501.01 ABOLISHED IN PART. Uses and trusts, except as authorized and modified in this chapter and except as authorized by law, are abolished; and every estate and interest in lands shall be deemed a legal right, cognizable as such in the courts of law, except when otherwise provided by statute.

[R. L. s. 3240; 1961 c 740 s 1] (8081)

501.02 EXECUTED USES CONFIRMED. Every estate which is now held as a use executed under laws as they formerly existed is confirmed as a legal estate.

[R. L. s. 3241] (8082)

501.03 RIGHT OF POSSESSION AND PROFITS A LEGAL ESTATE. Every person who, by virtue of any grant, assignment, or devise, is entitled to the actual possession of lands, and the receipt of the rents and profits thereof, in law or equity, shall be deemed to have a legal estate therein of the same quality and duration, and subject to the same conditions, as his beneficial interests.

[R. L. s. 3242] (8083)

501.04 ACTIVE TRUSTS NOT AFFECTED. The provisions of section 501.03 shall not divest the estate of any trustee in any existing trust where the title of such trustee is not merely nominal, but is connected with some power of actual disposition or management, in relation to the lands which are the subject of the trust.

[R. L. s. 3242] (8083)

501.05 PASSIVE TRUSTS ABOLISHED. Every disposition of lands, whether by deed or devise, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be made directly to the person in whom the right to the possession and profits is intended to be vested, and not to any other to the use of, or in trust for, such person; and, if made to one or more persons in trust for or to the use of another, no estate or interest, legal or equitable, shall vest in the trustee.

501.06 LIMITING PRECEDING SECTIONS. Sections 501.01 to 501.05 shall not extend to trusts arising or resulting by implication of law, nor be construed to prevent or affect the creation of such express trusts as are hereinafter authorized and defined.

[R. L. s. 3244] (8085)

501.07 RESULTING TRUSTS. When a grant for a valuable consideration is made to one person, and the consideration therefor is paid by another, no use or trust shall result in favor of the person by whom such payment is made; but the title shall vest in the person named as the alienee in such conveyance, subject only to the provisions of section 501.08.

[R. L. s. 3245] (8086)

501.08 FRAUD AGAINST CREDITORS. Every such conveyance shall be presumed fraudulent as against the creditors, at that time, of the person paying the consideration; and when a fraudulent intent is not disproved a trust shall result in favor of such creditors to the extent that may be necessary to satisfy their just demands.

[R. L. s. 3246] (8087)

501.09 LIMITING THE EFFECT OF SECTION 501.07. Section 501.07 shall not extend to cases where the alienee named in the conveyance has taken the same as an absolute conveyance in his own name, without the knowledge or consent of the person paying the consideration, or when such alienee, in violation of some trust, has purchased the lands so conveyed with moneys belonging to another person.

[R. L. s. 3247] (8088)

501.10 BONA FIDE PURCHASERS PROTECTED. No implied or resulting trust shall be alleged or established to defeat or prejudice the title of a purchaser for a valuable consideration, and without notice of such trust.

[R. L. s. 3248] (8089)

501.11 EXPRESS TRUSTS, PURPOSES. Express trusts may be created for any of the following purposes:

- (1) To sell lands for the benefit of creditors;
- (2) To sell, mortgage, or lease lands for the benefit of legatees, or for the purpose of satisfying any charge thereon;
- (3) To receive the rents and profits of lands, and apply them to the use of any person, during the life of such person, or for any shorter term, subject to the rules prescribed in chapter 500;
- (4) To receive the rents and profits of lands, and to accumulate the same, for either of the purposes, and within the limits prescribed in chapter 500;
- (5) To receive and take charge of any money, stocks, bonds, or valuable chattels of any kind and to invest and loan the same for the benefit of the beneficiaries of such express trust; and the district courts of the state shall, upon petition and hearing, have power to appoint a trustee for the purpose herein set forth, requiring such trustee to give such bond for the faithful execution of such express trust as to the court may seem right and proper; and express trusts created under the provisions of this paragraph shall be administered under the direction of the court;
- (6) For the beneficial interests of any person, whether such trust embraces real or personal property or both, when the trust is fully expressed and clearly defined on the face of the instrument creating it, provided that the trust shall not continue for a period longer than the life or lives of specified persons in being at the time of its creation, and for 21 years after the death of the survivor of them, and that the free alienation of the legal estate by the trustee is not suspended for a period exceeding the limit prescribed in Chapter 500; provided, however, that the aforesaid limitation on the period of continuance of such trusts shall not apply to a trust forming a part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of some or all of his employees, nor to a trust forming a part of a retirement plan created by and for the benefit of self-employed persons for the purpose of receiving their contributions thereunder and investing, accumulating, and distributing to such persons or their beneficiaries the corpus, profits, and earnings of the trust in accordance with the plan.

(7) Any city or village may receive, by grant, gift, devise, or bequest, and take charge of, invest, and administer, free from taxation, in accordance with the terms of the trust, real or personal property, or both, for the benefit of any public library, or any public cemetery, or any public park, located in, or within ten miles of, such city or village, or for the purpose of establishing or maintaining a kindergarten or other school or institution of learning therein.

Provided that any such city or village shall, with the approval of the district court of the county wherein such city or village is located, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, freed of the provisions of such trust, any such tract, lot, parcel, reserve, block, or subdivision of the platted part of any such city or village, embraced within the area described in such grant, gift, devise, or bequest when any such tract, lot, parcel, reserve, block, or subdivision of the platted part of any such city or village shall be found to be unfit for the uses and purposes expressed in any such grant, gift, devise or bequest.

The income realized from any such sale, lease, or disposal of such trust property shall be credited to the funds of said trust of the city or village wherein said property is located.

Each city of the second class in this state, in addition to the foregoing, may receive by grant, gift, devise, or bequest, and take charge of, convert, invest, and administer, free from taxation, in accordance with the terms of the trust, real or personal property, or both, of any kind or nature and wherever located, for any public or charitable purpose, or to provide, enlarge, improve, lease, and maintain for the use and benefit of the inhabitants of such city, animal, bird, fish, game, and hunting preserves, public parks, public grounds, public waterways, public bath houses and grounds used in connection therewith, and public playgrounds within or without the limits of such city, whether within or without this state, or for the support, medical treatment, and nursing of the worthy poor residing in such city.

501.12 EXPRESS TRUSTS FOR CHARITABLE, EDUCATIONAL, RELIGIOUS, AND OTHER PUBLIC USES. Subdivision 1. Creation. Express trusts of real or personal property, or both, may be created to receive by grant, devise, gift, or bequest, and to take charge of, invest, and administer in accordance with the terms of the trust, upon and for any charitable, benevolent, educational, religious, or other public use or trust.

Subd. 2. Validity and construction. No such trust shall be invalid because of indefiniteness or uncertainty of the object of such trust or of the beneficiaries thereof designated in the instrument creating the same nor by reason of the same contravening any statute or rule against perpetuities, but no such trust shall be construed so as to prevent or limit the free alienation of the title to any of the trust estate by the trustee in the administration of the trust, except as may be permitted under existing or subsequent statutes.

Subd. 3. Liberal interpretation; administration. Such trust shall be liberally construed by the courts so that the intentions of the donor thereof shall be carried out when possible and no such trust shall fail solely because the donor has imperfectly outlined the purpose and object of such charity or the method of administration. When it shall appear to the district court of the proper county that the purpose and object of such charity is imperfectly expressed, or the method of administration is incomplete or imperfect, or that the circumstances have so changed since the execution of the instrument creating the trust as to render impracticable, inexpedient, or impossible a literal compliance with the terms of such instrument, such court may, upon the application and with the consent of the trustee, and upon such notice as the court may direct, make an order directing that such trust shall be administered or expended in such manner as in the judgment of the court will, as nearly as can be, accomplish the general purposes of the instrument and the object and intention of the donor without regard to, and free from any, specific restriction, limitation, or direction contained therein. No such order shall be made without the consent of the donor of the trust if he is then living and mentally competent. The attorney general shall represent the beneficiaries in all cases arising under this section and it shall be his duty to enforce such trusts by proper proceedings in the courts.

Subd. 4. Laws not affected. Nothing in this section contained shall in any manner impair, limit, or abridge the operation and efficacy of the whole or any part of any existing statute authorizing the creation of corporations for charitable purposes or permitting municipal corporations to act as trustee for any public or charitable purpose under any existing statute. Nothing in this section, except as provided in subdivision 5, shall apply to any gift, bequest, devise, or trust made, created, or arising by or under the provisions of the will of any person whose decease occurred before this section became effective.

Subd. 5. Determination of trust, gift bequest, devise. Where any gift or trust has been made or created by any living person or persons prior to April 15, 1927, or when any gift, bequest, devise or trust has been made or created by or under the will of any person whose decease occurred prior to April 15, 1927, and such gift, trust, bequest or devise has been made for any charitable, benevolent, educational, religious or other public use or trust or upon a condition, limitation or restriction of any kind that the property so given, bequeathed, devised, or entrusted be used only for the charitable, benevolent, educational, religious or other public use or trust therein expressed, the grantee, devisee, trustee or other holder of such property may have determined in the district court the legal rights and relationship of such holder, of the public, and the grantor, his heirs, representatives or assigns in and to such property. Notice of the application for such determination shall be personally served upon the donor, if living, and upon the attorney general. Service upon all other interested persons may be made by three weeks published notice, provided however, that the court may direct personal service or service by mail at the last known address of any person or persons. If it shall appear to the court that circumstances have so changed since the execution of the instrument as to render impracticable, inexpedient or impossible a literal compliance with the terms or conditions of such instrument but the terms and purposes of such instrument may be substantially performed, the court may make an order directing that the terms of such instrument shall be preformed and such property shall be administered or expended in such manner as in the judgment of the court will, as nearly as can be, accomplish the general purposes of the instrument and the object and intention of the donor without regard to, and free from any, specific restriction, limitation, condition, or direction therein contained. No such order shall be made without the consent of the donor if he is then living and mentally competent.

[1927 c 180 s 1-4; 1955 c 138 s 1, 2] (8090-1, 8090-2, 8090-3, 8090-4)

501.125 KINDS OF PROPERTY A TRUSTEE MAY ACQUIRE. Subdivision 1. Properties and investments. In acquiring, investing, reinvesting, exchanging and managing property, a trustee is authorized to acquire every kind of property, real, personal or mixed, and every kind of investment, specifically including, but not by way of limitation, bonds, debentures and other individual or corporate obligations, and corporate stocks, which an ordinarily prudent person of discretion and intelligence, who is a trustee of the property of others, would acquire as such trustee.

Subd. 2. Shall not be compelled to dispose of property. Unless the trust instrument or a court order specifically directs otherwise, a trustee shall not be required to dispose of any property, real, personal, or mixed, or any kind of investment, in the trust, however acquired, until the trustee shall determine in the exercise of a sound discretion that it is advisable to dispose of the same, but nothing herein contained shall excuse the trustee from the duty to exercise discretion at reasonable intervals and to determine at such times the advisability of retaining or disposing of such property.

Subd. 3. Not to alter terms of will. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as authorizing any departure from or variation of the express terms or limitations set forth in any will, agreement, court order, or other instrument creating or defining the trustee's duties and powers, but the terms "authorized securities," or "authorized investments," or "legal investments," or words of similar import, as used in any such instrument or in the statutes of this state in so far as they relate to the investment of trust funds by corporate trustees or by individual trustees, shall be taken to mean every kind of property, real, personal or mixed, and every kind of investment, which a trustee is authorized to acquire under the terms of subdivision 1.

Subd. 4. Not to be construed to limit powers of court. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as restricting the power of a court of proper jurisdiction to permit a trustee to deviate from the terms of any will, agreement, court order or other instrument relating to the acquisition, investment, reinvestment, exchange, retention, sale or management of trust property.

Subd. 5. Who are trustees. The term "trustee," as used in this section, includes individual trustees and corporations having trust powers and the provisions hereof shall govern trustees acting under wills, agreements, court orders and other instruments now existing or hereafter made.

[1943 c. 635]

501.13 DEVISES AS POWERS. A devise of lands to executors or other trustees to be sold or mortgaged, when such trustees are not also empowered to receive the rents and profits, shall vest no estate in the trustees; but the trust shall be valid as a power, and the lands shall descend to their heirs, or pass to the devisees of the testator, subject to the execution of the power.

501.14 TRUST PROFIT SURPLUS SUBJECT TO CREDITORS' RIGHTS.

When a trust is created to receive the rents and profits of lands and no valid direction for accumulation is given, the surplus of such rents and profits, beyond the sum necessary for the education and support of the person for whose benefit the trust is created, shall be subject in equity to the claims of his creditors in the same manner as other personal property which cannot be reached by an execution at law.

501.15 EXPRESS TRUSTS; POWERS IN TRUST. When an express trust is created for any purpose not heretofore in this chapter enumerated, no estate shall vest in the trustee; but the trust, if directing or authorizing the performance of any act which may be lawfully performed under a power, shall be valid as a power in trust, subject to the provisions in relation to such powers contained in chapter 502.

[R. L. s. 3252] (8093)

501.16 LEGAL TITLE IN BENEFICIARY. When the trust is valid as a power the land to which the trust relates shall remain in or descend to the persons otherwise entitled, subject to the execution of the trust as a power.

501.17 TRUSTEES TAKE ESTATE, WHEN. Every express trust, valid as such in its creation, except as herein otherwise provided, shall vest the whole estate in the trustee, in law and in equity, subject only to the execution of the trust; and the person for whose benefit the trust was created shall take no estate or interest in the lands but may enforce the performance of the trust in equity.

[R. L. s. 3254] (8095)

501.18 SECTION 501.17 QUALIFIED. Section 501.17 shall not prevent any person creating a trust from declaring to whom the lands to which the trust relates shall belong in the event of the failure or termination of the trust; nor shall it prevent him from granting or devising such lands, subject to the execution of the trust; and every such grantee shall have a legal estate in the lands as against all persons, except the trustees and those lawfully claiming under them.

[R. L. s. 3255] (8096)

501.19 REVERSION IN GRANTOR. When an express trust is created, every estate and interest not embraced in the trust, and not otherwise disposed of, shall remain in or revert to the person creating the trust, or his heirs, as a legal estate.

[R. L. s. 3256] (8097)

501.195 REVERSIONARY INTERESTS; POSSIBILITIES OF REVERTER; RESULTING TRUSTS. It is hereby declared to be the law of Minnesota that no express trust of property, whether real or personal, heretofore or hereafter created under the laws of this state shall under any circumstances be deemed to give rise, by operation of law or otherwise, to any reversionary interest, possibility of reverter or resulting trust of the trust property or of any interest or estate therein in the settlor of the trust or the estate of the settlor or the heirs at law of the settlor as such, if by the terms of the controlling trust instrument the settlor manifested irrevocably his intention to divest himself of all interest in said trust property or in said interest or estate therein, as the case may be, or expressly and irrevocably surrendered the right to revoke the trust and the right to make the settlor or the estate of the settlor a beneficiary of said trust property, or of said interest or estate therein, as the case may be. In any case where, but for the application of the principles herein expressed, a reversionary interest, possibility of reverter or resulting trust would be recognized in the settlor of the trust or the estate of the settlor or the heirs at law of the settlor as such, the subject matter thereof shall be deemed to be held upon a resulting trust for the State of Minnesota.

[1949 c 201 s 1]

501.20 ALIENATION RESTRAINED; LIMITATION. No person beneficially interested in a trust for the receipt of rents and profits of the lands can assign, or in any manner dispose of, such interest; provided, the power to sell or sign or transfer such beneficial interest shall in no manner be abridged or curtailed, where such beneficial interest in the first instance shall have been acquired by purchase; but the rights and interest of every person for whose benefit a trust for the payment of a sum in gross is created are assignable.

[R. L. s. 3257; 1931 c. 66 s. 1] (8098)

501.21 EFFECT OF OMITTING TRUST IN CONVEYANCE. When an express trust is created, but is not contained or declared in the conveyance to the trustees, such conveyance shall be deemed absolute as against the subsequent creditors of the trustees not having notice of the trust, and as against purchasers from such trustees, without notice, and for a valuable consideration.

[R. L. s. 3258] (8099)

501.211 DISCLAIMER OF INTERESTS PASSING BY DEED, ASSIGNMENT, UNDER CERTAIN NON-TESTAMENTARY INSTRUMENTS OR UNDER CERTAIN POWERS OF APPOINTMENT. Subdivision 1. As used in this section, unless otherwise clearly required by the context:

(a) "Beneficiary" means and includes any person entitled, but for his disclaimer, to take an interest: as grantee; as donee; under any assignment or instrument of conveyance or transfer; by succession to a disclaimed interest, other than by will, intestate succession or through the exercise or nonexercise of a testamentary power of appointment; as beneficiary of an inter vivos trust or insurance contract; pursuant to the exercise or nonexercise of a nontestamentary power of appointment; as donee of a power of appointment created by a nontestamentary instrument; or otherwise under any nontestamentary instrument.

(b) "Interest" means and includes the whole of any property, real or personal, legal or equitable, or any fractional part, share or particular portion or specific assets thereof or any estate in any such property or power to appoint, consume, apply or expend property or any other right, power, privilege or immunity relating thereto;

(c) "Disclaimer" means a written instrument which declines, refuses, releases or disclaims an interest which would otherwise be succeeded to by a beneficiary, which instrument defines the nature and extent of the interest disclaimed thereby and which must be signed, witnessed and acknowledged by the disclaimant in the manner provided for deeds of real estate.

Subd. 2. A beneficiary may disclaim any interest in whole or in part, or with reference to specific parts, shares, portions or assets thereof, by filing a disclaimer in court in the manner hereinafter provided. A guardian, executor, administrator or other personal representative of the estate of a minor, incompetent, or deceased beneficiary, if he deems it in the best interests of those interested in the estate of such beneficiary and of those who take the beneficiary's interest by virtue of the disclaimer and not detrimental to the best interests of the beneficiary, with or without an order of the probate court, may execute and file a disclaimer on behalf of the beneficiary within the time and in the manner in which the beneficiary himself could disclaim if he were living, of legal age and competent. A beneficiary likewise may execute and file a disclaimer by agent or attorney so empowered.

Subd. 3. Such disclaimer shall be filed at any time after the creation of the interest, but in all events within six months after the effective date of the nontestamentary instrument creating the interest, or, if the disclaimant is not then finally ascertained as a beneficiary or his interest has not then become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and in quantity, such disclaimer shall be filed not later than six months after the event which would cause him so to become finally ascertained and his interest to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity.

Subd. 4. Such disclaimer shall be effective upon being filed in any district court of the State of Minnesota. A copy of the disclaimer shall be delivered or mailed to the trustee of any trust in which the interest disclaimed exists or to such other person as has legal title to, or possession of, the property in which the interest disclaimed exists, and no such trustee or person shall be liable for any otherwise proper distribution or other disposition made without actual notice of the disclaimer. If an interest in or relating to real estate is disclaimed, the original of the disclaimer, or a copy of the disclaimer certified as true and complete by the clerk of the district court wherein the same has been filed, shall also be filed with the register of deeds or with the registrar of titles, as hereinafter provided, in the county or counties where the real estate is situated and shall constitute notice to all persons only from and after the time of such filing. If title to such real estate has not been registered under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 508, such disclaimer or certified copy shall be filed with the register of deeds. If title to such real estate has been registered under the provisions of Chapter 508, such disclaimer or certified copy shall be filed with the registrar of titles.

Subd. 5. Unless otherwise provided in the nontestamentary instrument creating the interest with reference to the possibility of a disclaimer by the beneficiary, the interest disclaimed shall be distributed or otherwise be disposed of in the same manner as if the disclaimant had died immediately preceding the death or other event which causes him to become finally ascertained as a beneficiary and his interest to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity and, in any case, the disclaimer shall relate for all purposes to that date, whether filed before or after such death or other event. However, one disclaiming an interest in a non-residuary gift under a trust instrument or otherwise shall not be excluded, unless his disclaimer so provides, from sharing in a gift of the residue even though, through lapse, such residue includes the assets disclaimed.

Subd. 6. The right to disclaim otherwise conferred by this section shall be barred if the beneficiary is insolvent at the time of the event giving rise to the right to disclaim. Any voluntary assignment or transfer of, or contract to assign or transfer, an interest in real or personal property, or written waiver of the right to disclaim the succession to any interest in real or personal property, by any beneficiary or any sale or other disposition of an interest in real or personal property pursuant to judicial process, made before he has disclaimed, as herein provided, bars the right otherwise hereby conferred on such beneficiary to disclaim as to such interest.

Subd. 7. The right to disclaim granted by this section shall exist irrespective of any limitation imposed on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of an express or implied spendthrift provision or similar restriction. A disclaimer, when filed as provided in this section, or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, shall be binding upon the disclaimant or beneficiary so waiving and all parties thereafter claiming by, through or under him, except that a beneficiary so waiving may thereafter transfer, assign or release his interest if such is not prohibited by an express or implied spendthrift provision. If an interest in real estate is disclaimed and the disclaimer is duly filed in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 4 of this section, the spouse of the disclaimant, if such spouse has consented to the disclaimer in writing, shall thereupon be automatically debarred from any spouse's statutory or common law right or estate by curtesy or in dower or otherwise in such real estate to which such spouse, except for such disclaimer, would have been entitled.

Subd. 8. This section shall not abridge the right of any person, apart from this section, under any existing or future statute or rule of law, to disclaim any interest or to assign, convey, release, renounce or otherwise dispose of any interest.

Subd. 9. Any interest which exists on May 22, 1965 but which has not then become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity, or the taker of which has not then become finally ascertained, may be disclaimed after May 22, 1965 in the manner provided herein.

501.22 TRUST ESTATES. Subdivision 1. Contravention void. When the trust is expressed in the instrument creating the estate, every sale, conveyance, or other act of the trustee, in contravention of the trust, shall be absolutely void.

Subd. 2. Sale, mortgage. The district court of the district wherein such property held in trust is situate, may, by order, on such terms and conditions as seem just and proper, authorize any such trustee, whether he be beneficially interested in such trust property or not, to mortgage or sell such real property or any part thereof when it appears to the satisfaction of the court that it is for the best interest of such estate, or that it is necessary or for the benefit of the estate or of the persons beneficially interested therein holding the first and present estate, interest or use, and that it will do no substantial injury to the heirs in tail, or others in expectancy, succession, reversion, or remainder.

Subd. 3. Five year limitation on leases. A trustee appointed to hold real property during the life of a beneficiary, and to pay or apply the rents, income, and profits thereof to, or for, the use of such beneficiary, may execute and deliver a lease of such real property for a term not exceeding five years without application to the court.

Subd. 4. Court may lengthen term of lease. The district court may, by order, on such terms and conditions as seem just and proper, in respect to rental and renewals, authorize such a trustee to lease such real property for a term exceeding five years, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that it is for the best interest of the trust estate, and may authorize such trustee to covenant in the lease to pay at the end of the term, or renewal term, to the lessee the then fair and reasonable value of any building which may have been erected on the premises during such term.

Subd. 5. Protection of ward. The district court shall not grant an order to mortgage or sell such real property or lease the same for a term exceeding five years, unless it appears to the satisfaction of such court that a written notice, stating the time and place of the application therefor, and the object thereof, has been served upon the beneficiary of such trust and every other person in being having an estate vested or contingent in reversion or remainder in the real property at least eight days before the making thereof, if such beneficiary or other person is an adult within the state, or if a minor, lunatic, person of unsound mind, habitual drunkard, or absentee, until proof of the service, on such beneficiary or other person, of such notice as the court or a judge thereof prescribes. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for any minor and for any lunatic, person of unsound mind, or habitual drunkard who shall not be represented by a committee or guardian duly appointed.

Subd. 6. Petition contents; publication. The application must be by petition duly verified, which shall set forth the condition of the trust estate and the particular facts which make it necessary or proper that the application be granted. Such petition shall contain a description of the estate to be sold, mortgaged, or leased, a clear statement of the interest of the petitioner therein, and a copy of the will, deed, or other instrument in writing by which the estate is created; all persons in being who are interested in the estate, or who may, by the terms of the will, deed or other instrument creating the estate, thereafter become interested therein as heir, reversioner, or otherwise shall be made parties to the petition; and if the names of any persons who ought to be made parties are unknown to the petitioner, or if the residence of any such person is unknown to the petitioner, the facts shall be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner, then such notice shall be served upon such unknown persons whose residence is unknown, by publication for six successive weeks, once in each week in some newspaper published in the county in which the property is held in trust.

Subd. 7. Final order; bond. After taking proof of the facts, either before the court or a referee, and hearing the parties and fully examining into the matter, the court must make a final order upon the application. In case the application is granted the final order must authorize the real property affected by the trust or some portion thereof, to be mortgaged, sold, or leased upon such terms and conditions as the court may prescribe. In case a mortgage or sale of any portion of such real property is authorized, the final order must direct the disposition of the proceeds of such mortgage or sale and must require the trustee to give bond in such amount and with such sureties as the court directs, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his trust and for the due accounting for all moneys received by him pursuant to the order. If the trustee elects not to give such bond, the final order must require the proceeds of such mortgage or sale to be paid into court to be disposed of or invested as the court shall specially direct. Before a mortgage, sale, or lease can be made pursuant to the final order, the trustee must enter into an agreement therefor, subject to the approval of the court and report the agreement to the court under oath. Upon the confirmation thereof, by order of the court he must execute, as directed by the court, a mortgage, deed, or lease.

Subd. 8. Validity. A mortgage, deed, or lease made pursuant to a final order granted as provided in this section and sections 501.20 and 501.21 shall be valid and effectual against all minors, lunatics, persons of unsound mind, habitual drunkards, and persons not in being interested in the trust or having estates vested or contingent in reversion or remainder in the real property and against all other persons so interested or having such estates who shall consent to such order, or who, having been made parties to such proceeding as herein provided, shall not appear therein and object to the granting of such order.

Subd. 9. Voluntary consent. All parties in interest may appear voluntarily and consent in writing to such sale, mortgaging, or leasing of such real property; and testamentary guardians and guardians appointed by the probate court, may assent thereto in the place of their wards.

Subd. 10. Rights of purchaser. A person who shall actually and in good faith pay a sum of money to a trustee, which the trustee is authorized to receive, shall not be responsible for the proper application of the money, according to the trust; and any right or title derived by him from the trustee in consideration of the payment shall not be impeached or called in question in consequence of a misapplication by the trustee of the money paid.
