the giving of security as in that section provided. (See Rule 36.)

(7) Upon receipt of the certified transcript of the record the clerk shall make an estimate of the cost of printing the record, his fee for preparing it for the printer and supervising the printing, and other probable fees, and shall furnish the same to the party docketing the case. Upon payment of the amount estimated by the clerk, forty copies of the record shall be printed, under his supervision, for the use of the court and of counsel. But where the record has been printed for the use of the court below and the necessary copies as so printed are furnished, it shall not be necessary to reprint it for this court, but only to print such additions as may be necessary to show the proceedings in that court and the opinions there. When the petition is presented it will suffice to furnish ten copies of the record as printed below together with the proceedings and opinion in that court; but if the petition is granted the requisite additional printed copies must be promptly supplied, and if not available the record must be reprinted under the supervision of the clerk.

(8) Where it is necessary to print the record for the use of this court counsel should stipulate to omit from the printed record all matter not essential to a consideration of the questions presented by the petition for the writ, and when it is shown that unnecessary parts of the record have been printed although a reasonable effort was made by one of the parties to secure the printing of a proper record, such order as to costs may be made as the court shall deem proper.

38½. STATE CRIMINAL CASES. TIME FOR TAKING APPEAL OR FILING PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI. An appeal taken, or petition for writ of certiorari filed, seeking review of a judgment of a state court of last resort in a criminal case, shall be taken or filed within the ninety days prescribed in 28 United States Code, section 2101(c). Approved June 25, 1948.

So far as applicable, the general considerations and provisions of Rules 36 and 38 will control in respect to an appeal taken or petition for writ of certiorari filed in a criminal case from a state court of last resort. (As added Nov. 15, 1948.)

39. CERTIORARI TO A CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS OR THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA BEFORE JUDGMENT. Proceedings to bring up to this court on writ of certiorari a case pending in a circuit court of appeals or the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, before judgment is given in such court, should conform, as near as may be, to the provisions of Rule 38; and similar reasons for granting or refusing the application will be applied. That the public interest will be promoted by prompt settlement in this court of the questions involved may constitute a sufficient reason.

40. QUESTIONS CERTIFIED BY THE COURT OF CLAIMS. Where the Court of Claims shall certify to this court a question of law, concerning which instructions are desired for the proper disposition of the case, the certificate shall contain a statement of the case and of the facts on which such question arises. Questions of fact cannot be certified. The certification must be confined to definite and distinct questions of law.

41. JUDGMENTS OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS—PETITIONS FOR REVIEW ON CERTIORARI. (1) A petition to this court for a writ of certiorari to review a judgment of the Court of Claims shall be accompanied by a certified transcript of the record in that court, consisting of the pleadings, findings of fact, conclusions of law, judgment and opinion of the court, and such other parts of the record as are material to the errors assigned. The petition shall contain a summary and short statement of the matter involved; the relevant parts of statutes involved (see Rule 27 (f)); the questions presented; and the reasons relied on for the allowance of the writ. Only the questions specifically brought forward by the petition for writ of certiorari will be considered. A supporting brief may be annexed to the petition or presented separately, but it must be direct and concise. (See Rules 26 and 27.) The petition, brief and record shall be filed with the clerk and forty copies shall be printed under his supervision. The record shall be printed in the same way and upon the same terms that records on appeal are required to be printed. The estimated costs of printing shall be paid within five days after the estimate is furnished by the clerk and if payment is not so made the petition may be summarily dismissed. When the petition, brief and record are printed the petitioner shall forthwith serve copies thereof on the respondent, or his counsel of record, and shall file with the clerk due proof thereof.

(2) Within thirty days after the petition, brief and record are served (unless enlarged by the court or a justice thereof) the respondent may file with the clerk forty printed copies of an opposing brief, conforming to Rules 26 and 27. Upon the expiration of that period, or upon an express waiver of the right to file or the actual filing of such brief in a shorter time, the petition, briefs and record, shall be distributed by the clerk to the court for its consideration. (See Rule 38, par. 4 (a).)

The provisions of subdivision (a) of paragraph 3 of Rule 38 shall apply to briefs in opposition to petitions for writs of certiorari to review judgments of the Court of Claims.

(3) The same general considerations will control in respect of petitions for writs of certiorari to review judgments of the Court of Claims as are applied to applications for such writs to other courts. (See par. 5 of Rule 38.) (As amended March 25, 1940; May 17, 1948.)

42. JUDGMENTS OF COURT OF CUSTOMS AND PATENT APPEALS OR OF SUPREME COURT OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF THE PHILIPPINES; PETITIONS FOR REVIEW ON CERTIORARI. Proceedings to bring up to this court on writ of certiorari a case from the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals or from the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of the Philippines should conform, as near as may be, to the provisions of Rule 38. The same general considerations which control when such writs to other courts are sought will be applied to them. (As amended May 25, 1936.)

43. ORDER GRANTING CERTIORARI. Whenever application for a writ of certiorari to review a decision of any court is granted, the clerk shall enter an order to that effect, and shall forthwith notify the court below and counsel of record of the granting of the application. The order shall direct that the certified transcript of record on file here be treated as though sent up in response to a formal writ. A formal writ shall not issue unless specially directed.

44. RULES, COSTS, FEES, AND INTEREST ON CERTIORARI. Where not otherwise specially provided, the rules relating to appeals, including those relating to costs, fees and interest, shall apply, as far as may be, to petitions for, and causes heard on, certiorari.

45. CUSTODY OF PRISONERS PENDING A REVIEW OF PROCEEDINGS IN HABEAS CORPUS. (1) Pending review of a decision refusing a writ of habeas corpus, the custody of the prisoner shall not be disturbed.

(2) Pending review of a decision discharging a writ of habeas corpus after it has been issued, the prisoner may be remanded to the custody from which he was taken by the writ, or detained in other appropriate custody, or enlarged upon recognizance with surety, as to the court or judge rendering the decision may appear fitting in the circumstances of the particular case.

(3) Pending review of a decision discharging a prisoner on habeas corpus, he shall be enlarged upon recognizance, with surety, for his appearance to answer and abide by the judgment in the appellate proceeding; and if in the opinion of the court or judge rendering the decision surety ought not to be required the personal recognizance of the prisoner shall suffice.

(4) The initial order respecting the custody or enlargement of the prisoner pending review, as also any recognizance taken, shall be deemed to cover not only the review in the intermediate appellate court but also the further possible review in this court; and only where special reasons therefor are shown to this court will it disturb that order, or make any independent order in that regard.

46. REVIEW ON APPEAL. (1) Appeals to this court from the district courts and the circuit courts of appeals are not affected by the Act of January 31, 1928, or the amendatory Act of April 26, 1928, both of which are copied in the appendix hereto. Such appeals, where admissible, must be sought, allowed and perfected as provided in other statutes and in the rules of this court. The Act of February 13, 1925, copied in the appendix hereto, shows when an appeal is admissible and when the mode of review is limited to certiorari.

(2) Under the Act of January 31, 1928, as amended by the Act of April 26, 1928 [Title 28, s. 861b], the review which theretofore could be had in this court on writ of error may now be obtained on an appeal. But the appeal thereby substituted for a writ of error must be sought, allowed and perfected in conformity with the statutes theretofore providing for a writ of error. The appeal can be allowed only on the presentation of a petition showing that the case is one in which, under the legislation in force when the Act of January 31, 1928, was passed, a review could be had in this court on writ of error. The petition must be accompanied by an assignment of error (see Rule 9) and statement as to jurisdiction (see Rule 12), and the judge or justice allowing the appeal must take proper security for costs and sign the requisite citation to the appellee. See paragraph 1 of Rule 10 and paragraph 1 of Rule 36. The citation must be served on the appellee or his counsel and filed, with proof of service, with the clerk of the court in which the judgment to be reviewed was entered. The mode of obtaining a supersedeas is pointed out in paragraph 2 of Rule 36. (As amended May 31, 1932, effective Sept. 1, 1932.)

47. APPEALS UNDER ACT OF AUGUST 24, 1937. Appeals to this court under the Act of August 24, 1937 [Title 28, ss. 349a, 380a], shall be governed, as far as may be, by the rules of this court regulating the procedure on appeal in other cases from courts of the United States; provided, however, that when an appeal is taken under s. 2 of the Act [Title 28, s. 349a] the service required by paragraph 2 of Rule 12 shall be made on all parties to the suit other than the party or parties taking the appeal. The record shall be made up and the case docketed in this court within sixty days from the time the appeal is allowed. (Added January 10, 1938.)

48. JOINT OR SEVERAL APPEALS OR PETITIONS FOR WRITS OF CERTIORARI; SUMMONS AND SEVERANCE ABOLISHED. Parties interested jointly, severally, or otherwise in a judgment may join in an appeal or a petition for writ of certiorari therefrom; or, without summons and severance, any one or more of them may appeal or petition separately or any two or more of them may join in an appeal or petition.

49. NO SESSION ON SATURDAY. The court will not hear arguments or hold open sessions on Saturday.

50. ADJOURNMENT OF TERM. The court will at every term announce, at least three weeks in advance, the day on which it will adjourn, and will not take up any case for argument, or receive any case upon briefs or upon petition for certiorari, within two weeks before the adjournment, unless otherwise ordered for special cause shown.

51. ABROGATION OF PRIOR RULES. These rules shall become effective February 27, 1939, and be printed as an appendix to 306 U. S. The rules promulgated June 5, 1928, appearing in 275 U. S., Appendix, and all amendments thereof are rescinded, but this shall not affect any proper action taken under them before these rules become effective.

CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE EIGHTH CIRCUIT

January 1, 1951, as amended.

RULE 1. SCOPE OF RULES

These rules shall govern the procedure in this court so far as they are applicable and are not inconsistent with any statute of the United States or any rule or order of the Supreme Court of the United States having the force of law. Procedure with respect to any matter not covered by statute or by a rule of this court or of the Supreme Court shall be such as has heretofore customarily prevailed in this court, or such as this court may direct.

RULE 2. NAME, SEAL, AND PROCESS

(a) Name. The name of this court is "United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit."

(b) Seal. The seal is as shown by the following facsimile:

(SEAL)

(c) Writs and Process. Writs and process of this court shall be under the seal of the Court and signed by the Clerk.

RULE 3. TERMS AND SESSIONS OF COURT

(a) Times and Places. This court will hold one general term each year commencing on the second Wednesday in September. Regular sessions of the court and its divisions will be held during each term at such place or places as the court directs, at the following times:

Second Wednesday in September.

Second Wednesday in November.

First Wednesday in March.

First Wednesday in May.

Any regular session may be adjourned to another time or place. A special session may be held at such time and place as the court directs. If the first day of a session shall fall upon a holiday, the session shall commence on the following day.

(b) Calendar. All cases which are ready for hearing at any session shall, so far as practicable, be heard at that session. The clerk shall, not later than 20 days before the commencement of a session, issue a printed calendar showing all cases which will be heard at the session and the day upon which each case will be called for hearing. In listing cases upon the calendar, the clerk shall give appropriate consideration to the order in which the cases were filed in this court, to any preferences accorded by statute or rule, and to any directions of the court.

(c) Order of Business. Unless otherwise ordered, the court will convene at ten o'clock A. M. on the opening day of a session and of each day thereafter upon which cases are set for argument. Before the call of the calendar for the day, the court will entertain motions to admit attorneys to the bar of this court, motions to advance, continue or dismiss cases on the calendar, motions for additional time for argument, and other appropriate motions relative to the cases set for argument. The calendar for the day will then be called, and the cases listed thereon which are ready for oral argument will be heard in the order in which they appear upon the calendar.

(d) Marshal and Bailiffs. The Marshal of the district in which a session of court is held shall attend upon the court when so directed by it. He shall furnish as many bailiffs as the court directs, who shall perform the duties required of them by the court.

RULE 4. ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES; QUORUM; NONCONTROVERSIAL ORDERS.

(a) Assignment of Judges; Quorum. The judges of this court shall, as provided in Section 46, Title 28, U.S.C.A., be assigned to sit upon the court and its divisions in such order, at such sessions, and for the hearing of such cases, as the court directs. Cases and controversies shall be heard and determined by a court or division of not more than three judges, unless a hearing or rehearing before the court en banc is ordered by a majority of the circuit judges of the circuit who are in active service. A court en banc shall consist of all active circuit judges of the circuit. A majority of the number of judges authorized to constitute the court or a division thereof shall constitute a quorum.

(b) Absence of Quorum; Adjournment. If on the opening day or any other day of any term less than a quorum is present, any judge in attendance may adjourn the court until a later time, or, if no judge is present, the clerk, or if he is absent, a deputy clerk, may adjourn the court from day to day.

(c) Absence of Quorum; Interlocutory Orders. Any judge attending a session when less than a quorum is present may make any necessary interlocutory order relating to any case or proceeding pending in this court, preparatory to the hearing or decision thereof.

(d) Orders Grantable for the Court by the Clerk. Motions and applications for orders, if consented to or if unopposed after due notice to all interested parties has been given or waived, or if the orders sought are formal or relate to the preparation or printing of records and briefs on appeal, or are such as are ordinarily granted as of course and without notice or hearing, need not be submitted to a quorum of the court. The orders applied for may be entered for the court by the clerk who shall forthwith send copies thereof to the parties. The orders shall show that they were entered pursuant to this subdivision of Rule 4.

(e) Reconsideration of Orders Entered under Subdivision (d). Any interested party adversely affected by an order entered by the clerk pursuant to subdivision (d) of this rule, shall be entitled to a reconsideration thereof by the court if, within 10 days after the entry of the order, such party shall file with the clerk and serve upon the party who filed the motion or application for the order, a request in writing for the reconsideration, vacation or modification of the order, stating the grounds for such request. The clerk shall thereupon submit to the court the order complained of, the motion or application upon which it was entered, the request for its reconsideration, and any suggestions which may have been filed in support of or in opposition to the request. The court shall reconsider the order and shall take such action with respect thereto as it may deem proper.

RULE 5. CLERK

(a) Location of Office. The Clerk's office shall be at St. Louis, Missouri.

(b) Not to Act as Attorney. Neither the clerk nor any deputy clerk shall act as an attorney.

(c) Oaths and Bonds. The clerk, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take such oaths and give such bonds as are required by law. A copy of his oaths and of his bonds, with the approval thereof by this court as to amount, form and sureties, shall be entered in the journal of this court. The bonds and oaths shall be deposited as directed by the court for safe-keeping.

(d) Release of Court Records. The clerk shall not permit any original record, paper or exhibit to be taken from his office or from the courtroom except that the clerk in his discretion may transmit same to the clerk of a district court within the circuit for examination in his office by counsel in the case.

(e) Preservation of Records and Briefs. The clerk shall cause to be bound in volumes and shall carefully preserve in his office one copy of the printed record in every case submitted to the court for its consideration, and of all printed motions and briefs filed therein.

(f) Court Personnel Record. In recording orders, judgments and decrees of this court, the clerk shall cause the record to show the names of the judges who constituted the court to which any case or matter was submitted and who ruled upon it

RULE 6. ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS

(a) On Motion. Any attorney of good moral and professional character who is a citizen of the United States or of any territory or possession thereof and who has been admitted to practice in any United States Court or in the highest court of any state may, upon motion of a member of the bar of this court, be admitted as an attorney of this court upon taking the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will demean myself as an attorney and counsellor of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, uprightly and according to law; and that I will support the Constitution of the United States. So help me, God;"

(b) On Application. An order of admission to the bar of this court may also be obtained upon a verified application in writing showing that the applicant has the qualifications required in the foregoing paragraph, accompanied by a certificate of a judge or the clerk of one of the courts named in subdivision (a) in which he is admitted to practice that he is a member in good standing of the bar of that court and is of good moral and professional character; and also accompanied by the oath of the applicant in the form prescribed above.

(c) Admission Fee. Before being enrolled as an attorney of this court, each applicant upon either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b) of this rule shall pay to the Librarian of this court at St. Louis the sum of $5.00 for the use of the libraries of the court. The Librarian shall receive such monies, shall be the custodian thereof, and shall expend them under the direction of the court.

(d) Disbarment. Any member of the bar of this court who is disbarred or suspended from practice by any court of record shall thereby forfeit his membership in the bar of this court, and his name shall be stricken from the roll of attorneys unless within a time fixed by order of this court, and after notice of such order mailed by the clerk to the attorney at his address as shown upon the roll, he shall show that such disbarment or suspension is no longer in effect.

RULE 7. DOCKETING CASES

(a) Civil Cases. In civil cases the appellant or petitioner shall cause the case to be docketed in this court as provided by Rule 8(c) and within the time or times provided for in Rule 73(g) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(b) Criminal Cases. In criminal cases the appeal shall be docketed at the time the duplicate notice of appeal is received by the clerk of this court from the clerk of the trial court, provided the appellant has made the deposit hereinafter required to secure clerk's costs.

(c) Deposit. A deposit of $25.00 shall be made with the clerk of this court to cover his costs before any case is docketed, unless the appellant or petitioner is by law exempted from the payment of costs or clerk's fees. In civil cases this deposit shall be made at the time the clerk of the trial court forwards the original notice of appeal, etc., to the clerk of this court as provided in Rule 8(c) of this court. In criminal cases the deposit shall be made when the duplicate notice of appeal required to be forwarded by the clerk of the trial court to the clerk of this court has been received and filed by the clerk of this court or within 15 days thereafter.

(d) Default. Failure of an appellant or petitioner to docket an appeal or petition for review or enforcement, or to file the record on appeal or review, or to make the required deposit with the clerk of this court, shall constitute a ground for an order that the appeal or petition be docketed and dismissed. Such an order may be entered upon the motion of the appellee or respondent, accompanied by a certificate of the clerk of the court or board which made the order, judgment or decree appealed from, stating the case and certifying that a notice of appeal or a petition for review was duly filed. After an appeal or petition for review or enforcement has been docketed and dismissed, it shall not be reinstated unless this court, for good cause shown and on such conditions as may be just, shall otherwise order. (See Rule 73(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.)

RULE 8. RECORD ON APPEAL IN CASES FROM DISTRICT COURTS.

(a) Original Papers to Constitute Record on Appeal. The primary record on appeal in any case, civil or criminal, brought to this court from a District Court, shall consist of the original papers (including the transcript of the evidence) upon which the judgment or order appealed from is based.

(b) Actual Transmission of All Original Papers Not Required. To avoid the useless transmission of original papers which will be incorporated in the printed record on appeal upon which the case is to be argued and submitted, the Clerk of the District Court, except as herein otherwise provided, shall not be required actually to transmit such papers to the Clerk of this court. However, at the expiration of the time required by Rule 75(o) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the transmission of such papers to the Clerk of this court, the Clerk of the District Court shall retain them, during the pendency of the appeal, for and on behalf of the Clerk of this court and subject to his orders. Such retention shall be deemed the full equivalent of the actual transmission of such papers to the Clerk of this court.

(c) Docketing of Appeals. To enable the Clerk of this court to docket the appeal, the Clerk of the District Court shall, within the time prescribed by Rule 73(g), transmit to the Clerk of this court the original notice of appeal, any statement by the appellant of the points upon which he intends to rely, and a certified copy of relevant docket entries. For the purpose of docketing the appeal, the transmission of the papers referred to shall be deemed the equivalent of the filing of the record on appeal.

(d) Original Papers to be Transmitted on Request. At any time during the pendency of an appeal, the Clerk of the District Court shall transmit to the Clerk of this court any of the original papers which the Clerk of the District Court may be requested to transmit by any party to the appeal or by this court or its clerk.

(e) Resort to Primary Record if Printed Record is Questioned. In case the accuracy or adequacy of a printed record on appeal is questioned or seems doubtful, this court will resort to the primary record on appeal.

(f) Identification and Return of Original Papers. Original papers actually transmitted by the Clerk of the District Court to the Clerk of this court shall be accompanied by a certificate identifying the papers with reasonable definiteness. After the final disposition of the appeal by this court, all original papers which have been transmitted shall be returned to the custody of the District Court.

(g) Supervision of Printing of Record by Clerk. If the appellant shall elect to have the record on appeal printed under the supervision of the Clerk of this court, he shall furnish the Clerk, for the use of the printer, a copy of such of the original papers, arranged in their proper order, as are to be incorporated in the printed record on appeal.

(h) Primary Record to be Transmitted if Printing is Dispensed with. If this court shall, as authorized by Rule 39(b) (2) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, dispense with the printing of the record on appeal, the original papers constituting the primary record shall be actually transmitted to the Clerk of this court within the time prescribed by Rule 75(o) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(i) Original Papers to be Made Up in Volumes, Paged and Indexed. The necessary original papers, when transmitted, shall be fastened together by the Clerk of the District Court in one or more volumes in the form of a transcript of record, paged consecutively, and a cover and a complete index of all the papers shall be attached at the beginning.

RULE 9. PHYSICAL EXHIBITS

(a) Custody of Clerk. Models, diagrams and material exhibits in evidence in any case shall be placed in the custody of the clerk at least 10 days before the case is submitted.

(b) Removal by Party. All such exhibits must be removed from the custody of the clerk promptly and not later than one month after the case is finally decided. If this is not done, the clerk, after giving notice to counsel to forthwith remove such exhibits, may 15 days thereafter cause the exhibits to be destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

(c) Use by Court. Original paper exhibits, consisting of maps, plats, sketches, drawings, photographs, blueprints, and other like matters may be transmitted under order of the district court for inspection by this court, but copies of such thereof as this court is required to examine must be included in the printed record or in a supplement thereto. The court, however, will grant leave to dispense with the reproduction of such exhibits in the printed record if their reproduction is difficult or unduly expensive, on condition that a sufficient number of copies be furnished for the use of the court.

RULE 10. PRINTING OF RECORD

(a) Entire Record not to be Printed. The appellant or petitioner shall serve and file with his brief a separate printed record, carefully indexed, which shall contain a clear, concise and condensed statement of only so much of the entire record on appeal or review as may be essential to show jurisdiction and to enable the court to decide the questions presented for review. The entire original record shall not be printed.

(b) Contents of Printed Record. The printed record shall contain all of the essential pleadings, essential docket entries, the judgment or order appealed from or sought to be reviewed or enforced, and the opinion, findings and conclusions of the trial court or administrative agency, and, if the case was tried to a jury, the complete instructions of the trial court and the verdict. The printed record shall contain only so much of the evidence, reduced to narrative form, as may be necessary to enable this court to determine the questions presented for decision. The requirement that evidence be in narrative form does not apply to evidence which this rule provides shall be quoted, nor to brief excerpts which do not lend themselves to narrative statement, nor to printed records on review of orders of the National Labor Relations Board. (See Rule 27 (k) (4).) If the printed record contains any matter in a foreign language, it must be accompanied by a correct translation thereof. If the appellant or petitioner in his brief challenges rulings upon evidence, such evidence, the objections interposed thereto, and the rulings questioned shall be quoted in the printed record, and if the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support a finding, ruling, order, verdict or judgment of the court or board is raised by the appellant or petitioner, he shall include in the printed record (in narrative form) all evidence received upon the trial or hearing pertinent to that question.

(c) Supplement to Printed Record by Appellee. In case the appellee or respondent shall be of the opinion that the printed record submitted by the appellant or petitioner is inaccurate or omits essential portions of the entire record, he may file and serve with his answering brief a separately printed supplement to the printed record, carefully indexed, containing such additional portions of the record as he deems essential for consideration by the court in deciding the case. The evidence contained in a printed supplement shall be in narrative form to the extent required by subdivision (b) of this Rule.

(d) Effect of Insufficient Printed Record; Correction of Omissions and Mistakes. If it shall appear that the record printed by the appellant or petitioner is insufficient to enable the court to decide questions presented or argued, the court may treat as waived any question which cannot properly be determined from the record as printed, or it may require that additional portions of the record be printed, or it may make any other appropriate order with respect to the case. Inadvertent omissions or misstatements in the record on appeal or in the printed record may be corrected by stipulation, or by direction of this court on application or of its own motion.

(e) Expense, When Not Taxable as Costs. The expense of printing records which do not substantially conform to the requirements of this rule with respect to the elimination of non-essential matter and the reduction of evidence to narrative form, will not be allowed as costs. Any delay or expense caused by the failure of an appellant or petitioner to print, file and serve a proper printed record will be taken into consideration in taxing costs.

(f) Agreed Statement. When the questions presented by an appeal to this court can be determined without an examination of all the pleadings, evidence, and proceedings in the court below, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the questions arose and were decided in the district court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the questions by this court. The statement shall include a copy of the judgment appealed from, a copy of the notice of appeal with its filing date, and a concise statement of the points to be relied on by the appellant. If the statement conforms to the truth, it, together with such additions as the district court may consider necessary fully to present the questions raised by the appeal, shall be approved by that court and shall then be certified to this court as the record on appeal.

RULE 11. BRIEFS AND RECORDS

(a) Filing and Serving. The appellant or petitioner shall, within 40 days from the time of the docketing of the appeal as provided in rule 8(c) or filing of petition for review, file 20 copies of his printed brief together with 30 copies of his printed record and shall furnish to each of opposing counsel a copy of the printed brief and printed record. The appellee or respondent, within 25 days from the date of the receipt of the appellant's or petitioner's printed brief and printed record, shall file 20 copies of his answering printed brief together with 30 copies of his printed supplement (if any) to the printed record and shall furnish a copy of each thereof to each of opposing counsel. Within 10 days thereafter, the appellant or petitioner may file 20 copies of a printed reply brief and shall serve a copy thereof upon each of opposing counsel.

(b) Contents of Brief. A brief shall contain, in the following order:
First. A complete detailed index of the entire brief. (Sample index may be procured from the clerk.)

Second. A complete list of all cases and statutes cited in the brief. The cases shall be first listed and arranged in alphabetical order, giving title, volume and page (citations of United States Supreme Court cases must be to the official reports; citations of State supreme court cases shall be both to the State official reports and to the Reporter System). Statutes shall be listed in chronological order, with date, volume, and page.

Third. A concise statement of the case in so far as is necessary for the court to understand and decide the points to be argued in the brief giving the pages of the printed record where each fact stated can be found and verified. If a point relates to the admission or exclusion of evidence, the statement shall quote the evidence referred to, and any objections or other equivalent action taken relative thereto, together with the rulings of the court thereon, giving the pages of the printed record on which the quotations appear. Where a series of similar rulings on evidence are questioned, it shall be sufficient to quote from the record one typical example, giving page references to other like rulings. If a point relied upon relates to the giving of instructions or the refusal to give instructions requested, the statement shall quote the portions of the instructions or of the requested instructions which are referred to, the objections or exceptions taken to the giving of the instructions or to the refusal to give requested instructions and the rulings of the court thereon, and shall give the pages of the printed record on which the quotations appear. When the error asserted is as to a ruling upon the report of a master or referee, the statement shall show the exceptions to the report and the ruling thereon, giving pages of the printed record where they occur.

Fourth. A concise statement of each point to be argued, with a complete list of all cases and statutes referred to in the argument covering the point, the cases which are considered to be most apposite and convincing, not exceeding four in number, to be printed in bold-face type.

Fifth. A printed argument which shall substantially follow the order of points stated under paragraph "Fourth." The court will disregard any statement in the argument as to what the record contains unless reference is made to the page of the printed record where the statement may be found or verified. When a State statute is cited in the argument, so much thereof as may be necessary to the decision shall be printed in full. Regulations of administrative agencies, reports of Committees of Congress and other documents relating to the history of legislation, interpretative bulletins or rulings of any Department of the Government, if relied upon in the argument shall be set out in full in an appendix to the brief.

Briefs of appellees or respondents need not contain a statement of the case (paragraph "Third") unless the statement presented in appellant's or petitioner's brief is controverted or deemed insufficient.

II. COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS, PLEADINGS, MOTIONS, AND ORDERS

3. COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION: A civil action is commenced by filing a complaint with the court.

4. PROCESS. (a) Summons; Issuance. Upon the filing of the complaint the clerk shall forthwith issue a summons and deliver it for service to the marshal or to a person specially appointed to serve it. Upon request of the plaintiff separate or additional summons shall issue against any defendants.

(b) Same; Form. The summons shall be signed by the clerk, be under the seal of the court, contain the name of the court and the names of the parties, be directed to the defendant, state the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, otherwise the plaintiff's address, and the time within which these rules require the defendant to appear and defend, and shall notify him that in case of his failure to do so judgment by default will be rendered against him for the relief demanded in the complaint.

(c) By Whom Served. Service of all process shall be made by a United States marshal, by his deputy, or by some person specially appointed by the court for that purpose, except that a subpoena may be served as provided in Rule 45. Special appointments to serve process shall be made freely when substantial savings in travel fees will result.

(d) Summons; Personal Service. The summons and complaint shall be served together. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary. Service shall be made as follows:

(1) Upon an individual other than an infant or an incompetent person, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to him personally or by leaving copies thereof at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion when residing therein or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.

(2) Upon an infant or an incompetent person, by serving the summons and complaint in the manner prescribed by the law of the state in which the service is made for the service of summons or other like process upon any such defendant in an action brought in the courts of general jurisdiction of that state.

(3) Upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association which is subject to suit under a common name, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the defendant.

(4) Upon the United States, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the United States attorney for the district in which the action is brought or to an assistant United States attorney or clerical employee designated by the United States attorney in a writing filed with the clerk of the court and by sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered mail to the Attorney General of the United States at Washington, District of Columbia, and in any action attacking the validity of an order of an officer or agency of the United States not made a party, by also sending a copy of the summons and of the complaint by registered mail to such officer or agency.

(5) Upon an officer or agency of the United States, by serving the United States and by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to such officer or agency. If the agency is a corporation the copy shall be delivered as provided in paragraph (3) of this subdivision of this rule.

(6) Upon a state or municipal corporation or other governmental organization thereof subject to suit, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the chief executive officer thereof or by serving the summons and complaint in the manner prescribed by the law of that state for the service of summons or other like process upon any such defendant.

(7) Upon a defendant of any class referred to in paragraph (1) or (3) of this subdivision of this rule, it is also sufficient if the summons and complaint are served in the manner prescribed by any statute of the United States or in the manner prescribed by the law of the state in which the service is made for the service of summonses or other like process upon any such defendant in an action brought in the courts of general jurisdiction of that state.

(e) Same; Other Service. Whenever a statute of the United States or an order of court provides for service of summonses, or of a notice, or of an order in lieu of summonses upon a party not an inhabitant of or found within the state, service shall be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the statute, rule, or order.

(f) Territorial Limits of Effective Service. All process other than a subpoena may be served anywhere within the territorial limits of the state in which the district court is held and, when a statute of the United States so provides, beyond the territorial limits of that state. A subpoena may be served within the territorial limits provided in Rule 45.

(g) Return. The person serving the process shall make proof of service thereof to the court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the process. If service is made by a person other than a United States marshal or his deputy, he shall make affidavit thereof. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

(h) Amendment. At any time in its discretion and upon such terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued.

5. SERVICE AND FILING OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS.

(a) Service; When Required. Every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties affected thereby, but no service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summonses in Rule 4.

(b) Same; How Made. Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the court. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

(c) Same; Numerous Defendants. In any action in which there are unusually large numbers of defendants, the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counter-claim, or matters constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the court directs.

(d) Filing. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter.

(e) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the court, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the clerk.

6. TIME.

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday nor a holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday.

(b) Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may, at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice, order the period enlarged if application therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon motion permit the act to be done after the expiration of the specified period where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not enlarge the period for taking any action under Rule 59, except as stated in subdivision (c) thereof, or the period for taking an appeal as provided by law.

(c) Unaffected By Expiration of Term. The period of time provided for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding is not affected or limited by the expiration of a term of court. The expiration of a term of court in no way affects the power of a court to do any act or take any proceeding in any civil action which has been pending before it.

(d) For Motions—Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 5 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in Rule 59 (c), opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

(e) Additional Time After Service By Mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

7. PLEADINGS ALLOWED; FORM OF MOTIONS. (a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; and there shall be a reply, if the answer contains a counter-claim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if leave is given under Rule 14 to summon a person who was not an original party; and there shall be a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the court may order a reply to an answer or a third-party answer.

(b) Motions and Other Papers. (1) An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

(c) Demurrers, Pleas, Etc., Abolished. Demurrers, pleas, and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

8. GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING. (a) Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counter-claim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, unless the court already has jurisdiction and the claim needs no new grounds of jurisdiction to support it, (2) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (3) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits; but, when he does so intend to controvert all its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality injury by fellow servant laches license payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counter-claim or a counter-claim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure to Deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(e) Pleading to Be Concise and Direct; Consistency. (1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleading or motions are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternatively or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

9. PLEADING SPECIAL MATTERS. (a) Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party, except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the court. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

(b) Fraud, Mistake, Condition of the Mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

(c) Conditions Precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

(d) Official Document Or Act. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

(e) Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or a foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

(f) Time and Place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

(g) Special Damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated.

10. FORM OF PLEADINGS. (a) Caption; Names of Parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the action, the file number, and a designation as in Rule 7 (a). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

(b) Paragraphs; Separate Statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered paragraphs, the contents of each shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a paragraph may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

(c) Adoption By Reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

11. SIGNING OF PLEADINGS. Every pleading of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign his pleading and state his address. Except when otherwise specifically provided by rule or statute, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. The rule in equity that the averments of an answer under oath must be overcome by the testimony of two witnesses or of one witness sustained by corroborating circumstances is abolished. The signature of an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a wilful violation of this rule an attorney may be subjected to appropriate disciplinary action. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

12. DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS; WHEN AND HOW PRESENTED; BY PLEADING OR MOTION; MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON PLEADINGS. (a) When Presented. A defendant shall serve his answer within 20 days after the service of the summons and complaint upon him, unless the court directs otherwise when service of process is made pursuant to Rule 4 (e). A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 20 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counter-claim in the answer within 20 days after service if the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 20 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The United States or an officer or agency thereof shall serve an answer to the complaint or to a cross-claim, or a reply to a counter-claim, within 60 days after the service upon the United States attorney of the pleading in which the claim is asserted. The service of any motion provided for in this rule alters the time fixed by these rules for serving any required responsive pleading as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the court: (1) if the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading may be served within 10 days after notice of the court's action; (2) if the court grants a motion for a more definite statement or for a bill of particulars, the responsive pleading may be served within ten days after the service of the more definite statement or bill of particulars. In either case the time for service of the responsive pleading shall be not less than remains of the time which would have been allowed under these rules if the motion had not been made.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counter-claim, cross-claim or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) improper venue, (4) insufficiency of process, (5) insufficiency of service of process, (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief.

(c) Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings.

(d) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)-(6) in subdivision (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in subdivision (c) of this rule, shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(e) Motion for More Definite Statement Or for Bill of Particulars. Before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon him, a party may move for a more definite statement or for a bill of particulars of any matter which is not averred with sufficient definiteness or particularity to enable him properly to prepare his responsive pleading or to prepare for trial. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just. A bill of particulars becomes a part of the pleading which it supplements.

(f) Motion to Strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon him or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter stricken from any pleading.

(g) Consolidation of Motions. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it the other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule and does not include therein all defenses and objections then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on any of the defenses or objections so omitted, except that prior to making any other motions under this rule he may make a motion in which are joined all the defenses numbered (1) to (5) in subdivision (b) of this rule which he cares to assert.

(h) Waiver of Defenses. A party waives all defenses and objections which he does not present either by motion as hereinbefore provided or, if he has made no motion, in his answer or reply, except (1) that the defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, and the objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may also be made by a later pleading, if one is permitted, or by motion for judgment on the pleadings or at the trial on the merits, and except (2) that, whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action. The objection or defense, if made at the trial, shall then be disposed of as provided in Rule 15 (b) in the light of any evidence that may have been received.

13. COUNTER-CLAIM AND CROSS-CLAIM. (a) Compulsory Counter-claims. A pleading shall state as a counter-claim any claim, not the subject of a pending action, which at the time of filing the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third-parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction.

(b) Permissive Counter-claims. A pleading may state as a counter-claim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

(c) Counter-claim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counter-claim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(d) Counter-claim Against the United States. These rules shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counter-claims or to claim credits against the United States or an officer or agency thereof.

(e) Counter-claim Maturing Or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counter-claim by supplemental pleading.

(f) Omitted Counter-claim. When a pleader fails to set up a counter-claim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counter-claim by amendment.

(g) Cross-Claim Against Co-Party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counter-claim therein. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

(h) Additional Parties May Be Brought In. When the presence of parties other than those to the original action is required for the granting of complete relief, in the determination of a counter-claim or cross-claim, the court shall order them to be brought in as defendants as provided in these rules. If jurisdiction of them can be obtained and their joinder will not deprive the court of jurisdiction of the action.

(i) Separate Trials; Separate Judgments. If the court orders separate trials as provided in Rule 42 (b), judgment on a counter-claim or cross-claim may be rendered when the court has jurisdiction so to do, even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

14. THIRD-PARTY PRACTICE. (a) When Defendant May Bring In Third Party. Before the service of his answer a defendant may move ex parte or, after the service of his answer, on notice to the plaintiff, for leave as a third-party plaintiff to serve a summons and complaint upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him or to the plaintiff for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. If the motion is granted and the summons and complaint are served, the person so served, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses as provided in Rule 12 and his counter-claims and cross-claims against the plaintiff, the third-party plaintiff, or any other party as provided in Rule 13. The third-party defendant may assert any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant is bound by the adjudication of the third-party plaintiff's liability to the plaintiff, as well as of his own to the plaintiff or to the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may amend his pleadings to assert against the third-party defendant any claim which the plaintiff might have asserted against the third-party defendant had he been joined originally as a defendant. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him or to the third-party plaintiff for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring In Third Party. When a counter-claim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

15. AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS. (a) Amendments. A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments to Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

16. PRE-TRIAL PROCEDURE; FORMULATING ISSUES. In any action, the court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference to consider

- (1) The simplification of the issues;
- (2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
- (4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
- (5) The advisability of a preliminary reference of issues to a master for findings to be used as evidence when the trial is to be by jury;
- (6) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

The court shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. The court in its discretion may establish by rule a pre-trial calendar on which actions may be placed for consideration as above provided and may either confine the calendar to jury actions or to non-jury actions or extend it to all actions.

IV. PARTIES

17. PARTIES PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; CAPACITY. (a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest; but an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the United States so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the United States.

(b) Capacity to Sue Or Be Sued. The capacity of an individual, other than one acting in a representative capacity, to sue or be sued shall be determined by the law of his domicile. The capacity of a corporation to sue or be sued shall be determined by the law under which it was organized. In all other cases capacity to sue or be sued shall be determined by the law of the state in which the district court is held; except (1) that a partnership or other unincorporated association, which has no such capacity by the law of such state, may sue or be sued in its common name for the purpose of enforcing for or against it a substantive right existing under the Constitution or laws of the United States, and (2) that the capacity of a receiver appointed by a court of the United States to sue or be sued in a court of the United States is governed by Title 28, U.S.C., Sections 754 and 959(a). Amended Dec. 29, 1948.

(c) Infants Or Incompetent Persons. Whenever an infant or incompetent person has a representative, such as a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the infant or incompetent person. If an infant or incompetent person does not have a duly appointed representative he may sue by his next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant or incompetent person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the infant or incompetent person.

18. JOINDER OF CLAIMS AND REMEDIES.

(a) Joinder of Claims. The plaintiff in his complaint or in a counter-claim and the defendant in an answer setting forth a counter-claim may join either as independent or as alternate claims as many claims either legal or equitable or both as he may have against an opposing party. There may be a like joinder of claims when there are multiple parties if the requirements of Rules 19, 20; and 22 are satisfied. There may be a like joinder of cross-claims or third-party claims if the requirements of Rules 13 and 14 respectively are satisfied.

(b) Joinder of Remedies; Fraudulent Conveyances. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to him, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.

19. NECESSARY JOINDER OF PARTIES.

(a) Necessary Joinder. Subject to the provisions of Rule 23 and of subdivision (b) of this rule, persons having a joint interest shall be made parties and be joined on the same side as plaintiffs or defendants. When a person who should join as a plaintiff refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant or, in proper cases, an involuntary plaintiff.

(b) Effect of Failure to Join. When persons who are not indispensable, but who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, have not been made parties and are subject to the jurisdiction of the court as to both service of process and venue and can be made parties without depriving the court of jurisdiction of the parties before it, the court shall order them summoned to appear in the action. The court in its discretion may proceed in the action without making such persons parties, if its jurisdiction over them as to either service of process or venue can be acquired only by their consent or voluntary appearance or if, though they are subject to its jurisdiction, their joinder would deprive the court of jurisdiction of the parties before it; but the judgment rendered therein does not affect the rights or liabilities of absent persons.

(c) Same; Names of Omitted Persons and Reasons for Nonjoinder to Be Pledged. In any pleading in which relief is asked, the pleader shall set forth the names, if known to him, of persons who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, but who are not joined, and shall state why they are omitted.

20. PERMISSIVE JOINDER OF PARTIES.

(a) Permissive Joinder. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

(b) Separate Trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

21. MISJOINDER AND NONJOINDER OF PARTIES. Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

22. INTERPLEADER. (1) Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counter-claim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Rule 20.

(2) The remedy herein provided is in addition to and in no way supersedes or limits the remedy provided by Title 28, U.S.C., Sections 1335, 1397, and 2361. Actions under those provisions shall be conducted in accordance with these rules. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

23. CLASS ACTIONS. (a) Representation. If persons constituting a class are so numerous as to make it impracticable to bring them all before the court, such of them, one or more, as will fairly insure the adequate representation of all may, on behalf of all, sue or be sued, when the character of the right sought to be enforced for or against the class is

(1) joint, or common, or secondary in the sense that the owner of a primary right refuses to enforce that right and a member of the class thereby becomes entitled to enforce it;

(2) several, and the object of the action is the adjudication of claims which do or may affect specific property involved in the action; or

(3) several, and there is a common question of law or fact affecting the several rights and a common relief is sought.

(b) Secondary Action By Shareholders. In an action brought to enforce a secondary right on the part of one or more shareholders in an association, incorporated or unincorporated, because the association refuses to enforce rights which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall be verified by oath and shall aver (1) that the plaintiff was a shareholder at the time of the transaction of which he complains or that his share thereafter devolved on him by operation of law and (2) that the action is not a collusive one to confer on a court of the United States jurisdiction of any action of which it would not otherwise have jurisdiction. The complaint shall also set forth with particularity the efforts of the plaintiff to secure from the managing directors or trustees and, if necessary, from the shareholders such action as he desires, and the reasons for his failure to obtain such action or the reasons for not making such effort.

(c) Dismissal or Compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court. If the right sought to be enforced is one defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this rule notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs. If the right is one defined in paragraphs (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) notice shall be given only if the court requires it.

24. INTERVENTION. (a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) When a statute of the United States confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the representation of the applicant's interest by existing parties is or may be inadequate and the applicant is or may be bound by a judgment in the action; or (3) when the applicant is so situated as to be adversely affected by a distribution or other disposition of property in the custody of the court or of an officer thereof.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) When a statute of the United States confers a conditional right to intervene; or (2) when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon all parties affected thereby. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. The same procedure shall be followed when a statute of the United States gives a right to intervene. When the constitutionality of an act of Congress affecting the public interest is drawn in question in any action to which the United States or an officer, agency, or employee thereof is not a party, the court shall notify the Attorney General of the United States as provided in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 2403. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

25. SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES. (a) Death. (1) If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court within 2 years after the death may order substitution of the proper parties. If substitution is not so made, the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Rule 5 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided in Rule 4 for the service of a summons, and may be served in any judicial district.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court upon motion served as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule.

(d) Public Officers; Death or Separation from Office. When an officer of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, the Canal Zone, a territory, an insular possession, a state, county, city, or other governmental agency is a party to an action and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action may be continued and maintained by or against his successor, if within 6 months after the successor takes office it is satisfactorily shown to the court that there is a substantial need for so continuing and maintaining it. Substitution pursuant to this rule may be made when it is shown by supplemental pleading that the successor of an officer adopts or continues or threatens to adopt or continue the action of his predecessor in enforcing a law averred to be in violation of the Constitution of the United States. Before a substitution is made, the party or officer to be affected, unless expressly assenting thereto, shall be given reasonable notice of the application therefor and accorded an opportunity to object. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

26. DEPOSITIONS PENDING ACTION. (a) When Depositions May Be Taken. By leave of court after jurisdiction has been obtained over any defendant or over property which is the subject of the action or without such leave after an answer has been served, the testimony of any person, whether a party or not, may be taken at the instance of any party by deposition upon oral examination or written interrogatories for the purpose of discovery or for use as evidence in the action or for both purposes. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Rule 45. Depositions shall be taken only in accordance with these rules. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

(b) Scope of Examination. Unless otherwise ordered by the court as provided by Rule 30 (b) or (d), the deponent may be examined regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether relating to the claim or defense of the examining party or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts.

(c) Examination and Cross-Examination. Examination and cross-examination of deponents may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of Rule 43 (b).

(d) Use of Depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had due notice thereof, in accordance with any one of the following provisions:

(1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness.

(2) The deposition of a party or of any one who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director or managing agent of a public or private corporation, partnership, or association which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.

(3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the court finds: 1, that the witness is dead; or 2, that the witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the place of trial or hearing, or is out of the United States, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or 3, that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or 4, that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or 5, upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

(4) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce all of it which is relevant to the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and, when an action in any court of the United States or of any state has been dismissed and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor.

(e) Objections to Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Rule 32 (c), objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(f) Effect of Taking or Using Depositions. A party shall not be deemed to make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition. The introduction in evidence of the deposition or any part thereof for any purpose other than that of contradicting or impeaching the deponent makes the deponent the witness of the party introducing the deposition, but this shall not apply to the use by an adverse party of a deposition as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of this rule. At the trial or hearing any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

27. DEPOSITIONS BEFORE ACTION OR PENDING APPEAL. (a) Before Action. (1) Petition.

A person who desires to perpetuate his own testimony or that of another person regarding any matter that may be cognizable in any court of the United States may file a verified petition in the United States district court in the district of the residence of any expected adverse party. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show: 1, that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action cognizable in a court of the United States but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought, 2, the subject matter of the expected action and his interest therein, 3, the facts which he desires to establish by the proposed testimony and his reasons for desiring to perpetuate it, 4, the names or a description of the persons he expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known, and 5, the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least 20 days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served either within or without the district or state in the manner provided in Rule 4 (d) for service of summons; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, and shall appoint, for persons not served in the manner provided in Rule 4 (d), an attorney who shall represent them, and, in case they are not otherwise represented, shall cross-examine the deponent. If any expected adverse party is a minor or incompetent the provisions of Rule 17 (c) apply.

(3) Order and Examination. If the court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with these rules. For the purpose of applying these rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony, each reference therein to the court in which the action is pending shall be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed.

(4) Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these rules or if, although not so taken, it would be admissible in evidence in the courts of the state in which it is taken, it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in a United States district court, in accordance with the provisions of Rule 26 (d).

(b) Pending Appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of a district court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the district court in which the judgment was rendered may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the district court. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the district court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the district court. The motion shall show (1) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which he expects to elicit from each; (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony. If the court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions taken in actions pending in the district court.

(c) Perpetuation By Action. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

28. PERSONS BEFORE WHOM DEPOSITIONS MAY BE TAKEN. (a) Within the United States. Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held.

(b) In Foreign Countries. In a foreign state or country depositions shall be taken (1) on notice before a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or (2) before such person or officer as may be appointed by commission or under letters rogatory. A commission or letters rogatory shall be issued only when necessary or convenient, on application and notice, and on such terms and with such directions as are just and appropriate. Officers may be designated in notices or commissions either by name or descriptive title and letters rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Judicial Authority in [here name the country]."

(c) Disqualification for Interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties, or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

29. STIPULATIONS REGARDING THE TAKING OF DEPOSITIONS. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions.

30. DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION.

(a) Notice of Examination; Time and Place. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. On motion of any party upon whom the notice is served, the court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

(b) Orders for the Protection of Parties and Deponents. After notice is served for taking deposition by oral examination, upon motion seasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined and upon notice and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated place other than that stated in the notice, or that it may be taken only on written interrogatories, or that certain matters shall not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel, or that after being sealed the deposition shall be opened only by order of the court, or that secret processes, developments, or research need not be disclosed, or that the parties shall simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court; or the court may make any other order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression.

(c) Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally or by some one acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed unless the parties agree otherwise. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written interrogatories to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(d) Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of any party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the court in the district where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in subdivision (b). If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. In granting or refusing such order the court may impose upon either party or upon the witness the requirement to pay such costs or expenses as the court may deem reasonable.

(e) Submission to Witness; Changes; Signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed, unless on a motion to suppress under Rule 32 (d) the court holds that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

(f) Certification and Filing By Officer; Copies; Notice of Filing. (1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope indorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of [here insert name of witness]" and shall promptly file with the court in which the action is pending or send it by registered mail to the clerk thereof for filing.

(2) Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.

(3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.

(g) Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena; Expenses. (1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in so attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

31. DEPOSITIONS OF WITNESSES UPON WRITTEN INTERROGATORIES.

(a) Serving Interrogatories; Notice. A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon written interrogatories shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating the name and address of the person who is to answer them and the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. Within 10 days thereafter a party so served may serve cross interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition. Within 5 days thereafter the latter may serve redirect interrogatories upon a party who has served cross interrogatories. Within 3 days after being served with redirect interrogatories upon the party proposing to take the deposition.

(b) Officer to Take Responses and Prepare Record. A copy of the notice and copies of all interrogatories served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly, in the manner provided by Rule 30 (c), (e), and (f), to take the testimony of the witnesses in response to the interrogatories and to prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition, attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the interrogatories received by him.

(c) Notice of Filing. When the deposition is filed the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

(d) Orders for the Protection of Parties and Deponents. After the service of interrogatories and prior to the taking of the testimony of the deponent, the court in which the action is pending, on motion promptly made by a party or a deponent, upon notice and good cause shown, may make any order specified in Rule 30 which is appropriate and just or an order that the deposition shall not be taken before the officer designated in the notice or that it shall not be taken except upon oral examination.

32. EFFECT OF ERRORS AND IRREGULARITIES IN DEPOSITIONS. (a) As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served on the party giving the notice.

(b) As to Disqualification of Officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(c) As to Taking of Deposition. (1) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(2) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(3) Objections to the form of written interrogatories submitted under Rule 31 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other interrogatories and within 3 days after service of the last interrogatories authorized.

(d) As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, indorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 30 and 31 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

33. INTERROGATORIES TO PARTIES. Any party may serve upon any adverse party written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association, by any officer thereof competent to testify in its behalf. The interrogatories shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath. The answers shall be signed by the person making them; and the party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers on the party submitting the interrogatories within 15 days after the delivery of the interrogatories, unless the court, on motion and notice and for good cause shown, enlarges or shortens the time. Objections to any interrogatories may be presented to the court within 10 days after service thereof, with notice as in case of a motion; and answers shall be deferred until the objections are determined, which shall be as early a time as is practicable. No party may, without leave of court, serve more than one set of interrogatories to be answered by the same party.

34. DISCOVERY AND PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND THINGS FOR INSPECTION, COPYING, OR PHOTOGRAPHING. Upon motion of any party showing good cause therefor and upon notice to all other parties, the court in which an action is pending may (1) order any party to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing, by or on behalf of the moving party, of any designated documents, papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects, or tangible things, not privileged, which constitute or contain evidence material to any matter involved in the action and which are in his possession, custody, or control; or (2) order any party to permit entry upon designated land or other property in his possession or control for the purpose of inspecting, measuring, surveying, or photographing the property or any designated relevant object or operation thereon. The order shall specify the time, place, and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographs and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

35. PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATION OF PERSONS. (a) Order for Examination. In an action in which the mental or physical condition of a party is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order him to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the party to be examined and to all other parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

(b) Report of Findings. (1) If requested by the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings and conclusions. After such request and delivery the party causing the examination to be made shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party examined a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same mental or physical condition. If the party examined refuses to deliver such report the court on motion and notice may make an order requiring delivery on such terms as are just, and if a physician fails or refuses to make such a report the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial.

(2) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him in respect of the same mental or physical condition.

36. ADMISSION OF FACTS AND OF GENUINENESS OF DOCUMENTS. (a) Request for Admission. At any time after the pleadings are closed, a party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission by the latter of the genuineness of any relevant documents described in and exhibited with the request or of the truth of any relevant matters of fact set forth therein. Copies of the documents shall be delivered with the request unless copies have already been furnished. Each of the matters of which an admission is requested shall be deemed admitted unless, within a period designated in the request, not less than 10 days after service thereof or within such further time as the court may allow on motion and notice, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a sworn statement either denying specifically the matters of which an admission is requested or setting forth in detail the reasons why he cannot truthfully either admit or deny those matters.

(b) Effect of Admission. Any admission made by a party pursuant to such request is for the purpose of the pending action only and neither constitutes an admission by him for any other purpose nor may be used against him in any other proceeding.

37. REFUSAL TO MAKE DISCOVERY; CONSEQUENCES. (a) Refusal to Answer. If a party or other deponent refuses to answer any question propounded upon oral examination, the examination shall be completed on other matters or adjourned, as the proponent of the question may prefer. Thereafter, on reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, he may apply to the court in the district where the deposition is taken for an order compelling an answer. Upon the refusal of a deponent to answer any interrogatory submitted under Rule 31 or upon the refusal of a party to answer any interrogatory submitted under Rule 33, the proponent of the question may on like notice make like application for such an order. If the motion is granted and if the court finds that the refusal was without substantial justification the court shall require the refusing party or deponent and the party or attorney advising the refusal or either of them to pay to the examining party the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including reasonable attorney's fees. If the motion is denied and if the court finds that the motion was made without substantial justification, the court shall require the examining party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the refusing party or witness the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(b) Failure to Comply with Order. (1) Contempt. If a party or other witness refuses to be sworn or refuses to answer any question after being directed to do so by the court in the district in which the deposition is being taken, the refusal may be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Other Consequences. If any party or an officer or managing agent of a party refuses to obey an order made under subdivision (a) of this rule requiring him to answer designated questions, or an order made under Rule 34 to produce any document or other thing for inspection, copying, or photographing or to permit it to be done, or to permit entry upon land or other property, or an order made under Rule 35 requiring him to submit to a physical or mental examination, the court may make such orders in regard to the refusal as are just, and among others the following:

(i) An order that the matters regarding which the questions were asked, or the character or description of the thing or land, or the contents of the paper, or the physical or mental condition of the party, or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(ii) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing in evidence designated documents or things or items of testimony, or from introducing evidence of physical or mental condition;

(iii) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(iv) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order directing the arrest of any party or agent of a party for disobeying any of such orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination.

(c) Expenses on Refusal to Admit. If a party, after being served with a request under Rule 36 to admit the genuineness of any documents or the truth of any matters of fact, serves a sworn denial thereof and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of any such document or the truth of any such matter of fact, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making such proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. Unless the court finds that there were good reasons for the denial or that the admissions sought were of no substantial importance, the order shall be made.

(d) Failure of Party to Attend or Serve Answers. If a party or an officer or managing agent of a party willfully fails to appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or fails to serve answers to interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, after proper service of such interrogatories, the court on motion and notice may strike out all or any part of any pleading of that party, or dismiss the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or enter a judgment by default against that party.

(e) Failure to Respond to Letters Rogatory. A subpoena may be issued as provided in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 1783, under the circumstances and conditions therein stated. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(f) Expenses Against United States. Expenses and attorney's fees are not to be imposed upon the United States under this rule.

VI. TRIALS

38. JURY TRIAL OF RIGHT. (a) Right Preserved. The right of trial by jury as declared by the Seventh Amendment to the Constitution or as given by a statute of the United States shall be preserved to the parties inviolate.

(b) Demand. Any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury by serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than 10 days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be indorsed upon a pleading of the party.

(c) Same; Specification or Issues. In his demand a party may specify the issues which he wishes so tried, otherwise he shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If he has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within 10 days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

(d) Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this rule and to file it as required by Rule 5 (d) constitutes a waiver by him of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.

39. TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT. (a) By Jury. When trial by jury has been demanded as provided in Rule 38, the action shall be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury, unless (1) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the court or by an oral stipulation made in open court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the court sitting without a jury or (2) the court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist under the Constitution or statutes of the United States.

(b) By the Court. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Rule 38 shall be tried by the court; but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such a demand might have been made of right, the court in its discretion upon motion may order a trial by a jury of any or all issues.

(c) Advisory Jury and Trial By Consent. In all actions not triable of right by a jury the court upon motion or of its own initiative may try any issue with an advisory jury or, except in actions against the United States when a statute of the United States provides for trial without a jury, the court, with the consent of both parties, may order a trial with a jury whose verdict has the same effect as if trial by jury had been a matter of right.

40. ASSIGNMENT OF CASES FOR TRIAL. The district courts shall provide by rule for the placing of actions upon the trial calendar (1) without request of the parties or (2) upon request of a party and notice to the other parties or (3) in such other manner as the courts deem expedient. Precedence shall be given to actions entitled thereto by any statute of the United States.

41. DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS. (a) Voluntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof. (1) By Plaintiff; By Stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Rule 23 (c) and of any statute of the United States, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of court (1) by filing a notice of dismissal at any time before service of the answer or (ii) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all the parties who have appeared generally in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once dismissed in any court of the United States or of any state an action based on or including the same claim.

(2) By Order of Court. Except as provided in paragraph (1) of this subdivision of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the court and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this paragraph is without prejudice.

(b) Involuntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him. After the plaintiff has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction or for improper venue, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

(c) Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross-Claim, or Third-Party Claim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this rule shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing.

(d) Costs of Previously-Dismissed Action. If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

42. CONSOLIDATED; SEPARATE TRIALS. (a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues.

43. EVIDENCE. (a) Form and Admissibility. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by these rules. All evidence shall be admitted which is admissible under the statutes of the United States, or under the rules of evidence heretofore applied in the courts of the United States on the hearing of suits in equity, or under the rules of evidence applied in the courts of general jurisdiction of the state in which the United States court is held. In any case, the statute or rule which favors the reception of the evidence governs and the evidence shall be presented according to the most convenient method prescribed in any of the statutes or rules to which reference is herein made. The competency of a witness to testify shall be determined in like manner.

(b) Scope of Examination and Cross-Examination. A party may interrogate any unwilling or hostile witness by leading questions. A party may call an adverse party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a public or private corporation or of a partnership or association which is an adverse party, and interrogate him by leading questions and contradict and impeach him in all respects as if he had been called by the adverse party, and the witness thus called may be contradicted and impeached by or on behalf of the adverse party also, and may be cross-examined by the adverse party only upon the subject matter of his examination in chief.

(c) Record of Excluded Evidence. In an action tried by a jury, if an objection to a question propounded to a witness is sustained by the court, the examining attorney may make a specific offer of what he expects to prove by the answer of the witness. The court may require the offer to be made out of the hearing of the jury. The court may add such other or further statement as clearly shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. In actions tried without a jury the same procedure may be followed, except that the court upon request shall take and report the evidence in full, unless it clearly appears that the evidence is not admissible on any ground or that the witness is privileged.

(d) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(e) Evidence on Motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

44. PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD. (a) Authentication of Copy. An official record or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied with a certificate that such officer has the custody. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office.

(b) Proof of Lack of Record. A written statement signed by an officer having the custody of an official record or by his deputy that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records of his office, accompanied by a certificate as above provided, is admissible as evidence that the records of his office contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any method authorized by any applicable statute or by the rules of evidence at common law.

45. SUBPOENA. (a) For Attendance of Witnesses; Form; Issuance. Every subpoena shall be issued by the clerk under the seal of the court, shall state the name of the court and the title of the action, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at a time and place therein specified. The clerk shall issue a subpoena, or a subpoena for the production of documentary evidence, signed, and sealed but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall fill it in before service.

(b) For Production Or Documentary Evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, or documents designated therein; but the court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, or documents.

(c) Service. A subpoena may be served by the marshal, by his deputy, or by any other person who is not a party and is not less than 18 years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tendering to him the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the United States or an officer or agency thereof, fees and mileage need not be tendered.

(d) Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination. (1) Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in Rules 30 (a) and 31 (a) constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the clerk of the district court for the district in which the deposition is to be taken of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. A subpoena commanding the production of documentary evidence on the taking of a deposition shall not be used without an order of the court.

(2) A resident of the district in which the deposition is to be taken may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person. A non-resident of the district may be required to attend only in the county wherein he is served with a subpoena, or within 40 miles from the place of service, or at such other place as is fixed by an order of court.

(e) Subpoena for a Hearing or Trial. (1) At the request of any party subpoenas for attendance at a hearing or trial shall be issued by the clerk of the district court for the district in which the hearing or trial is held. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place within the district, or at any place without the district that is within 100 miles of the place of the hearing or trial specified in the subpoena; and, when a statute of the United States provides therefor, the court upon proper application and cause shown may authorize the service of a subpoena at any other place.

(2) A subpoena directed to a witness in a foreign country shall issue under the circumstances and in the manner and be served as provided in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 1783. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(f) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued.

46. EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY. Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been necessary it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

47. JURORS. (a) Examination of Jurors. The court may permit the parties or their attorneys to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. In the latter event, the court shall permit the parties or their attorneys to supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper or shall itself submit to the prospective jurors such additional questions of the parties or their attorneys as it deems proper.

(b) Alternate Jurors. The court may direct that one or two jurors in addition to the regular panel be called and impanelled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath, and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities, and privileges as the principal jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a principal juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. If one or two alternate jurors are called each party is entitled to one peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law. The additional peremptory challenge may be used only against an alternate juror, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against the alternates.

48. JURIES OF LESS THAN TWELVE; MAJORITY VERDICT. The parties may stipulate that the jury shall consist of any number less than twelve or that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury.

49. SPECIAL VERDICTS AND INTERROGATORIES. (a) Special Verdicts. The court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use such other method of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleading or by the evidence, each party waives his right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires he demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand the court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.

(b) General Verdict Accompanied By Answer to Interrogatories. The court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are harmonious, the court shall direct the entry of the appropriate judgment upon the verdict and answers. When the answers are consistent with each other but one or more is inconsistent with the general verdict, the court may direct the entry of judgment in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict or may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, the court shall not direct the entry of judgment but may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial.

50. MOTION FOR A DIRECTED VERDICT. (a) When Made; Effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor.

(b) Reservation of Decision on Motion. Whenever a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Within 10 days after the reception of a verdict, a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any judgment entered thereon set aside and to have judgment entered in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict; or if a verdict was not returned such party, within 10 days after the jury has been discharged, may move for judgment in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion, or a new trial may be prayed for in the alternative. If a verdict was returned the court may allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed. If no verdict was returned the court may direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed or may order a new trial.

51. INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY; OBJECTION. At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury, but the court shall instruct the jury after the arguments are completed. No party may assign as error the giving or the failure to give an instruction unless he objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of his objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury.

52. FINDINGS BY THE COURT. (a) Effect. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon and direct the entry of the appropriate judgment; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge of the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a master, to the extent that the court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the court.

(b) Amendment. Upon motion of a party made not later than 10 days after entry of judgment the court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 59. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the district court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

53. MASTERS. (a) Appointment and Compensation. Each district court with the concurrence of a majority of all the judges thereof may appoint one or more standing masters for its district, and the court in which any action is pending may appoint a special master therein. As used in these rules the word "master" includes a referee, an auditor, and an examiner. The compensation to be allowed to a master shall be fixed by the court, and shall be charged upon such of the parties or paid out of any fund or subject matter of the action, which is in the custody and control of the court as the court may direct. The master shall not retain his report as security for his compensation; but when the party ordered to pay the compensation allowed by the court does not pay it after notice and within the time prescribed by the court, the master is entitled to a writ of execution against the delinquent party.

(b) Reference. A reference to a master shall be the exception and not the rule. In actions to be tried by a jury, a reference shall be made only when the issues are complicated; in actions to be tried without a jury, save in matters of account, a reference shall be made only upon a showing that some exceptional condition requires it.

(c) Powers. The order of reference to the master may specify or limit his powers and may direct him to report only upon particular issues or to do or perform particular acts or to receive and report evidence only and may fix the time and place for beginning and closing the hearings and for the filing of the master's report. Subject to the specifications and limitations stated in the order, the master has and shall exercise the power to regulate all proceedings in every hearing before him and to do all acts and take all measures necessary or proper for the efficient performance of his duties under the order. He may require the production before him of evidence upon all matters embraced in the reference, including the production of all books, papers, vouchers, documents, and writings applicable thereto. He may rule upon the admissibility of evidence unless otherwise directed by the order of reference and has the authority to put witnesses on oath and may himself examine them and may call the parties to the action and examine them upon oath. When a party so requests, the master shall make a record of the evidence offered and excluded in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in Rule 43 (c) for a court sitting without a jury.

(d) Proceedings. (1) Meetings. When a reference is made, the clerk shall forthwith furnish the master with a copy of the order of reference. Upon receipt thereof unless the order of reference otherwise provides, the master shall forthwith set a time and place for the first meeting of the parties or their attorneys to be held within 20 days after the date of the order of reference and shall notify the parties or their attorneys. It is the duty of the master to proceed with all reasonable diligence. Either party, on notice to the parties and master, may apply to the court for an order requiring the master to speed the proceedings and to make his report. If a party fails to appear at the time and place appointed, the master may proceed ex parte or, in his discretion, adjourn the proceedings to a future day, giving notice to the absent party of the adjournment.

(2) Witnesses. The parties may procure the attendance of witnesses before the master by the issuance and service of subpoenas as provided in Rule 45. If without adequate excuse a witness fails to appear or give evidence, he may be punished as for a contempt and be subjected to the consequences, penalties, and remedies provided in Rules 37 and 45.

(3) Statement of Accounts. When matters of accounting are in issue before the master, he may prescribe the form in which the accounts shall be submitted and in any proper case may require or receive in evidence a statement by a certified public accountant who is called as a witness. Upon objection of a party to any of the items thus submitted or upon a showing that the form of statement is insufficient, the master may require a different form of statement to be furnished, or the accounts or specific items thereof to be proved by oral examination of the accounting parties or upon written interrogatories or in such other manner as he directs.

(e) Report. (1) Contents and Filing. The master shall prepare a report upon the matters submitted to him by the order of reference and, if required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, he shall set them forth in the report. He shall file the report with the clerk of the court and in an action to be tried without a jury, unless otherwise directed by the order of reference, shall file with it a transcript of the proceedings and of the evidence and the original exhibits. The clerk shall forthwith mail to all parties notice of the filing.

(2) In Non-Jury Actions. In an action to be tried without a jury the court shall accept the master's findings of fact unless clearly erroneous. Within 10 days after being served with notice of the filing of the report any party may serve written objections thereto upon the other parties. Application to the court for action upon the report and upon objections thereto shall be by motion and upon notice as prescribed in Rule 6 (d). The court after hearing may adopt the report or may modify it or may reject it in whole or in part or may receive further evidence or may recommit it with instructions.

(3) In Jury Actions. In an action to be tried by a jury the master shall not be directed to report the evidence. His findings upon the issues submitted to him are admissible as evidence of the matters found and may be read to the jury, subject to the ruling of the court upon any objections in point of law which may be made to the report.

(4) Stipulation as to Findings. The effect of a master's report is the same whether or not the parties have consented to the reference; but, when the parties stipulate that a master's findings of fact shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered.

(5) Draft Report. Before filing his report a master may submit a draft thereof to counsel for all parties for the purpose of receiving their suggestions.

VII. JUDGMENT

54. JUDGMENTS; COSTS. (a) Definition; Form. "Judgment" as used in these rules includes a decree and any order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a master, or the record of prior proceedings.

(b) Judgment At Various Stages. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, the court at any stage, upon a determination of the issues material to a particular claim and all counterclaims arising out of the transaction or occurrence which is the subject matter of the claim, may enter a judgment disposing of such claim. The judgment shall terminate the action with respect to the claim so disposed of and the action shall proceed as to the remaining claims. In case a separate judgment is so entered, the court by order may stay its enforcement until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

(c) Demand for Judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in his pleadings.

(d) Costs. Except when express provision therefor is made either in a statute of the United States or in these rules, costs shall be allowed as of course to the prevailing party unless the court otherwise directs; but costs against the United States, its officers, and agencies shall be imposed only to the extent permitted by law. Costs may be taxed by the clerk on one day's notice. On motion served within 5 days thereafter, the action of the clerk may be reviewed by the court.

55. DEFAULT. (a) Entry. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by these rules and that fact is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk shall enter his default.

(b) Judgment. Judgment by default may be entered as follows:

(1) By the Clerk. When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is for a sum certain or for a sum which can be computed by the clerk and upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the defendant, if he has been defaulted for failure to appear and if he is not an infant or incompetent person.

(2) By the Court. In all other cases the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the court therefor; but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, he (or, if appearing by representative, his representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least 3 days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when and as required by any statute of the United States.

(c) Setting Aside Default. For good cause shown the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Rule 60 (b).

(d) Plaintiffs, Counterclaimants, Cross-Claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Rule 54 (c).

(e) Judgment Against the United States. No judgment by default shall be entered against the United States or an officer or agency thereof unless the claimant establishes his claim or right to relief by evidence satisfactory to the court.

56. SUMMARY JUDGMENT. (a) For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the pleading in answer thereto has been served, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

(b) For Defending Party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

(c) Motion and Proceedings Thereon. The motion shall be served at least 10 days before the time specified for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that, except as to the amount of damages, there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

(d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. If on motion under this rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions or by further affidavits.

(f) When Affidavits Are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify his opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(g) Affidavits Made in Bad Faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

57. DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS. The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment pursuant to Title 28, U.S.C., Section 2201, shall be in accordance with these rules, and the right to trial by jury may be demanded under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Rules 38 and 39. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

58. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT. Unless the court otherwise directs, judgment upon the verdict of a jury shall be entered forthwith by the clerk; but the court shall direct the appropriate judgment to be entered upon a special verdict or upon a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories returned by a jury pursuant to Rule 49. When the court directs the entry of a judgment that a party recover only money or costs or that there be no recovery, the clerk shall enter judgment forthwith upon receipt by him of the direction; but when the court directs entry of judgment for other relief, the judge shall promptly settle or approve the form of the judgment and direct that it be entered by the clerk. The notation of a judgment in the civil docket as provided by Rule 79 (a) constitutes the entry of the judgment; and the judgment is not effective before such entry.

59. NEW TRIALS. (a) Grounds. A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues (1) in an action in which there has been a trial by jury, for any of the reasons for which new trials have heretofore been granted in actions at law in the courts of the United States; and (2) in an action tried without a jury, for any of the reasons for which rehearings have heretofore been granted in suits in equity in the courts of the United States. On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

(b) Time for Motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than 10 days after the entry of the judgment, except that a motion for a new trial on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made after the expiration of such period and before the expiration of the time for appeal, with leave of court obtained on notice and hearing and on a showing of due diligence.

(c) Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for a new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has 10 days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding 20 days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

(d) On Initiative of Court. Not later than 10 days after entry of judgment the court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party, and in the order shall specify the grounds therefor.

60. RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER. (a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud, Etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this subdivision (b) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified as provided in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 1655, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review, are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

61. HARMLESS ERROR. No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying, or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the court inconsistent with substantial justice. The court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

62. STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT. (a) Automatic Stay; Exceptions, Injunctions, Receiverships, and Patent Accountings.

Except as stated herein, no execution shall issue upon a judgment nor shall proceedings be taken for its enforcement until the expiration of 10 days after its entry. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action, or a judgment or order directing an accounting in an action for infringement of letters patent, shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal. The provisions of subdivision (c) of this rule govern the suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting of an injunctions during the pendency of an appeal.

(b) Stay on Motion for New Trial or for Judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial made pursuant to Rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to Rule 60, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Rule 50, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Rule 52 (b).

(c) Injunction Pending Appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party. If the judgment appealed from is rendered by a district court of three judges specially constituted pursuant to a statute of the United States, no such order shall be made except (1) by such court sitting in open court or (2) by the assent of all the judges of such court evidenced by their signatures to the order.

(d) Stay Upon Appeal. When an appeal is taken the appellant by giving a supersedeas bond may obtain a stay subject to the exceptions contained in subdivision (a) of this rule. The bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal or of procuring the order allowing the appeal, as the case may be. The stay is effective when the supersedeas bond is approved by the court.

(e) Stay in Favor of the United States or Agency Thereof. When an appeal is taken by the United States or an officer or agency thereof or by direction of any department of the Government of the United States and the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

(f) Stay According to State Law. In any state in which a judgment is a lien upon the property of the judgment debtor and in which the judgment debtor is entitled to a stay of execution, a judgment debtor is entitled, in the district court held therein, to such stay as would be accorded him had the action been maintained in the courts of that state.

(g) Power of Appellate Court Not Limited. The provisions in this rule do not limit any power of an appellate court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(h) Stay of Judgment Upon Multiple Claims. When a court has ordered a final judgment on some but not all of the claims presented in the action under the conditions stated in Rule 54 (b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered. Added Dec. 27, 1946.

63. DISABILITY OF A JUDGE. If by reason of death, sickness, or other disability, a judge before whom an action has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the court under these rules after a verdict is returned or findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed, then any other judge regularly sitting in or assigned to the court in which the action was tried may perform those duties; but if such other judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

VIII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

64. SEIZURE OF PERSON OR PROPERTY. At the commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the state in which the district court is held, existing at the time the remedy is sought, subject to the following qualifications: (1) any existing statute of the United States governs to the extent to which it is applicable; (2) the action in which any of the foregoing remedies is used shall be commenced and prosecuted or, if removed from a state court, shall be prosecuted after removal, pursuant to these rules. The remedies thus available include arrest, attachment, garnishment, replevin, sequestration, and other corresponding or equivalent remedies, however designated and regardless of whether by state procedure the remedy is ancillary to an action or must be obtained by an independent action.

65. INJUNCTIONS. (a) Preliminary; Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party.

(b) Temporary Restraining Order; Notice; Hearing; Duration. No temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice to the adverse party unless it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before notice can be served and a hearing had thereon. Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be indorsed with the date and hour of issuance; shall be filed forthwith in the clerk's office and entered of record; shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice; and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed 10 days, as the court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless the party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended for a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order is granted without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction shall be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and takes precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction and, if he does not do so, the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On 2 days' notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification and in that event the court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

(c) Security. No restraining order or preliminary injunction shall issue except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. No such security shall be required of the United States or of an officer or agency thereof.

(d) Form and Scope of Injunction or Restraining Order. Every order granting an injunction and every restraining order shall set forth the reasons for its issuance; shall be specific in terms; shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and is binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

(e) Employer and Employee; Interpleader; Constitutional Cases. These rules do not modify any statute of the United States relating to temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunctions in actions affecting employer and employee; or the provisions of Title 28, U.S.C., Section 2561, relating to preliminary injunctions in actions of interpleader or in the nature of interpleader; or Title 28, U.S.C., Section 2284, relating to actions required by Act of Congress to be heard and determined by a district court of three judges. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

RULE 66. RECEIVERS APPOINTED BY FEDERAL COURTS. An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the court. The practice in the administration of estates by receivers or by other similar officers appointed by the court shall be in accordance with the practice heretofore followed in the courts of the United States or as provided in rules promulgated by the district courts. In all other respects the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by these rules. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

RULE 67. DEPOSIT IN COURT. In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of court, may deposit with the court all or any part of such sum or thing. Money paid into court under this rule shall be deposited and withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of Title 28, U.S.C., Sections 2041 and 2042; the Act of June 26, 1934, c. 756, Section 23, as amended (48 Stat. 1236, 58 Stat. 845), U.S.C., Title 31, Section 725v; or any like statute. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

68. OFFER OF JUDGMENT. At any time more than 10 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 10 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the clerk shall enter judgment. If the offer is not so accepted it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible. If the adverse party fails to obtain a judgment more favorable than that offered, he shall not recover costs in the district court from the time of the offer but shall pay costs from that time.

69. EXECUTION. (a) In General. Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the court directs otherwise. The procedure on execution, in proceedings supplementary to and in aid of a judgment, and in proceedings on and in aid of execution shall be in accordance with the practice and procedure of the state in which the district court is held, existing at the time the remedy is sought, except that any statute of the United States governs to the extent that it is applicable. In aid of the judgment or execution, the judgment creditor or his successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may examine any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules for taking depositions or in the manner provided by the practice of the state in which the district court is held.

(b) Against Certain Public Officers. When a judgment has been entered against a collector or other officer of revenue under the circumstances stated in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 2006, or against an officer of Congress in an action mentioned in the Act of March 3, 1875, c. 130, Section 8 (18 Stat. 401), U.S.C., Title 2, Section 118, and when the court has given the certificate of probable cause for his act as provided in those statutes, execution shall not issue against the officer or his property but the final judgment shall be satisfied as provided in such statutes. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

70. JUDGMENT FOR SPECIFIC ACTS; VESTING TITLE. If a judgment directs a party to execute a conveyance of land or to deliver deeds or other documents or to perform any other specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment or sequestration against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt. If real or personal property is within the district, the court in lieu of directing a conveyance thereof may enter a judgment divesting the title of any party and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law. When any order or judgment is for the delivery of possession, the party in whose favor it is entered is entitled to a writ of execution or assistance upon application to the clerk.

71. PROCESS IN BEHALF OF AND AGAINST PERSONS NOT PARTIES. When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, he may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if he were a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, he is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if he were a party.

RULE 71A. CONDEMNATION OF PROPERTY. (a) Applicability of Other Rules. The Rules of Civil Procedure for the United States District Courts govern the procedure for the condemnation of real and personal property under the power of eminent domain, except as otherwise provided in this rule.

(b) Joinder of Parties. The plaintiff may join in the same action one or more separate pieces of property, whether in the same or different ownership and whether or not sought for the same use.

(c) Complaint.

(1) Caption. The complaint shall contain a caption as provided in Rule 10(a), except that the plaintiff shall name as defendants the property, designated generally by kind, quantity, and location, and at least one of the owners of some part of or interest in the property.

(2) Contents. The complaint shall contain a short and plain statement of the authority for the taking, the use for which the property is to be taken, a description of the property sufficient for its identification, the interests to be acquired, and as to each separate piece of property a designation of the defendants who have been joined as owners thereof or of some interest therein. Upon the commencement of the action, the plaintiff need join as defendants only the persons having or claiming an interest in the property whose names are then known, but prior to any hearing involving the compensation to be paid for a piece of property, the plaintiff shall add as defendants all persons having or claiming an interest in that property whose names can be ascertained by a reasonably diligent search of the records, considering the character and value of the property involved and the interests to be acquired, and also those whose names have otherwise been learned. All others may be made defendants under the designation "Unknown Owners." Process shall be served as provided in subdivision (d) of this rule upon all defendants, whether named as defendants at the time of the commencement of the action or subsequently added, and a defendant may answer as provided in subdivision (e) of this rule. The court meanwhile may order such distribution of a deposit as the facts warrant.

(3) Filing. In addition to filing the complaint with the court, the plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk at least one copy thereof for the use of the defendants and additional copies at the request of the clerk or of a defendant.

(d) Process.

(1) Notice; Delivery. Upon the filing of the complaint the plaintiff shall forthwith deliver to the clerk joint or several notices directed to the defendants named or designated in the complaint. Additional notices directed to defendants subsequently added shall be so delivered. The delivery of the notice and its service have the same effect as the delivery and service of the summons under Rule 4.

(2) Same; Form. Each notice shall state the court, the title of the action, the name of the defendant to whom it is directed, that the action is to condemn property, a description of his property sufficient for its identification, the interest to be taken, the authority for the taking, the uses for which the property is to be taken, that the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney an answer within 20 days after service of the notice, and that the failure so to serve an answer constitutes a consent to the taking and to the authority of the court to proceed to hear the action and to fix the compensation. The notice shall conclude with the name of the plaintiff's attorney and an address within the district in which action is brought where he may be served. The notice need contain a description of no other property than that to be taken from the defendants to whom it is directed.

(3) Service of Notice.

(1) Personal Service. Personal service of the notice (but without copies of the complaint) shall be made in accordance with Rule 4 (c) and (d) upon a defendant who resides within the United States or its territories or insular possessions and whose residence is known. The provisions of Rule 4 (f) shall not be applicable.

(ii) Service by Publication. Upon the filing of a certificate of the plaintiff's attorney stating that he believes a defendant cannot be personally served, because after diligent inquiry within the state in which the complaint is filed his place of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff or, if ascertained, that it is beyond the territorial limits of personal service as provided in this rule, service of the notice shall be made on this defendant by publication in a newspaper published in the county where the property is located, or if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper having a general circulation where the property is located, once a week for not less than three successive weeks. Prior to the last publication, a copy of the notice shall also be mailed to a defendant who cannot be personally served as provided in this rule but whose place of residence is then known. Unknown owners may be served by publication in like manner by a notice addressed to "Unknown Owners."

Service by publication is complete upon the date of the last publication. Proof of publication and mailing shall be made by certificate of the plaintiff's attorney, to which shall be attached a printed copy of the published notice with the name and dates of the newspaper marked thereon.

(4) Return; Amendment. Proof of service of the notice shall be made and amendment of the notice or proof of its service allowed in the manner provided for the return and amendment of the summons under Rule 4(g) and (h).

(e) Appearance or Answer. If a defendant has no objection or defense to the taking of his property, he may serve a notice of appearance designating the property in which he claims to be interested. Thereafter he shall receive notice of all proceedings affecting it. If a defendant has any objection or defense to the taking of his property, he shall serve his answer within 20 days after the service of notice upon him. The answer shall identify the property in which he claims to have an interest, state the nature and extent of the interest claimed, and state all his objections and defenses to the taking of his property. A defendant waives all defenses and objections not so presented, but at the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not he has previously appeared or answered, he may present evidence as to the amount of the compensation to be paid for his property, and he may share in the distribution of the award. No other pleading or motion asserting any additional defense or objection shall be allowed.

(f) Amendment of Pleadings. Without leave of court, the plaintiff may amend the complaint at any time before the trial of the issue of compensation and as many times as desired, but no amendment shall be made which will result in a dismissal forbidden by subdivision (i) of this rule. The plaintiff need not serve a copy of an amendment, but shall serve notice of the filing, as provided in Rule 5(b), upon any party affected thereby who has appeared and, in the manner provided in subdivision (d) of this rule, upon any party affected thereby who has not appeared. The plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk of the court for the use of the defendants at least one copy of each amendment, and he shall furnish additional copies on the request of the clerk or of a defendant. Within the time allowed by subdivision (e) of this rule a defendant may serve his answer to the amended pleading, in the form and manner and with the same effect as there provided.

(g) Substitution of Parties. If a defendant dies or becomes incompetent or transfers his interest after his joinder, the court may order substitution of the proper party upon motion and notice of hearing. If the motion and notice of hearing are to be served upon a person not already a party, service shall be made as provided in subdivision (d) (3) of this rule.

(h) Trial. If the action involves the exercise of the power of eminent domain under the law of the United States, any tribunal specially constituted by an Act of Congress governing the case for the trial of the issue of just compensation shall be the tribunal for the determination of that issue; but if there is no such specially constituted tribunal any party may have a trial by jury of the issue of just compensation by filing a demand therefor within the time allowed for answer or within such further time as the court may fix, unless the court in its discretion orders that, because of the character, location, or quantity of the property to be condemned, or for other reasons in the interest of justice, the issue of compensation shall be determined by a commission of three persons appointed by it. If a commission is appointed it shall have the powers of a master provided in subdivision (c) of Rule 53 and proceedings before it shall be governed by the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (d) of Rule 53. Its action and report shall be determined by a majority and its findings and report shall have the effect, and be dealt with by the court in accordance with the practice, prescribed in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Rule 53. Trial of all issues shall otherwise be by the court.

(i) Dismissal of Action.

(1) As of Right. If no hearing has begun to determine the compensation to be paid for a piece of property and the plaintiff has not acquired the title or a lesser interest in or taken possession, the plaintiff may dismiss the action as to that property, without an order of the court, by filing a notice of dismissal setting forth a brief description of the property as to which the action is dismissed.

(2) By Stipulation. Before the entry of any judgment vesting the plaintiff with title or a lesser interest in or possession of property, the action may be dismissed in whole or in part, without an order of the court, as to any property by filing a stipulation of dismissal by the plaintiff and the defendant affected thereby; and, if the parties so stipulate, the court may vacate any judgment that has been entered.

(3) By Order of the Court. At any time before compensation for a piece of property has been determined and paid and after motion and hearing, the court may dismiss the action as to that property, except that it shall not dismiss the action as to any part of the property of which the plaintiff has taken possession or in which the plaintiff has taken title or a lesser interest, but shall award just compensation for the possession, title or lesser interest so taken. The court at any time may drop a defendant unnecessarily or improperly joined.

(4) Effect. Except as otherwise provided in the notice, or stipulation of dismissal, or order of the court, any dismissal is without prejudice.

(j) Deposit and Its Distribution. The plaintiff shall deposit with the court any money required by law as a condition to the exercise of the power of eminent domain; and, although not so required, may make a deposit when permitted by statute. In such cases the court and attorneys shall expedite the proceedings for the distribution of the money so deposited and for the ascertainment and payment of just compensation. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant exceeds the amount which has been paid to him on distribution of the deposit, the court shall enter judgment against the plaintiff and in favor of that defendant for the deficiency. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant is less than the amount which has been paid to him, the court shall enter judgment against him and in favor of the plaintiff for the overpayment.

(k) Condemnation Under a State's Power of Eminent Domain. The practice as herein prescribed governs in actions involving the exercise of the power of eminent domain under the law of a state, provided that if the state law makes provision for trial of any issue by jury, or for trial of the issue of compensation by jury or commission or both, that provision shall be followed.

(l) Costs. Costs are not subject to Rule 54(d). Added April 30, 1951, effective August 1, 1951.

IX. APPEALS

72. APPEAL FROM A DISTRICT COURT TO THE SUPREME COURT. When an appeal is permitted by law from a district court to the Supreme Court of the United States, an appeal shall be taken, perfected, and prosecuted pursuant to law and the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States governing such an appeal. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective October 20, 1949.

73. APPEAL TO A COURT OF APPEALS.

(a) When and How Taken. When an appeal is permitted by law from a district court to a court of appeals the time within which an appeal may be taken shall be 30 days from the entry of the judgment appealed from unless a shorter time is provided by law, except that in any action in which the United States or an officer or agency thereof is a party the time as to all parties shall be 60 days from such entry, and except that upon a showing of excusable neglect based on a failure of a party to learn of the entry of the judgment the district court in any action may extend the time for appeal not exceeding 30 days from the expiration of the original time herein prescribed. The running of the time for appeal is terminated by a timely motion made pursuant to any of the rules hereinafter enumerated, and the full time for appeal fixed in this subdivision commences to run and is to be computed from the entry of any of the following orders made upon a timely motion under such rules: granting or denying a motion for judgment under Rule 50(b); or granting or denying a motion under Rule 52(b) to amend or make additional findings of fact, whether or not an alteration of the judgment would be required if the motion is granted; or granting or denying a motion under Rule 59 to alter or amend the judgment; or denying a motion for a new trial under Rule 59.

A party may appeal from a judgment by filing with the district court a notice of appeal. Failure of the appellant to take any of the further steps to secure the review of the judgment appealed from does not affect the validity of the appeal, but is ground only for such remedies as are specified in this rule or, when no remedy is specified, for such action as the appellate court deems appropriate, which may include dismissal of the appeal. If an appeal has not been docketed, the parties, with the approval of the district court, may dismiss the appeal by stipulation filed in that court, or that court may dismiss the appeal upon motion and notice by the appellant. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(b) Notice of Appeal. The notice of appeal shall specify the parties taking the appeal; shall designate the judgment or part thereof appealed from; and shall name the court to which the appeal is taken. Notification of the filing of the notice of appeal shall be given by the clerk by mailing copies thereof to all the parties to the judgment other than the party or parties taking the appeal, but his failure so to do does not affect the validity of the appeal. The notification to a party shall be given by mailing a copy of the notice of appeal to his attorney of record or, if the party is not represented by an attorney, then to the party at his last known address, and such notification is sufficient notwithstanding the death of the party or of his attorney prior to the giving of the notification. The clerk shall note in the civil docket the names of parties to whom he mails the copies, with date of mailing.

(c) Bond on Appeal. Unless a party is exempted by law, a bond for costs on appeal shall be filed with the notice of appeal. The bond shall be in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, unless the court fixes a different amount or unless a supersedeas bond is filed, in which event no separate bond on appeal is required. The bond on appeal shall have sufficient surety and shall be conditioned to secure the payment of costs if the appeal is dismissed or the judgment affirmed, or of such costs as the appellate court may award if the judgment is modified. If a bond on appeal in the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars is given, no approval thereof is necessary. After a bond on appeal is filed an appellee may raise objections to the form of the bond or to the sufficiency of the surety for determination by the clerk. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(d) Supersedeas Bond. Whenever an appellant entitled thereto desires a stay on appeal, he may present to the court for its approval a supersedeas bond which shall have surety or sureties as the court requires. The bond shall be conditioned for the satisfaction of the judgment in full together with costs, interest, and damages for delay, if for any reason the appeal is dismissed or if the judgment is affirmed, and to satisfy in full such modification of the judgment and such costs, interest, and damages as the appellate court may adjudge and award. When the judgment is for the recovery of money not otherwise secured, the amount of the bond shall be fixed at such sum as will cover the whole amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied, costs on the appeal, interest, and damages for delay, unless the court after notice and hearing and for good cause shown fixes a different amount or orders security other than the bond. When the judgment determines the disposition of the property in controversy as in real actions, replevin, and actions to foreclose mortgages or when such property is in the custody of the marshal or when the proceeds of such property or a bond for its value is in the custody or control of the court, the amount of the supersedeas bond shall be fixed at such sum only as will secure the amount recovered for the use and detention of the property, the costs of the action, costs on appeal, interest, and damages for delay.

(e) Failure to File or Insufficiency of Bond. If a bond on appeal or a supersedeas bond is not filed within the time specified, or if the bond filed is found insufficient, and if the action is not yet docketed with the appellate court, a bond may be filed at such time before the action is so docketed as may be fixed by the district court. After the action is so docketed, application for leave to file a bond may be made only in the appellate court.

(f) Judgment Against Surety. By entering into an appeal or supersedeas bond given pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d) of this rule, the surety submits himself to the jurisdiction of the court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the court as his agent upon whom any papers affecting his liability on the bond may be served. His liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the court who shall forthwith mail copies to the surety if his address is known.

(g) Docketing and Record on Appeal. The record on appeal as provided for in Rules 75 and 76 shall be filed with the appellate court and the action there docketed within 40 days from the date of the notice of appeal; except that, when more than one appeal is taken from the same judgment to the same appellate court, the district court may prescribe the time for filing and docketing, which in no event shall be less than 40 days from the date of the first notice of appeal. In all cases the district court in its discretion and with or without motion or notice may extend the time for filing the record on appeal and docketing the action. If its order for extension is made before the expiration of the period for filing and docketing as originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order; but the district court shall not extend the time to a day more than 90 days from the date of the first notice of appeal.

74. JOINT OR SEVERAL APPEALS TO THE SUPREME COURT OR TO A COURT OF APPEALS; SUMMONS AND SEVERANCE ABOLISHED. Parties interested jointly, severally, or otherwise in a judgment may join in an appeal therefrom; or, without summons and severance, any one or more of them may appeal separately or any two or more of them may join in an appeal.

75. RECORD ON APPEAL TO A COURT OF APPEALS. (a) Designation of Contents of Record on Appeal. Promptly after an appeal to a court of appeals is taken, the appellant shall serve upon the appellee and file with the district court a designation of the portions of the record, proceedings, and evidence to be contained in the record on appeal, unless the appellee has already served and filed a designation. Within 10 days after the service and filing of such a designation, any other party to the appeal may serve and file a designation of additional portions of the record, proceedings, and evidence to be included. If the appellee files the original designation, the parties shall proceed under subdivision (b) of this rule as if the appellee were the appellant.

(b) Transcript. If there be designated for inclusion any evidence or proceeding at a trial or hearing which was stenographically reported, the appellant shall file with his designation a copy of the reporter's transcript of the evidence or proceedings included in his designation. If the designation includes only part of the reporter's transcript, the appellant shall file a copy of such additional parts thereof as the appellee may need to enable him to designate and file the parts he desires to have added, and if the appellant fails to do so the court on motion may require him to furnish the additional parts needed. The copy so filed by the appellant shall be available for the use of the other parties. In the event that a copy of the reporter's transcript or of the necessary portions thereof is already on file, the appellant shall not be required to file an additional copy. When the rules of the court of appeals so require, the appellant shall furnish a second copy of the transcript for use in the appellate court. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective October 20, 1949.

(c) Form of Testimony. Testimony of witnesses designated for inclusion need not be in narrative form, but may be in question and answer form. A party may prepare and file with his designation a condensed statement in narrative form of all or part of the testimony, and any other party to the appeal, if dissatisfied with the narrative statement, may require testimony in question and answer form to be substituted for all or part thereof.

(d) Statement of Points. If the appellant does not designate for inclusion the complete record and all the proceedings and evidence in the action, he shall serve with his designation a concise statement of the points on which he intends to rely on the appeal.

(e) Record to Be Abbreviated. All matter not essential to the decision of the questions presented by the appeal shall be omitted. Formal parts of all exhibits and more than one copy of any document shall be excluded. Documents shall be abridged by omitting all irrelevant and formal portions thereof. For any infraction of this rule or for the unnecessary substitution by one party of evidence in question and answer form for a fair narrative statement proposed by another, the appellate court may withhold or impose costs as the circumstances of the case and discouragement of like conduct in the future may require; and costs may be imposed upon offending attorneys or parties.

(f) Stipulation As to Record. Instead of serving designations as above provided, the parties by written stipulation filed with the clerk of the district court may designate the parts of the record, proceedings, and evidence to be included in the record on appeal.

(g) Record to Be Prepared By Clerk—Necessary Parts. The clerk of the district court, under his hand and the seal of the court, shall transmit to the appellate court a true copy of the matter designated by the parties, but shall always include, whether or not designated, copies of the following: the material pleadings without unnecessary duplication; the verdict or the findings of fact and conclusions of law together with the direction for the entry of judgment thereon; in an action tried without a jury, the master's report, if any; the opinion; the judgment or part thereof appealed from; the notice of appeal with date of filing; the designations or stipulations of the parties as to matter to be included in the record; and any statement by the appellant of the points on which he intends to rely. The matter so certified and transmitted constitutes the record on appeal. The clerk shall transmit with the record on appeal a copy thereof when a copy is required by the rules of the court of appeals. The copy of the transcript filed as provided in subdivision (b) of this rule shall be certified by the clerk as a part of the record on appeal and the clerk may not require an additional copy as a requisite to certification.

(h) Power of Court to Correct or Modify Record. It is not necessary for the record on appeal to be approved by the district court or judge thereof except as provided in subdivisions (m) and (n) of this rule and in Rule 76, but, if any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the district court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record on appeal by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the district court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the appellate court, or the appellate court, on a proper suggestion or of its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement shall be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record shall be certified and transmitted by the clerk of the district court. All other questions as to the content and form of the record shall be presented to the court of appeals. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(i) Order As to Original Papers Or Exhibits. Whenever the district court is of opinion that original papers or exhibits should be inspected by the appellate court or sent to the appellate court in lieu of copies, it may make such order therefor and for the safekeeping, transportation, and return thereof as it deems proper.

(j) Record for Preliminary Hearing in Appellate Court. If, prior to the time the complete record on appeal is settled and certified as herein provided, a party desires to docket the appeal in order to make in the appellate court a motion for dismissal, for a stay pending appeal, for additional security on the bond on appeal or on the supersedeas bond, or for any intermediate order, the clerk of the district court at his request shall certify and transmit to the appellate court a copy of such portion of the record or proceedings below as is needed for that purpose.

(k) Several Appeals. When more than one appeal is taken to the same court from the same judgment, a single record on appeal shall be prepared containing all the matter designated or agreed upon by the parties, without duplication.

(l) Printing. What part of the record on appeal filed in the appellate court shall be printed and the manner of the printing and the supervision thereof shall be as prescribed in the rules of the court to which the appeal is taken; but the type, paper, and dimensions of printed matter in the circuit court of appeals shall conform to the rules of the Supreme Court relating to records on appeals to that court.

(m) Appeals in Forma Pauperis. Upon leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the district court may by order specify some different and more economical manner by which the record on appeal may be prepared and settled, to the end that the appellant may be enabled to present his case to the appellate court. Added, Dec. 27, 1946.

(n) Appeals When No Stenographic Report Was Made. In the event no stenographic report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, the appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection, for use instead of a stenographic transcript. This statement shall be served on the appellee who may serve objections or propose amendments thereto within 10 days after service upon him. Thereupon the statement, with the objections or proposed amendments, shall be submitted to the district court for settlement and approval and as settled and approved shall be included by the clerk of the court in the record on appeal. Added Dec. 27, 1946.

(o) Rule for Transmission of Original Papers. Whenever a court of appeals provides by rule for the hearing of appeals on the original papers, the clerk of the district court shall transmit them to the appellate court in lieu of the copies provided by this Rule 75. The transmittal shall be within such time or extended time as is provided in Rule 73 (g), except that the district court by order may fix a shorter time. The clerk shall transmit all the original papers in the file dealing with the action or the proceeding in which the appeal is taken, with the exception of such omissions as are agreed upon by written stipulation of the parties on file, and shall append his certificate identifying the papers with reasonable definiteness. If a transcript of the testimony is on file the clerk shall transmit that also; otherwise the appellant shall file with the clerk for transmission such transcript of the testimony as he deems necessary for his appeal subject to the right of an appellee either to file additional portions or to procure an order from the district court requiring the appellant to do so. After the appeal has been disposed of, the papers shall be returned to the custody of the district court. The provisions of subdivisions (h) (j), (k), (l), (m), and (n) shall be applicable but with reference to the original papers as herein provided rather than to a copy or copies. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

76. RECORD ON APPEAL TO A COURT OF APPEALS; AGREED STATEMENT. When the questions presented by an appeal to a court of appeals can be determined without an examination of all the pleadings, evidence, and proceedings in the court below, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the questions arose and were decided in the district court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the questions by the appellate court. The statement shall include a copy of the judgment appealed from, a copy of the notice of appeal with its filing date, and a concise statement of the points to be relied on by the appellant. If the statement conforms to the truth, it, together with such additions as the court may consider necessary fully to present the questions raised by the appeal, shall be approved by the district court and shall then be certified to the appellate court as the record on appeal.

X. DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS

77. DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS. (a) District Courts Always Open. The district courts shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing any pleading or other proper paper, of issuing and returning mesne and final process, and of making and directing all interlocutory motions, orders, and rules.

(b) Trials and Hearings; Orders in Chambers. All trials upon the merits shall be conducted in open court and so far as convenient in a regular court room. All other acts or proceedings may be done or conducted by a judge in chambers, without the attendance of the clerk or other court officials and at any place either within or without the district; but no hearing, other than one ex parte, shall be conducted outside the district without the consent of all parties affected thereby.

(c) Clerk's Office and Orders By Clerk. The clerk's office with the clerk or a deputy in attendance shall be open during business hours on all days except Sundays and legal holidays. All motions and applications in the clerk's office for issuing mesne process, for issuing final process to enforce and execute judgments, for entering defaults or judgments by default, and for other proceedings which do not require allowance or order of the court are grantable of course by the clerk; but his action may be suspended or altered or rescinded by the court upon cause shown.

(d) Notice of Orders Or Judgments. Immediately upon the entry of an order or judgment the clerk shall serve a notice of the entry by mail in the manner provided for in Rule 5 upon every party affected thereby who is not in default for failure to appear, and shall make a note in the docket of the mailing. Such mailing is sufficient notice for all purposes for which notice of the entry of an order is required by these rules; but any party may in addition serve a notice of such entry in the manner provided in Rule 5 for the service of papers.

78. MOTION DAY. Unless local conditions make it impractical, each district court shall establish regular times and places, at intervals sufficiently frequent for the prompt dispatch of business, at which motions requiring notice and hearing may be heard and disposed of; but the judge at any time or place and on such notice, if any, as he considers reasonable may make orders for the advancement, conduct, and hearing of actions.

To expedite its business, the court may make provision by rule or order for the submission and determination of motions without oral hearing upon brief written statements of reasons in support and opposition.

79. BOOKS AND RECORDS KEPT BY THE CLERK AND ENTRIES THEREIN. (a) Civil Docket. The clerk shall keep a book known as "civil docket" of such form and style as may be prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with the approval of the Judicial Conference of the United States, and shall enter therein each civil action to which these rules are made applicable. Actions shall be assigned consecutive file numbers. The file number of each action shall be noted on the folio of the docket whereon the first entry of the action is made. All papers filed with the clerk, all process issued and returns made thereon, all appearances, orders, verdicts, and judgments shall be noted chronologically in the civil docket on the folio assigned to the action and shall be marked with its file number. These notations shall be brief but shall show the nature of each paper filed or writ issued and the substance of each order or judgment of the court and of the returns showing execution of process. The notation of an order or judgment shall show the date the notation is made. When in an action trial by jury has been properly demanded or ordered the clerk shall enter the word "jury" on the folio assigned to that action.

(b) Civil Judgments and Orders. The clerk shall keep, in such form and manner as the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with the approval of the Judicial Conference of the United States may prescribe, a correct copy of every final judgment or appealable order, or order affecting title to or lien upon real or personal property, and any other order which the court may direct to be kept. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(c) Indices; Calendars. Separate and suitable indices of the civil docket and of the civil order book shall be kept by the clerk under the direction of the court. There shall be prepared under the direction of the court calendars of all actions ready for trial, which shall distinguish "jury actions" from "court actions."

(d) Other Books and Records of the Clerk. The clerk shall also keep such other books and records as may be required from time to time by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts with the approval of the Judicial Conference of the United States. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

80. STENOGRAPHER; STENOGRAPHIC REPORT OR TRANSCRIPT AS EVIDENCE. (a) Stenographer. A court or master may direct that evidence be taken stenographically and may appoint a stenographer for that purpose. His fees shall be fixed by the court and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the court. The cost of a transcript shall be paid in the first instance by the party ordering the transcript.

(b) Official Stenographers. Each district court may designate one or more official court stenographers for the district and fix by rule of court the compensation which such stenographers shall be entitled to charge for their services, with provision that amounts properly paid by parties for the service of such stenographers be taxable as costs in the case in the discretion of the trial judge. The work of the stenographers shall be so arranged as to avoid delay in furnishing transcripts ordered for the purposes of motions for new trial, for amended findings, or for appeals.

(c) Stenographic Report Or Transcript As Evidence. Whenever the testimony of a witness at a trial or hearing which was stenographically reported is admissible in evidence at a later trial, it may be proved by the transcript thereof duly certified by the person who reported the testimony.

XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

81. APPLICABILITY IN GENERAL. (a) To What Proceedings Applicable. (1) These rules do not apply to proceedings in admiralty. They do not apply to proceedings in bankruptcy or proceedings in copyright under Title 17, U.S.C., except in so far as they may be made applicable thereto by rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of the United States. They do not apply to probate, adoption, or lunacy proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia except to appeals therein.

(2) In the following proceedings appeals are governed by these rules, but they are not applicable otherwise than on appeal except to the extent that the practice in such proceedings is not set forth in statutes of the United States and has heretofore conformed to the practice in actions at law or suits in equity: admission to citizenship, habeas corpus, quo warranto, and forfeiture of property for violation of a statute of the United States. The requirements of Title 28, U.S.C., Section 2253, relating to certification of probable cause in certain appeals in habeas corpus cases remain in force.

(3) In proceedings under Title 9, U.S.C., relating to arbitration, or under the Act of May 20, 1926, c. 347, Section 9 (44 Stat. 585), U.S.C., Title 45, Section 159, relating to boards of arbitration of railway labor disputes, these rules apply to appeals, but otherwise only to the extent that matters of procedure are not provided for in those statutes. These rules apply (1) to proceedings to compel the giving of testimony or production of documents in accordance with a subpoena issued by an officer or agency of the United States under any statute of the United States except as otherwise provided by statute or by rules of the district court or by order of the court in the proceedings, and (2) to appeals in such proceedings.

(4) These rules do not alter the method prescribed by the Act of February 18, 1922, c. 57, Section 2 (42 Stat. 388), U.S.C., Title 7, Section 292; or by the Act of June 10, 1930, c. 436, Section 7 (46 Stat. 534), as amended, U.S.C., Title 7, Section 499g(c), for instituting proceedings in the United States district courts to review orders of the Secretary of Agriculture; or prescribed by the Act of June 25, 1934, c. 742, Section 2 (48 Stat. 1214), U.S.C., Title 15, Section 522, for instituting proceedings to review orders of the Secretary of Commerce; or prescribed by the Act of February 22, 1935, c. 18, Section 5 (49 Stat. 31), U.S.C., Title 15, Section 715d(c), as extended for instituting proceedings to review orders of petroleum control boards; but the conduct of such proceedings in the district courts shall be made to conform to these rules so far as applicable.

(5) These rules do not alter the practice in the United States district courts prescribed in the Act of July 5, 1935, c. 372, Sections 9 and 10 (49 Stat. 453), as amended, U.S.C., Title 29, Sections 159 and 160, for beginning and conducting proceedings to enforce orders of the National Labor Relations Board; and in respects not covered by those statutes, the practice in the district courts shall conform to these rules so far as applicable.

(6) These rules apply to proceedings for enforcement or review of compensation orders under the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, Act of March 4, 1927, c. 509, Sections 18, 21 (44 Stat. 1434, 1436), as amended, U.S.C., Title 33, Sections 918, 921, except to the extent that matters of procedure are provided for in that Act. The provisions for service by publication and for answer in proceedings to cancel certificates of citizenship under the Act of October 14, 1940, c. 876, Section 338 (54 Stat. 1158), U.S.C., Title 8, Section 738, remain in effect. As amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(7) Abrogated by Order effective Aug. 1, 1951.

(b) Scire Facias and Mandamus. The writs of scire facias and mandamus are abolished. Relief heretofore available by mandamus or scire facias may be obtained by appropriate action or by appropriate motion under the practice prescribed in these rules.

(c) Removed Actions. These rules apply to civil actions removed to the United States district courts from the state courts and govern procedure after removal. Repleading is not necessary unless the court so orders. In a removed action in which the defendant has not answered, he shall answer or present the other defenses or objections available to him under these rules within 20 days after the receipt through service or otherwise of a copy of the initial pleading setting forth the claim for relief upon which the action or proceeding is based, or within 20 days after the service of summons upon such initial pleading, then filed, or within 5 days after the filing of the petition for removal, whichever period is longest. If at the time of removal all necessary pleadings have been served, a party entitled to trial by jury under Rule 38 shall be accorded it, if his demand therefor is served within 10 days after the petition for removal is filed if he is the petitioner, or if he is not the petitioner within 10 days after service on him of the notice of filing the petition. As amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(d) District of Columbia; Courts and Judges. (Abrogated Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.)

(e) Law Applicable. Whenever in these rules the law of the state in which the district court is held is made applicable, the law applied in the District Court of the District of Columbia governs proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. When the word "state" is used, it includes, if appropriate, the District of Columbia. When the term "statute of the United States" is used, it includes, so far as concerns proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, any Act of Congress locally applicable to and in force in the District of Columbia. When the law of a state is referred to, the word "law" includes the statutes of that state and the state judicial decisions construing them. Amended Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

82. JURISDICTION AND VENUE UNAFFECTED. These rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the United States district courts or the venue of actions therein.

83. RULES BY DISTRICT COURTS. Each district court by action of a majority of the judges thereof may from time to time make and amend rules governing its practice not inconsistent with these rules. Copies of rules and amendments so made by any district court shall upon their promulgation be furnished to the Supreme Court of the United States. In all cases not provided for by rule, the district courts may regulate their practice in any manner not inconsistent with these rules.

84. FORMS. These forms contained in the Appendix of Forms are intended to indicate, subject to the provisions of these rules, the simplicity and brevity of statement which the rules contemplate.

85. TITLE. The rules may be known and cited as the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

86. EFFECTIVE DATE. (a) These rules will take effect on the day which is 3 months subsequent to the adjournment of the second regular session of the 75th Congress, but if that day is prior to September 1, 1938, then these rules will take effect on September 1, 1938. They govern all proceedings in actions brought after they take effect and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court their application in a particular action pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the former procedure applies.

(b) Effective Date of Amendments. The amendments adopted by the Supreme Court on December 27, 1946, and transmitted to the Attorney General on January 2, 1947, shall take effect on the day which is three months subsequent to the adjournment of the first regular session of the 80th Congress, but, if that day is prior to September 1, 1947, then these amendments shall take effect on September 1, 1947. They govern all proceedings in actions brought after they take effect and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court their application in a particular action pending when the amendments take effect would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the former procedure applies. Added Dec. 27, 1946.

(c) Effective Date of Amendments. The amendments adopted by the Supreme Court on December 29, 1948, and transmitted to the Attorney General on December 31, 1948, shall take effect on the day following the adjournment of the first regular session of the 81st Congress. Added Dec. 29, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

I. SCOPE, PURPOSE, AND CONSTRUCTION

Rule 1. Scope

These rules govern the procedure in the courts of the United States and before United States commissioners in all criminal proceedings, with the exceptions stated in Rule 54.

Rule 2. Purpose and Construction

These rules are intended to provide for the just determination of every criminal proceeding. They shall be construed to secure simplicity in procedure, fairness in administration and the elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay.

II. PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule 3. The Complaint

The complaint is a written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be made upon oath before a commissioner or other officer empowered to commit persons charged with offenses against the United States.

Rule 4. Warrant or Summons Upon Complaint

(a) Issuance. If it appears from the complaint that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, a warrant for the arrest of the defendant shall issue to any officer authorized by law to execute it. Upon the request of the attorney for the government a summons instead of a warrant shall issue. More than one warrant or summons may issue on the same complaint. If a defendant fails to appear in response to the summons, a warrant shall issue.

(b) Form.

(1) Warrant. The warrant shall be signed by the commissioner and shall contain the name of the defendant or, if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall describe the offense charged in the complaint. It shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought before the nearest available commissioner.

(2) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the warrant except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before a commissioner at a stated time and place.

(c) Execution or Service; and Return.

(1) By Whom. The warrant shall be executed by a marshal or by some other officer authorized by law. The summons may be served by any person authorized to serve a summons in a civil action.

(2) Territorial Limits. The warrant may be executed or the summons may be served at any place within the jurisdiction of the United States.

(3) Manner. The warrant shall be executed by the arrest of the defendant. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of the arrest, but upon request he shall show the warrant to the defendant as soon as possible. If the officer does not have the warrant in his possession at the time of the arrest, he shall then inform the defendant of the offense charged and of the fact that a warrant has been issued. The summons shall be served upon a defendant by delivering a copy to him personally, or by leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein or by mailing it to the defendant's last known address.

(4) Return. The officer executing a warrant shall make return thereof to the commissioner or other officer before whom the defendant is brought pursuant to Rule 5. At the request of the attorney for the government any unexecuted warrant shall be returned to the commissioner by whom it was issued and shall be cancelled by him. On or before the return day the person to whom a summons was delivered for service shall make return thereof to the commissioner before whom the summons is returnable. At the request of the attorney for the government made at any time while the complaint is pending, a warrant returned unexecuted and not cancelled or a summons returned unserved or a duplicate thereof may be delivered by the commissioner to the marshal or other authorized person for execution or service.

Rule 5. Proceedings Before the Commissioner

(a) Appearance before the Commissioner. An officer making an arrest under a warrant issued upon a complaint or any person making an arrest without a warrant shall take the arrested person without unnecessary delay before the nearest available commissioner or before any other nearby officer empowered to commit persons charged with offenses against the laws of the United States. When a person arrested without a warrant is brought before a commissioner or other officer, a complaint shall be filed forthwith.

(b) Statement by the Commissioner. The commissioner shall inform the defendant of the complaint against him, of his right to retain counsel and of his right to have a preliminary examination. He shall also inform the defendant that he is not required to make a statement and that any statement made by him may be used against him. The commissioner shall allow the defendant reasonable time and opportunity to consult counsel and shall admit the defendant to bail as provided in these rules.

(c) Preliminary Examination. The defendant shall not be called upon to plead. If the defendant waives preliminary examination, the commissioner shall forthwith hold him to answer in the district court. If the defendant does not waive examination, the commissioner shall hear the evidence within a reasonable time. The defendant may cross-examine witnesses against him and may introduce evidence in his own behalf. If from the evidence it appears to the commissioner that there is probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the commissioner shall forthwith hold him to answer in the district court; otherwise the commissioner shall discharge him. The commissioner shall admit the defendant to bail as provided in these rules. After concluding the proceeding the commissioner shall transmit forthwith to the clerk of the district court all papers in the proceeding and any bail taken by him.

III. INDICTMENT AND INFORMATION

Rule 6. The Grand Jury

(a) Summoning Grand Jurors. The court shall order one or more grand juries to be summoned at such times as the public interest requires. The grand jury shall consist of not less than 16 nor more than 23 members. The court shall direct that a sufficient number of legally qualified persons be summoned to meet this requirement.

(b) Objections to Grand Jury and to Grand Jurors.

(1) Challenges. The attorney for the government or a defendant who has been held to answer in the district court may challenge the array of jurors on the ground that the grand jury was not selected, drawn or summoned in accordance with law, and may challenge an individual juror on the ground that the juror is not legally qualified. Challenges shall be made before the administration of the oath to the jurors and shall be tried by the court.

(2) Motion to Dismiss. A motion to dismiss the indictment may be based on objections to the array or on the lack of legal qualification of an individual juror, if not previously determined upon challenge. An indictment shall not be dismissed on the ground that one or more members of the grand jury were not legally qualified if it appears from the record kept pursuant to subdivision (c) of this rule that 12 or more jurors, after deducting the number not legally qualified, concurred in finding the indictment.

(c) Foreman and Deputy Foreman. The court shall appoint one of the jurors to be foreman and another to be deputy foreman. The foreman shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations and shall sign all indictments. He or another juror designated by him shall keep a record of the number of jurors concurring in the finding of every indictment and shall file the record with the clerk of the court, but the record shall not be made public except on order of the court. During the absence of the foreman, the deputy foreman shall act as foreman.

(d) Who May be Present. Attorneys for the government, the witness under examination, interpreters when needed and, for the purpose of taking the evidence, a stenographer may be present while the grand jury is in session, but no person other than the jurors may be present while the grand jury is deliberating or voting.

(e) Secrecy of Proceedings and Disclosure. Disclosure of matters occurring before the grand jury other than its deliberations and the vote of any juror may be made to the attorneys for the government for use in the performance of their duties. Otherwise a juror, attorney, interpreter or stenographer may disclose matters occurring before the grand jury only when so directed by the court preliminarily to or in connection with a judicial proceeding or when permitted by the court at the request of the defendant upon a showing that grounds may exist for a motion to dismiss the indictment because of matters occurring before the grand jury. No obligation of secrecy may be imposed upon any person except in accordance with this rule. The court may direct that an indictment shall be kept secret until the defendant is in custody or has given bail, and in that event the clerk shall seal the indictment and no person shall disclose the finding of the indictment except when necessary for the issuance and execution of a warrant or summons.

(f) Finding and Return of Indictment. An indictment may be found only upon the concurrence of 12 or more jurors. The indictment shall be returned by the grand jury to a judge in open court. If the defendant has been held to answer and 12 jurors do not concur in finding an indictment, the foreman shall so report to the court in writing forthwith.

(g) Discharge and Excuse. A grand jury shall serve until discharged by the court but no grand jury may serve more than 18 months. The tenure and powers of a grand jury are not affected by the beginning or expiration of a term of court. At any time for cause shown the court may excuse a juror either temporarily or permanently, and in the latter event the court may impanel another person in place of the juror excused.

Rule 7. The Indictment and the Information

(a) Use of Indictment or Information. An offense which may be punished by death shall be prosecuted by indictment. An offense which may be punished by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year or at hard labor shall be prosecuted by indictment or, if indictment is waived, it may be prosecuted by information. Any other offense may be prosecuted by indictment or by information. An information may be filed without leave of court.

(b) Waiver of Indictment. An offense which may be punished by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year or at hard labor may be prosecuted by information if the defendant, after he has been advised of the nature of the charge and of his rights, waives in open court prosecution by indictment.

(c) Nature and Contents. The indictment or the information shall be a plain, concise and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the attorney for the government. It need not contain a formal commencement, a formal conclusion or any other matter not necessary to such statement. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. It may be alleged in a single count that the means by which the defendant committed the offense are unknown or that he committed it by one or more specified means. The indictment or information shall state for each count the official or customary citation of the statute, rule, regulation or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged therein to have violated. Error in the citation or its omission shall not be ground for dismissal of the indictment or information or for reversal of a conviction if the error or omission did not mislead the defendant to his prejudice.

(d) Surplusage. The court on motion of the defendant may strike surplusage from the indictment or information.

(e) Amendment of Information. The court may permit an information to be amended at any time before verdict or finding if no additional or different offense is charged and if substantial rights of the defendant are not prejudiced.

(f) Bill of Particulars. The court for cause may direct the filing of a bill of particulars. A motion for a bill of particulars may be made only within ten days after arraignment or at such other time before or after arraignment as may be prescribed by rule or order. A bill of particulars may be amended at any time subject to such conditions as justice requires.

Rule 8. Joinder of Offenses and of Defendants

(a) Joinder of Offenses. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same indictment or information in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged, whether felonies or misdemeanors or both, are of the same or similar character or are based on the same act or transaction or on two or more acts or transactions connected together or constituting parts of a common scheme or plan.

(b) Joinder of Defendants. Two or more defendants may be charged in the same indictment or information if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction or in the same series of acts or transactions constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and all of the defendants need not be charged in each count.

Rule 9. Warrant or Summons Upon Indictment or Information

(a) Issuance. Upon the request of the attorney for the government the court shall issue a warrant for each defendant named in the information, if it is supported by oath, or in the indictment. The clerk shall issue a summons instead of a warrant upon the request of the attorney for the government or by direction of the court. Upon like request or direction he shall issue more than one warrant or summons for the same defendant. He shall deliver the warrant or summons to the marshal or other person authorized by law to execute or serve it. If a defendant fails to appear in response to the summons, a warrant shall issue.

(b) Form.

(1) Warrant. The form of the warrant shall be as provided in Rule 4 (b) (1) except that it shall be signed by the clerk, it shall describe the offense charged in the indictment or information and it shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought before the court. The amount of bail may be fixed by the court and endorsed on the warrant.

(2) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the warrant except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before the court at a stated time and place.

(c) Execution or Service; and Return.

(1) Execution or Service. The warrant shall be executed or the summons served as provided in Rule 4 (c) (1), (2), and (3). A summons to a corporation shall be served by delivering a copy to an officer or to a managing or general agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process and, if the agent is one authorized by statute to receive service and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy to the corporation's last known address within the district or at its principal place of business elsewhere in the United States. The officer executing the warrant shall bring the arrested person promptly before the court or, for the purpose of admission to bail, before a commissioner.

(2) Return. The officer executing a warrant shall make return thereof to the court. At the request of the attorney for the government any unexecuted warrant shall be returned and cancelled. On or before the return day the person to whom a summons was delivered for service shall make return thereof. At the request of the attorney for the government made at any time while the indictment or information is pending, a warrant returned unexecuted and not cancelled or a summons returned unserved or a duplicate thereof may be delivered by the clerk to the marshal or other authorized person for execution or service.

IV. ARRAIGNMENT AND PREPARATION FOR TRIAL

Rule 10. Arraignment

Arraignment shall be conducted in open court and shall consist of reading the indictment or information to the defendant or stating to him the substance of the charge and calling on him to plead thereto. He shall be given a copy of the indictment or information before he is called upon to plead.

Rule 11. Pleas

A defendant may plead not guilty, guilty or, with the consent of the court, nolo contendere. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty, and shall not accept the plea without first determining that the plea is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge. If a defendant refuses to plead or if the court refuses to accept a plea of guilty or if a defendant corporation fails to appear, the court shall enter a plea of not guilty.

Rule 12. Pleadings and Motions Before Trial; Defenses and Objections

(a) Pleadings and Motions. Pleadings in criminal proceedings shall be the indictment and the information, and the pleas of not guilty, guilty and nolo contendere. All other pleas, and demurrers and motions to quash are abolished, and defenses and objections raised before trial which heretofore could have been raised by one or more of them shall be raised only by motion to dismiss or to grant appropriate relief, as provided in these rules.

(b) The Motion Raising Defenses and Objections.

(1) Defenses and Objections Which May Be Raised. Any defense or objection which is capable of determination without the trial of the general issue may be raised before trial by motion.

(2) Defenses and Objections Which Must Be Raised. Defenses and objections based on defects in the institution of the prosecution or in the indictment or information other than that it fails to show jurisdiction in the court or to charge an offense may be raised only by motion before trial. The motion shall include all such defenses and objections then available to the defendant. Failure to present any such defense or objection as herein provided constitutes a waiver thereof, but the court for cause shown may grant relief from the waiver. Lack of jurisdiction or the failure of the indictment or information to charge an offense shall be noticed by the court at any time during the pendency of the proceeding.

(3) Time of Making Motion. The motion shall be made before the plea is entered, but the court may permit it to be made within a reasonable time thereafter.

(4) Hearing on Motion. A motion before trial raising defenses or objections shall be determined before trial unless the court orders that it be deferred for determination at the trial of the general issue. An issue of fact shall be tried by a jury if a jury trial is required under the Constitution or an act of Congress. All other issues of fact shall be determined by the court with or without a jury or on affidavits or in such other manner as the court may direct.

(5) Effect of Determination. If a motion is determined adversely to the defendant he shall be permitted to plead if he had not previously pleaded. A plea previously entered shall stand. If the court grants a motion based on a defect in the institution of the prosecution or in the indictment or information it may also order that the defendant be held in custody or that his bail be continued for a specified time pending the filing of a new indictment or information. Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of any act of Congress relating to periods of limitations.

Rule 13. Trial Together of Indictments or Informations

The court may order two or more indictments or informations or both to be tried together if the offenses, and the defendants if there is more than one, could have been joined in a single indictment or information. The procedure shall be the same as if the prosecution were under such single indictment or information.

Rule 14. Relief From Prejudicial Joinder

If it appears that a defendant or the government is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or of defendants in an indictment or information or by such joinder for trial together, the court may order an election or separate trials of counts, grant a severance of defendants or provide whatever other relief justice requires.

Rule 15. Depositions

(a) When Taken. If it appears that a prospective witness may be unable to attend or prevented from attending a trial or hearing, that his testimony is material and that it is necessary to take his deposition in order to prevent a failure of justice, the court at any time after the filing of an indictment or information may upon motion of a defendant and notice to the parties order that his testimony be taken by deposition and that any designated books, papers, documents or tangible objects, not privileged, be produced at the same time and place. If a witness is committed for failure to give bail to appear to testify at a trial or hearing, the court on written motion of the witness and upon notice to the parties may direct that his deposition be taken. After the deposition has been subscribed the court may discharge the witness.

(b) Notice of Taking. The party at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other party reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition. The notice shall state the name and address of each person to be examined. On motion of a party upon whom the notice is served, the court for cause shown may extend or shorten the time.

(c) Defendant's Counsel and Payment of Expenses. If a defendant is without counsel the court shall advise him of his right and assign counsel to represent him unless the defendant elects to proceed without counsel or is able to obtain counsel. If it appears that a defendant at whose instance a deposition is to be taken cannot bear the expense thereof, the court may direct that the expenses of travel and subsistence of the defendant's attorney for attendance at the examination shall be paid by the government. In that event the marshal shall make payment accordingly.

(d) How Taken. A deposition shall be taken in the manner provided in civil actions. The court at the request of a defendant may direct that a deposition be taken on written interrogatories in the manner provided in civil actions.

(e) Use. At the trial or upon any hearing, a part or all of a deposition, so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, may be used if it appears: That the witness is dead; or that the witness is out of the United States, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition; or that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of sickness or infirmity; or that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena. Any deposition may also be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness. If only a part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to offer all of it which is relevant to the part offered and any party may offer other parts.

(f) Objections to Admissibility. Objections to receiving in evidence a deposition or part thereof may be made as provided in civil actions.

Rule 16. Discovery and Inspection

Upon motion of a defendant at any time after the filing of the indictment or information, the court may order the attorney for the government to permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph designated books, papers, documents or tangible objects, obtained from or belonging to the defendant or obtained from others by seizure or by process, upon a showing that the items sought may be material to the preparation of his defense and that the request is reasonable. The order shall specify the time, place and manner of making the inspection and of taking the copies or photographs and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

Rule 17. Subpoena

(a) For Attendance of Witnesses; Form; Issuance. A subpoena shall be issued by the clerk under the seal of the court. It shall state the name of the court and the title, if any, of the proceeding, and shall command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony at the time and place specified therein. The clerk shall issue a subpoena, signed and sealed but otherwise in blank to a party requesting it, who shall fill in the blanks before it is served. A subpoena shall be issued by a commissioner in a proceeding before him, but it need not be under the seal of the court.

(b) Indigent Defendants. The court or a judge thereof may order at any time that a subpoena be issued upon motion or request of an indigent defendant. The motion or request shall be supported by affidavit in which the defendant shall state the name and address of each witness and the testimony which he is expected by the defendant to give if subpoenaed, and shall show that the evidence of the witness is material to the defense, that the defendant cannot safely go to trial without the witness and that the defendant does not have sufficient means and is actually unable to pay the fees of the witness. If the court or judge orders the subpoena to be issued the costs incurred by the process and the fees of the witness so subpoenaed shall be paid in the same manner in which similar costs and fees are paid in case of a witness subpoenaed in behalf of the government.

(c) For Production of Documentary Evidence and of Objects. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein. The court on motion made promptly may quash or modify the subpoena if compliance would be unreasonable or oppressive. The court may direct that books, papers, documents or objects designated in the subpoena be produced before the court at a time prior to the trial or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may upon their production permit the books, papers, documents or objects or portions thereof to be inspected by the parties and their attorneys.

(d) Service. A subpoena may be served by the marshal, by his deputy or by any other person who is not a party and who is not less than 18 years of age. Service of a subpoena shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to the person named and by tendering to him the fee for 1 day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law.

(e) Place of Service.

(1) In United States. A subpoena requiring the attendance of a witness at a hearing or trial may be served at any place within the United States.

(2) Abroad. A subpoena directed to a witness in a foreign country shall issue under the circumstances and in the manner and be served as provided in Title 28, U.S.C., Section 1783. Amended, Dec. 27, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(f) For Taking Deposition; Place of Examination.

(1) Issuance. An order to take a deposition authorizes the issuance by the clerk of the court for the district in which the deposition is to be taken of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein.

(2) Place. A resident of the district in which the deposition is to be taken may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person. A non-resident of the district may be required to attend only in the county where he is served with a subpoena or within 40 miles from the place of service or at such other place as is fixed by the court.

(g) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued or of the court for the district in which it issued if it was issued by a commissioner.

V. VENUE

Rule 18. District and Division

Except as otherwise permitted by statute or by these rules, the prosecution shall be had in a district in which the offense was committed, but if the district consists of two or more divisions the trial shall be had in a division in which the offense was committed.

Rule 19. Transfer Within the District

In a district consisting of two or more divisions the arraignment may be had, a plea entered, the trial conducted or sentence imposed, if the defendant consents, in any division and at any time.

Rule 20. Transfer from the District for Plea and Sentence

A defendant arrested in a district other than that in which the indictment or information is pending against him may state in writing, after receiving a copy of the indictment or information, that he wishes to plead guilty or nolo contendere, to waive trial in the district in which the indictment or information is pending and to consent to disposition of the case in the district in which he was arrested, subject to the approval of the United States attorney for each district. Upon receipt of the defendant's statement and of the written approval of the United States attorneys, the clerk of the court in which the indictment or information is pending shall transmit the papers in the proceeding or certified copies thereof to the clerk of the court for the district in which the defendant is held and the prosecution shall continue in that district. If after the proceeding has been transferred the defendant pleads not guilty, the clerk shall return the papers to the court in which the prosecution was commenced and the proceeding shall be restored to the docket of that court. The defendant's statement shall not be used against him unless he was represented by counsel when it was made.

Rule 21. Transfer from the District or Division for Trial

(a) For Prejudice in the District or Division. The court upon motion of the defendant shall transfer the proceeding as to him to another district or division if the court is satisfied that there exists in the district or division where the prosecution is pending so great a prejudice against the defendant that he cannot obtain a fair and impartial trial in that district or division.

(b) Offense Committed in Two or More Districts or Divisions. The court upon motion of the defendant shall transfer the proceeding as to him to another district or division, if it appears from the indictment or information or from a bill of particulars that the offense was committed in more than one district or division and if the court is satisfied that in the interest of justice the proceeding should be transferred to another district or division in which the commission of the offense is charged.

(c) Proceedings on Transfer. When a transfer is ordered the clerk shall transmit to the clerk of the court to which the proceeding is transferred all papers in the proceeding or duplicates thereof and any bail taken, and the prosecution shall continue in that district or division.

Rule 22. Time of Motion to Transfer

A motion to transfer under these rules may be made at or before arraignment or at such other time as the court or these rules may prescribe.

VI. TRIAL

Rule 23. Trial by Jury or by the Court

(a) Trial by Jury. Cases required to be tried by jury shall be so tried unless the defendant waives a jury trial in writing with the approval of the court and the consent of the government.

(b) Jury of Less Than Twelve. Juries shall be of 12 but at any time before verdict the parties may stipulate in writing with the approval of the court that the jury shall consist of any number less than 12.

(c) Trial without a Jury. In a case tried without a jury the court shall make a general finding and shall in addition on request find the facts specially.

Rule 24. Trial Jurors

(a) Examination. The court may permit the defendant or his attorney and the attorney for the government to conduct the examination of prospective jurors or may itself conduct the examination. In the latter event the court shall permit the defendant or his attorney and the attorney for the government to supplement the examination by such further inquiry as it deems proper or shall itself submit to the prospective jurors such additional questions by the parties or their attorneys as it deems proper.

(b) Peremptory Challenges. If the offense charged is punishable by death, each side is entitled to 20 peremptory challenges. If the offense charged is punishable by imprisonment for more than one year, the government is entitled to 6 peremptory challenges and the defendant or defendants jointly to 10 peremptory challenges. If the offense charged is punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year or by fine or both, each side is entitled to 3 peremptory challenges. If there is more than one defendant, the court may allow the defendants additional peremptory challenges and permit them to be exercised separately or jointly.

(c) Alternate Jurors. The court may direct that not more than 4 jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impanelled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges, shall take the same oath and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities and privileges as the regular jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a regular juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Each side is entitled to 1 peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law if 1 or 2 alternate jurors are to be impanelled, and 2 peremptory challenges if 3 or 4 alternate jurors are to be impanelled. The additional peremptory challenges may be used against an alternate juror only, and the other peremptory challenges allowed by these rules may not be used against an alternate juror.

Rule 25. Judge; Disability

If by reason of absence from the district, death, sickness or other disability the judge before whom the defendant has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the court after a verdict or finding of guilt, any other judge regularly sitting in or assigned to the court may perform those duties; but if such other judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

Rule 26. Evidence

In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by an act of Congress or by these rules. The admissibility of evidence and the competency and privileges of witnesses shall be governed, except when an act of Congress or these rules otherwise provide, by the principles of the common law as they may be interpreted by the courts of the United States in the light of reason and experience.

Rule 27. Proof of Official Record

An official record or an entry therein or the lack of such a record or entry may be proved in the same manner as in civil actions.

Rule 28. Expert Witnesses

The court may order the defendant or the government or both to show cause why expert witnesses should not be appointed, and may request the parties to submit nominations. The court may appoint any expert witnesses agreed upon by the parties, and may appoint witnesses of its own selection. An expert witness shall not be appointed by the court unless he consents to act. A witness so appointed shall be informed of his duties by the court at a conference in which the parties shall have opportunity to participate. A witness so appointed shall advise the parties of his findings, if any, and may thereafter be called to testify by the court or by any party. He shall be subject to cross-examination by each party. The court may determine the reasonable compensation of such a witness and direct its payment out of such funds as may be provided by law. The parties also may call expert witnesses of their own selection.

Rule 29. Motion for Acquittal

(a) Motion for Judgment of Acquittal. Motions for directed verdict are abolished and motions for judgment of acquittal shall be used in their place. The court on motion of a defendant or of its own motion shall order the entry of judgment of acquittal of one or more offenses charged in the indictment or information after the evidence on either side is closed if the evidence is insufficient to sustain a conviction of such offense or offenses. If a defendant's motion for judgment of acquittal at the close of the evidence offered by the government is not granted, the defendant may offer evidence without having reserved the right.

(b) Reservation of Decision on Motion. If a motion for judgment of acquittal is made at the close of all the evidence, the court may reserve decision on the motion, submit the case to the jury and decide the motion either before the jury returns a verdict or after it returns a verdict of guilty or is discharged without having returned a verdict. If the motion is denied and the case is submitted to the jury, the motion may be renewed within 5 days after the jury is discharged and may include in the alternative a motion for a new trial. If a verdict of guilty is returned the court may on such motion set aside the verdict and order a new trial or enter judgment of acquittal. If no verdict is returned the court may order a new trial or enter judgment of acquittal.

Rule 30. Instructions

At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. At the same time copies of such requests shall be furnished to adverse parties. The court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury, but the court shall instruct the jury after the arguments are completed. No party may assign as error any portion of the charge or omission therefrom unless he objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of his objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury.

Rule 31. Verdict

(a) Return. The verdict shall be unanimous. It shall be returned by the jury to the judge in open court.

(b) Several Defendants. If there are two or more defendants, the jury at any time during its deliberations may return a verdict or verdicts with respect to a defendant or defendants as to whom it has agreed; if the jury cannot agree with respect to all, the defendant or defendants as to whom it does not agree may be tried again.

(c) Conviction of Less Offense. The defendant may be found guilty of an offense necessarily included in the offense charged or of an attempt to commit either the offense charged or an offense necessarily included therein if the attempt is an offense.

(d) Poll of Jury. When a verdict is returned and before it is recorded the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. If upon the poll there is not unanimous concurrence, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberations or may be discharged.

VII. JUDGMENTRule 32. Sentence and Judgment

(a) Sentence. Sentence shall be imposed without unreasonable delay. Pending sentence the court may commit the defendant or continue or alter the bail. Before imposing sentence the court shall afford the defendant an opportunity to make a statement in his own behalf and to present any information in mitigation of punishment.

(b) Judgment. A judgment of conviction shall set forth the plea, the verdict or findings, and the adjudication and sentence. If the defendant is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, judgment shall be entered accordingly. The judgment shall be signed by the judge and entered by the clerk.

(c) Presentence Investigation

(1) When Made. The probation service of the court shall make a presentence investigation and report to the court before the imposition of sentence or the granting of probation unless the court otherwise directs. The report shall not be submitted to the court or its contents disclosed to anyone unless the defendant has pleaded guilty or has been found guilty.

(2) Report. The report of the presentence investigation shall contain any prior criminal record of the defendant and such information about his characteristics, his financial condition and the circumstances affecting his behavior as may be helpful in imposing sentence or in granting probation or in the correctional treatment of the defendant, and such other information as may be required by the Court.

(d) Withdrawal of Plea of Guilty. A motion to withdraw a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere may be made only before sentence is imposed or imposition of sentence is suspended; but to correct manifest injustice the court after sentence may set aside the judgment of conviction and permit the defendant to withdraw his plea.

(e) Probation. After conviction of an offense not punishable by death or by life imprisonment, the defendant may be placed on probation as provided by law.

Rule 33. New Trial

The court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required in the interest of justice. If trial was by the court without a jury the court may vacate the judgment if entered, take additional testimony and direct the entry of a new judgment. A motion for a new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made only before or within two years after final judgment, but if an appeal is pending the court may grant the motion only on remand of the case. A motion for a new trial based on any other grounds shall be made within 5 days after verdict or finding of guilty or within such further time as the court may fix during the 5-day period.

Rule 34. Arrest of Judgment

The court shall arrest judgment if the indictment or information does not charge an offense or if the court was without jurisdiction of the offense charged. The motion in arrest of judgment shall be made within 5 days after determination of guilt or within such further time as the court may fix during the 5-day period.

Rule 35. Correction or Reduction of Sentence

The court may correct an illegal sentence at any time. The court may reduce a sentence within 60 days after the sentence is imposed, or within 60 days after receipt by the court of a mandate issued upon affirmance of the judgment or dismissal of the appeal, or within 60 days after receipt of an order of the Supreme Court denying an application for a writ of certiorari.

Rule 36. Clerical Mistakes

Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

VIII. APPEAL

Rule 37. Taking Appeal; and Petition for Writ of Certiorari

(a) Taking Appeal.

(1) Notice of Appeal. An appeal permitted by law from a district court to the Supreme Court or to a court of appeals is taken by filing with the clerk of the district court a notice of appeal in duplicate. Petitions for allowance of appeal, citations and assignments of error in cases governed by these rules are abolished. The notice of appeal shall set forth the title of the case, the name and address of the appellant and of appellant's attorney, a general statement of the offense, a concise statement of the judgment or order, giving its date and any sentence imposed, the place of confinement if the defendant is in custody and a statement that the appellant appeals from the judgment or order. If the appeal is directly to the Supreme Court, the notice shall be accompanied by a jurisdictional statement as prescribed by the rules of the Supreme Court. The notice of appeal shall be signed by the appellant or appellant's attorney, or by the clerk if the notice is prepared by the clerk as provided in paragraph (2) of this subdivision. The duplicate notice of appeal and a statement of the docket entries shall be forwarded immediately by the clerk of the district court to the clerk of the appellate court. Notification of the filing of the notice of appeal shall be given by the clerk by mailing copies thereof to adverse parties, but his failure so to do does not affect the validity of the appeal. Amended Dec. 27, 1948, effective Jan. 1, 1949.

(2) Time for Taking Appeal. An appeal by a defendant may be taken within 10 days after entry of the judgment or order appealed from, but if a motion for a new trial or in arrest of judgment has been made within the 10-day period an appeal from a judgment of conviction may be taken within 10 days after entry of the order denying the motion. When a court after trial imposes sentence upon a defendant not represented by counsel, the defendant shall be advised of his right to appeal and if he so requests, the clerk shall prepare and file forthwith a notice of appeal on behalf of the defendant. An appeal by the government when authorized by statute may be taken within 30 days after entry of the judgment or order appealed from.

(b) Petition for Review on Writ of Certiorari.

(1) Petition. Petition to the Supreme Court for writ of certiorari shall be made as prescribed in its rules.

(2) Time of Making Petition. Petition for writ of certiorari may be made within 30 days after entry of the judgment or within such further time not exceeding 30 days as the Court or a justice thereof for cause shown may fix within the 30-day period following judgment. If the judgment was entered in a district court in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Canal Zone or Virgin Islands, the petition shall be deemed in time if mailed under a postmark dated within such 30-day period.

Rule 38. Stay of Execution, and Relief Pending Review

(a) Stay of Execution.

(1) Death. A sentence of death shall be stayed if an appeal is taken.

(2) Imprisonment. A sentence of imprisonment shall be stayed if an appeal is taken and the defendant elects not to commence service of the sentence or is admitted to bail.

(3) Fine. A sentence to pay a fine or a fine and costs, if an appeal is taken, may be stayed by the district court or by the court of appeals upon such terms as the court deems proper. The court may require the defendant pending appeal to deposit the whole or any part of the fine and costs in the registry of the district court, or to give bond for the payment thereof, or to submit to an examination of assets, and it may make any appropriate order to restrain the defendant from dissipating his assets. Amended Oct. Term 1948, effective Jan. 1, 1949.

(4) Probation. An order placing the defendant on probation shall be stayed if an appeal is taken.

(b) Bail. Admission to bail upon appeal or certiorari shall be as provided in these rules.

(c) Application for Relief Pending Review. If application is made to a court of appeals or to a circuit judge or to a justice of the Supreme Court for bail pending appeal or for an extension of time for filing the record on appeal or for any other relief which might have been granted by the district court, the application shall be upon notice and shall show that application to the court below or a judge thereof is not practicable or that application has been made and denied, with the reasons given for the denial, or that the action on the application did not afford the relief to which the applicant considers himself to be entitled. Amended Dec. 27, 1948, effective Jan. 1, 1949.

Rule 39. Supervision of Appeal

(a) Supervision in Appellate Court. The supervision and control of the proceedings on appeal shall be in the appellate court from the time the notice of appeal is filed with its clerk, except as otherwise provided in these rules. The appellate court may at any time entertain a motion to dismiss the appeal, or for directions to the district court, or to modify or vacate any order made by the district court or by any judge in relation to the prosecution of the appeal, including any order fixing or denying bail.

(b) The Record on Appeal.

(1) Preparation and Form. The rules and practice governing the preparation and form of the record on appeal in civil actions shall apply to the record on appeal in all criminal proceedings, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

(2) Use of Typewritten Record. The court of appeals may dispense with the printing of the record on appeal and review the proceedings on the typewritten record. Amended Oct. Term, 1948, effective Jan. 1, 1949.

(c) Docketing of Appeal and Record on Appeal. The record on appeal shall be filed with the appellate court and the proceeding there docketed within 40 days from the date the notice of appeal is filed in the district court, but if more than one appeal is taken from the same judgment to the same appellate court, the district court may prescribe the time for filing and docketing, which in no event shall be less than 40 days from the date the first notice of appeal is filed. In all cases the district court or the appellate court or, if the appellate court is not in session, any judge thereof may for cause shown extend the time for filing and docketing.

(d) Setting the Appeal for Argument. Unless good cause is shown for an earlier hearing, the appellate court shall set the appeal for argument on a date not less than 30 days after the filing in that court of the record on appeal and as soon after the expiration of that period as the state of the calendar will permit. Preference shall be given to appeals in criminal cases over appeals in civil cases.

IX. SUPPLEMENTARY AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

Rule 40. Commitment to Another District; Removal

(a) Arrest in Nearby District. If a person is arrested on a warrant issued upon a complaint in a district other than the district of the arrest but in the same state, or on a warrant issued upon a complaint in another state but at a place less than 100 miles from the place of arrest, or without a warrant for an offense committed in another district in the same state or in another state but at a place less than 100 miles from the place of the arrest, he shall be taken before the nearest available commissioner or other nearby officer described in Rule 5 (a); preliminary proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Rule 5 (b) and (c); and if held to answer, he shall be held to answer to the district court for the district in which the prosecution is pending, or if the arrest was without a warrant, for the district in which the offense was committed. If such an arrest is made on a warrant issued on an indictment or information, the person arrested shall be taken before the district court in which the prosecution is pending or, for the purpose of admission to bail, before a commissioner in the district of the arrest in accordance with provisions of Rule 9 (c) (1).

(b) Arrest in Distant District.

(1) Appearance before Commissioner or Judge. If a person is arrested upon a warrant issued in another state at a place 100 miles or more from the place of arrest, or without a warrant for an offense committed in another state at a place 100 miles or more from the place of arrest, he shall be taken without unnecessary delay before the nearest available commissioner or a nearby judge of the United States in the district in which the arrest was made.

(2) Statement by Commissioner or Judge. The commissioner or judge shall inform the defendant of the charge against him, of his right to retain counsel and of his right to have a hearing or to waive a hearing by signing a waiver before the commissioner or judge. The commissioner or judge shall also inform the defendant that he is not required to make a statement and that any statement made by him may be used against him, shall allow him reasonable opportunity to consult counsel and shall admit him to bail as provided in these rules.

(3) Hearing; Warrant of Removal or Discharge. The defendant shall not be called upon to plead. If the defendant waives hearing, the judge shall issue a warrant of removal to the district where the prosecution is pending. If the defendant does not waive hearing, the commissioner or judge shall hear the evidence. If the commissioner hears the evidence he shall report his findings and recommendations to the judge. At the hearing the defendant may cross-examine witnesses against him and may introduce evidence in his own behalf. If it appears from the commissioner's report or from the evidence adduced before the judge that sufficient ground has been shown for ordering the removal of the defendant, the judge shall issue a warrant of removal to the district where the prosecution is pending. Otherwise he shall discharge the defendant. If the prosecution is by indictment, a warrant of removal shall issue upon production of a certified copy of the indictment and upon proof that the defendant is the person named in the indictment. If the prosecution is by information or complaint, a warrant of removal shall issue upon the production of a certified copy of the information or complaint and upon proof that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant is guilty of the offense charged. If a warrant of removal is issued, the defendant shall be admitted to bail for appearance in the district in which the prosecution is pending in accordance with Rule 46. After a defendant is held for removal or is discharged, the papers in the proceeding and any bail taken shall be transmitted to the clerk of the district court in which the prosecution is pending.

(4) Hearing and Removal on Arrest without a Warrant. If a person is arrested without a warrant, the hearing may be continued for a reasonable time, upon a showing of probable cause to believe that he is guilty of the offense charged; but he may not be removed as herein provided unless a warrant issued in the district in which the offense was committed is presented.

Rule 41. Search and Seizure

(a) Authority to Issue Warrant. A search warrant authorized by this rule may be issued by a judge of the United States or of a state or territorial court of record or by a United States commissioner within the district wherein the property sought is located.

(b) Grounds for Issuance. A warrant may be issued under this rule to search for and seize any property

(1) Stolen or embezzled in violation of the laws of the United States; or

(2) Designed or intended for use or which is or has been used as the means of committing a criminal offense; or

(3) Possessed, controlled, or designed or intended for use or which is or has been used in violation of Title 18, U.S.C., Section 957. Amended Dec. 27, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(c) Issuance and Contents. A warrant shall issue only on affidavit sworn to before the judge or commissioner and establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant. If the judge or commissioner is satisfied that grounds for the application exist or that there is probable cause to believe that they exist, he shall issue a warrant identifying the property and naming or describing the person or place to be searched. The warrant shall be directed to a civil officer of the United States authorized to enforce or assist in enforcing any law thereof or to a person so authorized by the President of the United States. It shall state the grounds or probable cause for its issuance and the names of the persons whose affidavits have been taken in support thereof. It shall command the officer to search forthwith the person or place named for the property specified. The warrant shall direct that it be served in the daytime, but if the affidavits are positive that the property is on the person or in the place to be searched, the warrant may direct that it be served at any time. It shall designate the district judge or the commissioner to whom it shall be returned.

(d) Execution and Return with Inventory. The warrant may be executed and returned only within 10 days after its date. The officer taking property under the warrant shall give to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken or shall leave the copy and receipt at the place from which the property was taken. The return shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property taken. The inventory shall be made in the presence of the applicant for the warrant and the person from whose possession or premises the property was taken, if they are present, or in the presence of at least one credible person other than the applicant for the warrant or the person from whose possession or premises the property was taken, and shall be verified by the officer. The judge or commissioner shall upon request deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken and to the applicant for the warrant.

(e) Motion for Return of Property and to Suppress Evidence. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the district court for the district in which the property was seized for the return of the property and to suppress for use as evidence anything so obtained on the ground that (1) the property was illegally seized without warrant, or (2) the warrant is insufficient on its face, or (3) the property seized is not that described in the warrant, or (4) there was not probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued, or (5) the warrant was illegally executed. The judge shall receive evidence on any issue of fact necessary to the decision of the motion. If the motion is granted the property shall be restored unless otherwise subject to lawful detention and it shall not be admissible in evidence at any hearing or trial. The motion to suppress evidence may also be made in the district where the trial is to be had. The motion shall be made before trial or hearing unless opportunity therefor did not exist or the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, but the court in its discretion may entertain the motion at the trial or hearing.

(f) Return of Papers to Clerk. The judge or commissioner who has issued a search warrant shall attach to the warrant a copy of the return, inventory and all other papers in connection therewith and shall file them with the clerk of the district court for the district in which the property was seized.

(g) Scope and Definition. This rule does not modify any act, inconsistent with it, regulating search, seizure and the issuance and execution of search warrants in circumstances for which special provision is made. The term "property" is used in this rule to include documents, books, papers and any other tangible objects. Amended, Dec. 27, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

Rule 42. Criminal Contempt

(a) Summary Disposition. A criminal contempt may be punished summarily if the judge certifies that he saw or heard the conduct constituting the contempt and that it was committed in the actual presence of the court. The order of contempt shall recite the facts and shall be signed by the judge and entered of record.

(b) Disposition Upon Notice and Hearing. A criminal contempt except as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule shall be prosecuted on notice. The notice shall state the time and place of hearing, allowing a reasonable time for the preparation of the defense, and shall state the essential facts constituting the criminal contempt charged and describe it as such. The notice shall be given orally by the judge in open court in the presence of the defendant or, on application of the United States attorney or of an attorney appointed by the court for that purpose, by an order to show cause or an order of arrest. The defendant is entitled to a trial by jury in any case in which an act of Congress so provides. He is entitled to admission to bail as provided in these rules. If the contempt charged involves disrespect to or criticism of a judge, that judge is disqualified from presiding at the trial or hearing except with the defendant's consent. Upon a verdict or finding of guilt the court shall enter an order fixing the punishment.

X. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 43. Presence of the Defendant

The defendant shall be present at the arraignment, at every stage of the trial including the impaneling of the jury and the return of the verdict, and at the imposition of sentence, except as otherwise provided by these rules. In prosecutions for offenses not punishable by death, the defendant's voluntary absence after the trial has been commenced in his presence shall not prevent continuing the trial to and including the return of the verdict. A corporation may appear by counsel for all purposes. In prosecutions for offenses punishable by fine or by imprisonment for not more than one year or both, the court, with the written consent of the defendant, may permit arraignment, plea, trial and imposition of sentence in the defendant's absence. The defendant's presence is not required at a reduction of sentence under Rule 35.

Rule 44. Assignment of Counsel

If the defendant appears in court without counsel, the court shall advise him of his right to counsel and assign counsel to represent him at every stage of the proceeding unless he elects to proceed without counsel or is able to obtain counsel.

Rule 45. Time

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time the day of the act or event after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Sunday or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday nor a holiday. When a period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in the computation. A half holiday shall be considered as other days and not as a holiday.

(b) Enlargement. When an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice, order the period enlarged if application therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon motion permit the act to be done after the expiration of the specified period if the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but the court may not enlarge the period for taking any action under Rules 33, 34 and 35, except as otherwise provided in those rules, or the period for taking an appeal.

(c) Unaffected by Expiration of Term. The period of time provided for the doing of any act or the taking of any proceeding is not affected or limited by the expiration of a term of court. The expiration of a term of court in no way affects the power of a court to do any act in a criminal proceeding.

(d) For Motions; Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 5 days before the time specified for the hearing unless a different period is fixed by rule or order of the court. For cause shown such an order may be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and opposing affidavits may be served not less than 1 day before the hearing unless the court permits them to be served at a later time.

(e) Additional Time After Service by Mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do an act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or other paper is served upon him by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

Rule 46. Bail

(a) Right to Bail.

(1) Before Conviction. A person arrested for an offense not punishable by death shall be admitted to bail. A person arrested for an offense punishable by death may be admitted to bail by any court or judge authorized by law to do so in the exercise of discretion, giving due weight to the evidence and to the nature and circumstances of the offense.

(2) Upon Review. Bail may be allowed pending appeal or certiorari only if it appears that the case involves a substantial question which should be determined by the appellate court. Bail may be allowed by the trial judge or by the appellate court or by any judge thereof or by the circuit justice. The court or the judge or justice allowing bail may at any time revoke the order admitting the defendant to bail.

(b) Bail for Witness. If it appears by affidavit that the testimony of a person is material in any criminal proceeding and if it is shown that it may become impracticable to secure his presence by subpoena, the court or commissioner may require him to give bail for his appearance as a witness, in an amount fixed by the court or commissioner. If the person fails to give bail the court or commissioner may commit him to the custody of the marshal pending final disposition of the proceeding in which the testimony is needed, may order his release if he has been detained for an unreasonable length of time and may modify at any time the requirement as to bail.

(c) Amount. If the defendant is admitted to bail, the amount thereof shall be such as in the judgment of the commissioner or court or judge or justice will insure the presence of the defendant, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the weight of the evidence against him, the financial ability of the defendant to give bail and the character of the defendant.

(d) Form, and Place of Deposit. A person required or permitted to give bail shall execute a bond for his appearance. One or more sureties may be required, cash or bonds or notes of the United States may be accepted and in proper cases no security need be required. Bail given originally on appeal shall be deposited in the registry of the district court from which the appeal is taken.

(e) Justification of Sureties. Every surety, except a corporate surety which is approved as provided by law, shall justify by affidavit and may be required to describe in the affidavit the property by which he proposes to justify and the encumbrances thereon, the number and amount of other bonds and undertakings for bail entered into by him and remaining undischarged and all his other liabilities. No bond shall be approved unless the surety thereon appears to be qualified.

(f) Forfeiture.

(1) Declaration. If there is a breach of condition of a bond, the district court shall declare a forfeiture of the bail.

(2) Setting Aside. The court may direct that a forfeiture be set aside, upon such conditions as the court may impose, if it appears that justice does not require the enforcement of the forfeiture.

(3) Enforcement. When a forfeiture has not been set aside, the court shall on motion enter a judgment of default and execution may issue thereon. By entering into a bond the obligors submit to the jurisdiction of the district court and irrevocably appoint the clerk of the court as their agent upon whom any papers affecting their liability may be served. Their liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the obligors to their last known addresses.

(4) Remission. After entry of such judgment, the court may remit it in whole or in part under the conditions applying to the setting aside of forfeiture in paragraph (2) of this subdivision.

(g) Exoneration. When the condition of the bond has been satisfied or the forfeiture thereof has been set aside or remitted, the court shall exonerate the obligors and release any bail. A surety may be exonerated by a deposit of cash in the amount of the bond or by a timely surrender of the defendant into custody.

Rule 47. Motions

An application to the court for an order shall be by motion. A motion other than one made during a trial or hearing shall be in writing unless the court permits it to be made orally. It shall state the grounds upon which it is made and shall set forth the relief or order sought. It may be supported by affidavit.

Rule 48. Dismissal

(a) By Attorney for Government. The Attorney General or the United States attorney may by leave of court file a dismissal of an indictment, information or complaint and the prosecution shall thereupon terminate. Such a dismissal may not be filed during the trial without the consent of the defendant.

(b) By Court. If there is unnecessary delay in presenting the charge to a grand jury or in filing an information against a defendant who has been held to answer to the district court, or if there is unnecessary delay in bringing a defendant to trial, the court may dismiss the indictment, information or complaint.

Rule 49. Service and Filing of Papers

(a) Service: When Required. Written motions other than those which are heard ex parte, written notices, designations of record on appeal and similar papers shall be served upon the adverse parties.

(b) Service: How Made. Whenever under these rules or by an order of the court service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney, the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made in the manner provided in civil actions.

(c) Notice of Orders. Immediately upon the entry of an order made on a written motion subsequent to arraignment the clerk shall mail to each party affected thereby a notice thereof and shall make a note in the docket of the mailing.

(d) Filing. Papers required to be served shall be filed with the court. Papers shall be filed in the manner provided in civil actions.

Rule 50. Calendars

The district courts may provide for placing criminal proceedings upon appropriate calendars. Preference shall be given to criminal proceedings as far as practicable.

Rule 51. Exceptions Unnecessary

Exceptions to rulings or orders of the court are unnecessary and for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been necessary it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objection to the action of the court and the grounds therefor; but if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

Rule 52. Harmless Error and Plain Error

(a) Harmless Error. Any error, defect, irregularity or variance which does not affect substantial rights shall be disregarded.

(b) Plain Error. Plain errors or defects affecting substantial rights may be noticed although they were not brought to the attention of the court.

Rule 53. Regulation of Conduct in the Court Room

The taking of photographs in the court room during the progress of judicial proceedings or radio broadcasting of judicial proceedings from the court room shall not be permitted by the court.

Rule 54. Application and Exception

(a) Courts and Commissioners.

(1) Courts. These rules apply to all criminal proceedings in the United States district courts, which include the District Court for the Territory of Alaska and the District Court of the Virgin Islands; in the United States courts of appeals; and in the Supreme Court of the United States. The rules governing proceedings after verdict or finding of guilt or plea of guilty apply in the United States District Court for the District of the Canal Zone. Amended Dec. 27, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(2) Commissioners. The rules applicable to criminal proceedings before commissioners apply to similar proceedings before judges of the United States or of the District of Columbia. They do not apply to criminal proceedings before other officers empowered to commit persons charged with offenses against the United States.

(b) Proceedings.

(1) Removed Proceedings. These rules apply to criminal prosecutions removed to the United States district courts from state courts and govern all procedure after removal, except that dismissal by the attorney for the prosecution shall be governed by state law.

(2) Offenses Outside a District or State. These rules apply to proceedings for offenses committed upon the high seas or elsewhere out of the jurisdiction of any particular state or district, except that such proceedings may be had in any district authorized by Title 18, U.S.C., Section 3238.

(3) Peace Bonds. These rules do not alter the power of judges of the United States or of United States commissioners to hold to security of the peace and for good behavior under Title 18, U.S.C., Section 3043, and under Revised Statutes, Section 4069, 50 U.S.C., Section 23, but in such cases the procedure shall conform to these rules so far as they are applicable.

(4) Trials before Commissioners. These rules do not apply to proceedings before United States commissioners and in the district courts under Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 3401, 3402, relating to petty offenses on federal reservations.

(5) Other Proceedings. These rules are not applicable to extradition and rendition of fugitives; forfeiture of property for violation of a statute of the United States; or the collection of fines and penalties. They do not apply to proceedings under Title 18, U.S.C., Chapter 403, Juvenile Delinquency, so far as they are inconsistent with that chapter. They do not apply to summary trials for offenses against the navigation laws under Revised Statutes, Sections 4300-4305, 33 U.S.C., Sections 391-396, or to proceedings involving disputes between seamen under Revised Statutes, Sections 4079-4081, as amended, 22 U.S.C., Sections 256-258, or to proceedings for fishery offenses under the Act of June 28, 1937, c 392, 50 Stat. 325-327, 16 U.S.C., Sections 772-772i, or to proceedings against a witness in a foreign country under Title 28, U.S.C., Section 1784. Amended, Dec. 27, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

(c) Application of Terms. As used in these rules the term "State" includes District of Columbia, territory and insular possession. "Law" includes statutes and judicial decisions. "Act of Congress" includes any act of Congress locally applicable to and in force in the District of Columbia, in a territory or in an insular possession. "District court" includes all district courts named in subdivision (a), paragraph (1) of this rule. "Civil action" refers to a civil action in a district court. "Oath" includes affirmations.

"Attorney for the government" means the attorney general, an authorized assistant of the attorney general, a United States attorney and an authorized assistant of a United States attorney. The words "demurrer," "motion to quash," "plea in abatement," "plea in bar," and "special plea in bar," or words to the same effect, in any act of Congress shall be construed to mean the motion raising a defense or objection provided in Rule 12. Amended Dec. 27, 1948, effective Oct. 20, 1949.

Rule 55. Records

The clerk of the district court and each United States commissioner shall keep such records in criminal proceedings as the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, with the approval of the Judicial Conference of Senior Circuit Judges, may prescribe.

Rule 56. Courts and Clerks

The circuit court of appeals and the district court shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing any proper paper, of issuing and returning process and of making motions and orders. The clerk's office with the clerk or a deputy in attendance shall be open during business hours on all days except Sundays and legal holidays.

Rule 57. Rules of Court

(a) Rules by District Courts and Circuit Courts of Appeals. Rules made by district courts and circuit courts of appeals for the conduct of criminal proceedings shall not be inconsistent with these rules. Copies of all rules made by a district court or by a circuit court of appeals shall upon their promulgation be furnished to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The clerk of each court shall make appropriate arrangements, subject to the approval of the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, to the end that all rules made as provided herein be published promptly and that copies of them be available to the public.

(b) Procedure not Otherwise Specified. If no procedure is specifically prescribed by rule, the court may proceed in any lawful manner not inconsistent with these rules or with any applicable statute.

Rule 58. Forms

Rule 59. Effective Date

These rules take effect on the day which is 3 months subsequent to the adjournment of the first regular session of the 79th Congress, but if that day is prior to September 1, 1945, then they take effect on September 1, 1945. They govern all criminal proceedings thereafter commenced and so far as just and practicable all proceedings then pending.

Rule 60. Title

These rules may be known and cited as the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

 Clerk of Supreme Court

Upon the issuance of a writ the relator, unless otherwise ordered by this court, shall prepare and submit to the adverse parties a proposed settled case for their approval. If approved, a stipulation to that effect shall be entered into by all interested parties. A case, so stipulated to, when approved by the commission shall constitute a settled case. If the parties are unable to agree the relator shall, on not less than five days' notice, apply to the commission for an order settling the case. The party served may in like manner propose amendments thereto within three days thereafter. In either event, the stipulation with the commission's approval or the order of the commission settling the case shall be contained in the printed record. Such record shall be delivered to the commission within the time provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 176.471, and such printed record, settled in the manner aforesaid, shall constitute the return to this court. All proceedings for the procurement and approval of a settled case shall be as nearly as may be, similar to proceedings on appeal from the district court.

On certiorari to the Division of Employment Security the proposed settled case or the stipulation for settled case shall be approved by the Director or an Assistant Director of the Division of Employment Security.

On certiorari to the board of tax appeals the proposed settled case or the stipulation for settled case shall be approved by a member of the board of tax appeals.

Printed records and briefs shall in all respects conform to Rule VIII of this court except that the printed record shall be served and filed within 30 days from the issuance of the writ.

RULE IV

MOTIONS; EIGHT DAYS' NOTICE. Motions for special relief will be heard on any day in chambers upon eight days' notice given the adverse party, and when not based upon the records and files shall be accompanied by the papers upon which they are founded. No oral argument shall be permitted. The original and three typewritten copies of motion papers and brief in support of or in opposition to the motion shall be filed. All papers, including briefs, which the moving party intends to submit to the court in support of the motion shall be served on opposing counsel at the time of service of the motion papers. All papers, including briefs, in opposition to the motion shall be served on counsel for the moving party within five days thereafter; and if counsel for the moving party wishes, he may serve a reply thereto within two days thereafter.

A $10.00 filing fee is required for an order to show cause except when issued in a pending case where the statutory fee has been paid. The order to show cause shall fix a return day and shall specify the time for the service and filing of affidavits, counter affidavits and briefs. The original and three copies of the petition, affidavits, and briefs must be filed. The order to show cause shall be filed immediately after issued and before it is taken out for service. The title of the case shall be as in the court below. No oral argument shall be permitted. The attendance of counsel on the return day is unnecessary.

RULE V

APPELLANT TO FILE ESSENTIAL PARTS OF ORIGINAL RECORD TEN DAYS BEFORE ARGUMENT; PLATS; EXHIBITS; CLERKS TO FURNISH LISTS OF PAPERS AND EXHIBITS; DEFECTIVE RETURN; PROCURING ADDITIONAL PAPERS. Appellant shall designate in writing to the clerk of the lower court what part of the original record he deems essential to the consideration of questions presented on the appeal, and cause return thereof to be made as required by Minnesota Statutes, Sec. 605.04, ten days before the day set for the argument of the cause in this court. When original papers have been prematurely sent to this court they will be returned to the lower court upon the written request of either party.

In cases involving accidents or tracts of land and other cases where a plat of the locus will facilitate an understanding of the facts or of the issues involved, counsel for appellant should assume personal responsibility for having in this court for the purpose of clarifying the oral argument a plat or diagram of sufficient size and distinctness to be visible to all members of this court when placed upon the court's easel. This applies whether or not a plat or diagram was used upon the trial or proceedings in the lower court.

Where practical, such as in accident cases, the requirement for a plat may be met by drawing, immediately prior to the presentation of argument, a suitable diagram on the courtroom blackboard. Dated October 27, 1953.

Counsel will also see that photographic exhibits shall be in court for the oral argument.

FAILURE TO HEED THIS ADMONITION WILL BE DEEMED SUFFICIENT GROUND FOR DENYING STATUTORY COSTS.

All exhibits sent to the clerk of this court shall have endorsed thereon the title of the case to which they belong. All exhibits will be returned to the clerk of the court below with the remittitur. All models will be so returned when necessary on a new trial, but where the decision of this court is final and no new trial is to be had, such models will be destroyed by the clerk of this court unless called for by the parties within 30 days after final decision is rendered.

Whenever a clerk of a lower court shall transmit to this court any original papers, files or exhibits as required by Minnesota Statutes, Sec. 605.04, he shall include therewith full and complete, detailed lists in duplicate of such papers, files and exhibits. The clerk of this court shall, upon receipt of such papers, files and exhibits, receipt to the transmitting clerk therefor.

If the return made by the clerk of the court below is defective and all papers, exhibits, orders or records necessary to an understanding and decision of the case are not transmitted, either party may, on an affidavit specifying the defect or omission, apply to a justice of this court for an order requiring the clerk of the lower court to make further return and supply the defect or omission without delay.

(Note—Lower court does not lose jurisdiction to settle case when appeal has been perfected. See State ex rel Kelly v. Childress, 127 Minn. 533, 149 N. W. 550.)

RULE VI

ENDORSEMENT OF RETURN BY CLERK OF THE LOWER COURT. The clerk of the court below shall endorse upon each return to this court the name and post office address of the judge presiding in the lower court and of the attorneys for the respective parties.

RULE VII

ATTORNEYS; GUARDIANS AD LITEM; CONTINUE SUCH ON APPEAL. The attorneys and guardians ad litem of the respective parties in the court below shall be deemed the attorneys and guardians of the same parties, respectively, in this court, until others are retained or appointed and notice thereof served on the adverse party.

RULE VIII

PRINTING, SERVICE AND FILING RECORDS AND BRIEFS; PENALTY. 1. The appellant or party removing a cause to this court shall, within 60 days from the date of service of the notice of appeal upon opposing counsel, serve upon the opposite party the printed record and his brief, and file with the clerk of this court 15 copies of each thereof; and within 30 days from such service upon him the respondent shall serve his brief and file with the clerk 15 copies thereof; except that in all appeals from municipal courts the appellant or party removing a cause to this court shall have only 30 days from the date of the service of the notice of appeal upon opposing counsel within which to serve upon the opposite party and file the printed record and brief, and the respondent shall have only 20 days from such service upon him within which to serve and file his brief. Appellant may reply in typewritten or printed form within ten days thereafter. The reply shall be limited strictly to a concise answer to new points made by respondents. As to form and size typewritten records and briefs shall comply with these rules. The failure of appellant to comply with this rule in respect to printing and serving the record and his brief and filing the same with the clerk of this court within the time stated will be deemed an abandonment of the appeal, and the order or judgment appealed from will be affirmed or the appeal dismissed, as the court may deem proper.

In a criminal case where the trial court certifies a question to this court under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 632.10, the state shall furnish the record and the first brief in accordance with the preceding paragraph, except that the brief will contain no assignment of errors.

2. The record and briefs must be printed and the folios of the record numbered in the margin. The record shall consist of the pleadings, the findings or verdict, the order or judgment appealed from, the reasons stated by the trial court for the decision, if any, the notice of appeal and in cases where the sufficiency of the evidence is not involved, such abridgment of the settled case as will clearly and fully present the questions arising on the appeal. Even in cases where the sufficiency of the evidence is involved, only that pertinent to the issues to be presented need be printed. (For example, in personal injury cases where the amount of the recovery, if any, is not questioned, the medical and other testimony going only to the nature and extent of the injury should be omitted.) All matters in the return not necessary to a full presentation of the questions raised by the appeal shall be excluded from the printed record, and to that end the material testimony may be printed in narrative form, immaterial parts thereof omitted, and documentary evidence condensed. When the printed record is abridged, appellant shall list in the index the pages and parts of pages omitted from the settled case. At the point of omission in the printed record there shall be an indication as to the pages and parts of pages of the settled case not printed.

If the respondent deems the record so printed not sufficiently full to present properly the merits of the appeal, he may print a supplemental record, or instead in his brief refer to the folios or pages in the settled case, the original of which will be on file in this court, which he deems necessary and important.

3. The brief of appellant shall contain: (Follow skeleton outline of brief at end of these rules.)

(a) A subject index of the contents of the brief, with page references; and a table of the cases (alphabetically arranged), text books, and statutes cited, with references to the pages where they are cited.

(b) A summary of the nature and procedural history of the case stating the relief sought, the date of commencement of the action or proceeding, date of trial or hearing, date and nature of the order or judgment sought to be reviewed, and date of service of the notice of appeal. This statement must make it appear, in cases of appeal, that the order sought to be reviewed is appealable.

(c) A concise general statement of the question or questions involved omitting unnecessary details. This rule is not satisfied by stating the question as it would be stated for an assignment of error. It should be stated as a court, after reading the record and briefs, would state the broad question which is presented for decision. Each question shall be followed by a concise statement as to how the court below answered it, or modified the answer asserted by appellant to be the correct answer.

The questions and statements shall not ordinarily exceed 20 lines, must never exceed one page, and must be printed in type as large as 10 point without other matter appearing on the page.

(d) A concise statement of facts shown by the record so far as relevant to the grounds urged for reversal, modification or other relief. Where it is claimed that a verdict, finding or decision is not sustained by the evidence, the evidence, if any, tending directly or by reasonable inference, to sustain such verdict, finding or decision, shall be summarized. All statements of fact shall indicate the folio and page of the printed record or settled case where same may be found.

(e) Errors assigned shall be separately and concisely stated and numbered, without repetition, and where a finding of fact is attacked as not sustained by the evidence, it shall be particularly specified.

(f) Citation of the cases claimed to be controlling and decisive of the issues. This does not mean a list of all cases cited. Ordinarily there will be only one or two that can be considered decisive.

(g) In appellant's brief the points urged for reversal, modification or relief shall be separately stated and numbered, and each point so stated and numbered shall be followed by the argument thereon. The law and facts presented on each point shall be clearly stated, with citation of the authorities and statutes relied upon. Quotations must be confined to what is presently relevant. Useless repetition is to be avoided. For example, if, on a given point, one authority is quoted, the others in accord should ordinarily be cited only, without further quotation.

4. It is the duty of counsel for appellant or moving party, in both brief and oral argument, to state the case and facts fairly, with complete candor, and as fully as necessary for consideration of the issues to be presented. In the oral argument the appellant shall precede his statement of facts with a summary of the questions to be raised so that as the facts are stated their relation to the questions presented may at once be obvious. Subject to the foregoing, the arrangement of the brief for respondent, and of the reply and supplemental briefs, if any, should so far as possible conform to that prescribed hereby for the brief of the appellant.

The respondent, if dissatisfied with the statement of facts by the appellant, may restate the facts with folio references. Where the appellant asserts that a verdict, finding or decision is not sustained by the evidence, the respondent shall state the evidence which he regards as tending directly or by reasonable inference to sustain the verdict, finding or decision.

5. Whenever the brief of the prevailing party or the record or supplemental record contains any unnecessary, irrelevant or immaterial matter, he shall not be allowed any disbursements for preparing or printing such unnecessary matter.

The party entitled to object to the taxation of disbursements in such case shall point out—specifying the pages or folios—the particular portions of the record, supplemental record or brief for which he claims the opponent is not entitled to tax disbursements.

6. Corrections on briefs and records must be made prior to filing. Failure to heed this admonition will be deemed sufficient ground for denying statutory costs.

RULE IX

SETTING OF CASES AND NOTICE; RESETTING. Upon the filing of the printed record and appellant's brief each case will be placed on the calendar for argument or submission on briefs, as the case may be, and the clerk will give prompt notice of the date thereof to the respective attorneys. A case may be reset by the court upon a showing of good reasons therefor.

RULE X

RECORD; PRINTING. Records and briefs shall be neatly and legibly printed in leaded small pica or long primer type with black ink on white or cream, opaque, unglazed paper, properly pagged at the top and properly folioed at the side, with a margin on the outer edge of the printed page of 1½ inches. The printed page shall be 7 inches long and 3½ inches wide, and the paper page shall be 9 inches long and 7 inches wide. Each brief shall be over the name of the counsel preparing it. Each copy of such brief or record shall be stitched together and there shall be printed on the outside thereof its proper designation, the title of the cause, and on the record the names and addresses of the attorneys for all of the parties and on the brief only the names and addresses of attorneys preparing the same. Every record shall be accompanied by an adequate index of its contents, with particular reference to exhibits, which shall be so designated as to facilitate quick reference thereto.

One-half inch from the top of the cover page of each brief and printed record shall be printed the file number of the case in this court, in black-faced 18 point figures.

The prevailing party shall be allowed as a disbursement the reasonable amount which he has actually paid for printing record or brief.

RULE XI

DEFAULT OF APPELLANT; AFFIRMANCE OR DISMISSAL; CERTIFYING TO COURT BELOW. Respondent may apply to the court for judgment of affirmance or dismissal if the appellant shall fail or neglect to serve and file the printed record and his brief as required by these rules. No reversal will be ordered for the failure of the respondent to appear, unless the record presents reversible error. If appellant is in default for 30 days and respondent does not move for dismissal or affirmance this court will dismiss the appeal without notice and without the allowance of costs and disbursements. In all cases of dismissal of any appeal in this court the clerk shall issue a certified copy of the order of dismissal to the court below.

An appeal to the supreme court can only be dismissed by leave of the court or consent of the respondent. The respondent is entitled to a judgment finally disposing of the merits, and if there is an affirmance of an appeal from an order denying a new trial any questions which might have been raised on such an appeal will be the law of the case or res adjudicata on an appeal from the judgment. The theory of the rule requiring an appellant to make and serve his brief is that it contains his assignment of errors, and the right to claim error in a matter not appearing in such assignment is waived except objections to the jurisdiction of the court below over the subject matter. Schleuder v. Corey, 30 Minn. 501. But the dismissal of an appeal from the order denying a new trial does not have the same effect. Adamson v. Sundby, 51 Minn. 460. See also School District v. Aiton, 175 Minn. 346, 348; Kozisek v. Brigham, 183 Minn. 457, 459. See cases cited in Shepherd's citations under 30 Minn. 501.

RULE XII

CERTIFYING RECORD; TEMPORARY INJUNCTION IN "LABOR DISPUTE." Upon the certification of a record to this court for review under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 185.15, the case shall be set for hearing in this court on the first available date and the proceedings in the case shall be given precedence over all other matters except older matters of the same character; and the rules of this court requiring the printing of record and briefs shall not apply to such cases, but typewritten records and briefs of a like number and size as required for printed records may be filed in lieu thereof.

RULE XIII

ORAL ARGUMENT; WHEN ALLOWED. On oral argument the appellant shall open and be entitled to reply.

In the following actions no oral argument is allowed:

1. Actions for the recovery of money only, or for specific personal property, where the amount or the value of the property involved in the appeal shall not exceed $500.
2. Appeals from orders involving only questions of practice, or forms or rules of pleading.
3. Appeals from the clerk's taxation of costs.
4. Appeals from municipal courts.

In the following actions appellant shall be entitled to 30 minutes in all and respondent to 20 minutes:

1. Actions for the recovery of money only, or for specific personal property, where the amount or value of the property involved in the appeal is more than $500 but does not exceed $1000.
2. Cases reviewing decisions of the Industrial Commission, Division of Employment Security, or other administrative bodies except the Board of Tax Appeals.
3. Cases to determine settlement for poor purposes.
4. Divorce cases where only alimony or custody, or both, are involved.

In all other cases appellant shall be entitled to one hour in all and respondent to 45 minutes.

Application for leave to argue a case orally when oral argument is not otherwise permitted, or for an extension of the time allowed for oral argument as prescribed by this rule, may be made in writing at the time of filing the briefs.

Either party may submit a case on his part on his brief, and when no appearance is made on the day of argument, the printed record and briefs being on file, the case will be ordered so submitted.

When any member of the court is not present at the oral argument of a case, such case shall be deemed submitted to such member of the court on the record and briefs therein and when during the consideration of a case there is a change in the personnel of the court the case shall be deemed submitted to the new member or members on the record and briefs.

RULE XIV

REMITTITUR AS MATTER OF COURSE; MAILING COPY OF DECISION OR ORDER; ENTRY OF JUDGMENT; TRANSMITTING REMITTITUR. Upon the reversal, affirmance, or modification of any order or judgment of a lower court by this court, there will be a remittitur to the lower court unless otherwise ordered. A remittitur shall contain a certified copy of the judgment of this court, sealed with the seal thereof, and signed by the clerk.

When a decision is filed or an order entered determining the cause, the clerk shall mail a copy thereof to the attorneys of the parties, and no judgment shall be entered until the expiration of 10 days thereafter, except that in criminal cases judgment may be entered immediately. The mailing of such copy shall constitute notice of the filing of the decision.

The remittitur shall be transmitted to the clerk of the court below when judgment is entered, unless written objection under Minnesota Statutes, Section 607.02, is made by the prevailing party and filed with the clerk of this court on or before the day set for the taxation of costs and disbursements.

RULE XV

COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS; PREVAILING PARTY. Unless otherwise ordered the prevailing party shall recover costs as follows: 1. Upon a judgment in his favor on the merits, $25.00; 2. Upon dismissal, $10.00. (Who is prevailing party. See Sanborn v. Webster, 2 Minn. 277 (323); Allen v. Jones, 8 Minn. 172 (202).)

Costs and disbursements in all cases shall be taxed in the first instance by the clerk upon two days' notice, subject to review by the court, and inserted in the judgment. Costs and disbursements shall be taxed within 15 days after the filing of the decision.

Objections to taxation of costs and disbursements must be made in writing and filed. Appeals from the clerk's taxation of costs and disbursements must be served on opposing counsel and filed within six days from the date of the taxation by the clerk.

RULE XVI

JUDGMENT; ENTRY BY LOSING PARTY OR THE CLERK. In case the prevailing party shall neglect to have judgment entered within 15 days after notice of the filing of the opinion or order of the court, the adverse party, or the clerk of this court, may without notice, cause the same to be entered without inserting therein any allowance for costs and disbursements.

RULE XVII

JUDGMENT ROLL; PAPERS CONSTITUTING. In all cases the clerk shall attach together the bond and notice of appeal certified and returned by the clerk of the court below and a certified copy of the judgment of this court, signed by him; and these papers shall constitute the judgment roll.

RULE XVIII

EXECUTION; ISSUANCE AND SATISFACTION. Executions to enforce any judgment of this court may issue to the sheriff of any county in which a transcript of the judgment is filed and docketed. Such executions shall be returnable within 60 days from the receipt thereof by the officer. On the return of an execution satisfied in due form of law the clerk shall make an entry thereof upon the record.

RULE XIX

PROCESS AND WRITS OTHER THAN EXECUTIONS. All other writs and process issuing out of this court shall be signed by the clerk, sealed with the seal of the court, tested of the day when the same issued, and made returnable in accordance with the order of the court.

RULE XX

REHEARING; FILING APPLICATION. Applications for rehearing shall be made on petition setting forth the grounds on which they are made, and filed within ten days after the filing of the decision. They shall be served on the opposing party, who may answer within five days thereafter. A fee of $5.00 shall accompany all petitions for rehearing.

Nine copies shall be filed. They may be either typewritten or printed, and whether typewritten or printed shall comply with the rules for printed briefs as to size. Typewritten copies must be legible.

The filing of a petition for rehearing stays the entry of judgment in civil cases until the filing of the order of the court thereon. It does not stay the taxation of costs.

RULE XXI

DISCIPLINE OF ATTORNEYS; ACCUSATION; SERVICE; ANSWER; DEFAULT; REFEREE; SETTLED CASE; REINSTATEMENT. Any complaint concerning professional misconduct on the part of any member of the Bar of the State of Minnesota, or any petition for reinstatement, shall be referred to the Practice of Law Committee of the Minnesota State Bar Association for investigation, disposition and report to this court, by such means and under such rules as said committee may from time to time promulgate.

The Practice of Law Committee, acting through its members or its duly constituted representative, is authorized and empowered to present to this court any order to show cause, petition, and accusation, or other pleading charging a member of the Bar of Minnesota with unprofessional conduct in a case where in its opinion and based upon the exercise of its discretion, disciplinary proceedings are warranted, and if this court authorizes disciplinary proceedings in a particular case, thereafter to prosecute and proceed with the handling of the same with diligence and in such manner as to it seems proper.

For the purposes of investigating, handling and prosecuting all complaints and disciplinary matters, including petitions for reinstatement, the State Board of Law Examiners is authorized and empowered to employ such persons as the Practice of Law Committee may from time to time recommend and request, said persons to be employed at a rate not to exceed $25.00 per diem for a six hour day, plus actual expenses incurred; and the State Board of Law Examiners is authorized, empowered and directed, subject to required approval of vouchers by this court, to make these expenditures and disbursements from its funds now or hereafter to be on deposit to its credit with the State of Minnesota, and to pay therefrom also such other miscellaneous and necessary expenditures as the Practice of Law Committee or its chairman may from time to time incur and certify to as incurred while engaged in the undertaking above.

When a member of the bar of this state is charged with misconduct and a verified accusation and petition praying that he be disciplined is submitted to this court and an order is filed directing respondent to answer, such order and accusation shall be served on respondent by delivering copies thereof to him personally, and if he have a resident guardian appointed for such purpose, to him also; or to a person of suitable age and discretion residing at the house of the usual abode of respondent, whether within or without this state. Such service may be made by the sheriff of the county in which respondent is found; or by any person not a party to, or a complaining witness in such disciplinary proceeding. When respondent is served without the state he shall have 20 days exclusive of the day of service to comply with the order of this court.

When respondent cannot be found, and his place of residence is unknown, and the sheriff of the county in which respondent last resided or practiced law makes a return to that effect, the Practice of Law Committee of the Minnesota State Bar Association, acting through its members or its duly constituted representative, shall file in this court an affidavit setting forth such facts. After the lapse of 30 days the committee may apply to this court for an order suspending respondent from the practice of law. A copy of such order when made and filed shall be mailed to every district judge in this state. Within a reasonable time thereafter respondent may petition this court for vacation of such order and show cause why he should be allowed to answer the accusation.

After service of the accusation and order is made on respondent he shall file in duplicate in this court a plea of not guilty or a verified answer. The answer may contain:

1. A denial of each allegation of the accusation controverted by respondent, or an averment that he has no knowledge or information thereof sufficient to form a belief.

2. A brief statement of any new matter constituting a defense, or any matter in mitigation of discipline.

If the respondent fails to plead or file an answer, upon proof of such facts, he shall be found in default, and an order of discipline will be entered upon the assumption that he is guilty as charged.

When this court appoints a district judge as referee with directions to hear and report the evidence, the referee shall have his official court reporter (appointed pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 486.01, make a stenographic report of all testimony given and all proceedings had before him as in civil cases. The reporter shall be paid his necessary expense, but no compensation except as hereinafter provided. Upon request of any person interested and payment or tender of his fees therefor, the reporter shall furnish a transcript of such record as in civil cases, pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 486.03, and shall be paid therefor the fee provided for in Minnesota Statutes, Section 486.06. The transcript of testimony shall be made upon paper 9 inches long and 7 inches wide to conform to the size of printed records and briefs in this court. It shall be the duty of the person ordering the transcript to see that the court reporter complies with this rule.

The referee shall make findings of fact which shall be conclusive, unless a case shall be settled in accordance with and within the time limited in Minnesota Statutes, Section 547.05. The party proposing such settled case shall first obtain and pay for a transcript of the testimony or the relevant portions thereof, and deliver the original to the referee and a copy to the adverse party.

All petitions for reinstatement to practice law of attorneys suspended or disbarred shall be served upon the Practice of Law Committee of the Minnesota State Bar Association, the Secretary of the State Board of Law Examiners, the President of the district bar association of the district in which respondent resides, and the President of the State Bar Association. The original petition with proof of service and one copy shall then be filed with the clerk of this court. Objections to the petition, if any, shall be served upon the respondent and filed in duplicate within 40 days after service of the petition.

There shall be a formal hearing before this court on every petition for reinstatement of a lawyer unless the same is waived by the Practice of Law Committee of the Minnesota State Bar Association.

Upon the filing of a verified petition for reinstatement of an attorney suspended or disbarred and after reference thereof to the Practice of Law Committee of the Minnesota State Bar Association and report to this court as herein provided, the court will then determine whether a reference should be had. In the event of a reference, the same procedure shall be followed as in disbarment proceedings.

After a settled case and the findings of fact are filed, the matter shall be heard by this court upon the record, oral arguments, and such printed briefs as the interested parties desire to file. On oral arguments, petitioner will be entitled to 45 minutes and respondent to 30 minutes.

RULE XXII

MODIFICATION AND SUSPENSION OF RULES.

Any of these rules may be relaxed or suspended by the court in term or a judge thereof in vacation, in particular cases, as justice may require.

MEMO. 1. Rules do not apply in habeas corpus appeals. Minnesota Statutes, Section 589.30.

2. The use of the supreme court file number of the case on all papers, and when communicating with the court or clerk, will aid greatly in giving prompt service.

3. Rules governing applications for admission to bail when application to trial court is denied, see State v. Russell, 159 Minn. 290, 199 N. W. 750.

LEGAL ISSUES OR ABSTRACT QUESTIONS OF LAW INVOLVED

Do not confuse with assignment of errors. Several errors may involve only one question of law. See Rule VIII, Sec. 3, Subd. (c). See example below.

1. Is an oral lease of real estate for a term of one year, to commence in futuro, within the statute of frauds?
 Lower court held: In affirmative (or negative as case may be).
2. Is the taking of possession by the purchaser under oral contract for the purchase of land, coupled with the making of part payment of the purchase price, in reliance upon and with unequivocal reference to the vendor-vendee relationship, without proof of irreparable injury through fraud, sufficient to avoid the statute of frauds?
 Lower court held: In affirmative (or negative as case may be).

PLEASE NOTE, STATEMENT OF LEGAL QUESTIONS SHOULD RARELY EXCEED 20 LINES AND MUST NEVER EXCEED ONE PAGE, AND MUST BE PRINTED IN TYPE AS LARGE AS 10 POINT WITHOUT OTHER MATTER APPEARING ON THE PAGE.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Be concise and follow instructions in Rule VIII, Sec. 3, Subd. (d).

ASSIGNMENT OF ERRORS

Errors should be separately and concisely stated and numbered, without repetition. Where a finding of fact is challenged as not sustained by the evidence, it shall be particularly specified.

CITATION OF CONTROLLING CASES

Appellant (or respondent as case may be) claims that the following case (or cases) is (are) controlling and decisive of the issues herein: (Do not here give a duplicate list of all the cases cited. Ordinarily there will be only one or two decisions that can be considered decisive.)

ARGUMENT

Divide your argument into divisions or sections to correspond to the issues or fundamental questions of law involved. Under each issue brief the point urged for reversal.

CODE OF RULES

DISTRICT COURTS OF MINNESOTA

As adopted by the District Judges pursuant to section 484.33, as amended.

PART I. GENERAL RULES

PART II. RULES FOR REGISTRATION OF LAND TITLES

PART I

General Rules

RULE 1

ACTIONS BY REPRESENTATIVES; ATTORNEY'S FEES. In actions for personal injury or death by wrongful act, brought by persons acting in a representative capacity, contracts for attorney's fees shall not be regarded as determinative of fees to be allowed by the court.

RULE 3

ACTION ON BEHALF OF MINORS; SETTLEMENT. (a) In making application for the approval of a settlement of any action brought on behalf of a minor child, the parent or guardian ad litem shall present to the court:

(1) A verified petition, stating the age of the minor, the nature of the action, if for personal injuries to what extent the minor has recovered therefrom, the reasons justifying the proposed settlement, the expenses which it is proposed to pay out of the amount to be received, the nature and extent of the services rendered by the attorney representing the minor, whether or not an action has been commenced on behalf of the parent or guardian, and, if so, what settlement, if any, has been made in that action, with itemized expenses incurred on behalf of the minor;

(2) Satisfactory evidence that the settlement is for the best interest of the minor;

(3) If the action be for personal injuries, an affidavit of the attending physician showing the nature, extent, and probable duration of the injuries caused by the accident, and the extent of the recovery which has been made therefrom at the time of the presentation of the application.

The minor shall appear before the court at the time the application is made, and no order approving any settlement shall be made where the action is one for personal injuries until the court has seen and had an opportunity to examine the minor.

Before any parent or guardian ad litem in any such action shall receive any money, he shall file a bond in an amount and with such sureties as shall be approved by the court, running to the minor as obligee, and conditioned that he will duly account for and pay over the sum received for the benefit of such minor to said minor upon his coming of age, or to his general guardian during his minority, if one shall be appointed; provided, that upon petition of said parent, the court may, in its discretion, order that in lieu of such bond any money so received shall be deposited as a savings account in a banking institution or trust company, together with a copy of the court's order, and the deposit book filed with the clerk of court, subject to the order of the court; and no settlement or compromise of any such action shall be valid unless the same shall be approved by a judge of the court in which such action is pending. Unless otherwise ordered, application for approval of such settlement may be made ex parte.

(b) In application for approval of settlement of an action brought under section 540.06 or section 540.08 on behalf of a minor child or ward, when settlement is approved by the court, attorney fees will not be allowed in any amount in excess of 25 per cent of the recovery unless there has been a trial on the merits or unless exceptional services rendered justify a larger amount and in either event the court may allow a larger amount but not to exceed 33 1/3 per cent of the recovery. No other deductions may be made from the settlement, except under special circumstances upon proper allowance by the judge approving the settlement.

(c) Stipulations for judgment shall be deemed settlements within the meaning of this rule. (Adopted at annual meeting of district court judges held in Minneapolis on July 5-6, 1932, and June 21, 1949.)

RULE 4

ATTORNEYS AS SURETIES. No practicing attorney shall be accepted as surety on a bond or undertaking required by law.

RULE 5

BANKS IN LIQUIDATION, SALE OF ASSETS, FINAL DIVIDENDS. Petitions for orders approving the sale or compounding of doubtful debts, or the sale of real or personal property, or authorizing a final dividend, of any bank, state or national, in liquidation, shall be heard after notice of all interested persons given as herein provided.

Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall enter an order reciting the substance of the petition and the time and place for hearing thereon, and advising all interested persons of their right to be heard.

A copy of the order shall be published once in a legal newspaper published near the location of the bank in liquidation, which publication shall be made at least ten days prior to the time fixed for the hearing; or the court may direct notice to be given by such other method as it shall deem proper. If it shall appear to the court that delay may prejudice the rights of those interested, the giving of notice may be dispensed with.

RULE 6

CONTINUANCE. No civil case on the general term calendar shall be continued by consent of counsel only, or otherwise than by order of the court for cause shown; provided that in counties having an assignment clerk the special rules of such county shall govern.

Rule 7 is superseded, in respect of Practice and Procedure in the District Courts, by Rules 7.01, 12.02, of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

RULE 8

DEPOSITIONS. Commissions to take testimony without the state may be issued on notice and application to the court either in term time or in vacation. Within five days after the entry of the order for a commission the party applying therefor shall serve a copy of the interrogatories proposed by him on the opposite party. Within five days thereafter the opposite party may serve cross-interrogatories. After the expiration of the time for serving cross-interrogatories, either party may within five days give five days' notice of settlement of interrogatories before the court. If no such notice be given within five days, the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, if any have been served, shall be settled by the court. When a commission is applied for and the other party wishes to join therein, interrogatories and cross-interrogatories to be propounded to his witnesses may be served and settled or adopted within the same time and in the same manner as those to the witnesses of the party applying. After the interrogatories are settled, they shall be engrossed and numbered by the party proposing the interrogatories in chief; and the engrossed copy or copies shall be signed by the officer settling the same, annexed to the commission and forwarded to the commissioner. If the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories are adopted without settlement, engrossed copies need not be made, but the originals or copies served may be annexed and forwarded immediately with the commission.

DIVORCE ACTIONS.

(b) No action for divorce based upon incurable insanity shall be heard until a general guardian of the person of the defendant (or a guardian ad litem when the appointment of a general guardian appears impracticable) shall have been appointed, and service of the summons and notice of the pendency of the action shall have been made upon such guardian, upon defendant's nearest blood relative, and upon the superintendent of the institution in which the defendant is confined. If from the sheriff's return and the proofs submitted it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that personal service cannot be made upon the nearest blood relative of the defendant, then upon order of the court the summons and notice of the pendency of the action shall be served upon such nearest blood relative in the manner and as directed by the court; and no hearing in any such case shall be had until after the lapse of 30 days from the time of such service.

(c) Orders for publication of summons in actions for divorce will be granted only upon an affidavit of the plaintiff made as provided by statute and showing specifically what efforts have been made to ascertain the residence of the defendant for the purpose of making personal service.

EX PARTE ORDERS. No order shall be made ex parte unless there shall be presented with the application therefor an affidavit showing whether any previous application has been made for the order requested, or for a similar order; and if there has been a previous application, to what court or judge it was made, and the determination made thereof, and what new facts, if any, are shown upon such subsequent application that were not previously shown. For a failure to comply with the provisions of this rule, the order made on subsequent application may be vacated.

RULE 11

EXPERT WITNESS FEES. In taxation of costs in civil cases a fee of $10.00 per day may be allowed for expert witnesses. Under special circumstances such fee may be increased in the discretion of the court, but not to exceed $50.00 per day. The skill of the expert and the time required to attend court and testify may be considered by the judge in determining whether such special circumstances exist.

FILING PAPERS. (a) All affidavits, notices, and other papers designed to be used in any cause shall be filed with the clerk prior to the hearing of the cause unless otherwise directed by the court.

(b) All orders, together with the affidavits and other papers upon which the same are based, which orders are not required to be served, shall be filed forthwith in the office of the clerk. Orders required to be served shall be so filed within three days after the service thereof, and, unless seasonably served and filed, may be vacated.

(c) All orders and findings, whether prepared by the judge or by counsel by direction of the judge, shall be typewritten in manifold; and when the original is filed a copy shall be furnished to each attorney or firm of attorneys appearing in the case. The observance of this rule shall not be deemed a substitute for statutory notice of the filing of a decision or order.

(d) No papers on file in a cause shall be taken from the custody of the clerk otherwise than upon order of the court.

(e) When judgment is entered in an action upon a promissory note, draft, or bill of exchange under the provisions of section 544.07 such promissory note, draft, or bill of exchange shall be filed with the clerk and made a part of the files of the action.

FORM OF PAPERS. (a) On process or papers to be served the attorney or a party appearing in person, besides subscribing or indorsing his name, shall add thereto the name of the city, town, or village in which he resides, and the particular location of his place of business by street, number, or otherwise; and if he shall neglect to do so, papers may be served on him through the mail, by directing them according to the best information concerning his residence conveniently available.

(b) The attorney or other officer of the court who prepares any pleading, affidavit, case, bill of exceptions, or report, decree, or judgment, exceeding two folios in length, shall distinctly number and mark each folio of 100 words in the margin thereof, or shall number the pages and the lines upon each page; and all copies either for the parties or the court shall be numbered and marked so as to conform to the originals. All typewritten matter shall be carefully and legibly typed on plain, unglazed, white paper of good texture, made with well inked ribbon and carbon, and shall be double spaced. Any pleading, affidavit, bill of exceptions, or case not thus prepared may be returned by the party on whom the same is served or by the court.

(c) All pleadings and other papers filed shall be plainly endorsed on the outside thereof with the title of the case, matter, or proceedings in which they are so filed; and the name or character of the paper shall be endorsed thereon below the title, so that the same may be clearly identified without opening; and the clerk may refuse to receive for filing any paper not so endorsed.

(d) When a summons is served with the complaint, the summons shall be so placed and arranged that it will be the first paper seen upon opening and inspecting the face of the papers served. A failure to comply with this rule may be deemed by the court a prima facie showing upon an application for extension of time to answer, or for relief from default, under the provision of section 544.32.

RULE 14

FRAMING ISSUES. In cases where the trial of issues of fact by a jury is not required by section 546.03, if either party shall desire a trial by jury, such party shall, within ten days after issue joined, give notice of a motion to be made upon the pleadings that the whole issue, or any specific question of fact involved therein, be tried by a jury. With the notice of motion shall be served a distinct and brief statement of the questions of fact proposed to be submitted to the jury for trial, in proper form to be incorporated in the order, and the judge may settle the issues, or may appoint a referee to settle the same. The judge, in his discretion, may thereupon make an order for trial by jury, setting forth the questions of fact as settled, and such questions only shall be tried by the jury, subject to the right of the court to allow an amendment of such issues upon the trial in like manner as pleadings may be amended upon trial.

GARNISHMENTS. (a) Garnishments or attachments shall not be discharged through a personal bond under section 571.30 without one day's written notice of the application therefor to the adverse party; but if a surety company's bond is given, notice shall not be required.

(b) Judgment against a garnishee shall be entered only upon notice to the garnishee and the defendant, if known to be within the jurisdiction of the court, showing the date and amount of the judgment against the defendant, and the amount for which plaintiff proposes to enter judgment against the garnishee after deducting such fees and allowances as the garnishee is entitled to receive. If the garnishee appears and secures a reduction of the proposed judgment, the court may make an appropriate allowance for fees and expense incident to such appearance.

ILLEGITIMACY PROCEEDINGS. Upon certification to and filing of record in the district court of any proceeding to determine the paternity of an illegitimate child, the clerk shall immediately notify by mail the director of social welfare of the pendency of the proceedings.

RULE 17

JUDGMENT, ENTRY BY ADVERSE PARTY. When a party is entitled to have judgment entered in his favor upon the verdict of a jury, report of a referee, or decision or finding of the court, and neglects to enter the same for ten days after the rendition of the verdict or notice of the filing of the report, decision, or finding; or, in case a stay has been ordered, for ten days after the expiration of such stay, the opposite party may cause judgment to be entered on five days' notice to the party entitled thereto.

RULE 18

MECHANIC'S LIEN, INTERVENTION. Leave to intervene in an action to foreclose a mechanic's lien shall be granted only on motion and notice to the owner of the land sought to be charged.

RULE 19

NE EXEAT. Upon the allowance of a writ of ne exeat the court shall require an undertaking or bond in the penal sum of not less than $250.00, to be approved by the court. Such bond shall be conditioned upon payment to the party detained of such damages as he may sustain by reason of the writ, if the court shall eventually decide that the party applying was not entitled thereto.

RULE 20

NOTICE OF MOTION. Rule 20, to extent inconsistent, is superseded, in respect of Practice and Procedure in the District Courts, by Rule 7.02 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

RULE 21

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. When a motion can be made upon notice, an order to show cause will not be granted, except upon showing of some exigency whereby delay for the time prescribed for the notice of motion will cause injury, or render the relief sought ineffectual.

Such exigency must also be stated in the order as ground for shortening the notice; and if on the hearing it appears that there was no such ground, the order may be discharged.

Such order must be accompanied by notice of motion setting forth the grounds on which the relief asked is sought, and substantially in the ordinary form of such notices, except that the time of hearing, if mentioned in the notice otherwise than by reference to the order, shall be the time fixed by the order, the only scope of the order in such case being to shorten and fix the time for hearing the motion.

PLEADINGS. (a) In all cases where application is made for leave to amend a pleading or for leave to answer or reply after the time limited by statute, or to open a judgment and for leave to answer and defend, such application shall be accompanied with a copy of the proposed amendment, answer, or reply, as the case may be, and an affidavit of merits and be served on the opposite party.

(b) In an affidavit of merits made by the party the affiant shall state that he has fully and fairly stated the facts in the case to his counsel, that he has a good and substantial defense or cause of action on the merits, as he is advised by his counsel after such statement and verily believes true; and he shall give the name and place of residence of such counsel.

An affidavit shall be made by counsel, who shall state therein that from the showing of the facts made to him by the party he verily believes that such party has a good and substantial defense or cause of action on the merits.

Pleadings. NOTE: Rule 22 (c) (d), to extent inconsistent, is superseded, in respect to Practice and Procedure in the District Courts, by Rules 7.01, 10.02, 12.02, of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

RECEIVERS. (a) All actions or proceedings for the sequestration of the property of corporations or for the appointment of receivers thereof, except actions or proceedings instituted by the attorney general in behalf of the state, shall be instituted in the county in which the principal place of business of said corporation is situated; provided, that if the action is not instituted in the proper county, for the convenience of witnesses and to promote the ends of justice, the venue may be changed by order of court.

(b) Receivers, trustees, guardians, and others appointed by the court to aid in the administration of justice shall be wholly impartial and indifferent to all parties in interest, and selected with a view solely to their character and fitness. Except by consent of all parties interested, or where it clearly appears that prejudice will otherwise result, no person who is or has been during the preceding year a stockholder, director, or officer of a corporation shall be appointed as receiver for such corporation. Receivers shall be appointed only upon notice to interested parties, such notice to be given in the manner ordered by the court; but if it shall be clearly shown that an emergency exists requiring the immediate appointment of a temporary receiver, such appointment may be made ex parte.

(c) Every receiver after his appointment shall give a bond to be approved by the court in such sum and conditioned as the court shall direct, and shall make and file with the clerk an inventory and estimated valuation of the assets of the estate in his hands; and, unless otherwise ordered, appraisers shall then be appointed and their compensation fixed by order of the court.

(d) Claims of creditors of corporations, the subject of sequestration or receivership proceedings, shall be duly verified and filed in the office of the clerk of court. The court, by order, shall fix the time for presentation, examination, and adjustment of claims and the time for objecting thereto, and the order shall be published as therein directed. Written objection to the allowance of any claim may be made by any party to the proceeding by serving a copy of such objection upon the claimant or his attorney. Where no objection is made within the time fixed by said order, the claim may stand admitted and be allowed without proof. Issues of law and fact shall be tried as in other cases.

(e) Every receiver shall file an annual inventory and report showing the condition of the estate in his hands and a summary of his proceedings to date. The clerk shall keep a list of receiverships and notify such receiver and the court when such reports are due.

(f) When an attorney has been appointed receiver, no attorney for such receiver shall be employed except upon the order of the court, which shall be granted only upon the petition of the receiver, stating the name of counsel whom he wishes to employ and showing the necessity for such employment.

(g) No receiver shall employ more than one counsel, except under special circumstances requiring the employment of additional counsel; and in such case only after an order of court made on a petition showing such circumstance, and on notice to the party or person on whose behalf or application the receiver was appointed. No allowance shall be made to any receiver for expenses paid or incurred in violation of this rule.

(h) No receiver or other trustee appointed by the court, nor any attorney acting for such receiver or trustee, shall withdraw or use any trust funds to apply on his compensation for services except on written order of court, duly made after such notice as the court may direct, and filed in the proceeding.

(i) All applications for the allowance of fees to receivers and their attorneys shall be accompanied by an itemized statement of the services performed and the amount charged for each item shown.

Compensation of receivers and their attorneys shall be allowed only upon the order of the court after such notice to creditors and others interested as the court shall direct, of the amounts claimed as compensation and of the time and place of hearing the application for their allowance.

(j) Every receiver shall take a receipt for all disbursements made by him in excess of $1.00, shall file the same with his final account, and shall recite such filing in his verified petition for the allowance of such account.

RESTRAINING ORDER, BOND. Before any restraining order shall be issued, except in aid of writs of execution or replevin, or in actions for divorce, the applicant shall give a bond in the penal sum of at least $250.00, executed by him or by some person for him as a principal, approved by the court and conditioned for the payment to the party restrained of such damages as he shall sustain by reason of the order, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled thereto.

(b) In civil cases called for trial by jury the court at the request of any party to the action may direct the clerk to draw 18 names from the jury box in the first instance, and the said 18 shall then be examined as to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the action; and if any of them be excused another shall be called in his place until there shall be 18 jurors in the box qualified to sit in the action; and the parties shall have the right to exercise their peremptory challenges as to those 18. When the peremptory challenges have been exercised, of those remaining the 12 first called into the jury box shall constitute the jury. In appropriate cases this rule may be modified in accordance with sections 546.10 and 593.15.

(c) Counsel on each side, in opening his case to the jury, shall confine himself to stating the facts which he proposes to prove.

(d) On the trial of actions but one counsel on each side shall examine or cross-examine a witness, and one counsel only on each side shall sum up the case to the jury, unless the judge shall otherwise order.

(e) In criminal trials involving sex offenses or in which the evidence is likely to be of a scandalous nature the court may, with the consent of the defendant, exclude the general public from the court room.

(f) Exceptions to remarks by counsel either in the opening statement to the jury or in the closing argument shall be taken while such statement or argument is in progress unless the same is being taken down in full by the court reporter, in which case exceptions taken at the close of the statement or argument shall be deemed seasonable. The services of the court reporter shall be at the expense of the party desiring it, which shall not be taxable as costs. (Adopted at annual meeting of district court judges held in Minneapolis on July 5-6, 1932.)

RULE 28

TRUSTEES, ANNUAL ACCOUNT. Every trustee subject to the jurisdiction of the district court shall file an annual account, duly verified, of his trusteeship. Such account shall contain an itemized statement of all trust property in the hands or under the control of the trustee since the beginning of the trusteeship or since the time of last settlement; also a statement of all expenditures and investments and a statement in detail of what remains in the hands or under the control of the trustee, with the estimated value of each item thereof. There shall also be filed proof of mailing of such account or of the service thereof upon all beneficiaries or their natural or legal guardians.

The clerk shall keep a list of trusteeships and notify each trustee and the court when such annual accounts are overdue for more than 90 days.

Hearings upon annual accounts may be ordered upon the request of any interested party.

Upon the filing of a final account the court shall fix a time and place for the hearing and auditing thereof, and notice of such hearing shall be given to all interested parties in conformity with Sec. 8100-13, Mason's 1940 Supplement. Like notice shall be given of hearings on annual or interim accounts.

RULE 29

VENUE, CHANGE. A change of venue shall not be granted under the provisions of section 542.11 unless the party applying therefor uses due diligence to procure the same within a reasonable time after issue has been joined in the action and the ground for the change has come to the knowledge of the applicant. Nor shall a change be granted where the other party will lose the benefit of a term, unless the party asking for such change shall move therefor at the earliest reasonable opportunity after issue has been joined and he has information of the ground of such change.

RULE 30

In all civil jury cases, in which an insurance company or companies are not parties, but are interested in the defense or outcome of the action, counsel for such company or companies may, and upon request of the presiding Judge shall, disclose the name of such company or companies to opposing counsel, out of the hearing of the jury, as well as the name of the local agent of such companies. When so disclosed, no inquiry shall be permitted by counsel as to such names in the hearing of the jury, nor shall disclosure be made to the jury that such insurance company is interested in the action.

In the examination of the jurors by counsel as to their qualifications, the jurors may be asked collectively whether any of them have any interest as policyholders, stockholders, officers, agents or otherwise in the insurance company or companies interested, but such question shall not be repeated to each individual juror. If none of the jurors indicate any such interest in the company or companies involved, then no further inquiry shall be permitted with reference thereto.

If any of the jurors manifest an interest in any of the companies involved, then counsel may further inquire of such juror or jurors as to his or their interest in such company, including any relationship or connection with the local agent of such interested company, to determine whether such interests or relationship disqualifies such juror. If a mutual company is interested, any juror having a policy with such company shall be excused upon request of any party to the action.

The presiding Judge, in his discretion, may examine the jurors on this feature of the case and not permit counsel to do so.

(b) It shall be the duty of the assignment clerk to set for trial each day that the court is in session a sufficient number of cases to keep the courts occupied, and shall be required to have mailed to all attorneys postal cards notifying them as to the days their cases are set for trial at least 15 days in advance.

(c) The clerk shall assign deputy clerks to assist the assignment clerk in such number as from time to time the work may require.

(d) Attorneys shall be required to answer the call of the calendar on the morning of the day their cases are set for trial.

(e) Application for resetting of any cause shall be made to the court in chambers, as per Rule 1.

(f) All cases reported ready for trial shall be placed on the active list, and when the case next in order on such active list is about to be assigned to a court room for trial the assignment clerk shall notify the attorneys by telephone to report at once to the court to whom such case has been assigned for trial.

(g) Attorneys shall be required to keep the assignment clerk informed of their telephone number, and when they have cases on the active list they shall be required to hold themselves within telephone call of their offices, and report to the trial court within 15 minutes after such notification, in person or by representative.

(h) The time at which the assignment clerk has notified the attorneys shall be indicated on the records of the assignment clerk.

(i) Each case in its order shall be assigned by the assignment clerk to the trial court next ready for a case and thereupon shall be tried, dismissed, or stricken, unless for good cause, arising after the closing of court on the preceding day, the case is continued or returned to the assignment clerk. The cause for continuance under this rule must be entered on the records of the assignment clerk together with the names of the parties seeking and obtaining such continuance. In subsequent applications for continuance such records shall be examined as to former proceedings and no case shall be continued or reset for trial more than three times.

(j) In all cases the party filing a note of issue shall at the same time file such of his pleadings and other papers as have been served by him in the cause as have not been theretofore filed. All other parties

Immediately upon becoming released from such case the attorney shall notify the assignment clerk and such cases as are held and ready for trial shall then be placed again on the active list and sent to the court for trial in regular order.

(m) When a case is assigned for trial it must be ready for immediate trial. All motions, demurrers, or other proceedings as to pleadings shall be heard prior to the time of trial, at special term.

(n) When a trial is for good reason interrupted and the case is to be returned to the assignment clerk, he shall make such record of its return and forthwith place such case upon the calendar for trial, for such date as the court may direct.

(o) When the parties to any suit which has reached the active list have settled or dismissed the same, the attorneys shall at once notify the assignment clerk and cause an entry of such settlement or dismissal to be made and entered upon the records.

PRETRIAL CONFERENCE UNDER RULE 16 OF RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

On all jury cases set for trial on and after January 7, 1952, a pretrial conference will be held by the Judge in charge of the jury calendar, or other Judges whom he may call upon to assist, on the date indicated as the date set for trial. At that conference all interested parties must be represented by the counsel who will try the case, or if such counsel is unable to be present, by other attorneys authorized to act in all matters within the purview of Rule 16. After the conference, the Judge will, so far as possible, set each case for trial on a date certain, or strike the same from the calendar, dismiss it or continue it generally, as the circumstances may require.

The holding of such conference, and the attendance by counsel, is obligatory unless prior to the date set both counsel advise the Court that they have voluntarily conferred, and inform the Court as to the result of such conference. If the Court is satisfied that nothing more will be gained by a conference in the presence of the Court, further pretrial conference may be dispensed with by the Court.

ORDER FOR PRETRIALS

A pretrial conference will be held in all cases on the Jury Calendar where the notes of issue were filed in the years 1948, 1949 and 1950, pursuant to the unanimous decision of the Judges of the District Court for the Second Judicial District.

Notice of the pretrial conference will be given to the attorneys, and the attorney who expects to try the case will be present, or if he is unable to be there, some lawyer designated by him with full authority to act shall be present.

At the pretrial conference the Court will endeavor to secure a stipulation between the parties stating the real issues to be tried, and determining by stipulation any other matters that may tend to shorten the time of trial.

At the pretrial conference a date will be fixed for the trial of said case on a definite date. In the event the judge is engaged in the trial of a case on that date the trial will commence upon the completion of the case then being tried.

In the event the attorney for either side fails to be present at the date of the pretrial conference, the case will either be dismissed, stricken from the calendar or set down for trial.

On the date set for trial the case will either be tried or dismissed.

Pretrials of such cases will be held by Judge Albin S. Pearson at his order and direction.

FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

SETTING OF CASES. (a) The clerk of this court shall, for each general term thereof, prepare a calendar of civil causes, court and jury, and shall enter upon such calendar: (1) All causes which shall have been continued to such term, in the order in which the same shall have appeared upon the calendar of the term from which the continuance was had; (2) all other civil causes, originally commenced in the district court, in which notes of issue shall have been filed with said clerk, prior to such term, or during the continuance thereof, as provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 546.05, the same to be so entered in the order of the dates of filing of said notes of issue; and (3) all other actions and proceedings, originally commenced in the district court, or appealed or transferred thereto and required by law to be placed upon said calendar, the same to be entered thereon at the time and in the manner prescribed by law, upon compliance being had with the provisions of the respective statutes relating thereto, as modified by said Minnesota Statutes, Section 546.05.

(b) The clerk shall also, for each general term thereof, prepare a calendar, which shall be known as the default divorce calendar, and shall enter therein: (1) Default divorce cases, which shall have been continued to such term, in the order in which the same shall have appeared upon the calendar of the term from which the continuance was had; (2) all other default divorce cases, in which notes of issue shall have been filed, prior to such term, or during the continuance thereof; Provided, however, that no default divorce case shall be entered for trial at an earlier date than thirty (30) days after the time to answer has expired and affidavit of no answer and note of issue has been filed.

(c) No contested case shall be advanced upon the calendar of this court for trial out of its regular order except under the following conditions: At or before the time each Judge takes his assignment as Judge in Chambers, the Senior Judge shall appoint two Judges who shall act with said Judge in Chambers in passing upon any motion or request for the advancement of any contested case for trial, and no case shall be so advanced except upon order signed by said three Judges. During the summer vacation, all motions and requests for such advancement shall be passed upon by the two Judges on duty, and no case shall be so advanced unless said order be signed by both Judges.

RESETTING OF CASES. (a) Application for the resetting of any cause shall be made to the court not less than eight days prior to the date of trial except for reasons arising within the period of eight days. This application shall be made upon affidavit and written notice, served upon opposing counsel at least two days prior to the hearing. When the reason for the application arises within the period of eight days an order to show cause shall be applied for with reasonable promptness. Applications for resettings will be granted only upon a legal showing which would, under the practice heretofore existing, have entitled the moving party to a continuance. No such application shall be made later than the date when said case is set for trial. Not more than three re-settings or continuances in any case shall be granted.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c) hereof, a case may be re-set or continued only upon stipulation filed by 12 o'clock noon of the day prior to the date when said case is set for trial. There shall not be more than three re-settings upon stipulation except as provided in subdivision (c) hereof.

(c) After a case has been assigned to a Judge for trial, an application for re-setting or continuance may be based only on an emergency arising since the case was called on the calendar. Such motion or application shall be made immediately upon the discovery of such emergency and shall be heard and determined forthwith by the Judge in Chambers.

SPECIAL TERM. Special term shall be held every day except Sundays and holidays. The preliminary call of the calendar will be followed at once by the peremptory call, at which hearing will be had and causes finally disposed of as reached. No hearing will be set down for the afternoon, or continued beyond the morning session unless for urgent reasons. Only causes properly on the calendar when the court opens will be heard, unless they have been omitted by mistake or inadvertence of the clerk. All pleadings, orders, notices, affidavits and other papers proper to be filed must be, to entitle them to be read, filed with the clerk before the day on which the special term is held, unless for some reason other than neglect, the paper could not have been sooner filed, or unless the occasion for the use of the paper arises at the hearing from some cause not previously apparent. The strict enforcement of the provisions of this rule may be relaxed in favor of attorneys from other counties.

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES. (a) The clerk shall assign a duly appointed deputy clerk from his office who shall be designated as the assignment clerk and he shall act under the general instructions of the judge presiding in chambers in connection with the assignment of civil cases to the several judges for trial.

(b) It shall be the duty of the assignment clerk to set for trial each day that the court is in session a sufficient number of cases to keep the courts occupied, and he shall mail to all attorneys postal cards notifying them as to the day their cases are set for trial, 15 days in advance. Attorneys so notified shall at once inform the clerk whether such case or cases are for trial, and unless so informed within five days after the mailing of such notice it shall be deemed that the case has been settled or abandoned, and the clerk shall then omit it from the calendar and may substitute another case in lieu thereof.

(c) The clerk shall assign to each trial court room a deputy clerk who shall be in constant attendance during the sessions of the court, and whose first duty shall be the clerical details or/and pertaining to the trial work.

(d) The clerk shall assign deputy clerks to assist the assignment clerk in such number as from time to time the work may require.

(e) In all cases where there is more than one attorney of record for a party, the name of the attorney who will try the case for any such party shall be given to the assignment clerk in writing within five days after receipt of the 15-day notice set forth in subdivision (b).

In all cases where an attorney other than the attorney of record will try the case the name of such attorney shall be given to the assignment clerk and to all opposing counsel in writing not later than 5 days after receipt of the 15-day notice set forth in subdivision (b). Such cases will be sent out in their regular order. No trial shall be delayed by failure to observe the foregoing requirements.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (g) hereof, a case may be reset or continued only upon stipulation filed by 12 o'clock of the day prior to the date when the case is set for trial or upon application to the judge in chambers, as set forth in rule 3. No such application shall be made later than the date when the case is set for trial and shall be based either upon notice of motion or order to show cause, stating the grounds for such application. If the judge is satisfied that there is just cause for granting the application for the resetting or continuance, such application shall be decided forthwith by the court. Not more than three resettings or continuances of any case shall be granted, except as provided in subdivision (g) herein or upon stipulation of the parties.

(g) After a case has been assigned to a judge for trial, an application for resetting or continuance may be based only on an emergency arising since the case was called on the calendar. Such motion or application shall be made immediately upon the discovery of such emergency and shall be heard and determined forthwith by the judge in chambers.

(h) All cases reported ready for trial shall be placed on the active list and assigned by the judge in chambers to a court room for trial in the order in which they appear on such list. The assignment clerk shall notify the attorneys by telephone to report at once to the court to which such case has been assigned.

(i) Attorneys shall be required to keep the assignment clerk informed of their telephone number and when they have cases on the active list they shall be required to hold themselves within telephone call of their offices, and report to the trial court within 15 minutes after such notification in person or by representative.

(j) The time at which the assignment clerk has notified the attorneys shall be indicated on the records of the assignment clerk.

(k) Each case in its order shall be assigned by the judge in chambers to the first judge available and thereupon it shall be tried, dismissed, or stricken, unless it is reset or continued because of an emergency arising since the case was called on the calendar.

No case shall be kept on the active list more than 30 days after it has been called for trial on the calendar. It must be tried, dismissed, or stricken within the 30 days.

Without any exception, save as herein specified, cases shall be assigned to the judge trying civil cases who first reports to the assignment clerk that he is ready for a new case. To fill time not otherwise occupied default divorce cases may be assigned out of their regular order to any judge on his request, such cases always retaining their calendar order relative to each other. The judge having the juvenile court assignment may select cases of such probable length as not to interfere with his juvenile court work.

(l) All pleading must be on file in the office of the clerk of the district court as provided in rule 1 before any case is assigned for trial, under penalty of dismissal, continuance, striking from the calendar, or such other terms as the court may see fit to impose.

(m) Cases will not be assigned when any attorney therein is actually engaged in another court.

(n) When an attorney who is going to try a case or cases on the active list is actually engaged in another court he shall file a statement with the assignment clerk setting forth the court wherein he is engaged and his cases shall be held until he is released from the case in which he is then engaged. Immediately upon becoming released from such case the attorney shall notify the assignment clerk, who shall forthwith notify the judge in chambers and such cases as are held shall then be assigned to a judge for trial in regular order.

(o) When a case is reached for trial and a jury is not available the assignment clerk may assign a court case. When juries are available jury cases shall be given such preference as shall be deemed expedient.

(p) When a case is assigned for trial it must be ready for immediate trial. All motions, demurrers, or other proceedings as to pleadings shall be heard prior to the time of trial by the court in chambers.

(q) When a trial is for good reason interrupted and the case is to be returned to the assignment clerk, he shall make such record of its return and forthwith place such case again upon the calendar for trial, for such date as the court may direct.

(r) When the parties to any suit which has reached the active list have settled or dismissed the same, the attorneys shall at once notify the assignment clerk and cause an entry of such assignment or dismissal to be made and entered upon the records. Failure to comply with this rule may be treated as a contempt of court.

(s) If any Judge shall feel for personal reasons or otherwise that he cannot try a particular case assigned to him he shall so report to the Judge in Chambers.

(t) The assignment clerk shall never under any consideration assign cases to Judges other than in their regular order, and in the regular order in which the Judges notify him that they are ready for cases, except as hereinbefore provided.

(u) When an attorney withdraws from the case or is discharged by his client he shall notify the assignment clerk, and all opposing counsel in writing within five days thereafter that he no longer appears for such party and shall give the assignment clerk and all opposing counsel the name of the attorney succeeding him and the postal address of said client.

(v) If a party to an action is a non-resident or is out of the city or liable to be out of the city at intervals, upon receipt of the postal card notice the attorney so notified shall at once inform the assignment clerk and all opposing counsel in writing of such fact and upon written notice to the opposing parties apply to the Court in Chambers for a setting for a day certain.

(w) After a case has been set for trial, upon the 15-day notice set forth in subdivision (b) hereof, no further time shall be allowed for the taking of depositions, only except those that could not have been taken until after receipt of the postal card notice or where the necessity for depositions did not arise until after such notice. The case will be stricken and removed from the active list unless the opposing party demands trial. In such event the case shall proceed for trial.

(x) In the event that a litigant is in service and wishes to avail himself of relief under the Sailors and Soldiers Relief Act, the attorney shall notify the assignment clerk, and all opposing counsel, within five days after the receipt of the 15-day notice.

(c) Liens for Tax Or Local Assessment Sales. Decrees in either initial or subsequent proceedings in which the title of the applicant is adjudged to be subject to certain liens arising from tax or local assessment sales shall specify such liens and shall provide that upon the filing with the registrar of the official receipt showing redemption from or payment of any such lien, the registrar shall cancel the memorial thereof. When the interest of a life tenant has been terminated by death the registrar may receive and enter a memorial of a duly certified copy of the official death certificate and an affidavit of identity of the decedent with the life tenant named in the certificate of title; and in such case the memorial of the certificate and affidavit shall be treated as evidence of the discharge of the life tenancy.

Also, the provisions of rule (e) relative to accepting an official death certificate and an affidavit of identity as authority for entry of a new certificate in favor of the survivor or survivors in joint tenancy is declared to include joint tenancies consisting of persons other than husband and wife.

(f) Practice in Relation to State Tax Deeds. Excepting those cases where a certificate of title is outstanding in favor of the State of Minnesota, when a deed from the State of Minnesota in favor of the registered owner is offered for registration, it shall be registered as a memorial upon the certificate of title as evidence of discharge of any claim of title by the State of Minnesota evidenced by the prior memorial of an auditor's certificate of forfeiture to the state; and the same practice shall be followed in those cases where subsequent to or concurrent with a repurchase from the State of Minnesota by the registered owner, the latter shall have conveyed either by quitclaim deed or warranty deed the affected premises and the deed from the State of Minnesota in favor of the registered owner is dated subsequent to the date of conveyance of the registered owner or subsequent to the entry of the certificate in favor of the registered owner's grantee, in which case the fact that the repurchase from the State of Minnesota was concurrent with or prior to the date of the deed by the registered owner making such purchase shall be evidenced by an endorsement to that effect upon the state deed made by the county auditor, one of his deputies, or the county land commissioner.

EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

TRIAL OF CASES. All court and jury cases are set for trial on the first day of the general term. The trial of all jury cases shall begin on the third day of a general term of court, and the trial of court cases shall immediately follow the completion of the trial of all jury cases. Trial of all cases begins at 10:00 o'clock A. M.

RULE 2

CALL OF CALENDAR. The call of the calendar shall be had at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. on the opening day of each general and special term. There shall be a preliminary and a final call of the cases. On the preliminary call, counsel shall announce the nature of the disposition to be made of the case including motions to dismiss, strike, change the order on the calendar or such other motions as are proper to be noticed at said time. On the final call of the calendar all motions and requests shall be disposed of by the court in the order made on the preliminary call. All calendars shall be printed.

RULE 3

FILING OF PLEADINGS. This court deems the timely filing of pleadings an essential factor to the prompt and proper trial of cases. And mindful of the provision of section 9244 of Mason's Minnesota Statutes for 1927, this court directs that at least seven days before the term all pleadings shall be filed with the clerk.

RULE 4

OUT OF TERM TRIALS. No action will be tried out of term unless in extraordinary situations. This rule may be relaxed in favor of attorneys from without the district.

RULE 5

1. All exhibits introduced in evidence upon the trial of a cause shall, after being marked for identification by the court reporter, be delivered to the clerk, who shall file the same.

2. Models, diagrams, and exhibits of material forming a part of the evidence in any case pending or tried in this court shall, after being marked for identification, be placed in the custody of the clerk.

3. All models, diagrams, and exhibits of material placed in the custody of the clerk shall be taken away by the parties within seven months after the case is decided, unless an appeal is taken. In all cases in which an appeal is taken they shall be taken away within 30 days after the filing and recording of the mandate of the appellate court.

4. When models, diagrams, and exhibits of materials placed in the custody of the clerk and not taken away within the time specified in paragraph 3 of this rule, it shall be the duty of the clerk to notify counsel in the case, by mail or otherwise, of the requirements of this rule, and, if the articles are not removed within 30 days after the notice is given, he shall destroy them, or make such other disposition of them as to him may seem best.

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS. Upon the filing of a verdict or a decision, the court or referee may order a stay of all proceedings for a period not to exceed 40 days, provided that within 20 days the moving party shall order from the reporter a transcript of the evidence, unless a motion is made on the minutes of the court.

The court reporter shall, upon receiving an order for such transcript, immediately notify the clerk of the receipt of such order and upon such notice to the clerk a further stay of all proceedings shall be in effect until 30 days after said reporter notifies the clerk and requesting party in writing that such transcript has been completed and is ready for delivery. It shall be the duty of said reporter to transcribe and prepare transcripts of evidence, taken in all trials and proceedings, in the order requested and with reasonable dispatch.

Within said 30 days said requesting party shall bring on for hearing before the court such motion or proceedings as it deems advisable and necessary preparatory to an appeal to the supreme court. Provided, however, in extraordinary cases, said 30-day period may be extended by application of either party to the court. Upon submission of such motion or proceeding to the court all proceedings shall be stayed up to and including the filing of the decision by the court. The foregoing provisions apply to civil proceedings only.

NOTE. Neither the district or supreme court can give a party the right to appeal after the time for appeal, prescribed by the statute, has expired. 53-431.

The observance of this rule shall not be deemed a substitute for statutory notice of the filing of a decision or order.

(d) No papers on file in any case in the office of the clerk of court shall be taken from the custody of the clerk, except by the district judge for his own use, or by a referee appointed to try the action, or by attorneys appearing of record in the case for the purpose of delivering to the court at the time of trial. At the expiration of forty (40) days the case will be considered as submitted to the court for its decision whether briefs have been served or not, provided that where a transcript of the evidence is to be furnished, the time for serving briefs shall commence to run from the date of delivery of the transcript by the court reporter.

However, "when said certificate of death and affidavit shall show that the decedent died on or after the 29th day of April, 1935, the registrar shall refrain from taking the foregoing action, until there is also filed with him a certificate from the attorney general of the state of Minnesota, showing either that the inheritance tax due under the provisions of the laws of 1935, chapter 334, has been paid or that there is no tax due."
